Holy Week Reminder

Although vacation begins tomorrow, the rest of the week is Lent -- the most solemn part of Lent -- and the Lenten regulations remain in force until Saturday noon. When you leave the campus, you also leave behind you the dispensations enjoyed here. Hence, you must begin to observe the regulations of your dioceses. Ask your good mothers what the particular regulations are; they're never too busy to learn and to observe the laws of God and of the Church.

Holy Week Services -- Sacred Heart Church

Masses: Holy Thursday 7:00 a.m.
Good Friday 8:00 a.m.
Holy Saturday 7:30 a.m. (Services begin at 6:00 a.m. with Blessings, Prophecies, etc.)

Other Services:

Tenebrae: Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at 7:30 p.m.

Way of the Cross: Friday at 3:00 p.m., followed by Benediction with the relic of the True Cross.

Nocturnal Adoration: Watch is kept before the Blessed Sacrament from after the Mass on Holy Thursday until services on Good Friday.

Holy Thursday Mass for employees: at 7:15 a.m. in Dillon Hall Chapel. Permission has been granted for this special Mass to accommodate those who have to be at work by 8:00 a.m. Holy Communion will be distributed only during Mass -- as set down by the rubrics. Confessions will be heard before Mass.

Hall Chapels Will Be Closed

The rubrics do not permit the use of the hall chapels during the last three days of Holy Week. The only exception is the Mass on Thursday in Dillon. Hence, go to Sacred Heart Church for all services on Friday and Saturday. And remember: Holy Communion is distributed only at Mass on Thursday and Friday. On Good Friday, only the dying may receive.

Easter Sunday Masses

There are no student Masses properly speaking. But students who remain on campus are expected to attend one of the parish Masses -- at 5,6,8,9,10,11, (every hour on the hour except at 7). Confessions will be heard during the Masses.

During Easter Week

There will be the usual Mass for employees in Dillon chapel at 7:15. But the usual Confessions and Communion facilities will be discontinued until the resumption of classes on Monday, April 26.

Have A Blessed Easter!

It will be good to get home for Easter. Relax and have a pleasant time with the family. Let them see a lot of you. And it would be edifying to all at home, and to Our Lady, if you attended services in your parish church during the next four days. We're still in Lent, you know! And if you didn't get to confession during the hall retreats, tonight's the next best time. You really can't afford to be without that Life Insurance that comes with Absolution! It's yours for the asking.
