

RELIGIOUS BULLETIN

Vol. XXXIX, No. 47

Friday, February 12, 1960

Notre Dame, Ind.

News Section

● ALL WHO MAY BE INTERESTED in membership in a new Marian organization that has been established on campus are invited to attend an introductory meeting on Sunday evening, February 14, in Room 1-E of the Student Center at 8:00 P.M. This organization has as its purpose to help the members deepen their spiritual and intellectual lives.

● THE NOVENA IN HONOR OF OUR SORROWFUL MOTHER will be conducted as usual this evening in Sacred Heart Church, at 6:45 P.M. Confessions afterwards.

● THE THIRD ORDER OF ST. FRANCIS is still accepting members until tomorrow. Stop by 223 Fisher tonight, if you want particulars.

● THE 11:00 O'CLOCK MASS on Sunday will be offered for the father of Jack Marhoefer of Alumni.

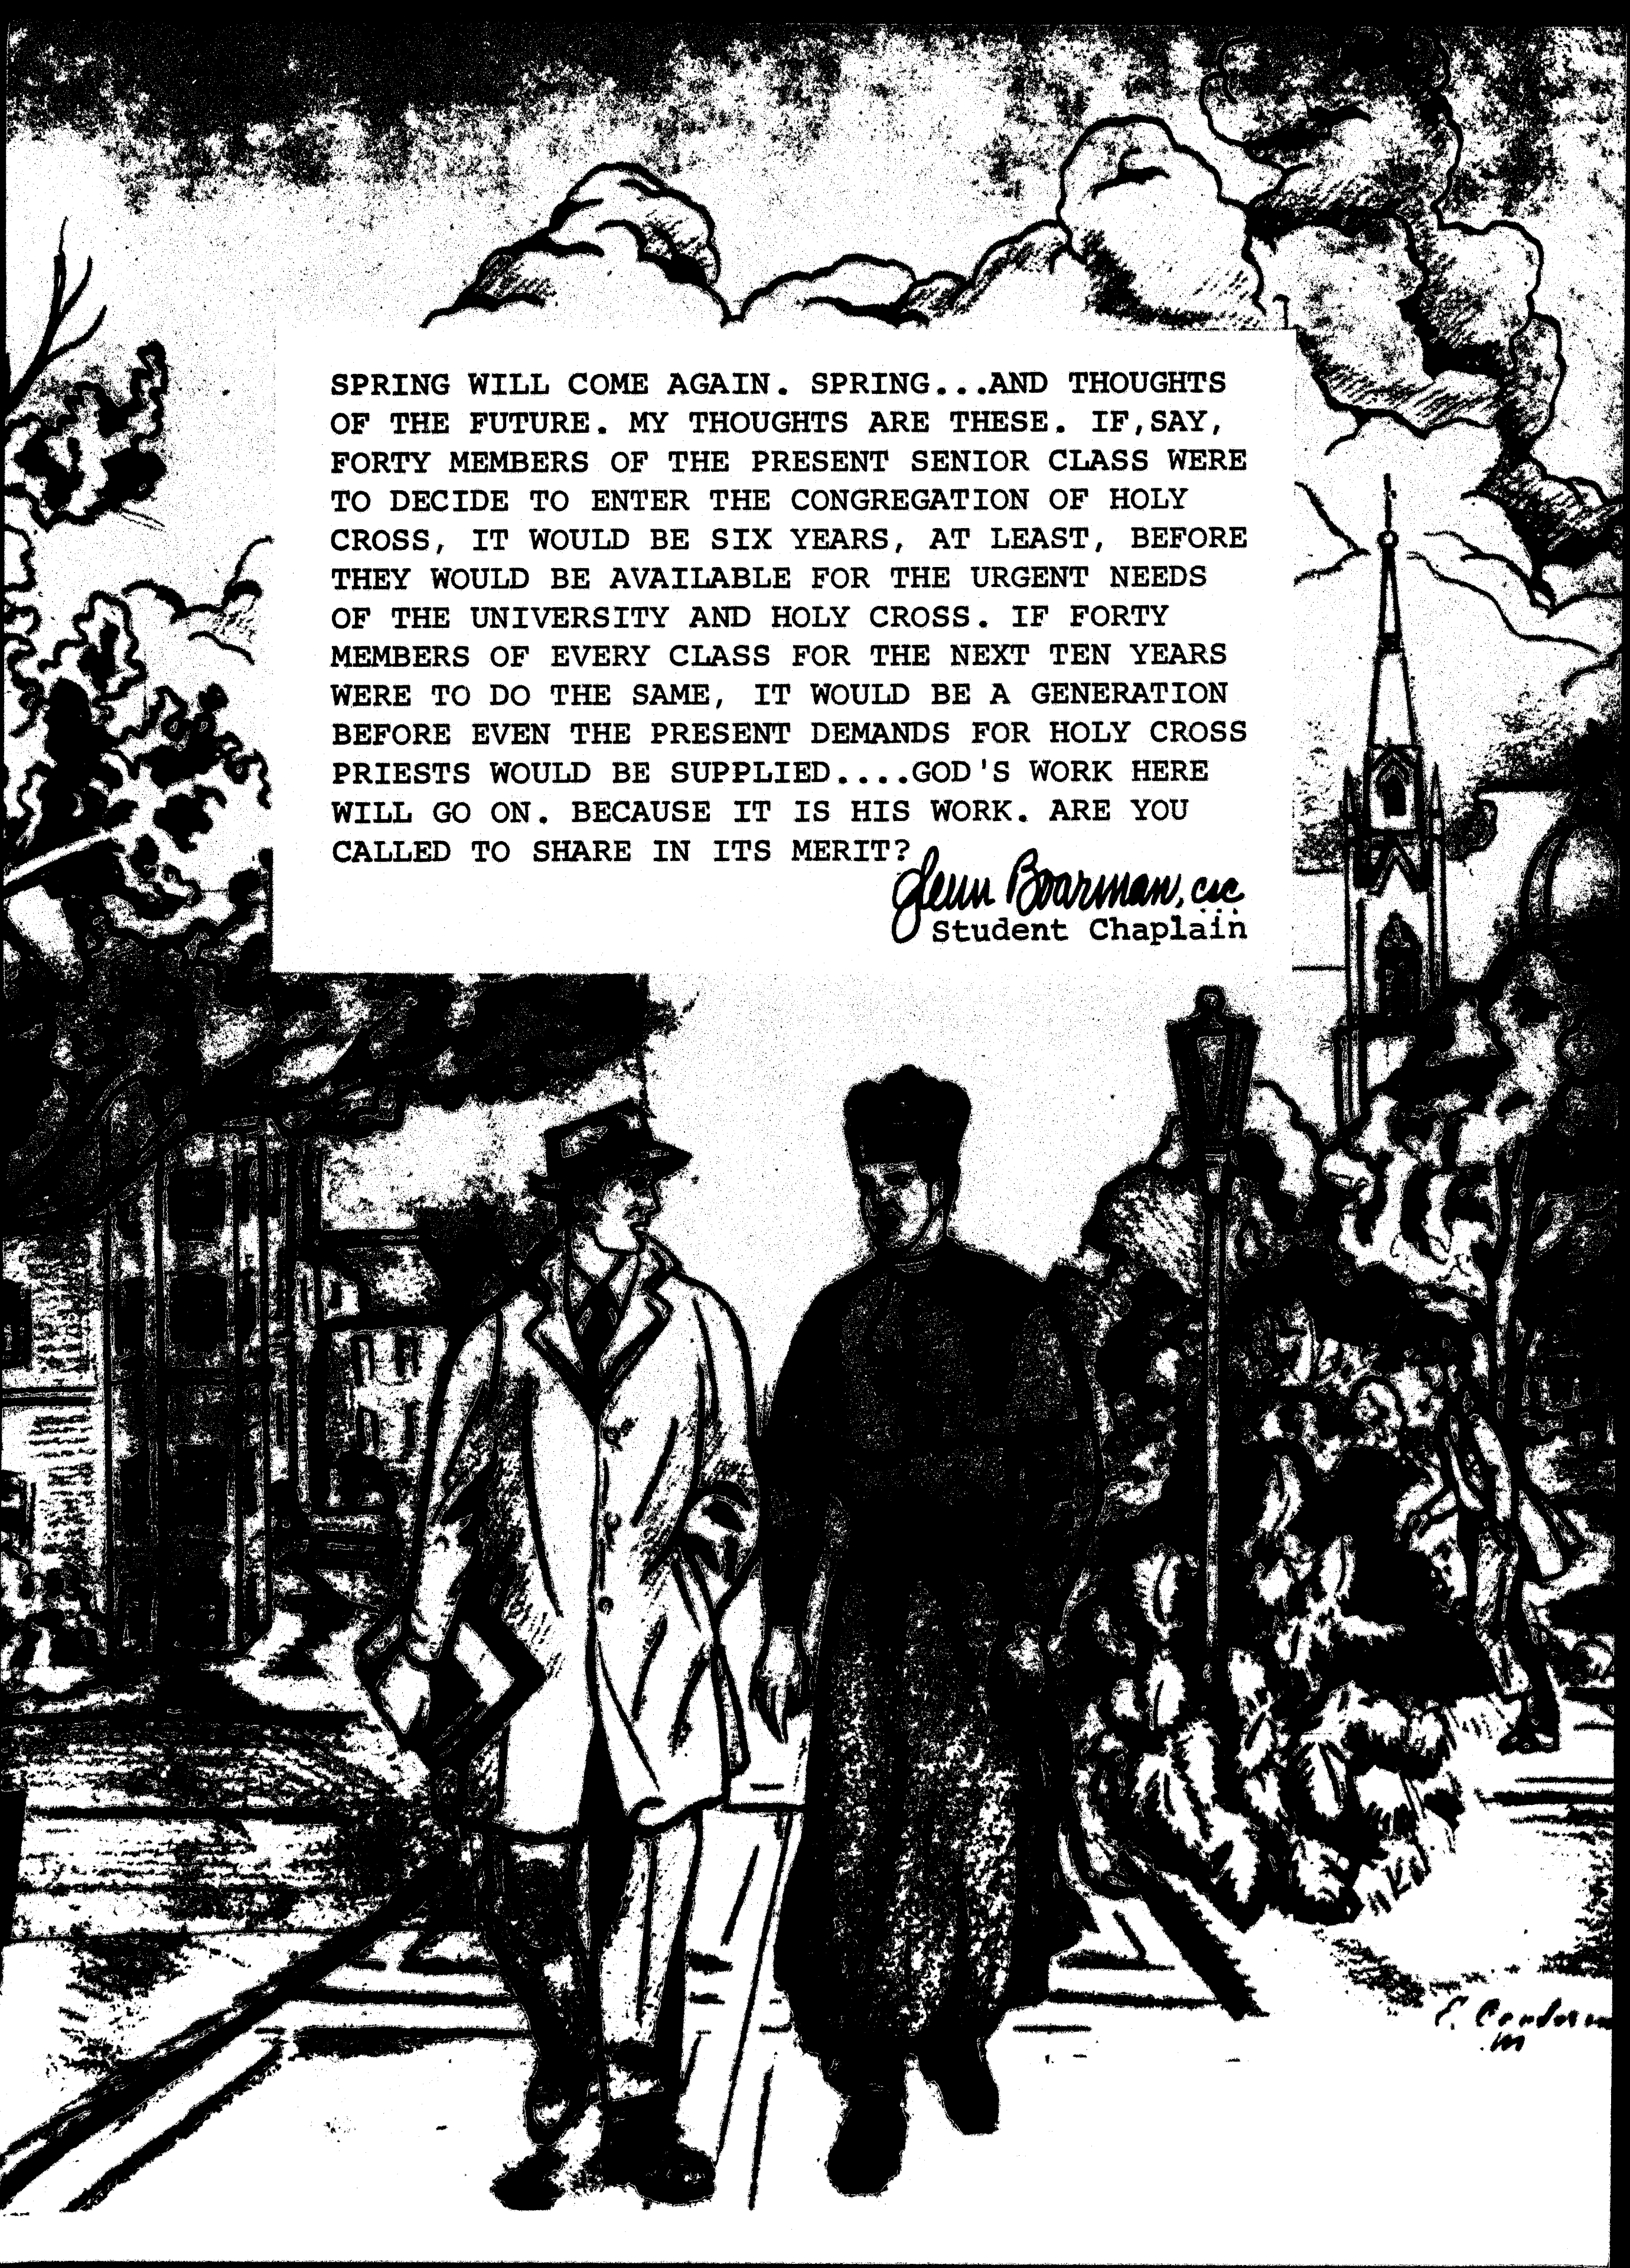

● MARDI GRAS TICKET SALES. Are they up to former years? What effort have you made to sell yours?

● ONCE AGAIN, A REMINDER of the Mass on Monday evening, a Mass in the Byzantine Rite. The monks of St. Procopius Abbey will celebrate and sing the Mass. Holy Communion will be distributed under both species.

● PRAYERS. Deceased: Cardinal Aloysius Stepinac; father of John Edwards, '59; Daniel Powers; friend of John Bechtold of Keenan; friend of Bryson Field of Pangborn. Ill: Stanley J. Maziar; brother of Joe Fehlig of Morrissey. Two special intentions.

LOVE has many meanings. Parents find it in the music of a child's laughter, and the infinite trust of a child's hand. This is a love of both memory and discovery, for it begins in the days of childhood. The whole world changes at love's awakening and leads, as youth ripens into adulthood, to the perfect understanding of two people who have found a new perspective, not in themselves, but in all that they may some day bring to one another. A world without love is a world without laughter. And in the vibrant days of youth are born the confidence and strength that will be theirs as they cross the threshold of tomorrow. LOVE tunes two lives to one another and transforms each perfect day into a precious memory. Such love as this is not easily attained. It must be nurtured in the intimate relationships of life, drawing on the deep wells of character and truth. It can be gained only by giving, for love is the spark of life itself, the vanquisher of time. LOVE transcends all barriers of age, and in life's twilight hour brings the rich fulfillment of youthful dreams. And in the days to come, its spell will linger in the heart. Yet, of all love, none is greater than the love of God. As long as faith and deep spiritual values guide our lives, this miraculous emotion can never lose its inward glow and deep significance. And as each new generation grows toward maturity, its hopes and dreams will draw upon the eternal sources of love.

SPRING WILL COME AGAIN. SPRING...AND THOUGHTS OF THE FUTURE. MY THOUGHTS ARE THESE. IF, SAY, FORTY MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT SENIOR CLASS WERE TO DECIDE TO ENTER THE CONGREGATION OF HOLY CROSS, IT WOULD BE SIX YEARS, AT LEAST, BEFORE THEY WOULD BE AVAILABLE FOR THE URGENT NEEDS OF THE UNIVERSITY AND HOLY CROSS. IF FORTY MEMBERS OF EVERY CLASS FOR THE NEXT TEN YEARS WERE TO DO THE SAME, IT WOULD BE A GENERATION BEFORE EVEN THE PRESENT DEMANDS FOR HOLY CROSS PRIESTS WOULD BE SUPPLIED....GOD'S WORK HERE WILL GO ON. BECAUSE IT IS HIS WORK. ARE YOU CALLED TO SHARE IN ITS MERIT?

Gene Boorman, csc
Student Chaplain

C. Condor
100