How To Be A Failure.

1. Don't have a regular schedule of study. The student who does not determine specific study hours for himself and hold to them is headed for a pink slip and a flunk. Avoid this danger by making a schedule for yourself. Study Schedule blanks can be picked up at Dillon Hall pamphlet rack. The Prefect of Religion will help you chart your day, if you need assistance.

2. Live in sin. A stroke of genius may startle the world, but it will mean nothing to God, if the soul of the man is not in the state of grace. Mortal sin ruins everything.

Joe Louis, Suicide and Booze.

The lights went out for Tami Mauriello in two minutes and nine seconds last Wednesday night. Once again the public is convinced that it's short of suicide to mix gloves with Joe.

Some college boys step into the ring with an opponent they can't handle, namely Joe Liquor. The lights go out, or almost go out for them, over the weekends. There is only one answer for the person who is easily floored by intoxicants -- abstinence, at least in part. A resolution put in writing and signed will help correct the evil; a pledge we call it.

There are pledge cards in the Dillon pamphlet rack. A card can be signed in the presence of a priest, or privately. A private pledge should be taken in the chapel before Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The pledge card is so arranged that the original can be kept as a reminder in one's wallet. The duplicate can be left with the Prefect of Religion.

Our Blessed Lord says very plainly that the drunkard will not enter the kingdom of Heaven. Booze and courtship, booze and study, booze and business don't mix. If liquor is grabbing a hold on you, start NOW to develop self-control.

Prayer Requests.

It has been estimated that over 25,000 people read the Religion Bulletin. There are over 5,000 addresses to which it is mailed. Many of these readers never fail to say a short prayer for the intentions mentioned in the Bulletin. All you need to do to obtain a share in these prayers is to leave your request with the Prefect of Religion. If he is not in his office when you call, write out the request and slip it under his door. Be sure to indicate whether the party to be prayed for is deceased or ill.

PRAYERS: (111) Lawrence, '21 and Harold '21 Cleary, uncles of Jerry Cleary (Cav); mother of Msr. Eric MacKenzie.

THE SECOND MISSION BEGINS SUNDAY NIGHT AT 7:00 O'CLOCK. THE MEN IN ALUMNI, DILLON, BADIN, HOWARD, MORRISSEY, LYONS, ARE TO ATTEND, ALONG WITH THE OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS AND ALL THOSE WHO DID NOT MAKE THE FIRST MISSION.
