WEEK END CHECK-UP

PRAYERS REQUESTED

✓ During the week more than fifty requests for prayers for the deceased and ill and for special intentions have appeared in various bulletins. What's your score?

FOR THE TEAM TOMORROW

✓ Mass and Holy Communion. Jack Miles ('47), in an iron lung down at St. Joseph's Hospital is offering up his suffering tomorrow for the gang out in Washington.
We can't go wrong either by getting up a wee bit earlier tomorrow for the team.

SUNDAY MASSES

✓ Remember the hours: 6:00, 7:00, 8:00, 9:00, 10:10, and 11:10. If you don't have an alarm clock have your room-mate poke you in the ribs a half hour before Mass begins. Don't forget the new TIME...midnight is the dead line for eating or drinking on Saturday night, if you receive on Sunday. The Sermon Topic this Sunday: MENTAL AND VOCAL PRAYER. Father Soleta at 7:00 and 9:00: Father Bailey at 8:00, 10:10 and 11:10. The 9:00 and 11:10 are High Masses.

SUNDAY BENEDICTION

✓ The Blessed Sacrament is exposed at 6:30 P.M. You don't have to wait until the bell rings for Benediction at 6:50, you know, to drop in on Christ!!

WRITE HOME

✓ There will come a time in your lives when you will wish you had written to your mother and dad more often. It just takes a few minutes to sit down and let them know you are thinking of them and appreciate their thinking of you.

TAKE RECREATION

✓ There are theological reasons for calling Sunday a Day of Rest as well as the Lord's Day. The relaxation and rest and recreation on Sunday are definitely allied to the final end of man. We need and are entitled to a change after the grind and strain of a busy week of class and study. By wholesome recreation we prepare ourselves for another week in God's service. So by all means have a good time over the week end, with emphasis on the GOOD!

CONFESSION FACILITIES

✓ There is a Confessor in the basement chapel every night except Sunday from 6:30 till 7:30. Confessions every night in Dillon and Cavanaugh Chapels from 7:30 on.

ROSARY DEVOTIONS

✓ Beginning Monday morning at 8:00 there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament daily until 5:00 at which time Rosary Devotions are conducted. There are 48 half hours in the day. No one will over do it if he gives one of these 30 minute periods to Christ in adoration---besides of course the ten minutes for the Public Rosary devotions before supper.

CONFIRMATION

✓ Anyone not yet Confirmed please report to office of Either Prefect of Religion (Dillon or Cavanaugh) at 9:00 P.M. Monday.
