CHRISTMAS GREETINGS and best wishes for a happy New Year

Christmas Greetings To

Good Pope John, who seems to foresee all the needs of his flock.

And Christmas Greetings to Chicagoans all, who have a Prince of the Church as shepherd once more.

And to our own good shepherd +Leo.

Christmas Greetings to Cardinal

O'Hara; may his health improve, and the health of all who are ill.

Greetings to Holy Cross priests and brothers everywhere.

Christmas Greetings to Notre Dame alumni around the world.

Christmas Greetings to faculty members and their families; to student priests and nuns.

To students packing suit-cases from Farley to Pangborn and from Lyons to Alumni;

To Fathers Doremus, Barry, Lochner, and O'Neil who have absolved unceasingly.

Christmas Greetings and some Christmas peace to all the rectors and prefects.

Christmas Greetings to Brothers Boniface, James, and Louis, and thanks for their Christmas star.

Christmas Greetings to Mary, Joseph, and the Child in the manger scene in front of Walsh.

To Brother Conan behind his bargain counter;

And, Christmas Greetings to Brother Marcellinus and Post Office employees everywhere.

Christmas Greetings to Ziggy. May his popularity increase.

Christmas Greetings to Julie: God bless her for being Julie.

And to the Doctors and Sisters at the Infirmary: Greetings, Thanks!

Christmas Greetings to Jo who is "sitting on top of the world". And to Esther and Del and the Brothers who get out the Bulletin. Christmas Greetings to the feminine platoons who, through the Fall, assaulted this most fortified of masculine strongholds.

To the cabbies and all who have kept us mobile during the past thirty-four days.

Christmas Greetings to the TV-centered: to the American Bandstand fans.

To St. Louisans, Detroiters, and Texans with long clean-jawed faces like a U.S. Marshal, Channel 16.

To the composers of Christmas carols "The Sound of Music", and "The Village of St. Bernadette".

Christmas Greetings, lots of them, to the maids who clean the rooms, thoroughly during the holidays and patiently always. To Walt, and Mary, and Jean.

Christmas Greetings to all who lock their doors, and those who don't--to their regret.

Christmas Greetings to the students who deliver the Bulletin today, for the last time before the holidays.

Christmas Greetings to all converts. For all men of Good Will we pray when we say:

May the Peace of Christ,
Which Surpasses All Understanding,
Be in Your Minds and Hearts.
