Go to Confession
before Sunday.

The Man Who Is Afraid Of God.

"The very thing that constitutes the happiness of the just Christian causes the unhappiness of the sinner. To a sinner who will not forsake his vices

The presence of God is a torture
He shuns the thought that God sees him
He hides himself and his evil deeds
He flees the light of day
He buries himself in darkness
He is suspicious of everything
THE SIGHT OF A PRIEST AROUSES HIS DISTRUST
He fears and avoids it, and when after he reflects that his soul is immortal, that there is a God to either reward or punish his deeds, then his thought tortures him, IT GNAWS AT HIM UNCEASINGLY.

"Sad indeed is the life of a sinner who lives on in his sin! It is in vain that you strive to hide yourself from God's presence. You can never do it."
(The Cure of Ars)

The Other Picture.

"Come my children," says the holy King David, "I have something important to reveal to you: come and I will tell you how good the Lord is to those that love Him. He has prepared a heavenly repast for His children, which bears fruit for this life. In every place we find our God:

If we enter heaven, He is there
If we traverse the ocean, He is by our side
If we go down into the depths of the sea, He accompanies us."

It Is Time To Make A Choice.

"HE WHO IS NOT WITH ME IS AGAINST ME. HE WHO DOES NOT GATHER WITH ME SCATTERS"
These are the words of Jesus Christ (Matt. 12:30). Have you made your choice?

Save 15¢ For Monday Night.

You have the good fortune of enjoying freedom. Other students, have not been so blessed. There are students in prison camps, there are students who have been caught in the war-torn countries, and can't return home. These fellow-students need your help. Save fifteen cents from your week end money and give it to the War Emergency and Relief Fund Collection which will be taken up by representatives of the Student Activity Council and the N.D. Federation of Catholic Activities on Monday evening. Lent . . . Almsgiving . . . A very good cause . . . Here's your chance.

A Preview of Sunday's Epistle.

"But immorality and every uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becomes saints; or obscenity or foolish talk or scurrilous, which are out of place; but rather thanksgiving." (St. Paul)

A Thought For Service Men.

It was a soldier who said: "O lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof", the words used at Communion time. Every soldier needs humility. Make these words your own.
