FORMULA FOR VICTORY

The team needs your prayers tomorrow morning -- Mass, Holy Communion, a visit to the Grotto before the game. No team is unbeatable, not even Michigan State. Stanford proved that two weeks ago. On a visit to the campus Wednesday, Harry Stuhldreher, one of Rockne's Four Horsemen, said the Notre Dame team has what it takes. Prayers come in in giving the team confidence, in helping the men on the field think straight, act quick, and make the most of the breaks.

Maybe our prayers for victory the past two weeks haven't been answered because the student body can't take victory. Granted the unfavorable publicity last week may have been exaggerated in the local press, there probably was activity and diversion inconsistent with what a Notre Dame gentleman ought to be. And who knows what might have happened had we won!

So pray for yourselves as well as for the team. Pray to be worthy of victory. Promise to be a gentleman in victory.

Weekend

Saturday Masses: For your convenience and that of your football weekend guests, there will be three Masses in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday morning -- at 9:30, 10:30 and 11:30.

Sophomores: Have a ball at the Cotillion, but remember there's a Communion breakfast after the 9:00 Mass on Sunday.

Plea to Late Risers: Try to attend the 7:00 or 8:00 Mass on Sunday. Leave the seats at the later Masses for the Cotillion guests and football weekend visitors.

K of C Activities: 1) Corporate Communion at the 9:00 Mass on Sunday.
(Degree candidates must attend all functions.) 2) Living Rosary at the Grotto at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. Assemble at the Morris Inn at 1:45.
3) First degree initiation at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, October 22 in the Council Chambers of Walsh Hall.

In Your Charity

Please pray for the following. Deceased: brother of Robert Cailo, graduate student; grandfather of William Harrigan of Cavanaugh; grandfather of Bob Kelley of Dillon; aunt of Stan Antongiovanni of Dillon; friend of Larry Nelson of Dillon. Ill: Danny Roberto of Stanford; Jerry Tubinis of Morrissey; grandmother of Bob Hellrung of Badin; sister of Joe Herbst, Off-Campus. Correction: Guy (Red) Mackey of Purdue suffered a heart attack but is still very much alive. He does, however, need prayers for recovery.

HOLY CROSS ON THE MISSIONS

Billy Graham will speak here Sunday -- Father William Graham, C.S.C., that is. He is the principal of Notre Dame College in Dacca, East Pakistan, and he will preach on the Holy Cross missions in East Pakistan and Uganda, East Africa, at all the Masses in Sacred Heart Church.

Father Robert Askins, another former missionary in East Pakistan, now living in Dillon Hall, will deliver the mission sermons in Stanford-Keenan Chapel.

The collection this Sunday will go to the support of the Holy Cross missions. Sophomores, impress your Cotillion lady fair by being a big spender when the collection basket comes by. All the rest, make your contribution a sacrifice so that you will have the satisfaction of knowing you are doing a little something -- but not too little -- to help spread the Kingdom of God here on earth.
