TOMORROW

To accomodate those Juniors who will be attending the President's Dinner tomorrow evening, when they usually go to confession, confessions will be heard in the Church tomorrow afternoon between 4:00 and 6:00 P.M. This will be in addition to the usual Saturday evening schedule which will also be in effect--Confessions from 6:00 until 8:30.

TONIGHT

To all the participants in the Bengal Bouts, a word of appreciation is in order. Those who will go on to be named champs this evening will receive the applause of the crowd, and a trophy for the bookshelf. While the rest will miss this, yet, they have the satisfaction of knowing that their training and discipline enabled them for one, two, or three nights to participate in a show that afforded entertainment for the student body, and funds to help less fortunate youngsters enjoy a little more than just a daily handful of rice.

NEXT WEEK

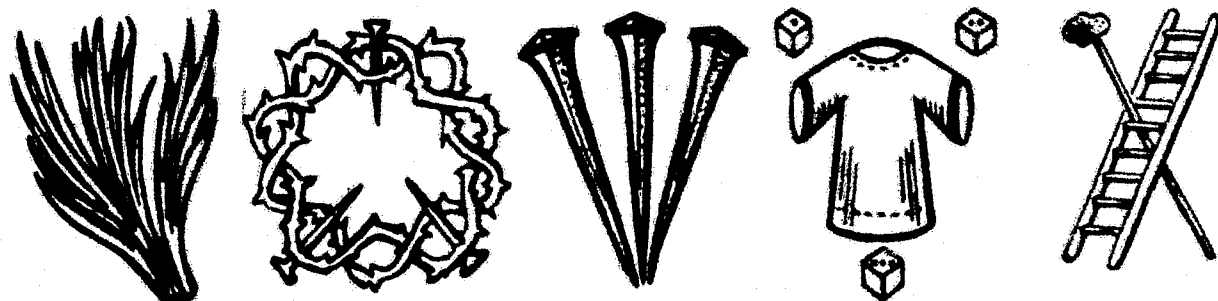

Next week-end, March 30-April 1st, there will be another retreat at Moreau Seminary. This one is intended for upperclassmen. There is still room for a dozen more. (Because of the limited accomodations at the Trappist Abbey of Gethsemane, only fifteen will be able to make a retreat there before Easter.) So those who've been planning to make a retreat before the end of Lent should make arrangements now. The cost of the week-end retreat at Moreau Seminary is $5. Reservations may be made by sending $2 alongwith your name and address to: Retreat Reservations, P.O. Box 124, Local. All reservations should be in by Wednesday, March 28th.

SUNDAY MORNING

The 8:00 and 9:00 o'clock Masses in Sacred Heart Church on Sunday morning will have sections reserved for the Juniors and their parents. Others, therefore, should plan to attend one of the Masses before or after these two. The 8:00 o'clock Mass will have this added feature: the Glee Club will sing.

FR. SCHOENFELDT

Some have been asking for the address of Father Schoenfeldt. Father is recuperating and may be contacted by writing: Rev. Arthur Schoenfeldt, C.S.C., 114 Sansom Street, San Francisco, California.
