"I've Never Had It So Easy"

"Honestly, it's a lead-pipe cinch! And, mind you, I don't have to turn a gear. I'm practically out of a job!

"All I do is throw two or three of these 'arty' magazines into a residence hall. And always I can find a few goofs to lap them up -- even pass them around. Never before had anyone do the job so thoroughly for me.

"Give me a little time, and I can turn one of these 'university minds' into a highly developed moron. They're push-overs for a lot of this cheap, filthy pulp stuff. Fellows I can't touch otherwise are easy pickings for me here.

"Of course, it's a terrible and fearful indictment of the minds that God gave them -- and of the atmosphere in which He placed them -- the exact opposite of everything that Notre Dame stands for, I know. Someday, they will have to give an account of the precious hours they wasted on this trash. And they'll have to account for the bad example, and the scandal. Oh, that will be a terrible day of accounting to God, I know. They'll literally 'catch Hell', I know. But I like it that way!

"And I'll have to admit that this is an excellent example of how really stupid one can be, even at a university. But I get by with murder. Sometimes, I even move into a classroom, among "literary lights" with virtually the same junk. I label it realism and they fall for it. It's amazing how often sheer filth becomes a best-seller. Occasionally I even get it listed among the "required readings" of some courses. I know it's hard to believe, but I do!

"You'd never believe I could do so well here -- that I could crack this veritable citadel of the Mother of God, Notre Dame! But give me a little help, especially some of the Notre Dame crowd. Boy, can they do a job for me!

"Oh, but this is a great way to get a day's work done with a minimum of effort, I find. Honestly, I never had it so good before! Hope they don't find out this is Advent and make things tough for me -- as I know they can!"
