

Responses to Questionnaire.
(By 1946 Retreatants)

Q: What was your impression of the retreat? Was it a success?

"The informality and frankness of the priests and the understanding of our problems has impressed me the most. To me it was a complete success."

"I think it was a real success. It wasn't boring or dragged out, and you could at all times keep very interested. The speakers were very interesting and instructive."

"I feel that the retreat has helped me in an indescribable way. I couldn't have spent a more fruitful week-end. Definitely, this retreat shall be great in helping those of us who have made it to see more tangibly our goal."

"Really a great success. The inspiration received and the hope that was given were more than gratifying. Both Fathers thanked us for coming. We are the ones who should and do offer the thanks."

Q: What part of the retreat did you like best?

"I liked the conference and the Grotto service best. I, as well as others, I'm sure never found confession so pleasant. I felt nearer to God than ever before."

"The two heart-to-heart talks given by the two priests. I can sincerely say that the words of Christ Father quoted impressed me and I'll never forget 'What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, etc.'"

"Informal discussions of the conferences. Ig gave everyone a chance to ask a question in his mind."

Q: Do you have any suggestions for improvement of retreats in the future?

"Have a question box and before the end of the retreat, a discussion of questions offered at the beginning."

"Yes. Have more of them...and for all the men. How about every semester for new students?"

(Retreats have been planned for the Notre Dame campus. The first retreat will be held in Morrissey Hall Chapel, February 28 and 29 for the men on the far west side of the campus. Hall representatives will contact those interested. If you are missed, see the Prefect of Religion for details.)
