

The Archives
of
The University of Notre Dame

607 Hesburgh Library
Notre Dame, IN 46556
574-631-6448

archives@nd.edu

Notre Dame Archives: Alumnus

COMMENT

As announced in the lead story, the ALUMNUS in this issue, out so soon after the Rockne tragedy, will not attempt to include the details of that story.

The public press in this country and throughout the world, have brought to Notre Dame men the facts of the case that are interpreted in the word "news." There have been many feature stories, many poems, and many other journalistic expressions that have paid their tribute to Rock, the most consistent news copy of the last decade.

The ALUMNUS is planning to make the May issue a Memorial issue in which the best of the news stories, the best of the editorials, the best of the cartoons and photographs, the best of the features, the sermon, the telegrams, the letters, and the thousand other beautiful expressions of these tragic hours can be put in the hands of alumni in a form that will enable them to be preserved.

This will take time and effort at a season when time and effort are at a premium. The co-operation of the members is asked in sending in immediately those clippings from the press that stood out in the various cities that our Association includes.

A few suggestions have been made that Universal Notre Night this year be abandoned in memory of Rock. It seems, however, to those officers of the University and the Association whom the Alumni Secretary has consulted, more fitting that we go ahead with our observance

IN THIS ISSUE

Knute K. Rockne.....	Frontispiece
"The Inevitable Hour".....	259
U. N. D. Night, A Map, by Prof. F. X. Ackermann.....	260
Alumni Hall.....	261
James J. Phelan, Laetare Medallist.....	263
Athletics, by Joseph Petritz.....	264
Editorial.....	269
Religious Survey Questionnaire.....	275
The Alumni Clubs.....	277
The Alumni.....	282

The magazine is published monthly during the scholastic year by the Alumni Association of the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana. The subscription price is $2.00 a year; the price of single copies is 25 cents. The annual alumni dues of $5.00 include a year's subscription to THE ALUMNUS. Entered as second-class matter January 1, 1923, at the post office at Notre Dame, Indiana, under the Act of March 3, 1879. All correspondence should be addressed to The Notre Dame Alumnus, Box 81, Notre Dame, Indiana.

MEMBER OF THE AMERICAN ALUMNI COUNCIL
MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC ALUMNI FEDERATION

THE NOTRE DAME ALUMNUS

JAMES E. ARMSTRONG, '25, Editor

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

of the

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Alumni Headquarters, Main Floor Administration Bldg.,
Notre Dame, Indiana

JAMES E. ARMSTRONG, General Secretary

ALUMNI BOARD

REV. JOHN CAVANAUGH, C.S.C., '90	Honorary President
FRANK E. HERING, '98	President
HON. WILLIAM J. GRANFIELD, '13	Vice-President
JAMES E. ARMSTRONG, '25	Secretary
WALTER DUNCAN, '12	Treasurer
GEORGE M. MAYPOLE, '03	Director
M. HARRY MILLER, '10	Director
T. PAUL MCGANNON, '07	Director
JOHN W. EGGMAN, '00	(ex officio) Director of this national Night, but turn its purpose this year to the commemoration of one of the greatest of the sons of Notre Dame.

In honoring him, we honor Her whom he loved and served.

There can be none of the old joyousness. There can be none of the security of triumph that reposed in the knowledge that Rock held the reins.

But everywhere there can be, with all the natural grief and regret, the conviction that Notre Dame and Notre Dame men will join, as never before, in the perpetuation of that fame which Rockne brought to Notre Dame. There can be the "Victory March" more stirring than ever before in the face of a great adversity.

KNUTE KENNETH ROCKNE, '14, (1888-1931)
R. I. P.

THE INEVITABLE HOUR

When Death intercepted the pass that Knute Rockne had resorted to in an effort to run up a score for Life, it raced for a victory against Notre Dame that is difficult to accept in the Notre Dame manner.

The ALUMNUS cannot attempt in this issue, which was already on its way to the press, to digest for alumni the great mass of material that has mirrored one of the nation's greatest griefs, a loss to Notre Dame that is irreparable.

News was flashed to every corner of the world of the death of Knute Rockne, a death as meteoric in its dramatic tragedy as the few years that brought him to a peak of prominence transcending the narrow confines of the sporting world. "Rock" was the idol of neighborhoods and nations.

Praise of Rockne forms a litany that brings a responsive Requiescat from the hearts of the world. Inspirer of youth, maker of men, apostle of sportsmanship — death has removed a character whose influence stretched far beyond his official sphere.

He died as perhaps he would have wished to die, a patron of progress. Knute Rockne was essentially progressive.

Years, few in number — he was only 43 — had brought him more fame than most men's lives can measure.

And death, aside from its religious significance, has brought him life.

Those virtues which Knute Rockne embodied and which he inculcated in those fortunate boys who came within his influence, will erect a monument to him at Notre Dame, permanent, priceless.

"Rock" taught Notre Dame how to lose, as well as how to win. Never has the knowledge been more needed.

Notre Dame and Notre Dame men will not fail, in those lessons he has left.

"Take it on the chin." Notre Dame has always known that. When religious and laymen scraped the hot bricks of the ruins of an older Notre Dame to rebuild immediately, they knew this virtue. It was here when "Rock" came, and he absorbed it and used it at its best.

"Never boast." To "Rock," with all the laurels that were proffered that famous brow, it was always "Notre Dame." And under his guidance the extraordinary success that came to Notre Dame was tempered with this modesty of achievement.

The temptation to go on in the pages of eulogy that could be justly heaped upon him is strong.

Alumni, however, are reading in every printed medium the thousands of tributes that have followed his tragic passing. It is the purpose of the ALUMNUS, in the May issue, to gather the outstanding results of this catastrophe into a Memorial Edition that can bring to alumni those things about Knute Rockne that Notre Dame men want to remember.

THE NOTRE DAME ALUMNUS

Volume IX.

APRIL, 1931

No. 8

"Alumni Hall" Is The Name of New Dormitory

Realization of Former Plans for Old Students Building on Campus Announced;
"Dillon Hall" Second Selection

Alumni of Notre Dame, particularly those active before 1923 in the interests of the Old Students Hall Fund, will be especially interested in the announcement by the University that the new residence hall at the corner of Notre Dame Avenue and the Dorr Road drive will be called Alumni Hall.

The University has decided upon this recognition of the loyalty and interest of alumni for several reasons. First, at the time of the school's building and endowment drive in 1922, the Association turned over to the campaign the sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) which enabled the University to complete the arrangements upon which the gift of the General Education Board was conditional.

At the time this gift was made the following resolution by William A. McInerny, '01, was offered and unanimously approved:

"Be it resolved by the Notre Dame Alumni Association that all moneys and securities in the Old Students' Building Fund as well as all unpaid pledges to the same be turned over to the University of Notre Dame in use in its Endowment or Building Fund as suggested in the communication of Rev. Father Burns, C.S.C., President of the University. It is understood that by the terms of said letter, the first additional dormitory to be constructed by the University will be known as Old Students' Hall, and shall answer the purpose of the building as planned by this Association."

In the original consideration of the Association of a suitable name for the proposed hall, the following extract is taken from the minutes of the annual meeting of 1915:

"... It was decided to call the building Old Students' Hall or some other appropriate name which would embrace all those who had been students at Notre Dame, since they would wish to make use of the building on their visits to the University."

The term "alumni" has come, in American education, to be general for all matriculates of a college who have been graduated or who have left school permanently for one reason or another. Hence, the new term "Alumni Hall" is not only more euphonious, but equally comprehensive.

Another interesting excerpt from the historical files of the original fund is found in the minutes of the annual meeting in 1917: "A motion was unanimously agreed on that the Old Students' Hall funds be invested in Liberty Bonds." The funds at that time approximated $20,000.

At the next annual meeting, however, the Building Committee reported that $25,000 had been loaned to the University, as a more immediately worthy project, and the meeting ratified the loan and instructed the Treasurer to turn over subsequent funds received, when they aggregated $1,000, to the University, the rate of interest being fixed at 4%. Activity in soliciting was practically suspended during the Government's appeals for funds for the conduct of the war.

In 1920, the Association was on the verge of beginning the erection of the proposed Hall, but because of the unsettled conditions in the building field, no satisfactory contract could be secured, and the building was postponed.

In 1922 the University announced its Building and Endowment and Building campaign, with the resultant sacrifice on the part of the Association for the general University welfare. Through the action of the Association, the University completed the fund which enabled them to secure the General Education Board's conditional gift of $250,000. In addition to the $60,000 in material assets transferred at that time, the Association turned over to the University some $45,000 in unpaid pledges, not, however, an unmitigated blessing.

REVEREND PATRICK DILLON, C.S.C.
Second President of Notre Dame, 1865-66

So ends the story of the rise and

REV. WM. MALONEY, C.S.C.
Former Alumni Secretary

fall of the Alumni Association as a financial power. Individually, alumni contributed to the Building and Endowment Fund when it was launched. And individually, since then, alumni have contributed varying amounts to Notre Dame.

But the Association has resolved itself into more of a mutual, non-profit, organization for the cementing of sound general relationships between Notre Dame and Notre Dame men. The Alumni Office, the Alumni magazine, the Clubs and the Classes, have absorbed the amounts received annually from dues. There has not been, until the institution of the Living Endowment Fund this year, any demand made upon alumni for contributions to the University.

Considering the much smaller number of alumni ten years ago; considering the intervening war period; considering the lack of the contacts between school and alumni that now exist, the success of that Old Students Hall Fund is tribute indeed to the older generation of alumni.

It is primarily this achievement of the "old guard," supplemented by a recognition of a new generation of alumni whose loyalty is as great and whose response to the material needs of Notre Dame will unquestionably be in proportion, that Notre Dame announces "Alumni Hall."

In the original plans of the Association for Old Students Hall, provision was planned for rooms for alumni who might visit Notre Dame during the year. Needless to say, conditions have made the realization of this phase of the plan impossible. In the first place, Notre Dame now needs every possible room for student residence space. In the second place, where one or two alumni might happen in in an ordinary school month, now the number of visiting alumni would require hotel proportions for campus accommodation. The Hall, however, will be used for alumni residence at Commencement time, and the name itself keeps before the students and the world the appreciation of Notre Dame for her alumni.

VERY REV. J. A. BURNS, C.S.C.
Leader of the Drive

"Dillon" Other Hall

For years the University has pursued the policy of naming the residence halls after deceased Presidents of the University, e. g., Sorin, Corby, Walsh, and Morrissey; after men whose lives were otherwise closely woven with Notre Dame, e. g., Brownson, Carroll, Badin, Howard, and Lyons; deviating in the case of two temporary halls with the general designation of Freshman and Sophomore. It is in conformity with the former policy that the second dormitory of the new unit has been named "Dillon Hall," after Rev. Patrick Dillon, C.S.C., who succeeded Father Sorin,

WARREN A. CARTIER
Old Students' Hall Treasurer

as the second President of Notre Dame (1865-66). In the excellent "Golden Jubilee" History of the University by Prof. T. E. Howard, the following summary of Father Dillon's career at Notre Dame is given:

"Much of the prosperity of the time was undoubtedly due to the presence then at Notre Dame of a man of uncommon ability and force of character. Father Patrick Dillon, a young man of twenty-six, became vice-president of the university in 1858, and retained that office, with some intervals, until 1865. During the period while Father Patrick (as he was called, to distinguish him from his brother, Father James Dillon, afterwards a chaplain in the army) was vice-president; and during the year or more thereafter, when he was himself president, great work was done at Notre Dame. Father Patrick was a man of the greatest executive ability and of most excellent judgment; and Father Sorin was well content to leave the charge

(Continued on Page 270)

DILLON HALL

ALUMNI HALL

James J. Phelan, Lay Trustee, Awarded Laetare Medal

Boston Banker, Active in Many Civic and Religious Enterprises, Adds Worthy Name To Illustrious List of Medallists

Alumni were pleased on Laetare Sunday with the University's announcement of the award of the now famed Laetare Medal to James J. Phelan, a member of the Board of Lay Trustees of the University, and an outstanding figure in national and religious philanthropies.

In 1883, Notre Dame established this award as the American adaptation of the Papal conferring of the Golden Rose on the same day. It has since become nationally recognized as the highest honor that can come to a Catholic lay man or woman in this country. The list of Laetare Medallists, as a Catholic paper recently commented, presents the best cross-section of lay Catholic achievement in America since its institution. Mr. Phelan's name provides an addition consistent with the previous merits of the awards and the recipients.

When Governor Frank G. Allen recently wanted a man to head the Emergency Committee on Unemployment, he immediately turned to one who had had a wide and diversified experience in banking, general business, and civic and charitable activities, James J. Phelan, Banker.

Mr. Phelan was born in Toronto, Canada, October 14th, 1871. At a very early age his family located in the Charleston district of Boston, where he received his early education in the public schools.

In the year 1887, Mr. Phelan started his career in the financial world on the Boston Stock Exchange as a page. The following year he entered the employ of Hornblower & Page, which firm was succeeded in August 1888 by the partnership of Hornblower & Weeks, Mr. Henry Hornblower being, as he still is, the senior member. Honorable John W. Weeks, late Secretary of War, was the other member of the partnership at that time. Mr. Phelan was the only employee. From a small beginning this concern has grown to be one of the largest and best known in its line throughout this country and Canada.

In 1897, Mr. Phelan became a member of the Boston Stock Exchange, and in 1900 a member of the partnership of Hornblower & Weeks. It has been said that he was born working and he, himself, has said that he is willing to die working. At any rate, notwithstanding his business activities and the number of directorates upon which he serves, in emergencies, whether of the City, State, or Nation, he is ready to respond to the call. He has always refused, however, to stand for elective office, and will not take an appointment on paid commissions or permanent commissions.

MR. JAMES J. PHELAN

In 1906 at the time of the San Francisco Earthquake, Mr. Phelan became a member of this Committee, serving a large part of the time as Vice-Chairman. Immediately, when the Massachusetts Committee was called into existence the morning after the disaster, he realized that one of the most important things to the people of San Francisco would be hospital service, and arranged for the organization in Salt Lake City of a hospital outfit, composing two cars, which was dispatched that afternoon under Dr. Critchlow to San Francisco. It was the first relief train to enter the stricken district. The Committee raised over $1,000,000 for relief work in San Francisco.

Mr. Phelan subsequently served on the Ohio Flood Committee, Chelsea Fire Committee, and was Governor Walsh's personal representative on the Salem Fire Committee where he spent continuously some three months in relief and rehabilitation work in the burned area. He was the first to hear of the Halifax Explosion disaster, immediately brought it to the attention of the late Henry B. Endicott, Executive Manager of the Massachusetts Public Safety Committee, organized to meet the emergency of the World War, of which Committee, Mr. Phelan was one of the Assistant Executive Managers. Both Mr. Endicott and Mr. Phelan went at once to inform the Governor of the State, the late Samuel M. McCall, of the disaster. The Governor immediately called for volunteer assistance for the stricken people of Halifax. This was in the morning, and that afternoon the entire Public Safety Committee was called into session and a relief train was sent that night to Halifax. It was the first relief train to reach Halifax from any section. To Mr. Phelan was then delegated the task of raising relief in cash and supplies for the City of Halifax, which was accomplished in the usual generous spirit of the people of Massachusetts.

Mr. Phelan organized the New England Saw Mill Unit prior to America's participation in the World War. This was the first contribution from the United States to the World War, and Mr. Phelan personally supervised the assembling of the saw mill units, first having raised the necessary cash to defray the expense of the enterprise. The New England Saw Mill Unit comprised some ten portable saw mills, horses and equipment, as well as a force of several hundred picked woodsmen from New England who went across to England, afterwards giving similar service in France.

For twenty-two months Mr. Phelan served at the State House during the War, as Assistant Executive Manager of the Massachusetts Food Administration. He also served as arbitrator in several labor disputes which occurred during this period, and since has served as arbitrator in various labor disputes over the period of the last twelve years, the last being the so-called "Sling Load" dispute between the Longshoremen and the Steamship Companies, which he decided about a year ago.

Mr. Phelan was also Chairman of many sub-committees during the War and originated many of the price controls on distribution of commodities, such as ice, butter, eggs, poultry,

(Continued on Page 268)

ATHLETICS

By Joseph Petritz, '32

BASEBALL

Schedules for baseball, golf, and tennis were announced in March by the athletic board of control and they, with the track schedule, complete the spring sports program for Notre Dame teams.

The baseball nine, although it will not have a southern trip, will play 15 games, two of which are yet to be named, against representative mid-west teams and Hosei of Japan. Wisconsin, Big Ten champion last year with whom Notre Dame divided two games, will open the season here, April 16, and other games will be played with Iowa, Northwestern, and Purdue of the conference. Only five games will be away from home.

Coach Geogre Keogan has been working his team indoors for two weeks, and will make his first cut of the squad of 75, after Easter. He has four veterans, Capt. O'Keefe, Sullivan, Askew, and Mahoney, back in the infield, and four of last year's pitchers. Leading the mound men men are Lisicki, who has pitched two years without losing a game, Palt, Mannix, and Del Prete. The catcher's job and the outfield positions are open.

Following is the schedule:

April 16—Wisconsin here.
April 24—Hillsdale here.
April 27—Iowa here.
April 29—Northwestern at Evanston.

May 2—Open.
May 5—Purdue here.
May 8 & 9—Hosei of Japan here.
May 13—Wisconsin at Madison.
May 16—Open.
May 19—Northwestern here.
May 23—Iowa at Iowa City.
May 26—Purdue at Lafayette.
May 30—Michigan State at East Lansing.
June 6—Michigan State here.

GOLF

The golf course includes eight dual matches, only two of which are at Notre Dame, and the Indiana State meet and the national intercollegiate tournament at Olympia Fields, Chicago, in June. The entire undefeated 1930 team is back, and another victorious season is predicted. Thirty-five candidates are practicing daily in the golf room of the gym.

Larry Moller, captain of last year's squad and medalist and finalist in the national intercollegiate, is among the veterans who are back. He was elected president of the national group at the Pittsburgh tourney. Capt. Fran Beaupre and his brother, Russ, both of whom qualified in the national meet, are also returning. Other veterans are Louis O'Shea, Bill Redmond, and Art Bradley. The group, the first team in Notre Dame history, won the Indiana state title.

The golf schedule is as follows:

April 11—Valparaiso there.
April 17—Michigan State at East Lansing.
April 18—Univ. of Detroit there.
April 25—University of Pittsburgh there (tentatively).
May 1—Loyola at Chicago.
May 2—Iowa at Iowa City.
May 9—Michigan State here.
May 22—Detroit here.
Indiana State tournament.
National Intercollegiate tournament at Chicago.

TENNIS

The tennis squad will be led by Capt. Matt O'Brien and his twin brother, Mike, veterans of two years. Bill Reaume and Bob Kendall are other 1930 men returning, while Dick Bailie and John O'Brien of the 1930 team have been lost by graduation. An elimination tournament after Easter will provide men for the places of Bailie and O'Brien. A feature of the schedule is the Central Intercollegiate conference meet sponsored annually by Notre Dame at the Chicago Town and Tennis club. The Knute K. Rockne cups will go to the singles and doubles winners.

The tennis card includes the following matches:

April 18—Indiana State Teachers at Terre Haute.

April 25—Western State at Kalamazoo.

May 12—Armour Tech here.

May 14, 15, 16—Central intercollegiate conference at Chicago.

May 20—Loyola of Chicago here.

May 22—Northwestern at Evanston.

May 30—Michigan State here.

BASKETBALL

Twelve victories out of twenty games was the record of Coach George Keogan's cage squad for the 1930-31 season, completed a little more than a week ago. Not an impressive record, one must admit, and probably the poorest since Dr. Keogan came to Notre Dame nearly ten years ago. It is difficult to give a cause for the showing, however, and we may justly conclude that there was a combination of difficulties which the more or less inexperienced Blue and Gold squad found too great to overcome.

In the beginning, three great gaps had to be filled. Ed Smith, "Oonie" Donovan, and Jack McCarthy were missing from the previous year, and it was no easy matter to replace them. The first part of the season was spent in experimentation and, as a result, three defeats were on the books before the season was well under way. Kalamazoo was an easy victim, but Northwestern and Purdue proved too much and annexed two run-away games before the Keoganites again broke into the win column against Pennsylvania and Illinois Wesleyan. Northwestern again conquered the Blue which, by this time, was beginning to show much improvement. A fairly dependable combination had been molded with Newbold, Crowe, and Gavin alternating at forwards, DeCook at center, and Baldwin and Burns at guards. Clay Johnson, too, proved himself a valuable man at the guard position.

Four victories in a row against Ohio State, Wabash, Marquette, and Pennsylvania, put Notre Dame in a fighting mood for Pittsburgh, but the Panthers won in an overtime game on the local court. Indiana fell victim to the Keogan strategy, but Pittsburgh made it two in a row in another overtime contest at Pittsburgh. Wabash, Butler, and Army were the next opponents on the Notre Dame card, and all met defeat alike. Syracuse caught the Blue with Baldwin, who by this time had developed into one of the chief cogs on both offense and defense, on the side lines, and administered the sixth defeat of the season to the tiring South Bend squad.

The Fighting Irish eked out a one-point victory over Marquette in a return game, but closed the season by suffering defeats at the hands of Butler and Iowa university, both of whom they were favored to defeat rather handily.

Statistics for the season show that Notre Dame outscored her opponents by a mere eight points for the season's play, averaging 24.2 points to the opponent's 23.8. The Blue and Gold outscored the enemy 189 to 169 on field goals, but lost much ground on free throws. The Keoganites averaged almost the same as their opponents on shots from the foul line, but the enemy was given sixty-one more chances by virtue of Notre Dame's 224 personal fouls to the foe's 176.

Ray DeCook led the scorers with 132 points, an average of 6.6 per game. He committed more fouls than any of his teammates, 32, but was also the only man on the squad to appear in every game on the season's card. Bill Newbold scored 93 points to take second place among the scorers, and ranked at the top in foul shooting. The elongated forward made 29 out of 42 attempts for an average of .690. Jack Baldwin, flashy guard, made twelve out of twenty free throws and scored 56 points for an average of nearly 4 markers per game. Both Crowe, with 68, and Gavin with 57, outscored Baldwin but failed to come up to his average since they competed in four more games during the year than did the former Englewood star.

Eight members of Notre Dame's 1930-31 basketball team and John M. Hughes, manager, were awarded major sports monograms here, March 28, by the athletic board of control. The monogram winners are Johnnie Baldwin, Tom Burns, Norbe Crowe, Ray DeCook, Joe Gavin, Clay Johnson, Bill Newbold, and Al Schummacher. All but Gavin will return next year. The entire first team of Crowe and Newbold, forwards, DeCook, center, and Baldwin and Burns, guards, will be back.

TRACK

The track schedule stands the same as originally announced with the exception that Wisconsin will appear here in a dual meet April 19, and Notre Dame will not attend the Kansas relays at Lawrence that day. The tracksters will resume workouts after Easter under Coach John Nicholson.

The outdoor schedule is as follows:

April 19—Wisconsin here.

April 24 & 25—Drake and Penn relays.

May 2—Ohio Relays at Columbus.

May 9—Navy at Annapolis.

May 16—Indiana state meet at Purdue.

May 23—Central intercollegiate conference here.

May 30—Open.

June 7—N.C.A.A. meet at Chicago.

Coach John P. Nicholson's Blue and Gold tracksters have just concluded a most successful indoor season, and are now awaiting the opening of the outdoor season with greater conquests in view. Victories were recorded in dual meets over Butler, and Iowa State, while the Fighting Irish also retained their title in the Central Intercollegiate Conference for the fifth consecutive time. One defeat was suffered in a dual meet, and this at the hands of Harry Gill's Illinois thinlies, who were able to record only the barest margin of victory in the most hotly contested meet of the season.

Records fell in wholesale fashion, and five new gymnasium marks now rest safely in the books, at least until next year. Four of these marks are held by Notre Dame men while the other was made by Chamberlain, of Michigan State, who broke Gene Howrey's record for the two-mile run. Other new records were set up by Captain Johnnie O'Brien in the 60-yard high hurdles, Alex Wilson in the 880-yard run, Ralph Johnson in the pole vault, and the mile relay team, which set a new record for that event in the C.I.C. meet.

Alex Wilson, blonde Canadian sensation, and British 440 champion, had a most successful season, and deserves a much needed rest before the start of the outdoor campaign. Probably Wilson's most outstanding achievement was the winning of the famous "Millrose 600" at New York, but practically every meet in which he competed was featured by his brilliant running, and he assumed the lion's share of the burden because of his versatility in the middle distances.

Other outstanding performers on Coach Nicholson's squad during the indoor season, were Joe Quigley, Captain O'Brien, Bill McCormick, Bob Darling, "Dutch" Johnson and Gene Howrey. These men were very consistent winners all through the season, and are being counted upon to score heavily for the Blue and Gold when the curtain rises for the opening of the outdoor season.

Of the newcomers, Mickey MacBeth and Charley Kelly, were, perhaps, the most outstanding. These two, both quartermilers, were just about the mainstays of the one-mile relay team, besides proving very dependable men in dual meets. Gough, too, made excellent showings in the Illinois and Iowa State dual meets, the chief burden of the broad jump falling upon him when Roy Bailie was injured. Frankfort, Dilling, and Bonomolo all showed much promise.

Kenneally to Rutgers

Announcement was made by Rutgers University authorities at New Brunswick, N. J., last Thursday, that Tommy Kenneally had been signed as assistant coach for the 1931 season. Tommy, who was a quarterback on the national champions of 1929, served as backfield coach of Johnny Law's Manhattan college gridders last season, and spent his spare time teaching in a New York prep school.

Mullins Starts Practice

"Moon" Mullins has started in at his new position as backfield coach at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, and now has spring practice under full swing. Larry finished his college playing career in the Southern California game last December, and was graduated from the University in February.

Sport Managerships Announced by Knute Rockne

Grams, McKean, Weiss, Colville, Spangenberg and Ross Are Given Appointments

The appointment of John Albert Grams, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, a junior in the College of Commerce, as senior manager of football for the 1931 season was announced March 24 during the annual Manager's Banquet in the lay faculty dining hall. Coach Knute K. Rockne presided at the banquet and announced, in addition, the managers of the other sports as well as the freshmen and sophomores to be retained for service next year.

As associates during the 1931 grid season, Grams will have Joseph E. McKean of Alexandria, Louisiana, and Charles F. Weiss of South Bend. Charles E. Spangenberg, Elmhurst, Illinois, was appointed senior manager of basketball, John Joseph Ross, Brooklyn, New York, will manage the track squad, and John A. Colville, Yonkers, New York, will take charge of the baseball team. These men will be assisted by a staff of seven junior managers and three alternates, and fifteen sophomores.

Coach Rockne was the only speaker on the short program of the evening. Mr. Rockne pointed out, in thanking the managers for their work of the past year, that he could offer no criticism, not even constructive, on the manner in which they dispensed their multifarious duties. The past football season was one of great strain on the managers. The opening of the new stadium was, perhaps, the greatest thing in the athletic history of the University, and the way in which Dan Halpin, Jack Saunders, and Joe Lauerman handled their duties left nothing to be desired.

Coach Rockne also took this opportunity to thank Jack Hughes, manager of basketball, and Bourke Motsett, in charge of track, for the excellent work they have done during their seasons. Bob Balfe and Tom Ashe were reminded that the greatest part of their duties was yet to come, and that they were expected to uphold the standard set by their fellow seniors.

In making the appointments for the 1931-32 season, Rockne pointed out that there could be no prejudice shown in the selection of the senior managers. The positions carry too much responsibility, and there is far too much at stake for those in charge to pick any but the best men for the appointments. He added, for the benefit of those freshmen and sophomores who could not be retained, that in life some are better fitted for one station than for another. A failure to achieve one's goal at first should not be an excuse for offering sympathy to one's self or for seeking it from others. Those men who were cut from the staff were, almost without doubt, those who could not excel in this line of activity. They should, then, concentrate their efforts on success in some other field.

At the speaker's table with Mr. Rockne were his assistant coaches, Heartly Anderson, Jack Chevigny, and Ike Voedisch, together with the seven senior managers of this year who were the guests of honor.

The sophomores who were appointed to junior managerships included: Baker, Buhl, Fox, Kenefick, Kenny, O'Keefe and Wirry, with Martin, Sherman, and Shinnars as alternates. In appointing the alternates, Mr. Rockne expressed the hope that the classification would be only a temporary one, and that these men would, by their diligent work, prove themselves worthy of a full managership during the coming year.

The freshmen to be retained are: Fischer, Gleichauf, Goldberg, Hanley, Kelly, Kotte, LeSage, Lewis, McManus, Miller, Mulvihill, Quinn, Roach, Rubin, Stockwell, and Venables.

Kassis Signs at Colorado

Tom Kassis, regular guard of the 1930 national champions, has signed to coach the line at the University of Colorado, at Boulder, Colorado, it was announced several days ago. Kassis was graduated from the University of Notre Dame in February, and expects to take up his new position in time for spring practice. At the close of the past season, Tom received honorable mention on several all-western elevens despite that his play during the season was hampered by injuries.

Committees Nominate Outstanding Candidates

1931-32 Officers To Be Chosen From Men Whose Names Are By-Words in Alumni Development at Notre Dame; Ballots Go Out in May.

HONORARY PRESIDENT

REV. JOHN A. McNAMARA, '97, Garden City, L. I. (Both Committees).

PRESIDENT

JOHN W. COSTELLO, '12, 180 W. Washington St., Chicago.

FRANK H. HAYES, '14, 25 N. Dearborn St., Chicago.

VICE-PRESIDENT

DANIEL L. COUGHLIN, '22, Waseca, Minn.

CLARENCE "PAT" MANION, '21, Notre Dame, Ind.

TREASURER

WALTER DUNCAN, '12, LaSalle, Ill. (Both Committees).

DIRECTOR (4-Year Term)

ROBERT E. LYNCH, '03, 113½ N. Washington St., Green Bay, Wis.

DR. J. M. TONER, '00, 3197 Sixteenth St., San Francisco, Calif.

DIRECTOR (3-Year Term*)

JOHN F. O'CONNELL, '13, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago.

MARCELLUS M. OSHE, '12, Chicago Title & Trust Co., Chicago.

(* Succeeding the late Peter P. McElligott, '02)

The above slates were nominated by the two nominating committees appointed by President Hering, who were:

Joseph J. Sullivan, '01, Chicago, chairman; Frank P. Burke, '03, Milwaukee, and Ray T. Miller, '14, Cleveland, and

Joseph Byrne, Jr., '15, Newark, N. J., chairman; Keene Fitzpatrick, '11, San Francisco, and Henry G. Hogan, '04, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Nominations can be made by individual members, a minimum of twenty-five being necessary for a nomination, not more than ten of whom shall reside in one county. These nominations can be made until April 30.

In addition to the officers above listed, the Board of Directors of the Association has nominated eight candidates for the alumni positions on the Board of Lay Trustees. These candidates are as follows:

George M. Anson, Merrill, Wis.
Byron V. Kanaley, Chicago
Dr. Maurice Keady, New York
Angus D. McDonald, New York
Gus F. Meehan, Chattanooga
Clement C. Mitchell, Chicago
Grattan Stanford, New York
Francis C. Walker, New York

Two of the above nominees will fill the normal vacancies occurring this year. Two others will fill the additional alumni memberships created at the last meeting of the Board of Lay Trustees, and the fifth nominee elected, will fill the unexpired term of the late William P. Breen.

An amendment to the Constitution of the Association, making it possible to mail the Ballots earlier, will also be included on the 1931 Ballot.

All of the above projects are deserving of the most careful consideration. The Officers of the Association are charged with a growing responsibility. The Lay Trustees have long since proved their value to the University, and the alumni membership on this Board, which includes an equal number of leaders of industry from the non-Notre Dame world, has been most creditable.

Any effort to change the Constitution is open to serious thought. This proposed Amendment is the result of changed conditions and the possibilities of improving election conditions.

A short historical sketch of the candidates for the Association offices follows:

Rev. John A. McNamara, Class Secretary for the Class of 1897, is at present in St. Joseph's Sanitarium, Mt. Clemens, Mich., where ill health has brought him for a part of the past several years. He is heart and soul a Notre Dame man in the finest sense of the word. Ordinarily, he is engaged in parish work in Garden City, L. I.

John W. Costello, attorney with the firm of Samuels, Costello & Greenberg, has long been familiar in alumni organization. He is a former president of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago. He was vice-president of the National Association in 1916-17.

Frank H. Hayes, vice-president and trust officer of the Union Bank of Chicago, has played a very important part in the inauguration of the Living Endowment Plan for the University by the Alumni Association.

(Two Chicago nominees for the presidency of the Association are a tribute from the Committees to Chicago's active alumni program.)

Daniel L. Coughlin, who is in the newspaper business in Waseca, Minn., is very successful there, having just been elected to the vice-presidency of the Minnesota newspaper association. He is a monogram football and basketball man, 1921-22.

Clarence "Pat" Manion is most popular among alumni as a speaker. He is a professor of law at the University, an author, and one of the rising figures on the Indiana political horizon. Pat's all-around talents and wide contacts make biography needless.

Walter Duncan, La Salle, Ill., insurance and bank director, has served so well (at the risk of campaigning) as Treasurer of the Association, an increasingly burdensome job, that his nomination by both committees is not surprising.

Robert E. Lynch, Green Bay, Wisconsin, was one of the most popular baseball players N. D. graduated. He is still the same genial and likable Bobby Lynch, with as much vigor as of old. He has been most active in Fox River alumni organization.

Dr. J. M. Toner is one of the most prominent Notre Dame men on the Pacific coast. He has held civic office in San Francisco for a number of years, and is at present in charge of all public institutions in the State, living in Sacramento.

John F. O'Connell and M. M. Oshe, both Chicago men, have been nominated to succeed the late Peter P. McElligott, whose term as director has three years to run.

Both candidates have occupied the bench. Judge O'Connell was very popular with members of the bar during his terms, and Judge Oshe is considered one of the outstanding Chicago authorities on problems of title and trust, acting a chief title and trust officer at the present time for the Chicago Title and Trust Co.

LAETARE MEDAL

(Continued from Page 263)

try, and fish, some of which price controls and distribution methods were adopted nationally. He was responsible for much that brought the increased fish catch, and the substitution of fish for meat, so that sufficient meat would be available for shipment to the soldiers in France.

Mr. Phelan was Emergency Fuel Administrator of Massachusetts during the years 1922-23, and originated the so-called city and town price control of coal rather than one price for the State, as was attempted in other States and failed. Mr. Phelan's price control was subsequently adopted by several of the States who at first attempted one price for the entire State.

During the war Mr. Phelan served on the Executive Committee for New England on all Liberty Loan Drives, and was chairman of the Victory Loan Drive for the Boston Metropolitan District.

He was one of the Committee of Eleven of the United War Work Campaign. This organization set as their goal $130,000,000, to be raised throughout the country, and actually raised some $215,000,000.

In the year 1925, Boston College conferred the degree of LL.D. upon him. In 1925 Pope Pius XI conferred upon him the decoration of Magistral Knight of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, the first Layman to receive this honor in the United States and later upon the organization of the American Chapter, Sovereign Military Order of Malta, of which he was elected Master, he received the higher degree of Grand Cross.

In 1926, Pope Pius XI conferred upon Mr. Phelan, the honor of Knight Commander of the Order of Pope Pius IX.

He is also one of the lay Trustees of the University of Notre Dame. Trustee of the Children's Hospital, Director of the Travelers Aid Society, Community Health Association, and Treasurer of the Disabled Veterans Christmas Remembrance. He is a member of many of Boston's most prominent Clubs, as well as those along the North Shore summer colony where he has a fine estate, and he is also a member of a number of Clubs located at the winter resorts of Florida and of a number of prominent New York Clubs.

The Laetare Medal Committee, which this year selected Mr. Phelan for the honor, consisted of the Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, C.S.C. president of the University, chairman; Rev. Michael Mulcaire, C.S.C.; Rev. J. Leonard Carrico, C.S.C.; Rev. Patrick J. Carroll, C.S.C.; Rev.

Charter Number of The "Juggler" Features Alumni

The Charter number of the Juggler, featuring contributions by former Funny Fellows, appeared on the campus March 30. The Funny Fellows society, the aim of which is to solidify, strengthen and preserve the spirit of the Juggler, made its formal debut as an active organization with this issue.

Thomas A. Steiner, C.S.C.; Prof. James E. McCarthy, Prof. Francis Kervick, Prof. William Benitz, Prof. Clarence Manion, and Prof. Rufus Rauch.

The list of Medallists to date follows:

1883	John G. Shea
1884	Patrick J. Keeley
1885	Eliza Allen Starr
1886	General John Newton
1887	Recipient Anonymous at His Own Request
1888	Patrick V. Hickey
1889	Anna Hanson Dorsey
1890	William J. Onahan
1891	Daniel Dougherty
1892	Henry F. Brownson
1893	Patrick Donahue
1894	Augustin Daly
1895	Mary Sadlier
1896	Gen. Wm. Rosencrans
1897	Dr. Thos. A. Emmett
1898	Hon. T. E. Howard
1899	Mary G. Caldwell
1900	John A. Creighton
1901	William Bourke Cochran
1902	Dr. John B. Murphy
1903	Chas. J. Bonaparte
1904	Richard Kearns
1905	Thos. B. Fitzpatrick
1906	Dr. Francis Quinlan
1907	Katherine Conway
1908	Jas. C. Monaghan
1909	Frances Tiernan
1910	Maurice Francis Egan
1911	Agnes Repplier
1912	Thomas B. Mulry
1913	Charles B. Herberman
1914	Edward Douglas White
1915	Mary Merrick
1916	Dr. James J. Walsh
1917	William S. Benson
1918	Joseph Scott
1919	George Duval
1920	Dr. Lawrence Flick
1921	Elizabeth Nourse
1922	Charles P. Neill
1923	Walter G. Smith
1924	Charles D. Maginnis
1925	Albert F. Zahm
1926	Edward N. Hurley
1927	Margaret Anglin
1928	Jack Spalding
1929	Alfred E. Emith
1930	Frederick Kenkel
1931	James J. Phelan

K. K. Rockne and the Four Horsemen are among the honorary members.

The cover has the sentimental and slightly subtle significance that the "old-timers" are once more donning the mask. A cartoon of the late Dick Harrington wordlessly says many things of a typical campus moment. A number of other contributors are accounted for in the column Campus Chatter. Alfred E. Smith, who is very busy with the tallest building in the world, sent in four sentences of congratulations. Walter Hugh Layne in a column recalls names and incidents of his Funny Fellow days and in another, the undergraduate positions of some now famous magazine names.

Lawyers Secure Garrigan's

According to an announcement made this week by Joseph Guadnola, chairman of the Lawyers' ball, Jimmy Garrigan and his orchestra has been engaged for the dance, which will be held in the Palais Royale ballroom April 24. Garrigan and his band have attained more than ordinary popularity as performers at the Via Lago cafe in Chicago. He is well known to radio fans, having broadcast over station WMAQ nightly for the past two years, in addition to giving several programs over the N.B.C. network.

Chairman Guadnola is being confronted with a pressing demand for tickets, and is of the opinion that the quota of 350 will be filled the first week they are put on sale. Students other than lawyers who wish to attend the dance may get tickets from the law students, who are entitled to two each. Upon presentation of the ticket to William O'Malley, 328 Sorin Hall, a "summons written in legal form, will be sent to the women guests of the ball. The ticket sale will begin either immediately before or after the Easter recess.

Rockne
Memorial Issue
in May

EDITORIAL

UNIVERSAL NOTRE DAME NIGHT

Once each year men of the Christian world celebrate Christmas, the birthday of a new spiritual life.

Once a year Americans celebrate the 4th of July, the birthday of a nation.

And once each year Notre Dame men celebrate Universal Notre Dame Night, in commemoration of the years of service Notre Dame has given to her alumni and students, and in honor of the religious and intellectual achievements and stimulus the University has contributed to American Catholic education, a spiritual birthday party for the alumni.

This year marks the Eighth Annual Universal Notre Dame Night. Such a world-wide observance is peculiarly adapted to Notre Dame, whose alumni, comparatively few in number, are scattered widely throughout this and foreign countries. The result of this situation has been a consistent increase in the significance of the Night as a Notre Dame institution.

From a spontaneous, simultaneous effort to focus our own and the world's attention upon the campus, the Night has become a favorite fixture in the alumni program. It has grown in extent and intensity.

Results have been far-reaching. It has brought men close to Notre Dame in the only way that the circumstances of many of them permit. It has carried Notre Dame men and messages to distant places, by personal pilgrimage, by films, by radio, or by printed word. And frequently, where the magic wand of the Night has touched an unfertile bit of distant ground, a Club will rise and flourish. Notre Dame, for the numerical strength of its alumni group, has one of the most extensive systems of Local Alumni Clubs among the American colleges and universities. It is the purpose of the new Local Alumni Club Council to direct this tremendous potential power for maximum mutual benefits.

In the seven years since the first Universal Notre Dame Night, many things have happened at Notre Dame. The public, of course, was made immediately familiar with Notre Dame in 1924 when the Four Horsemen took the football world by storm and practically removed football from a purely sports category to a broader field where society, business, education, and even religion, have come to play a part. Two more national championships since 1924 have continued this interest of the public in the side of Notre Dame expressed through its football teams. While this is sound and wholesome and an integral part of Notre Dame life, as every Notre Dame man knows, it is nevertheless only a part. The result has been a part-picture of Notre Dame before the public.

No one is more qualified to supplement this part until the entire Notre Dame is depicted than Notre Dame alumni. The public relations problem of the University is, of course, important and will undoubtedly be solved, but a source on the campus from which information comes can do only a fractional part of the constructive forming of public opinion necessary for a real appreciation of Notre Dame.

A man is known by the company he keeps. A college is known by the alumni it graduates. Publicity, as it exists among American institutions, is under more or less of a cloud, and unless it is supplemented by the personal contact that, in the case of the colleges, comes from an informed alumni body, it can do a college little good.

Notre Dame men have been asked for so little in the way of material support, money or time, and service, in the eighty-nine years of the University's existence that the response in these more recent years, when the needs of Notre Dame have grown beyond the provision of that living endowment represented by the unremunerated services of the Religious, is comparatively commendable.

On this Universal Notre Dame Night, both University and alumni can look at each other with mutual pride. The Alumni have made good. It is no mere generality or exaggerated boast to express that statement here. The first principle of the material side of education at Notre Dame, established by Father Sorin and fostered by the Fathers since that time, is "Give the poor boy a chance." Notre Dame's cost of education are approximately half that of private institutions of similar size and academic prestige. It is estimated that the University assumes 75% of the cost of educating a student at Notre Dame.

With this principle, attracting as it did boys of humble families, the fact that Notre Dame now has representative leaders in every field of life is evidence enough that the alumni have made good.

The University, starting in a wilderness eighty-nine years ago, with a capital of three hundred dollars and a personnel of one priest and six brothers, has also fought a good fight and kept the Faith.

Five Colleges, all of them ranking well academically, headed by prominent faculty members, comprise the University. In physical expansion, just since the institution of Notre Dame Night, three beautiful dormitories are complete and in service; a new Dining Hall serves the entire student body, itself doubled in number, at one sitting; a new Law Building is among the architectural gems of the campus; a new Stadium provides a fitting setting for the national football champions; and at the present time two splendid dormitory buildings are being erected, one dedicated to the Alumni, and ground is soon to be broken for the new Edward N. Hurley College of Commerce building, the first private gift of an entire building to be announced.

Notre Dame is thriving.

Notre Dame alumni are thriving, the depression to the contrary notwithstanding.

This should be the most universal of Universal Notre Dame Nights.

"ALUMNI HALL"

(Continued from Page 262)

of affairs in the hands of so capable a lieutenant. It was the period when Notre Dame passed from the time of inexperience, and trial, and youthful hope, to the time of full maturity and vigor. Not only were students increased in number, and financial matters placed on a surer footing; but views for the conduct of the affairs of the institution were, in proportion, liberalized and enlarged, and the university better adapted to the needs of the country.

"Father Patrick, greatly aided by Professor Lucius G. Tong, his able assistant, and who continued the work after his untimely death, enlarged and completed the development of the commercial courses of the university. There was then an urgent demand manifested for educated young men in commercial pursuits, and Notre Dame, in complying with this demand, soon began to send these graduates in large numbers. This development of the commercial course was of the utmost value to the university at that time; and the superior character of the young men graduated did much to make the institution known, and to bring in a high class of students also for the other collegiate courses.

"Under Father Patrick, and for similar reasons, was the first established and developed the scientific course of studies, as distinguished from the classical course. Before this time the sciences were taught in connection with the learned languages, and degrees were awarded only in the classical course. In addition to the degrees of Arts and Masters of Arts, were now, therefore, given the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Master of Science. The first graduate to receive the degree of B.S. was Dr. John Cassidy, now the accomplished physician, of South Bend, who took his degree in 1865.

"In this connection also a beginning was made in the study of Medicine under the Rev. Father Neyron, then a resident clergyman, formerly pastor at New Albany, Indiana. Father Neyron had been a skillful and learned physician before he became a priest. He was a surgeon in Napoleon's army, and participated in the Russian campaign, and also at Waterloo where he was captured by the British.

"But the greatest work done under the administration of Father Dillon, considering the wonderful executive ability and admirable business talent shown by him, was the erection of the new college in 1865. In June the old building was taken down, and by September the new one was ready for the students. There was a multitude of workmen during the summer, and the work done was a marvel, in excellence no less than in quantity, yet everything moved like clock-work under the direction of the master mind in charge.

"The building thus erected was 160 feet in length, 80 feet in width, and six stories high, surmounted by a colossal statue of NOTRE DAME. On the 31st of May, 1866, the new edifice was dedicated and the statue blessed by Archbishop Spalding, of Baltimore, assisted by five bishops and a great number of priests, and in the presence of the largest concourse of people ever gathered at Notre Dame.

"Soon after the dedication of the new Notre Dame, Father Dillon, as if his life work were done, retired from the presidency of the University which he had so greatly honored, and going to France to attend a general Chapter of the Congregation, was afterwards promoted to the position of Assistant General. He remained in France for two years, after which he returned to America, filling for a short time the position of pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Chicago, where he died after a short illness, November 15, 1868. He was one of the great men of Notre Dame."

The naming of these two beautiful new dormitories combines the value of Notre Dame's glorious history and tradition in the connotation of Father Dillon's career, and the creditable past and even more significant future of Notre Dame's alumni.

Father Dillon comes from a distinguished family long associated with Notre Dame and St. Mary's. His brother, Rev. James Dillon, C.S.C., was a Civil War chaplain, and another brother, Michael, was a student at Notre Dame. A younger sister, Margaret Dillon, was a graduate of St. Mary's in 1867, and another sister became Sr. Ligouri Dillon, St. Mary's 1872. Angela Dillon Connor, St. Mary's 1880, was the daughter of Michael Dillon. She has three younger sisters, Agnes Dillon Makens, '83, Mary Therese Dillon McCarthy, '87, and Anne Dillon Humpfer, '94. Mrs. Connor's children are Margaret Connor Welch, '11; Msgr. F. F. Connor; Angela Connor Curry, '14, (wife of Thomas B. Curry, N.D. '14); Anne Dillon Connor Brawn, '15; Sr. Angela, C.S.C.; Benedict Connor, former N.D. student; John V. Connor; and James Connor. There are, in addition, nine grandchildren.

Killed With Rockne

The ALUMNUS extends to Charles J. Robrecht, '24, and the Robrecht family, the sincerest sympathy of the Alumni Association upon the death of Charley's father, C. A. Robrecht, who was killed in the fatal plane crash in Kansas, which took the life of Knute Rockne and six other persons. Mr. Robrecht was flying to the bedside of a daughter in Texas who was ill. He was a resident of Wheeling, W. Va. Charley is now living in Elizabeth, N. J.

Original Play Presented

"The Ghost of Thomas Sloop," Richard Sullivan's Mitchell award play of 1930, was presented Thursday and Friday, March 26 and 27 by the University players in Washington Hall.

The production is a fantastic melodrama with a more or less obvious moral, and it is done in a pleasing and entertaining manner. The script was well handled, while the organization and sequence of the play was expertly managed. Presented as the first all-Notre Dame production—written, acted, and arranged by students—it is deserving of praise.

Richard Sullivan has written a fine play. It is a play that speaks well for the winners of the Mitchell award. The players did not lack an ample script for their efforts. Mr. Sullivan is the third to win the William Mitchell award for playwriting at Notre Dame. He is now studying at the Art Institute in Chicago and at the Goodman theatre of the same city.

Prof. Frank Kelly contributed his always able direction.

Reunions Combine

With the various Class Reunions and the General Law Reunion scheduled for Commencement, June 5, 6, and 7, the ALUMNUS is pleased to report the activities of the Law Grads of several of the Reunion Classes in seeking to gain full benefits from both events. Several other Classes, not officially holding a reunion, are urging the Lawyers to be on deck, and the rest of the Class to come and rejoice with the barristers.

All in all, it looks as though Chairman Pat Manion is going to pack them in for the Law events, and as though the rest of the group will provide a full supplement. Which is as it should be.

Universal Notre Dame Night Is April 20th

» » »

All Clubs Will Pay Tribute to K. K. Rockne

» » »

The ALUMNUS Announces

UNIVERSAL NOTRE DAME MORNING Sunday, April 19

All Notre Dame Men Will Go To Mass and Offer Up
Holy Communion
For the Repose of His Soul

Local Alumni Clubs Are Urged to Attend Mass and Communion in a Body.

» » »

(The above announcement comes as the result of similar requests from alumni everywhere. It is heartily endorsed by Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., and the priests of Notre Dame. This is the announcement. Its fulfillment is, of course, a matter entirely in the hands of the individual. But it would be Notre Dame's greatest tribute to another Notre Dame man.)

MORE PERSONALITIES AMONG THE CLUBS

DON P. O'KEEFE. Mr. O'Keefe is the new President of the Notre Dame Club of Detroit, though not new in the activities of that organization. He has been a factor in its growth and development from the beginning, and his present honor is a recognition of his services. He is an executive of the Chevrolet branch of General Motors and the Notre Dame Club of Detroit ought to run without a knock under his experienced guidance. Mr. O'Keefe was at Notre Dame in that active period of 1901-04, and, like so many men of that time, has kept the Notre Dame spirit very much alive since. His address is Chevrolet Motor Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit.

JOSEPH B. MURPHY. Four terms as president of an organization can mean only one thing—satisfied constituents. The Notre Dame men in Dayton are just fundamentalists enough to know that Mr. Murphy is a good president and to keep him in that position accordingly. Mr. Murphy is a lawyer, (Murphy, Leen and Murphy), with offices 309-15 Mutual Home Bldg. He was graduated from Notre Dame with the Class of 1911. A graduate of the glee club and the dramatic society, aided and abetted by natural Hibernian talent and the Hoynes College of Law, the successful leadership and conduct of the Dayton alumni affairs is no mystery.

CYPRIAN SPURL. Mr. Spurl is another young alumnus whose activities as Secretary of the Louisiana-Mississippi Club have aided that organization in expanding its work and its prestige in the neighborhood of New Orleans. Graduated with the Class of '28, Mr. Spurl is in the insurance business in New Orleans, address the Whitney-Central Bldg. He had excellent preparation for Club activities in school, having acted as president of the Louisiana-Mississippi Club on the campus, and president of the Lawyers' Club. Beginning as the Notre Dame Club of New Orleans, the activities soon attracted neighboring alumni, with the larger territorial title resulting.

DR. DANIEL L. SEXTON. Dr. Sexton, like a number of N. D. men in the medical profession, took his pre-medic work at Notre Dame and finished in St. Louis. As secretary of the Notre Dame Club of St. Louis he has been particularly effective in keeping this contact both close and pleasant. The secretarial duties of a Club are not the most enjoyable, and a doctor, whose business hours are as many as the clock offers, deserves special mention for his services. Dr. Sexton was at Notre Dame in 1919-20. He has offices in the University Club Bldg. in St. Louis.

JOSEPH A. McNAMARA. Young men not only see visions in this modern era—they go out and make them real. Mr. McNamara is one of the busiest young graduates of the University. He is President of the Notre Dame Club of Indianapolis, Secretary of the Class of '29, and incidentally finds time to be one of the rising young attorneys of that metropolis. An alumnus of the College of Law, the Scribblers, the Wranglers, the varsity debating team, a former editor of the Juggler, Mr. McNamara combines a lot of qualities that are resulting in a very progressive Club life for the Hoosier capital, and the advancement of Notre Dame's interests in that important city.

JOSEPH A. MENDER. Being a Classmate, anything the Editor says about Joe will probably be held against both of us. But in the same manner as Joe's family paper, the Southern Messenger, is the official voice of everything in Texas but the K. K. K., so Joe has been the staunch voice of Notre Dame, until the Texas deserts are blooming with Notre Dame fans. Joe has been supported by as loyal a group of Texas conferees as ever defended an Alamo, and the great Southwest's Notre Dame-mindedness is not just incidental to an occasional hurried trip by the football team. Joe's Class is '25, his address 107 Catherine Court, San Antonio. His family were pioneers.

OTHER PERSONALITIES AMONG THE CLUBS

JAMES H. BRENNAN. Mr. Brennan is president of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago. This is, with all due credit to other Clubs, the biggest Club job in the list at present. Jim is in the insurance business, and when a large group of men deliberately expose themselves to the leadership of an insurance man, it is a tribute indeed to his personality. Jim has been, during the eleven years he has been away from Notre Dame, active in the Club, his name usually being among the officers. He has insurance offices at 111 W. Monroe, and a family and home in River Park. Activities of the Chicago Club under his leadership already augur a continuance of the high standards of achievement of that organization.

C. NORBERT BAGLIN. Mr. Baglin is President of the Notre Dame Club of Rochester. Notre Dame is as strong in Northern New York as are many of the colleges much closer as geography goes. The answer can be found in the alumni activities that form a chain along the main line of the New York Central. Important among these is Rochester. Norb succeeded to an administration that involves active local affairs and contacts with a strong student group on the campus. He has continued the constructive and co-operative work which was so well begun, and the Club stands out as one of the very active centers of alumni activity, despite comparatively few members. He is an attorney, 902 Wilder Bldg.

JOHN P. HURLEY. Mr. Hurley is President of the Notre Dame Club of Toledo. From the time that he and Ray Cunningham led a powerful Toledo campus organization to the disputed heights of campus club popularity, John has been prominent as a Toledo-Notre Dame man. While that first triumph was questioned, there is no question in the present ascendancy of the Notre Dame Club of Toledo. The alumni there represent the things that have made Notre Dame prominent and popular in the real senses of the words. John travels for the Toledo Parlor Furniture Co., lives at 1420 Collingwood Ave., visits Notre Dame frequently, and is a member of the Class of 1925 —sic semper!

HON. WILLIAM J. GRANFIELD. Mr. Granfield is President of the Notre Dame Club of Connecticut Valley. He is also the present representative of the Second Massachusetts District in the United States Congress. Bill, or "Peaches" to use a student nickname, was a monogram man in basketball and baseball, captaining the former his senior year. His legal career has been equally brilliant, and his first term as a legislator has been outstandingly to his credit. Notre Dame's strength in the Connecticut Valley has been steadily on the increase, and has gained much from his leadership and example. His Class is '13.

EUGENE KANE. Mr. Kane (Ohio seems to lean toward the Kanes) is President of the Notre Dame Club of Cleveland. Since this august organization made "thundergust" on the first Universal Notre Dame Night, Cleveland has been a consistent center of Club activities. Gene Kane is a capable leader of this active group. As manager of the Bulkley Building garage he is centrally located and in regular touch with many of the Club members. Gene was graduated with the Class of 1914, a C.E., and saw a lot of service with the engineers in France during the war years following.

JOHN J. KANE, JR. Mr. Kane is President of the Notre Dame Club of Youngstown. Last on the list, it is well up in the van of active Clubs. It is small numerically, and somewhat isolated geographically, but whenever Notre Dame has needed representation in that particular spot in Ohio, it has had it. The present President was trained in an able and active political school on the campus and his leadership is an obvious recognition of his qualifications. "Red" is one of Youngstown's younger barristers, and his shingle is hung in the loftier heights of the First National Bank Bldg.

Rockne Memorial Fund Committee Organized

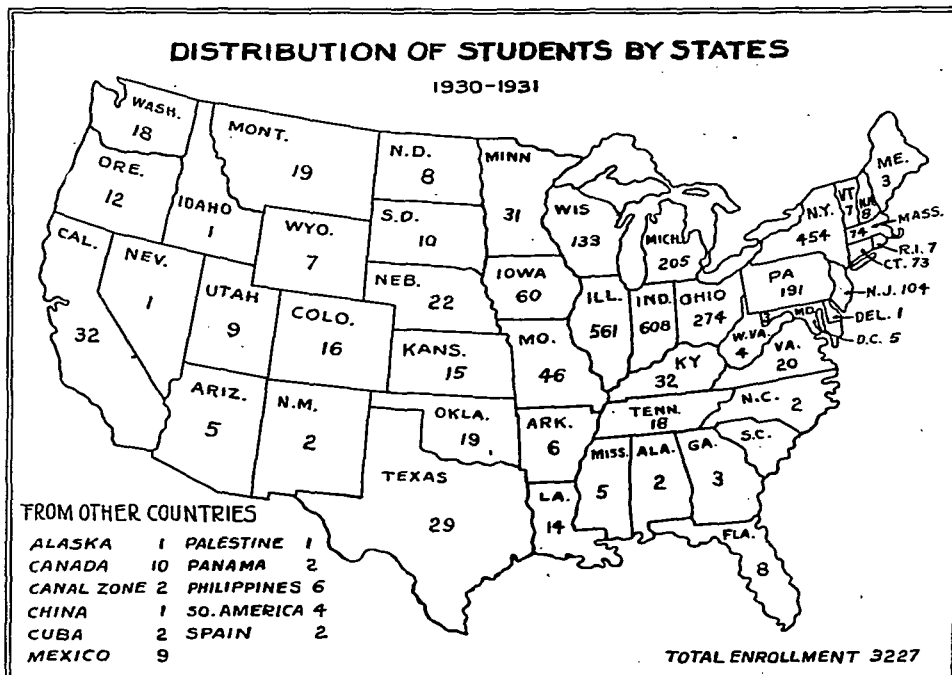

As a result of nation-wide demands, Frank E. Hering, President of the Alumni Association of the University, in co-operation with Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, C.S.C., President of the University, has led a movement among the friends of Knute Rockne, including a number of prominent alumni, to take steps to erect a suitable Rockne Memorial.

Donations from scattered parts of the country have already been received by Father O'Donnell, and many expressions indicate a very active anticipation of this project.

At the time the ALUMNUS goes to press, the Committee, which will be nation-wide in its scope, has not yet been announced. Alumni will of course be given every opportunity to participate, individually and by Clubs.

No funds will be solicited. The Committee will simply receive those voluntary contributions which the thousands of friends of Rock very evidently wish to, and intend to, give.

At the present writing, it is the thought of the Committee organizers that the form of the Memorial should be guided by the resources available from contributions and by the wishes of the contributors.

Alumni RELIGIOUS SURVEY Under Way

If early returns are indicative of the general popularity of the Religious Survey of the Alumni, the initial effort in this field will be a decided success. Five hundred replies will give a substantial picture of the spirituality of Notre Dame's graduates; seven hundred and fifty will tax the capacity of the editor.

One hundred and thirty-eight replies were received during the first six days after the questionnaires were mailed out. The geographical distribution of the replies is thoroughly representative of the alumni—making allowance for the fact that the mail had only just reached New York on the east and Nebraska on the west. Chicago led the field with 41 questionnaires, South Bend was next with 11, Indianapolis and Fort Wayne contributed 6 each, and Detroit 5. Other localities represented are as follows: Dixon, Ill., Vincennes, Anderson, Gary, Elgin, Cleveland, Toledo, Mishawaka, Notre Dame, Niles, Grand Rapids, Rock Island, Painesville, O., Pittsburgh, Ottawa, Ill., Crown Point, Battle Creek, Racine, New Buffalo, Sandusky, Mansfield, Winnetka, Jackson, Mich., Akron, St. Paul, Minn., Greenfield, Iowa, Clearfield, Pa., Dubuque, Buffalo, Menominee, New York, Muscatine, Cincinnati, West Bend, Wisc., Utica, Reedsburg, Wisc., Vicksburg, Miss., Waukegan, Tiffin, O., Brooklyn, Valley City, N. Dak., Robinson, Ill., Milwaukee, Pipestone, Minn., Ogallala, Nebraska.

According to graduation years, the answers were as follows:

Group I—Before 1906	11
Group II—1906-1911	10
Group III—1912-1917	16
Group IV—1918-1925	50
Group V—1926-1930	47

The Survey Questionnaire follows. If you have not yet sent yours in in Father O'Hara, do so.

1. Check the year-group which contains your graduation year: Before 1905; 1906-1911; 1912-1917; 1918-1926; 1926-1930.
2. What is your occupation or profession? (State in general terms only) _____
3. Check the group which shows approximately your annual income: Below $3,000; $3,001-$5,000; $5,001-$7,500; $7,501-$12,000; above $12,000.
4. Are you a married man, a widower, or a bachelor? _____
5. What has been your contact with Notre Dame since your graduation? _____
6. Has the Religious Survey of the students interested you? _____
7. What impression have you of the spiritual life of the present students? _____
 Of their character? _____ Have you had much opportunity to judge these things? _____
8. How often do you receive Holy Communion? _____
9. When did you last receive? _____
10. About how often did you receive when you attended Notre Dame? _____
11. What other devotional practices do you follow regularly? _____
12. To which Catholic societies do you belong? _____
13. Are you well acquainted with your pastor? _____ With your Bishop? _____
14. Has your pastor afforded you any opportunity to assist him in parish activities? _____
 If so, to what extent have you responded? _____
15. Check the Catholic activities in which you have taken part since graduation: Teaching catechism; spreading Catholic literature; soliciting funds for Catholic charities, for Catholic education; speeches or lectures on Catholic topics; sick committees; _____
16. What percentage of your net income have you devoted to charity the last 12 months? _____
17. Do you subscribe to any Catholic newspapers? _____ Magazines? _____
 Do you read them regularly? _____
18. Who is your favorite Catholic author? _____
19. How do you keep posted on current Catholic thought? _____
20. What have you done to spread the faith? _____
21. Have you ever had occasion to defend the faith? _____ If so, how did you acquit yourself? _____
22. Was your college instruction in religion adequate for your later needs? _____ If not, what points would you suggest for stressing? _____
23. Since leaving Notre Dame have you done anything to foster frequent Communion? _____

24. Has contact with the world weakened or strengthened your Catholic ideals? _____
25. Have you found the faith an obstacle to your material advancement? _____
26. What feature of your religious life of Notre Dame strengthened your character most while you were in school? _____
27. To what extent have your religious convictions led you to sacrifice? _____
28. Have you influenced any Catholic young men to go to Catholic colleges? _____
29. Have you been conscious of your duty as a Catholic college man to give good example to others? _____
30. In the light of your present experience would you say the discipline was too strict or too lax in your time? _____
In what particular could it be improved? _____
31. What particular achievement of your spiritual life has been the source of greatest satisfaction to you? _____
32. Have you done anything to correct wrong attitudes of the press on Catholic questions? _____
On moral problems? _____
33. In your recollections of your religious life at Notre Dame, for what are you most grateful? _____
34. What could Notre Dame do now to further your spiritual life? _____
35. What has been the outside world's opinion of Notre Dame men with regard to:
  1. Initiative? _____
  2. Leadership in parish affairs? _____
  3. Leadership in civic affairs? _____
36. What justice do you think there is in the criticism that Catholic college graduates are not the leaders they should be? _____
37. What question would you want asked in another Religious Survey of the alumni? _____
38. Remarks: _____

For Married Men and Widowers

1. Is your wife a Catholic? _____ A convert? _____
2. With how many children has God blessed your union? _____
3. Have they had Catholic schooling? _____
4. How often do your children attend the Sacraments? _____
5. Do you have any family prayers in your home? _____
6. Have you done anything in your community to correct loose popular notions of marriage? _____
7. What provision should a recent graduate of Notre Dame make for a happy marriage? _____

For Bachelors

1. Are you courting a Catholic girl? _____
2. How soon do you expect to marry? _____
3. What have you read on the Catholic ideals of marriage? _____
4. Have your views on marriage changed much since your undergraduate days? _____
5. What provision are you making for a happy marriage? _____

ALUMNI CLUBS

ALBANY

A meeting of the Board of Governors was held at the home of John J. Huether, President of the Club, and arrangements completed for a dinner at the Van Curler Hotel, Schenectady, on April 20. The Club assures one hundred percent participation of members to be added to the quota of the alumni in all parts of the world to enjoy this night.

ARKANSAS

Burt Roberts, Secretary of the Club of Arkansas, rushed in some notes concerning the members of the Club:

"Since writing you this morning, I drifted into the office of Twomey Clifford of the Class of '14, who is laboring in this town of Camden, and is said to be hard on bootleggers and horse thieves. (Twomey Clifford is Camden's Prosecuting Attorney). I am now in his office and in swapping subway yarns and going over other notorious escapades of other days with him, I learned a few items of interest that might fit in the coming number of the ALUMNUS.

Art Carmody is now Vice-President of the North Texas Central Oil Company, headquarters in Shreveport, territory all of the Southwest. Art's brother Mike is now located in the new East Texas oil fields, trading cows and automobiles for oil leases and royalties. Matt Rotherth of the Class of '24 is here in Camden. He is the same old smiling Matt, and is manager of a furniture factory that is actually running all the time. Billie Hendriks who spent last year at Notre Dame is earning some extra money to return to school next fall. He is doing some amateur boxing, and recently appeared on a card at Little Rock with Max Schmelling, our foreign world heavy swinger. Billie copped the welter weight medal at school last year. Jimmy Swift, formerly of Camden is now practicing law in Dallas. Jimmy is married.

Best of luck. Twomey wishes to be remembered to you and his friends at Notre Dame.

Sincerely yours,
Burt L. Roberts, Secy.

BOSTON

The Notre Dame Club of Boston is planning on a big party for Universal Notre Dame Night. Pat Cohen,

Taunton, Mass., sends in this encouraging news:

"April 20 is going to be a big night in Boston. Charlie Baine, Pres., Dr. Lynch, Secy., and I are planning for a gala night. A Club meeting to be held with dinner and dancing following . . . The Notre Dame Club of Boston is growing and in time will be THE Club." Pat requests Notre Dame songs, Club By-Laws, Club suggestions, et cetera, et cetera. With the Notre Dame contingent in Harvard joining forces with the Bostonians the Night should be a BIG success.

BUFFALO

Dear Jim:

Yesterday was a day that none of us will ever forget. It almost seems unbelievable that Rock will not be with us any more.

All our plans for Notre Dame Night have been changed, and although this is not authentic I am sure that our night will be a testimonial to the memory of Rock.

Gene Oberst is getting plenty of publicity, and he is well established in our old city. We hope he stays, and that he has many successful years at Canisius College.

Saw Joe Braunsdorf yesterday: said his brother Bill was seriously thinking of getting married. Bill was in our class, and seemed sane.

I have to give Vince Hanrahan another break—he has at last decided to settle down and make Buffalo his home and then to show that he has many many brains he decided to go into the life insurance business. Phoenix Mutual gave him a break, and now there are three Notre Dame fellows up in this office, so the Notre Dame Club should never be in want of good life insurance advice. Vince is very hopeful expecting that next year being leap year he will have the opportunity of a life time—answering that age old question in the affirmative.

Saw Max Kazus the other day. Things are coming his way. You he is the big shot in the income tax office. He gets money, letters, bricks and is often called—well you know what you have called the income tax man, and Max gets the same here.

John Uebbing is still selling bonds to the wealthy of our community, and John does right by them. Joe and Ben his younger brothers, who attended N. D. for one year, are thinking of returning and keeping the Uebbing name before the public as of old.

Al Boehm and Ed Lutz are now ready to take on all comers in ping pong. They have acclaimed themselves as the white hopes in this strenuous game. Send on your best, Buffalo will back these two athletes to the limit.

Ed Jenkins was up in the office the other day. He is still as fat and sassy as ever. John Byrne and family are well and kicking right along; saw them myself, so this is authentic.

CHICAGO

Dear Jim:

It appears that Jack Scallan got swamped in the work for his Universal Notre Dame Night celebration, and so I am rushing you these few notes relative to the Chicago group:

Universal Notre Dame Night Committee is headed by Scallan, and has the following members: James R. Martin, William Connors, William Dailey, Norman Feltes, Richard Nash, Robert Stephan, Thomas Walsh, Clifford Noonan. The affair will be a dinner at the Drake Hotel, in the Gold Room, with Father Charles O'Donnell, as speaker and principal guest of honor. Father O'Donnell's talk will be broadcast over station WGN at about 9:45 or 10:00 o'clock with Quin Ryan officiating. Many prominent leaders in civic life are expected to be our guests.

QUAD WRANGLES, the monthly paper issued by the club, has as its Editor, Jimmie Jones.

The Club will continue its weekly luncheons on Friday of every week, in the Ivory Room of Mandel Brothers Store. Renewed interest in these luncheons has been manifested. The luncheon committee is in charge of Joe Donaldson, '23, who has made plans for a feature of entertainment for each week.

Special attention is being given to the VOCATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE which we hope will be comprised of members who are leaders in various walks of life. Its purpose will be to advise the younger men, and if possible secure positions for them.

Sincerely yours,
Jas. M. McNicholas.

Since the recent election of officers, Jim Brennan, newly elected Chicago Club President, has appointed the following committee chairmanships:

Luncheons Committee—Joseph F. Donaldson, '23.

Vocational Guidance—Daniel E. Hilgartner, '17.

Universal N. D. Night—John Scallan, '25.

Editor "Quadrangles" — James Jones, '27.

Publicity—John Scallan, '25.

Jim McNicholas, Secretary, in answer to a plea for Club Notes for the ALUMNUS, sent in the following: "The Club is experimenting with the idea of one center from which we hope will emanate all publicity relating to our activities. The contributions to your publication in the way of Club Notes, therefore, will come—we hope—from Jack Scallan, who, among other burdens, has assumed charge of club publicity."

CLEVELAND

Dear Jim:

Arrangements have been completed for the Notre Dame Club of Cleveland Easter Formal to be held on Easter Monday night at the University Club. Members of the various committees are as follows:

John Butler, Chairman; Gene Kane; George Kerver; Fred Joyce; Don Miller; Charles Mooney; Tom Byrne; John Reidy; and Paul Brady.

Admission this year will be by invitation only, in order to limit the crowd. Notre Dame parties in Cleveland are very popular, and we expect a very pleasant evening.

Plans are already being made for the celebration for University of Notre Dame Night. As usual we will have our annual meeting, and election of officers.

Joe Toolen has returned to Cleveland, and was welcomed by the "old Quad Hall" gang, which, by the way, is probably well broken up; J. Curtis is in Detroit—Spike McAdams and Al Sommers are living at the Lake Shore, and the other boys have wandered in various parts.

Suppose you know that Don Miller is engaged to be married to Miss Mae Lynch of Terre Haute, Indiana. The marriage will take place some time next month at St. Mary-of-the-Woods.

Yours very truly,

Notre Dame Club of Cleveland

Fred Joyce, Secy.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Alumni from Eastern Pennsylvania will be interested in the following from Leo McIntyre, Bethlehem:

"I think we shall be able to erect the organization of the Notre Dame Club of Eastern Pennsylvania at a dinner to be held on Universal Notre Dame Night in either Allentown, Bethlehem or Reading. In the post card which I sent out this week one of the queries will be: 'Where would you like to hold our dinner on Universal Notre Dame Night?'"

A recent letter from Leo is still more encouraging:

"Plans for a dinner to be held by alumni and former students of Notre Dame now residing in Eastern Pennsylvania are progressing.

"Joseph Ricapito, director of the Marine Band of Allentown, a graduate of Lehigh University, has assured me that he and his band will be delighted to play all the Notre Dame songs for us at a dinner on April 20. He has sent to Chicago for the songs, which he will also teach the Liberty High School band, the public high school band of Bethlehem, which he also directs."

Alumni now living in Eastern Pennsylvania are urged to attend this meeting on Universal Notre Dame Night. We will be glad to have the name and address of any former student who has recently become a resident of the Eastern part of Pennsylvania. Anyone desiring any further information, may write to either this office or to Leo McIntyre, 708 Eighth Ave., Bethlehem, Pa.

FORT WAYNE

Cliff Ward, Secretary, after an especially "dirty crack" about a subject near and dear to the heart of the Editor (the photo of said Editor in the March magazine) redeems himself somewhat by sending in some news from Fort Wayne.

The Fort Wayne Club is working with the undergraduates in trying to put across their annual dance in Fort Wayne, Easter Monday night. According to advanced information the dance is to be held in the Hotel Anthony ballroom. The orchestra has not yet been announced. Cliff says: "Success will be easy."

In the same letter the Secretary says: "Recent visitors at Fort Wayne included the well-known Bustamante from South America, Johnny Montague from Chicago, and Joseph Hennaberry, also from Caponeland. I don't know whether the ALUMNUS ever carried the announcement of the third son in the Logan family, but if it hasn't, it should. With three boys and no daughters, the Logans should be able to contribute materially to the prosperity of the University of Notre Dame in the future."

HAMILTON, OHIO

The Notre Dame Club of Hamilton, Ohio is planning a celebration on April 20, Universal Notre Dame Night, according to information contained in a recent letter from Marc Fiehrer, Secretary of the Club. No details were given, and we are looking forward to receiving more specific information soon . . . perhaps before this issue is on the press. If not, see the the May ALUMNUS!

HAVANA, CUBA

C. C. Fitzgerald, of Havana, has promised to do his best to get the Notre Dame fellows in the Havana territory together for a celebration of Universal Notre Dame Night.

HIAWATHALAND

My dear Jim:

Wish you were going to be here to participate in the annual meeting of the Notre Dame-Hiawathaland Club.

Alumni from Marinette, Wis., Menominee, Iron Mountain, Gladstone, Ishpeming, Negaunee, Marquette, Houghton, Hancock, Calumet, Soo, and Escanaba will be in attendance at our banquet, and the "after dinner party" will be held at an old Hunting Camp on the shores of Green Bay.

We have already hired the best known chef in the Upper Peninsula, Ralph Pratt, to take charge of the dinner. We expect about one hundred guests, and according to returns received from the alumni, our attendance will be about 99%.

Will advise you the outcome of the meeting and give you all the dope on our future plans.

Sincerely,

Gerald J. Cleary, Sec.

INDIANAPOLIS

The Notre Dame Scholarship Club, of Indianapolis, is having a reception Easter afternoon at the Academy of Music, with dancing and refreshments, for the benefit of the Scholarship fund of the club. From the number of reservations made we expect a very successful affair. Robert M. Worth and Robert Kirby are in charge.

Our plans for Universal Notre Dame Night are about complete. We are trying to make the occasion complete with the atmosphere of the old dining hall with the famous "buns" and Notre Dame jackets on the waiters. One of the professors of the school will be the principal speaker.

Sincerely,
Walter W. Houppert, Secy.

JOLIET CLUB

"Dear Jim:

As I told you in the last letter you received from the Joliet Club, we were preparing for election of officers. That event took place on the evening of March 10. The meeting was held at the Woodruff hotel and was preceded by a dinner.

Being well satisfied with the management of the Club many of the members were in favor of retaining the officers of 1930, which speaks well for them, but being prevailed upon by said officers, the members at last agreed to elect a new group. This was done, with one sad exception. The secretary could not prevail upon any one to accept a nomination for that office.

Mr. Joseph Adler, '24, our treasurer of last year, was elected president. He succeeds Mr. Clarence W. Wilhelmi, a genial and capable gentleman, who was elected to the board of directors for a three year term.

Charles Lennon, '30, now subs for the president in his absence, in the role of vice-president.

William Bossingham, '25, now controls the financial destiny of the Club as treasurer.

John P. Berscheid, '29, the sad exception mentioned above, continues in the office of secretary.

It is the intention of the new officers to keep the Club active, to increase the activities, and to see that every person eligible to membership in the Club, be induced to join.

At present the main interest of the members is directed toward Universal Notre Dame Night, and while the actual plans for that evening have not been worked out, the next meeting will insure their completion.

Sincerely yours,
John P. Berscheid, Secy."

KANSAS CITY

Dear Jim:

Am sending the K. C. data post-haste as per your airmail request.

Locally, Ray Conrad has given up architecture and is now sales engineer for Progressive School Equipment Co., covering five of the adjoining states, and doing nicely.

Ed McGrath (Monk) was injured recently in an auto accident. However he is recovered, and is as ever the life of all parties.

Alumni of Notre Dame and Nebraska put on a brief contest at the Hockey matches last week, and, just as you would expect, N. D. finished with honors.

Judge Tom Holland's court is filled with frequenters of local gambling houses, and Judge Tom is out to clean up the old town, with heavy fines and jail sentences. The old N. D. spirit.

Joe Shaughnessy, the biggest architect in K. C. is building up a fine practice, and is a very popular member of the local chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Tentative plans for Universal N. D. Night call for a buffet supper at the Senate Hotel, very informal, with program broadcast from WDAF and KMBC radio stations. A short business meeting, and report of the Secretary and Treasurer, and brief talk by Conrad Mann, our Honorary President.

Shall give you full report of our meeting for your later issue.

Sincerely,
Maurice Carroll, Secy.

KENTUCKY

Some belated election reports from Kentucky. (Unfortunately, the results of the election were not included in last month's ALUMNUS).

The Club held its quarterly meeting, and also elected the following officers on the night of February 2:
President—Frank B. Bloemer, Jr., '22

Vice-Pres.—Joseph P. Harmon, '25
Vice-Pres.—Martin Sullivan, Ex. '23
Secretary—Edwin Boehmer, Ex. '25
Treasurer—Eugene Steurle, Ex. '24

The new officers have started things humming with the announcement of a big party on April 20. Particulars as to the way the Night will be celebrated have not been worked out at this time.

Another announcement of unusual interest to the scores of alumni who journey to the Blue Grass State annually for that great classic—the Kentucky Derby—is the good news that the Club will hold open house at 126 E. Jefferson, Louisville, during the Derby for any alumnus who is in the city for that event. Anyone craving companionship or sure tips on the Derby go to Bloemer's, 126 E. Jefferson, knock three times and ask for "Frank."

LOUISIANA-MISSISSIPPI

Dear Jim:

Mr. Burke and myself had the pleasure of spending a few minutes with Mr. Angus McDonald on his recent visit here, which visit was for the day only. It just so happened that on the same day I received my copy of the ALUMNUS and learned therefrom that the University had chosen Mr. McDonald to make the commencement address. I anticipate having the pleasure of hearing this address, and think the University made a very capable selection in their speaker for this year's commencement exercise.

John Barr of Pittsburgh in the class of '24, dropped in on me yesterday, and we spent a very interesting luncheon engagement discussing Notre Dame matters in general.

Outside of foregoing, news is very scarce. I think you should ask Laskey or Cowles to drop you a line, as I understand our good friend, Pat Manion, has recently spent several days in Shreveport.

Hoping to develop more news in future, I beg to remain,

Yours sincerely,
Cyp Spurl.

MILWAUKEE

A note from William Redden, Secretary of the Milwaukee Club, announces a luncheon on Tuesday, April 9, to discuss future plans for the Club.

The Club is to be congratulated upon the splendid work that has been accomplished in connection with a Club Directory. The Office has recently received a copy of a splendid mimeographed Directory containing the names, years at Notre Dame, degrees, address, occupation and telephone numbers of the members.

Quite a few of the younger fellows are located in Milwaukee. From the 1923 Class we find that Robert Beck is Vice-President of the Delta Manufacturing Co; Paul C. Brust is practicing architecture with his father; Eugene Galdabini is with A. O. Smith Corp.; Jerry De Clerc puts the Fleischmann Yeast Company across; Frank Holdampf is with C. S. Whitney Company, consulting engineers; Jean La Boule is continuing his studies at the University of Wisconsin; Robert Lutz is now with Alexander, Burke & Clark, attorneys; and James Rank sees that people get around town in Studebaker cars.

Here are some of the '29ers: John J. Donahue, and Charles Schutty with Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co.; Angelo Galdabini makes boxes with the Manufacturers Box Company—anyway, he is working with that Company; Fred Miller, former football star, et cetera, works for his dad in the Miller Lumber Company, and James Le Grand doubles for one of Hell's Angels as a Curtiss aviator.

A number of the 1930 students are located in Milwaukee. Among them are Thomas Meagher who is a student at Marquette University; Clark Stanhope, who does accounting for the Wisconsin Telephone Company, and E. A. Bartley and Henry Wolters who are employed by the Allis Chalmers Mfg. Company.

NEW JERSEY

Between the "26 Reunion in June and Universal Notre Dame Night in April, Jake Purcell is keeping himself thoroughly occupied. The Notre Dame Club of New Jersey is planning on a stag dinner on the night of April 20. Negotiations are being made to have some prominent alumni as guest speakers of the Club. No details have been enclosed in any of Jake's numerous letters, but it is safe to assume, from past New Jersey affairs, that U. N. D. Night celebrations will be a gala event.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

A recent note from the Club contains the following information regarding the March meeting, Hotel Grill room, San Francisco. "Good enthusiastic attendance . . . Gilbert K. Chseterton was in town at the time on tour of the Pacific Coast, but unable to address our meeting . . . Harry Burt, loyal N. D. member and well-known by alumni here and citizens of Richmond, bursted in late, however, and saved the speakers committee's faces with an enjoyable harangue on, "Why I Sing Tenor" . . . Plans were outlined for the observance of Universal Notre Dame Night, and a committee appointed to handle the preparations . . . An Endowment Fund contribution of $25 from Mr. J. M. Smith, prominent San Francisco contractor and president of the St. Mary's College Alumni was announced and a vote of thanks and appreciation extended to Mr. Smith.

No new faces appeared at our last meeting but at the February meeting Jim Wasson, now of Berkeley with Colgate-Palmolive-Peet and formerly of Milwaukee, reported and found several old pals of his time that he hadn't seen for years.

K. K. Rockne was in the city several weeks ago appearing in all kinds of roles . . . coach, lecturer, professor, radio artist, salesman . . . and he still keeps his audience guessing.

PHILADELPHIA

Dear Jim:

This is just a word as evidence that 'Old Man Apathy' hasn't entirely routed the garrison of your Quaker City outpost. We must confess to a hibernation but already repentance and good resolution have started to plan a counter movement to culminate in a general awakening on April 20th.

On that date we will hold forth as Sons of Notre Dame at Les Casades Restaurant with a dinner to get under way at seven o'clock. We especially urge any of the boys who may be in town on that date to join us. In connection with this thought it is in point to remark that very often alumni move to Philadelphia for an extended stay (and some, believe it or not, permanently) and never think of getting in touch with members of the club. We'd all like to hear from the new-comers but we're not keepers of the City Roll, so must depend upon their making their presence known. If they will do this we promise collectively and individually to soften for them the seeming austerity of our much misunderstood municipality. There are ways of doing this.

We are just initiating a campaign to have every alumnus in our territory enrolled as a member of the General Alumni Association before Universal Notre Dame Night and hope, both for the benefit of the Association and the members, that we meet with success. As for the Night, itself, definite plans for a program are not yet made. However, our problem will be to devise a program which will enable us to discuss all the questions awaiting discussion in the limited time available—and still allow time for the very necessary 'bull session.'

Kindest personal regards.

Very truly yours,
John Kelly,
Secretary-Treasurer

ROCK RIVER VALLEY

When Notre Dame men of Rockford, Dixon, Sterling, Beloit and other towns of that vicinity gather in Rockford the night of April 20, it will mark the second anniversary of the organization of the Rock River Valley-Notre Dame club, which started on the Universal Night celebration of 1929. Election of officers, therefore, will be an order of business. E. M. Lorden, '24, of Rockford, is president, and Willard Jones, '25, of Dixon, is vice-president.

SYRACUSE AND CENTRAL NEW YORK

"The Syracuse Club enjoyed and appreciated the visit of the Basketball team on March 1 and 2. Regardless of the score the team gave a good exhibition of fine play. Their opponents are considered to be one of the leading teams in the State.

"We entertained the team at dinner Sunday night followed by a hockey game, the team being the guests of the Syracuse Professional Hockey Club. Messrs. F. J. O'Connor Sales Company graciously furnished Studebaker cars as required."

This information was contained in a letter from E. C. Schonlau, President of the Club. Enclosed in the same letter was a pledge and check from the Syracuse and Central New York Club to the Living Endowment Fund. May I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the members of the Club for their cooperation.—The Editor.

SOUTHWESTERN TEXAS

The Notre Dame Club of Southwestern Texas is making preparations for celebrating Universal Notre Dame Night. According to present plans the Club will entertain with a Stag dinner, similar to the celebration held last year. Two prominent citizens, interested in Notre Dame, will be guest speakers. Arrangements will be made with the local broadcasting station to pick up any broadcasts that can be arranged.

Kirwin Williams, Secretary of the Club tells us that the Club is preparing for the election of officers. The members are also considering reorganization, from the Club of Southwestern Texas to the San Antonio-Notre Dame Club. The results of this project will be listed in the May issue of this magazine.

TOLEDO

Dear Jim:

Since Ben Kesting was unable to attend the meeting of the Toledo-Notre Dame Club yesterday, I was appointed to write and give you the information for the next issue of the ALUMNUS.

The Toledo Club held its meeting at the University Club on Sunday morning, March 29th, immediately following the 8:30 Mass at the Cathedral Chapel. This breakfast-meeting proved to be a very interesting one.

Everyone and everything is looking up to the Easter Monday dance to be held at the University Club. It is a complete sell-out. We have already reached our limit in sales. It is going to be a great success, one which the Toledo Club can always be well proud.

And now for our biggest moment—Universal Notre Dame Night. It is going to be BIG in Toledo. Popular Pat Manion will be the prominent speaker, ably assisted by Dr. John T. Murphy, a prominent X-ray specialist and honorary member of the Toledo Club, and Grove Patterson, well-known editor of the Toledo Blade. One or two representatives of the Toledo News Bee will also be on hand. Buffet supper, Notre Dame songs, smokes, music, et. al. Everyone is expected to tell a story or joke; the one telling the best story will receive a prize.

The Toledo Club has gone golf. GOLF! Two tournaments are on the list for the summer. The first will be held in May at the Heatherdowns Country Club. Artie Schmidt will be host. The second tournament will be held at the Riverby Hills. Golf, prizes, swimming, eats and handicaps will be enjoyed by all. This is our first venture in the golf tournament, but it already looks a success.

Emory Toth reports that Emory Toth II, now ten months old, is already rooting for N. D. We suspect he is kidding us, but, well, you know 'em. He is proud of that boy and well he might be if junior is like his father.

Sincerely yours,
Ray L. Tillman.

VERMONT

Joseph Radigan, Ludlow, Vermont, is planning on organizing a Notre Dame Club of Vermont. He hopes to arrange the first meeting on Universal Notre Dame Night. Any help that alumni from the State of Vermont can give him will be greatly appreciated. The Club will probably consist of all graduates and former students in the State of Vermont.

*The Alumni Clubs
are urged to go to Holy Communion
in a body
on Sunday, April 19th, for
Knut K. Rockne*

Local Alumni Club Meetings

Send Notice of Meetings of Clubs Not Listed to Alumni Secretary, Box 81, Notre Dame, Indiana.

CHICAGO: Friday; 12:00, Ivory Room, Mandel's (weekly luncheon).

CINCINNATI: Tuesday; 12:15 p. m., Broadway Hotel (luncheon meetings—first and Third Tuesdays).

CLEVELAND: Monday; Hollenden Hotel (year around luncheon meetings).

DES MOINES: Monthly meeting—no regular date—(call Carleton Beh).

DETROIT: Thursday; 12:30 p. m., Frontenac Inn, 42 Monroe Avenue (weekly luncheon meeting).

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA: Monthly luncheon—last Wednesday of each month; University Club, Washington.

FORT WAYNE: Monthly dinner—no regular date—(call Edward T. Gilmartin, President).

INDIANAPOLIS: Second Wednesday of the month, luncheon, Indianapolis Athletic Club.

JOLIET: Monthly meeting—first Tuesday. (Call Clarence Wilhelm for details).

KENTUCKY: Tuesday (luncheon meetings—second Tuesday; no regular location; call J. R. Brown, President).

LOS ANGELES: Monthly dinner meeting; no regular location—(call Henry I. Dockweiler, President, for details).

NEW JERSEY: Monday; 7:30 p. m., Newark Athletic Club, Newark —(monthly meeting—first Monday).

NEW YORK CITY: Thursday; Fraternity Club, 22 E. 38th Street—(weekly luncheon).

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA: Tuesday; noon, Grill Room, Fairmount Hotel, San Francisco—(monthly luncheon—first Tuesday).

ROCHESTER: Meetings twice monthly. Columbus Club. Call Norbert Baglin, 25 Arnett Blvd.

SYRACUSE: Wednesday; 12:15 p. m., Schraft's—monthly luncheon—second Wednesday).

TOLEDO: First Sunday of the month—Mass 8:30, Cathedral Chapel, followed by breakfast, University Club.

UTAH: Tuesday, University Club, Salt Lake City—(monthly luncheon—first Tuesday).

WABASH VALLEY: Four times yearly—January, April, October, December—Fowler Hotel, Lafayette, Ind.—(call Francis Watson, President, for details).

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA: Thursdays; 12:15, McCreery's Dining Room, Sixth Ave. and Wood St., Pittsburgh—(weekly luncheons).

THE ALUMNI

Deaths

The ALUMNUS regrets to announce the death of Prof. CLARENCE T. HAGERTY, on March 21 in Cleveland, Ohio. Death came after a three months' illness. The body was sent to Chicago for burial.

"Cat" Hagerty, as he was known to his friends, because of the initials, Clarence A. T. Hagerty, was graduated from Notre Dame in 1890, and received a Master of Science degree in 1895. He was also an instructor at Notre Dame for several years. Professor Hagerty also received a degree from Harvard University, and for 32 years was a teacher of mathematics at the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts. He was formerly grand knight of the Knights of Columbus at Las Cruces, N. Mex.

The tragic and untimely death of HAROLD W. HALPIN, '28, has recently been reported in the Alumni Office. Harold, the son of J. B. Halpin, prominent Elyria contractor, was fatally injured in an auto accident in Los Angeles, March 22. The car in which Harold, and his brother Don, were driving, was struck by the automobile of a Los Angeles policeman, according to advices received here. Don, a graduate of Notre Dame with the Class of '28, was only slightly injured. Harold died early Monday morning.

Since his graduation from Notre Dame, Harold has been associated with his father in the contracting business. He and his brother and a Charles Wentz of Elyria, had been touring the west for several weeks.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his brother and three sisters, Geraldine, Nancy, and Mary. Burial was in Elyria.

George L. Duval, who was awarded the Laetare Medal by Notre Dame in 1919, died on Monday, March 16, at his home, 300 Park Ave., New York City. Mr. Duval was presented with the Medal by Rev. JOHN CAVANAUGH, C.S.C., then President of the University, in recognition of his generous gifts to Catholic Charities.

Mr. Duval, who started his career as an employee in the William R.

Grace Company, export and import firm, at the age of 16, became partner of the same firm at 23, and was one of the founders of the present firm of Wessel, Duval and Co.

He never married, and left only a sister, Mrs. Anna Chadwick, two nieces, and a nephew.

The ALUMNUS wishes to express the sympathy of the Association to DANIEL R. CONNELL, Jr., '25, and to WARD T. CONNELL, ex. '25, on the death of their father, Dr. D. R. Connell, of Beloit, Wis. Dr. Connell, a well-known physician and surgeon, died on February 8, 1931, result of a fractured hip.

The ALUMNUS also extends sympathy to LEO J. HERBERT, '27, whose mother, Mrs. Elsie Herbert of Rock Island, died recently.

We also wish to extend sincere sympathy to W. M. ADAMS, '25, who has had the misfortune to lose both his parents within a month's time. Bill's father passed away on Christmas Eve, and his mother died a month later.

EDWARD CUNNINGHAM, '28, of Los Angeles, Calif., has our sincere sympathy. Ed's father passed away recently.

Births

"Mr and Mrs. JAMES LILLIS, ex '26, announce the arrival to be a boy. Possibly Jim, Jr., No accurate data yet." The above is from Maurice Carroll, Kansas iCty.

Mr. and Mrs. W. FRANK OLSEN, of Los Angeles, are the proud parents of a baby girl, Mary Margaret, born March 14, and weighing 7-13 pounds. Frank was graduated from Notre Dame in 1926, and received an M.A. degree in Boy Guidance in 1927.

George Kingsley, Secy. of the Western Pennsylvania Club has just given us the following news: "Another event that calls for some congratulations, is the fact that Dr. LEO D. O'DONNELL, '17, better known as 'Mickey' to his old classmates, is the proud father of a beautiful baby girl. The latest addition to our Club, Miss Elizabeth Patterson O'Donnell, was born November 25, 1930, and now the 'Doc' claims that day to be his lucky one."

ART and Mrs. Carmody, '15, are the proud parents of a baby girl, Josephine, arrived several months ago. Art plans to take her to South Bend in June, and get her acquainted with the walls of the fortress across the way.

Engagements

Harry Dempf supplies us with this engagement:

"Here is an item that is even a scoop on the Louisville press. KEN HAMMOND, M.E., '25, is engaged to Miss Mae Sullivan, formerly of Fall River, Mass.; the marriage to take place the first part of May. Kenneth is First Assistant Chief Engineer of the American Air Filter Company, with headquarters in Louisville, and no doubt his many friends will be glad to hear of both of his professional progress and also the news."

"If MIKE HOGAN, '29, has any enemies (which we doubt) they will be pleased to hear that Mike has finally been ensnared. The announcement of Hogan's engagement to Miss Betty Chapman of Fort Wayne has been announced. We understand that the fatal day will be in April. S'too bad, Mike!" (The Editor does not wish to take the responsibility for the above statements. Being a happily married man himself, it would hardly be wise . . . The above is, you will note, a direct quotation from a letter received from a member of the Class of '29.)

Marriages

The marriage of Eulaun Brandon Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulla Brandon of Auburn, Ind., and ROBERT S. BAILEY, '29, took place March 22 at St. James Episcopal church, South Bend.

These Notre Dame men will continue to do it . . . This is another one of those Notre Dame-Saint Mary's alliances. OSKAR D. RUST, '29, was married to Miss Zita Mae Scheidler, St. Mary's, '29, on September 2, 1930, at Greensburg, Ind. HENRY "HAN" HASLEY, Fort Wayne's dashing young attorney, aided Rosalie Hoefler, in witnessing the affixing of the penal chains. Rust is Red Grang-ing it in the Ice and Coal business in Greensburg, and is one of the city's leading citizens.

Personals

1879

ED RYAN, of the Class of '23, sent a letter to the Office recently containing the good news that he had quite a chat with Prof. MARTIN McCUE at his home in Woodstock, the middle of March. Ed said the Professor "was looking as young as ever, and hopes to be back at Notre Dame next fall." We, at Notre Dame, are especially glad to hear this, and know that the Professor's many friends will find it natural to see him back on the campus again when they visit the school.

1889

An exceptionally interesting newspaper article concerning the well-known alumnus, GENE MELADY, '89, has been called to our attention. Mr. Melady has always been a follower of athletic events. The article outlines Mr. Melady's career as a sportsman from the time he was a member of the Notre Dame football team at the age of sixteen—and by the way, he was six feet and one inch at that time and the youngest member of the team—through his years as manager of heavyweight matmen. During this time Gene promoted many big mat shows in Omaha. At that time grappling was strictly on the up-and-up.

Through his activities in the sports world Gene has made innumerable friends among men nationally known in the athletic world. Jack Curley, who is responsible for the present activity in the wrestling revival in New York, is a close friend, as is Jim Corbett, former heavyweight champion.

Eugene Patrick Melady, Jr., 18 years old, 6 feet 4 inches tall and weighing 190 pounds, is attending St. Mary's (Kansas) college, and probably will follow in his dad's footsteps and attend Notre Dame.

1890-1893

Louis P. Chute, 7 University Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., Secretary.

With the following order I think I have gone the limit of endurance, and trust the "bug" is now about eliminated from the system. Please don't let 'um "elide" the heading from the following memorial:

FOR SUPER-ACADEMICIANS ONLY

In the March issue of the ALUMNUS, page 251, these four secretaries had a jargon of Latin,—so-called for want of a more appropriate designation,—being a post-type of the "competitions" of yore, and intended to be entitled "Nunc or Nunquam." This title was missing on the ALUMNUS set-up for unobvious (maybe devious, maybe academic) reasons. The experience didn't cure him of his foolishness, which goes on apace for the benefit of those who might be inclined to solemncholy and long faces subversive of fine disposition.

While expecting a possible "criticism" from some quarter puncturing the technique "full of 000s," it was not thought this would come so soon as to appear to be integral with the original text. However, with a just pride becoming one of ordinary prudence and discretion, (poor fellow), the "criticism" is now criticized as follows:

1. The word "collection" in the third paragraph reminds one of his pastor's appeal for the "offerings of the faithful" supplemental to the regular weekly envelope in a multitude of extra services for the spiritual advancement of the congregation trained to liberal attendance. "Recollection" would be better, though supposedly not covering the same ground twice at a service. This is intended to be only playful with pastors who can appreciate a little pleasantry at their expense.

2. It is difficult to divine the purpose for the elision of the title to the Latin gibberish. Let us call it "Nunc or Nunquam." Titles at the head of an article generally have a tendency to give slant to the text, sometimes to the extent of causing it to tumble into the oblivion of the w-bst. If not going too far will say that belated attempt was made to add to the gibberishness of the article by inserting, in lingua aliena, a polite recommendation from the dauntless Horatius to Lars Porsena and his warrior host, to be careful, and "hold their hosses" and not let King Richard have a "one" when he might just as well have volunteered to break the bank on a "six" or an "eight."

3. The above is but a back-handed reflex of the hearty, fateful 000s anticipated to afflict the text; the purpose of this criticism is that these four secretaries didn't want his school-mates to think his present knowledge of the Classics had so waned as to believe that "tuus" and "vobis" were identical. One is indicative of a goodly wherewithal, and the other refers merely to the existence of the other fellow, or a bunch of him. This-one was self caught without assistance from any other grad who might be mystified by the above talk. About two weeks having elapsed since page 251, it is evident that grads don't check up very much on grads to show up their mistakes. However, it might be that they all marveled at the perfection of the diction and saw no occasion to comment.

In checking up on these conceptions with anyone interested it would not be necessary to refer to musty toms of the past; March number for date and spriteliness will negative the idea.

Theto Dayness.

1894

Hugh A. O'Donnell, The New York Times, New York City.

HUGH O'DONNELL writes a note of lament because of his failure to scrape up any Class Notes for this issue. Hugh has been ever faithful in this phase of activity, and we are suggesting that some other member of the Class drop us a note once in awhile.

1897

Rev. John MacNamara, St. Joseph Sanitarium, Mount Clemens, Mich.,

"W. BARNETT WEAVER, M.D., is practicing medicine in Miamisburg, Ohio. Barney has changed very little as the years roll by, and the Class Secretary and he had a delightful reunion last fall in Cartier Field. It was the first in 33 years, and Barney promised that he would come back more often to see the old school.

"The Secretary has also discovered WM. C. HENGGEN, long among the missing, is now the Very Rev. Dean Hengen, in charge of the Episcopal Cathedral, Faribault, Minn. He is doing fine work for his church, and it is hoped that when his duties permit, he will come back for alumni reunions."

In a recent letter from Father MacNamara to the Editor, he expressed the possibility of paying us at Notre Dame a visit most any day now. We are delighted, and know that his many friends will be pleased to learn of this intended visit, and also that his health is improving. Father Mac-Namara has been enjoying a much needed rest at St. Joseph's Sanitarium at Mount Clemens, Mich.

1898

F. Henry Wurzer, 1632 Buhl Bldg.,
Detroit, Michigan.

REV. JOHN CAVANAUGH, C.S.C. doubles for the Class Secretary, who has been critically ill in his home in Detroit. Father Cavanaugh, as usual, has some choice tidbits concerning a former student at Notre Dame:

"Two recently published books are of interest to Notre Dame men. The publishing house of McBride announces, 'Capistrano Nights' by C. F. Saunders and ST. JOHN O'SULLIVAN. Father St. John O'Sullivan was a student at Notre Dame in 1898. After ordination he went to California, and has been for many years pastor of the beautiful and celebrated old Mission of San Juan Capistrano. All California acclaims Father O'Sullivan for the intelligence and zeal with which he has restored and perpetuated one of the most beautiful of the old California Franciscan Missions."

Mr. Proctor is kept thoroughly occupied.

We have just learned that FRANK J. LONERGAN has been chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Oregon legislature. The rollcall revealed 34 votes for Loneragan and 23 for his opponent. Frank Loneragan has been practicing law in Portland.

1908

Frank X. Cull, Bulkley Bldg.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

The Secretary sends the following note in answer to a threat (sent to all Class Secretaries) from the Alumni Office:

"I hate to be a slacker, but it scarcely ever seems possible for me to furnish you with any Class Notes. I do not see one of the members of my own Class from one end of the year to the other, and their response to my numerous inquiries for information concerning them is not very fruitful."

We are hopeful of a stack of letters from conscience-stricken alumni for the next issue of the ALUMNUS. Or is the Class of '08 such a placid group that nothing ever happens to any of them?

1910

Rev. M. L. Moriarty, 527 Beall Ave.,
Wooster, Ohio, Secretary

Friend Jim:

Your request for the class notes on April 1st has met with the approval of the committee. Unless the late delivery today is jammed with responses to the dainty note I sent out some days back you will experience little difficulty in finding space for the 1910 news. CHET FREEZE came across with a delightful letter as a result of my wire last month. Chet and SAM McQUAID put on a comrade act in New York a short time ago. On the same trip he visited with ART and HAROLD LARKIN and evidently mixed up some new chuckles with some old experiences.

"RED" MILLER, Cleveland, reports a lengthy visit with Dr. Delaunay, C.S.C. News from "ROSY" DOLAN came from "Red." The oldish All-American tackle is pounding mathematics or perhaps applied engineering into that part of young America attending O. A. C., Corvallis, Oregon. Rosy, we are given to understand, lives in a summer and a winter home. The particular time of the year exerts some influence on his choice of loca-

THE SQUIRT BAND ON PARADE

(Taken in 1899)

Left to right in the above distinguished photograph of this historical campus musical organization: standing, Fred Powers, John Eggeman; seated (in the high) D. Myers, Johnson, Rob Funk, Walter Geoghegan, Francis Cornell, T. A. Steiner, John Forbing, J. R. Myers and Wm. Kegler. The photograph was furnished to the ALUMNUS by Judge Eggeman and the identifications were made by Father Steiner.

1900

John W. Eggeman, 1201 First Nat'l.
Bank Bldg., Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Editor wishes to announce the appointment of JUDGE EGGE MAN as Class Secretary, to fill the vacancy left by the unfortunate and untimely death of Francis O'Shaughnessy of Chicago.

The Judge contributed a very interesting picture of the famous Squirt Band (which we are reproducing on the above page of this issue), and the following:

"In the February issue of the ALUMNUS there was a notice recording some of the deeds of the 'Heiny' or 'Squirt' Band. Well do I remember this musical organization under the masterful leadership of BOB FUNK. They were unable to play anything but German Beer and Pretzels harmonies, and just thirty-two years ago St. Patrick's Day, they paraded through the different halls at five o'clock in the morning playing their German tunes, but after the Irish students finished their forcible instructions, the Band did fine in carrying to the gentle winds the strains of 'St. Patrick's Day In the Morning'."

1904

Robert Proctor, Monger Bldg.,
Elkhart, Ind.

The Secretary has been unusually busy planning an extensive Eastern tour. As head of the Order of Eagles, tion. "Red" claims that he builds a new summer home on the slightest provocation.

"PAT" WALSH, Architecture '10, is associated with William Koehl, Cleveland, Ohio. The Koehl institution specializes in building churches and yet "Pat" informs me by wire that he has seen no Notre Dame men recently, and (get this) all because he has been working like the devil.

PAUL DONOVAN slows up operations at Borden's in Chicago to tell me that there isn't a thing to tell. Then he proceeds to inform me that he has been in charge of the legal department there for the past four years. He puts the old praise racket on "JIM" DEERY as a result of extravagant courtesies corralled in Indianapolis. Working on the Borden background Paul agrees to supply some cheese for a little 1910 get-together in June. I am agreeing to furnish the attendance and before the cheese is laid open I shall insist on eliminating any reference to the members of the 1910 Class who refuse to acknowledge letters and telegrams. April first—no foolin'.

M. L. Moriarty.

1912

Edmund H. Savord, Box 135,
Sandusky, Ohio.

The Alumni Office is in receipt of a letter from Chicago reporting that an eight-sided engraved gold medal has been found. The year 1912 is on one side and "St. Edward's Hall, Notre Dame, Ind.", on the other. The writer says that the medal was found in Chicago, and that it will gladly be returned to the owner if he can be found. Any information will be appreciated. Just write to the Alumni Office.

1915

James E. Sanford, 1033 S. Linden
Ave., Highland Park, Ill.

JIM SANFORD seems to be greatly concerned over the unruly Class of '15. He sends in the following touching note:

"I am ashamed to have been so negligent about those 1915 Notes but information concerning the Class seems to be very scarce due, no doubt, to the fact that I have not pushed them through.

"From now until Commencement, however, I will try to round up a few of them."

Jim has changed his address. In case some of the penitent Classmates decide to send in some Class news, here is the address:

James E. Sanford,
1033 S. Linden Ave.,
Highland Park, Ill.

Phone: Highland Park 3733.

The Secretary encloses a short note concerning S. E. (Steve) BURNS, who is connected with the Janette Manufacturing Company, 556 W. Monroe St., Chicago. Steve is in the Sales Department.

MARK L. DUNCAN sends in a little note:

"Receiving Notre Dame mail at my office. Address mixes too much pleasure with business. Hence, the change to my home address for all mail. I believe this is 1915 reunion year and certainly hope a big percentage of the '15 men find it possible to be at Notre Dame in June.

"Recently I had a letter from BOB ROACH who was President of our Class. Bob should not find it difficult to make the Muscatine to Notre Dame journey. I also had the pleasure of spending a couple of evenings with ART CARMODY this winter.

"Best of wishes,

Mark Duncan, '15."

1917

John U. Riley, 244 Washington St.,
Boston, Massachusetts.

J. PAUL FOGARTY, who used to entertain the "hall-room boys"—Beauty Rohan and Charley Regan, by his ability to play all the popular song hits on the piano, is now entertaining radio audiences by having his own popular songs played and sung. Paul, as you probably know, wrote the tantalizing hit of a year ago, "Betty Co-ed." Recently Rudy Valee, broadcasting the Fleischman Hour, included the latest of Paul's. This one is called "Charley Cadet." We hope Charley Cadet will enjoy all the popularity bestowed on his little sister Betty.

JOSEPH F. GARGAN, who has been practicing law in New York City, has moved his offices to 85 Devonshire Street, Boston.

This last notice may encourage JOHN RILEY, the Secretary. John was lamenting the fact that so few alumni were in and around Boston. He maintained that the stronghold of the '17 Class was in the Chicago territory. With Joe a fellow citizen we are expecting great things . . . and feel duty-bound to warn Joe that from now on his life will probably be an open book.

JOHN C. METCALFE, a student in St. Edward's and Carroll halls, has just published a volume of poems entitled, "Listen, Honey!" The volume is published by Southtown Exonomet, 730 W. 65th St., Chicago.

1922

Gerald Ashe, 1024 Monroe Ave., Rochester, N. Y., Secretary.

The Law grads of 1922, who by the way comprise about a third of our class registration, are already taking great interest in the coming Law Reunion which is to be held in conjunction with Commencement in June. The South Bend delegation of '22 lawyers including such men as AARON HUGUENARD, JIM DOOLEY, EDWIN J. MCCARTHY, PAUL PADEN, and PAUL SCHWERTLEY are eagerly awaiting the return of their brethren, and are planning for their reception.

Who can recall thoughts of '22 without awakening memories of:—JIM JONES and his green shirt—BILL MINER'S extempore address at the Oliver after Commencement—HARRY DENNY'S Orchestra—STEVE CARMODY'S lullabies—The time FRANKLYN MILLER lost a cow—ART KEENEY'S ungrateful golf pupil hitting him over the head with a golf club—And the dizzy angle of JOHN PAUL'S sombrero on special occasions?

CHET WYNNE and BOB PHELAN will return from the football fields. Out on the West Coast we have AL SCOTT, JOHN MCINNES, GENE KENNEDY, HARRY DENNY, and THURMOND MUDD, and if some of these men do not put in an appearance we will be sorely disappointed.

It is hoped that this mention of just a few of the '22 Law grads will revive happy memories and will help to give the class a good representation at the Law Reunion.

CLETE LYNCH, sometimes referred to as the Sheriff of Nottingham, recently tied his nag to a hitching post in Peoria and sought the village tavern so he might scribble a few words to ease his mind. Clete says he would like to have a goodly number of Engineers, Commerce men, Philosophers, and What Nots of the Class of '22 augment the Lawyers at Commencement so we can have a grand reunion. Although Clete does not say so, we think he visualizes a dinner gathering such as we had in 1927 on which occasion PAT MANION earned his present renown as an after-dinner speaker.

How about some more suggestions?

It is a good sign when thoughts of a reunion strike so many persons in the class at the same time. Years ago we reported CHUCK HIRSCHBUHL missing in action, but we have just celebrated the receipt of a most welcome letter from Chuch in which he inquires about the suggestion made at our graduation, that the class re-assemble in 1932 for a Tenth Anniversary celebration. Chuck's letter is a real treat and in part we quote:

"Believe it or not, here I am. They say the road to hell is paved with good intentions, and if such is the case I have a wonderful boulevard started. Have been on the point of writing to you many times during the last couple of years, but somehow or other never seem to find time.

"I haven't much to offer in the way of news. I have two rapidly growing daughters who keep me very busy, and who will soon be of school age. I always feel that it is but a short time since we were all together at Notre Dame, but when I look at said daughters I realize that time do fly. Am still in the iron business, and so far have eluded the sheriff successfully. But we now have one of the largest shops in the City, and if this present depression ever lifts should be able to afford a trip to South Bend some day.

CHUCK FOLEY gets over quite often from Burns, and we always hash over the old days. He made a trip to Chicago last month and came home with more news than we had had in years. He and DUKE HODLER, you know, are practicing law in Burns . . . very successfully, too.

There are a lot of the boys I wish you could print some news about. HIGGINS, CORYN, HART, MCKEE, BLOEMER, etc. I suppose it would be asking too much to get a directory of the entire class, giving present addresses. It would be very interesting, even if not useful. If I remember correctly, we agreed among ourselves to have a ten year reunion in 1932. Have never heard any more about it, and am wondering if enough interest could be stimulated to put it over . . ."

If mail continues as heavy as at present, the Secretary will need a secretary. JERRY DIXON writes as follows:

"Hardly had I returned from a recent business trip to the west coast of the U. S. A., when I read about it in the March issue of the ALUMNUS—also some unnecessary comments concerning the purposes of the trip. This has impelled me to inquire of the class secretary whither he gained his information, and how the news travelled so speedily."

The balance of Jerry's letter is filled with personal insults which are far too numerous and emphatic to register in these pages. However, we must not forget to record the news that Jerry had some pleasant visits with GENE KENNEDY and AL SCOTT, while he was in Los Angeles.

1923

Paul Castner, Studebaker Corp.,
South Bend, Ind.

EDWIN S. RYAN dropped a note to the Office recently. Ed is with the State Highway Department of Illinois and works out of the Elgin office. He says that as far as he knows he and Charley Corcoran, '17, are the only N. D. men with the Company.

We are pleased to quote from an article by the Sports Editor of the Atlanta Georgian concerning FRANK THOMAS, which appeared in the University of Alabama Alumni News. Thomas is head coach at the University of Alabama.

"Thomas at first glance impresses you as being an unhappy young man. He isn't. He is full of good spirit, and has an excellent sense of humor, which is a life-saver for a coach, who at times must have the wrath of alumni.

"Thomas is also a thorough gentleman. He is quiet, well-mannered and an excellent associate for young men, whose only object at college is not to play football. If I had a son I'd like for him to come under the influence of Thomas, or a man of his caliber.

"The former Notre Dame star is tackling a tough job in leaving his place as backfield coach at Georgia to become head coach at Alabama. But Thomas is the type that relishes hard assignments. He wouldn't willingly select an easy one."

1924

James F. Hayes, 358 Fifth Ave.,
New York City.

It isn't very often that the Alumni Office receives word from Bengal, but when such a letter comes it is always filled with news enough to stir the imagination of even the most unimaginative individual. From the holy priests and brothers who are tirelessly laboring in the Missions there, we learn of the almost unbelievable success they are realizing in converting the natives.

The following from Rev. LAU-

RENCE GRANER, C.S.C., a young giant from Erie, Pa., who is acting as assistant to Father Norman de Grace in the farthest outpost of the Dacca Mission in Halaughat, will be interesting to his classmates. Father Graner writes with enthusiasm about his Christmas:

"I hope that you had as fine a Christmas as we did. Our little church was packed solidly and many had to be content with veranda seats. Without doubt it was the largest crowd we ever had for Mass. And this is the more remarkable because all the outlying villages celebrated the day at home. Father de Grace's ingeniousness was able to produce a splendid crib. The people flocked to it and still do. The decorations for the altar surpassed anything our people have seen here for many years. Christmas Eve found us busy in the confessional. The number of confessions and communions was most encouraging. And then the High Mass and splendid choir. The people were filled with the spirit of the day and I think that their devotion during the High Mass must have pleased greatly the new-born Child. I shall remember for a long time that Christmas Mass. Today, Sunday, finds us back at the old job. We received five written requests for new schools. And several others came in before, that means seven or eight new villages. And figuring a hundred people to a village, it means, God willing, EIGHT HUNDRED CONVERTS."

Evidently the Better Road Movement has not yet struck Bengal. BROTHER ANDREW, C.S.C., the headmaster of the Bandhura High School, is heartily in favor of progress along that line. He writes: "The fifty miles were covered by bicycle. The great part of it was over aisles between rice fields. Over in that section there is one peculiarity about these aisles that I have not had occasion to notice elsewhere. There I noticed it—and how! The aisles themselves are often two and a half feet high and the top is about one foot wide. Some kind of grass or weed grows on the side, which gives them the appearance of being about three feet wide. Now and then the front wheel of the cycle would wander out over the grass, and I would hurriedly and unwillingly dismount. One particular time I remember distinctly the two wheels worked in combination, the front wheel taking a dive at just the time the rear wheel hit a sharp bump. I sailed neatly over the handlebar. Luckily the bike wasn't hurt, so we could go on without further delay. Then there were two or three stretches, possibly half a mile in all, in which the road was so bad that there was nothing for it but to carry the bicycle. There was no place beside the bicycle, so that to carry it was the only way."

1925

John W. Scallan, Pullman Co., 79 W. Adams St., Chicago, Secretary.

NORBERT SKELLEY, way out in Kansas, is suffering from exposure. The severe blizzards in that part of the country recently are responsible.

GEORGE DRISCOLL, according to a report from BEN KESTING, is City Engineer of Chillicothe, Ohio.

WILLIAM A. MCINERY, '01, and J. W. MCINERY, '06, were guests of honor at a dinner given Tuesday evening, March 3, by the representatives of the state agency of the Franklin Fire Insurance Company. Each was presented with a silver medal commemorating 25 years of consecutive representation with the company. The presentation was made by State Agent C. D. Lasher. Among those present were WILLIAM FUREY, '25, manager of the insurance department of McNerny & McNerny; AARON HUGUENARD, '22, WILLIAM N. BERGAN, '96, State Agent C. D. Lasher and Special Agents L. J. Fischer and Ross J. Harmen.

1926

Dr. Gerald W. Hayes, 38 N. 12th St., Newark, N. J., Secretary.

VIC YAWMAN writes that he has written to BOB ANDREWS, DENNIS O'NEILL and GIL SCHAEFER regarding the '26 Reunion in June. Vic says the boys want to re-live the Ball week of 1926. Bob, Denny and Gil will probably know more about this than the Editor—but it sounds good. Vic also says: "Give DAN O'NEIL and HOGAN my worst for lack of correspondence—and all their fault too."

HAROLD P. KLEIN is Manager of the Municipal Dept. of the Iowa-Des Moines Company, Des Moines, Iowa.

DR. JERRY HAYES is up to the proverbial ears in work. Jerry is trying to arrange things so that he can be back for the '26 Reunion in June.

1927

Ed DeClerq, Secretary
8126 Drexel Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

WILLIAM RILEY writes from Gabriels, N. Y.: "Receive the ALUMNUS regularly and am wondering where the Class of '27 keeps itself as they don't appear in the issues. Meet a number of the gang in the summer and the Adirondackers keep in touch with each other and are getting their radios in tune for April 20."

1928

Louis Buckley, Notre Dame, Ind., Secretary.

My appeal for news in the last issue brought a response from my old roommate and best man, JOE BRANNON. Joe is in the advertising game in Chicago, and is located at 162 East Superior St. The opening paragraph of Joe's letter will be a sufficient explanation to understand why I am not printing the letter in full.

"With BILL JONES crying for the 'Gigolo' and you 'gripping' about lack of correspondence, I'm ready to believe that the 1928 Alumni department really is, as JACK WINGERTER would put it, in a dilemma. I'm going to give you some actual and hearsay news about the boys. I shall make this letter unprintable, even if I have to drag out a few Notre Dame skeletons to do so.

"I saw JOE SULLIVAN today. He is studying medicine at Rush. Looks fine and has acquired a slow drawl that is rather becoming. Joe was back East some time ago and saw a bunch of the boys. He says that ED PHILBIN is running his Dad's coal business. And is doing a good job of it, according to Joe. And he saw ED TILLY. Do you remember that Ed, like JOE BREIG established quite a reputation as a woman hater. And unlike Breig, Ed has not had a date since he left school. Then Joe went up to New York and ran into WALTER LAYNE. Joe also reports that he saw MICKY FLANNIGAN and 'SURPRISE' MARCUS McMAHON. He didn't tell me what they were doing.

"And, believe it or not, the great Amsterdamian, GEORGE VON HINDENBURG REMBRANDT LEPPIG is in town. Yeh, he blew in a couple of weeks ago, and is busy upsetting all of Chicago's freight traffic. You knew that George is in the motor truck business. I don't know what it's all about except that they ship freight all over. GEORGE is living in Oak Park, at the same house which harbors such incorrigibles as CHET McDONALD, and ED MCSWEENEY. George's visit has been a huge success. He is now listed as Public Enemy No. 56. I tell you, Buck, you can't keep these Notre Dame boys from getting ahead. They will succeed in spite of everything.

"I nearly forgot. JOE SULLIVAN tells me that my old room mate, GENE FARRELL has gone and got himself married, and has two kids already.

"BILL DWYER is still doing the chief work for Montgomery Ward advertising department. I ran into him the other day in Kroch's bookstore. Bill looks fine . . . he is husky, weighing some 180 lbs.

"You knew that JIM ALLEN is firmly established with a Chicago law firm. I went up to see Jim the other day . . . he looks fine. They tell me that he is the model for the new 'A Kran' the Zeppelin.

ART ZIMMERMAN is still with Marshall Field. I see Art often, so often that I think he is going to get the floor man to throw me out the next time I show my face in the store.

That's all,

Joe.

I received a letter from RAY MOCK from the College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota. Ray mentioned that JOHN VIKTORYN is soon to be an M.D. John is attending Western Reserve. The following from Ray's letter will interest you:

"BILL KELLY ran down to Miami for a short vacation after the grueling basketball season he spent as coach. JACK LAVELLE is selling sporting goods for a New York firm, DAVE KREMBS is director at the Columbus Community Club in Green Bay, Wis.

"RAY is kept busy teaching and coaching at St. Thomas. He is just beginning the baseball season now. He intends to be back for Commencement, and is anxious to see the old haunts again."

I had a letter from JOHN R. MURPHY from Roanoke, Va. J. R. is following in the footsteps of HOWIE PHALIN in the book game. Murph spent Christmas in Norfolk. He says that he doesn't see many of the boys in the 'Old Dominion,' so didn't have much news. He is kept on the go all the time, so hasn't a permanent address, but you can always reach him through his Chicago address, 1811 Prairie Ave.

CONNIE OCHOA is having a great time down in Mexico City. Connie sounds like a member of the local Chamber of Commerce in describing the assets of the place.

"As for myself, I have been in this beautiful city since last June, and believe me, Jim, this certainly is a great town. You see we have no Prohibition here and the girls are not hard to look at. Often I run up against some of the boys from school and when we do get together it is the same old "bull" as thrown by any alumni in the States, only we spread it over a few glasses of good, honest beer, and ice cold highballs.

"For your information, as well as for that of those friends of mine who still remember me and perhaps wish to get in touch with me, my address is: Niza 76, Mexico, D. F., or else you can just write me c/o The National City Bank of New York, Mexico, D. F.

"Remember me to all the boys."

After the above, Connie may expect a big increase in his fan mail.

HERBERT I. RUDDUCK is working as detail man for Eli Lilly & Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., and is covering southern Illinois territory. He may be addressed at 205 W. Park Ave., Champlain, Ill.

RAY LAWLER announces that the M. R. Lawler Sprinkling Service has acquired the street sprinkling service formerly known as H. A. Brake.

An alumnus tells us that TOM RUCKELHAUS is the owner and operator of the Red Top Cab Company of Indianapolis, and that FRANK MCCARTHY is City Passenger Agent for the Big Four railroad.

1929

Joseph P. McNamara, 231 Wisconsin St., Indianapolis, Ind., Secretary.

The following appeared in this morning's mail and, much as I'd like to "kill" it, the fact that it is addressed to the Editor of the ALUMNUS and to others has induced me to send it on for your kind consideration. So here 'tis:

"To Jim Armstrong,

Class of '29,

And Whom It May Concern:

Diligent perusal of the ALUMNUS during the two or three months just passed has led me to believe that our class secretary has been made the objective of a campaign of assault.

"Having been a prefect in Sorin and somewhat-of-a-one in Corby I have knowledge which leads me to believe that silence on the part of the sec'y has not been due to "Lafayette Street We are here" or anything of that ilk. My experience taught me that Mac is not only a Hibernian but a hibernator, and I'll wager that an investigation would show that he's just been sleeping all winter.

Walt Greer."

The Secretary suspects foul play! A letter from WALT GREER (who's burning 'em up in the labs in Nu Wark) a few days before the delivery of this outburst contained nothing of this nature. JOHNSON, BOB VOGLWEDE, and BOB SCHULTZ are under suspicion.

The Editor enjoyed a visit with JAMES DIGAN, who is with the Logansport Radiator Equipment Company. Jim had lots of dope on the fellows and passed it on to the Editor. So here it is.

Did You Know that . . . MATT CULLEN is practicing law under the firm name of Gilmore, Hendricks and Cullen, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.; that BOB VOGELWEDE is an auditor with Rossiter & Co., and lives at 7200 Cyril, Chicago; that DICK HAUGH is in Delphi; that ART ZIMMERMAN is with the Photograph—?

Men of the Class of 1929, as well as every Notre Dame man everywhere who cherish the Notre Dame tradition for clean sport, the tradition which fosters rivalry without bitterness, which does not lose the head in victory nor the heart in defeat, which does not berate the loser nor belittle the winner, the tradition of courtesy, fair play, integrity and loyalty, mourn the death of that great leader and teacher of our undergraduate days: Knute Kenneth Rockne.

As this was being prepared for the hands of Editor JAMES ELLIOTT ARMSTRONG, ROBERT EMMETT KIRBY frantically telephoned the news that 1929's president, TONY KOPECKY, suffered a fractured skull in a Chicago automobile accident on March 31st.

FRERERICK MARCELLUS WONDERLIN has the grand old state of Iowa just about all adjusted these days. MARC is with an insurance company in Des Moines, and is going great guns.

"JOE" TOOMEY is back in Chicago with the General Motors Acceptance Corporation.

BOB KIRBY and JOHN ABIJAH DAVIS had charge of arranging for the Indianapolis Scholarship Club's Easter Reception which was to be the outstanding event of the Hoosier Capital's social season. BOB and JACK postponed the event because of the tragic death of Rockne.

Here's some hot news: FRANK METRAILER is hitting them hard in the refrigeration department of the General Electric Corporation in Fort Wayne. Ice going, Frank!

Well, the girls in Marion County, Indiana, are back to normalcy again. FRANK P. MCCARTHY is the reason.

SYLVESTER "CY" WAGNER, formerly of Iron Junction, Minn., is one of the big railroad men of that part of the country. It is reported that he is doing more than passing fair.

Back again! EDDIE BARCH of Flint, Michigan is on the job making engineers of the same stuff that we once were. Every once in a while he takes time off from his duties as a professor at Notre Dame to journey to Fort Wayne to look some old associates. He was with General Electric there for a year before joining the teaching staff at the University.

Attorney WALT PARENT, whose legal career has been progressing apace, is a fond father these days.

1930

Bernard W. Conroy, 1109 Kenneth Ave., New Kensington, Pa., Secretary.

JOHN DEA is reported to be with the Masonite Company, Laurel Miss., just outside New Orleans. John hails from Minnesota.

LARRY O'CONNOR of Logansport was preparing to "pass the bar" in the middle of March. Larry is living on the north side of Chicago at 5443 Winthrop, Apt. 202.

DICK WALTERS is located at "The Maples," Karno City, Pa. Since graduation he has been in the Eastern part of the country. Recently he moved to Chicago and we thought that maybe he would run in on us, but apparently the call of the East got him again.

JOHN F. O'MALLEY is working for the Charles Ringer Company, Chicago. John can be found at 79th Street and Exchange Ave.

PATRICK GOGGIN writes from Philadelphia that he has just been transferred to the Philadelphia Works of the General Electric Company, and expects to remain in the Quaker City for the next two or three months. Pat has been in New Jersey for a couple of months.