Notre Dame, Our Mother

Notre Dame, our Mother,
Tender, strong and true.
Proudly in the heavens,
Gleams the gold and blue,
Glory's mantle cloaks thee,

Golden is thy fame,
And our hearts forever,
Praise thee, Notre Dame.
And our hearts forever,
Love thee, Notre Dame.

PERSECUTION?

As Catholics, we mustn't kid ourselves. We may think Catholicism is growing in this country and that we Catholics and the Church are safe beyond attack.

Father Lynch

We can easily be misled by exceptional items, say, the popularity and the good will created by the very successful movie "Going My Way" (and the forthcoming "The Bells of St. Mary"); by the report of conversions, especially in the armed services, the wonderful work of Catholic chaplains and the popularity of the statement, "there are no atheists in foxholes."

We mustn't kid ourselves. There is no general turning to Catholicism in this country: there is no widespread return to any religion or to religion in general.

In truth, the drift away from God continues; and there is also a rising tide of anti-Catholicism.

Very likely few Catholics read Communist, professedly anti-Catholic, or Protestant papers. Those observers who cover the whole field are coming to believe there is a concerted drive against the Catholic Church by Communist and, anti-Catholic papers (to be expected), aided now by some Protestant clergymen and much of the Protestant press, with the secular press aiding consciously or unconsciously by occasional items.

FUEL FOR THE FLAMES

Within a year, there was a series of articles written for the Christian Century by Harold Fey, its field editor. The Christian Century has the greatest circulation and prestige in Protestant newspaperdom.

These articles were designed to create in the American mind a suspicion and fear of the growing power and influence of the Catholic Church, particularly in the Legislation, in Labor, in Education, in the Secular Press, in the Movies and other fields.

Such a program doesn't produce an attitude of tolerance and brotherly love toward Catholics.

We mustn't kid ourselves. The hate engendered by this war will be looking for an object after the war—and it is not unlikely that we will be tossed into the arena with our old pals, the Jews and Negroes (remember the K.K.K. and that riotous week-end in 1924?).

In brief, we can easily become Public Enemy No. 1.

Edmond D. Benard of Catholic University, a competent observer of trends, writing in the July, 1945, American Ecclesiastical Review (for priests) analyzes this drive against the Catholic Church by all Communists and professedly anti-Catholic literature and by some Protestant papers and some leading Protestant clergymen. He says truly, "the cumulative effect (of these attacks) may be tremendous. One raindrop is not a serious inconvenience to anyone but enough of them make up a deluge. The Sunday supplements have created a nation of pseudo-scientists: the anti-Catholic organs of mis-information may well build up a rabidly anti-Catholic bloc in the United States. We should not fool ourselves any longer about that, if we have up to now."

CHRIST PROMISED PERSECUTION

Many fundamental Catholic doctrines and morals collide with worldly principles and morals—and more and more Catholics and the Catholic Church will be "in the way" and considered a bar to "scientific progress and a better world."

The mob is easily aroused by hate and by anti-anything: and not much support can be expected from the non-Catholic educated classes.

We're being not pessimistic but realistic.

More and more one can see the battle shaping up—the battle between Christ and anti-Christ, whether the latter is spearheaded by Communism or some other form of anti-religion.

Christ was a realist and didn't kid us. He told us the world would hate us and would persecute us.

He also left us His Body and Blood and the sacrament of Confirmation. The latter makes us His soldiers.

And He asks us to do a good job of fighting for Him—with heaven at the end of the road.

WHERE DO I COME FROM?

We must personally live our Faith better, with first more prayer and then more action, exerting Christian leadership as outlined in the alumni program.

Also read Catholic literature, magazines, newspapers and books: for example, That You May Live. Recently published by Guild Press, St. Paul 1, Minn., $2.00, authored by L. F. Cervantes, S.J., it will help you personally in your spirituality and give you also an intellectual grasp of your dignity and importance as a member of the Mystical Body of Christ—the Church.

One inspiring, enlightening and controversial chapter, "St. Paul and the Moderns," is an eye-opener on the startling applicability of Christ's doctrine on today's problems. That one chapter discusses capitalism, Communism, birth-control, imperialism, plans for world peace in the light and framework of the Mystical Body.

Read also for laughs, but especially for spiritual and intellectual profit, The World, The Flesh and Father Smith, by Bruce Marshall, a convert, (author of Father Malachy's Miracle) published by Houghton Mifflin and Co., N. Y. C., for $2.50. It is a Book-of-the-Month selection and will have a tremendous circulation.

Reading it, you can laugh over your Faith and be intensely proud of it, too. It should help you to live that Faith better, with more laughs and pride—and you can confidently hand it to any friend, especially non-Catholic, with the assurance that he'll understand your Faith better, and even envy you, which he should.

FLASH—TO THE BOYS IN SERVICE

Father Tom Brennan just went by the window where I'm writing this in Holy Cross Seminary.

He's with students as usual, and as usual teaching—but this evening not the science of Aristotle but the science of Izaak Walton to two students: one, George Meltzer, '41, former Fortress navigator, wounded, decorated and discharged, now enrolled in graduate studies, the other, one of the new blind students, (like Johnny Morrison, capable of anything):

"Any greeting to the old gang in service?" I yelled to them.

"Tell them to 'keep pitching'" said Father Tom, and then added "and we're still thinking of them, and that includes praying for them."

And George yelled, "Tell 'em there are some changes, but Notre Dame is still Notre Dame—and still our second home."

Well said, and what we all say—priests, brothers, sisters, profs and students—here under the Dome.

1,817 Students Start New Term; 140 V-12

For First Time Since 1943, Civilian Group is Larger than Navy Group; Final Midshipmen Class Enters; 183 Degrees Conferred on June 22.

For the first time since the naval V-12 program was initiated at Notre Dame two years ago, the majority of students enrolled in University courses are, in the semester which started on July 5, civilians. The local V-12 quota, originally set at 1,850, has now dwindled to 140. These, added to the 660 students in the naval ROTC program, provide a uniformed contingent of only 800 Notre Dame students.

Civilian students (including religious and laymen, graduate students and undergraduates) number 1,017, for a total enrollment in the regular term of 1,817. A special six-week summer session has enrolled 68 students, mostly religious, to bring the final summer registration to 1,885. This compares with a normal, peacetime registration of 3,000 to 3,200, plus a summer student body of close to a thousand in some years.

As you have read in earlier issues of the ALUMNUS, the V-12 program will be discontinued with the end of the present term, in October. The Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School, established on the campus since 1942, will likewise be discontinued in early November. The final midshipman class came to Notre Dame July 12 for its four-month period of training, prior to commissioning. (It is to be remembered that midshipmen are not enrolled as Notre Dame students. Taught entirely by naval personnel, they utilize certain leased facilities on the campus for lodging, meals, drill, and the like.)

There are 578 new freshmen in the University this term, more than half the total civilian enrollment. Yet, the new freshmen group, though large by wartime standards, is about 300 below the normal peacetime figure. And the new group, are of course, young—a few only 15—which means that the great majority of the current new freshmen will remain at Notre Dame only until their draft board calls them.

Sixty-seven second semester freshmen have returned for the present term, plus 150 sophomores, 84 juniors, 59 seniors and 27 law students.

A total of 150 discharged veterans are studying at the University this semester under the provision of the GI Bill of Rights and the Veterans Rehabilitation Act. This figure compares with 107 veterans enrolled in the semester just previous, and it represents an increase of 300 per cent since the first discharges arrived at Notre Dame in July, 1944.

The V-12 and the NROTC are, together, occupying only Alumni and Dillon halls this semester, the RO's having given Walsh back to the civilians. The midshipmen continue to occupy Lyons, Morrissey, Howard and Badin. With the large influx of freshmen, Carroll Hall is again being utilized temporarily, with Brother Justin, C.S.C., as rector. Freshmen are also in Breen-Phillips, Cavanaugh and Zahm. Sorin and St. Edward's continue, as well as Walsh, to house upperclassmen.

A total of 183 degrees were conferred at the summer convocation held in Washington Hall on June 22. Eighty-one of the 183 were bachelor of naval science awards to men of the NROTC who had been on active duty for one semester. These 81 students completed in February the academic work necessary for the naval science degree and were commissioned then as ensigns. The great majority of the naval science degrees were conferred in absentia.

The convocation address was delivered by Rev. Philip Moore, C.S.C., dean of the Graduate School. (Extracts from this remarkable address will be found elsewhere in this issue.) Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., celebrated Mass for the class in Sacred Heart Church at 8 A.M. on June 22, Rev. Thomas Irving, C.S.C., conducted the traditional last visit to Sacred Heart Church at 8:30 A.M., and at 9 o'clock all the graduates were guests of the University at a Communion-breakfast in the University Dining Hall. At 4 P.M. a reception for the graduates and their families was held in the Rockne Memorial lounge.

Dr. Aaron Ignatius Abell joined the faculty of the Department of History with the start of the summer term.

A graduate of Harvard, Dr. Abell is particularly noted in the field of cultural and social history of the United States since the Civil War. He comes to Notre Dame from Nazareth college, Rochester, N. Y. Dr. Abell has served on the faculties at St. Norbert's college, New York University, and Rochester University.

In addition to making contributions to various historical periodicals, Dr. Abell is the author of a book called The Urban Impact on American Protestantism, 1865-1900.

Dr. Bernard J. Kohlbrenner is a new assistant professor in education.

Dr. Kohlbrenner, who was graduated from Syracuse University, received a master of arts degree from the same institution in 1928. After teaching at St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn., in 1928-29, he served as instructor in education at Notre Dame from 1929 until 1933. From 1933 to 1940 he was on the staff at the University of St. Louis, and he received a doctor of philosophy degree from Harvard in 1942.

Before coming to Notre Dame in the July semester Dr. Kohlbrenner was head of the Department of Education of New Rochelle College, New Rochelle, N. Y.

C.S.C. Appointments Announced

Father Louis Kelley Is Assistant Superior General; Father Steiner Re-elected.

Rev. Louis Kelley, C.S.C., head of the department of religion at Notre Dame, was elected assistant superior general of the Congregation of Holy Cross at the conclusion of the two-week general chapter of the Community in Washington, D. C., in July.

The chapter retained Rev. Thomas A. Steiner, C.S.C., who has been United States provincial of the Congregation since 1938, and Rev. George Sauvage, C.S.C., procurator general in Rome.

Father Kelley, a native of Covington, Ind., was president of Holy Cross college, Washington, D. C., from 1919 to 1925. He came to Notre Dame as a member of the faculty from 1927 to 1928 and served as president of Columbia university (now Portland University) in Oregon from 1928 until 1934. From 1934 until 1940, when he returned to Notre Dame, Father Kelley was pastor of Sacred Heart church in New Orleans. He will be assistant to Very Rev. Albert F. Cousineau, C.S.C., superior general of the Congregation.

Father Steiner is a native of Monroe, Mich. His reelection is for a term of six years. He is a former dean of the College of Engineering at Notre Dame and former assistant provincial of the Congregation.

The general chapter meeting, at which the elections are held, originally was scheduled to have been held last year, but due to wartime conditions was postponed until this year.

Rev. Kerndt Healy, C.S.C., was elected first assistant provincial, succeeding Rev. John Cavanaugh, C.S.C., who held that position in addition to his duties as vice-president of the University. Father Cavanaugh retains the vice-presidency. Succeeding Father Healy as second assistant provincial is Rev. Christopher J. O'Toole, C.S.C.

Changes in personnel in the Congregation of Holy Cross reaching around the world were announced July 7 by Father Steiner.

Principal emphasis in the change comes in the missions in India, which will receive nine new priests and four brothers of the Congregation. The last men sent to India were Fathers Jerome

Lawyer and Robert McKee and Brothers Theodore and Rex, who left the United States in 1941 and who were interned in the Philippines by the Japanese. Only recently liberated, Brother Theodore will leave for India again in the fall, with the other three following him next year.

Meantime, the Provincial has assigned to the Bengal Missions Rev. Gerald McMahon, Notre Dame; Rev. Thomas Curran of the Mississippi Missions; Rev. Vincent Delay of the Mexican Missions; Revs. Edmund Goedert and Gregory Steigmeyer who have been in Canada; Rev. Ernest Webb of the Foreign Mission Seminary in Washington, D. C., and three newly ordained priests, Revs. Robert Waichulis, Louis L. Meyer, and William P. Evans. Brother Brian, Albany; Brother Robert Bellarmine, Indianapolis, and Brothers Columbkille and John Capistran of Notre Dame, will complete the mission group.

REV. THOMAS A. STEINER, C.S.C.

In South Bend, interest lay in the retirement of Rev. Roman Marciniak, Chicago, to the Community Infirmary at Notre Dame. Rev. Francis Luzny became superior at Holy Trinity in Chicago, assisted by Rev. Stanislaus Kuszynski. Locally, too, Rev. Leo Wojciechowski moved from St. Stanislaus to St. Hedwige's parish. Rev. Joseph Ciecka left St. Hedwige's, South Bend, for Holy Trinity in Chicago, and Rev. John Winiariski came from Holy Trinity to St. Stanislaus.

Rev. Eugene Dore, assistant at St. Joseph's parish, has been made pastor of St. Mary's, a mission church, Lampasas, Texas. Rev. William P. Lennartz, assistant at St. Patrick's, South Bend, has been made assistant superior of the Community Infirmary at Notre Dame and a member of the Local Council. Rev. Albert J. Heinzer succeeds Father Dore at St. Joseph's.

At Central Catholic High School, Brother Edgar will return to the faculty, while Brother Romanus goes to Holy Trinity in Chicago and Brother Jareth to Holy Cross in New Orleans. Brothers Innocent, Ivo and Carl are assigned to teach in the local school.

Rev. Thomas Richards, for many years a widely known mission priest, has been given a year of rest. Rev. Charles Carey, faculty advisor of publications at the University, is newly assigned as assistant editor of The Ave Maria magazine. Brother Theogene, for many years postmaster at Notre Dame, left that post to direct the office of the Annals of Our Lady of Lourdes on the campus.

Of general Indiana interest is the removal of Brother Rupert, for 11 years director of the Gibault Home for Boys in Terre Haute, to a new post on the faculty of St. Anthony's High School, Long Beach, Calif. Brother Hyacinth, former principal of Central Catholic in South Bend, moves from Long Beach to Biloxi, Miss.

The Congregation contributes to the University of Notre Dame faculty with the assignment to teaching posts of Rev. Herman Reith, who has just received his doctorate at Laval University; Rev. Paul Beichner, who received his Ph.D. and a fellowship for further study at Yale in 1944; Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, who has completed his doctorate at Catholic University in Theology, and Rev. Edward Shea who has completed several years of graduate studies at Harvard.

Brother Benedict has been re-elected superior of Cathedral high school in Indianapolis, and Brother Charles similarly reelected superior of Reitz Memorial High School, Evansville.

Father John Molter, who has been on the Notre Dame faculty, goes to the University of Portland, while Father Robert Sheehan, formerly at Notre Dame, returns to the campus from the Portland School.

Rev. Cornelius Laskowski, formerly a faculty publications advisor at Notre Dame, becomes editor of the Bengalese, foreign mission magazine of the Congregation.

Club Vocational Committees Are Named

Alumni Association Vocational Plan Is Based on Active Participation of Local Clubs; Basic Suggestions Are Sent to All Club Presidents.

Vocational committees, to assist in the adjustment of those alumni dislocated by World War II, have been formed or are being formed by many of the Notre Dame clubs in all parts of the country.

The directors of the Alumni Association, at their meeting at Notre Dame on June 23-24 gave strong impetus to this movement, directing that Notre Dame clubs everywhere, with due regard for their individual size and location, should act at once to assist vocationally those alumni dislocated by reason of the war, and especially to assist the returning war veterans. William R. Dooley, assistant alumni secretary, was directed to coordinate the activity nationally.

Proceeding at once to carry out the directive of the Board, Bill Dooley in late June sent to the presidents of all the Notre Dame clubs a suggested basic plan for carrying on this vocational program. This plan, admittedly experimental in details, was designed to provide at least a framework upon which any club, large, medium sized or small, could build an activity to assist the veterans and others, according to the needs of that club. Each president was asked, as an essential preliminary, to appoint a local chairman to direct the work.

The response has been far from sensational so far. But some clubs have "hopped to it"—all praise to them!—and the following chairmen are already enrolled or, in the case of New York City, Chicago, Cleveland and Western Pennsylvania, re-enrolled:

NEW YORK CITY: John T. Balfe, '20, 60 E. 42nd St.

CHICAGO: Edward F. O'Toole, '25, Room 807, 10 S. La Salle St. (Miss Jane Cahill is in charge of the club's permanent office here.)

CLEVELAND: Clayton G. Leroux, '27, Assistant Personnel Director, Monarch Aluminum Mfg. Co.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA: John F. McMahon, '28, Managing Director, Industrial Hygiene Foundation of America, Inc., Mellon Institute, Pittsburgh.

BUFFALO: Joseph F. Ryan, '39, 50 Frontenac Ave.

DETROIT: Henry F. Clark, '30, 324

Washington Square Bldg., Royal Oak, Mich.

MILWAUKEE: Edward J. Rogers, '17, President, Layne-Northwest Co., 709 N. 11th St.

PHILADELPHIA: Harold E. Duke, '30, Manager, Wayne Pump Co., 4030 N. Broad St.

PORTLAND, ORE.: William C. Schmitt, '10, President, Schmitt Steel Co.

RHODE ISLAND & SOUTHEASTERN MASSACHUSETTS: J. Clement Grimes, 384 River Ave., Providence, R. I.

ST. JOSEPH VALLEY: Judge J. Elmer Peak, '12, Court House, South Bend.

ST. LOUIS: Robert T. Hellrung, '30, St. Louis Medical Credit Bureau, Humboldt Medical Bldg.

TWIN CITIES: Louis J. Regan, '29, Personnel Director, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Minneapolis.

WASHINGTON, D. C.: Bernard E. Loshbough, '29, National Public Housing Conference, Inc., 1015 15th St., N. W.

The plan of operation, as outlined by Bill Dooley to the Alumni Board at its latest meeting, and approved by the Board, has these essential characteristics:

1. It is founded on active and wholehearted participation by the Notre Dame clubs. The Alumni Office at Notre Dame, while it will assist in every way possible, obviously cannot attempt to do the job alone; the job's too big and Notre Dame alumni are too widespread. And, more important, the job can usually be done more effectively in the home community or home region of the man who needs help.

2. The program will of necessity be to a large extent advisory and "referral" in nature. Much as the various Notre Dame agencies would like to provide, directly and immediately, a job for every Notre Dame man who applies for one, there just is no hope, in the nature of things, of doing this. The objective must, therefore, be to "help a man to help himself," by advice and "steers."

When a man can be referred directly to a job opening, this will of course be done.

Application forms, for the use of job seekers, have already been provided for cooperating clubs by Bill Dooley. One copy of this form will be retained by the club and one copy will be sent to Bill's coordinating office at Notre Dame. In this way, and in other ways to be set up as the program progresses, an interchange of both job applicants and jobs can be effected through the clubs and the Alumni Office.

More of all this later. The all-important thing right at the moment is to get your own club "going." Check with your president to find out whether he's appointed your vocational chairman. If he hasn't, get out the needle.

The time is now. The "postwar period" of which we've talked for so long is with us in effect. Many of the thousands being discharged from the services are Notre Dame men, and Notre Dame veterans looking for jobs are appearing more frequently, week by week. The number of Notre Dame men (alumni, other former students and students taken away from their classes) who are serving or have served in this war is fast approaching the 10,000 mark.

Let's put that Notre Dame Spirit into action!

GIFT FROM SINCLAIR

The University has received from the Sinclair Refining Co. the gift of a wall display illustrating the role of chemistry in oil refining with regard to the production and utilization of C<sub>4</sub> hydrocarbons. The flow chart shows the production, from crude petroleum, of 100-octane aviation gasoline, and of butadiene for synthetic rubber. The products resulting from the different steps in the process are illustrated by colored flow-lines which enable the observer to readily trace the source and utilization of the material.

The University is grateful to Leland Stanford, vice-president of the company, and to Hixson-O'Donnell Advertising, Inc., for the display. It is located in the main corridor of the Chemistry Building.

Chicago Club Opens Full-Time Office

The Notre Dame Club of Chicago office opened on June 4, 1945, in Room 807 at 10 S. LaSalle Street.

And thus, for the first time in the history of the Alumni Association, a Notre Dame club has a permanent office, with a full-time secretary in charge.

Miss Jane Cahill, who attended Saint Mary's, Notre Dame, (daughter of James Cahill, '14, La Salle, Ill., sister of James Cahill, Jr., '43, and sister-in-law of Joseph Canale, '39) is the secretary. She is working under the supervision of the Vocational Committee whose members are as follows: Edward O'Toole, '25, chairman; John Bourke '38, James Brennan '20, Frank Doan '29, Frank McCarthy, '06, Vincent Murphy '37, James Sanford '15, Fred Steers '11, Robert Stephan '27, and Arthur Weinrich '19.

The officers of the Chicago Club are: Daniel Hilgartner '17, honorary president; John Dorgan '29, president; Joseph Shelly '25, first vice-president; Bruce Holmberg '23, second vice-president, Charles Collins '25, treasurer; and Thomas McCabe '22, secretary.

The basic purposes of the club's new office are to administer the vocational activity systematically and effectively for Chicago Club veterans and alumni generally; to handle the routine work necessary to make the Notre Dame Club of Chicago energetic and cohesive; and to be helpful to the club's membership in matters affecting their interest as Notre Dame alumni. The funds to finance the office are being voluntarily contributed by members of the club.

There are 1,175 names on the mailing list at the time of the opening of the office. After checking the addresses, it was found that 578 were correct, 148 had to be corrected, 260 men were in the service, and the remaining 180 are yet to be verified. There were 469 new names added to the list and the number of servicemen so far has reached 528. A special effort will be made to get as complete a list as possible on all Notre Dame alumni in the Chicago metropolitan area and to keep that list up-to-date.

Several applications for jobs have been received from Notre Dame alumni and the office has had numerous job leads from industries and professions in the city. There have been inquiries made on behalf of prospective students for the University.

While the Chicago Club was confident that its members in service would need and want help, it took letters like the following to prove that the club must go all the way:

Your Part in Public Relations

By J. ARTHUR HALEY, '26

Director, Department of Public Relations
University of Notre Dame

(This article was written by Art Haley at the special request of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association. The Board felt that the important tasks assigned to Art should be better understood by alumni generally.)

Father O'Donnell's address to the Notre Dame Club of Chicago on April 17, in which he made known Notre Dame's plans for postwar development, was one of the most important announcements in the University's recent history. Reaction of the alumni, after reading the reprint in this magazine, was unanimously favorable. As a matter of fact, Jim Armstrong has already pointed out the remarkable parallel between the administration's carefully determined program and the suggestions for the future made by several thousand graduates who gave thoughtful answers in the recent "pattern-for-progress" questionnaire.

In the minds of many, however, is the inevitable question: "Where are we going to get the money?" After all, $12,000,000 for the Graduate School, $10,000,000 for new buildings, $3,000,000 for endowed chairs—to mention only three items on the agenda—are not sums to regard lightly.

Getting the money is a long process that requires continuous cooperation for which a centralizing body, the Department of Public Relations, was established in January, 1941. During this time it has been maintaining, establishing, and sometimes renewing contact with persons who have indicated a friendly feeling toward Notre Dame. Our files were built up from a score of other University files—including parents of students, donors to the first endowment fund and the Rockne Memorial, names from the files of the office of the President and the Vice-President, and names suggested by members of the Associate Board of Lay Trustees, and so on. Herein are to be found the names of those who through the years, and especially recent years, have contributed substantially to the University's progress.

The Department of Public Relations was once described by Father O'Donnell as the agency through which Notre Dame makes known to her friends the place that she holds in American educational life, and the developments she has in mind that will help her keep that place and increase the sphere of her influence. He added that every person connected with the University is, ex officio, a member of the department, from President to policeman on the grounds.

J. ARTHUR HALEY

"Every person connected with the University" includes administration, faculty, students, and alumni. Of the four groups, the alumni, numerically the largest, can be most influential because of the individual alumnus' knowledge of the aims and ideals of Notre Dame, and his virtually unlimited opportunities to make them known to those who appreciate society's need for men with a Notre Dame background.

Notre Dame has made, and is making, an important contribution to society by providing it with men—lawyers, teachers, business men, scientists, engineers, and others—who have not only a sound professional training, but a sound education as well. Given the opportunity, she will make an even greater contribution, consolidating the gains she has already made, and then, within her pattern, going forward. She can take advantage of her opportunity only if she has the active help of those who know the merits of Notre Dame and who realize the urgent need of providing the United States with leaders in whom sound principles have been imbued. Furthermore, the number of such understanding persons must constantly be increased. It is only through a multiplication of benefactors that private schools can hope to continue in their present role.

Hence, the alumnus becomes the liaison between Notre Dame and the interested friend and potential benefactor. One of the most important tasks of the Department of Public Relations is to supplement the fine work of the Alumni Association in providing alumni with information, general or specific, that will be useful in explaining to non-alumni what the University is, what it does, and what it stands for. Sometimes this information is provided in pamphlet form for general distribution. Two years ago, for example, the Department published a booklet called "Is Notre Dame More Than a Name to You?" answering questions regarding Notre Dame's income and expenditures, the administration of endowment funds, the disposition of receipts from athletics, and so on. Apparently it was helpful because the requests for extra copies made it necessary to order a second printing within three weeks. A pamphlet published annually explaining the tax deductions allowable to individuals and corporations on gifts to educational, religious, and charitable institutions has also proved its worth.

It is a tribute to the loyalty of some alumni that they inform this office of the names of men and women who have expressed an interest in Notre Dame and wish to help in the work she is doing. How much of this interest is the direct result of alumni missionary work no one will ever know, but the value of such work is certainly considerable. When such a friend is particularly interested, let us say, in helping needy and deserving students, we pass on to him, or to the alumnus who brought him to our attention, a suggested plan for a scholarship, or an explanation of the benefits that many boys have derived from the student loan fund.

Functional Education

By REV. PHILIP S. MOORE, C.S.C.

Dean of the Graduate School

(Editor's Note: Father Moore's scholarly address to the graduates at the June Convocation of 1945 will suffer from the editorial necessity of condensing material for this issue. We have tried to select those paragraphs from his address which were not only applicable to the new graduate, but which contain material readily adaptable to alumni of all years, in all walks of life, among whom the Alumni Association is attempting to arouse the intellectual leadership Father Moore discusses.)

"In ancient Greece an educational movement arose which claimed that the chief purpose of education was to train young men to proficiency in living within a democratic society. This movement was sophism. It might have served a praiseworthy purpose if it had been grounded in a sound philosophy of education, but lacking this foundation, it degenerated into a crass utilitarianism or pragmatism, and education became a means to success over one's fellows, without regard to truth, justice or rights. In the Middle Ages another group of utilitarian teachers sprang up. These we call the cornificians. For them, too, the chief aim of education was to prepare men for practical success—to teach them to make a living. And in modern times we have those among us who look upon education primarily as a preparation for bigger and better jobs.

"Now, undoubtedly one of the purposes of education is to prepare us for our future life's work and we can legitimately hope that it will enable us to make a better living than we could otherwise have. But, if we make practical success in life the first or most important end of education, we fall into the error of the sophists and the cornificians; we fail to understand or appreciate the essential purposes of education and the effect education should have on us as human beings, on the culture of our human faculties.

"... Education, is primarily an active process—the realization of what is in us, the perfecting of our powers of mind, or, as the philosophers say, the actualization of our potentialities. Its fundamental purpose is an immanent development, which begins and ends within the human person himself. One's personal life is improved, because this development of the faculties increases our insight; our ability to observe; our ability to define; our ability to see facts without emotional discoloration; to sort facts; to deduce the meaning of facts; our ability to see trends; our ability to foresee logical and psychological effects of present facts; to progress from causes to effects and from effects to causes; the ability to study things, people, and events from more than one angle of vision—the social, the economic, the political, the literary, the metaphysical, the theological or supernatural.

"... Only the intellectually mature will deal adequately with the great problems which will beset you.

"... Intelligence, trained and cultivated intellectual insight, aided by the grace we pray God to give you, must be your faithful helpmate. Intelligence dominating emotion, intelligence holding back the tides of prejudice, mood, hate, bitterness. We don't have to have any lost generation after this war; the 'lost generation' of the last war was only partly genuine; it was to a great extent a literary attitude, and a young people suddenly thrust into a knowledge of the prevalence of evil, pain, lust, greed, escaping into unreality. But to resist this we need every atom of intellectual and emotional maturity.

"... We must all understand that we must keep our intellectual powers in fine polish. It is one thing to learn the principles of truth, justice, charity; it demands a finely-pointed wisdom to understand new situations and to bring these principles to bear upon them. Don't let the cynics influence you; they are armed with the slogans that tempt the unwary, lest anyone dare to speak up for the underprivileged, the out-classed, in the interest of universal justice and charity and Christian brotherly love. Cynicism is the refuge of the weak, of the vain whose feelings have been hurt, of the minds that are too tired or have become too used to comfort to meet new situations with the vigor of a truth-loving mind.

"... The cynic cannot 'rise with the occasion,' he is too exhausted from comfort or too much in fear lest his incompetency be brought up against situations he has no heart to meet. But you have your Faith and your education to guide you. These are your compass and sextant: they give you your bearings. You need not fear new problems, personal problems, our national problems, our world problems; you need not fear 'to think anew and act anew.' Leave fear to the cynics, the self-insulated and isolated. The greatest contribution you can make, to your Church, your country, and yourselves, is to bring the full power of your Faith and an ever-growing personal education, begun here, into a fearless love of truth, a fearless energy in meeting problems honestly and without evasion."

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president of the University, issued the following statement in late July:

"I am amazed at the report which appears in the current news release of the Department of Press of the National Catholic Welfare Conference to the effect that the University of Notre Dame has acquired the Drury estate in Cleveland as a site for a new preparatory school for boys. It has no foundation whatsoever. The University has sufficient problems of its own during this critical period without invading the field of secondary education. Moreover, in accordance with traditional practice, the President of the University is the only competent authority to speak for Notre Dame."

ATHLETICS

By J. WALTER KENNEDY, '34
Publicity Director

After three weeks of summer football drills, and with two more weeks of workouts scheduled as the ALUMNUS went to press, Coach Hugh Devore and his staff had a pretty good line on Notre Dame's grid material for the coming fall season. And, it might be quickly added, they weren't turning any handsprings. But on the other hand, they didn't have the crying towel out either.

Eight lettermen were in the group of 109 candidates, and another monogram winner, guard Fred Rovai, will report when the squad convenes on September 4 for fall workouts. The veterans include: center, Frank Szymanski; fullbacks, Marty Wendell and Elmer Angsman; quarterbacks, Frank Dancewicz and Joe Gasparella; guard, John Mastrangelo; tackle, Pete Berezney; and end, Bob Skoglund.

Devore's big problem is to find a running back to replace men like Bob Kelly and Jimmy Brennan from the '44 team, and to unearth some tackles and ends. There isn't a single halfback returning from last year's squad, but there is a likely looking bunch of first year men, any one of whom might make the grade.

Notre Dame's strength seems to be "up in the middle," where Szymanski, Dancewicz and Wendell, all outstanding in their play last year, will again hold forth. Each should be an outstanding candidate for all-American honors, unless rigor mortis sets in somewhere during the season.

Left end, Bob Skoglund, is the only returning wingman, and he will be available only until the first part of November, when he is due to receive his enlistment's commission in the Navy's ROTC. Meanwhile, Coach Harry Jacunski is trying to dig up some talent from a group of newcomers, most of whom are right out of high school.

Best of the group appears to be Matt Maryanski, Bloomfield, N. J., who is now at right end. Others showing promise are Phil O'Connor, from Indianapolis, and Bruno Opela, from Chicago's Lane Tech.

Chicago boys dominate the tackle scene, where Pete Berezney is the only vet back. Berezney, now tipping the scales at 220, will be the regular right tackle. Ed Mieszkowski, who was on the squad the past two years but did not see much action, is currently holding down the other varsity. He is from Tilden Tech, Chicago. Two other boys from the Windy City are battling for spots, one being 255-pound Bill Fischer, from Lane Tech, while the other is John Vainisi, a 220-pounder from St. George.

The Irish seem fairly well set at the guard jobs, where Fred Rovai and John Mastrangelo, both of whom played regularly last year, are due for repeat performances. Challenging them are Tom Potter, 195-pound Army dischargee from Kearney, N. J., and John Fallon, a 210-pound converted tackle from Alton, Ill. The latter was on the squad last year, and has improved tremendously, and may win a starting berth.

Frank Szymanski, one of the country's best centers last year, has the pivot post salted away. Tom Walsh, 215-pound, 17-years-old freshman from

Phillipsburgh, N. J., is the best of the younger crop, with Tom Schreiber, of Detroit, a holdover from last year, also in the picture.

Notre Dame's greatest strength seems to be in its quarterbacks. Frank Dancewicz, a great passer, runner, strategist and defensive star throughout the 1944 schedule, will again hold down the No. 1 job. Also available is Joe Gasparella, brilliant freshman star from last fall, who spelled Dancewicz; Roger Cadieux, a sophomore from Springfield, Mass., and George Ratterman, Navy ROTC trainee from Cincinnati, are battling for the No. 3 job. Both are fine passers, and good all around prospects. Ratterman is trying to win his fourth N. D. monogram, having previously lettered in basketball, baseball and tennis.

Two of the standout freshmen halfbacks are Phil Collela, 175-pound speedster from Rochester, Pa., and John "Pep" Panelli, 200-pound prospect from Morristown, N. J. Collela was the leading high school scorer in Pennsylvania in 1943, before going into the armed service, and he gives every indication of being a potentially great college player. Panelli, a dead ringer for Jim Mello, is a husky gent who has shown great promise as a pass receiver and break-away runner in the drills to date. Collela currently is at left halfback, with Panelli at right halfback.

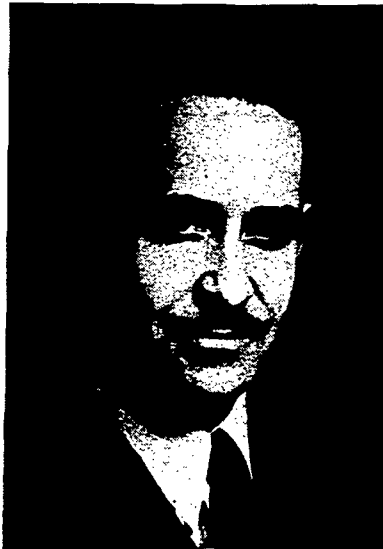

Elmer Angsman, shifted from fullback to right halfback, is battling Panelli for the varsity post right away, while Bill Gompers, a 17-year-old freshman from Wheeling, W. V., also figures in Coach Devore's plans. Among the left halfbacks who have impressed during the scrimmage sessions this summer are Terry Brennan, 185-pound speedboy from Milwaukee, brother of Jimmy Brennan of the 1944 team, and John Agnone, Youngstown, O., who was on the squad but did not play last fall.

The fullback department should be well equipped. Marty Wendell, who will start the season, barring the unforeseen, was one of the greatest line-backers in college ball last year. During the late season he also blossomed forth as a ball carrier, and this spring and summer has continued to show great ability as a line plunger as well as an open field runner. Backing Wendell is Frank Ruggerio, East Orange, N. J., junior, who after two years of disappointments, seems set for a good season. Fred Schmid, 18-year-old, 220-pound freshman from Trenton, N. J., is giving Ruggerio a headache as they compete for the number two spot under Wendell.

Student Personnel Office Opens

By EDWARD R. QUINN, '28

It is a matter of common knowledge among alumni that the University has always encouraged an intimate teacher-student advisory relationship, with the gratifying result that many religious and lay teachers throughout Notre Dame's history have unselfishly devoted much of their time to counseling services outside the classroom. Whenever it has been possible, both teachers and administrators have likewise offered their every assistance to the student in his search for a position after graduation. Such informal teacher-student contacts have been highly effective in the furtherance of the Notre Dame family tradition, and undoubtedly should be continued in the future as important adjuncts to the teaching and administrative functions.

University officials have, however, for several years been cognizant of the fact that it is becoming increasingly difficult for each instructor to gain an intimate knowledge of every student assigned to him for instruction. The pressures of teaching duties, the necessity to do research and the increasing sizes of class sections have all militated against such a desideratum. A further handicap in the form of inadequate personal histories of the students and alumni has occasionally confronted the University.

It was, therefore, with these and other similar considerations in mind that, at the direction of Father Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president of the University, backed by the recommendations of the Alumni Association's Vocational Committee, the Office of Student Personnel was recently established on the campus. This office, which in no way supplants, but rather complements, the informal counseling services, has for its purpose

1. To provide an adequate cumulative record of each student as he progresses through the University. This record, obtained from various sources by the Record Division of the Office of Student Personnel, consists of the student's scholastic record, his health and physical record, his extra-curricular activity and interest record, his test record, his work experiences, his vital record, and his vocational choices.

Estimates of the student, which are obtained from his instructors and hall rectors, are also included in the cumulative record. Father Joseph Kehoe, C.S.C., Head of the Records Division of the Office of Student Personnel, has delegated to Robert McAuliffe the active administration of this division.

2. To provide a counseling service to the student, thereby enabling him to discover his abilities and his aptitudes early in his scholastic career. This service also assists the student throughout his college residence to determine upon his courses of instruction in the light of his past achievements, his vocational interests and his economic resources. Father Howard Kenna, C.S.C., acting director of studies and head of the Counseling Division of the Office of Student Personnel, has delegated to Father John Lane, C.S.C., the active administration of this division. Father Lane is now assisted by Father Thomas Irving, C.S.C., Father Charles Carey, C.S.C., and Edward R. Quinn.

3. To assist the student in finding appropriate employment when he leaves Notre Dame, and as often thereafter as may be of true benefit to the student and to the school. While the employment division of the Office of Student Personnel cannot guarantee to each student a position in keeping with his abilities and training, it is now making and will continue to make every effort to place the student satisfactorily. Father Frank Goodall, C.S.C., is the active administrator of Undergraduate Placement, taking over the work done

ONE of the nation's outstanding campaigns on a community and neighborhood level for assisting returning veterans of World War II is being carried on in Fort Wayne, Ind., under the guiding organizational genius of Harry G. Hogan, '04, attorney and president of Fort Wayne's Dime Bank, whose son, Ens. John H. Hogan, ex. '45, was killed in a training crash on Jan. 29, 1944. The Fort Wayne movement on behalf of the war effort and soldier aid began immediately after Pearl Harbor with Mr. Hogan as general warden. The community movement was known from its inception until recently as the Fort Wayne Civilian Defense Council.

The Fort Wayne VAC has frequently been highly praised by Washington for its model organization. Many visitors have gone to Fort Wayne to examine Mr. Hogan's program at close hand, one of the most recent delegations comprising officials and leaders of the city of South Bend.

There is a veteran's aid counselor in each of Fort Wayne's sixteen hundred blocks and these, with the section, zone and district leaders, comprise an organization of more than two thousand individuals. The over-all direction is provided by a Board of Governors comprising ing 35 men who have met weekly under Mr. Hogan's direction since the early days of the war. They recently held their one hundred and sixteenth meeting, and it is rare that they have less than full attendance.

An unusual part of the Fort Wayne set-up is the Board of Chaplains comprising Lutheran, Methodist, Jewish, Catholic and other clergymen.

Spotlight Alumni

MARTIN EMMET WALTER, Ph.B. '14, M.A. '15, LL.B. '15, managing editor of the Houston Chronicle, Houston, Texas, was one of 12 leading editors of the U. S. newspapers and magazines who this spring gathered from Nazi concentration camps first hand evidence of Nazi atrocities.

Upon returning to Houston, Emmet wrote a series of remarkable articles for his paper, outlining in detail the almost unbelievable horror of what he and his associates had found in Germany.

MARTIN EMMET WALTER, '14

A veteran of World War I—he served in France for a year—and the holder of the Croix de Guerre for bravery, Emmet began his newspaper career in 1919 when he joined the Houston Post. He joined the Chronicle in 1922, becoming city editor in 1924 and news and city editor in 1934. He was named managing editor on March 21, 1945. He is vice-chairman of the city planning commission and sub-committee chairman of Houston's post-war improvement committee.

HAROLD S. FOLEY, '21, has been since 1940 president of the Powell River Co., with headquarters in Vancouver, B.C., one of the largest producers of newsprint and unbleached sulphite pulp on the West Coast.

With his brothers, Lester W. '24, and Milton J., '33, Harold is a member of the Foley family of Florida, outstanding in the lumber business, and Harold worked in the family enterprises in Florida until he went to Vancouver in 1936 as executive vice-president of the Powell River Co.

Says the Pulp and Paper Bulletin of Harold: "Throughout his comparatively brief but outstandingly active and fruitful career Harold Foley has displayed an almost uncanny knack for the reorganization and revitalization of business enterprises. Among his many personal assets is his deep, instinctive knowledge of people and his ability to get along with them . . . he is a hard-working, dynamic and unusually successful business executive with varied and widespread interests."

Harold and his wife have two sons and a daughter.

DUNNE ON HITTING

Bert V. Dunne, '26, San Francisco advertising executive and sports columnist, one of George Keogan's sluggers of the '20s, is the author of a new book, Play Ball, Son, which purports to teach 11-14 year olds the science of becoming Ruths and Di Maggios. Bert's book hasn't arrived itself, just out July 15, but it sounds like the peppy approach and has lots of approbation. It costs $2.56 from the Serra Publishing Co., 57 Post St., San Francisco 4, Calif.

since 1938 by William R. Dooley, assistant alumni secretary. Seniors in their seventh semester are assigned to Father Goodall, that he might have two full semesters in which to work with each student desiring placement after graduation. Bill Dooley will concentrate his activities in vocational counseling and job placement to alumni and other former students, especially to the veterans of World War II.

Frank became an ensign in April, 1942, advancing to lieutenant, junior grade, in May, 1943 and to a full lieutenant on July 1, 1944. At the time of his death, he was gunnery officer and ranked third in command aboard his destroyer.

1st Lt. Robert F. Finneran, '42, Columbus, O., was killed in a plane crash on the island of Tinian on the night of May 16. Bob entered the service in January, 1943, and was commissioned the following August at Yale University. He had been in the Pacific since September, 1944 as a B-29 engineer. He is survived by his parents and two brothers.

Shortly before his death, Robert's mother received the following in a letter from him: "... as for being killed, I am sure that I'll never be as prepared to die as I am now. As a matter of fact, I pray to God not for life but for peace of mind and freedom from fear of death while I am living, and the thought has come to me—I believe an inspiration from God—that our purpose here on earth is to die and be united with Him and that death, far from being something to fear, is a cause for rejoicing in that it is a step to eternal happiness."

2nd Lt. Charles E. Reynolds, '41, Mt. Carmel, Ill., previously listed as missing, is now officially declared to have been killed in action when his plane was lost over Italy on April 18, 1944. #### 267 N. D. MEN DIE IN WAR

Two hundred and sixty-seven Notre Dame men had given their lives in World War II, according to the Alumni Office records on July 28. In your charity, remember them often in your Masses, Communion and prayers.

Remember often also the 35 Notre Dame men who, as of July 28, were listed as missing in action and the 22 who were still listed as prisoners of war.

Charlie Reynolds

inducted into the Army. He received his basic training at Camp Polk, La., and, upon his acceptance into the Air Corps, was graduated from Luke Field in July, 1944.

Capt. Roger C. Foley, USMCR, '41, Winthrop, Mass., died on Okinawa on May 27. Going forward during an intense battle to coordinate the attack of his companies, Roger was hit by machine gun fire and died several hours later.

Enlisting in the Marines in July, 1941, Roger went overseas in January, 1943, and had been in the Pacific almost two and one half years. He is survived by his parents, six brothers and two sisters. He was one of six members of his family in the armed forces.

Writes one of his close friends about Roger: "... he credited the Blessed Virgin with the fact that he was still alive. He told me that he had been a daily communicant and so repeatedly cited his closeness with God that I don't think it is presumptuous to believe that he bypassed Purgatory and is in the right place at this moment."

To another friend Roger wrote from Okinawa: "Without pretending piety, I will say that I prayed more before this operation than all others combined; we have carried on a perpetual novena to the Blessed Virgin Mary and to her we feel certain we owe a lot."

Jim McGoldrick

Tom Creevy

Shot down on the first shuttle bombing to Africa from England, S/Sgt. James C. McGoldrick, ex. '43, Johnstown, Pa., was killed in action over Schweinfurt, Germany, on Aug. 17, 1943. He had previously been listed as missing in action.

1st Lt. Thomas E. Creevy, AAF, ex. '44, Chicago, a Mustang fighter pilot, was killed June 9 in a plane accident over England.

Tom had completed 35 missions over France and Germany and was eligible to return to this country for re-assignment, but volunteered to join a fighter squadron, which was training to go to the Pacific. He had been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for bringing back his bomber with part of the tail and two engines shot away on a mission over Germany on New Year's Day of this year, the Air Medal with seven oak leaf clusters, and a Presidential unit citation.

Tom played on the 1941 and the 1942 football teams at Notre Dame before he left to enlist in the AAF. Surviving him are his parents, two brothers and two sisters. One of his brothers is Cpl. Richard C. Creevy, '43.

Pfc. William B. McDonald, Jr., ex. '44, San Mateo, Calif., son of W. Breen McDonald, '18, was killed in action by sniper fire while aiding in mopping up a wooded area near Opping, Austria, on May 1.

Bill was called to active duty in the Army in February, 1943, and attended Washington State College through ASTP before the program was discontinued. He was then assigned to the 11th Armored Division at Camp Cooke, Calif.

Bill's outfit went overseas in October, 1944, and saw its first action the end of last year in the "Battle of the Bulge." As part of the Third Army they went through the Siegfried Line, crossed the Rhine, and fought through southern Germany to Austria.

ters, and two uncles, G. Dewald McDonald, '16, and James L. McDonald, '30, at present a senior grade lieutenant in the Navy.

Pvt. Morgan Jerome Quinn, '44, Washington, D. C., was killed in action in Italy on April 30. Jerry held the Purple Heart, (twice) the Good Conduct Medal, the European Theatre ribbon with three battle stars and the Bronze Star Medal for gallantry in action. He leaves his parents and his sister.

Jerry enlisted in the ERC in November, 1942, while a student at Notre Dame and was called in July, 1943, when he reported to Camp Croft, S. C., for basic infantry training. He also trained at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he was sent as a replacement for service in Africa. He was in the cavalry reconnaissance troop of the 88th division when a German artillery piece scored a direct hit upon his armored car which was scouting out ahead of the troops, killing him instantly.

Jerry was wounded at Castel del Rio in the Appenine Mountain drive on Sept. 28, 1944, and spent six weeks in the hospital. Later he was taken down with yellow jaundice, spending two months in a hospital and five weeks in a camp. He returned to his outfit in time to participate in the Fifth Army's final drive into the Po Valley.

Bill Sparks

Bob Corum

S/Sgt. William C. Sparks, ex. '44, Alton, Ill., missing in action since January 4, 1944, over Germany, was a year later declared by the War Department to be killed in action.

Cpl. George M. Wolfe, USMCR, ex. '44, Hollis, N. Y., was killed by a sniper's bullet, May 17, on Okinawa. He was a member of the First Marine division and had fought on New Britain and Peliu and was wounded in the leg during the latter campaign last September.

George is survived by his parents and two brothers.

In 1943, at the end of his junior year at Notre Dame, George enlisted in the Marines. He was sent immediately to San Diego and was shipped to the Pacific in the fall of 1943.

Sgt. Robert L. Corum, ex. '45, Indianapolis, died at Billings General Hospital on March 23, 1945. Bob, a combat engineer, became ill with rheumatic fever in England and was in a hospital in England from February, 1944, until he was returned to Billings in May, 1944. His parents and his grandparents survive him.

After leaving Notre Dame in January, 1942, Bob worked in Indianapolis for a year, until he was inducted into the Army in January, 1943. He trained at Camp Swift, Texas, Fort Pierce, Fla., Camp Pickett, Vt., and Chesapeake Bay. He was sent overseas in January, 1944.

The ALUMNUS has so far received only incomplete information regarding the following Notre Dame men who died in the service of their country: Lt. George S. Owens, '32, Lockport, N. Y., killed in the Pacific; Lt. (jg) Louis J. Cenni, Jr., '40, Brandy Camp, Pa., killed in the Pacific; Pfc. Richard A. Schiltz, USMCR, ex. Joe was the pilot of a P-51 fighter plane which participated in a fighter sweep mission to China on that date. During this mission a locomotive was spotted and Joe went down to strafe it. It is believed that the plane sustained some damage for just after his pass, he radioed that he was going home.

2nd Lt. Philip E. Harbert, ex. '43, Park Ridge, Ill., is missing in action since Jan. 25 when on a mission his plane sustained damage and fell to the earth. Since the plane exploded it is doubtful that Phil survived.

2nd Lt. Thomas J. Walsh, AAF, ex. '46, New York City, a bombardier, has been missing in action since Feb. 17 over Germany.

Alumni Board Meets

The most aggressive and constructive board of directors in the history of the Alumni Association (and that isn't just because Dooley and I work for them) met on the campus on June 23 and 24. Tied in with the Board meeting was the University's academic convocation and the informal gathering of the Class of 1920.

Father Hugh O'Donnell, the extremely active honorary president of the Association, stimulated the entire meeting with a discussion of University problems and the application of the Association's program to the broader needs of the era in the world outside. Aggressive leadership of alumni in meeting their opportunities was the keynote of his suggestions.

The Board was very pleased and impressed with the quality of the returns from the Questionnaires sent to the alumni not in the service. But disappointment was expressed in the total return—only about 15% to date. Because of the significance of the Questionnaire in forming the alumni and University viewpoints, the Alumni Office was instructed to study a possible remailing of the Questionnaire, which will be done (it is planned now) by September.

William R. Dooley explained the mechanics of the proposed program for enlisting the Local Clubs in the assistance of Notre Dame veterans of World War II in securing jobs or returning to Notre Dame to school.

Following one of the suggestions that appeared in many of the Questionnaires on increasing the academic publicity and prestige of the University, the Board requested the cooperation of the department of publicity of the University in measuring for several months the content of such news in the nation's press.

Father Frank Goodall reported on the intensive programs set up as a result of the recommendation of the Association's Vocational Committee headed by Bernard J. Voll.

Clarence E. Manion, chairman of the advisory committee for the revision of the constitution and by-laws of the Association, met with the Board in a long discussion, and was commissioned to write the new forms.

A project to place a replica of the Dome in the home of every alumnus was furthered by the submission of two models prepared by Joseph Rigali, '27, Chicago. There is some discussion as to the use of these models, which are about six inches in height, shaped like the Dome and tentatively finished in gold leaf or sprayed bronze. President Tom Byrne suggests them as the nucleus of a shrine of Our Lady in the home. Other suggestions range through simply the ornamental to the utilitarian. Membership suggestions would be of value.

Absence from Detroit kept John T. Higgins away from the meeting, and Governor Harry Kelly was preparing for the governors' conference at Mackinac Island. Those attending were Father O'Donnell, Thomas Byrne, Rev. M. L. Moriarty, E. Bradley Bailey, John T. Balfe, William J. Mooney, Gerald Ashe, Father Goodall, William R. Dooley and James E. Armstrong.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

GOLF

The Notre Dame golfers, defending champions, finished fourth this year in the NCAA championship tournament, held the latter part of June in Columbus, O. Capt. Tom Kennedy and Dick Whiting advanced to the quarter-finals before being eliminated.

TENNIS

The tennis team, defending the title it shared in 1944 with Texas and Miami, failed to place this year in the NCAA tournament, held in Evanston, Ill., the last week in June. Charley Samson and Bill Tully advanced to the quarter finals of the doubles, to turn in the best performance for the Irish.

BASEBALL

Coach Jake Kline's informal baseball team is playing a 14-game schedule this summer against midwestern service and camp teams. Highlight of the early part of the schedule was a 20-inning game played against Stout Field, Indianapolis, and won by Notre Dame, 1-0. All kinds of Notre Dame records were broken in the game. Jack Barrett, Irish mound ace, pitched no hit ball for the regulation nine innings, then was forced to stop in the 15th, because of a sore arm. Duke Simpson, 17-year-old freshman, took over the duties and won his own game in the 20th when he blasted a single over the right fielder's head. Pitcher Bob Hubbard, six-foot six-inch southpaw, of Stout Field, worked the entire 20 innings, gave nine hits, and walked one.

In the afternoon the film was shown at assemblies of the two Catholic high schools in town, and in the evening there was another showing for club members and friends. ## Gogebic Range

Victor F. Lemmer, '26, 424 Douglas Blvd., Ironwood, Mich., Sec.

Cpl. James Jones was home in Ironwood, Mich., for the first time in five years. A metallurgist, he was on special assignment in laboratories in England and also saw action on the Continent. . . . Another back-home visitor was Robert Sullivan of Ironwood. . . . Harold Watson, Milwaukee, special agent in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan for the Security Insurance Co., was in Ironwood recently. . . . Alex Wilson, athletic director at Loyola University, Chicago, is directing a summer camp at Mercer, Wisc.

Milwaukee

Edward J. Rogers, '25, 709 N. 11th St., Pres.; Roderick E. Sullivan, '24, 4432 N. Woodruff Ave., Sec.

It is a pleasure when working out Allis-Chalmers Co. way to contact Bill Brown who is in the legal department of that company. Then too when up around the St. Vincent de Paul Society, it is always pleasant to have a few words with our very capable ex-president, Charlie O'Neill. By the way the stork left a bundle of Irish at the O'Neill's on June 17, 1945. The name is Kevin Edgeworth and he joins his brother, Bruce and sisters, Sheila and Maureen. Charlie is not going to be outdone by Bill Brown with his six daughters and one son.

Tom Dixon, formerly of Pittsburgh, is a welcome addition to our community. He is employed by the Line Material Co. in South Milwaukee, and at the present time is looking for a place to live. We will do our best to help him. . . . It is rumored that John Corrigan of Wauwatosa is home on furlough from his camp in Texas. John's twin brother, James, is in a Jesuit seminary. . . . Occasionally I see Jim McKenna, a chemist at the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. here. Jim is a neighbor of mine.

The newly elected officers met in May at Eddie Rogers' place to discuss a program for the coming year. It was decided to send out a questionnaire to the known alumni in and near Milwaukee to determine what the members wanted in the way of a program. One hundred questionnaires were mailed and 32 responses have been received to date. Having anticipated the return of N. D. alumni veterans and the need of other alumni who have been disrupted in their work during the reconversion period, information was requested as to places of employment and professions of the alumni in Milwaukee.

We realize that we do not have a complete list of alumni in our area and to those readers of this column who reside in Milwaukee, we address this plea: "Kindly drop a card or letter to the undersigned at 4432 North Woodruff Ave., Milwaukee, giving us your name, class, home address, business and telephone numbers so that we can include you in our active list and contact you for various activities." Eddie Rogers, Dud Pearson, Gene Galdabini, Bill Brown and myself are ready to serve the club as its officers but will need the help of all the members to carry out a successful program. We know that we will get 100 per cent cooperation.

While driving through Watertown, Wis., last week, Eddie Rogers' keen eye spotted Father Thomas Irving, C. S. C., on a street corner and Eddie had a chat with him.

Lt. Charles Litty in writing to John Balfe from Okinawa stated that things had been pretty rough out there. Lt. Basil Gillespie, USNR, was recently reassigned to the Pacific theater, but as yet we have no forwarding address.

Edward Neahr has been transferred from the F.B.I. office, Buffalo, to the New York office. Thomas Lantry is still with Federal Telephone and Radio Co., Newark, but spends considerable of his time at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

John Balfe, reports that the Alumni Vocational office has been very busy recently, and he has been able to place several veterans in good positions. Anybody knowing of available positions can reach John at 60 East 42nd St.

Pacific Ocean Area

Ens. Thomas W. Fallon, '42, Pres.; Cpl. Wib Marshall, Sec.

It was with disappointment that the club learned of Walt Phillip's departure for the States. Walt took the office of president at the April meeting but was summoned back to the States shortly afterward.

Tom Fallon—former vice president—now president, opened the regular monthly meeting on May 13 at Dreier Manor. With the number present being over 50, the attendance was slightly larger than at the April meeting. Those who signed the register were: Charles G. Morrison, '30; John F. Kenny, '33; B. Mike DeLay, '33; James J. Gerend, '33; John A. Buckley, '34; Bob Griffin, '46; Phil Costello, '46; Richard L. Bevington, '46; Bob Lee, '46; Marcel J. Aucremanne, '45; Paul Heimann, '45; Hutch Korth, '41; Frederick D. Goosen, '43; George C. Fisk, '43; John E. Sweeney, '47; William K. Fitzpatrick, '43; James J. Clarke, '44; Charlie Hayes, '39; Al Gury, '28; Tom Fallon, '42; Wib Marshall, '45.

Joe Cummings was elected vice-president, to fill the vacancy left by Tom Fallon.

A gala event in the activities of our club was the picnic held in Ala Moana Park on May 27. The day was filled with various kinds of entertainment, including volley ball, soft ball, swimming and singing, and there was ample food to maintain sufficient energy and vitality. We were fortunate to have Tom Fallon, a play-ed major, to be a recreational director—more or less—for the athletics. The athletic equipment was furnished through the courtesy of Bill Collins, and the much enjoyed ham through Jack Sweeney.

Between the games and during rests Al Gury turned out some merry notes on the midget piano Bill Hanifin had brought along, and he was not without Tom Fallon at his elbow singing a few for us. Al also accompanied us when we sang the Notre Dame repertoire.

St. Joseph Valley

Eugene L. O'Brien, '35, 903 E. Jefferson Blvd., South Bend, Pres.; John P. Donnelly, '39, Business Manager of Athletics, Notre Dame, Ind., Sec.

Donald W. McManus, South Bend, a 1945 graduate of Central Catholic High School, South Bend, was on May 27 announced as this year's winner of the scholarship to Notre Dame offered by the club. Handling the scholarship arrangements for the club is a committee composed of Frank Miles, chairman; William J. Broderick, Paul M. Butler, William R. Dooley, James R. Meehan and R. Floyd Searer.

The winner was picked by a "citizens" committee composed of Kenneth B. Elliott, Herbert E. Jones, Otto J. Newman, Judge J. Elmer Peak and Otto A. Pfaff.

On June 29 the club held its annual golf party at the South Bend Country Club. Dick Kaczmarek was chairman of the party, and provided a grand afternoon of golf, followed by dinner and evening entertainment, for a crowd of about 80 golfers and 120 diners.

YOUR PART IN PUBLIC RELATIONS

If a prospective benefactor is interested in contributing to scientific research, we can, with no trouble at all, present a list of projects that await only the necessary funds. Perhaps a lawyer, an alumnus, tells us that a client wishes to remember Notre Dame in his will, and adds that he has no specific wishes as to how the benefaction be used. We recommend that it be added to the unrestricted endowment funds. It is through unrestricted funds that the University is enabled to meet the varied and unanticipated needs or opportunities that constantly present themselves. This Department has published "A Century of Consecrated Service," specifically designed to aid benefactors or their counselors in preparing wills remembering Notre Dame. In passing, I might add that a few Notre Dame lawyers have not been blind to the opportunities of making gifts during the lifetime of the donor.

These few instances—and they might be multiplied many times over—indicate the relationships that should exist between the alumni and the Department of Public Relations—a mutual helpfulness that results in good to Notre Dame. Now that Father O'Donnell has announced a definite program, as well as the reasons for it, that relationship must be, and will be, even closer. We know where we want to go and what it will take to get there.

If I were asked what every alumnus can do to be of service to Notre Dame in helping her advance toward her objectives, my answer would be, first, to be well supplied with information concerning the University and its problems and opportunities. One never knows when seed is going to fall on fertile soil; that is, when the right word about Notre Dame spoken to the right person at the right time will arouse an interest that will result in a lasting friendship for the University. One of the aims of this Department is to increase the number of annual contributions varying in amounts as do alumni gifts.

With full mutual efforts these plans for Notre Dame's future will some day be realized. The degree to which alumni and the many non-alumni friends of the University cooperate will largely dictate the date.

Deaths

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Burke, A.B. '83, A.M. '85, 88 years old, for 60 years a priest, died on June 11 in St. Francis Hospital, Peoria, Ill. He was the oldest priest in the Peoria diocese.

For 30 years Msgr. Burke was pastor of St. Mark's parish, Peoria, retiring in 1940 because of his advanced years. He had earlier served in the parishes in Monmouth, Kewanee, Chebanse and Bloomington, all in the Peoria diocese, following his ordination on June 29, 1885, at St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee.

In recognition of Father Burke's heroic work for the Church, His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, in 1931 invested him with the rank of domestic prelate and the title of monsignor. Officiating at the investiture ceremony was Most Rev. Joseph H. Schlarman, bishop of Peoria, who also preached the sermon for the occasion. At the luncheon following the toastmaster was Rev. John A. O'Brien, then director of the Newman Foundation at the University of Illinois, now a professor at Notre Dame.

Deeply devoted to Notre Dame, Msgr. Burke was a faithful and generous alumnus. He was honorary president of the Alumni Association in 1913-14 and again in 1917-18. In 1904 he gave the baccalaureate sermon at the annual commencement. His interest in the University was responsible for the enrollment here of many students, two of whom are now priests of the Congregation of Holy Cross.

Bishop Schlarman was the celebrant of the funeral Mass for Msgr. Burke on June 13 in St. Mark's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Peoria. Rev. Richard J. Grimm, C.S.C., superior of Holy Cross Seminary on the campus, represented the Congregation and the University at the funeral. St. Mark's in Peoria is Father Grimm's "home parish."

Arthur Hervey, Coronado, Calif., a Notre Dame student in 1904-05, died suddenly in Coronado on April 13 from a heart attack. A native of Winnebago, Minn., Mr. Hervey began his drug store career at the age of 14 in Walkerton, Ind., near South Bend. He later resided in South Bend and, after his marriage in 1910, in Gary, Ind., where he was a partner in the Bell Drug Co. He moved to Coronado in 1922, continuing in the drug business. He is survived by his wife and one son.

Paul C. "Dixie" Bacigalupo, ex. '15, Memphis, died suddenly early in June following a heart attack. He was president of the Memphis Retail Liquor Dealers Association and part owner of the Colonial Liquor Store, Memphis.

On the Notre Dame track team as an associate of the late Knute K. Rockne, Mr. Bacigalupo later served in France as a lieutenant in World War I. In recent years he was intensely interested in experimental kite flying and in fishing.

Surviving Mr. Bacigalupo are his mother and two sisters, all of Memphis.

Brother Justin, C.F.X., '28 died in St. Joseph's Home for Boys, Detroit, on May 21. A native of Kentucky, he made his studies there at St. Joseph's College, Bardonia, and at Notre Dame, where he was a familiar campus figure in several summer sessions. He was a teacher or a principal in various schools conducted by the Brothers of St. Francis Xavier (Xaverian Brothers).

Leon T. Reyniers, '31, Chicago, a brother of Lt. J. Arthur Reyniers, USNR, '30, a member of the Notre Dame faculty, was drowned on July 10 in Lake Michigan after he fell out of his sailboat near Michigan City, Ind. His wife, Margaret, remained in the water for 10 hours after futilely diving to his rescue. She was treated for shock and exposure in a Michigan City hospital.

Leon is survived by his father and two brothers. His second brother, Robert, is with the Navy in the Aleutians.

Eugene I. Cattie, '37, Philadelphia, was killed in an airplane accident in Philadelphia on July 7. He was the brother of Joseph, '38, Jules, '45, and Jerrett, '47, Cattie. Details of the accident haven't reached the Alumni Office but they will, it is expected, be published in the next issue of the 'Alumnus.'

Andrew J. Mickels, ex. '43, Mishawaka, Ind., a former corporal and a veteran of the invasion of Normandy, died on July 4 in Mishawaka as the result of severe injuries which he suffered in an automobile accident three hours earlier. Andy had received a medical discharge from the Army on May 28, following 22 months' overseas.

An outstanding football player and trackman at Mishawaka High School Andy later played football at Notre Dame before he entered the Army on Jan. 22, 1942. He was born in Syria on Nov. 30, 1919.

Surviving Andy are his mother, a brother and four sisters.

Cornelius A. Hannigan, ex. '45, Philadelphia, died on June 21, 1942. This information came to the Alumni Office only recently.

The "Alumnus" extends sincere sympathy to: Lt. William J. Loomes, USNR, '27, on the death of his wife; James H., '36, and Quartermaster 1/c Kenneth W. Kirby, '42, on the death of their mother; Capt. Ben Sheridan, '40, on the death of his mother; Ens. Joseph T. Norris, '43, on the death of his mother.

1890-99 Rev. J. A. MacNamara, '97, St. Joseph's Mineral Baths Mount Clemens, Mich.

Father John MacNamara in a letter written from Mt. Clemens, says, "I left the hospital April 16. . . I am still very weak, but have no pains or aches. I'm able to do very little walking but get out for auto rides. I was able to say Mass on June 8, the feast of the Sacred Heart, and have been able to say it every day since. That's a big consolation and help.

"Not much news these days. I was very sorry to hear of Sherman Steele's death. I had a very pleasant visit with him several years ago when he came here for the baths. He was a nephew of General Sherman and, strange to say, his close friend and pal in the class was Charlie Bryan who was the nephew of the Confederate Admiral Semmes of Alabama fame. That was what you might call a real union of the Blue and Gray."

1913 Paul R. Byrne, University Library, Notre Dame, Ind.

In Ripley's "Believe It or Not" column: "Bill Cotter, as chairman of the New York War Finance Committee, has sold 10 billion dollars worth of war bonds since Pearl Harbor!"

Harry J. Kirk, Washington, former president of the National Catholic Evidence Conference, has been named chairman of the program committee, for the meeting of the conference which is to be held on September 8-9, in Cincinnati. This is the Conference's 14th annual meeting and is being arranged at the invitation of the Most Rev. John T. McNicholas, archbishop of Cincinnati.

Paul R. Byrne, '13, in July completed two decades as Notre Dame librarian.

Mr. Byrne, a native of Syracuse, N. Y., came to Notre Dame as a prep school student, and in 1913 he received a bachelor of philosophy degree from the University. Further study took him to New York State Library school where in 1915 he was awarded a bachelor of library science degree. He was later employed in the New York State Library and in the Ohio State University Library.

The veteran librarian began his library work while still a student at Notre Dame. The

U. S. SENATOR CARVILLE

Governor Edward P. Carville, '09, of Nevada resigned in July to accept appointment to the United States senate as successor to the late Senator James C. Scrugham. Lt. Gov. Vail Pittman made the appointment upon assuming the governor's chair.

Former district attorney, district judge, and United States attorney, Senator Carville first became governor of Nevada in 1938. At Notre Dame he was a law school classmate and roommate of former Postmaster General Frank C. Walker.

Senator Carville joins Congressman Joseph P. O'Hara, '20, Glencoe, Minn., and Congressman Robert A. Grant, '28, South Bend, to form a Notre Dame trio in the Congress of the United States.

Library was in the administration building at that time, and Mr. Byrne recalls that he worked in the old library under Miss Florence Espy, who was beginning the task of cataloging the collection of volumes.

His outstanding work in the direction of the library at Notre Dame has brought national prominence to Mr. Byrne, and in 1936 he was elected president of the Catholic Library Association. He was named secretary-treasurer of the same organization and served from 1937 to 1939. Since 1941 the Notre Dame librarian has been a member of the association's executive council.

And Mr. Byrne's hobbies do not reach far from his work at the University. When he isn't busy attending to his duties as librarian at Notre Dame, the veteran administrator whittles away the hours collecting book plates and books.

1914 Frank H. Hayes, 642 Third Ave., Chula Vista, Calif.

Planes detailed to operate from Okinawa were composed of the Tenth Tactical Air Force under Marine Maj. Gen. Francis P. Mulcahy. It included both Marine and Army planes.

1916 Grover F. Miller, 610 Wisconsin Ave., Racine, Wis.

Joe McLoughlin, Jersey City, N. J., for some time past an employee of the War Shipping Administration with the temporary army rank of major, returned to the United States in July and spent a few days in South Bend and at Notre Dame. In France Joe had been directing port relief work for merchant seamen who were stranded as the result of ship sinkings. Earlier, he was with the Merchant Marine and in that capacity traveled 'round the world and made the hazardous run to Murmansk.

1917 B. J. Voll, 206 E. Tutt St., South Bend, Ind.

From Michigan came the rocking announcement that Governor Harry Kelly would retire from active political life and would not participate in the next Michigan general election. Harry was nominated for state office by the Republican party four times without opposition, twice as secretary of state and twice as governor, and was elected all four times. It had been generally predicted that he would oppose U. S. Senator Vandenberg in the next general election.

Bernie Voll is a member of the five-man commission set up in South Bend under a city ordinance to assist servicemen and former servicemen in becoming readjusted and securing benefits available to them. Under the commission's plan a referral center for veterans will be opened in South Bend in August.

1918 John A. Lemmer, 901 Lake Shore Drive, Escanaba, Mich.

Tom Kelley is sales manager in the Motor Division of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company of East Pittsburgh.

Dick Dunn of the Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Company, Chicago, saw his son for the first time since the lad suffered a broken back May 25 in the fighting on Okinawa. Dick, Jr., is in a cast which permits him to stand or lie but not to sit. He will be in it for another three or four months.

1919 Lt. Cmdr. Clarence W. Bader, U.S.N.R., Room 2N07, Bureau, Supplies and Accounts, Washington, D. C.

Andrew McDonough, major in the AAF, is stationed in Middletown, Pa.

1920 Leo B. Ward, 1012 Black Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

A group of the '20 brethren gathered informally at Notre Dame on June 22-23-24 for a 25-year reunion. Arranged by Father Frank Goodall, C.S.C., of the University and Ed Doran and Ed Meehan of South Bend, the week-end was highlighted by a dinner in the Oliver Hotel on Saturday, June 23. President Tom Bencom, Chicago, who presided at these eating-discussion festivities, checked in the following in addition to those above: Father Leo L. Ward, and Father Jim Connerton of the University, Ralph Bergman, St. Louis, John Balfe, New York City, Gene O'Toole, St. Joseph, Mich., Jim "Red" Ryan, Albion, N. Y., Paul Conaghan, Chicago, John Powers, Cleveland, and Frank Farrington, South Bend. Members of the Alumni Association Board who were also meeting that week-end joined in at the dinner. These were: Tom Byrne, '28, Ed Balley, '22, Kid Ashe, '22, Bill Mooney, '15, Jim Armstrong, '25, and Bill Dooley, '26. John Balfe, an Association director, doubled in brass.

Father Goodall celebrated a High Mass for the class on Saturday morning in Sacred Heart Church. Golf and many informal "sessions" took up the rest of the all-too-short time.

Bob O'Hara, lately out of the Army after extensive service in England as a lieutenant colonel, is now budget director in the National Housing Agency, Washington, D. C.

1922 Gerald Ashe, 19 Dorking Road, Rochester, N. Y.

From Kid Ashe:

Our congratulations are extended to John Huether upon his recent promotion in the General Electric organization at Schenectady. As far as we are concerned, John is deserving of nothing but the best.

Another who deserves commendation for excellency in performance, and who knows how to carry his laurels is John Paul Cullen who is in charge of Veterans administration for the Army Corps' area centered in Chicago. John Paul's offices are in the Customs House Bldg., Chicago.

A recent letter from Charlie Hirschbuhl of Portland, Oregon, stated that Jack Higgins is perhaps the worst correspondent in the class of 1922, with Pete Champion finishing a strong second. Charlie said that Jerry Jones of Dixon, Ill., and Harold McKee of Chicago, are good scribes in comparison.

Your reporter had visits with Aaron Huguenard and Pat Manion at South Bend recently on a quick trip to the campus. He failed to make a phone contact with Harold Weber, and regrets not having seen him and all of the 1922 men in that area.

Aaron Huguenard and Charlie Hirschbuhl already are demanding that things must get under way in the matter of our 25th Class Reunion in 1947. Your secretary hereby takes the liberty of appointing Aaron Huguenard as a chairman of a committee comprising all 1922 men in that area to start formulating plans for such a reunion, and to make necessary contacts with the general alumni secretary, James E. Armstrong. It is not too early to start the ball rolling.

1923 Paul H. Castner, 26 Hoyt Ave., New Canaan, Conn.

The first-person link with Major John E. Duffy, chaplain in the regular army and former Lafayette, Indiana boy, who was captured by the Japs after the fall of Bataan and Corregidor, has been established at long last by the chancery of the Toledo diocese upon receipt of a message identified as Father Duffy's handwriting.

The latest news about Father Vincent Catapane, M.A., '23, is that, until U. S. troops invaded the Philippines, he thought that Elmer Layden was still coach at his Alma Mater! He is reported as bouncing along a Philippine road in a jeep, singing the Victory March with one Paul Karberg, Madison, Wis., a friend of Harry Stuhldreher.

Under date of June 13, Cpl. Neil "Spike" Flinn wrote from "somewhere in Luzon." This was the first time, Spike was permitted to give his location in any landings north of the equator. On the other side of the equator, Spike's outfit made landings at Milne Bay, Goodenough Island, Finchaven, Altape, Arrar, and Noemfoor Island. Very recently in the public press the outfit was identified as performing the task of landing Australian troops in the Brunel Bay area of Borneo. Spike threatens to retire soon on account of "old age."

Lionel Carney was honorably discharged from military service last year. At present he is with the Surplus Property Division of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., in New York City. Lionel is on the look out for a good opportunity in sales in private industry.

Les Logan and family, Ft. Wayne, Ind., were June visitors to the campus. Les' son is now a freshman at Notre Dame, having started on July 5.

From Harry Flannery of Los Angeles, on July 5th:

"Greetings to you and Notre Dame men from the Notre Dame club of Bengal.

"Yesterday I had the opportunity of calling upon Bishop Crowley, '02, who after 38 years in India, has not lost a trace of his rich lovely Irish brogue, nor his Irish facility of phrase. To the young soldiers from the nearby ATC base with us at his residence, the bishop remarked: 'I always say: If you want to live to be an old soldier, keep away from the big guns.' The Bishop was on his way that afternoon to the ATC airport near Dacca, from which it had been arranged he would be flown to another part of his vast diocese. . . . At his residence, I also met Father Switalski, '22, and at the residence in town near the cathedral and school, Brother Lorenzo, Brother Jude and Father Bergman. They all want to be remembered to their old school, which always remains high in their hearts as evidenced by the copies of the 'Alumnus' that I saw on the table both at the school and at the bishop's residence.

"And now, too, it must be said, these men of Notre Dame are doing a great job, not only among the Indian people, but also among the young Catholic men at the nearby base. I ran into several at the bishop's house and it lifted your soul to see them—these fine young men who were finding so much joy in talking with His Grace, these Fathers and these Brothers. It was an inspiring experience after having run across so much of the other sort of spirit in the army—not that it is general, for mostly I think we can be well proud of our young men—but that any amount of it is disturbing. Notre Dame out here—and I'm sure elsewhere over the world—as through Bishop O'Hara—has been doing its part gloriously. . .

"I'm on an unusual trip. I left the San Francisco conference before it was over to fly to Washington, from which I've flown since to Bermuda, the Azores, Casablanca, Tripoli, Cairo, Jerusalem, Abadan, Kurachi, Delhi, Agram, Calcutta, Rangoon, Chahua, Kunming, Chungking, Nanning, Chekkiang, Sian, Tungwan, Chengtu, and now we're on our way to Ceylon, after which we'll visit more of India, and go into Italy, where I hope to be able to get an audience with His Holiness. I've been able to meet and talk with such people as the Generalissimo, Generals Wedemeyer, Wheeler, Davidson, Chennault, Lord Louis Mountbatten. It's been probably the most unusual trip ever arranged by the War Department, with me being fortunate enough to represent CBS. It's no fun being separated from the family at home, however, and I am glad we are now on our way back."

1924 J. F. Hayes, 393 - 7th Ave., Room 1515, New York City.

Ed Tighe is now associated with the law offices of Meleney, Ryan and Stevenson, 420 Lexington Ave., New York City.

1928 Louis F. Buckley, 4481 Mac Arthur Blvd., Washington, D. C.

From Lou Buckley:

Our class president and vice-president were in town this month. John Fredrick was here from Muskegon on business and for admission to practice before the Supreme Court. Lt. Howie Phalin was in on Navy business from Texas where he is stationed. My old roommate, Denny Daly, is located here now with the Office of Strategic Services. Denny has been in the Army for two years. His wife and son are in St. Paul. Maj. After a visit in Massachusetts he expects to go to Germany.

Ed Quinn is now working at Notre Dame in the organization and administration of a counselling and placement service. Ed reports that the class of 1928 is well represented at the University with Dr. Andy Boyle, head of the Department of Chemistry and Ron Rich, head of the Department of Chemical Engineering. Maurice Soderman, who like myself married a Mishawaka girl, is now president of a furniture factory at Jasper, Ind.

Bob Kirby came through with one of his masterpieces which I give you as follows:

"In March, I had a V-mail from Eddie Rafter, who at that time was parley vooling and preparing for a 30-day temporary assignment in the States. In three years overseas, the only N. D. man he had met was Phil O'Connor, who had slightly silvered on the noggin—otherwise the same as ever. I imagine Eddie's back home now, so he can give you all his dope direct.

"From the Mystik Adhesive Products in Chicago, came a swell note from Bob Rigney—submitting the envious fact that the score was even in the Rigney league—2 boys and two girls. I think I'll get married and settle down.

"Gene Farrell, now news editor of the 'Newark Star-Ledger,' sent a swell letter. He complimented the class of 1923 on producing a crepehanger and a good newspaper man. He reveals the astounding fact that after he left N. D. he got married and got a job. He says he's still married and still has a job—also three boys.

"And then, that busy little bee, Jack Wingerter, took time out to drop me a line—and he had the effrontery to inquire about the size of the Kirby family. He should know that the number might change between the time I mail the answer to that question and the time he receives it. I have formed an inviolable rule to never answer that question by mail.

"Forgot—Gene mentioned that through the years he has gathered fragmentary evidence of the existence of Ed Tully, Bernie Bird and Frank Connors,"—but "never a word about Cliff Trombley, Walter Hugh Layne, Dick Weppner, etc."

"I got a great kick out of reading about Igoe in the latest 'Alumnus'—Imagine that old goat worrying about that big bird flapping its wings around his chimney—won't he ever grow up?"

Thank you, Bob, for the fine contribution and lets hear from you soon again. We were very sorry to hear of the death of your father. The name of Al Thomas was also included in the list of fellows Bob inquired about. Al died a few years ago.

A further result of my beating the bush for '23 news is the following fine letter from Bob Hamilton:

"George Coury, all decked out in his neat-fitting officer's uniform, is seen regularly—and he doesn't seem to be a day older. A lot wiser he says. Judge Callagy has been seen quite often of late at our meetings, and, though changed very little in appearance, he now has that dignified look of a well fed Domestic Relations Officer.

"Larry Culliney left these parts for his home town of Rutland, Vt., where, I understand, he is now running the local bank. Culliney has a very charming and pretty wife.

"Tom Litzwan evened things up with Vermont by coming to Long Island where I understand he is connected with the Philips Company, on construction engineering projects. He has threatened to travel the 15 or 20 miles into the Big City to visit us but to date—no Tom.

"Ran into Bill Cronin a couple of weeks ago when he was desperately looking for a house big enough to handle that mob of his—and he was quite discouraged. However, I gather that he has located a place somewhere in Westchester and will be up this way permanently soon.

"Bud Farley, ex. '28, is running a very successful bistro in Albany—not far from the railroad station and he has quite a few Notre Dame boys dropping in on him from time to time. John Antus is quite a regular attendee at our meetings and has a very much alive and kicking legal practice.

"Does any one ever hear from Bill Duffy, who, at last reports, was practicing law in Washington, D. C., or does any one ever hear from John Paul Courts, ex. '28, Duffy's old roommate and townsman from Watertown, New York?

"As former club members and classmates we read with interest about John Hinkel's activities in Italy.

"The local club board asked me to represent the N. Y. Club officially at Bishop O'Hara's installation at Buffalo, which I can assure you I was most happy to do. It was as touching and magnificent a spectacle as I ever witnessed in my life and I almost cried with joy to see our now world famous 'Pope' installed as a bishop—and I think that only 15 years ago (or so) he was our Father Confessor, and Father in all other ways.

"Following the installation I had the pleasure of joining the Buffalo boys for luncheon. Father O'Donnell was there too and took time out of a busy day to spend some time with us. I had a very hard time breaking away from Bill Dowdall and Gus Jenkins.

"Anyhow I did get back and have gotten around again to supervising special involving supply problems for the Pan American World Airways System. I spent a year (with my family) in Miami on one project and while there ran into Tom Mahon who is a full lieutenant in the Navy. He is stationed at Richmond Naval Base, Florida. Occasionally I see Bud McMorrow. Bud is with Bigelow and Co., New York distributors of machinery and automotive supplies, and doing very well. Bud has three youngsters, Tom one, and I have two."

Thanks, Bob, for your newsy letter. Bill Duffy is a colleague of mine at the War Production Board in the Automotive Division.

From his new appointment as assistant at St. James' Church, Lakewood, O., Father George Belting writes: "... I am very happy over my appointment at St. James' Church. It is a very nice parish and there is plenty of work to keep one busy. Never a dull moment. ... A little side light on the ordination breakfast. It was quite a Notre Dame affair. Father Regis O'Neill, C.S.C., represented the University at the First Mass. John P. Murphy, Tom Byrne, president of the Alumni Association, and Father Berrie Flynn, a former Holy Cross seminarian and now a priest of our diocese, were the principal speakers. Other N. D. men present were Don Miller, Clay Leroux, Ed Carey, Al Grisanti, and of course, my brother Frank, who now lives in Glen Ellyn, Ill. Don Hogan came on from New York and Gil Coyne put in a very unexpected appearance as I thought he was still in the South Pacific. However, Gil was home on furlough with his 86 points. He may have received his discharge by this time. ..."

From the sports column of the South Bend "Tribune" comes news about Lt. Ed Kruse's harrowing experience when he and his Marine pals encountered a "tropical front" flying over the southwest Pacific. All were ready to bail out when they broke through the storm after a two-hour fight and landed in the Australian bush country, 200 miles off their course. Their left motor went out just as they landed and they were stranded there for six days before they could get the spare parts needed to put the motor in shape. However, there were compensations. A butcher shop in the small town which they made their headquarters opened once a day and allowed Ed's party of eight a total of 10 pounds of beef a day at eight cents a pound!

1937 Frank J. Reilly, MacNair-Dorland Co., 254 W. 31st St., New York City

From Frank Reilly:

There was a letter from Capt. James L. Gagnier, '37, who is (or was) stationed at Headquarters, USUTAF, St. Germaine-en-Laye, France. Jim said nothing about himself, made a few complimentary remarks about the column and enclosed a letter for Bob (Fr. Cronan) Kelly, O.F.M., who, Jim had read, was located just down the street from my office. It was the letter to Bob Kelly that carried the big news. Jim said he was being married on June 16, to a French lass from just outside St. Germaine-en-Laye. I think I speak for all Jim's friends when I say congratulations and I hope everything went off all right. Unless my scant notes, made about two months ago, belie me, Jim said he had studied law prior to his induction in July, 1941. In December, 1943, he went to England and shortly thereafter to France. He said he had met many N. D. men, but not from our class. Jim celebrated V-E Day in Paris.

Next in the order of news was a very helpful letter from my very old pal, Joe Quinn, of Newton, N. J. Joe wrote May 29, from Hamilton Hall A-23, Boston 63. A Harvard man, I believe. Joe writes: "I was commissioned an ensign in supply at 90 Church St., New York, on January 6, (1945). Had a week off and came here for school to learn the Navy's way of handling funds. Expect to finish at the end of June and be on my way out to see the Nips. I've heard from Eddie Reardon, who was chasing the Krauts through the fatherland. . . . He's a Quartermaster lieutenant. Gordon Murphy, my old roomie, is a captain in the Quartermaster Corps, at Leghorn, Italy. I saw him a lot last summer when our destroyer was in Naples. Murphy looked good, fatter and balder—missed the good old State of Wyoming—as you can imagine.

"Walt Nienaber reported from the Philippines the other day. . . . Walt was here at Communications School with 'Bucky' Jordan. I saw a lot of them in March, 1944, up here with their families. Jim Dapners is here now, too. He's a Michigan boy, married and has one son, all signed for N. D., he says. I'm still singl e. Jerry Claeys is at Klameth Falls, Ore. He has a son, too."

See what I mean when I said Joe sent me a helpful letter? How about some of you other fellows like Vince Hartnett, Johnny McCarthy, from out Denver way, or Jack Hurley, coming through in similar style?

The third letter I received since the last piece I wrote for the 'Alumnus' came from another New Jersey boy making good with the Navy. That would be Bill Sharp, late of Summit, more recently of New York and currently somewhere in the Pacific. Bill wrote on June 17. . . . "I've been in the Navy since February, '41, on various types of ships. I was last back in the States when I returned from Italy on an Army Hospital ship and hit the States at Charlestown, S. C., where I was treated at the U. S. Navy hospital there. Following that, I was assigned as skipper on this supply ship. It is quite a job. Don't see many N. D. men, however. Pass the word around—maybe there are some in the vicinity and we can have a reunion.

"In November, 1942, I married a New York girl, with the able assistance of Bishop O'Hara and his staff, notably your brother, Bill, '34. Father Harry Stegman, C.S.C., married us in St. Patrick's Cathedral and your brother assisted at Mass. . . . Saw Bob Gehres, '37, while in Naples. He was on his way home. Certainly sorry to hear about the death of Frank Husking, '37. (A sentiment almost universally expressed by members of the class of '37 whom I've met or heard from.) Also over in the Mediterranean, I saw Frank McCarthy, '37."

Now, for some hearsay and first hand reports of '37 lads. Jerry Gillespie, whom I mentioned in the June 'Alumnus', dropped in again after I'd knocked out my stint for that issue and told me of having seen Pete Cassone, who was a pre-med student in our class. Pete is now in the Navy, a full lieutenant. I believe Jerry said. Jerry saw him at 90 Church St., not long before. Pete is an M. D., and was wounded in action on Leyte, Jerry reported. He also mentioned rather significantly that Pete had seen quite a lot of action. In fact, I recall he told me that Pete was still carting around a fairly good sized piece of shell metal in some part of his anatomy and that he refused to have it removed.

At the last meeting of the New York Notre Dame Club, Will Kirk, Paul Sheedy, Tom

Hughes, Bernie Reilly and, I'm told, Ken Moriarity and Bill Wilson were on hand. I was attending another meeting that same night and had to come late and thus missed seeing Ken Moriarity. I did see Bernie Reilly—for the first time since 1937—and got a fairly good idea of what he's been doing with himself in the past eight years. Bernie told me he was, at that time, a first class electrician working on radar installations at Todd Shipyard in Hoboken, N. J. He has been with Todd for the past two years. Before that, he sold Chevrolets for one of the larger New York automobile agencies and, for a short time after Pearl Harbor interrupted large scale civilian automobile production, was in real estate.

Joe Schilling, now a senior grade lieutenant in the Navy, was in New York, in May, and had lunch with his old sidekick, Tom Hughes. Paul Sheedy told me at the meeting that John O'Leary, formerly of Chicago, was now with the F.B.I. in New York. I called John the following day and am still waiting to have lunch with him as soon as he can get free. I did learn, via the phone, from John that he is living around the corner from Paul Sheedy in Jackson Heights, Long Island. John is married and has two children, both boys, I think he said. He's married to the sister of the late Dick Carroll, '37, who met with such a tragic death as a prisoner of war aboard an Italian submarine that was sunk. John says he has heard nothing about or from his old roommate, Reg Morrison, of Rochester, N. Y.

Johnny McCarthy, of the Denver clan, is rather busily engaged in the plumbing supply business, according to a young Notre Dame co-ed from St. Mary's, whom I met recently. John is doing very well, is married and has children, whose number I do not clearly recall. Please clarify the point, John, along with a number of others.

Art Shaughnessy's dad told me the other day that Art recently was back in the country for a week at Norfolk, Va., following a series of trips that have taken him clear around the world. Art is a yeoman, third class, and is on a vessel that has done a number of repatriation jobs recently. Art was appointed to his captain's staff not long ago, which is in the nature of a promotion, although his rank remains unchanged until there is an opening in the rank above. Incidentally, Art's cousin, not a Notre Dame man, is John MacDonald, the ace United Press correspondent who has been covering the war in Europe.

Speaking of relatives, I met Will Kirk's brother, a Franciscan Father, who is stationed in the same monastery as our classmate Bob (Cronan) Kelly. Fr. Cassian Kirk, like brother Will, is in the patols, a "right Joe."

Joe MacDonald, of the class of '36, a business neighbor of mine here in New York, and assistant to the vice-president of his firm, Standard Garment Co., phoned shortly after the appearance of the next to last issue of the 'Alumnus' to renew an acquaintance that began in 1933 in a French class we were taking under Prof. Benjamin DuBois. Joe had been living with his wife and three children in Englewood, N. J., until someone bought the house they were living in and forced the MacDonalds out. Joe still lives in Englewood, while his family is living with his wife's people in Ware, Mass., to which Joe commutes week-ends. Joe and I had lunch last week and got pretty well caught up on each other's doings for the past nine years.

The parting shot: Coming down 31st St. to the office one morning this week I met Paul Sheedy rushing around getting his car parked in a nearby lot and hurrying across the street to Pennsylvania Station. Paul just about had time to say "hello and goodbye, I've got to meet a train." Incidentally, my office is located across 31st St. from Penn Station and is the only office building on the block between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, so if any of you fellows coming through that way could take a few minutes off, I'd like to have you come up to the office and say hello. However, if you can't do that, you can certainly write me a letter and tell me what you're doing!

Where-they-ares: Sgt. Ben Scherer, c/o P.M., N. Y. C.; Capt. Frank Hardart, M. D., Station Hospital, George Field, Ill.; Don Hanning, Highland Ave., Watertown, Conn. (Don has just been repatriated from Santo Tomas, Manila, after three years internment. He was assistant manager at the Victorias Milling Co., Victorias, Occidental Negros, P. I.); Lt. Jim Bales, USNR, Dixon, Ill., communications watch officer and ship's legal assistant officer aboard a heavy cruiser in the Pacific.

2nd Lt. Leonard Guedry, Napoleonville, La., has finished a course in Education and Physical Reconditioning at Lexington, Va. Capt. Bill Fallon, New Rochelle, N. Y., has returned from overseas duty.

An erroneous report was made in the June 'Alumnus' when Frank Reddy's name was listed in the Additional Service Men column. Our apologies, Frank.

Capt. Frank Sampson, chaplain of the parachute infantry, who was captured by the Germans on D-Day because he chose to remain with his wounded paratroopers as the Germans advanced, has been liberated. Father Sampson was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism on D-Day. He was formerly pastor at Neola, Ia.

1938 Harold A. Williams, 4323 Marblehall Rd., Baltimore, Md.

From Hal Williams:

Top spot for this issue goes to Capt. Bob Maxance who wrote the following on a German typewriter from somewhere in Germany: "I have just completed my first hitch in the Army; in my service I covered the east, northeast, southeast, south, southwest and middle west. Finally they shipped me out last August. We hit England, then France, and, in October, we got in the Metz campaign and subsequently the Saar fight. We have done a lot of traveling over here, serving in the U. S. Third Army, the British Second, and the U. S. Ninth Army. Now I'll try to remember some of the boys I have seen:

"Art Davidson turned up at Camp Polk, La., that was in September, '43. Then I met Charley Butler in Los Angeles. I understand that Jack Lundgren was with a division out there in the desert that winter, but I never did get to see him. At Hershey, Pa., I saw Frank Barbush and his wife. I also met Bill Terry, in Pennsylvania. From there I went to Taunton, Mass., and met Chic Gallagher at the dog races one evening. When we got to England we picked up our civil affairs man, Lt. Col. Thomas V. Holland, and he turned out to be one of the Kansas City boys from back in '17 or thereabouts.

"On my way up to the front I ran into Mike Crowe in Le Mans, and at that point I ceased seeing any of the boys although there are many of them nearby. . . . I have a sneaking suspicion that John E. Kelley is in my immediate vicinity but I have not had an opportunity to look him up. At present I am writing for his address from my wife so I can contact him. Say hello to Al Butler with American Airlines in Washington, D. C. . . . Charlie Daly at Merced Air Base in California. . . . Don Hickey. . . . Oh yes, my kid brother is an ensign, operating out of New Caledonia. . . ."

Thanks, Bob, for a swell and newsy letter. I'll send Kelley your address.

And now a grand letter from Johnny Beer who writes from the Philippines—"After a few hectic, sleepless and nerve-wracking days and nights up on the lines, I can think of no better way to relax than to read through the 'Alumnus.' The October issue arrived just a few days ago and I read it from cover to cover. . . . My 31 months overseas are noteworthy from only one point of view—I've met only one N. D. Man. . . . Lt. Jack Clifford, '41, of the Marine Corps, and, coincidentally, a native of my home town of Auburn, N. Y. Met Jack on Guadalcanal in October '43, and haven't seen or heard from him since. . . . My daughter, Carol Ann, just rounded the two-year mark. Her latest achievement is learning to pray, but I don't even believe children's prayers, as powerful as any, can speed up the rotation policy and get daddy home. Would like to hear from Crowley, Bohlen, Bauer, and, as a matter of fact, any of the old gang."

Charlie "Bud" Kolp, Jr., says: "The latest issue of the 'Alumnus' just arrived. News of '38 is scant so here's my contribution: I recently heard from Charlie Morrow, Lt. (jg) USNR, who is the executive officer of an LST, currently operating in the Pacific area. He has seen plenty of action in the ETO, having been in the assault phase in both Normandy and Southern France. I saw 1st Lt. Phil Bayer several months ago. He is now stationed at Camp Pinedale, Fresno, Calif., as a signal corps radar officer. He's expecting to be shipped out soon. The only other '38 man I have news about Maj. Hugh Correll of the AAF. Last I heard, which was months ago, he was returning to Europe. As for myself—I am a Lt. (jg) in the Supply Corps and am attached to the . . . . (attack transport) as disbursing and assistant supply officer (thanks to N. D.'s BSC). To date we have taken a minor part in the Philippine campaign and were in the assault phase on "L" day at Okinawa."

Thanks, "Bud" for a swell letter. Write again,

And now—for the first time—Bob Derengoski. He writes, "I'm in the Philippines with the army and while things were rough for a time I'm well-situated now. That last is somewhat of an overstatement—the mud is up to my knees right now. Since graduation I've acquired a wife and two children, a boy and a girl. I haven't encountered any of the class since '43 when I ran into Joe Nigro, a second lieutenant in the CAC. I have seen some of the real old timers, however, ancients from the classes of '31 and '32. . . . The arrival of the 'Alumnus' was like a breath of fresh air in the stench and heat of the tropics. I'll never regard the magazine casually again."

Nice going, Bob. Now let's hear from you again; and not in six years.

Then there is the swell V-letter from a good friend Ed Bartlett. He tells about his experiences in Europe and then passes along some information on Bill Woerner. Writes Ed, "Bill had to give up pilot training in '42 because of an infected foot, but finally got to a limited OCS. He was assigned administrative work at Fort Knox and got to be a first lieutenant. But he still hankered to fly, and finally was readmitted to pilot training. He won his wings as a flying fortress pilot and was awaiting a plane at the time he wrote. His address is: Lt. William J. Woerner, Squadron A. Lincoln Army Air Base, Lincoln, Neb." Ed evidently has seen quite a bit of action as he now wears three battle stars. He ended his letter by saying that he believed he was to be transferred to Public Relations in Paris. He evidently got the job because I got a new address two weeks later.

And then there is the letter from my old roommate, E. A. "Bud" Sherwood.

Sherwood, an ensign in the Navy, is now stationed on Long Island, after studying at Harvard and William and Mary. He expects to be shipped out soon and writes, "My orders read that I am to have charge of the Fleet Officers Recreational Facilities which, as far as I can establish, is only a long bar. I have 13 enlisted personnel to help operate it!" Bud also mentions that he spent several weekends with Mr. and Mrs. Caz Vance (Ivan Ivancovic) and Pat Stilliano and his wife. Pat is a first lieutenant and has just been returned to the States after 34 months in the South Pacific. Continues Sherwood, "Before we left Boston Lt. George Fitzpatrick got in touch with me and we went out to their place several times. He also had me aboard his ship for dinner. He is the executive officer on a converted yacht which does patrol work out of the Boston harbor." Oh yes, Sherwood also mentioned that he and his wife stopped in Taunton, Mass., to see Jack Cleary's folks and wife.

The Navy should know what it is doing, but, personally, I think they made a mistake when they put Sherwood in charge of the bar for the fleet.

Address: Ens. Emory A. Sherwood, SC, USNR, A B A T U, NTC Lido Beach, Long Island, N. Y.

And that's all except an announcement that Edward T. Tighe has become associated for the general practice of law with the firm of Meloney, Ryan and Stevenson, Graybar Building, 420 Lexington Ave., New York, 17, N. Y.

Nice going, fellows, and keep those letters flowing. I enjoy the work of forwarding them to ARMSTRONG and DOOLEY, Ltd.

Ed Bartlett, in his V-Mail writes that ". . . In the 15 months I've been in the ETO I've literally met dozens of Notre Dame men. Unfortunately, I can't recall the names of any but a few of them. First of all, there was Capt. Bill Toumey whom I met in England and again in Paris. The others were Henry Rago, who was an instructor in English at N. D., and Bill Syring, '41, both of whom are in CIC like me. There are a great many Notre Dame men in CIC, but I'm not sure just which of them are over this way."

In a talk of intense interest, enthusiastically received, he discussed some of his experiences.

A V-Mail received from Capt. Don Foskett shows that his APO is now out of San Francisco. He says, ". . . I am traveling again, but this time in another direction. It certainly feels funny traveling as a passenger on one of these things after having been a transport commander for so long. . . ."

After "a delay of about five years," T/Sgt. Clyde Archer on June 7 wrote the following to Bob Sanford. ". . . It is beginning to strike home how fortunate I have been during the past few years to have been where I have and have come out alive. But, now, I hope, my Army career is over and I can settle down to some type of work and live a nice, secluded life with my wife and two small daughters. I was in the 'Battle of the Bulge' last December and was wounded and taken prisoner by the Germans. I was liberated April 16 this year and was home with my wife the middle of May. I have 60 days' furlough after which I report to Miami, Fla. With 96 points I can account for without thinking very long, I am almost sure to get my discharge."

Ens. Don Driscoll, Washington, D. C., is credited with destroying four Japanese barges off the west coast of Leyte Island when his PT boat left the barges either burning or completely under water. Rising from private, first class, to major is no small feat in the Army and Maj. Phil Canale, Memphis, did just that. Overseas 28 months, he was executive officer of a 12th AAF B-25 squadron in the Mediterranean theatre. Phil received the European - African - Middle - East ribbon with five battle stars and the Distinguished Unit Badge.

1st Lt. Dan Hannan, Perry, Ia., pilot of a B-17 flying fortress, completed over 225 combat hours, traversed approximately 30,000 miles and helped his bomber fight its way through severe enemy opposition to drop more than 125,000 pounds of high explosives on Nazi industrial and military installations prior to V-E day. Dan has been awarded the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf clusters.

"Life" photographer W. Eugene Smith, who was at N. D. for a semester in 1936-37, was seriously injured on Okinawa as a result of Jap shell fragments. Gene, a veteran of 13 Pacific actions and 23 combat bombing missions, he commented at a field hospital afterwards: "I forgot to duck but I got a good picture of those who did."

1941 Lt. John W. Patterson, Jr., 5530 Darlington Rd., Pittsburgh, Pa.

From Lt. Jack Hayes on June 28 to Lt. Jack Patterson (the latter athletic officer of the First Infantry Division in Germany):

"Just a few lines to say hello. For the last couple of years your news of the fellows has been as welcome to my eyes as a familiar face. This being my first letter since leaving school, I hardly know where to begin. As Elmer Layden used to say in the spring, 'We'll start with the fundamentals; so settle back, lad. A certain amount of this dope will be outdated but here it is, ready or not.

"Upon graduation I spent a very enjoyable and enlightening six months coaching at Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Mo. I had a good bunch of boys and a fair amount of success, with Tommy Callahan, ex. '43, playing a whale of a game at end for me. I enlisted in the Navy as a chief, attached to Gene Tunney's athletic branch in January, '42. Reported for active duty Norfolk, Va., in March, and kept in step for a few months with Don Elser, Nick Lukets, and Frankie Gaul, all in the same program. Nick and I transferred to Newport, R. I. in May, and I spent the next eight months making Navy recruits as uncomfortable as possible with daily calisthenics, etc. While there I also clocked Chuck McNeill, '42, as he took the hurdles in officers' indoctrination school.

"I transferred to gunnery in December, '42, and spent the next seven months in the Aleutians' aboard a destroyer escort, on which Walt O'Brien (around '36) was gunnery officer. Received a commission in September, '43, and was sent to Tucson, Ariz., for officer indoctrination, where I met Jerry Donovan, '40, undergoing the same treatment.

For sinking a Japanese carrier, Lt. H. Charles "Buzz" Thomas, '40, USNR, New Orleans, has been awarded the Navy Cross and for outstanding accomplishment he has been awarded the Air Medal with a cluster. Having already spent 14 months as a torpedo pilot in the Pacific, aboard the Lexington, Buzz has returned to the Pacific, this time as a squadron commander.

Buzz is one of the heroes in the recently-published book, "Mission Beyond Darkness," by Lt. Cmdr. Joseph J. Bryan and Philip Reed. His wife, Rosemary, is residing at 2018 E. 72nd Pl., Chicago 49.

"I was transferred to Ft. Schuyler, N. Y., in November, but took enough time enroute to get married in Kansas City, and catch the N. D.-Iowa Pre-Flight Game in South Bend. I don't think it advisable at this time to delve into either one of these events. At Ft. Schuyler I indoctrinated with Larry Burns, Don Cassidy, George Fazzi, '41, and Tom Reardon, '39. Spent an enjoyable evening in New York with Bill McGrath, '42, Navy flyer home on leave; and ran into Bill Hawes who had been exercising a LCI up and down the east coast.

"My next jump was PT Boat School, Melville, R. I., where I saw Dan Broderick, and Bunny McCormick; thence to Miami, Fla., for shakedown, where I hoisted a few with George Kopp, '41, and Don Hogan, and Johnny Baty, '42, all at SCTC. I left the states in July, 1944 on my Plymouth Nightmare, and arrived at my present position (censored) via Panama, the Solomons, New Guinea, Bisk, and the Palaus. I received word on Christmas eve that I was the father of an eight-pound boy, Patrick Terrence, born December 12.

"This Pacific theatre is crowded with N.D. men. Here are a few that I have seen in the past few months: Lt. (jg) Jim Hannigan, LCI skipper; Lt. (jg) Al Perrine, staff communications, LCI flotilla; Lt. Bob Harrison, PT. squadron skipper; Lt. (jg) Walter (Bob) Cronin, USCG; Lt. (jg) Eddie Riska, executive officer, LCI; all of '41. Saw Eddie a couple of days after his LCI had hit a Jap mine at Pelleu (he said it had been an LCI, but it was hard to believe. Eddie was o.k. Others: Lt. Jim Brutz, executive officer, LSM; Bud Showilla, Lt., supply officer for a destroyer squadron; and Lt. Bernie Crimmins, back again in PT's; all of '42. Ens. Ralph Vinciguerra, is skipper of an LCT operating here—class '43. Lt. Bill McGannon, (Fleet Air Wing No. 1), Lt. Johnny (Pittsburgh) O'Brien, and Lt. Walt O'Neary are all reported in this vicinity, but I haven't seen them as yet.

Cpl. Ed Colbert, who went overseas in August, 1942, with the Army Engineers Corps, participated in the invasion of France on June 12, 1944, and has engaged in three major battles since then. Ed, who holds three Bronze Stars, is now located in Munich, Germany.

Lt. Bob Saggas, who entered naval aviation soon after his graduation, has been assigned to the naval air station at Ottumwa, Ia., as an instructor following 22 months of combat duty in the Pacific. The navy now reveals that Bob spent his first three months in combat as a dive bomber pilot based on Henderson Field, Guadalcanal, and that from there he was transferred as pilot of a Hellcat aboard the Hornet. As a carrier based pilot he has taken part in strikes against Okinawa, Formosa, Leyte, French Indo-China, Hong Kong, Luzon, and in the second battle of the Philippine Sea.

2nd Lt. Tom Carthy, Yonkers, N. Y., who spent two years overseas in the Pacific theater before returning to the U. S. for OCS, received an award for being leader in academic studies in the final graduating class at San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center, Texas.

2nd Lt. Hal Adelberg, Benton Harbor, Mich., is now serving with an Army airways communications system detachment in the Palau Islands, western Pacific. S/Sgt. George Landry, Maplewood, N. J., wears the Good Conduct medal, American Defense ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with two campaign stars and the Philippine liberation ribbon with a campaign star. George has completed two years of overseas service and is the veteran of three major campaigns on New Guinea, Morotai in the Netherlands East Indies, and on Luzon, where he is now stationed.

From S/Sgt. Gene Farrell, Reims, France, to Jack Patterson:

"Well, this has been quite a reunion week for me here. Just about a week ago, I ran into an old classmate of mine from N. D., who is sweating out a return trip to the U. S. since he has 125 points. He has been over here three years and has been in Africa, Sicily, Italy and all over the continent. His name—Norm Briggman, Cleveland.

"Two days later we ran into another '41 boy, Al Fredricks, Columbus. So it was almost like being back at school—and how I wish it. It hardly seems possible that June, '46 will be our first reunion year at N. D., five years after graduation.

"To complete our N. D. aggregation, we missed a ball game in town that we had intended to see but we learned of another '41 man playing on the All-Star team from England and so we ran into Chuck Crimmins of Watertown, N. Y., coming out of the shower. I've seen more N. D. men in a week than I have seen in three years."

Gene had been in London for 16 months and flew to Paris on V-E day and from there to Reims.

Where-they-ares: Capt. Roger Showilla is back at Peterson Field, Colorado, Springs, Colo., after 30 months overseas with the AAF; 1st Lt. John Soong, married a young lady whom he met in Kunming, has been stationed in China for the past two years; Lt. Don Tiedemann, Westfield, N. Y., on the campus June 1-2, reported to Pearl Harbor for reassignment; Rev. Herve A. LeBlanc, C.S.C., Our Lady of Holy Cross Seminary, North Easton, Mass.; Marine 1st Lt. Larry Henke, Urbana, O., is stationed at Cherry Point, N. C.; Maj. Milton Williams, still APO, N. Y. C.; Tom Dixon, now in Milwaukee, as an industrial engineer with the Line Material Co., having moved from Pittsburgh; Marine Capt. Joe Gillespie, Indianapolis, stationed at Cherry Point, N. C.; Lt. Art Madalena, commanding officer of a PCE in the Pacific.

The McLaughlin twins, Harry and Lawrence, Detroit, have been granted discharges from the Army. After service both in the Atlantic and more recently in the Pacific, 1st Lt.

Howard Hilles, Bourbon, Ind., is home on inactive status.

From Ray Kelly, Jr., on May 26:

"Raymond J. III, was born February 1, 1943, at the Portsmouth Naval Hospital. Francis Spencer was born August 16, 1944 at the Norfolk Naval Hospital. I don't believe the latter event was ever mentioned in the 'Alumnus' and the fault is all mine. . . . A medical survey board sent me out to these western reaches and I have settled for the time at the University of New Mexico as a seaman-ship instructor in the NROTC unit with the impressive title of assistant professor of naval science and tactics. It seemed strange to be on the other side of the desk. The work is interesting and I like it a lot.

"Since arriving in Albuquerque, I've run into several N. D. grads. When I first arrived I went to the disbursing office to turn in the necessary copies of my orders to start drawing my pay and found the disbursing officer was Lt. (jg) Hosinski, a WAVE. Her husband was in the office when I got there and, to my amazement, was 1st Lt. Bill Hosinski, '41. Bill was on sick leave at the time and we had a great time talking over 'the good, old days' in South Bend. Shortly afterwards, Bill's leave was up and he returned to San Antonio and Martha was transferred to Newport, R. I. I have heard since that she has been discharged from the WAVES and is with Bill in Texas. It seems that there is to be another 'Big Bill' in the family in a few months.

"Skin Schreiber who is now a Lieutenant, (SG), USNR came in from San Francisco with his wife for a short leave about Christmas time. He is married to a girl from New Jersey whom he met in Italy where she was with a Red Cross unit.

"Another of the class of '41, I've seen since I got here is Bruce Hebenstreit. He is a first Lieutenant in the signal corps at Camp Crowder. Early this year, he and his wife had their second girl. It seems that in spite of the war, or maybe because of it, '41 is a most prolific group.

"Another N. D. graduate I've met since coming to New Mexico is Bill Beckley, '34. Bill represents the Burroughs Adding Machine Company in the state and has his office in Albuquerque.

"A Marine Corps officer stopped at the naval unit to get some of our graduates to accept commissions as 2nd lieutenants. He had served in the Pacific with John Richards, '41. Johnny was executive officer of a Marine tank outfit on Saipan and now is in a training activity at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

"The evening before we left Norfolk to come out here Kay and I went to the Officer's Club at NOB and before the evening was very old we had a fine N. D. reunion under way. First, we met Bill Hawes, '41, who was just back from the Pacific to take an instructor's job at Little Creek, Va. Len Swoyer and his wife, a classmate of Kay's at St. Mary's, joined us. Len is '43, I believe. Walt Fegan, '41, and Marty Regan, '40, also came in. Walt was first lieutenant on an AK and Marty was exec on another AK which happened to be in for a few days."

Two '41 men have been recently liberated from German prison camps: Lt. Bill Hogan, Williamsville, N. Y., who was formerly listed as missing in action, and 2nd Lt. John Taylor of South Bend.

1942 Cpl. William E. Scanlon, Post Gymnasium, Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Lt. John Garvey, USNR, Larchmont, N. Y., who reported to the Atlantic Fleet's Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I., in April for duty aboard a new light cruiser, had seen 21 months overseas duty including 16 months at a Naval air station in Brazil.

Sgt. Dick Lajoie, Kansas City, will soon return or has already returned to the states from the Mediterranean theater of operations. He had a total of 28 months of overseas duty, serving with the 340th B-25 Mitchell Bomb Group which flew in the final Po Valley air assault.

Lt. Andy Chlebeck was recovering at Guam from wounds received while fighting with the Marines on two Jima. Andy is the property of the Chicago White Sox. Marine Lt. Johnny Kovatch, South Bend, was passing through Guam recently on his way to his first combat assignment—presumably on Okinawa—when he ran into a bunch of former N. D. teammates, so they got together and threw a party at him. The party was held at the Marine officers' club at Guam, and among those who arranged the affair were Capt. Mike Hines and Lts. Angelo Bertelli, Tom Brock and Andy Chlebeck.

Ed McLoone received his M.D. degree from the George Washington University, Washington, D. C., on May 30.

From Donal Peterson, June 3:

"At present I'm in the Navy V-12 program as an apprentice seaman. I'm going to graduate from Northwestern University Medical School on the 13th of June. Then I'm going to intern at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Corona, Calif. Upon graduation, I'm to be commissioned a Lieutenant, junior grade, in the Navy."

John Dinges, Chicago, a ground officer with a veteran Mitchell bomber-strafer outfit of the Fifth Air Force, P. I., has been promoted to first lieutenant.

A unique chapel has been constructed by the Marines of the 4th Base Depot on an island somewhere in the Pacific and among those who took part in arranging the altar and sacristy were Lt. Walt Desel, Jamaica, New York.

Lt. Bob Hargrave is/was back in this country for a new ship after having his APD shot out from under him in the Pacific. Lt. Gene Fehlik, is now stationed in Washington, where he reports a fine recovery from all those "nicks" in his back and legs.

"The Founding of Catholic Europe" was the topic of a talk by Tom Degnan, Wilmington, Del., on the Catholic Forum of the Air program. From Italy came the notice that Bill Sturbitts is now a captain in the AAF.

Ed Glaser received his M. D. degree from Loyola University School of Medicine in June.

On the same day he was sworn into the Army as a first lieutenant in the medical corps. For nine months Ed will be an interne in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati. Sgt. Bob Steele, Battle Creek, Mich., finished a course in Athletics and Recreation at Lexington, Va.

Their present locations: T/5 Cliff Brosey, Pacific Area; Lt. (jg) Jim Purcell and Lt. Mike Scully, '37, both stationed at the Naval Ammunition Depot Earle, Red Bank, N. J.; Fred Peterson, transatlantic airline pilot, American Airlines, LaGuardia Field, N. Y.; Lt. (jg) Bob Raaf, signal officer, FPO, San Francisco; Joe Bergan, first lieutenant, Army Reserve, received his M. D. from Loyola, Chicago, in June and is interning at Cook County Hospital, Chicago.

After serving 25 months as disbursing officer at the sonar school at Key West, Fla., Lt. Jim Magarahan, USNR, reported to Pearl Harbor for further assignment. Jim's wife and two children returned to their home in Greenville, S. C. Ed Ostroski, Shamokin, Pa., served in Italy, where he was a corporal with the 15th Air Force service command.

From Scoop Scanlon:

The opening V-Mail comes from Lt. Ed Baenger, somewhere in Germany, dated 8 May 1945:

"In the last month or two, I have seen quite a large share of this country over here and also almost every type of combat from difficult street fighting in towers to ordinary screening operations over a pastoral countryside. Today I listened to Mr. Churchill announce to the world the long-awaited V-E Day. Over here that bit of news did not come as much of a surprise as we were able to observe the conditions that existed and so could see the end approaching. However, despite our lack of celebration, I dare say that we are as grateful as anyone for this complete and final victory and can now only pray that the peace that we will establish will be a lasting and just one.

"In the last few weeks I have seen 6,500 German prisoners assembling at one collecting point at one time, watched starved Russians recently liberated eating food from a gutter, witnessed the uncontrolled joy of Allied PW's when they knew they were again free men, and to top the highlight of events I have even observed German children wave joyfully at passing American troops under the approving eyes of their parents."

From Youngstown, O. A. P. Daniels writes:

In the June issue of the Notre Dame 'Alum-

Father John Cavanaugh, C.S.C., vice-president of the University, visits, in Fitzsimons Hospital, Denver, with Lt. Tom Truman, '41. Tom suffered spinal injuries overseas when his jeep was blown up by an enemy mine.

Traveling to Denver to deliver a commencement address and to show the new Notre Dame moving picture at a meeting of the Notre Dame Club of Denver, Father Cavanaugh spent an extra day in taking the picture to the army hospitals in the area and in talking with some of the hospitals' patients.

FIFTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS—D-Day on Los Negros Island in the Philippines found LT. DONALD GUYETTE, '42, going ashore with invading forces, to collect enemy equipment of value for army intelligence.

As he stepped ashore, a truckload of guerrillas drove onto the beach, cheering lustily and singing the Notre Dame Victory March. He strode over to the truck, singled out a guerilla captain in charge of the men.

"Captain," he asked, "where did your men learn that song?"

"Oh," replied the captain with a deprecatory wave of the hand, "there's a lot of Notre Dame men around here. I'm VINCENTE GURU-CHARRI, class of '40."

nus,' I saw where Alex Cholis wanted the address of some N. D. Men. I am sending Bud Bernard's address: Lt. A. M. Bernard, 148 E. 48th St., Apt. 507, New York, N. Y."

Chief Specialist Steve Jurwik, has been transferred from the V-12, unit at Northwestern University, where he was stationed for a year and a half, to a new assignment at San Francisco.

Just too late for the June issue of the 'Alumnus' was a swell air-mail letter from Pvt. Tom Rourke, dated 12 May and sent from India, with pictures enclosed:

"I've been planning a letter to you for almost three years but it just never seemed to get on paper. After leaving N. D. on May 10, 1942, I went to work for Bell Aircraft in Buffalo, along with Hoelscher, Buko, Morre and Shick, Inc. From there to Chance Vought in Stratford, Conn., where I did in the aerodynamics department. Met Mario (Pete) Potetti of our class and Jim Kelly, '40.

"In one of my jaunts for CVA, I ran into Bob DeMoss at Cedar Point NAS (he was an ensign then), and entered the Army April 10, 1944. The day before, I had been present at Joe Rorick's wedding on L. I. Also present were John Gilbert and Tom Reilly. Haven't heard from any of these lads since except Joe. Got a card from him recently announcing the arrival of Joe, Jr.

"My stay in the States as a soldier was short—five months. On the way over, ran into Bill Spangler of the Law School. Shortly after arriving in India, I had a letter from Bob Finerman who apparently, at the time he wrote, was stationed in India also. He's a flight engineer on a B-29. Haven't been able to contact him for a get together since. [Bob was later killed in the Pacific. See war deaths this issue—Eds.] Please disregard all reports you have previously had about India and its mystic and magic, etc. It isn't what I expected from reading the travel folders."

The picture of Tom, carried this note on the back: "This is me—with a high priest of the Taj Mahal. He consented to pose so long as I left him wear my spectacles. Then I had a heck of a time getting them back. Notice the shoeless feet—"

On July 10, Flight Officer Jim Rice airmailed a note from a San Francisco address, stating: Ruth [that's his recent bride], and I had a very enjoyable train ride back to Riverside, Calif., from Wisconsin. There we spent one very busy month before they decided to send me out to see the world. After leaving March Field, my crew moved fast and before one could take three deep breaths, we were over the Pacific."

In mid-July, I had the pleasant surprise of a visit at Fort Sheridan from Lt. Jack Tallett. Jack rotated home from 15th Air Force duties in Italy—looked mighty fine and none the worse for the hair-raising experiences he had when he parachuted from a plane which was battered up in a bombing mission over Vienna. Luckily, some of Marshal Tito's Yugoslav forces rescued him and eventually got him back to safety. While in Italy, Jack ran into Bill Early for a few moments one day.

On July 10, Mr. "Alumnus" himself, Bill Dooley, came out to learn the lay of the land about Army counseling services from Major Harold Dunn, at the Separation Center. Bill, accompanied by Ed O'Toole, '25, director of the Chicago N. D. club's vocational program for veterans, discussed and examined ways and means of helping returning Notre Dame men regain their place in civilian life. They also had quite a visit with Sgt. George Costello, '40, and just missed seeing Bill Walsh, counseling library expert and editor of a daily news summary of counseling developments. Bill was home in Rockford on a three-day pass.

Walsh sent up a couple notes the other day:

"Bill Cook, a former N. D. track star, is a vocational counselor at Percy Jones Hospital in Battle Creek, Mich., Bill was with us here

Pvt. Tom Rourke, '42, at the Taj Mahal.
(See '42 news, this issue)

at Fort Sheridan for five or six months before his transfer to Michigan.

"Also of interest might be the happenings to Jack Hitchcox, class of '37, a Lieutenant (j.g.) on an LST in the Okinawa area. Jack was awarded the Bronze Star recently for heroism. He is a Rockford boy, a former deputy in the bureau of internal revenue before receiving his commission."

Now it's time to glance into the doings of the lawyers and Mrs. Lora Lashbrook contributes this newsy communique:

First of all, we had an announcement of the birth of a daughter to Capt. and Mrs. John Verdonk on June 25 at their home in South Haven, Mich. This makes two for John, the first-born, a son, having reached his second birthday or nearly so.

Several of the boys home from the European war or enroute from the European theatre to the Pacific area have stopped in for a short visit. Among them were: Lt. (j.g.) James F. McVay, Lt. (j.g.) Joe Miller, Lt. Jerry O'Dowd, and Lt. Jack Tallett. Jack believed he might be kept in the States for a while at least, but the others have gone back to duty with the fleet. Lt. Jack Finnigan, USMC, brought his wife in for a few minutes enroute from their home in Ft. Wayne to California where Jack will go back to the Pacific war and his wife will stay on the coast while he is away.

Letters arrived from Lt. John Baty, a fugitive from our correspondence files for many months. John is out with the fleet now and has been since the first of December last year, having been stationed up to that time at Miami, Florida, where in his own words he did his military duties under the Florida moon on sandy beaches surrounded by beautiful girls. Having become bored with that type of duty he transferred to the Pacific Fleet—

A long and interesting letter arrived from Bill Spangler, still stationed in India. He reported that on June 5 their Notre Dame Club held its first meeting at St. Gregory's School in a village near his station. They enjoyed a delicious dinner consisting of dishes he refuses to try to identify. They had a lengthy discussion centered about activities under the Golden Dome, all the way from Bishop Crowley's class of 1902 to John Nolan's class of 1945. The outstanding feature was a talk by Bishop Crowley and it was enjoyed by: Fathers Christopher Brooks, '12, Paul Shea, '27, James McGarvey, '28, Joseph Voorde, '29, Brother Jude, and Brother Matthew, '33 and '36, respectively, William Burns, '40, Jamen Price, '43, John Nolan, '45, and Bill himself, '43. They had as guests and later made them honorary members: Father Joseph Perrinattam of South India, and Father Joseph Gessai of the province in which the boys are stationed. Other Notre Dame men in the area who were kept away by lack of transportation were Charles Kelly, '39, Joseph McGovern, '35, Leo

Donnelly, '42, Frank Kelly and others whom he did not know. There are about 30 active members in this new Notre Dame Club in India.

Right after V-E day a letter arrived from Lt. Ernie Timpani who was commissioned on the field after receiving an award for keeping his communications lines in operation during one of the last operations in Europe.

On June 19, Jim Diver wrote one of his very rare letters from Europe but said that they were in the midst of preparations for the homeward journey and were then in France, but expected to be home before a letter could be sent back. So far we have looked for him in vain but still hope he will find time to come in for a visit before he is sent to the Pacific. He had heard from John Meyer before he left Germany. He reported that he got the 'Alumnus' through the generosity of Chaplain Murray.

A nice, long letter from Lt. Tim Green stationed in the Philippines reporting that at that time he was stationed in comfortable quarters furnished with electricity, and an ice box large enough to cool a generous supply of beer. His work has to do with Army personnel in that area, principally with awards, promotions, etc. He reports a number of Notre Dame men in that area, including: Phil Faherty, '32, Tom Cannon, '35, Don Comara, '42, Ray Eichler. Faherty and Cannon are in the Judge Advocate General's Department and I had already had some advance news about Tim and the other lawyers from my nephew Lt. D. I. Day, of the J.A.G.D., also in Manila. Lt. Day is not a Notre Dame alumnus but says the Irish were very easily identified as such so he introduced himself to the party and found that Tim had but recently visited me, so from now on they will have at least one who will keep me advised of their behaviour. Tim was married about two weeks before he left this part of the country.

Lt. Jack Lawler, wrote on June 22 from out in the Pacific. He is preparing to take the California bar exams, but failed to give us the real reason for this decision. With our usual thoroughness, we are launching an investigation in that respect.

John Baczkowski sent a V-mail asking for a copy of the "Notre Dame Lawyer" containing Dean Pound's lectures, but giving little information about himself.

Lt. J. J. Barr, USMC, wrote on June 15 from his station in the Marianas to say that there was a possibility that he might have a chance to become a naturalized citizen of the United States again before too long. Joe has been out there two years and has been in most of the invasion, including Tarawa, Saipan, and others, so we hope he gets home.

Some news can be reported from Pete Alonzi, the No. 1 holdout as far as news is concerned. He wired for documentary evidence of his capabilities as an officer in the U. S. Navy, so perhaps soon he may get those stripes.

S/Sgt. J. C. Daner wrote us late in May to say that he was due home about the middle of June and would make Notre Dame his first stop. He is in the A.A.F. and had completed the required number of flying missions. Up to now, July 20, he has not reported, however.

Leo Linck, stationed at Scott Field, reports that he is willing to stay there indefinitely if he is permitted to spend his free time in and about St. Louis. It seems Joe Barr has some interesting relatives there who entertain Leo regularly and frequently.

Harry Murray dropped in for a short visit a week or so ago. He is still with the Chicago Board of Education in the legal department.

Long lost Bill Syring sent a neat little souvenir of V-E Day from Germany with a short note of apology for having been so long absent from this column. He says he has enjoyed the news of the fellows reported herein, but had neglected to contribute anything of his own. We also had a copy of "Mein Kampf" from Berlin sent by Capt. Alexis Chellis.

of the Allied Military Government office. As I recall the agreement, he was to have furnished me with an autographed copy straight from the author, but as he points out, he got there a bit late for the autograph!

Bob Fanning sent a note from the Pacific where he is presiding over a section of an LCI. Francis Brinkman paid us a visit this week, also, on furlough from his base in Texas, and was looking hale and hearty. Two letters sent to Major Bob Sullivan in Europe at the address that has been his for several months, have been returned from APO 133. If the Major is home, we shall expect a visit to introduce his son, who celebrated his first birthday the first week of June.

Barney Graine, on the staff of the Paris edition of "Stars and Stripes" has failed to reply to a letter full of questions sent him some weeks ago. Either his editorial duties are keeping him too busy or he is to come home.

Among the soldiers returned for a thirty-day leave before heading for the Pacific is Nick Villarsa, who got over just in time for the end of the war in Europe.

Norm Thirion, sent a snapshot by request and reports his location as in the fighting area of the Pacific. He thinks he will be back to finish school about the time he is eligible for retirement.

A post-due letter from Lt. Jordan Hamel from the Port of Embarkation, Charleston, S. C., came July 22. Jordan is stationed there and reports having had a visit from Bob Richardson of the F.B.I., and also reports having heard from John Ward recently and he gave us our first news of the Ward son, John Jr.

Since practically all the lawyers are on the move, this is a request that they furnish this "clearing house" any changes of address or other news of general interest.

Lt. Ed Miller, Rochester, N. Y., navigator on a B-24, was liberated from a German prison camp.

That's all for now, in the meantime remember:

IF IT'S NEWS, WRITE SCOOP.

1943 Lt. (jg) Edward C. Roney, 1723 Iroquois Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Knob Hill was in the center of the line attacking Naha on Okinawa. Japs defending it were entrenched in every kind of fortification encountered so far on this island. Twice a company of Marines reached the top of the bitterly contested mound of earth and twice it was hurled back. As it was, it took a different company, one led by Marine Capt. Jim "Shanty" O'Laughlin of Hyattsville, Md., eventually to take the hill. So reported the "Marine Corps Battle News."

Lts. Larry Sullivan, Bob Neff and Ed Hoch, were wounded while fighting with their Marine corps outfits on Okinawa. Larry suffered machine gun leg wounds while Bob was only slightly wounded. Ed suffered sniper wounds.

Lt. Bob Grant, South Bend, was liberated from a German prison camp in Pomerania. Bob served as a bombardier on a Liberator before his capture last July. Sgts. Mike and Jim Godfrey, Litchfield, O., who had participated in the fierce battles in the northern Solomon Islands' jungles with the 25th Infantry Division, were later stationed on Luzon.

Lt. (jg) Chuck Kane, is skipper of a crash boat in the Admiralty Islands. Ens. John Tucker, Elkhart, Ind., has been in the South Pacific area since last October. Sgt. Fred Doulet, Mishawaka, who spent 23 months in England with the 8th AAF, was home in June for 30 days. Fred reported to Sioux Falls, S. D., for reassignment.

Jane Cahill, now secretary in the Notre Dame Club of Chicago office at 10 S. La Salle St., reports that her brother Jim is still where he has been these many long months—with the Army in the Pacific and lately in the Philippines.

Lt. (jg) Bob Browning, Battle Creek, Mich., visited the campus on June 7 with his wife. Bob, who was) a PT skipper in the Pacific, was on his way to a Rhode Island base for reassignment.

After rugged living in German prison camps, 2nd Lt. Johnny Hynes, West Roxbury, Mass., has been liberated.

From Ed Roney:

Ye old reporter is back stateside for awhile after 21 months on and about the South Atlantic. And darn happy to be here too. I hope before next issue to be able to contact more of those 'long-lost' members of the class and obtain their present whereabouts, if nothing else. News from all of you will be handled faster from now on and we welcome letters containing news. We're also glad to act as a clearing house for addresses of fellows you have lost contact with.

I see from the last issue that this column suffered a great blow in the loss of Red Loner. Red had a knack for collecting information and really kept this column going while yours truly was overseas. Thank you a million, Red, and I know I can express the same feelings for the whole class. Please keep letters coming in at least.

While spending a week's leave here at home I've been able to inquire about a few of the fellow's with some results. It seems Lt. Edward C. Ferguson, ex. '43, was in Detroit on June 29 to attend a party announcing his engagement to Miss Sally Hickey, Ed's sister, and then returned to Glenview, Ill. Ed Hickey missed the party but is expected home in a couple of months. Last heard from, he was holding a three-man reunion with N. D. Detroiters Johnny Anhut and J. J. Gorman at Cavite.

Hickey's roommate, Bill Brady, is in a navy radar unit on a ship in the Pacific. Paul Malloy is engaged 'tis said. Matt Sullivan finished Georgetown this June with a medical degree and a navy commission. Charlie McKelvy was a prisoner of war in Germany for 18 months and is now home in Kansas City. And Ted Zitnik, ex. '43, is spending 30 days leave in Chicago after spending 18 months as a prisoner. He traveled around the country visiting the families of the other members of his crew before receiving his leave. Jim Byrne is at present an Asdeviant instructor somewhere in Florida, close to Fort Lauderdale.

Now on to the letters. The first is from a long-lost Marine named Morrill. Bob says, "In a back issue of the 'Alumnus' under class news I noticed that Tom Maloney made mention of our group. He referred to me as 'Tom Morrill,' so I would appreciate your sending me his address in order that I may straighten him out. Then too, I might be able to drag some of his interesting views on the Jersey City political picture out of him.

"At present I am stationed 'somewhere on Guam' and have been for some time. The island of Guam is often referred to as the 'Times Square' of the Pacific, so there should be a good number of our class passing through here from time to time. Up to present, though, I have seen none.

"Ed McKim is buried not far from our camp, so I was able to attend the Memorial Day services. You will recall he gave his life in the recapture of this island. Heard from Ed's wife, Frances, just recently and she says their son looks a good bit like Ed.

"As a source of N. D. and class news, in addition to my copies of the 'Alumnus,' I have received some very nice letters from Ed Smith of the College of Commerce.

"Heard from Blair McGowan prior to the German surrender and it seems as though he was way ahead of everyone else in his thinking. At that early date he was 'sweating out' the possibility of his redeployment out here. Just yesterday Blair mentioned in his letter that he expects to be home from ETO shortly for 30 days before coming out here. He seems to be quite sure that he will rate the trip out here somehow."

Thanks a lot for writing, Bob. Blair has forgotten in three letters to include your address as requested. Now I'll write. Tom was not to blame for misnaming you. It was either my typing or the typesetter. And I hear that Blair's division has been assigned to the occupation forces. I hope you said a prayer on behalf of the class at Ed's grave on Memorial Day.

The next letter comes from Lt. (jg) Fred Gore, now in the States for a spell. Fred says, "Boy, what a pleasure to write that Stateside heading. Joe Callahan and this homesick guy, having spent over 23 months over the horizon, are indeed glad to get back.

"... left England on the 14th of June ... finally arrived in Norfolk. What a reception we got—there wasn't a single soul on the dock to greet us, not even one sailor to handle the lines. ... The Irishman and myself are hoping for some solid shore duty, but things look pretty black at the moment. It seems one just has to have 24 months of continuous sea duty and we have but twenty-three and one-half. ... Gail Fitch, Tom Cooney, McElroy, and the rest returned ahead of us. By the way, where are all the boys who were up at Dartmouth with us? ... Harry McKnight dropped on board today.

"Joe and I are looking forward of course to that long awaited 30-day leave. ... both of us hope to get out to N. D. I'll have to go to Chi, anyway, to see a few of my brothers. Just before we left England my kid brother Ted flew down to Plymouth and was aboard the last two days. Brother George, ex. '45, is still recuperating from wounds received in France. Brother Joe, ex. '42, is managing the hotel in Fort Lauderdale after being discharged. My wife was supposed to leave for the States two days before me, but the Navy cancelled all transportation for dependents, so now it's not known when she will get over. I'm hoping before I shove off for the Pacific, though. At the present time she is home in Scotland with her folks."

I, too, would like to hear from some of the Dartmouth crowd. I heard from Jim Girard a month or so ago and he was just starting home from about ten miles from Tokyo. It seemed. His letter is among the stuff I shipped home but hasn't arrived. Quince Sturm was still in South Pacific about five months ago. And the others I haven't heard from.

The third letter is one of those a guy with the job one dreams about but seldom receives. It's from Gene Fehlig, now a lieutenant (jg).

"At present, I'm here in Washington, D. C., on duty in the Bureau of Ordnance (shipment scheduling section). It's been the first real duty I've had since being discharged from medical treatment. Feels good, too, as six months and a day in the hospital certainly made a loafer out of me—as if that altered the normal course of things. Yeah, I've got a wicked grip on that old pencil and am pushing it to beat all hell.

"Here's what news items I could gather: Received a letter from Jack O'Malley just a week ago. Jack and I had been together from our freshman year up until the days preceding the Normandy invasion and both were engaged in shore fire control work. I was wounded; he, taken prisoner by the Jerries. On May 2, 1945, he was liberated by the British 2nd Army. I sincerely hope that he'll read this and drop you a line concerning his 'stay' with Hitler's buddies. He's got a real story to tell. I was plenty glad to hear that he's back in the States, now living in Cincinnati on a 60-day leave.

"While on my way to 'chow' about three weeks ago I ran into Lt. Joe Petritz. He certainly looks good and, believe it or not, can now cast a show with any of them. The Navy chow must agree with him, as it does with me.

"News about Bill Johnson (Freeport) and his being awarded an MGM contract certainly hit the spot with me. . . . Was in hopes that I would have heard from Lt. (Jg) Ollie Hunter by now. We've corresponded fairly regularly up to the present; but Ollie's now on the . . . FPO, San Francisco. Undoubtedly he's had little opportunity to write to any one.

"Lt. (Jg) Joe Ginnane is stationed here in Washington. He's at the Army-Navy staff college, new War Department Building. Jick (wife) and I try to get him out to our place from time to time.

"A letter from Lt. (Jg) Frank Conforti finds him recently recuperating from a leave in the States after duty aboard the . . . He's 'Exec,' engineering officer, and first lieutenant all rolled into one. "Lt. (Jg) Vince Slatt is an officer in charge of machinery installation at the Charleston Navy Yard, Boston. He's working on the subs. Guess he knows his 'onions' all right from what I could gather from the co-workers when I visited him recently. He's up for congratulations, too. His wife, Peg, recently gave birth to a little one.

"And speaking of N. D.'ers in Boston, I certainly ran into a bunch of them when I was attending the ammo handling school. For one, Jack Andres, SKT 3/c, is on duty there and the proud pappy of a little Andres, Stephen, born March 30. His address when last he wrote. Building 149-8 inventory, Navy Yard, Boston.

"Saw Bill McCaughy, another lieutenant (Jg). Just in for a few days in Boston. Forget now which destroyer he's on. Read in the St. Mary's 'Courier,' (Jick being graduate from same) that Lt. Bill O'Neil marries his date of many a Sunday afternoon—Posie. Bill had been stationed in Helena, Mont., where he visited my in-laws.

"Lt. (Jg) Tom M. Sweeney writes from the . . . FPO, San Francisco, that sometime in March he had seen Ed Hickey, Kevin O'Toole, Jerry O'Dowd, and others in an officers' club somewhere in the Pacific. Also he had seen Mark Fowler, Johnny Boyle, Frank King, Howie Hanks, and others. (Boy, sounds good to hear those names again, doesn't it? Just like being back at N. D. reading off the absentee list after a week-end.) Guess Sweeney, like all of us, looks forward to reading about his personal buddies, and, after having had it tough along the way, takes a great deal of pride in looking up the friends of the enjoyable years under the Golden Dome.

"Jick and I have a little daughter, Kathy, who'll be just one year old come the 30th of this month, June. She's certainly a little red-headed 'devil-eyes' if there ever was one.

"What do you hear from my old roommate, Don Miller? I feel like a heel for not writing him oftener but I do think he owed me a letter at present. At any rate, I haven't his address. I hope he's safe.

"We'd be tickled to death to see any of the fellows who might be in Washington or on their way through. I'd appreciate it if you post this address: Lt. (Jg) E. A. Fehlig, USNR, Room 335, Section A47b, Bureau of Ordnance, Navy department. Just phone Republic 7400, extensions 5061, 4817 or 62072. Our home address is 3310 Valley Drive, ParkFairfax, Alexandria, Va. Telephone Temple 0383. That should be an indication that the 'latch' is out to any of the gang who're looking for a few drinks, a meal, or a good ol' 'bull session.' Combine them all, if he likes."

Well, that's a real letter. I'm sorry that I received it just after I arrived home as I spent three days in Washington early in July. Your letter was on it's way south then. Don Miller resigned his commission for flight training and is nearly completed with that somewhere in the middle west. I can't thank you enough for the letter, Gene. It really saved the column as I haven't been able to gather much and didn't know Red Lonergan was too busy until I arrived home. I'm sure sorry I missed that drink and dinner in Washington too. Maybe later.

That's about all for this issue. How about some more of you following in Gene's footsteps and giving us a line on yourselves and those others you've seen or heard from. News is what keeps this column going.

1944 Pfc. John A. Lynch, USA General Hospital, Ward B-9, Camp Pickett, Va.

From John Lynch:

Two more months have gone by since we last got together, and I have some letters here that I know you'll want to read. But first let me report that my five months in this hospital have finally enabled me to get around and about. Last week I met Bob Gaffney, class of '46 and Syracuse, N. Y., while hobbling up the corridor. Bob was with the 25th Division in the Philippines before he was wounded. Two more N. D. men down here are Dave Dalrymple, '34, and Bill Donnelly, '39. Dave is with the reconditioning cadre and Bill writes for the camp paper, 'The Pickett News.'

Earl Englert wrote just a few days after the last deadline, so we'll give him some space right now.

"After receiving my temporary appointment of second lieutenant last October at the AAF Tech School at Yale I was assigned to the ATC. Friend and classmate Norm Haaser was sent to the Troop Carrier Command, and I haven't heard from him since. At Yale, it was a pleasure to spend Saturday nights and Sundays with such stalwarts as Pat Yoklavitch, Brock Lynch, Jim Cooney, '43, and Owen Doyle, '45. All are in med school there. Pat owes me some mail incidentally. Had a wonderful dinner one Sunday with his family, now living in New Haven.

"Wintering in Long Beach, Calif., provided good opportunity to meet old friends either there or in Los Angeles. Among those I met were Dick Doerner, Frank Vignola, Barney Pyne, Neil McManus, and several not in our class whom I can't remember. I met Dick at a Christmas dance at the Ambassador. The next morning going to Church I met Frank. His ship was at San Pedro for just a few days. Barney Pyne came into my line office New Year's Day asking about the condition of his plane which was undergoing repairs. He is a shavetail in the AAF. Highlight of my stay in California was meeting Neil McManus, a fellow chem engineer at N. D. We had quite a time of it, including dinner aboard his ship in San Pedro harbor. It was the night after that that I was rudely awakened and told to report to the Shipping Office. Next stop, Chanute Field, Ill., for schooling.

"While at Chanute I got over to see the campus. It was one of those typical early spring afternoons. On campus I met the parents, St. Mary's sister, and girl friend of Dom Boetto. They told me that Dom was still on an LST mother ship and had been at Iwo Jima. Brother Meinrad told me that 'Black John' Murphy had been wounded and was in a Richmond, Va., hospital. Have his address?

"Leaving Chanute Field I headed for my new assignment at West Palm Beach, Fl. During my three days there I met Chuck Pichardt. We went swimming together and shot the bull for an afternoon. Then I was ordered to my present assignment here in Miami.

"After ten months of 'eager-beaver' cadet training for maintenance engineering I spent six months working as an assistant engineering officer. Now I am ground safety officer at the Miami Army Air Field. I'd appreciate it if you'd have any of the boys going through Army Redistribution Centers at Miami Beach or the Naval Training Center look me up. I can be contacted at the Ground Safety Office on the Field or by calling information at the Miami telephone exchange.

"From the NTC I have met Ensigns Bill Scheuch and Mike Malloy. Bill is still here but Mike has shipped out. Mike had his very lovely wife here with him. They were married in St. Patrick's Church in Miami.

"My mail bag includes a letter from Lt. Fred Eichorn. He tells me that his Lyons Hall roommate, John 'Starchy' Bishop, Naval Air Corps, was killed off Guadalcanal, but I have seen no mention of it in the 'Alumnus.' Starchy's home was at Staten Island. Could you check on this report? Fred is with the Signal Corps at Ft. Monmouth, N. J. He also writes that Vic Colletti is on a wire-laying team in the ETO; Ed Cyr is also in the ETO; Tom Ferrari is working for my Seagram competition, Schenley's; Bill O'Connell is with duPont's Buffalo plant; and Joe Farrell is still working on a hush-hush project with a company in Tennessee.

"Will you or someone send me Ed Monahan's address. I have lost track of him as well as Mark De Mott and Paul O'Connell. I'd appreciate information on them.

"I called Chuck Urella's family on the phone. Since being wounded on Capt. Burnett's USS California he has been studying Japanese at the University of Colorado. Chuck still carries fragments in his back.

"That about covers my end of the class news. From what my superiors told me when I came here, I'll be at Miami Army Air Field for the duration plus. With the point system as announced I'll have a gray beard by the time I'm released from extended active duty."

If all our readers would follow Earl's example, I think the class of '44 would be well accounted for. I know all of you haven't had his luck in meeting former classmates, but let's hear from you anyway. Any news you may have is more than welcome.

Earl's mention of "Black John" Murphy had me itching to get across the swamp and the prairie to Richmond and McGuire General Hospital. But Murphy was ahead of me on that one and sent a swell letter from Cushing General Hospital in Framingham, Mass., where he had recently been transferred. The date is May 24.

"Brother Meinrad saw to it that I received a couple copies of the 'Alumnus,' as did Paul Byrne, our University librarian. I see you are more or less incapacitated down at Pickett and are also conducting our class column. I have a bit of news from all over, but wish it were up to date. Tom O'Connor, Ernie Sedlmayr, Ray O'Connell, and Max Rogers I hear are up in Austria with the Blue Devils. They sent some rare photos and Tom wrote to you, Jack Woelfle and Dick Milliman, when I was hospitalized in England for four months. I met Elmer Milliman while there. He broke his leg while horsing around before the first Holland glider-ride, and luckily missed out on the disastrous deal.

"I saw Steve O'Rourke when he was a chaplain's assistant at Warminster, England, and later on I heard through his swell sister that he was killed in the Bulge Battle. Also saw Jack Troy and Robert Burns at that same place before the Normandy D-Day.

"Emo, Ed Dowling wrote from the Philippines, and he is seeing plenty of sights. He ran into Bill O'Connor and many others—just as old Joe Gell did. Jim Lloyd, my old roommate, married a Denver girl in January or February. His brother, Tom Lloyd, class of '39, is flying a Navy patrol in the Pacific. 'Red John' Murphy is flying against the Nips, too. May God watch over him. I met Joe Walsh of Arizona in Boston. He's at Harvard's medical school on the Army. He's married, too, and has a baby.

"I've been searching all over for word from 106th vets on Bob McBride and Mike Zorovich. Hope they are okay. Same goes for Jim Langdres, Frank Cusick, Red McKelvy and others. Little Dave Higgins went through basic with me at McClellan while you were going the paces at Croft. The poor kid got it for keeps, as did Don Currie, another N. D. boy in my basic company. Bob McAuliffe, who was with Frank English and Bob Dunne in their battalion, is now with the 310th General Hospital, headed over I hear. He's so stuck on microscopics he plans to throw three years of commerce out for medicine after the war.

"I was visiting my fiance-to-be in Philadelphia, when she was home before going to France as a nurse, when word came of Charley Lewis' death. What a shock! Word on Pat Maschke just about took everything out of me. I'll miss that swell guy, and the same for Dick Grant and Morrell Murphy."

Murphy sent another letter June 21 saying that Mike Zorovich was okay and with the 106th Division in Germany. And we know now that McBride and McKelvy were freed from German camps.

Harry Lavery is another member of our class who is on the hospital circuit. Harry is in Vaughan General Hospital, Hines, Ill. He was with the 90th Division in Normandy and was wounded shortly after D-Day near Utah Beach. He wrote early in June.

"It's good to know that a few of the fellows are getting back; it's a continual surprise to me when I read that more and more won't. The latest was Jack McGinnis. I opened the Chicago "Tribune" the other day and there was his picture, killed on Okinawa. Had a letter from Duke Leary's dad about a month ago. He had seen the latest 'Alumnus,' too. Col. Leary told me that Duke was a pfc in the 106th Division, and you must have heard what happened to them. Duke was in Staling 4-B and, though I haven't heard any more, he must be liberated by now. [He is—Eds.]

"Have you heard where Bill Kenny or Joe Rud are? There are two guys that dropped from sight. Jim Kelley (of the managers) wrote me from the 18th Inf. of the Fighting First Division, and was still intact at the time. I hear from my old roomie, Dan Stevens, frequently. He seems to be in a Pacific taxi service, hauling Marines to Iwo, Guam, Tinian, Saipan, the Canal, etc. Got his tail beat off too when they crossed the equator. Seems that Dan is working as hard as ever since he's one of the engineering officers on said attack transport."

That's all we have from Harry, except that he was getting along pretty well on his once broken leg. I hope Uncle Sam gives him that discharge soon. Harry is undecided about the postwar, but may go back to Notre Dame. Can't think of anything better myself.

Mox Rogers, who was mentioned earlier in the column, comes in with a letter of his own. It holds a special interest for me because Mox, Ray O'Connell and I, sweated out quite a few days together in the 349th regiment of the 88th Division.

"I'm sorry I didn't answer your letter sooner, but we were going like hell as you can well imagine, and I didn't even have time for many letters home. But the big thing is that it's 'finito' now and this occupation is really swell, especially since the odds aren't 6-5 any more. We're in a hotel—I have a private room—get B rations and plenty of free time with a minimum of work. The hours are good and we are in a swell spot; used to be the 'World's Playground.' This is heaven, but it won't last. I imagine you are figuring up your points, too. Well, it looks very bad for most of us, as we all have about $5. It'll be tough to go over to the other war, but it looks inevitable.

"Just saw Ray yesterday and he says to say hello and the best of luck on your leg. As for the rest of the people, they are all fine. Had a letter from Jack Moran recently. He's in Germany with the 9th Army Engineers. I'll keep you posted on what they are doing with us and to us."

One of the boys in my old squad wrote last week, and they were guarding a hospital full of Krauts in Meran, Italy, at the time. Mox and Ray are probably thereabouts, and it doesn't sound like heaven any longer.

"Black John" Murphy, the same who sent that swell letter already quoted, came through a little later with three letters he had received from overseas. The first is from Ed

Dowling, ensign aboard an LCI in the Pacific. A lot of the stuff is personal, so we'll have to pick the news in little bits. This was written May 25.

"Well, I've been moving around quite a bit and we've been on quite a few operations. . . . I see the last time I wrote was sometime in February. Well, we didn't have any mail call for two and one-half months after that. And then I got over 100 letters and I'm still trying to catch up. During the past two weeks we've had the best set-up ever. We get mail almost every day—even if old mail—for just yesterday I got letters and cards of Christmas time. We also get fresh meat and movies now.

"Got an invitation from Jim Lloyd to his wedding. Who's the gal? Must be an Air Force attraction. . . . Joe Summers writes pretty regularly. He's keeping me posted on all the news. You should read his description of a St. Mary's date. It's a riot. Seems that the seniors won't date any more because there's no one old enough for them. His detailed account of a dance over there is really great. . . . How'd you like to be starting all over again at N. D.? I'm afraid it would be an entirely different story—Gus's and Sweeney's would be packed, and McAuliffe would have a tough time. . . . Had a V-mail from Bill McNamara who's still in Hawaii sweating it out. I'm looking for many meetings of the clan in New York. . . . Have you heard from Joe Gall? I wrote him a few months back, but never heard from him. . . . Haven't met any more N. D. boys lately, but they're around some place."

From Czechoslovakia comes the second letter forwarded by Murphy. This is from Jim Kelley, the same mentioned above by Harry Lavery. The date is May 28.

"Well, I managed to get past 'phase line one' okay. Now all I have to contend with is the Pacific. Bearing the stigma of a regular Army outfit, it goes without saying that we will stay in some kind of combat. I am very short of points.

"Right at the end they sent us down here to ferret the Huns out of these mountains, and much to our chagrin we found ourselves still shooting and being shot at while everybody else on the continent had quit. But finally the end came even for us.

"I heard that Bob McBride was found alive in some Jerry Stalag. I sure hope so."

The last letter Murphy sent is from Italy and Tom O'Connor. He is with 88th Division headquarters.

"At present we're in Bolzano, Italy, about 30 miles south of Austria, smack in the mountains again. We're set up in a former Kraut headquarters, really a snappy joint. This place abounds in spirits; also the first place in Italy we can get beer. It's worse than 3,2, but with ice it doesn't taste bad. The Krauts had warehouses full of cognac, vodka, vermouth and what have you. Naturally the officers got the bigger share, and the best, but out of the goodness of their hearts, bless them, they've allowed us to set up a company bar.

"Haven't seen Kelly, O'Connell or Rogers. Their regiment is up in the Brenner Pass. Would like to see the lads."

Now a little news from here, there and everywhere. Jerry Skofronick, was married June 2 in Washington, D. C. Pat Ward of that city is the Mrs. Shortly after, Jerry was transferred to Ft. Monmouth, N. J. Kelly Cook, back from Italy and the 15th AAF, visited the campus June 30—with his bride. Jim Cunningham, back from a shake-down cruise, was also around campus on his leave. And Jerry Coleman is a civilian once again. Credit for the last few bits goes to Marguerite Varga, the secretary's secretary at the Alumni Office on campus.

Once again, we're indebted to the "Holy Cross Courier," alumnae magazine of Saint Mary's. The "Courier" carried a picture of Steve O'Rourke, who was killed in the Bulge Battle, as mentioned above. The picture, of Steve and his chaplain, was taken in Salisbury, England. Mention is also made of Ed Nugent, who was wounded at Corregidor with the paratroops. We'll try to have more on him later. Another part of the magazine mentions Jim Meagher, saying he is in the Pacific directing LST landing boats. Just what these boys are doing in the St. Mary's alumnae magazine I'll leave up to you.

The "Scholastic" presented a special number honoring the spring graduates of '45. There were a few familiar faces. Arthur 'Bud' Anderson, who started with us in Brownson Hall way back in '40, then left in '41, has been back to get his Bach, of Science. Bud also got his ensign's stripe. Tom Kane made the grade also, after 16 months in the Army Air Corps. Mark McGrath, who left for the Rolling Prairie Novitiate in his junior year, got his A.B. at the graduation. He looks very good in the cloth. After a term in the Army Air Corps, Tony Renze was another of the boys to make good. And after eight months in khaki Dick Sadowski returned to gain his degree.

That's all for a while. But we're waiting to hear from more of you. If you have word on any of the boys about whom inquiries were made, drop a line and the word will be passed along. Addresses furnished on request also. And if you're not getting the 'Alumnus' regularly, and are still in the service, drop a line to the Alumni Office at Notre Dame. They'll try to fix you up, for free. If you're out of the service, just a decent contribution should swing the deal.

If you're '44, let's write a letter.

For his ability and tireless efforts in his command of an LCT in the assault of southern France, Frank Garibaldi, Hoboken, N. Y., has been promoted to lieutenant, (jg). He has since been assigned as public relations officer on the flagship of LCT Flotilla 20, a unit of the 8th amphibious force. T/Sgt. John Ahern, Foxboro, Mass., the holder of the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf clusters, was a radio operator and gunner with the 355th Bombardment Group, stationed with the 8th AAF in England.

Eddie Manyzewski received X-ray treatment in St. Louis to dissolve a growth on his elbow which has prevented him from pitching for the Cubs since a year ago last May. Two former All-American football rivals, Marine Lts. Paul White, of the University of Michigan, and Angelo Bertelli are now teammates on the third Marine division football team in the Pacific.

T/4 John Baum, Forest Hills, N. Y., won the Silver Star while on a volunteer mission. He was temporarily assigned to another company of the regiment and was returning to his unit when he learned that the outfit had no radio communications. He stayed with the company and maintained radio contact for them until nightfall. Then when the company was ordered forward, he and a small patrol crawled up under machine gun fire and heaved hand grenades at the Nazi emplacement until enemy fire was stilled. When the patrol returned it had eight German prisoners.

Bits about 'em: Sgt. Dick Reedy, Aurora, Ill., was in an Army hospital at Camp Carson, Colo.; Pfc. Ed Nugent, Loveland, Colo., who won the Purple Heart on Corregidor, is still APO, San Francisco; Lt. Fred Funk, brother of Al, '40, was liberated from a German prison camp in Austria (Fred was earlier listed as missing over Austria); Jim Thomas, on the campus June 5, received his discharge from the infantry; Lt. Dick May, visiting here June 7, is a test pilot at the Naval Air Facility, Trenton, N. J.; Sgt. Dick Vander Wegen, Eau Claire, Wis., is stationed at Herington Army Air Field in Kansas; E 1/c Johnny Wilke is training at the Naval air station in Lakehurst, N. J.; George Brydges, Big Island, Va., has been commissioned second lieutenant of field artillery at Fort Sill, Okla.

Impressions of Pfc. Jim Keefer, Fort Wayne, Ind.:

"I had a really fine time in Tel-Aviv. First day back there I went to a dance at the Allied Service Club. Incidentally, that's quite an amazing place and a likeable one. It was the first time I had had a glass of milk since I left America. There's most everything there: a beach club, snack bar, and a place called 'The Ark.' While there we saw 'Wilson.' The biggest coincidence in my life happened. In the movie, Wilson was just signing the Versailles Treaty of 1918 and on the screen came a slide saying that the war was over. Naturally everyone thought it was part of the show, but it wasn't. It was this war. And so I spent VE-day in Tel-Aviv."

Ens. Chuck Patterson, Gretna, Nebr., was presented with the Silver Star medal for bravery while serving as pilot of a carrier based torpedo aircraft in the inner harbor of Manila, Luzon, P. I., in November, 1944. Alone, he dove through an overcast and, in spite of intense anti-aircraft fire, pressed home his attack on Jap merchant shipping and man-of-war escort—retiring only when a 5,000-ton freighter was seriously damaged. Chuck also wears the Asiatic-Pacific campaign medal and the Philippine Liberation medal.

Capt. Bill Kiernan was awarded the DFC for completing a bombing run when his aircraft was severely damaged. Bill, whose home is in Bay Shore, L. I., N. Y., has flown more than 125 dive-bombing and strafing missions attacking bridges, rail targets, German tanks, trucks, gun positions and fortified points directly in front of American ground forces. Bill also wears the Air Medal with 19 Bronze Oak Leaf clusters, the Blue Ribbon signifying that his group has been awarded a unit presidential citation, and the ETO ribbon with three bronze battle stars. He also destroyed one ME-109.

The citations of Floyd Henderson, Chicago, are also many: the Air Medal and three Bronze Oak Leaf clusters, the ETO ribbons with three major bronze battle stars and a presidential citation. Floyd is home after completing 50 missions over Europe.

The existence of a volunteer ambulance driver is plenty rugged, but the letter from Ed LeCourneur makes it sound like a pleasure tour through Europe. From Austria, he writes, "... I have had a lucky and happy stay over here in Italy and Austria and I will be a little sorry to leave for the Far East, which I must do now. I arrived here in time to take part in the last push in Italy, which finally ended the German forces here. I was plenty scared while the shooting was on but I wouldn't have missed it for worlds."

"I have traveled a good deal over here seeing Naples, Rome, Florence, Venice, Trieste and Vienna. The trip to Vienna was official and so we saw something of the Russian Army. ... Rome is beautiful and St. Peter's is the most delightful place I have ever seen. The Pope receives the troops in an audience each day. He remembered his visit to Notre Dame and he seems like a nice fellow. Italy is in very bad shape partly her own fault and partly our fault but I think she is on the way to recovery. We saw Hitler's old hideout in Berchtesgaden and is it 'kaput.'"

Cpl. Jim O'Dea, Lowell, Mass., dropped in at N. D. on July 16. Jim was with the fifth Marine division when he was wounded on Iwo Jima; he subsequently received the Purple Heart. His new status is officer's candidate at Quantico, Va.

1945 and Later

David R. Condon, The Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Ill.

At a ceremony in Gelsingen, Germany, T/Sgt. John Nolan, Newton, Mass., received a battlefield commission as second lieutenant. Sgt. John Denniston is in Germany attached to the 63rd Division stationed at Bad Mergentheim. He says that his unit had driven to within 50 miles of the Swiss border when hostilities ended. John holds the Bronze Star—we have no details from modest Mr. Denniston as to the background of the citation. S 2/c Joe LaFortune, Tulsa, Okla., completed his training in weather observation at the Navy Aerographer's Schools at the Naval Air Station in Lakehurst, N. J.

Prayers are needed for Bob O'Callaghan, Ironwood, Mich., who is a patient at Hines Hospital, Chicago, and has been since February 1. Bob was wounded in Germany September 21, 1944, receiving a lung and spinal injury. Why not write?

Pat Filley, South Bend, captain of the 1943 and 1944 football teams, was the first college player named to the 1945 All-Star football team. The All-Stars will meet the Green Bay Packers at Soldier Field, Chicago, on August 30. Pfc. Ed Lumber, Canandaigua, N. Y., holder of the Purple Heart and the Combat Infantryman Medal, is fighting in the Pacific. He took part in the initial landing on Leyte on October 20, 1944, and was wounded November 11. Hospitalized in New Guinea, he later rejoined his old outfit. Sgt. John Moorhead, Atlantic City, is a member of an Air Disarmament unit in Germany.

Marine Cpl. John Reilly, Washington, D. C., was in the battles of the Marshalls, Saipan, Tinian and Iwo Jima, where he was wounded. But after three months hospitalization, he has returned to his outfit. Cpl. Bob Pates, St. Paul, Minn., was wounded on Okinawa, where he was fighting with the Sixth Marines. Pvt. Joe Judge (LoGuidice), Brooklyn, N. Y., is stationed at Sheppard Field, Texas. Pfc. John Phalen, Peoria, was recently liberated from Bad Orb, and sent home for a 60-day furlough. Ens. John Kearney, Woodhaven, N. Y., was based at Norfolk, Va. Sgt. Louis Lederie, Wilmette, Ill., a turret gunner, completed 26 combat missions and holds the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf clusters.

Ens. Cy Kelly, Crystal, N. D., was at Okinawa. Ens. Russ Jones, Palmyra, Wis., was stationed at Providence, R. I., awaiting his ship. Russ was married in July, last year. Pfc. Jim Horgan, Worcester, Mass., is Chinese interpreter, with an APO from N. Y. C. Bill Marley and Martin Murphy are seminar-lans at Maryknoll in N. Y.

Sgt. Bob McDonnell, Chicago, wounded in Italy in July, 1944, is now at Schick General Hospital, Clinton, Ia. Bill Weiler, Eau Claire, Wis., reported to Cornell University's midshipmen school. Pfc. Frank Staffer, Medford, Mass., was attending a journalism course in Heidelberg, Germany, conducted by Army newspaper men.

Ziggy Czarobski, stationed at Camp Bainbridge, Md., was in South Bend en route to the west coast and reassignment. Lt. Bernie Meter writes from the west coast that he is now stationed at a Marine camp there with three football teammates. Lts. Julie Rykovich, Joe Signaigo and Gaspar Urban.

Pfc. John Fenton, Canton, O., has returned to the states after being held as a German prisoner. He went to Miami Beach for reassignment. John Gera, Highland, Park, Mich., in an employee of Vickers, Inc. Jim Warren is an officer candidate at Fort Belvoir, Va. T/Sgt. Jim Monaghan has an APO out of N. Y. C., his brother, Dan, '38, wrote from Denver. Sgt. Jim Hirsch was wounded on April 1, while he was with the 12th Armored Division of the 7th Army.

A veteran of 35 missions over Germany as a bomber pilot, including 19 over Berlin, Capt. Dick Whiting has been granted a medical discharge following wounds received in his last raid. Dick left N. D. as a freshman to join the AAF three years ago and now has returned to continue his studies. He participated with the golf team at the national collegiate tournament in Columbus, O.

S 1/c Carroll O'Connor, serving in the Pacific, was in both Iwo Jima and Okinawa—he wears three combat stars. When the B-17 on which he served as navigator was shot down by the enemy, Lt. Ora Spaid, South Bend, became a prisoner of the German government, but the lieutenant, wearing the Air Medal, is now safely at home with his wife and parents.

Vince Beryla, who broke all individual scoring records as center on the Irish basketball team last winter, was appointed to the Naval academy at Annapolis. One of his middle classmates is Bob Kelly of N. D. football fame.

This information is sketchy, we know, but word has come in that Al Cree, Rutland, Vt., is recovering from wounds received in action—where, how?

A veteran infantryman of 17 months overseas duty in New Zealand and New Caledonia, Pfc. Bob Gaffney, Syracuse, N. Y., was wounded on Balet Pass, Luzon, and is undergoing treatment in the U. S. Army General Hospital at Camp Pickett, Va. Andy Swoyer, Dunkirk, N. Y., is training at Little Creek, Va., for duty aboard an LSM. His brother, Leonard, '44, is on Navy overseas duty. Frank Santachi, Chicago, was in boot at the U. S. Coast Guard Training Station in Brooklyn, N. Y.

A Notre Dame meeting was conducted in the Aleutian Islands, according to word received by Joe Fahey stationed there with the Navy. The first meeting was held Saturday, June 2, and 11 attended. There are several more men in the vicinity, unable to attend because of duty. Most of the men are air corps. The identity of the others is unknown.

CHICAGO CLUB OFFICE

From a Veteran in Italy: "Am enclosing $10 money order as my contribution to support the placement work program of the club. Glad to see a venture of this sort going into effect and hope, if all goes well, to make some practical use of it."

A Veteran in the Pacific Writes:

"The idea is a swell step forward. Many of us in the service may be released at a time when things are a bit tough and we'd appreciate a lift from some of our own boys. I, for one, was not particularly satisfied with my civilian occupation prior to entering the Navy so you can see I'm darned interested in your plans."

From Another Member in the Navy:

"I'm sorry that I haven't taken an active interest in the Notre Dame Chicago Club, but have been in the Navy since graduation. Naturally, I'm interested in your postwar plans—having no job to go back to. My hope, upon my return, is to be able to make contacts through such an organization as you are planning for a postwar career."

In the very near future the Vocational Committee is planning to send an announcement to employers in the Chicago metropolitan area advising them of the opening of the office. Also, a letter will soon be sent to the alumni in service telling them what is being set up for their use.

Enrollment---

November marks the end of the Midshipmen's school.

Lyons, Morrissey, Howard and Badin Halls will be returned to civilian use.

November marks the end of the Navy's V-12 Program as such, according to present announcement, with an additional reduction in enrollment.

Therefore, one of the primary programs for alumni during this Summer and Fall should be the interesting of civilian students, and returning veterans under the G. I. or rehabilitation acts.
