Notre Dame, Ind.

To be a Priest is to bring God to the world.
Because your heart is the heart of God.

To be a Priest is to bring God to the world.
Because your hands are the hands of Christ.
Blessing all they touch.

Pouring in Baptism the living water of grace.

Feeding the hungry on the Bread of Life.

Anointing the suffering sick

With the oil of strength and gladness.

Old or young, sick or well, poor or rich,

It does not matter.

You are everyone's Father.

THIS MORNING

This morning, many of you lined the walks as the procession of clergy moved into the church for the ceremonies of consecrating a new bishop. The consecrating prelate was the very popular Cardinal Archbishop of Boston, who in a few days will celebrate the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. A veteran missionary was the priest who was raised to the episcopacy. The Most Reverend Vincent J. McCauley, C.S.C. is the second priest to be consecrated a bishop in Sacred Heart Church during the present school year. He becomes the first bishop of the Diocese of Fort Portal in Uganda. On an occasion such as this, the thought uppermost in the minds of many bishops and priests is the need for priests not only in missionary countries but in our own as well. So, no doubt, in the minds of many there this morning there was a prayer for those of you who are thinking about your vocation--possibly a vocation to the priesthood.

MOST REV. VINCENT J. McCAULEY.

Prayer to
St. Joseph Cupertino

O great St. Joseph Cupertino, who whilst on earth obtained from God the favor of being asked in your examinations only the questions you knew, obtain for me a like favor in this examination for which I am now preparing. In return for so great a favor, I promise to make you known and cause you to be invoked.

St. Joseph Cupertino,
Pray for me!
