SATURDAY MARY'S DAY
HONOR HER BY MASS

ALL UP
FOR THE
TEAM SATURDAY
MORNING

Are You Guilty?

Up the aisle he softly stole,
Disdaining that strange sect
Whose members stand guard at the rear
While waiting to effect
A hasty exit at those words
They love above the rest,
And which they take too literally,
The "Ite, Missa est."

He was a man of sterner stuff
Whose footsteps did not falter
Until he stopped beside our pew
And knee-dipped to the altar.
We moved to make room on the end,
For which he gravely thanked us:
Then down he knelt and bowed his head,
To wake up at the Sanctus!

The Mass continued. We forgot
About him for awhile,
But at the Gospel of St. John
He stepped into the aisle.
"Et verbum caro factum est,"
He bent his knee, then flew;
Thereby one genuflection did
The work that's meant for two.

ENVOI

Hereafter there must surely be
Some purgatory correction
For those who skimp our dear St. John
To save a genuflection.
(By C. F. Hilleary in Ave Maria)

Chaplain Dies

At one-thirty yesterday morning, Father Henry Heintskill, C.S.C., died in the Students' Infirmary. Only a month ago he received his discharge from the Navy Chaplains' Corps. A recent medical check-up uncovered a malignancy which rapidly caused his death.

The six years of his priesthood were most fruitful ones. After obtaining an advanced degree he was assigned to the teaching staff of Holy Cross Seminary. In 1943 he entered the Service and served on the "Tulagi". Father saw action at Luzon, Iwo Jima, Okinawa and in the Philippines. He will be buried Saturday morning from the Sacred Heart Church. Include him in your intentions Saturday at your Hall Mass.

The Holy Cross Community has lost three priests within a month, Father Hart, Father Degroote and Father Heintskill. Others are needed to fill their places. Could God be calling you to the priesthood? If you feel drawn to do Christ's work, talk over the matter with some priest on the campus.

PRAYERS: (Ill) grandmother of Morgar and Warren Cartier (Al); brother of Dan Barlow (Morr). Two Special Intentions. One Thanksgiving.
