Lenten Dispensation.

All students are dispensed from the law of fasting during Lent.

Abstinence (no meat) must be kept on Ash Wednesday, the forenoon Holy Saturday, and on all Fridays. On all other days meat may be taken three times a day, even on Ember Days.

Others that share in this dispensation are the wives of students, professors and their families, and employees and their families.

The dispensation carries with it the privilege of eating food on or off the campus.

No Penance, No Dispensation For You.

The Bishop makes it very clear that he does not grant the above dispensation unless the privileged persons work seriously at their studies or other duties, and they must substitute "other forms of penitential works, such as attendance at public Lenten devotions or weekday Mass and the practice of voluntary self-denial of some sort, such as abstention from alcoholic beverages or too worldly amusements."
