Alumni Religious Bulletin

BY REV. JOHN P. LYNCH, C.S.C., '25

WELCOME YALE (With Reservations)

Father Lynch

About five years ago, we made a prediction in the Notre Dame Religious Bulletin. Within ten years, we said, any student would feel cheated if he had not religious training and instruction in college.

Today, only five years later, Yale, through its special Committee on Religion, confirms that statement.

The Yale committee's report, front-paged in the New York Times, Sunday, August 5, admits that religion is so important an aspect of human life that no university is doing its duty toward young men which does not offer them the best obtainable instruction in the field.

The committee, appointed by Yale's president, insists on a special department of, and emphasis on, religion saying, "If Yale is looking for a venture which will be acclaimed for its leadership and vision in the country and in the world, we believe this is the venture. . . . (Yale) must, therefore, believe that such a study of prayer, faith and deeds will be no less profitable than the same sort of study in economics and agriculture."

The report asks alumni to raise money for this worthy and necessary venture of leadership!—and Yale's endowment is already $113,933,353.

(We say welcome with reservations because the religion the committee advocates is an eclectic system of Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism, Moslemism and Confucianism. Confusion, yes, but it is at least a recognition of religion's importance and an attempt to teach it.)

WELCOME HARVARD, TOO

About a year ago, John Dewey and Alexander Meiklejohn engaged in a discussion on education in Fortune magazine. In it, Mr. Dewey states, "We are uncertain as to where we are going, or where we want to go and why we are doing what we do." (sic)

How would you like to be in a Flying Fortress with a pilot who was uncertain where he was going, where he wanted to go or why he was flying?

Yet Mr. Dewey has been the pilot of American education for almost half a century through Columbia University Teachers College.

As pilot, he threw not only God and the soul completely out of his calculations and principles, but also the classical tradition.

Both Harvard and Yale as part of the revolt have publicly announced the rejection of the elective system and a return to the more classical and traditional program of prescribed courses with a minimum of electives.

Catholic education long ago opposed the elective system and was accused, therefore, of being unscientific and outmoded.

Notre Dame and all Catholic schools have had Christ and the classical tradition for their guide. They haven't had to spend thousands to find out where to go and how.

ATOMIC BOMB

Yale is now going to bring God and the soul back into education.

That declaration and admission of Yale is more important for civilization than the atomic bomb—because without religion and moral control of the atomic bomb, the end of civilization is in sight.

Life's editorial of August 20 stresses this: "Our sole safeguard against the very real danger of a reversion to barbarism is the kind of morality which compels the individual conscience, be the group right or wrong. The individual conscience against the atomic bomb? Yes, there is no other way."

WHERE'S "THE BRAVE NEW WORLD"?

They've made a mess of things so far since they broke away from and denied God, Christ and His teachings and the soul—and started out in their arrogant agnosticism and self-sufficiency to construct "a brave new world" in H. G. Wells's phraseology.

It isn't brave any more, it's scared, very scared: It isn't new, either. It's old and very weary!

It's going back to the old world, the old pagan Rome of power, cruelty, slavery, licentiousness, immorality, women as chattels, easy divorce.

Life's editorial calls a spade a spade and admits that man has reason to be afraid. It also asserts that when this bomb was introduced, human slavery was just being reintroduced into Europe, with specific American consent, "in approving forced German labor for Russians without pay."

Life isn't the only one scared. Witness the declaration of the Sixth Annual Conference of scholars on Science, Philosophy and Religion. It was before this group that Einstein presented a paper a few years ago denying the existence of God and asserting belief in Him hampered science and progress "of a brave new world"; typical of the attitude of too many philosophers, scientists and educators.

THEY ASKED FOR IT!

Agnostic and atheistic educators, philosophers and scientists wandered away in the past from God, Christ and religion and nullified religious effect. Now they bemoan religion's little influence and they're scared, and complain; in their declaration:

"There is no culture in the present world which is adequately adapted toward the establishment of world peace. The effort of Jewish and Christian religious teachers to transform culture into such a force has been only partially successful. From the point of view of these faiths, much of western life remains 'pagan' [sic!—Ed] to this day: in the sense that it is still directed toward power over other men and places its trust in power, rather than in justice, faith and charity."

Where will they get guidance (for their conscience) in "justice, faith and charity" except from Christ?

They won't look to Christ though. They will keep stumbling along into worse messes, looking for guidance to John Dewey, Bertrand Russell, H. G. Wells, Yale, Harvard, Columbia, agnostic professors, Uncle Joe Stalin, Walter Winchell, Hollywood, Broadway, Mickey Mouse, Orphan Annie. . . .

They are grasping for the truth and fact Christ gave them by His love and death for man—The Mystical Body of Christ.

JOBS FOR NOTRE DAME SERVICE MEN

Last month's ALUMNUS announced plans by several clubs to assist returning veterans. Heart-warming, it was, yet this is not only charity; it is not only the famous Notre Dame spirit: it is simple justice that we should aid these men who have suffered and fought for us.

Science and the Public Welfare*

REV. J. HUGH O'DONNELL, C.S.C., '16
President of the University

World War II has had the effect of intensifying and accelerating research to an unprecedented degree as thousands of scientists in the universities and in private industry combined their talents and turned them to a wide variety of projects that would hasten the day of victory. It was apparent from the very beginning, however, that much of the work they were doing in their laboratories in order to give the United States the best equipped and best cared-for fighting men the world has ever known should have much more than a wartime utility. For example, nutritional studies, discoveries in medicine, disease control, and new surgical techniques, as well as a large number of amazing mechanical developments, from radar to the splitting of the atom, could be turned to excellent account in a peacetime economy.

Anticipating Postwar Problems

Realizing this possibility, and anticipating the vast problems that the post-war would bring, the late President Roosevelt wrote to Dr. Vannevar Bush, director of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, last November 17, six months before V-E Day and nine months before the final victory over Japan, suggesting that "The information, the techniques, and the research experience developed by the Office of Scientific Research and Development . . . should be used in the days of peace ahead for the improvement of the national health, the creation of new enterprises bringing new jobs, and the betterment of the national standard of living." Specifically, the President asked Dr. Bush for his recommendations on four major points:

Four Major Points

"First: What can be done, consistent with military security, and with the prior approval of the military authorities, to make known to the world as soon as possible the contributions which have been made during our war effort to scientific knowledge?

"The diffusion of such knowledge should help us stimulate new enterprises, provide jobs for our returning servicemen and other workers, and make possible great strides for the improvement of the national well-being.

"Second: With particular reference to the war of science against disease, what can be done now to organize a program for continuing in the future the work which has been done in medicine and related sciences?

"The fact that the annual deaths in this country from one or two diseases alone are far in excess of the total number of lives lost by us in battle during this war should make us conscious of the duty we owe future generations.

"Third: What can the government do now and in the future to aid research activities by public and private organizations? The proper roles of public and private research, and their interrelation, should be carefully considered.

"Fourth: Can an effective program be proposed for discovering and developing scientific talent in American youth so that the continuing future of scientific research in this country may be assured on a level comparable to what has been done during the war?"

President Roosevelt's letter was provocative. Dr. Bush turned to his associates and others for advice on the preparation of a reply. After some discussion, it was decided to create four special committees, properly equipped to bring in a variety of opinion, to devote their attention to the questions raised.

Dr. Bowman Is Chairman

Dr. Isaiah Bowman, president of John Hopkins University, was asked to be chairman of a Committee on Science and the Public Welfare to consider President Roosevelt's third question.

The sixteen members of the Bowman Committee** included representatives of ** Members of the Committee: Isaiah Bowman, Chairman, Johns Hopkins University.

John T. Tate, Vice Chairman, Research Professor of physics, University of Minnesota.

W. Rupert Maclaurin, Secretary, Professor of Economics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Oliver E. Buckley, President, Bell Telephone Laboratories.

Walter C. Coffey, President, University of Minnesota.

Oscar S. Cox, Deputy Administrator, Foreign Economic Administration.

Bradley Dewey, President, Dewey & Almy Chemical Company.

Clarence A. Dykstra, Provost, University of California at Los Angeles.

Caryl P. Haskins, Director, Haskins Laboratories.

Edwin H. Land, President and Director of Research, Polaroid Corporation.

Charles E. MacQuigg, Dean of Engineering, Ohio State University.

Harold G. Moulton, President, Brookings Institution.

J. Hugh O'Donnell, President, Notre Dame University. ***

I. I. Rabi, Professor of Physics, Columbia University (recipient of Nobel Award).

Warren Weaver, Director for Natural Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation.

Robert E. Wilson, Chairman of the Board, Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

William E. Wrather, Director, U. S. Geological Survey, Department of Interior.

*** The President of the University is deeply grateful to Fr. Philip Moore, dean of the Graduate School, for his gracious helpfulness during the course of the committee's deliberations.

(*Because of the current stress on science and the future of the nation as it affects and is affected by the laboratories of the universities, the "Alumnus" asked the President of Notre Dame to outline the significant work in this field of which he has been an active and integral part as a member of the Committee on Science and the Public Welfare.—Ed.)

government, industry, and higher education. After analysis of the task at hand, they determined upon an agenda that included such topics as what the government can do to assist research in universities and non-profit research organizations; how the government can assist scientific research conducted by the government itself, and how the government can assist research in industry. The Committee also gave thought to possible changes in the tax structure that would stimulate industrial research, and also to the determination of a policy that would encourage greater international interchange of scientific knowledge and engineering art after the war. Smaller groups within the Committee considered each of these subjects, and the analysis they undertook were combined into the final report.

Federal Government-Private Research

One of the three full meetings held by the Committee was devoted to the concept of the Federal Government in relation to private research. In this subject the university presidents and other representatives of educational institutions had a vital interest, in view of their natural—and, historically, by no means groundless—apprehension that federal subsidy can be a serious threat to the academic independence which higher education has always guarded so jealously.

Some recent experiences were fresh in their minds. About three years ago, for example, the Federal Government, faced with grave problems of war finance, and in need of additional revenue and sources of revenue, seemed willing to entertain a proposal to set limits on those deductions on estate taxes that now permit gifts for educational purposes. Had the suggestion been adopted, investment portfolios of every privately-owned college and university in the country would have suffered so severely as to make it necessary to seek other means of financing their operations. What those methods would have been, university presidents—the writer among them—were unable to say, but the threat of federal subsidy and all that it implies loomed large upon the horizon.

That measure came to naught, but not too long afterward a federal-aid bill appeared in both houses of Congress. If enacted, it would have provided $300,000,000 to be distributed among the states as additional support for public primary and secondary schools, to help "keep competent teachers in the schools" at a time when the average annual salary of teachers in the United States was $600 below the average annual wage of factory workers. Although that state of affairs was deplorable and demanded a remedy, many educators felt that the suggested cure was at least as bad as the disease, since it could hardly escape bringing with it a federal bureaucracy of a nature and scope that should alarm the public, including the very teachers who would presumably be the beneficiaries of federal aid.

I mention these instances and the reaction to them because they indicate a traditional wary attitude toward the encroachment of any agency, governmental or otherwise, upon the autonomy and integrity of institutions of learning. At the same time, however, it must be said that within the past five years or so—that is, during the period of national emergency and throughout the war itself—many colleges and universities found themselves working in complete harmony with a number of governmental departments and bureaus, to their common advantage, and with never a hint of dictation. To illustrate, I need go no further than the University of Notre Dame. Our Naval R.O.T.C. unit was established before the war, and will continue after it. We also have had on the campus a Naval Reserve Midshipmen School and a complement of V-12 students. In addition, we have had in our laboratories a number of research projects especially assigned to us by the government. Our experience has been uniformly satisfactory and pleasant. At no time has there been any tendency to interfere with the character and primary purposes of the University. On the contrary, we have always found in our governmental associates an intelligent and sympathetic approach to any university problem that touched upon their specialized activities.

Realized Value of Research

The Bowman Committee realized the value of research in university and non-profit organization laboratories, much of which is known as "pure" research. It knew, in other words, that it is not always possible to visit a laboratory and say that one man will discover this, and that another will develop that. But it is possible to say that scientists in such laboratories have in them the power and the promise to justify being allowed to work in freedom so that the nation will not be deprived of the certain benefits which result from their work, whatever it may be.

But freedom here means more than the absence of academic or other interference. It is positive rather than negative in that it implies active encouragement, and not a mere laissez-faire policy.

And it certainly includes having at one's disposal enough financial backing to pursue promising lines of inquiry. I am reminded that Father Julius A. Nieuwland, C.S.C., discovered the components of synthetic rubber as early as 1906. Not until fourteen years later did he successfully form an oil with these components from which rubber itself could be synthesized. Meanwhile, he was sometimes obliged to finance his own experimentation by making and selling botanical slides. Dr. Albert A. Zahm was similarly handicapped. His advanced work in aeronautics during the 1880's—cut short because insufficient funds did not permit the purchase of the equipment needed—remained theoretical for years and then was developed by the experiments of others.

Nieuwland and Zahm

How much less than fourteen years would it have taken Father Nieuwland to bridge the gap between his original formulae and his workable components had he been supplied with adequate materials? What other discoveries might he have made in the time saved? Had Zahm's experimentation been unrestricted so that he could have demonstrated his theories immediately, how far might aviation have advanced unretarded because of the experiments of this imaginative scientist? Eventually, of course, Nieuwland and Zahm succeeded despite handicaps. But the nation lost those incalculable benefits which might have come from the time, energy, courage, and genius that they were obliged to expend in surmounting difficulties they found before them.

These are two instances—two of many that might be cited—of benefits deferred. No one will ever know how many there may have been of benefits perhaps lost forever because of lack of support to the right person at the right time. It was to help prevent such losses in the future that the Committee on Science and Public Welfare gave serious consideration to the role that the Federal Government can play in private research.

And it is none too soon for such stock-taking. We have been an ingenious and inventive people, it is true; but, in the words of the Committee report: "Our national pre-eminence in the fields of applied research and technology should not blind us to the truth that, with respect to pure research—the discovery of fundamental new knowledge and basic scientific principles—America has occupied a secondary place. Our spectacular development of the automobile, the air-

23 Vocational Chairmen Named

Veterans and Others Invited to Communicate With Chairmen

Twenty-three local Notre Dame clubs had, up to Oct. 1, appointed vocational chairmen to assist returning Notre Dame war veterans, and other Notre Dame men, in their employment problems. All such men are invited to communicate with one of the following:

NEW YORK CITY: John T. Balfe, '20, 60 E. 42nd St.

CHICAGO: Edward F. O'Toole, '25, 10 S. LaSalle St., Room 807, (Miss Jane Cahill in charge of club's permanent office at this address.)

CLEVELAND: Clayton G. Leroux, '27, Assistant Personnel Director, Monarch Aluminum Manufacturing Co., 9301 Detroit Ave.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA: John F. McMahon, '28, Managing Director, Industrial Hygiene Foundation, Inc., Mellon Institute, 4400 Fifth Ave., Pittsburgh.

BUFFALO: Joseph F. Ryan, '39, 50 Frontenac Ave.

DETROIT: Henry F. Clark, '30, 324 Washington Square Bldg., Royal Oak, Mich.

MILWAUKEE: Edward J. Rogers, '17, President, Layne-Northwest Co., 709 N. 11th Street.

PHILADELPHIA: Harold E. Duke, '30, Manager, Wayne Pump Co., 4030 N. Broad Street

PORTLAND, ORE.: William C. Schmitt, '10, President, Schmitt Steel Co., 2407 N.W. 28th Ave.

RHODE ISLAND & SOUTHEASTERN MASSACHUSETTS: J. Clement Grimes, 384 River Ave., Providence, R. I.

ST. JOSEPH VALLEY, IND.: Judge J. Elmer Peak, '12, Court House, South Bend.

ST. LOUIS: Robert T. Hellrung, '30, Manager, St. Louis Medical Credit Bureau, Humboldt Medical Bldg., 306 N. Grand Blvd.

TWIN CITIES, MINNESOTA: Louis J. Regan, '29, Personnel Director, Sears Roebuck & Co., Minneapolis.

WASHINGTON, D. C.: Bernard E. Leshbough, '29, National Public Housing Conference, Inc., 1015 15th St., N. W.

OKLAHOMA: Robert M. Siegfried, '37, 305 National Bank of Tulsa Bldg., Tulsa.

BERRIEN COUNTY, MICHIGAN: Maurice A. Weber, '25, Peoples State Bank Bldg., St. Joseph.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA: Keene Fitzpatrick, '13, 155 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

DELAWARE: J. Fendall Froning, '37, 416 Geddes St., Wilmington.

CINCINNATI: Richard W. Scallan, 3612 Victory Lane.

LOS ANGELES: Paul F. Glass, '40, 8418 Loyola Blvd.

INDIANAPOLIS: Fred L. Mahaffey, '17, President, Consolidated Finance Co., 850 Consolidated Bldg.

KENTUCKY: Joseph F. Donaldson, '23, Director of Safety, City Hall, Louisville.

FORT WAYNE: Harry G. Hogan, '04, 131 E. Wayne St.

The Alumni Office at Notre Dame, through William R. Dooley, assistant alumni secretary, is coordinating the efforts of all these chairmen by supplying identical application forms to each chairman and by an exchange of information, job openings and job applications. Bill Dooley will also attempt to assist vocationally those alumni who do not reside within one of the club areas above.

BURNS SCHOLARSHIPS ESTABLISHED

Rev. James A. Burns, C.S.C., '88, president of the University from 1919 to 1922, former provincial of the Congregation of Holy Cross, and one of America's greatest Catholic educators, will be commemorated by scholarships established under his name by Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., '16, president of the University.

The new scholarships, effective in the November semester, were approved by the Alumni Board, and the funds will be allocated from the Second Annual Alumni Fund. Alumni, many educators, and other friends of Notre Dame, who remember Father Burns and his great interest in providing Catholic education for deserving boys of limited means, readily recognize the significance of the new scholarships. And necessary increases in the cost of education at Notre Dame have, of course, increased the need for such aid.

Five residential-tuitional scholarships and 10 tuitional scholarships will be awarded for the semester which starts Nov. 5. They are exclusively for entering freshman students, high-school graduates of superior scholastic ability who have a real need of financial assistance.

The five residential scholarships bring $500 per term; the tuitional scholarships are in the amount of $200. The tenure is for two terms, the full freshman year.

The University committee on scholarships will make its selections of candidates on the basis of validated records of scholastic achievement in high school and the candidate's evident financial need. Applications have been solicited throughout the country, and were to have been filed before Sept. 24.

These annual memorial awards to deserving students are not made from endowment, it will be noted, but from the current annual support of alumni, who should feel a particular satisfaction in the dual merits of the Father Burns scholarships—meeting a present critical need for student aid, and commemorating one of Notre Dame's great alumni and administrators.

Washington, 25, D.C.

September 12, 1945

Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, President
University of Notre Dame du Lac
South Bend, Indiana

My dear Father O'Donnell:

Your institution has played a very important part in producing the material which has been such a decisive factor in winning the war. You and your associates must have a deep sense of satisfaction as you look back upon your accomplishments for your country.

Now that the war is won, I want to express to you the gratitude and appreciation of the Army Service Forces for the magnificent achievements of your organization.

The energy, initiative, and efficiency which you and your colleagues have demonstrated in the war effort give me complete confidence that the problems of peace will be met with the same effectiveness as those of war and will be as swiftly and as successfully solved.

With all good wishes for the future, I remain

Very sincerely yours

Notre Dame Dead in World War II

(to October 1, 1945)

Supreme among the contributions of Notre Dame men to World War II is the contribution of those who gave the most they had to give—their lives. It is on that account that the ALUMNUS, in its first issue after the war's ending, gives major emphasis to this listing of 277 men who once walked under the Dome. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Te Martyrum Candidatus

Ah, see the fair chivalry come, the companions of Christ!
White Horsemen, who ride on white horses, the Knights of God!
They, for their Lord and their Lover who sacrificed
All, save the sweetness of treading where He first trod!

These through the darkness of death, the dominion of night,
Swept, and they woke in white places at morning tide:
They saw with their eyes, and sang for joy of the sight,
They saw with their eyes the Eyes of the Crucified.

Now, whithersoever He goeth, with Him they go:
White Horsemen, who ride on white horses, oh fair to see!
They ride, where the Rivers of Paradise flash and flow,
White Horsemen, with Christ their Captain: for ever He!

Notre Dame and the Atom Bomb

With the return to the faculty of Dr. Bernard Waldman, Notre Dame physicist who was released for special government research and who was one of the scientists who flew over Hiroshima to study the effects of the atomic bomb, attention is again focused on Notre Dame's part in this world phenomenon. Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president of the University, at the recent quarterly meeting of the Alumni Board, stressed the hope of the University for peace time development of the principle rather than its devastating use as a weapon of war. His article on science in this issue represents Notre Dame's aims.

Concerning the atomic bomb and Notre Dame's part in it, the following text was released by the University publicity department:

"The world of tomorrow can look forward to limitless peacetime possibilities of atomic energy such as is used in the new devastating atomic bomb which has just been unloosed upon Japan, according to Rev. Philip S. Moore, C.S.C., dean of the graduate school of the University of Notre Dame, in commenting upon the University's contribution in the atomic research that has led to the development of the bomb.

"The United States government has clamped a lid of secrecy upon the Notre Dame activities in connection with the atomic research, but Father Moore said that while the University's facilities were not used in the development of the atomic bomb itself, our research facilities played an important part in the unlocking of the riddle of the atom.

"Three other Notre Dame men, in addition to Father Moore, have been highly instrumental in the atomic research program at the university. They are: Rev. Henry Bolger, C.S.C., head of the Department of Physics at Notre Dame; Dr. Marcellus Wiedenbeck, who completed his graduate work at Notre Dame; and Dr. Bernard Waldman.

"Although Father Moore and his associates are not permitted to disclose the methods which they used in their contribution to the atomic project, on which thousands of scientists all over the country have been working at a cost of more than $2,000,000,000, it is a fact that before the war Notre Dame was completing the construction of a mammoth electrostatic generator capable of bombarding atoms with 8,000,000 volts of electricity.

"In pointing out tremendous postwar applications to atomic energy, Doctor Wiedenbeck revealed that if the atomic energy stored in a thimble full of water should be converted into energy, the resulting power could run a 20-horsepower engine, or a small automobile, for the next 2,000 years. Moreover, he revealed, less than a quart of water conceivably would be the only fuel needed to power a giant ocean liner—the Queen Mary, for instance—on a voyage around the world.

"In the field of power alone, emphasized Dr. Wiedenbeck, the release of energy from atoms is so far-reaching that it simply staggers the imagination. Power would be practically without value; a new social and economic order would have to be constructed. But power would be only one of the postwar applications. It would seem that a vast quantity of new radio-active substances will be made available for the treatment of such malignant diseases as cancer. Such substances would enormously increase our limited supplies of radium and would be far cheaper.

"One of the most important parts of developing atomic energy, Father Moore stated, was the development of the knowledge of how to control the process. Without control, he said, production of atomic energy would be useless. 'And it is only natural that Notre Dame should be interested in atomic research. As a center of scientific research, the university became interested in this problem and installed unique facilities. After the war started, it continued its research.'

"The University of Notre Dame, then, played an important part in the research leading to the development of the atomic bomb. But scientists at the University are going even further; they are continuing their research in the energy-development and controls toward a better peacetime era."

BISHOP CROWLEY DIES

A press-time<sup>8</sup> bulletin brings news of the death on Oct. 2, of Most Rev. Timothy J. Crowley, C.S.C., D.D., '02, for many years Bishop of Dacca, in the province of Bengal, India. Bishop Crowley was born in 1880, and was consecrated Bishop of Dacca in May of 1927.

UNIVERSAL N.D. COMMUNION

SUNDAY SET FOR DECEMBER 9

Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday, when all Local Clubs should plan simultaneous Club Masses and Communion Breakfasts, will, as previously announced by the Board of Directors of the Association, be observed on December 9. Its conjunction with the Feast of the Immaculate Conception is, as you recall, not coincidence, but filled with significance for Notre Dame men, particularly in the United States where Our Lady's patronage has brought so many favors.

This 1945 Sunday marks the first universal opportunity to give thanks to God and Our Lady for the end of the war, to ask her intercession for the 277 Notre Dame men who lost their lives in this war in the armed forces under her patronage, and to ask God and His Blessed Mother to bless and preserve the hard won peace.

With conditions of meeting much more favorable, and with the return of many Club members from the armed forces, the Alumni Board looks forward in 1945 to a more universal observance of the Communion Sunday, instituted in 1938 by the Notre Dame club of New York.

With priests of the Congregation of Holy Cross stationed throughout the United States, and with travel conditions relaxed somewhat, this 1945 Sunday should find most of the Masses and Communion Breakfasts attended by a familiar priest from the campus. The Alumni Office will of course assist in such arrangements whenever a Club so wishes.

The great spiritual significance of Notre Dame should be the highlight of these annual Communion Sundays, in theme and publicity. This leaves Universal Notre Dame Night, in its annual April observance, to stress the academic and the cultural phases of the University.

NEW SEMESTER NOV. 5

Enrollment for the new semester, starting Nov. 5, is heavier than anticipated, with 800 pre-registered, 929 Navy students promised in the R.O.T.C. and V-12, and a new-and-return enrollment of approximately 700. The Midshipmen's School will graduate its final class on Nov. 2, having trained more than 10,000 officers since its origin in October, 1942, on the Notre Dame campus. Residence facilities, except Carroll, are nearly filled. The University does not plan to open Carroll for the semester.

Report to the Alumni Association

By REV. J. HUGH O'DONNELL, C.S.C.
President of the University

It is a source of satisfaction to the president of any university to observe the continuing vital interest of alumni in the welfare of their Alma Mater. When that interest takes the substantial form of participation in the Annual Alumni Fund to the extent of $111,405.56, the satisfaction is deep indeed. This generous sum in a critical period will not only safeguard the advances that Notre Dame has made recently, but it will also help to smooth the way during the difficult time of reconversion which we are now beginning.

In accordance with its understanding with the officers of the Alumni Association, the administration has allocated the fund to definite undertakings which in its judgment will enhance the academic prestige of the University, as shown in the following statement:

Operation of the Alumni Association:

All alumni have taken pride in the administration of the Association under its executive secretary, James E. Armstrong, and his assistant, William R. Dooley. It should be noted that the operating cost of $35,589.31 is for 17 months—the unusual period having been caused by a change in the fiscal year.

Aside from rendering assistance to individual alumni as well as to local clubs, and advancing the program adopted by the directors more than a year ago, the Association has been of great help to the University itself through student promotion and its fostering of good public relations. An enterprise as vital deserves strong financial support.

The staff in the Alumni Office was necessarily increased in order to keep abreast of additional work caused by the University's wartime regime. The Office has been exceedingly valuable to the president in maintaining contact with alumni and students in service through questionnaires, letters, and other media.

The books of the Association are audited annually in accordance with the best business practice.

The Graduate School:

You have heard me stress repeatedly the necessity of strengthening the Graduate Division because of what it means to Notre Dame's academic prestige. During the war this division was affected, as were other graduate schools throughout the country. Money provided by the Alumni Association—$12,000 from the Centenary Fund and $9,000 from the current one—has aided materially in the purchase of research equipment and the publication of studies of vital importance to the division.

The Library Fund

I need say nothing about the importance of the University Library and the departmental libraries except to repeat that no library is complete so long as there is progress. Were it not for the generosity of alumni, the handicaps imposed by the war years would have been much more difficult to overcome. I consider the allocation of $20,000 to the libraries one of the best investments that the University can make.

Emergency Fund for the College of Law

The law schools of the country have been academic casualty No. 1. Remembering, however, that ours is the oldest of Catholic law schools in the United States, the administration determined that it would survive the war if the deficit did not become too heavy—and it became heavy enough. Once again the Alumni Fund proved invaluable. The school itself made changes to insure greater economy, a fact that will gratify the large number of alumni who are graduates of this historic college.

The James A. Burns Scholarships

The James A. Burns Scholarships, the details of which are published elsewhere in this issue of the Alumnus, are in keeping with the Notre Dame tradition of helping the poor, talented boy get an education. It is fitting that they should be in memory of Father Burns, because he was once such a boy to whom Notre Dame gave a helping hand more than half a century ago. Father Burns never forgot, and as the years passed, bringing him honor and distinction as an educator, he remained one of the strongest advocates of the tradition of which he was a product, giving similar aid to countless numbers of boys who otherwise would not have had the advantages of a Notre Dame education.

You will observe that in commenting on the second Annual Alumni Fund, I have referred as well to allocations from the Centenary Fund, as reported in the Alumnus for February, 1944. It occurs to me that I should mention two other projects which the Centenary Fund has supported.

The first is the faculty fund for advanced study, to which $10,000 was allocated. This fund has already made possible advanced studies of four faculty members at the University of Michigan, Catholic University, the California Institute of Technology, and the University of Notre Dame. When these men have received their doctorates they will return to the University as specialists in their fields to further strengthen the faculty. I hope there will be enough money left to underwrite expenses for at least four more faculty members.

The second is the provision for travel expenses for faculty representation at meetings of learned societies, educational gatherings, and other important academic events. Attendance at such meetings is a necessity to any university that wishes to keep abreast of the best in academic progress:

On behalf of all who are charged with conducting Notre Dame's affairs, I take this opportunity to thank the alumni who came to Notre Dame's assistance during a critical period. As I said on a previous occasion, what holds the brightest promise for the University's future is the growing realization that their continued support is an essential part of Notre Dame's growth and development. The phrase "alumni participation" has a broader and deeper meaning than we sometimes attach to it. Notre Dame's growth is not an end in itself, but a means to one great end; the preservation and dissemination of the Christian culture which is our common heritage and our common hope.

A final word: No head of any university could have had a more loyal and devoted Alumni Board than Notre Dame has had during this critical period. I make public acknowledgment of sincere gratitude to Mr. Thomas Byrne, national president, the other officers and directors for serving Alma Mater so faithfully. Their warm support of the administration's policy has brought joy to me and my associates.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. J. HUGH, O'DONNELL, C.S.C.,
President of the University.

While the administration is deeply grateful to God for such a successful operation, it is also mindful of the excellent cooperation it received from faculty and students as well as the various department heads. It has been no easy task to administer the affairs of a privately-controlled university during such a critical period, but the burden has been greatly lightened by the sympathetic understanding and helpfulness of all those who belong to the family of Notre Dame.

Extended comment on the report, I believe, is unnecessary. The small amount credited to surplus only serves to emphasize the need of increasing our endowment in order that our plans, postwar, for both the graduate and the undergraduate divisions may be realized.

It should be noted, however, that our very happy and cordial relationship with the U.S. Navy is on a purely cost basis, and not cost plus. Mr. Dwyer directs my attention to this particularly, and stresses the fact that since the program permits the recovery of established costs only, "no profit as such is realized from the operation," to use his own words.

Within the next few months I hope to be able to publish our operating statement for the year ending June 30, 1945, which has been understandably delayed because of the unusual demands made by the war effort on our Accounting Department.

Sincerely,
J. HUGH O'DONNELL, C.S.C.
President of the University

NEW RELIGION HEAD

Rev. Roland G. Simonitsch, C.S.C., '36, assistant prefect of religion, has been appointed acting head of the Department of Religion in the University. Father Simonitsch succeeds Rev. Louis Kelley, C.S.C., new assistant superior general of the Congregation of Holy Cross.

NEW SOUTH BEND PASTOR

Rev. James J. O'Brien, C.S.C., '13, is the new pastor of St. Patrick's Parish, South Bend, succeeding Rev. Patrick H. Dolan, C.S.C., '15, who resigned because of ill health. Father O'Brien, a former assistant pastor at St. Patrick's, had lately been on the faculty of St. Edward's University, Austin, Texas.

War Veterans Come to the Campus

By JOHN DEFANT*

The Men Who Fought in World War II Want To Be Integrated With Other Students Despite Difficulties; Writer Says that Readjustment Is "Ridiculously Overemphasized"

For two years, Navy (and Marine) trainees were in the majority in the Notre Dame student body. But, assigned to their own residence halls under navy discipline and training and having only limited contact with civilian students in scholastic activities and extra-curricular activities, the trainees were, of necessity, a "group apart."

Now, with the transition from war to peace, and with civilian students once again in the majority in the student body, the University is experiencing an influx of a special group of students who, generally are homologous in their aims, purposes and outlook. These are the returning war veterans, studying at Notre Dame under the provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights or the Veterans' Rehabilitation Act.

But, a "group apart" though they may be to some limited extent, the veterans, unlike the trainees, can readily be integrated with the remainder of the civilian student body. And such integration is in line with the wishes of the majority of the veterans themselves.

It must be admitted that many of the veterans would like to have some privileges not granted other civilian students, such as later hours and more independence of action. But at the same time most veterans realize that were the veterans to be granted special privileges they would then become, definitely, a "group apart"; real integration with the remainder of the civilian student body would be lost.

And so the veterans go on in the Notre Dame pattern, adapting themselves as quickly as they can to the traditional Notre Dame regulations.

The veterans, however, are faced with some special problems. Much has been written and said about the difficulties confronting veterans returning to civilian life and to school, but the arm-chair psychologist who look upon them as high-strung individuals who must be tenderly readjusted to civilian life have ridiculously overemphasized the matter. They overlook the fact that the return to the comforts, freedom and more natural mode of life of the civilian will be accomplished with ease. After all, compared to the conversion to the rigors of service life and war to which the servicemen adjusted themselves, the "reconversion" problem is a simple one. Certainly the veterans at Notre Dame have slipped into the college routine without undue difficulty. The veteran gets along as well as, or better than, the student who has not had the experience of service life.

There are some at Notre Dame of course, who could not make the grade and dropped out of school, but the percentage does not run much higher than that of students who have never been in service. Nor do their reasons for withdrawing from college differ much from those of other students: they lack the necessary academic preparation, have no self-discipline, or simply do not like college. Some, of course, have been forced out by poor physical condition.

The difficulties of the veterans enrolled in college crop up during the first few months after their return to school. Two, they face immediately: they have forgotten how to study after an absence of several years, and they feel a strangeness in their new surroundings that is common to all freshmen, but augmenting the strangeness, is the added years of the veterans, which, they feel, set them apart from their younger classmates. The emotion engendered by their age is dissipated when they discover that they are still pretty much like the other fellows. The inability to concentrate they can overcome only by giving more time to their studies; after a few months of intensive application to their books they find their studies no more difficult than other students do. In fact, some of the veterans contend that the interruption of their education was beneficial because they learned to attach a greater importance to it.

The 111 veterans now at Notre Dame have already taken steps to mitigate the difficulties of those who will enroll in

FOR GOD, COUNTRY, NOTRE DAME

IN GLORY EVERLASTING

Quintin Mason

Jim O'Brien

Lt. Quintin Mason, USMCS, St. Paul, Minn., was killed in action on Okinawa, three-quarters of a mile north of Naha, on May 5. He had been in the Marine V-12 program at Notre Dame for two semesters.

Quintin has been recommended for a Bronze Star award. Surviving him are his parents, three brothers and one sister.

Sgt. James J. O'Brien, Jr., '41, Elmhurst, N. Y., met a tragic death in a train wreck near Weingarten, Germany, while en route to a port of embarkation on July 13.

Jim was graduated magna cum laude and at the time of his induction, in May 1942, was employed by the Kollsman Instrument Company in Elmhurst. He was a member of the reconnaissance and intelligence group of the headquarters company, 65th Armored Infantry Battalion. He received a citation and the Bronze Star medal for conspicuous service at Biherbach, Germany, on April 29.

Jim leaves his wife, his infant daughter, his parents, a brother, Donald J., '29, and four sisters.

Capt. Roger H. Henry, ex. '44, Valparaiso, Ind., was killed in an airplane crash in India on July 29, 1945. Roger was a student in the law school when he enlisted in the air corps on Dec. 8, 1941. His parents survive him.

Roger Henry

Cpl. Mark E. DeMots, ex. '44, Minot, N. Dak., died on July 30 of burns received in a vehicle accident in La Fere, France.

Mark had been overseas since January, 1944, and had been a radar operator of the Ninth Air Force, the 19th Tactical Air Force and the Third Army. He won five battle stars and his unit of 15 men had received two citations. With his parents, Mark leaves a sister who is married to Thomas E. Duffy, '32, and a brother, John E. DeMots, '37.

Mark was inducted into service in June 1943, while a student in law. He enlisted in 1942 under the E.R.C. program.

Pvt. James Bassett, ex. '43, Toledo, Ohio, died July 19, 1942, of malaria in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippine Islands. He had been missing in action since May 7, 1942, following the surrender of Corregidor.

Jim was wounded in action on Dec. 10, 1941, and returned to duty March 11 the next year. He had enlisted in April 1941, and the following fall he volunteered for service in Hawaii. Two days before Pearl Harbor, he notified his father of his transfer to the Philippines.

Jim's father died last October without knowing the fate of his son. Other members of his family are his twin brother, another brother and two sisters.

The ALUMNUS has so far received only incomplete information regarding the following Notre Dame men who died in the service of their country: Lt. Cmdr. John M. Hughes, '31, Jacksonville, Fla., killed in a plane crash on September 28, near Kingsland, Ga.; Major Carlo J. Marinello, ex. '37, Buffalo, N. Y., died of wounds received on Leyte, Dec. 31, 1944; Lt. John W. Smith, ex. '41, West Winfield, N. Y., killed in a plane crash at the Army Air Base, Greenville, S. C., on Jan. 29, 1944; Lt. Robert E. Schoo, ex. '43, Louisville, Ky., killed in a plane crash Aug. 5, 1945, near El Paso, Texas; Sgt. Francis M. Maloney, ex. '45, Louisville, Ky.; Daniel Ginsburg, USMCR, ex. '47, Detroit, killed in action on Iwo Jima; Pfc. Joseph J. Petillo, USMCR, ex. '47, Asbury Park, N. J., killed in action on Okinawa, April 13, 1945.

1st Lt. William G. Haller, ex. '42, Doylestown, Ohio, was killed Nov. 5, 1944, on a mission over Germany while leading a squadron of the 94th Bombing Group.

Bill Haller

A pilot of a B-17, Bill had been in service since 1942 and held the Air Medal with three clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross with one cluster and the Presidential Citation with one cluster. A wife and small daughter living in Cadiz, Ohio, survive Bill, as well as a brother in the Navy, another brother and the parents.

Missing in Action

Lt. (jg) Robert T. Browne, '38, Medical Corps, USNR, Peoria, Ill., is missing in action since last October in the Philippines. For his extreme courage in the second battle of the Philippines, Bob received the Navy Cross. He remained aboard the USS Johnston after the abandon ship order was given, supplying injured men with life jackets and ministering to the wounded in the face of terrific salvos from hostile gun batteries. His brother, Bill, is a '37 graduate.

2nd Lt. John R. Hartsock, '39, of Altoona, Pa., a navigator with the AAF, has been missing over Japan since Dec. 18, 1944.

Deaths Already Reported

(This section contains additional information about Notre Dame men whose deaths in the armed forces were reported in earlier issues of the ALUMNUS.)

Lt. George S. Owens, USNR, '32, Lockport, N. Y., was killed in action on May 1, 1945, aboard the U. S. S. Terror, off the northwest coast of Oknawa when the ship, while in port, was struck by a suicide plane. He leaves his wife, a son and a daughter, his mother and a brother and sister.

George entered the service in March, 1943, and reported for duty in April at Babson University, Mass. He was at the Mare Island Navy Yard in California as assistant supply officer from May, 1943 to November, 1944. For several years, prior to his service in the Navy, he was purchasing agent for the Pittsburgh Metallurgical Company, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Ed Kinn

Lt. Edward L. Kinn, ex. '46, Fostoria, O., was killed in action in Germany, April 18. Ed was wounded in the Aachen drive in Germany on Oct. 30, 1944, but he returned to active service in March 1945. He was awarded the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Lt. John J. Bishop, USMCR, ex. '44, West Brighton, S. I., N. Y., was killed Nov. 20, 1944, when his S.B.D. Dauntless dive-bomber crashed into the sea on a flight from Henderson Field, Guadalcanal. John went overseas in the fall of 1943, and he and his squadron members, flying B-24 Liberators, were the first white men to see Truk, the great Japanese naval base, on reconnaissance missions.

John completed two years at Notre Dame and then volunteered as a Navy V-5 aviation cadet. He trained at Chapel

John Bishop

George Yeager

Hill, N. C., Hutchinson, Kans., and Corpus Christi, Texas, where he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

S/Sgt. George Yeager, Jr., ex. '45, Roanoke, Va., was killed in action on July 16, 1944 in a bombing raid over Europe. A bombardier in the Eighth Air Force, George escaped death in May 1944, when his bomber exploded over the English Channel. Eight other flyers perished and George and one other man, who had bailed out before the explosion, survived in the icy channel waters for several hours.

George entered the service in March 1943. He took preliminary training as pilot at San Antonio, Texas, transferred to gunner at Las Vegas, Nev., and finished with his crew at Sioux City, Ia.

Lt. Edmund L. Leach, USMCR, ex. '45, Golf, Ill., was killed by a sniper's bullet on Iwo Jima on March 3. He is survived by his parents and a brother.

Ed Leach

Roger Keane

Ed enlisted in the Marine Detachment of the Navy V-12 program in January, 1942, while he was a student at Loyola University, Chicago. In March 1944, he was sent to Parris Island for boot training and was then sent to Camp LeJeune and commissioned a second lieutenant in September, 1944. In November he was sent to the Hawaiian Islands and placed in the Fifth Marine Division.

Pfc. John Roger Keane, ex. '45, Watertown, Mass., was killed in action on Nov. 20, 1944, near Immendorf, Germany.

Roger went overseas in September, 1944, from Fort Dix, N. J. He had been called into service in April, 1942, and received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. Assigned to the A.S.T.P. at Georgetown University when the program was discontinued, he completed his training in the infantry at Camp Swift, Texas.

WAR VETERANS

ensuing semesters. The Veterans' Club is setting up an orientation program which it hopes to have in operation by the start of the next semester, on November 6, when a total enrollment of over 300 veterans is expected. Under the plan, members of the club will assist the incoming veterans in any way possible, especially in tutoring and in the sponsoring of social functions where they can meet their fellow students and become more readily accustomed to college life.

Although organized just at the end of last semester, the Veterans' Club has already assumed a position of leadership on the campus. When Frank Syzmanski, a veteran himself, resigned from the football team because of the recent Big Ten ruling declaring ineligible all persons who had signed contracts with professional teams, the club immediately set to work, not only because the ruling affected a Notre Dame player, but because in its working out the rule would so largely affect veterans. Letters pointing out the seeming unfairness of the retroactive ruling were sent to sports commentators, sports writers, the Veterans Administration, and veterans' clubs at other universities. By marshaling public opinion against the ruling, the Veterans' Club hopes to have it altered.

The club has been active not only socially, but also spiritually. The first Communion breakfast at Notre Dame since the start of the war was held, fittingly enough, by the veterans on September 9. They offered up their Communion for the 269 Notre Dame men who, up to then, had died in the armed forces in World War II.

There can be no doubt that returning veterans will be an important factor in campus activities for the next half-decade. Ranging in age from 19 to 30 and already accustomed to assuming leadership and responsibilities, the veterans have the training and willingness to lead. Their more mature outlook on life forged in the bloody years of war may add a new ingredient to the spirit of Notre Dame.

AT N. D. 60 YEARS

Rev. Bernard J. Ill, C.S.C., professor of German, oldest active member of the Notre Dame faculty, on Sept. 5 observed the 60th anniversary of his arrival at the University. He began teaching at Notre Dame in 1887, before his ordination in 1894. Father Ill has witnessed the erection of every private-room residence hall on the campus.

Third Annual Alumni Fund

Contributions, July 1, 1945 to September 1, 1945

As in the previous Alumni Funds, the alumni contributions represent alumni gifts direct to the University, through the Alumni Association, or through the Director of Public Relations.

ATHLETICS

By Raymond J. Donovan, '42

LATER

Assuming the role of underdog for the first time in history in a season-opener, Coach Hugh Devore's Fighting Irish registered a 7 to 0 triumph over a highly-touted Illinois eleven Sept. 29 in Notre Dame Stadium.

Phil Colella, freshman left halfback from Rochester, Pa., tallied the only touchdown of the game on the first play from scrimmage in his initial collegiate game as he broke off-tackle and galloped 76 yards for the score. Stanley Krivik, fullback from New York, drop-kicked the extra point and that completed scoring for the day.

Three times during the contest the Illini drove deep into Notre Dame territory and once the Irish held for downs on their own one-foot line to take over the ball when it appeared certain that Illinois would score.

Frank Danciewicz, Bob Skoglund and Colella stood out both offensively and defensively for the Irish, and on defensive play Vincent Scott, guard from LeRoy, N.Y., Bill Fisher, freshman tackle from Chicago, Fred Rovai, guard from Hammond, Ind., and Stan Krivik displayed talents that stamp them as men to watch throughout the season.

Loss of two key men prior to the opening of the season substantially crippled the hopes of Coach Hugh Devore for a successful season in his first campaign as head grid coach at Notre Dame.

Captain Frank Szymanski, Detroit senior who was counted on by the Notre Dame coaching staff to bolster the line at center, resigned from the squad as fall practice opened as the result of a contract he had signed early this year to play professional football with the Chicago Bears after graduation. Although Szymanski's contract later was declared null and void by Commissioner Elmer Layden when it was discovered he was not a free agent, he resigned following clarification by Big Ten Commissioner Tug Wilson of a ruling forbidding men who have signed professional contracts to play college ball.

The effects of Szymanski's loss barely had worn off when the Navy announced the transfer of Marty Wendell, Chicago sophomore, to Great Lakes. Wendell, a member of the ROTC unit at Notre Dame, performed regularly at the fullback post during most of the 1944 campaign and, along with Szymanski, provided a formidable combination in the line-backing department for the Irish.

To partially fill the gaps created by the departure of these two key performers, Coach Devore moved Tom Walsh, a 6:2½-212 pound freshman from Phillipsburg, N. J., into the first-string center berth, and elevated Frank Ruggerio, hard-driving 200-pounder from Orange, N. J., to the first-team fullback post. John Panelli, Morristown, N. J., sophomore, was shifted from right halfback to fullback to assist Ruggerio.

The Irish, as this is written, are to open the season against Illinois with Bob Skoglund, Chicago ROTC trainee, at left end; Ed Mieszkowski, Chicago junior, at left tackle; John Mastrangelo, Vandergrift, Pa., junior, at left guard; Walsh at center; Fred Rovai, Hammond, Ind., senior, at right guard; Pete Berezney, Jersey City, N. J., senior, at right tackle; and Bill Leonard, Youngstown, O., freshman, at right end.

Frank Danciewicz, Lynn, Mass., senior, who was named captain of the 1945 Irish after Szymanski's resignation, will spark the team this year from the quarterback post. Phil Colella, Rochester, Pa., freshman, holds the key to much of the potential Notre Dame success as he stands out as the only capable runner at right halfback. Elmer Angsman, Chicago senior, will carry the burden at left halfback this season where he was shifted by Coach Devore from fullback where he performed brilliantly last season. Ruggerio, at fullback, completed the Irish backfield.

On the same day that Szymanski announced his resignation from the squad, backfield Coach Gene Ronzani came forth with the announcement that he had resigned to return to his duties as quarterback and coach of the Chicago Bears professional squad.

Within a few days, however, announcement was made that Joe Sheeketski, '33, star Irish halfback in the early '30's and former head football coach at Holy Cross college, had been signed to coach the Notre Dame backfield. Sheeketski, a native of Shadyside, O., was a right halfback on Irish teams in 1931 and 1932 and served as assistant to Eddie Anderson at Holy Cross from 1933 to 1939, when he assumed head coaching duties. After three years as chief of the Crusaders, Joe resigned to join the F.B.I. He remained with the government until January of this year when he entered private business in Cleveland.

To add to the general upheaval of the Notre Dame football squad, 11-year-old Clashmore Mike, veteran Irish-terrier mascot, died of old age two weeks before the opening of the season. A new Irish terrier pup, Clashmore Mike II, was presented to the University by James J. McGarraghy of Chicago, for many years a devoted follower of Notre Dame's athletic fortunes.

Outlook for the season, with Szymanski and Wendell in the lineup, was neither gloomy nor bright. It appeared that Notre Dame would hold its own with most college competition this season. With the defensive stars gone, however, the situation is uncertain. Illinois definitely has one of the stronger teams in the Big Nine, loaded with veteran performers both in the line and backfield. Pittsburgh, during the past several seasons "breathers" for the Irish, has come up with a good passing attack and held Illinois to a 23-6 decision at Champaign in the season-opener. Georgia Tech reportedly is coming up with another of its consistently good ball clubs, while the Irish will be fighting the Iowa "jinx" when Coach Clem Crowe brings his eleven to Notre Dame Stadium on Oct. 27. Northwestern supposedly hit hard by graduation this year, got off to an impressive start against a tough Iowa

Capt. Danciewicz and Coach Devore

State eleven, while Dartmouth and Great Lakes remain unknown quantities. Army and Navy, of course, can be expected to be as tough as last season, if not tougher, when they belted the Irish for their only losses of the campaign.

Joe Sheeketski, '33
Effective Late Arrival

The picture appears unexpectedly dark at this writing, but may improve as the season progresses if a few of the youngsters on the Irish squad can come through in tough competition.

BASKETBALL

The 1945-46 basketball season was officially opened at Notre Dame on Oct. 2, when Elmer Ripley, new head coach, took charge of a squad of nearly 100 men who reported in answer to his call for the start of practice.

Ripley has had outstanding success in the past as head coach at Georgetown, Columbia and Yale. The new coach is familiar with the ability of only one player on the squad—Bill Hassett, All-American guard of last year who as a freshman was a member of Ripley's N.C.A.A. champions at Georgetown.

Prospects for a strong team at Notre Dame are the brightest in years, with four regulars from last year's team, which broke all Notre Dame single game and season scoring records, again available, plus an All-American Irish star of two years ago who will resume his studies at the semester opening in November.

The four men available from last year's team are, besides Hassett, Frank Gilhooley, Johnny Dee and George Ratterman. The returning star is Leo Klier, recently placed on an inactive status by the Navy in which he had served for more than a year. There is no center in that group as Vince Boryla, 18-year-old freshman who shattered all Notre Dame individual scoring records last season, is now enrolled at the United States Naval academy at Annapolis.

In Klier, Ratterman and Dee, Coach Ripley knows he has three experienced forwards, while Gilhooley and Hassett are outstanding as guards. His immediate job, therefore, will be to find a center, and it might be that he will eventually use either Ratterman or Klier at that spot; it depends upon what Ripley discovers among the new center candidates.

The Irish schedule for 1945-46 has not yet been completed.

FOOTBALL PARTIES

INDUSTRIAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Twelve outstanding men in American industry have accepted invitations from Notre Dame to serve on the University's newly-organized Industrial Advisory Committee, according to an announcement by Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president.

During the wartime era, plans were laid for the expansion and further development of Notre Dame, particularly the development of the graduate and research departments in the colleges of science and engineering. The University is beginning to realize these plans.

Several of the University's fundamental research programs (rubber and plastics from both chemical and physical approaches, electronics both theoretical and applied, nuclear physics and radiation, chemistry, etc.) will have important implications for the future industrial development of the nation.

To assure an understanding and co-operation between the University and industry, which will be important for the maximum realization of the University's contribution to this development, the University has formed this advisory committee. Men who have accepted are:

Britton I. Budd, of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Chicago; William Calcott, assistant director of the Organic Chemical Division, E. I. du Pont de Nemours Co., Wilmington, Del.; Bradley Dewey, president, Dewey and Almy Chemical Co., Cambridge, Mass.; William P. Feeley, president, Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Co., Chicago; William H. Harrison, vice-president, American Telephone and Telegraph Co., New York City; Walter G. Hildorf, director of metallurgy, Timken Roller Bearing Co., Canton, Ohio; Edgar Kobak, president, Mutual Broadcasting System, New York City; Peter C. Reilly, president, Reilly Chemical Corp., Indianapolis; Arthur J. Schmitt, president, American Phenolic Corp., Cicero, Ill.; Harold S. Vance, chairman of the board, Studebaker Corp., South Bend; Dr. Albert F. Zahm, Guggenheim Chair of Aeronautics, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.; and M. E. Coyle, vice-president, General Motors Corp., Detroit.

The committee will meet at regular intervals with University officials to advise on programs of research, on relations of industry and the University in research, and on ways and means of expanding the research program at the University.

SCIENCE AND PUBLIC WELFARE

plane, and radio obscures the fact that they were all based on fundamental discoveries made in nineteenth-century Europe. From Europe also came formulation of most of the laws governing the transformation of energy, the physical and chemical structure of matter, the behavior of electricity, light, and magnetism."

There have been reasons for such dependence. For instance, until comparatively late in the nineteenth century the United States was an agricultural nation, and its attitude toward science was affected accordingly. The colleges, generally speaking, were indifferent to the growth of scientific research. Industry, as we know it today, had not come into existence, so there was little compulsion toward either pure or applied research from that quarter. Such aid as came from the government was for strictly limited and utilitarian purposes; and aid from private philanthropy was negligible.

Scientific Bureaus Established

As America grew up, however, conditions changed. To meet obvious needs, the Federal Government began to establish its scientific bureaus—the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Naval Observatory, the Department of Agriculture, and many others. Private philanthropy began its direct support of research through the creation of non-profit scientific institutions and foundations. As powerful new industries developed, they set up their own laboratories out of which came basic technological discoveries. Nevertheless, despite the increased interest in science, pure research continued to lag far behind applied research. The proportion must be corrected because, as the Committee pointed out, future progress will be most striking in those highly complex fields—electronics, aerodynamics, chemistry—which are based directly upon the foundations of modern science.

To insist that the need exists is to stress the obvious. A question more to the point is, how is the need to be met? Private gifts, endowment, and grants from State legislatures are inadequate. Universities, already affected by declining incomes and increasing costs of operation, are reluctant to take on expensive projects. Industry, reasonably enough, is interested primarily in applied rather than pure research; and, in any event, is financially unable to assume the burden.

The Committee believes that the means to the desired end is an increased measure of Federal aid to scientific research, administered "without incurring centralized control or discouraging private support." Experience of the war years strengthened the Committee in this opinion. In the first place, research in universities and non-profit organizations amply proved its worth by increasing specialized knowledge and disseminating it when and where it was most needed. Simultaneously, through the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the government was demonstrating that a definite policy of initiating and supporting basic scientific research through contracts and grants added immeasurably to the national welfare. With these premises in mind, what remained was to determine the machinery to carry over into times of peace, and to adapt to peace time needs, the type of coordinated work done under the direction of the Office.

The best means, the Committee believes, is to establish in the executive branch of the government an independent agency to be known as the National Research Foundation with well defined powers and duties to be exercised by a board of nine members appointed by the President. The sole qualification of members should be their demonstrable interest in, and capacity to promote, the purposes of the Foundation. The Board, in brief, would be above and beyond any consideration but that of scientific advancement, for "in order to be fruitful, scientific research must be free—free from the influence of pressure groups, free from the necessity of producing immediate practical results, free from dictation by any central board." Senator Warren G. Magnuson of Washington has introduced a bill (S.1285) providing for the establishment of a National Research Foundation which "would promote the progress of science and the useful arts, secure the national defense, advance the national health, prosperity, and welfare. . . ." This bill should be of vital interest to all Notre Dame men, as well as to Americans generally.

Regarding Government Grants

In addition to formulating the principle of a National Research Foundation, the Committee made suggestions as to the technical forms in which Government grants should be made to private and state-supported institutions. These include: 1) matching grants for fluid research purposes within the institution, rather than to any particular department or person; 2) discretionary grants, either as grants-in-aid for promising special projects, or in the provision of large and expensive capital facilities; 3) post-doctoral fellowships as a direct aid to research; 4) senior research fellowships to enable really experienced investigators to develop and utilize their talents most effectively.

It is the Bowman Committee's considered opinion that increased support of research by the Federal Government will give the greatest impetus to science and technology; that is, federal aid wisely administered. "We do not believe," said the Committee significantly, "that any program is better than no program—that an ill-devised distribution of Federal funds will aid the growth of science. Our concrete proposals seek to augment the quality as well as the quantity of scientific research."

Enterprise Must Be "Joint"

In the reconversion period, which is now beginning, we must have an appreciation of the tangible benefits that can come from a joint enterprise in which the Federal Government, charged with the responsibility of providing for the common defense and general welfare, joins with private and public institutions of higher learning to assure a flow of new knowledge that will promote the common good. But the enterprise must be "joint"—that is, the partners must be equal, each contributing its share and respecting the rights of the other. Undue influence or pressure will lead either to bureaucratic desuetude or academic murder.

NEW RADIO SERIES

Attention of Notre Dame alumni is called to the new radio series on Mutual each Thursday morning, 10:15 to 10:30 Eastern standard time. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, LL.D., '41, will be the featured speaker, conducting an informal type of program, called "The Spiritual Clinic." The program is sponsored by Our Sunday Visitor, under the patronage of Most Rev. John F. Noll, D.D., LL.D., '15. Francis A. Fink, '30, managing editor of O.S.V., and the University of Notre Dame administration were instrumental in the negotiations which led to the new program on Mutual, whose president is alumnus Edgar Kobak, a minim at Notre Dame from 1904 to 1906.

The new program will tie in with the nature of the programs being developed through the Local Club committees on religion and citizenship. The time of the program enlists the interest of alumni wives and mothers, particularly.

Chicago

John W. Dorgan, '29, 10 S. La Salle St., Pres.; Thomas S. McCabe, '22, 11 S. La Salle St., Sec.

Sgt. John Golden, '30, had a 10-day furlough in Chicago recently from Camp Blending, Fla., where he is engaged in classification work and marking time until his discharge. Major Frank Hetreed '30 also was in the city from Louisville.

Dick Nash, '23, is recovering satisfactorily after a serious illness.

Byron Kanaley, president of Cooper, Kanaley & Co., has been elected president of the Mortgage Bankers Association of America. John Paul Cullen, '22, chief here of the legal staff of the Veterans Administration, has been transferred to Milwaukee. Tom McCabe

Delaware

J. Fendall Froning, '37, 416 Geddes St., Wilmington, Pres.; John E. Reith, '41, 1015 Park Place, Wilmington, Sec.

The summer has been quiet, clubwise. Regular meetings will be resumed in October.

Several visitors were in town, post V-J day. Lt. Paul Borgman, '40, got back from the South Pacific where he saw a lot of action with the Navy. Don Leis, '42, paid a visit. Don's been a sailor since June, 1944, an ensign in communications. John E. Reith

Detroit

Norman J. Fredericks, '35, 1486 Gratiot Ave., Pres.; John T. Annas, '35, 16514 LaSalle, Sec.

The golf tournament, held at Madow Brook Country Club, was attended by approximately 80 people. Bert Baur, the co-chairman with Tommy Sheehan, was the Big Winner: his wife presented him with twin boys the morning of the tournament, Bert's golf wasn't very good, but he and Tommy did a fine job on food and prizes.

Norm Fredericks has announced that we will have a D & C Boat to go to Cleveland for the Notre Dame-Navy game. Mal Knaus is chairman of the ticket sale. Henry Clark and Paul Risk are helping Mal with the detail.

Arrangements are being made for the "Feather Party" to be held Sunday afternoon before Thanksgiving at the Book-Cadillac Hotel. Leo McInerney is handling all of the prizes and baskets. It is expected to be much bigger and better this year.

John Higgins is chairman of our first dinner meeting. John T. Annas.

Kentucky

Marion Heffernan, '28, 1830 Frankfort Ave., Louisville, Pres.; Eugene J. Steuerle, '23, Kentucky Home Life Bldg., Louisville, Sec.

Joseph F. Donaldson, '23, has been appointed as chairman of the Vocational Committee for the club. He will be assisted, in an advisory capacity, by Frank B. Bloemer, Jr., and William N. Bosler.

The chairmanship on the program for Religion and Citizenship has been given to William A. Beisert, Jr., who through his past activity and willingness, you will find most cooperative.

Our Summer Stag, held on July 28, again proved to be successful in drawing a large crowd since there were 31 members present on a rainy, gloomy day. Our plans for a dance on the night of the Kentucky-Notre Dame basketball game, Jan. 26, are still in the tentative state since we have been unable to obtain a location.

You may wish us luck for our party to be held on the night of Nov. 25. This and the dance, if it can be arranged, will largely be the source of our revenue for the year. Regardless of the outcome of the dance, we feel the party will again be successful and place us in a position where we can forward another bond to the University.

Unfortunately we have lost the services of both our secretary, George B. Huth and treasurer, Otto J. Mileti, Jr., as both men have accepted positions in other cities. However, Eugene J. Steuerle, '23, has been appointed as secretary and treasurer for the remainder of the term. This office has been combined for the balance of this period only and will again become separate offices in the coming election.

We regret to advise you of the untimely death of Lt. Robert E. Schoo, class of 1943, who was killed in a plane crash Sunday, Aug. 5, near El Paso, Texas. On September 9, we received Communion for Robert in a body. This is now a practice of the club and is well attended by the members. The comment from such practices has been most favorable.

Incidentally, our next Communion Breakfast will be held on Sunday, Dec. 9. We are already giving this our attention and feel certain the attendance will be larger than usual.

Marion J. Heffernan.

Milwaukee

Edward J. Rogers, '25, 709 N. 11th St., Pres.; Roderick E. Sullivan, '24, 4432 N. Woodruff Ave., Sec.

Earl McCarron and his wife, Peggy, recently spent their vacation in Milwaukee, Kenosha, Washington, D. C., etc. Earl, a former club president here, is now an attorney in charge of Rent Control with the OPA at Juneau, Alaska. . . . Chatted with Harold Watson at the Holy Name breakfast last Sunday. Harold will resume his duties as an instructor in public speaking at the Shorewood evening Opportunity School for adults, starting Sept. 17.

Jim Wheeler, John Madden and Eddie Rogers played golf recently. Eddie says that Jim was the only one who indicated in our questionnaire that a golf tournament would be desirable so Eddie feels that he gave Jim what he wanted. . . . Charlie O'Neill was a recent Holy Name breakfast speaker at St. Patrick's church, Dubuque, Ia. Charlie will attend the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Centennial celebration to be held at St. Louis. He is the executive secretary of the society here. . . . Marquette High School here has a popular new football coach who is a Notre Dame graduate. He is Harold Langton, '33, lately of Washington, D. C.

A meeting of the club officers was scheduled for Sept. 17 to make detailed plans for the club year. Rod Sullivan

New York City

James F. Dwyer, '26, 49 Wall St., Pres.; John A. Hoyt, Jr., '33, 8 Whitehall Rd., Tuckahoe, Westchester Co., N. Y., Sec.

The club's annual Reunion and Rally will be held in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Friday night, Nov. 9, the night before the Army game. Jack Hoyt, club secretary, writes that Harvey Daly and Tierney O'Rourke are co-chairmen in charge of the party. Jack is in charge of tickets and reservations. Headquarters, to take reservations, will be opened in the Waldorf-Astoria early in October.

At a meeting of the Board of Governors of the club on August 8, a vocational committee to assist John Balle with regard to returning war veterans and others was appointed, and plans were made to enlarge this activity in keeping with the demands of the day. Details of this enlarged program will be reported later.

At the invitation of the local Michigan Club and the Western University Club, Notre Dame men have a block of seats available for the Michigan-Army game at the Polo Grounds on October 13.

"Lieutenant Jack Flanagan, who participated in the raid and rescue of a great many Americans who were held in the prisoner of war camps in the Philippines last winter, is now home recuperating from his battle scars.

"Edward J. Hoyt was promoted from first lieutenant to captain on V-J Day, and latest reports indicate that he is being moved from Okinawa to Korea with the Army of Occupation. Ed is expected home on leave for the Army game. Dan Halpin the number two man in RCA television, spends his time commuting between the plant in Camden, N. J., and the broadcasting studios in Radio City. George Murran, now sales promotion manager of Conrad Razor Blade Company, Inc., is busy planning for his company's post-war activities.

"Thomas F. Lantry has left Federal Telephone and Radio Co. and is now back in his insurance business. Jim Shiels and Frank Fallon are back together again in the law firm of Simpson, Thatcher and Bartlett. John Bartley was one of the first to make application to build a new home in Westchester County after the government announced that building controls were off.

"Ted Berkery, vice-president and counsel of Emmigrant Bank, spent most of the summer at his new place in Southampton. Jack Lavelle, well rested after his tour of track meets as the official A.A.U. starter, is now making ready to scout the autumn turf.

"During a recent visit to Buffalo, the writer stayed with Jim Carroll, a former officer of the club and chairman of the 1943 and 1944 Reunions and Rallies. Jim is now general manager of the Sheraton Hotel in Buffalo and is doing a splendid job. While in Buffalo a very happy visit was had with Bishop O'Hara at his Episcopal residence. I understand that the town has received him with open arms, and he has been fully adopted by the community.

"Jim Dwyer has recently seen Joe McLoughlin of the class of 1916, who has recently returned from service in the European theater where he was closely associated with the construction of rehabilitation centers for the Merchant Marine." John A. Hoyt, Jr.

Philadelphia

Harold Duke, '39, 4030 N. Broad St., Pres.; Clifford E. Froedel, '32, 6910 Chester Ave., Sec.

It is our painful duty to report during the past month the death of two of our members. Eugene Oatlie, who was killed when the engine of his plane failed (the day after Gene had received his pilot's license) and John H. Neeson, director of public works in Philadelphia and member of the Board of Lay Trustees at Notre Dame. John died suddenly of a heart attack. We are sure to miss them both.

Dan Young is "looking up" after his return from India where he was taken sick. Charlie McKinney is locating back in Philly after being in New York for a few years. Bill Cooney is another local lad returning to the fold after working in Baltimore for about a year. We're gradually building up our membership again. Even Ed Bailey used the excuse that he was sick to stick around town for a couple of days.

Lt. Jim O'Neill should get some sort of meritorious badge from the club. He's one member who never gets a notice and who always shows up for meetings. Vince McNally looking younger by the year, is jumping between here and the west coast for the newly formed pro league.

Our September meeting was held very informally because Hal Duke couldn't reach ye sec and had to try and round them up himself. Navy Lieutenants Leo Burby and Coleman McGuire from the class of '42 attended and had quite a confab with Jack Ridley, recently back from the wars. We are planning several tributes to John Neeson within the coming year.

SOS Jack Reilly, Frank McManus and Bill Bodo. Cliff Prodehl

San Fernando Valley

An organization meeting of the Notre Dame Club of the San Fernando Valley, California, was held July 18 at The Lamp Post in Toluca Lake. Those attending were: Reg. Alexander, Ed Ashe, Frank Cane, Bill Corr, Art Fiedler, Doc Gorrilla, Bob Huether, John McArdle, Don Morgan, Bill Stevens, John Walsh and Chuck Wright.

Following dinner Frank Cane gave a brief resume of the work of the Los Angeles Youth Committee of which he is executive secretary.

Ed Ashe acted as chairman for an open discussion of organization problems. Doc Gorrilla outlined some of the activities of the St. Louis Club which tended to keep member interest active.

Art Fiedler recommended the principle of a rotating committee for handling arrangements for each successive meeting. This was adopted. A committee consisting of Bill Corr, Reg. Alexander and Frank Cane was elected to make arrangements for the next meeting. Bill Corr

St. Louis

Louis C. Fehlig, '37, 7571 Buckingham Dr., Clayton, Mo., Pres.; Fred McNeill, '36, 8100 W. Florissant, Sec.

The annual Notre Dame picnic was held July 15 at the John Corley farm, Chesterfield, Mo., and, as in the past, was a grand success. Mr. Corley, '02, who so graciously has been host to our club year after year, again made all of the facilities of his place available to us for a fine day's entertainment.

In spite of the fact so many of our members are away in the services a crowd of about 250 people were present. It was especially gratifying to the officers of the club to see new faces—men who expressed intentions of becoming more active members.

A special vote of thanks goes to the three men in charge of things this year: Louis Fehlig, Frank Amato, and Frank Tully. These men together with the subcommittees made the 1945 picnic one of the most successful. Paul Arnold, kept a hotly disputed softball game going; Martin Hughes and his henchmen did the best job ever on the "rehabilitation;" Bob Hellrung had a great time over the roasting grate, and thanks to Dutch Wrape and Al Ravarino for their aid on the food situation. Bert Oughlin, Fran Kennedy and Vince Fehlig kept the "Mares Moccossins" ringing the pegs. There was plenty of Griesdiecks beverage on hand. Frank Pollnow's lifeguards had no work, but swimming was enjoyed by a great many. Dick Klehr, Dick Karr and Marty Hughes were all very helpful on the "amusement tax" assignment.

Prizes of bacon, "zoop," auto polish, gift certificates, etc., were distributed in the evening to the holders of lucky numbers. John Switzer's famous Licquish was distributed to all the kids. Fred S. McNeill

Rhode Island & S. E. Mass.

From Russ Hunt, Providence, R. I., comes this tremendous report on the doings of Johnny McIntyre:

"John A. McIntyre, Providence, R. I., has recently returned from a tour of duty in the Pacific war theatre.

"John was the commander of a night fighter squadron with Task Force 58, operating from the famous Hornet. He was in on the strike against Tokyo with Gen. Jimmy Doolittle and flew over Hirohito's palace repeatedly from then until June of this year. John was in on the 'kill' of one of Japan's greatest battle-ships and he was the first American flyer to land on Okinawa after the island had been taken from the enemy. His squadron was the only night fighter group that came back from all its missions against the Nips without loss of a single man. Mac did bring one ship back to the flat-top so badly damaged that it was dumped overboard after it had been stripped of reusable parts. All but two of the members of his squadron sent Sons of the Land of the Rising Sun to join their ancestors and John has five Jap planes to his credit. At least that is what he admits to.

"One can learn to identify the various decorations of the U. S. Naval Air Forces by studying Mac's chest. Although he is too modest to discuss them, he is bedecked with the pre-Pearl Harbor ribbon, the Atlantic Theatre ribbon, the Philippine ribbon, the Pacific ribbon with battle stars for Iwo Jima and Okinawa, the air medal with three gold stars, the Distinguished Flying Cross with one gold star, and the silver star. In addition to these, John has been recommended for the Navy Cross, the highest honor obtainable in his branch of the service.

At present, discharged from service, he is assistant coach at Brown University.

Syracuse & Central N.Y.

Hawley E. Van Swall, '41, 1202 Harrison St., Syracuse, Pres.

Henry Hickey, who was president of the club, was called into service and Hawley Van Swall, who was secretary, has taken over the presidency.

The club held a golf tournament and dinner at the Skaneateles Country Club, July 19. The following Notre Dame men were present: Hawley Van Swall, Father Joseph Toomey, who is director of Catholic Charities of the Syracuse diocese, Father Frank Harrison, assistant at St. Mary's Cathedral, Syracuse, Father John Harrison, assistant at Our Lady of Solace Church, William Sullivan, George Kinney, Fred Delaney, Leo Kelley, John Nyikos, Edward McLaughlin, Vincent Brown, who had as his guest, his brother, Rev. Joseph T. Brown, S.J., of Buffalo, and James Huxford. Lt. Tom Delaney and Frank Cashier had reservations for this meeting but on account of transportation difficulties were delayed in arriving from New York on time. The kicker handicap was won by William Sullivan with a score of 91 and the runner-up was Father Toomey with a score of 92. Hawley Van Swall had the best score of the day which was an 88.

The next meeting date of the Notre Dame Club of Syracuse was set for Sept. 12 at the Bellevue Country Club of Syracuse with golf in the afternoon and dinner in the evening.

The committee for this meeting was Leo Kelley and Fred Delaney.

Hawley Van Swall would appreciate it if all Notre Dame alumni in Syracuse and vicinity would communicate with him so that the mailing list with proper addresses could be brought up to date. Address communications to Hawley at the Herald Bldg., S. Warren St., Syracuse, N. Y.

My son, James David Huxford, ex. '46, U. S. Marines, Camp LeJeune, just walked in the office on a 10-day furlough. Jim Huxford.

Western Pennsylvania

William H. H. Ginder, Jr., '31, 168 Broadway Dr., Pittsburgh 10, R. D. 6, Pres.; Rudy Crnkovic, '34, 820 E Ohio St., Pittsburgh 12, Sec.

Vincent D. Sweeney, ex. '21, publicity director for the CIO and editor of "Steel Labor" will represent Philip Murray at forthcoming labor conferences in Paris and Russia.

Maj. Larry O'Toole, and Lt. Larry O'Donnell, both '36, were home on 30-day leave recently after extended service in England, France and Germany.

Dick O'Donnell, '31, brother of Larry, and Frank, '34, is doing publicity for Ketchum, Inc., campaign directors. Dick had been on the copy desk of the "Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph."

Noel MacCarry '41, left the local bureau of the International News Service to join the staff of the Associated Press in Philadelphia.

Joe Breig, ex. '28, for 10 years on the staff of the "Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph," resigned to become assistant managing editor of the "Catholic Universe Bulletin" in Cleveland. Aside from his regular beat at City Hall, Joe had written a feature column, "One Man's Opinion" which appeared twice weekly in the "Tele." Fashioned in a readable, essay style, the column was widely read. Joe is a regular contributor to such Catholic publications as the "Pittsburgh Catholic," "Catholic Observer," "Our Sunday Visitor" and "Columbia."

The Club renewed its weekly Thursday luncheons at the Fort Pitt Hotel. Out-of-town alumni visiting Pittsburgh are invited to join the crowd each Thursday at 12:15 p.m.

The Club is arranging for a smoker on Oct. 19, the eve of the Pitt-Notre Dame game. The affair will be held at the Royal York Hotel.

Bob Hartman, has moved to Washington where he has joined the Chemical Division of the WPE.

Navy Lt. John F. Pavlick, '34, was home on a recent leave. John is a gunnery officer on a Merchant Marine ship.

John F. McMahon, '28, is chairman of the club's committee dealing with employment for local alumni returning from service. Rudy Crnkovic.

RETURN TO CHAMBERS

With the closing of the Midshipmen School, scheduled for early November, the Notre Dame Council, Knights of Columbus, will return to its former quarters in the basement of Walsh Hall. The K. of C. chambers have for much of the war been occupied by Navy offices, with the result that the Knights' activities have been centralized in an office in the former Brownson Hall in the Main Building.

Deaths

There will be little disagreement with the statement that in John Neeson's death the University lost one of her greatest alumni. Because John Neeson was a great alumnus, almost the ideal alumnus. Not on Sundays. Not during the football seasons, of which he was thoroughly appreciative. Not on the occasion of meetings of the Lay Trustees, of whom he was a valued colleague. Not during his presidency of the Alumni Association, in 1923-24, when his leadership brought so many developments, culminating in Universal Notre Dame Night and the permanence of a central office, magazine and other factors of progress among the alumni.

John Neeson, apparently from his matriculation, was a Notre Dame man twenty-four hours a day, as loyal, as enthusiastic, as generous, and as willing, as a man could be. And as representative in his life and work as the University could, ask.

John H. Neeson, '03

On Sept. 1, at the age of 61, John Neeson was found dead in his home by his wife, who, with John H. Neeson, Jr., '35, a lieutenant in the Navy, survives him. The immediate reaction was a tribute to the high civic position he had achieved as engineer and director of public works in Philadelphia. The grief and the tributes were spontaneous and universal. The "Inquirer" said, "The sudden death of John H. Neeson has deprived the city of Philadelphia of a conspicuously faithful and efficient servant. For nearly two score years this native son devoted his energies and special talents to making the community a better place in which to live." The "Record" added, "... Director Neeson was a career man enjoying a national reputation in his profession. He was never active in politics, a rare thing at City Hall. But still rarer was the fact that he was a hard worker, a real public servant. . ."

The Notre Dame loss is adequately expressed in the statement of the Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president of the University:

"When an alumnus of the University enjoys the confidence of succeeding administrations for more than forty years, and when he has portrayed in his whole life the highest ideals of his Alma Mater, little wonder it is that in his death genuine sorrow should pervade the campus he loved so tenderly.

"Ever since John Neeson was graduated in 1903, he went about doing good in his own quiet way. Bishop O'Hara beautifully characterized him in his funeral sermon when he said that he observed faithfully the two great Commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. We may be sure that the Master he served so well will richly reward him, because of his fidelity to His precepts while on earth.

"The Associate Board of Lay Trustees has lost a valued member, the Alumni Association an exemplary Notre Dame graduate, and I personally a very dear friend. Our hearts go out to his devoted wife and only son, also an alumnus of the University, as we assure them of our continued sympathy and prayers for a Notre Dame man who through unpretentious excellence in life reflected glory on us all. Peace to his great soul!"

Father O'Donnell was celebrant of the funeral Mass in Philadelphia, and the eulogy was delivered by the Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., bishop of Buffalo. J. Arthur Haley and Prof. Paul I. Fenlon, long friends of the Neeson family, were among the Notre Dame men at the funeral. The Notre Dame Club of Philadelphia, to which John Neeson never tired of giving his efforts, served as honorary pallbearers.

WOODLOCK—RYAN—McCORMACK

Notre Dame's cognizance and endorsement of Catholic leaders was emphasized in the recent death of a trio of great men whose various talents had commanded world attention, and who each bore at death the mark of approval of work well done from the University.

First to die was Thomas F. Woodlock, Laetare medalist in 1943. Mr. Woodlock, 78, former editor of the "Wall Street Journal" and since 1930 writer of the paper's column, "Thinking It Over," died in New York on Aug. 25.

Mr. Woodlock, a native of Dublin, Ireland, joined the "Journal" staff in 1892 when he migrated to the United States. He became editor in 1902, and resigned in 1905 to join S. N. Warren & Co., New York Stock Exchange firm.

He joined the American International Corp. in 1918 and later was named its secretary. While writing a daily column for the "New York Sun" he served as director of the Pere Marquette and St. Louis-San Francisco Railroads.

President Coolidge appointed him to the Interstate Commerce Commission in 1925, from which he resigned in 1930 to rejoin the "Journal."

In his latest years, Mr. Woodlock, in books and articles, became one of the foremost Catholic apologists.

Then, on Sept. 16, Msgr. John A. Ryan, 76, eminent Catholic economist, died. Father Ryan, one of the greatest figures in the Church's campaign for social justice in America, received an honorary doctorate of laws from Notre Dame in the year of the University's Diamond Jubilee, 1917. His long and brilliant career, before and after, made the award one of outstanding merit.

Msgr. Ryan, former faculty member at Catholic university, Washington, died in St. Joseph's hospital, St. Paul, Minn. He entered the hospital last June 29 following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Msgr. Ryan was ordained at St. Paul Seminary in 1898, before going to Catholic University for his doctorate. He returned to St. Paul Seminary as a member of its faculty.

In 1915 he was called to Catholic University as professor of philosophy, later becoming dean of the school of theology there. He also was a member of the faculties of Trinity College, the National Catholic School of Social Service in Washington, and was an original member of the staff of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

During NRA days he served as a member of a committee to protect small business and of the committee which drew the pattern of the social security program.

Four brothers and three sisters survive.

And on the same day, Sept. 16, in Dublin, Ireland, John McCormack died. In 1933 the great Irish tenor was awarded the Laetare Medal, and it was conferred upon him at the impressive ceremony which marked the Golden Jubilee of the Medal's establishment, in the presence of many other great Medalists on the campus of the University. McCormack's personality, his songs, and his colleagues on that occasion, formed a highlight in campus ceremonies.

The brilliant career which won the tenor a papal peerage began when McCormack was 19. An unknown from Athlone, son of a woolen mill worker, he came as a chorister in Dublin cathedral to compete against 13 tenors in Dublin's ancient concert rooms. He beat them all, won a gold medal, and was on the way to international fame.

His sweet voice and perfect diction became legendary. His Irish brogue attracted simple folk, and his thrilling rendition of Bach and Schubert held sophisticated audiences. He made "Mother Machree" and "I Hear You Calling Me" famous.

He first came to America in 1903 to sing in the Irish Village at the St. Louis World's Fair for $50 a week. There he met and courted Lily Foley of Dublin, another Irish village singer, and they were married in 1906. They had two children, besides seven adopted ones.

He came to love America as much as it loved him, and became an American citizen in 1919.

Pope Benedict XV, made him a commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great and knight commander of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre. Pope Pius XI, made him a papal count. France made him a chevalier of the Legion of Honor and the city of Dublin made him a freeman in 1923.

Lewis T. Burrige, 90, one of the oldest alumni of the University, died in early September. Mr. Burrige was a pioneer Benton Harbor, Mich., merchant. He attended Notre Dame in 1872-74.

Edward C. Brown, '99, Helena, Mont., and Earl W. Brown, '93, Townsend, Mont., brothers, both numbered among Notre Dame's most prominent and devoted alumni in the far West, died within three days of each other, last June.

Ed Brown was a member of Brown Bros. Lumber Company of Helena for a great many years and was 64. Surviving are his wife, two sons, a daughter and a grandson. He died suddenly on June 12.

Earl Brown, 75, died on June 15, also suddenly. He leaves two sons, two daughters and eight grandchildren. Like his brother Ed, he was a football player at Notre Dame and won a monogram in 1892-93.

At its deadline for this issue, the "Alumnus" heard of the death in St. Louis of John L. Corley, '02, one of the most prominent Notre Dame men in the St. Louis area. For many years, Mr. Corley had been host to the St. Louis Notre Dame Club at its annual summer outing.

A fuller account of Mr. Corley's life and death will be supplied to the "Alumnus" by the St. Louis Club for the December issue.

Harry V. Crumley, '03, Cincinnati, brother of Rev. Thomas A. Crumley, C.S.C., '96, and father of Capt. Thomas F. Crumley, ex. '40, died on Aug. 27 from a heart attack. A life-long resident of Cincinnati, Mr. Crumley was president and one of the founders of Crumley, Jones & Crumley Co., contractors. At Notre Dame he was a civil engineering classmate of John H. Neeson, who died only a few days later in Philadelphia, also from a heart attack.

Surviving Mr. Crumley, besides his son and Father Crumley, are his wife, three daughters, another brother and a sister.

Frank A. Zink, '08, Canton, O., valedictorian of his class, died in his home on May 31 from a heart attack suffered a week earlier. A life resident of Canton, he was one of the most active Catholic laymen locally and prominent in business and financial circles.

Following his graduation, Mr. Zink returned to the University to take a post-graduate course in law and to serve as instructor in Latin and Greek. He later was secretary-treasurer of the Canton City Bottling Co. In 1930 he became associated with his brother, William, in the insurance business.

Mr. Zink was a life member of St. Peter's Church in Canton, the Knights of Columbus, the Stark County Board of Elections; secretary of the Mercy Hospital board and a member of the boards of Mt. Marie Academy, Catholic Community League, Stark Federal Savings & Loan Co., and secretary of the Canton Pattern & Manufacturing Company. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, two sons, four brothers and four sisters. One of his sons, Harold, is a C.S.C. seminarian at Notre Dame.

William J. Heyl, '11, vice-president of Heyl and Patterson, Inc., Pittsburgh, died July 23 after a prolonged illness. Educated in the local parochial schools, Mr. Heyl later graduated in engineering at Notre Dame. He is survived by his wife and a brother and three sisters, all of Pittsburgh.

T. Frank McGuire, '14, died August 13. He was president of the McGuire-Woodlock Paint Co. of Chicago. Surviving are his wife and five children and his brother, James E., '19. Mr. McGuire was long an active participant in the affairs of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago.

William A. Curley, Jr., ex. '18, Chicago, died in Hines veterans' hospital on June 14. He was a former assistant city editor on the "Chicago Herald-American" and his father is the editor-in-chief of the "New York Journal-American." Mr. Curley enlisted in the Navy in 1917, the day the United States declared war against Germany.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, a daughter, his father, three sisters and one brother.

Hugo H. Voedisch, ex. '20, vice-president of the South Bend Brewing Company, died in his home on Sept. 20 of a cerebral hemorrhage. A student in the University when the United States entered world war No. 1, Hugo abandoned his studies to enlist in the Army. He is survived by his widow, a brother, John T., '28, and two sisters.

Richard J. Falvey, '23, outstanding on the campus as a top pitcher on the baseball teams of the early '20's and later a well-known Winamac, Ind., business man and farmer, died suddenly from a heart attack in his home on July 24.

Dick spent his entire 47 years as a Winamac resident, occupying the home in which he was born. Following military training during the latter part of the first world war and his years at Notre Dame, he became associated with his brother in the operation of a garage. Later he served as a state oil inspector. He was a member of the American Legion and Knights of Columbus.

Dick leaves his wife and four daughters and a brother.

Herbert W. Reed, '24, died in Valley City, O., on Sept. 8, according to brief information which just reached the Alumni Office.

The Alumni Office has just heard that Thomas F. Ryan, '26, Trenton, N. J., died on April 26, 1943.

Francis J. McGreal, '31, Chicago, assistant United States attorney, and head of the criminal division in the office of the U. S. attorney, died Aug. 24 as the result of complications following an emergency appendectomy.

Frank was first appointed to the U. S. attorney's office in October, 1939, and was rapidly promoted, becoming head of the criminal division in June, 1945. He had been in charge of prosecuting several notable cases and was widely recognized as an attorney of exceptional ability, one who carried out in his work the distinctive promise he had shown as a prominent undergraduate at Notre Dame.

Frank obtained his law degree from the Chicago Law School. He was admitted to practice in Illinois in June, 1935.

Surviving are Frank's wife, three sons, a daughter, his parents, a brother and three sisters.

Eugene I. Cattie, '37, Philadelphia, owner and pilot of the plane in which he crashed, died on July 7 shortly after being admitted to the hospital. A friend who was a passenger escaped with minor bruises and cuts.

Gene was an official of the Cattie Galvanizing Co. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, his parents, three brothers, all in the Navy, Joseph, '38, Jules, '45, and Jerrett, '47, and four sisters.

Martin Dolak, Jr., ex. '38, Youngstown, O., died of complications following an operation. He had been in ill health for some time. Martin had been in the grocery business in Youngstown with his father. Besides his wife, he leaves his parents, and three sisters.

The "Alumnus" extends sincere sympathy to Father Raymond Murray, C.S.C., '18, T. Frank, '25 and William B., '32, Murray on the death of their mother; Father Philip Beaghan, C.S.C., '19, on the death of his father; Father James W. Connerton, C.S.C., '20, on the death of his sister; Marcellus Kirchner, '29, on the death of his father; Prof. Frank Moran, '27, on the death of his brother who was killed in the service in Europe; Thomas F. Byrne, '28, on the death of his father; Father Louis J. Putz, C.S.C., '32, on the death of his father and family; Prof. John F. Nims, '37, on the death of his father; Frank Cosgrove, '38, on the death of his father; Lt. Walter J. Harris, '38, on the death of his father; John P. Donnelly, '39, on the death of his mother; John E., '39, and Robert D., ex. '43, McAuliffe, on the death of their father, the family of John J. McGinnis on the death of Mr. McGinnis, father of Cpl. John J. McGinnis, Jr., ex. '44, who was killed in action May 3, 1945 on Mindanao.

PERSONALS

1890-99 Rev. J. A. MacNamara, '97, St. Joseph's Mineral Baths Mount Clemens, Mich.

From Father John Mac (who this year, for the first time, will be unable to attend the Army-Notre Dame game):

"No doubt, like myself you were stunned to hear of John Neeson's death. Last night when reading the obituary notices in Sunday's 'New York Times,' I came on it suddenly and it hit me like a bolt from the blue. I'm still dazed by it. . . . I was just about to answer a letter I had received from him three weeks ago. I had written him for some information I wanted and incidentally had handed on to him the attendance record for the Notre Dame-Army game. He refused to accept it and in characteristic fashion said he expected to see me as large as ever at the game. . . . John's death is an awful blow to his friends and an irreparable loss to Notre Dame and our alumni. Genial, kindly and lovable, he was the ideal Notre Dame man—there may have been his equal, but there never was or will be his superior."

From Hugh C. Mitchell C.E., '95; B.S. '98: ". . . I fully agree with you that Notre Dame 'is still the Notre Dame of old, changed perhaps in appearance, but the same in heart,' because those things that are Notre Dame cannot change. 'The old order changeth, giving place to new' may apply to customs and forms, but not to faith and moral standards. It is good to remember this now, when human traditions are going overboard so frequently, giving place to things that may never become traditions.

"At some later time, perhaps, the battered remains of the Class of '95 may rendezvous on the porch of Sorin Hall, and gazing at its protecting cover, wonder if it was placed there to protect a softening generation or because it was made necessary by the increased aggressiveness of the successors to the 'water commissioners' of the eighteen-nineties. Perhaps Father Ill may know—; please give him my loving regards."

Marcellus L. Joslyn, '93, Chicago, after 50 years with the Joslyn Manufacturing and Supply Co., resigned as president. He will retire from active participation in the business, but will remain in an advisory capacity as chairman of the board.

1913 Paul R. Byrne, University Library, Notre Dame, Ind.

A FRIEND OF THE YANKS

Keene Fitzpatrick, of San Francisco, is president (and has been since he helped organize it in March, 1943) of Friends of the Yanks, Inc., a local voluntary civilian organization of 275 prominent business men and some business women who devote themselves to the welfare of men and women in service.

Friends of the Yanks does "anything" for service people—and does it quickly in response to emergency needs: it has distributed millions of cigarettes to wounded men in the area; sent Christmas gifts overseas; gathered and distributed thousands of books and thousands of pictures, collected all sorts of athletic equipment, luggage, etc., and has paid for the construction and furnishing of day rooms in army camps and hospital. There is no paid staff—all work is done by volunteers.

Now that the shooting war is over, Friends of the Yanks is devoting itself in a special way to the needs of occupation troops, to the wounded veterans and to the reorientation of veterans in civilian life.

Keene has generously accepted the chairmanship of the Vocational Committee of the Notre Dame Club of Northern California and he will be particularly glad to assist any Notre Dame veteran in the San Francisco area. His office (along with the Friends of Yanks office) is at 155 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

Mary Ann Fitzpatrick, daughter of Keene, was married in Palo Alto, Calif., on Aug. 4, to Lt. Robert Sala.

Jim O'Brien is now in charge of veterans' affairs in the employment department of the Detroit Edison Co. Jim was for a time on lend-lease from Detroit Edison for service with Army ordnance.

1914 Frank H. Hayes, 642 Third Ave., Chula Vista, Calif.

After extensive service overseas, Maj. Gen. Francis P. Mulcahy is stationed at the Division of Aviation, Headquarters, Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.

1915 James E. Sanford, 5236 N. Lakewood Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Little has been heard from and of Hilton W. Goodwyn, who received both a Litt.B. and a LL.B. in 1915, but on the strength of his academic background and outstanding marks, his success seemed assured. In late July, the news was received that Mr. Goodwyn was actively campaigning as a candidate for the state legislature in the Democratic primary held in Richmond, Va.

It was with regret that the Alumni Office received the announcement of Rev. Patrick H. Dolan's intention to leave his parish and South Bend indefinitely because of ill health. Father Dolan, pastor of St. Patrick's Church for five years, has become known throughout the city because of his active interest in civic affairs, president of the South Bend Community Fund, director of the speakers' bureau of the United War Chest, a member of the executive board of the St. Joseph County Council, Boy Scouts of America, a Rotarian and a member of the South Bend Country Club.

1917 B. J. Voll, 206 E. Tatt St., South Bend, Ind.

With his son, who was registering to enter school in 1946, George Shanahan of Lima, O., visited the campus recently.

1920 Leo B. Ward, 1012 Black Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

Dick Muckerman, former vice-president of the St. Louis Browns, recently became president of the club. He is also vice-president of the City Ice and Fuel Co., and is associated with numerous other businesses in St. Louis.

Al Ryan of Buffalo, N. Y., is director of sales of the Houde Engineering Division of the Hou-daille-Hershey Corp., 537 E. Delevan St.

1922 Gerald Ashe, 19 Dorking Road, Rochester, N. Y.

From Kid Ashe:

Kenn Nyhan has reported in from Toledo that everything is fine in that section except the food situation. He has not entered the Maritime Service, but is making the boat run to Cedar Point, O., quite regularly.

According to the public press, Major Eddie Anderson of the medical forces is expected back at Iowa University some time this year. He left his position of head coach of football at Iowa to assume Army medical duties. Clem Crowe, last year at N. D., is boss for the present season.

John Paul Cullen has made another generous offering of first editions to the University Library at Notre Dame. Some of the books donated are:

"Night Barn," by Jack London, "Arlie Gelston" by Roger Serjel, Osa Johnson's "I Married Adventure," Marrell's "The 25th Man" and Irving Stone's "Sailor on Horseback."

We learn on excellent authority that in one of the volumes donated by J. P. was found a fifty dollar war bond which J. P. had been using for a book mark. It might be well and profitable for friends of the Cullens to cultivate the habit of borrowing books from the Cullen library.

Father Robert Sheehan, C.S.C., has been transferred from the University of Portland, Oregon, to Notre Dame, according to official announcement. Father Bob matriculated with our class, and was one of the foot soldiers of Company 2, Sorin Barracks, in World War I.

An Army Lieutenant in Guadalcanal who was very close to Lt. Arnold McGrath, '22, when he was killed in an explosion last January, reports that Arnold was liked by everybody who served with him. A recent issue of the 'Alumnus' carried the news that a recreation field on Guadalcanal was named McGrath Field in memory of Arnold.

Frank Bloemer of Louisville, who visited the campus with his wife and two daughters in August said that Dr. John Mohardt had received his discharge from the service. John's last service appointment was at Nichols Hospital, Louisville.

1923 Paul H. Castner, 26 Hoyt Ave., New Canaan, Conn.

Linus Glotzbach, Minneapolis, personnel director of Northwest Airlines, has been named executive assistant to the president. Linus directed the staffing of all Northwest's war projects, with personnel expanding from approximately 800 before the war to a peak of more than 10,000.

1924 J. F. Hayes, 393 - 7th Ave., Room 1515, New York City.

Ray Brady, formerly assistant county attorney of Salt Lake County and formerly assistant city attorney of Salt Lake City, has been released from active duty by the AAF. He was called to active duty from reserve status August, 1941, and rose to the rank of Lieutenant colonel.

Another lieutenant colonel, Bob Riordan, was, at the latest report, headed toward the

One of two survivors of the 17 chaplains with Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright during the battle of Bataan is MAJOR JOHN E. DUFFY, '23. Father Duffy's experiences are legion. During the "death march" he fainted twice. The first time he was revived by a Japanese guard who gave him tea and biscuits and told him to keep up or he would be shot. The second time he was given up for dead.

"I guess I didn't respond to revival attempts," Father Duffy said, "for I was given up for dead. Later I was picked up by Philippine guerrilla soldiers. . . . I lived for two weeks in a fishpond during the daytime to escape the Japanese." Later, the Japanese captured him.

"Once at Oolangpoo naval base we were placed in a tennis court, 1,300 of us. There was only one spigot of water and we took turns drinking at it. We were kept in the Philippines a long time until we were shipped to Moji in Japan. During this trip there were as many as 500 persons in one hold. Allied planes bombed us one day and nearly half of us were killed.

"When we got to the Mukden camp," Father Duffy said, "we were treated much better. One Japanese doctor should get a medal from the U. S. Government for the way he bought and procured medical supplies for us."

Father Duffy, a priest of the Toledo diocese, has been an Army chaplain since 1933.

Pacific. His wife and nine children have taken up residence in Ludington, Mich., from whence the two oldest boys, Mike and Tom, will come to Notre Dame in November to matriculate as freshmen.

1925 John P. Hurley, AFD, American Red Cross, Camp Patrick Henry, Virginia.

Jim Crowley, commissioner, presided at a meeting in Chicago of the All-American Football Conference. He gave a partial list of the headliners signed by various All-American teams. Among them are Angelo Bertelli with Los Angeles and Herb Coleman, Lou Rymkus, '43, Dippy Evans, '43, and Creighton Miller, '44 with Cleveland.

From Myron Hood, Cincinnati, with a war bond:

"I've been 'dead' a long time, but the good fathers at Notre Dame taught me and the rest of us that we should believe in resurrection. It wouldn't be fair to let them down or in any way try to prove them wrong, so here I am, back again.

"Will be glad when transportation is such that I can come back in person. Have six children who will like to see Notre Dame."

Ben Kesting, Toledo, county engineer of Lucas County since 1933, resigned recently to become associated with L. Compe of Toledo in the construction business. Ben had been elected four times to his county post. He has two boys at Notre Dame.

1926 Victor F. Lemmer, Box 661, Ironwood, Mich.

Camp Atterbury, Ind., in early August brought together, for the first time in 19 years, Lt. Col. John Worden Kane, Binghampton, N. Y., and the managing editor of the "Alumnus." "Wa" was head of neuro-surgery in the Wakeman Hospital Center at Camp Atterbury after long service in England.

Joe Boland, conductor of nearby '27 doings, tried to claim Mike Bolger of Detroit for the Boland news center, thinking that Mike had taken that extra year to play on the refectory head table team, or something. Happily, the sly attempt was thwarted by wide-awake editing, and so we can report here that Mike was in South Bend and on the campus in August. He saw Boland and tried to see Dooley, who was on vacation. Mike is still with the Fisher Body Corp.

Vic Lemmer got out some letters in August to assorted '26ers and there were some results—one of them tragic: for the first time, the Alumni Office, and most of the class we're sure, heard of the death, on April 26, 1943, of Thomas F. Ryan, Trenton, N. J. No details came with the notification of Tom's death.

And, then, to make you check back on those passing years, there was Art Bidwill's letter with the news that he had just taken his oldest son to Notre Dame to register him for the term starting next March. As far as the elderly managing editor knows, Art will be the first '26 man to have a son on the campus. Any competitors?

Jerry Smith, manager for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co. in Kansas City, Mo., says that Rome Dugan is the closest approach to a '26 man that he sees—but he sees Rome about once a week. Jerry was up to the campus last fall for the Great Lakes game.

Charlie Moloney, with Walgreen Drug Stores for 18 years, is now director of merchandising in the Walgreen home office at 744 Bowen Ave., Chicago 15, according to his letter to Vic, accompanied by a gift to the Third Annual Alumni Fund.

Jim Glynn wrote to Vic from his office at 3322 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 5, where he is in charge of West Coast sales for the Anchor Hocking Glass Corp. Just a week before, Jim had seen in San Diego Joe Wagner, formerly of Tiffin, O., who is now associated with the U. S. Grant Hotel in San Diego. And on the day he wrote Jim was to have lunch with Marty Brill, of post '26 football fame, who is a salesman for the Alfred Hart Distilleries Co.

1927 Joseph M. Boland, Radio Station WSBT, South Bend, Ind.

From Joe Boland:

Walter W. "Red" Smith joined the sports staff of the New York "Herald-Tribune" Sept. 24. Red had been on the Philadelphia "Record" since 1936, following eight years' service on the St. Louis "Star-Times."

Tom Nash—now engaged in his own contracting business in Chicago—took time-out to watch the Yankees-White Sox in a double-header recently, where we ran into him. Tom reports that his old roomie, Joe Della Maria, is his next-door neighbor.

Richard "Red" Smith—(he's the other Red). . . has reported to the New York football Giants, for his work with them as line coach. Should the Chicago Cubs get into the World Series, then Red will take a leave-of-absence from the Glants to re-join the Bruins for the Big Show!

Capt. (Chaplain) Jim Moran sent along the following letter along with his generous contribution to the Alumni Fund:

"I'm over in the Philippines. Assure you it is no fun to be with the Infantry when they are in combat, but so far I have come out pretty lucky. 1927 is a long way off but still it seems like not so long ago.

"Quite often I run into a Notre Damer. I used to hit Joe McCabe skipper on an LST. It paid off too because I used to go aboard and get a good meal once in a while. He's from Detroit.

"Had the best meal I've had since I left the States with Ed. M. Sullivan from Chicago. He's skipper on an LST. After putting up with army meals for a long time, I went aboard and he gave me all the steak and french fried potatoes that I could eat."

Slim pickin's pals, I know; but—how about a note or three to me, at the above address?

Here's a couple of addresses possibly overlooked in past reports:

Joe Griffin, '28, is a special agent with the Aetna Fire Group of insurance companies. Office, 410 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago.

Col. James Fenton McManmon, a Princeton All-American, brother of John and Art, and holder of the Legion of Merit, has been nominated by President Truman for temporary promotion to the rank of brigadier general in the United States Army.

Lt. (sg) Cletus S. Bauworth dropped in at the University enroute to the Bureau of Personnel in Washington, D. C.

Dan Cunningham, now with General Electric, expects to be traveling often to the G.E. Fort Wayne, Ind., plant and will be stopping off to renew old acquaintances at Notre Dame.

Sgt. Chuck Beretz got back from Germany early in July and a little later was discharged from service. In the best Beretz manner he writes, "I had a lot of fun over there and came back in one piece and still fat as hell."

1928 Louis F. Buckley, 617 Lincolnway West, Mishawaka, Ind.

Good to hear from Major Guy Lorange of Rantoul, Ill., on Aug. 14. . . . "I arrived home recently after being overseas for two years in the New Guinea and Philippine campaigns where I was a member of the medical staff of the Fifth Field Hospital and also had command of one of the units of the hospital. I am home on the point system and soon may be in civilian life again. My best regards to all."

John Rickord has been promoted to assistant manager of the quality control department at Armour & Co., Chicago.

Lou Buckley, the 17-year veteran of secretarying for the class of '28—and could any one, anywhere find a more loyal, effective secretary?—left in mid-September for Biarritz, France, where for the next year he will teach economics in the Army University Study Center. (We'll give you a more exact address for him as soon as we get it).

Before he left the U.S.A., and even while he was scurrying around in search of uniforms, Louie, in his habitually efficient way, asked Father Jim McShane, S.J., Joe Langton, Bob Evans and John McMahon to contribute '28 news for this issue of the "Alumnus." Here is the response:

Father Jim, giving missions "from St. Paul to Albuquerque," writes: "Back from the Pacific—John M. Carroll, Springfield, Ill., is home on a 30-day furlough—a commander in the Seabees. Vince Walsh is planning to make a stowaway out of me and drive me, a la hitch hike, to Mexico.

"Bill Neff once lived in Illiopolis, Ill. Now he is just about the outstanding leader in Catholic Action in the diocese of Bismarck, N. D. You remember he finished his Ph.D. in education at Stanford and now is superintendant of schools in Mandan, N. D. . . . His wife is a fine girl. Maybe you met the two of them when they spent a summer at Notre Dame recently. Now that they have taken up Spanish they have a 'discussion group' of Spanish speaking workers on their front porch once in a while.

"When I am in St. Louis I enjoy the St. Louis Club meetings. I taught a number of the St. Louisans who went to N. D.: Fehlig, Wrape, Norb Hunthausen, Mangelsdorf, Capt. Jim Wrape was co-pilot for the commanding officer at Great Bend (B-29) base in Kansas. He had finished his missions in the ETO. Gene Fehlig had a marvelous escape on D-Day when a bullet stopped inside his helmet.

"I haven't been to Collegeville, Minn., since Joe Benda left his coaching job there, but I shook the Benda hand there one beautiful fall day on the practice field. I visited Em Hynes who used to be at N. D. Is Ray Mock still in the Navy? I heard from him down in Texas.

"Father J. Hugh O'Donnell lectured in Springfield, Ill., at the spot where Neenan conducts his orchestra. As you may guess, the "Victory March" was the introduction. Did I tell you I met Jim Bray on the "L" after seeing a Northwestern game, and Ange Galdabini. Ange is almost a real estate operator, he bought such a large spot on Whitefish Bay."

Phillips Petroleum's Joe Langton, father of two girls and a boy, the youngest being Mike, now two, reports that the only '28er he's met in his two and a half years in St. Louis is Father Jim McShane, and that was a year ago at a St. Louis Club meeting. Father Jim had just come in from giving a mission in Algona, Ia., where Wade Sullivan, '26, is postmaster. Joe hears about Carroll Pinkley who, at the latest report, was still at Ft. Sheridan, near Chicago.

Joe occasionally sees Dr. Bert Coughlin, Jerry Arnold and Fred Weber of St. Louis and he met Capt. Dan O'Grady, philosophy prof on leave for Army service, when Dan was stationed at Jefferson Barracks, near St. Louis.

From John McMahon:

Comes one of those periodic postcards from Louie Buckley, '28's Old Faithful, requesting class notes for Dooley, and soon. Look, Louie—you siphoned off my depleted stock a year or so ago and there's been no chance for a refill. My first reaction to the appeal was, "why pick on me?" Then I got to thinking about the loyal way you have carried the column these 17 years. Democracy was working at its best when we elected you class secretary. But then ours was a brilliant class and such an intelligent selection was only to be expected. Even so, you have well merited the "distinguished service" badge for '28ers.

Yes, I know you asked for NEWS but you've struck a dry socket. Now, "let me see." (With finger figuratively pointed at temple). Well, Fritz Wilson and your correspondent helped promote the Pittsburgh Club's annual retreat at St. Paul's Monastery here months ago, back when the snow lay around about Jack Shedy, another '28'er, was among the pious clients. When at lunch in the various McSorley institutions hereabouts, I see John occasionally for a "hello." Lt. Jim Calles, USNR, my one-time fellow townsman, was far off aboard a man o' war the last I heard. Good news to note that Lt. Bob Koer is back from the wars.

Trying to report on old classmates brings you face to the fact that the rushing years continually widen the breaches of contact. Nor did the loss of our 15th reunion do anything to help. Time's artillery is shelling most of us, leaving balding heads, furrowed brows and expanding girths—God help us! One is assailed by the unhappy thought that by now '28ers probably pass on the street and fail to recognize each other.

Yea, yea—but I told you I didn't have any news! All right, I'll try again.

Bill Mahin holds a responsible research post for Westinghouse Electric, I'm told, but we never see him. George Kelly continues as "city editor" of the "Youngstown Vindicator," according to last advices. Speaking of Kelly's and '28 journalists, "what ever became" of "Turk?" And while on the subject of "Turks," Meinert might as well have taken the veil for all we see of him. I saw Charlie Totten last Universal N.D. Night and we hear of his continued golf triumphs from time to time. It must be grand to play that kind of game. Remember the Erskine course and the long trek it was out there, and Chain-o-Lakes? What a lot of puddles that layout had! (Ah, the misty past 'ere the campus boasted a golf course.)

Joe Canty and I exchanged dispatches on Christmas cards each year. He's a legal light in Columbus. With gas rationing lifted, maybe we can do something about that get-together we've been threatening. Art (Red) Canty, once of Batavia, N. Y., is located in San Marino, Calif. Dick Greene, who came from Joliet, is another case for the Missing Persons Bureau, along with Jim Morrissey. Art Slavin, then of Rochester, N. Y., is now in Milwaukee. Joe Breig of our vintage left the "Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph" recently to become assistant managing editor of three Catholic weeklies in Ohio—Cleveland, Toledo and Youngstown. He is in Cleveland. Bernie Garber and I have an occasional session in New York. I always forget to ask about his old townsman, Harold Canavan. There are so many like that of whom we never hear hide nor hair and wonder about at times, as:

Dick Elpers, the Boy brothers, Al Teban, Tony Ceres, Troy Bonner (from Old Mississipp.), Maurice McMenamin, Joe (Blue Circle) Doran, Tom Lavalie, Joe Brannon, the Murphy brothers from Pine Bluff, Art Denchfield, Dave Gibson, Big Ed McSweeney and on and on.

But then it was 21 Septembers ago that the Class of '28 was born. And the years between have been "the tumult of the time disconsolate," with depressions, wars, conversion, re-conversion, life and death. God speed our '28'ers now returning from the wars and a prayer for those who sleep.

Yes, we are long overdue for a reunion, for a chance to form ranks again. I move you, Mr. Secretary, that it be scheduled soon and to last about a week!

For succeeding issues of the "Alumnus" during his absence from the country in 1945-46 Louie Buckley is asking the following to take over in his place: December, 1945, issue, Bill Kearney and Bernie Garber; February, Jack Mullen and Henry Hasley; April, Bob Grant and Paul Brust; June, Tom Byrne and Jack Lavelle; August, Bob Kirby and Art Mitiguy; October, John Igoo and Dave Smith; December, Herb McCabe and Leo McIntyre. News is due in the Alumni Office the fifteenth of the month preceding publication. The Alumni Office will send notifications to each pair of men well in advance of the date their news is due.

1929 Major Joseph P. McNamara, 1314 N. Court House Rd., Arlington, Va.

Lt. Com. Harley McDewitt, U.S.N.R., has donated two volumes to the Notre Dame Library. One is a beautifully printed and illustrated volume on "Knots" and the other is the recently published "Lake Superior," one of the best of the popular Great Lakes series. Harley is attached to the midshipmen school at Columbia University.

Father Lou Thornton, C.S.C., who was in N. Y. C. with Bishop O'Hara, is now an assistant in New Orleans in Sacred Heart parish.

Father Joseph Barry, C.S.C., Army chaplain, wrote that he flew from Munich to Paris to London to Glasgow, then took a boat to Ireland. (This was written in the first part of August.) He concluded his letter with, "hope to see you in September."

Lt. Col. Tommy Qualters, former bodyguard for the late President Roosevelt, has been awarded the Legion of Merit for his service with the CIC Detachment of the AAF in Italy. He has been with the AAF since May, 1942.

1930 Harold E. Duke, 4030 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Lt. Cmdr. Ted Twomey has been assigned officer in charge of physical training and the cadet regiment at the U. S. Naval Air Station in Norman, Okla. After receiving his indoctrination at Annapolis in June, 1942, Ted saw duty at NAS, Melbourne, Fla., for 18 months before joining the staff of Fleet Air Wing II.

Father Joe Kmiecik, C.S.C., has been assigned to the AAF overseas replacement depot. Kearns, Utah, after serving in the Aleutians from March, 1943 to June, 1945.

Bob Haggerty of Toledo, O., has been promoted to captain at the Rock Island Ordnance Center in Illinois. Walt Parent's new address is 1405 Dover Rd., Santa Barbara, Calif.

Joe Abbott has been promoted to the position of personnel manager of the Federal Telephone and Radio Corp., Newark, N. J. He was assistant personnel manager.

1st Lt. Tom Traugher, with the Eighth Air Force in England for two years in the JAG department, returned to the U.S.A. this summer for reassignment. He and the managing ed met up at Camp Atterbury in August when the N. D. baseball team played there.

1931 John F. Saunders, Early & Moor, Inc., 139 Blackstone St., Boston, Mass.

You know by now how effectively Jack Saunders has taken hold as class secretary: a letter to each member of the class and a class list, with addresses, to each member. And besides Jack has great plans in the making for the fifteenth reunion of the class which, it is hoped, can be held on the campus some time next summer. (Concrete plans for such a reunion have to await a definite announcement by the University as to when the three-semester-per-year plan now in operation can be discontinued. While this plan remains in force reunions cannot be held).

Jack has in mind, to commemorate the fifteenth reunion, a class book that "would carry a few sentences from each class member telling of his doings since June of '31." Jack continues: "It sounds like quite an undertaking, but as a matter of fact the individual contribution from each class member wouldn't be much, and the folks in my office here would do the assembling, filing and making ready for either mimeographing or printing. If enough members of the class write that they approve, we can appoint committees and promptly get to work. . . ."

So there you are—a generous offer if we ever saw one? Be sure to write to Jack at once that you approve and will cooperate.

Further to organize the fifteenth reunion, Jack has appointed regional chairmen and associate regional chairmen to "beat the drums" in their respective territories. These gentlemen are: Eastern Region—Dan Halpin, chairman; Bob Baffe, Dick O'Donnell and Bob Massey; Midwestern Region—Eddie Ryan, chairman, Dan Clark, Al Grisanti, Joe Deeb, Joe Lauerman and Ken Fishleigh; Southwest Division—Bert Maloney, chairman, Haskell Askew and Bill Morphy; Pacific Coast Division—Matt Cullinan, chairman, Hennie Roehl, Dick Baker, Paul Cushing and Walt Beesley.

And now, with a low bow of real gratitude to Jack, who has done all this work "on his own," we give you the earlier returns in response to his letter to each class member:

Dick Baker (Philosophy Department, St. Mary's College, California): Reports that, after nine years teaching Philosophy at Nazareth College in Kalamazoo, he has taken a similar position at St. Mary's. Presently, Dick is living at the college and in his spare time trying to find a house so that he can bring his wife and two daughters out to the west coast.

The Navy has taken over most of the campus at St. Mary's for its Pre-Flight School, but the college has enough room to take care of the reduced enrollment. Jim Phelan, is coach of the St. Mary's College team. Dick and Jim have had several talks about Notre Dame in the "old" days. Frank Leahy is in this vicinity acting as some sort of navy supervisor, but Dick hasn't had a chance to talk to him as yet. So far he hasn't had much opportunity to look up any of the other Notre Dame grads in Oakland or San Francisco.

Joe Lauerman (Executive Offices Marinette Knitting Mills, Marinette, Wisc): Hasn't heard from Tom Ashe since Tom left the west coast for "somewhere in the Pacific." Joe has recently had a letter from Johnny Dorschel, now in Chicago where he ably represents an engineering firm. Joe looks forward to meeting up with many of his friends at one of the football games this season.

Jack Dempsey (Bouck, Hilton & Dempsey, Attorneys-at-Law, First National Bank Bldg., Oshkosh, Wis.):

"So we have our 15th Reunion coming up! Remember when we looked upon the boys of '16 as blood brothers of the Plitdown Man? Next June we will probably have advanced to that classification in the eyes of the boys of the class of '46. As for myself, I'll match my hair and waistline with any member of '31. Also, as to kids, the present count is four—Tom, Jerry, Mary and Mary Susan. Of course, I do not know the present score of Al Stepan. I plan to attend the reunion and hope to see Bill O'Brien, Austin Boyle, Ed Mehren, John Zaback and the other fellows who worked with me on the 'Juggler.' Those in the armed forces will probably be released as over-age destroyers by next June and will be in position to attend.

"Brother Joe, '33, is a flag lieutenant for some Navy brass at Manila. He was in the Armed Guard from August of '42 to September of '44. Brother George, '39, was killed in Italy in June of '44 (August, '44, 'Alumnus').

"This is the first report I have made to any of the '31 secretaries; perhaps I'll make another before 1960."

Walt Cahill (Business Department, Board of Education, City of Chicago, 356 Builders Bldg., 228 North LaSalle Street Chicago.):

"Talked to Jim Griffin yesterday. He, as you know, is coordinator of safety for the Board of Education and also a teacher in the Physical Education Department. Dave Rush is also connected with the system as a teacher at Austin High. Don Partlan has been in the Army for over two years and at present is in Germany, but we expect him home around November.

"No doubt, you have heard the sad news of Frank McGreal's death, which came right on the heels of his swell promotion in the D. A.'s Office.

"Bert Maloney was in town about a month ago. He and family are located in Austin, Texas, where he has his own agency for International Harvester Co. in the truck division, and is very successful. Bill Leahy is doing a bang up job for Victor Adding in their reconversion program, and as for me, I am now paymaster of the Board of Education and am being kept busy paying 22,000 employees every two weeks."

Charles "The Red" Wells (G and S Distributing Co., 415 Fourth Ave., Nashville, 10, Tenn.): Has since 1938 been doing very well in the wholesale beer business in the "Athens of the South"—The C. S. Wells have a 13-year old boy—The old Paducah pal of Brother "Zip" would be pleased to tour any and all N. D.'ers about Nashville.

Bill Karl, 2115 F Street, N.W., Washington, 7, D. C.): "I have been employed as a civilian marine engineer at the Navy Department's Bureau of Ships since 1938 so that I was able to witness and take part in the complete 'Battle of the Potomac.' My work has dealt with the development design of patrol boats including those torpedo boats which made such a fine record during the war. My marital status remains—single.

"The Washington N. D. alumni had a meeting of its Board of Governors last night and Lt. Col. Oonie Donovan put in a surprise appearance. He is on his way back from Italy and is preparing to return to civilian life. Louie Buckley, '28, was there too—he is leaving Sunday for Biarritz, France where he will spend about a year teaching in the U. S. Army school.

"Offhand, I can't think of anyone from the class of '31 down here even though Washington boasts of over 200 N. D. men—a good many of whom are here for the duration only."

Vern Knox, (Lawyer, Crystal Lake, Ill.): Last fall it was a real pleasure to see Vern and his folks when they were in Boston for the Dartmouth-N. D. game. He writes:

"I am practicing law here in Crystal Lake and have been getting along fairly well.

"I do not see very many of our class since most of the ones I knew well in this area are in the service. Al Stepan lives here in Crystal Lake and I see him quite often. I also see Walt Kelly here occasionally. I hear from Jim Rich occasionally and at the present time he is in Germany."

Ralph Dalton, (Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., 511 Kimber Court, Danville, Ill.): "I am still an employee of Uncle Sam and have orders to report to the Ninth Naval District for demobilization as I now have 55 points. I have not run into many Notre Dame men in my wanderings around the world but still keep in close contact with Rev. Bourke Motsett of Gibson City, Ill., and James T. Doyle of Chicago, Ill. I am returning to my former position as treasurer and manager of the Dr. Pepper plant as soon as I am mustered out of the service and will try to struggle along in spite of the 50 percent sugar rationing, which has hurt our business a great deal in the past three years.

"You can count on my being at the reunion in 1946."

Dan Clark, (President, Clark's Lunch Rooms, Inc., 104 No. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.): "Not much news with me, just pounding day after day. That which was in my hair much of the time the last two or three years, food and help shortages, seems to be lifting somewhat. My sleep is coming with more regularity now, if that means anything, but my hair is becoming vastly reduced in acreage at the same time. Never the twain shall meet does not apply to me in this instance.

"Hope to see you this fall during the football season. We have a rotten schedule for home consumption, and we South Benders don't deserve such a break. Hugh Devore is doing a great job, and a thankless job at that, as head coach. He is a swell fellow and certainly deserves the backing of everyone."

Bill Cassidy (President & General Manager, The Jackson Box Co., Cincinnati, 12, (Norwood) O.) "I heartily agree that the blank under 1931 in the 'Alumnus' stood out like a sore thumb and that I had wondered why many times.

"Throughout the war years we have been so very busy manufacturing shipping containers that I had very little time to see any of our classmates, although prior to that I used to run into various people from time to time. This company has also recently acquired a corporation in North Carolina which of course involves a fair amount of time.

"In a personal way, we have three very fine youngsters at home—two boys, ages 9 and 2 and one daughter, age 7. We certainly hope to send the boys to Notre Dame one of these days."

Al Roche, Probation Examiner, New York State Department of Correction, Rochester, N. Y.: Al has had this job for the past eight years, and he likes it and likes Rochester. He occasionally sees classmates Bob Callahan, Marty Dowling, Johanny Dorschel, Walt Murphy and Bob Precott. And he'd like to hear from his Notre Dame friends.

Jack Saunders, and of course the Alumni Office, would like to have current addresses for many '31 men who are at present "MRU" (mail returned unclaimed) in the alumni files. Will any one who knows the whereabouts of any of the following, please notify either Jack or the Alumni Office:

Frederick W. Armstrong, William F. Artmann, Robert Louis Baer, Roy C. Bailie, Joseph F. Bartone, Harold L. Bennett, Arthur C. Bergen, James F. Bourdeau, Maurice E. Brunigan, Richard J. Breen, William M. Brown.

Charles D. Carr, Augusto C. Catanjal, Albert Cowless, Philip H. Duffy, Robert E. Duffy, Alvaro Ferlini, Oliver E. Field, William J. Flahaver, John M. Gorra, Jose M. Hernandez.

Hubert E. Hogan, Edward J. Hosinski, Andrew J. Kata, Morton B. Keegan, Francis X. Kosky, Charles J. Kovnec, Edward Lackaff, Richard N. Lacy, Freeman H. Longwell, John J. Maloney.

John W. Manley, George L. O'Connor, Edward J. O'Dea, Joseph V. O'Rourke, Charles C. Pollaski, Wilton J. Sherman, Charles A.

Smith, Ambrose M. Stoepler, James M. Strong, Francis J. Svoboda.

Tom Magee of Paterson, N. J., was released from service in May. He is working as health education secretary for the Passaic County Tuberculosis and Health Assoc. Lt. Tom Oester, M.C., is stationed at Percy Jones Hospital in Battle Creek, Mich. . . . and Paul Koprowski is teaching at St. Teresa's College, Winona, Minn.

T/5 Carl Garmire, Bridgman, Mich., has arrived in the Philippine Islands with an Army Postal Unit shipped directly from France. Joining the attack in France on D plus seven, Carl was wounded before the end of the month and hospitalized. For his battle participation, he was awarded the combat infantry badge, and also wears the Purple Heart.

Capt. Jim Hughes, whose wife lives in Columbus, O., was graduated from the AAF School of Aviation Medicine, Randolph Field, Texas, on Sept. 15.

1932 Lt. James K. Collins, 1135 Manchester Ave., Norfolk, Va.

From Jim Collins:

Two very welcome visitors were here last month in the persons of Joe Kennedy and John Ferone. Both were drafted into the Navy and each has the rating of seaman, first class now.

Joe was superintendent of a number of offices of the U. S. Employment Service in the vicinity of New Haven. He was sent to radar school and is doing that work now aboard the Hubbard, a destroyer transport. He expects to be a civilian again soon.

Describing just what Ferone is up to is a little more difficult. He was discovered at Mass by Don Ryan, who brought him over to my house, where he has spent most of his free time since. He is more adept than ever with sleight-of-hand and card tricks, with all the embellishments which come with years of practice. He is stationed here in the dubious situation of waiting for a new ship which probably will never be built now. In the meantime he is impatiently waiting for the day he will return to his wife and three children in Buffalo. He was the production manager of the Bell Aircraft plant in Buffalo before entering the Navy. He mentioned that he often saw Bill Hall and Joe Dunn there.

John Litcher writes from Tokyo Bay that his outfit expects to be the last one to leave that part of the world to return home. He further states that, "Jack Werner reported here as a relief about two months ago, and is an operations duty officer with our outfit. I have run into both Carroll and Seton Staley (the Cincinnati twins) several times at my favorite drinking spa, which incidentally boasts the largest bar in the world (330 feet) and a non-ending supply of 20-cent Scotch. One of the twins is on an ICS and the other on an ammunition ship. None of the other N. D. fellows I see are from our era there—they don't even remember the 'Cotillon of Charm.'"

Father Henry Heintskill wrote from his home in Milwaukee, where he was spending a well-earned 30-day leave after sea duty as chaplain on the Tulagi. He mentioned that he had a fine visit with Father Hack Wilson on the campus recently.

Lt. Walt Phillips, '31, is on duty here now, and Ens. Andy Pilney was detached from the Norfolk Air Station, where he managed the baseball team, on Sept. 15.

Capt. Bill Brown, Danville, Ill., has returned to the States after serving 23 months as a member of a medical battalion in the Southwest Pacific. He has been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in combat against the enemy, and the Combat Medical Badge, and the European campaign ribbon with two battle stars.

Marchie Schwartz was officially named head football coach at Stanford University in late August. He had been acting head coach.

1933 Lt. Tighe Woods, 7944 Ellis Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Just a few months ago, Charles Farris was a full lieutenant in the Navy. Now a civilian, he is executive assistant to the vice-chairman of the WPB in Washington, D. C. John Laurie received his warrant-officership in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lt. Cmdr. Regis McNamara of Binghamton, N. Y., has been presented with a letter of commendation for "meritorious and efficient" performance of his duties as officer in charge of a construction battalion unit in the Samoan defense area from April, 1943 to January, 1945. Pfc. Jim Harris has been named line coach of the AAF personnel distribution command at Louisville. Jim was line coach at Iowa under Eddie Anderson.

A little info from Lt. Phil Darmody, USNR, in Washington:

" . . . I was married to Ruth E. Schorr in St. Joseph's Church in Duquesne, Pa., on the 14th of April. I am a lieutenant, USNR, and stationed in the Special Devices Division of the Office of Research and Invention here in Washington."

Joe Sheketeki of Shadyside, O., was named backfield coach at N. D. to succeed Gene Ronzani, who resigned. Joe was backfield coach at Holy Cross under Eddie Anderson in 1933 through 1938, then was head coach there from 1939 through 1941. He entered the F.B.I. in January, 1942, and served until last January when he resigned to enter private business in Cleveland.

Lt. Chuck Hafron was last reported on Okinawa. "By way of information," writes Dave McCaffrey, "have run into Ray Brachman, '34, and Don Hennessey at Saipan. Mike DeLay is here at Guam."

1934 Joseph R. Glennon, Jr., Commercial Solvents Corp., 17 E. 42nd St., New York City, 17.

Capt. Joe Catow, a former South Bend doctor now serving in the Ashburn General hospital, McKinley, Texas, says the nicest thing that has happened to him in the Army is that the enlisted men refer to him as "G. I. Joe with bars on." Joe entered service in June, 1942. He was assistant medical director at the University and was director of the U. S. public health clinic in South Bend.

Vin McAloon is now teaching in Berlin. . . . another instructor overseas is Sgt. Joe Voegle who is at the Army Athletic Staff School in the University of Paris. Q.M. 2/c Ramsay Collins, of Utica, N. Y., who is (or was) on a destroyer in the Atlantic, wears the American Theater ribbon and the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater ribbon with two combat stars for action at the invasions of Normandy and southern France. Ens. Alden O'Hearn of Chicago is on duty aboard an ammunition ship just commissioned; he's been in the Navy since February, 1944, and has eight months overseas duty in the ETO to his credit.

Word comes from Mexico that C. Glynn Fraser, Inter-American Relationships Director for the Boy Scouts of America for the past two years, is finishing up his South American Scout Leaders Training and Study Project after a unique and significant assignment which had him in touch with 32 adult youth leaders in 16 different Latin American Republics for ten-week training courses. Beginning Sept. 1, Glynn goes with The John Price Jones Corp., N. Y. C., as public relations director. First assignment will be under Bishop Hurley, Miami, Fla. He'd like to hear from the gang.

A letter from T/4 Ed Philbin on the island of Luzon:

"Vince Singson's father is still in the insurance business and Vince seems to be doing very nicely in a real estate development project. He is doing especially well since the Americans came as he is leasing them a lot of property for warehouses. He said they lost very heavily in the damage of the war. He had spent two years in the Army and now has two brothers in it. He misses his American cigarettes and most of all some good old American beer. I am going to spend a few days with him and we are going to look up some of the N. D. boys he knows.

"One of the biggest treats I have had since I came to the Army came about the other night. We were having a talk on the Jap soldier by someone that knows. It was given by none other than the now famous Frank Murphy of the Sixth Rangers. It was like old times for many hours into the night. He said it was a real treat to find someone who wanted to talk about something other than war. . . . His principal worry now is getting home and seeing his wife and daughter, whom he has never seen. He said he thinks he has about 98 points as he has been over here about two years. I too can sympathize with him as I have just completed my 34th."

Lt. Cmdr. John Conley, of Baltimore, has received the praise of his admirals as a result of a message from President Truman commending the Navy's work in providing news reports to the USS Augusta during the trip and from the Berlin conference. Rear Admiral H. B. Miller, USN, director of public information, Navy Department, forwarded the President's message to John because of his part in the preparation of the reports. He added his personal commendation. John joined the Navy in August, 1941, with the rank of lieutenant (jg). He was public relations officer at the Norfolk, Va., Naval Air Station, later being sent to Baltimore to take charge of a Fifth Naval district branch public relations office. In November, 1944, he was made acting press officer in the Navy Department's Office of Public Relations, and shortly afterward he was given full status in the position.

Mike Wiedl, who is married to Agnes Sobatzke, St. Mary's, A.B. '32, A.M. '33, is secretary of the Atlanta Chapter of American Society of Metals.

1935 Franklyn C. Hochreiter, 2118 Treasure St., New Orleans, La.

From John Holahan in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.:

"I met Vail Cliff in Washington on the 13th of July. He told me that he had just been discharged as a Lieutenant from the Navy after four years service. He expects to take a position in aviation with the government which will send him on a tour of duty in foreign countries."

Lt. (sg) Charlie Maher of Salina, Kansas, was a campus visitor late in August. . . . Father Tom Hewitt, C.S.C., chaplain, delivered the keynote address at the opening of the first Catholic mission for servicemen on Luzon.

The twentieth annual Educational Conference of the Brothers of Holy Cross was held at the University of Notre Dame this summer. Brother Edmund, C.S.C., '35, professor of the classics and history at the University, presided, and gave a paper on "The Bright Pupil." The other side of the picture, "The Dull Pupil," was presented by Brother Quentin, C.S.C., '36, of Vincentian Institute, Albany, N. Y. Brother John Baptist, C.S.C., '33, who is completing his studies for a Ph.D. degree at Fordham University, N. Y., was elected president of the Conference for a triennial term.

Barney English is a gunnery officer aboard an LCI in the Pacific as per the reports of Lt. Jim Cawley, '40. John Gainer's father wrote that John was convalescing in Italy after being badly wounded in action.

1936 Joseph F. Mansfield, 34 Fifth St., Pelham, N. Y.

From Joe Mansfield:

The letters have been on the scarce side of late, but a few of the lads have found time in their busy schedules to drop a word or two this way. John Moran, "Ol' Faithful" in the keeping-in-touch department, was, at his last writing, in the Pacific. He is skipping an armed guard crew. John was in New York last winter after an extended tour of duty in European waters.

Some few weeks later, we received letters from John and my brother-in-law, Bob Rohrbach, '32, telling us that they had met in the Admiralty Islands. Bob has been stationed there for the past year and a half as supply officer. John's ship put into port and he and Bob had a real Notre Dame reunion. Later, Bob was in an Australian port on business and who should he bump into again but Moran. Needless to say, the second reunion was a humdinger. Bob is due back in the States any day now for re-assignment, and re-acquaintance with his lovely wife, Jeanne. They were married just a few hours before Bob left the States.

John Desmond sent a letter telling of his experiences in Africa, Italy and England. He is still in London, attached to the Intelligence branch. Earl Brown is now in New York, stationed at King's Point. Sporting a couple of stripes as an officer in the Merchant Marine Earl will be head coach of the King's Point football squad. Earl has a very nice schedule lined up with games with Harvard and Boston College.

While on the subject of coaching, we might point out that Ed Crofty is doing a fine job as line mentor at Brown and head coach of basketball at Providence College. Ed reports that the Brown prospects look pretty good for '45.

We spent some happy hours with Basil "Jerry" Gillespie when he was stationed hereabouts. Jerry is in armed guard and at the moment is based at Guam. With hostilities at an end, he hopes to get home to his wife and brand new daughter.

Buddy Goldman when last heard from was holding down a job in radio at KTEM in Temple, Texas. Bud was in the army for three years and elected to make radio a career when he received his discharge.

Occasionally we meet Joe Condon, '34, in the vicinity of Radio City. Joe is with the F.B.I. and has had some very interesting assignments in the Eastern area.

Tom Proctor is now working as legal counsel with the Hazeltine Electronic outfit, with headquarters on Long Island. Tom and Audrey, the lovely Mrs. Proctor, and their son are living in Manhattan. As is to be expected of Tom, he is well on the road to success. One of these days he'll find himself a D.A. or a governor.

We were pleasantly surprised a few weeks ago when Jack Murphy dropped into the office. Jack is a surgeon on one of Uncle Sam's cruisers and was aboard when his vessel made up part of the Presidential entourage at Yalta. One of these days we'll ask Jack to write a full account of the proceedings for the 'Alumnus.' As we are writing the column, a note comes from Jack saying that he expects to make this port around the 18th and asks that we get together. Maybe he'll start his "memoirs" right away.

That's all for this issue. With the war ended, we hope the men of the class will have more time to write us news of themselves which we can pass along.

Lt. Frank Dunn of Joliet, Ill., recently completed his 25th air mission in 15 months overseas duty as air combat intelligence officer with the Navy's search and reconnaissance unit in the Pacific forward area. Frank's wife and two children are residing in Joliet where he practised law.

Father Henry Heintskill, C.S.C., chaplain, has been with the same carrier since her commissioning and participated in four major invasions, both in Europe and in the Pacific . . . southern France, Luzon, Iwo Jima and Okinawa. Father has won the right to wear all four campaign ribbons of this war, including the newest, the Philippines Liberation ribbon.

Johnny Hoban is now a Lieutenant commander in the Navy stationed in the Pacific. He writes he recently encountered Lt. (jg) Joe Zwiers, '37, out there.

Homer Strickler, his wife and two daughters, visited his mother in Roseland, near South Bend. Homer, whose home is New York City, formerly war editor for the "New York Sun," was to leave to represent his paper on a tour of European capitals. Paul Larmer, discharged from the Navy, has started with the Mitchell, McKeown Organization (advertising, sales promotion, public relations) in Chicago. Way back in July we received a letter from Tom Golden in which he mentioned having met Lt. George Moriarty on an island in the Pacific.

Lt. (sg) Vernon Tetrault of Springfield, Mass., was married in Liverpool, England, on May 20, 1944 to Joan Lyon of London, England, daughter of Dr. John Lyon and it was recently reported that Vernon is the proud father of a beautiful daughter, named Linda Eileen. Lt. (jg) Andy Filney and Lt. Joe Schmidt of the Army had a surprise get-together at Camp Lee recently when the Norfolk Air Station baseball team, of which Andy was player-manager, visited the Army post for a ball game.

1937 Frank J. Reilly, MacNair-Dorland Co., 254 W. 31st St., New York City

From Frank Reilly:

Just before sitting down to write this piece, I received a telephone call from my Parkchester neighbor, Tom Hughes, who relayed a fairly full portion of the doings of some of our classmates. Tom, incidentally, has been very helpful to me on this job, and for my money, would make a top-flight reporter on anybody's newspaper. He had heard from Joe Schilling, of the Navy, recently and Joe, who is currently taking a demobilization course at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, told of seeing Bill Lynch, '37, there. Joe rooms with another of our more illustrious classmates, Wally Fromhart. Joe's course, apparently, is intended to fit him as an instructor or counselor to naval discharges.

Jack Baker, '37, whom I mistakenly thought was in the Army, is back at his former post at Stern Brothers department store, New York. In relaying that bit of news to me, Tom Hughes mentioned that Jack had been with the F.B.I. I knew Jack's brother, Dick, '36, was an Army man, and I was under the impression Jack was too.

A news item about Tom Hughes: He recently joined the newly-formed paper products division of Continental Can Co., New York, after being with Crown Can Co., New York, for about four years. Another job-switch I heard about recently was that of Paul Sheedy, who left the F.B.I., here in New York, to return to Buffalo, his home town, where he joined an advertising agency.

While on the subject of the Bureau, Bob Weaver and John O'Leary, both '37, and I had lunch together one day in August. Both boys are N. D. law school products, and are among about a third of their law class that are in the F.B.I. John Vickers, '37, being another. Bob Weaver was transferred to New York a few weeks before we had lunch. After graduating from law school and passing his Ohio bar exam, Bob put up his shingle in his home town of Coshocton, O., and practised there until the war. He went into the F.B.I. at about that time and has been in various offices of the Bureau throughout the country since. John O'Leary went to his home town of Chicago, subsequent to being graduated from N. D. law school. He took his bar exams in Illinois and passed them. From Chicago he went to Catholic U. in Washington, where he spent a year studying for his master's degree. This was a short step over to the legislative department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, also in Washington. John's next move was into the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He has been there since.

Naturally, when you get together with a couple of class-mates you haven't seen since the fateful day, there are a number of familiar names banded about. Such, for example, as that of Charlie Meyers, the Elgin, Ill., boy who did so handsomely scholastically in his undergraduate and law school work at N. D. After Charlie left N. D., he went to Chicago where he joined a law firm that specialized in a very unusual type of law. He did very well at it, and when the head of the business went into the army, Charlie took a very good position with another prominent Chicago law firm. The name of Joe Loftus came up at the lunch, John having mentioned that Joe was a naval lieutenant, I believe. John said he had met Joe some time ago. Other items picked up at luncheon that come under the heading of background information, rather than news, are: Martin Husung's completion of N. D. law school and practice of the same in Denver; and Joe Crisanti's and John Vicker's graduation from the same institution; Pete Johnsen's successful operation of a string of Chicago bistros and Ned Joyce becoming a C. S. C.—following our five-year reunion in 1942.

Another neighbor of mine, Mark Lonergan, of '37, furnishes a bit of news by the fact that he was recently transferred from Bainbridge Naval Training Station, Bainbridge, Md., to a New York pier address.

From the mail more of the details on Jim Gagner's wedding came through when he wrote to Father Cronan F. Kelly, O.F.M., who, in turn, forwarded the letter to me. Jim writes: "The wedding took place as scheduled (near St. Germaine-en-Laye, June 16) and I managed to struggle through with a 'Oul' in my 'Canuck brogue' . . . I am now teaching my wife how French should be spoken. It's terrible all the mistakes these Frenchmen make. There are lots of words that linguists like me can't understand. It was quite an affair, quite unlike a 'hitching' in the States. Firstly, we had to be married by the town mayor. That was followed by a tying of the knot by the pastor of Madame's parish. The ceremony took place in a typical small town about 15 miles from Paris and the whole town was there. After a very impressive nuptial Mass the bride and groom stood at the gate of the altar rail while everyone in the church lined up to kiss the bride on both cheeks. Some must have lined up two or three times as I thought they would never stop coming by. After that we had a terrific meal where the children recited something they had learned for the occasion and the older folks sang individually. Then there was dancing until 4:00 a.m.

"Our honeymoon was spent at Vonnay, famous for its wines. . . . Don't know when I'll be coming home, but it does not look as though it will be soon. Hope you will keep in touch with me as I want to drop in when we hit New York."

Another very welcome and totally unexpected letter came through Sept. 13 from Girard Edward Besanceney, Lieutenant, U.S.N.R., Lido Beach, ABATU, Long Island, N. Y. That would be none other than our friend and classmate Jerry Besanceney, once of Newark, O. Jerry writes: ". . . Last May, I celebrated three years in service. On May 9, 1942, I was out to Notre Dame for my first five-year class reunion and just nine days later I reported there for navy indoctrination as an ensign. Out of that class of some 1,100 officers, I think there were 25 to 30 that had formerly gone to Notre Dame. Since then I've served as a staff communications officer for the Commander Destroyers Atlantic Fleet, went to Recognition School for two months at Ohio State, incidentally, my home town was and is Columbus, O., and at present I am teaching, or rather was teaching Recognition at the Advance Base Assembly Training Unit, Lido Beach, Long Island, N. Y.

"While at this last command, I ran into four other Navy men that formerly went to Notre Dame. None of the group, however, was out of the class of '37, except myself. They were: Specialist's Aid, First class, Charles Freeman, '35; Chief Specialist's Aid John Hiler, '40; Ens. John Tracey, '42, now discharged; Lt. Earl Deane, '42, and myself. We had frequent get-togethers during this time.

". . . My wife and family are with me and we are staying at 177 Main St., East Rockaway, N. Y. . . . I saw last year's Army game as I suppose you did. I guess we shouldn't mention it though. Lt. Dean and I already have our tickets ordered for this fall's Army game. . . . Haven't heard from journalist Frank Fox, '37, in a long time."

I haven't heard from Frank in a long time, either, Jerry, but would like to know what he's up to. Maybe he'll write.

Joe MacDonald, of '36, whom I mentioned in last month's column, called to give me two pieces of news: Mrs. MacDonald presented Joe with their fourth child recently, and Joe has taken a position as assistant to the president of Bettendorf Locomotive Works, Bettendorf, Ia., near Davenport. Last month, I inadvertently referred to Art Shaughnessy's war correspondent cousin as John MacDonald. His name really is John McDermott.

It occurs to me that with such a sizeable number of 1937 graduates in the New York area and with more coming in about the time of the Army game, some sort of get-together or local reunion might be in order. If you favor the idea drop me a card, write a letter or call me up and we'll see if something can't be arranged.

Just before mailing this piece, I checked with Paul Foley's wife and she told me that Paul got back to the States on Sept. 7. Since then, and up until a few weeks from this writing, he expects to be with the Office of War Information in New York. I plan to talk with Paul in the next day or two and perhaps, even, have a get-together in the near future. One of us will tell you about it after it happens.

Capt. Bill Bailey has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action on Luzon. Bill aided in saving the lives of two wounded men by administering emergency treatment and acting as litter bearer. Sgt. Johnny Mulligan of Lake Village, Ark., is in the Philippines with an Army postal unit, being shipped directly from France (Marseilles in June—Luzon in July).

From Major Luke Tiernan:

"I thought that I had written to you back in April to tell you that our second child had arrived, a girl whom we named Terese Rosemary. She was born on the 4th of April. Our son, Tommy, is now over two years old and should be ready for Notre Dame by 1961. . . . I have had three other Notre Dame men working with me for the past year and you probably remember them: Capt. Ed Kirby, '36, Lt. Joe Kaley, '35, and Lt. Herb Anderson, ex-'32. . . . I will undoubtedly get a chance to see you this fall as I intend to get down to South Bend for several of the games. After three years of duty with the Marine Corps, I have succeeded in securing my release to inactive duty which will be effective on the 25th of September and I am returning with my family to Chicago that day."

One of the outstanding war heroes among Notre Dame graduates, Father Frank Sampson has taken over a new assignment as Catholic chaplain at Camp Grant, Ill. Father Frank, served as a paratroop chaplain with the famed 101st division which participated in airborne invasions of Normandy and Holland. Captured three times by the enemy, he was interned by the Germans near New Brandenburg, and spent five months in confinement prior to his liberation by Russian forces shortly before V-E day. The DSC and the presidential unit citation with oak leaf cluster are his for his heroic work.

From New Delhi, India, came the release that Ed Fischer has attained a captaincy. Overseas nine months, Ed's first job in the India-Burma theater saw him on the convoy which blazed the trail over the new Stilwell Road to China, helping to make arrangements for the largest group of war correspondents ever to cover a story in the Far Eastern war. He was also given the job of writing the history of the northern area combat command in Burma and interviewed Lord Louis Mountbatten.

Capt. Fred Mott, flight surgeon, was reported seen at Atsugi in the Philippines.

1938 Harold A. Williams, 4323 Marblehall Rd., Baltimore, Md.

Sgt. Hal Williams, whose consistently excellent work for the class over the past seven years has distinguished him as one of the Alumni Association's top class secretaries, left his Baltimore post—and civilian clothes—on Sept. 15 to be reassigned by the Army at Ft. Meade, Md.

In view of the uncertainty of Hal's location for the next good many months, he asked Swede Bauer to take over his '38 duties temporarily. And Swede generously consented.

From Hal Williams:

The boys, evidently, are still celebrating, so there is not much news to pass along for this issue.

Ens. Bud Sherwood is now on Okinawa, in charge of a Navy officer's wine mess. . . . (His address is: S.C., U.S.N.R., Cub 17, D 12 No. 32, Navy 3256, c/o FPO, San Francisco.). . . . Sgt. Ed Barnett is now attached to public relations and is stationed in Paris. (His address is: ASN 32408039, PRO, Hq. TSFET (REAR), APO No. 887, c/o P.M., New York.). . . . Ens. Jack Zerbst, at latest reports, is radar officer aboard the Wake Island, which is soon to be decommissioned. . . .

If you boys write to the class secretaries there will be more next issue.

From Swede Bauer:

"I feel honored to have been asked to do this job and will do my best to pass on to Bill Deoley and Jim Armstrong all communications received from you men, without injecting any of my Good Thunder-ish editorializing.

I saw Charley Borewski, South Bend policeman, playing center field with the South Bend Hoosier Beers last week. He looks as supple as when he was captaining the 1933 Notre Dame team.

Met Charley Duke the early part of the year at church. Charley is an airways traffic manager for the CAA and had been stationed in Cicero (Chicago is a suburb thereof), Iceland, Labrador, and the Azores. His mother told me later that he had just been transferred to Newfoundland. She also said that brother Norman Duke, '34, was a navy lieutenant on a P.T. boat stationed in the Philippines.

Joe Wehrle, he from Punxsutawney, Pa., has written me several kindly letters recently, which proves that a good wife, as well as music, can tame . . . etc. Joe roomed with me during our sophomore year, the year of the big snow, in North America's coldest spot, namely, fourth floor Badin. That was the year we didn't send our laundry out for weeks because, in an effort to stop the blizzard from blowing the covers off our beds, we wet it all and threw it against the cracks around the windows, where it promptly froze solid. Hal Williams, Nick Lamberto, Tom German, (Father) Joe Race, Johnny Beer, Johnny Meir, Tom Bohan, Jerry Kane, Joe Kaharik, and others who lived up there then will verify that historic freeze. Joe Wehrle is managing his father's mill in Punxsutawney, and is very sure that his son, Joe Jr., will manhandle my son Pat when they meet at N. D. around 1960.

Lt. Tom Bohan just dropped me a card that he was heading out on the Pacific. Tom participated in the last battles in Germany, going over in January and coming back in June. He spent a 30-day furlough with his wife and two children, Pat (ricia) and Mike in St. Paul before leaving for Japan.

While in Chicago last summer I ran into Rocco Montagna, brief case in hand, who was just coming from court. Rocco is helping his father run his extensive truck line. The same day I called Ed Mann's mother and found out that he was an officer in the Navy in the Pacific.

Lt. Jack Simon of the Navy is cruising around the Philippines, according to a letter received yesterday from his father, Louis P. Simon, president of the Birmingham & Prosser Paper Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich. Jack has enough points to be released and hopes to be back to Kalamazoo with his wife and children around February next. The same letter mentioned that Jack's roomy at N. D., Phil Shields, is stationed at Camp Lewis, near Seattle. Phil and wife Mary give as their latest address 1125 State St., Olympia, Wash.

I have heard of several other Notre Dame men who originally came from LaPorte. Ernie Lanois, '37, is now married and has a four months old son. He is Allis Chalmers works accountant at its Milwaukee Super-charger plant. His address is 531 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee. Capt. Frank Lanigan who roomed with Ernie in Sorin Sub our senior year has been in the army four and one-half years. Frank is in the 11th Airborne in Luzon doing in the field artillery.

Howard Murdock, '37, is working at the Kingsbury Ordnance Plant, just south of here, and lives just two blocks from us with his wife and daughter.

Rev. Victor P. Froehne of our class is minister of the St. Paul's Evangelical Church here in LaPorte and plans to send his two sons to Notre Dame in a few more years. Rev. Froehne commuted between N. D. and LaPorte and received his degree in English in 1938. He is a leading member of the La Porte Ministerial Association and is well respected by all people here in LaPorte.

Franklin Stroud is another LaPorte who commuted to N. D. Franklin runs an insurance and real estate business here.

That, men, is all the news I could ferret out on this short notice. Please let's hear from you right away so that in the next issue we can have a better visit. Remember, don't forget "Swede."

This letter is from Lt. Art Mulhern, USNR, FPO, N. Y. C., written sometime in August: "There are a few Notre Dame men here where I am. Lt. (Jg) Chuck Schwartz, '34, brother of John, is here. He tells me Ens. John is in the Pacific on an AK. Lt. Bill Blind, of '34, is here. Chuck is in communications, Bill is a 'legal' man. Saw in 'Stars and Stripes' that Walt Hogan, Jr., '40, Lt., AUS, was playing golf in the ETO championship and was considered a leading contender. Lt. Ed Brower was here on a ship but has since departed for Uncle Sugar's shores, and he had just returned from a 30-day leave. My brother, Jim, was at last report in England—he is a first lieutenant, navigator in the airforce 94th bomb group. 'Stars and Stripes' says that group is part of the occupational air force. I hear now and then from Ens. Dan Cochran, he is on a destroyer somewhere in the Pacific, collecting a great deal of action very rapidly."

Bob Mullen of Cincinnati, O., is still in Germany ferreting out Nazi secrets for the Navy Intelligence. Lt. Nick Lamberto dropped in at the Alumni Office on his way to Cincinnati. Ens. Joe Zwiers is an executive and communications officer aboard an LCT with the seventh amphibious force in the Philippines. Pat McCarty, for several years coach of Central Catholic High School team in his home town of Toledo, O., is now in the Army and is/was stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

Marine 2nd Lt. Joe Ruetz, South Bend, was selected to serve as a Hellcat fighter pilot in an all-Marine aircraft carrier group after training at the Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Barbara, Calif. Sgt. Frank Zintak of Chicago is/was with a photomapping company of the 648th engineers in Manila. Frank was in service before Pearl Harbor and has seen duty all the way from the Alcan Highway to Australia and the Philippines. Lt. Col. Jim Berry has been assigned as station air inspector at Hendricks Field, Florida. For his tour of combat in the ETO as a pilot, Jim has the DFC with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Medal with four clusters and a Presidential unit citation. He was graduated from West Point in 1940, following two years at Notre Dame.

Bill Robinson is a Chicago FBI agent. Chuck Brosius has donned khaki and was in training at Camp Blanding, Florida.

George Petrütz has finished his IBM training, and is now in the Boston office. He's out of the Navy, but just made lieutenant commander as of some time in June. Ed Mattingly, assigned to a troop transport operating out of San Francisco, was promoted to captain and Gene Vaslett received his promotion to major with the Ninth Air Force service command in Germany.

1939 Vincent W. DeCoursey, 1321 Georgia, Kansas City, Kans.

While awaiting shipment to the states, Sgt. Pete Repetti of Newark, N. J., is enrolled in courses in French language and civilization at the Sorbonne, University of Paris. He's been overseas since last September and participated in the central Europe, Rhineland and northern France campaigns. Capt. Fred Simon who served 30 months overseas as a company commander was awaiting reassignment at Miami Beach, Fla. Lt. Earl Brown, who coached at Harvard, Brown and Dartmouth, was named head football coach at the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y. After serving in the African and Italian campaigns, 1st Sgt. John Focke of Dayton, O., has arrived home from Italy.

Two promotions have been reported for '39 men: Jim Kocap of Indianapolis was recently promoted to captain with the 62nd troop carrier group in Italy and Leon Lancaster to the rank of captain with the Office of Dependency Benefits in Boston.

TONELLI IS RELEASED

Sgt. Mario "Motts" Tonelli, '39, who survived the "march of death" on Bataan for eight days and the brutal treatment accorded American prisoners for three and one half years, was found in a Japanese prison camp near Yokkaichi. And on the LSV which removed him from Japan were two Notre Dame baseball stars of recent years, Tom Sheehan and Bob Klein. Tom reported to the University that Motts was "looking fine" and "feeling pretty good" despite his loss of weight, from 200 to 135 pounds. By the time you read this Motts will probably be at home in Chicago.

Ph.M. Al Kiefer was home and enjoying a rehabilitation leave last September, at the same time announcing his engagement to Margaret Barthle of San Antonio, Fla. Paul Kelley, former Army major, is with the Standard Transformer Corp., 1500 N. Halstead St., Chicago. (Lt. Hugh Garvey is with the Henry Holt Publishing Co., in New York City. Tom O'Dea of Youngstown, O., an engineer with

Curtiss-Wright in Columbus, O., played a prominent part in designing the Navy's new Seahawk scout observation plane which saw service against the Japs.

Lt. Cmdr. Joe Corcoran of Bridgewater, Mass., has been based at Samar in the Philippines and expects to get home for 30 days sometime within the next three or four months.

1940 Capt. Robert G. Sanford, 3934 N. Maryland Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

Lt. (Jg) Don Driscoll serving as executive officer aboard a PT boat played havoc with four Japanese barges off the west coast of Leyte last March. After several runs all four barges were left either burning or completely under water. Home on leave from the Ninth Army in Europe, Capt. Benny Sheridan then reported to Camp Atterbury with the expectation of transfer to the Pacific.

T/Sgt. Clyde Archer of Parkersburg, W. Va., has returned to the states with the Purple Heart, the combat infantryman badge and the European campaign ribbon with two battle stars. Av.M.M. 2jc Tom McCabe of Springfield, L. I., N. Y., who served as maintenance man while attached to the fighter-bomber squadron of Air Group 17, has returned on leave from a tour of duty in the Pacific.

Paul Glass is assistant to the chief of the tool department of Douglas Aircraft, Los Angeles—there are 25,000 employees in this department throughout the country. Paul is a leading figure in the N. D. Club of Los Angeles. T/Sgt. Jim McCabe, radio operator in a Liberator bomber, completed his 100th mission in the southwest Pacific. Jim whose home is in Johnson City, N. Y., flew over such targets as Formosa, Indo-China, China coast ports and Borneo. Capt. Jim Plummer is transportation officer in Belle Mead, N. J.; and Lt. Fred Stubbins, his former Sorin roommate, is on the admiral's staff at San Diego, Calif.

Lt. Wally Borer, Navy flier who has been reported missing in action in the Pacific, has been awarded the DFC for heroism as pilot of a torpedo plane. His wife and two children are residing in Florissant, Mo.

Capt. Henry Dowd's letter mentioned many Notre Dame men in India: Capt. Bill Baum, '41, Lt. Bill Dillon, '36, Bob Cruickshank, Lt. Jim McNamara, and Ray Sadlier.

John Brodberger has received his honorable discharge from the Army and is living and working in Cincinnati. Lt. Bill Fay is editor of the Honolulu edition of "Stars and Stripes." Joe Salita, ex-corporal, is coaching at Central Catholic High School in Fort Wayne, Ind. Lt. Ed Wurtzback, USNR, after extended service in the Atlantic and the Pacific, was home to South Bend on leave. He reported to Great Lakes where he expected to receive a discharge. Capt. Jim Barrett visited the office before reporting back to his air base in Harvard, Nebr., last September.

From Rock LePage to Bob Sanford:

"Just a few words to let you know I've been discharged from the Army. Returned from the European Theatre last June after being with the office of strategic services for over a year.

"In March was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French Government. Nicest part about that is that it boosted my point score from 84 to 89—right, past the critical 85."

Jean is now working for the National City Bank of New York, and his address is 30 Oakley Ave., Summit, N. J.

Bob Sanford, still in Manila, is now a captain. He met Major John Cella, '39, in Manila.

Dick Fallon writes from St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie, Yonkers, N. Y., that he will be ordained to the priesthood on Dec. 1 in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York, and his first solemn Mass will be on Dec. 2 in Holy Family Church, New Rochelle, N. Y. He adds: "Since it will be impossible to send invitations to all the fellows, I ask now that any who are in New York be with me."

From Major Joe Mulqueen, USMCR, to Bob Sanford:

"Am located at the Marine headquarters here in San Francisco, having been back from overseas 14 months plus. Housing shortage in this area forced me to buy a home in order that wife, Peggie, and the two gizmos could have a place to come in out of the fog.

"In Wilson's Restaurant, Palo Alto, Army's Lt. Frank Bingi backslapped me with a 'I haven't seen you since graduation' and proceeded to introduce Peggie and me to his brand-new wife. Frank is studying Japanese at Stanford and coupling this with a communication course. Several weeks before this, I spied FBI's Frank Bright riding past this pedestrian in downtown San Francisco. He stopped and we made like long-lost brothers-in-law and agreed to have lunch together at Fisherman's Wharf some Friday. There, I learned that he was married to a Seattle girl and that diapers are already a big part of Monday's wash. He tells me that Dick Swisher is also around these parts spreading the good word about Notre Dame.

"Lt. Herb Fairall, '38, is publishing the Marine Corps' Chevron at the Marine Corps Base in San Diego. Herb received a leg wound on Saipan that's taking its time healing. He passed on the following news about the Denver 'Mob.' Major Tom Tierney is flapping his wings around one of the Texas air stations after a siege of it out Pacific way. Tom married one of Herb's sisters two years ago. Chuck Cassidy was last corresponded with from Italy where he's wearing wings on his chest and eagles on his shoulders. Stateside — returned Marine Capt. Tom Barry, '40, now commands two ration books and so far as is known is still in the States with his bride.

"Big Jim Donoghue was a well-beribboned Marine captain when I saw him at the Carlsbad Hotel in Oceanside, Calif., some months ago. He was fresh back from four campaigns in the South Pacific and much aglow in introductions of a new wife.

CENNI ALL O. K.

It is with keen joy and due apologies to Lt. (jg) Lou Cenni that we announce that Lou was not killed in the Pacific as was mistakenly reported in the August "Alumnus." A recent letter from his parents said . . . "having recently returned from Okinawa, where he served as a Navy doctor with the military government, Lou is feeling fine and at present is at Worcester, Mass., with his wife, Kathleen."

"It's been a long time since many of the '40 class have heard of or from Bob McEniry. Having corresponded with him for a period of eight or nine years, it might be interesting to know that Bob is going into his ninth year in the Jesuit order and is teaching classes in Latin, debate and elocution in the St. Louis University High School.

"Marty Regan writes that he's exec on a destroyer-escort and still destroying around the South Pacific, having already spent about three out of the last four years in those waters. Jack Reddy ups and gets married some six or eight months ago but failed to notify this draft board—wish he'd give the particulars. Frank Miltner was plugging away at OCS some months ago but no word since that time. Indirect word says Jerry O'Dowd is skipper of a salty LCI and is steering it around oriental waters.

"Majors Bob Hackman and George Haggerty are spending this summer on the Harvard campus after having spent the last two on Guadalcanal and Guam. They are attending a Navy Communication School there.

"What's the latest from Bill Coleman, Joe Ryan, Tom Browning and Ray Allen?

"Now that this War is finally reaching a closing point, I hope many of us can get together on that promised five-year Reunion now rapidly extending into its sixth year. How about it Bob?

Sgt. Clarence T. (Pete) Sheehan, transferred from Hendricks Field, Fla., to Reception Station No. 2, Ft. Dix, N. J., writes:

"Met Jack Reddy in the mess hall after I came to Dix. Jack is a counselor in the separation center here. Had two re-unions with Bud Bernard in New York. My unofficial roommate in Badin Hall, Bud is now at the Brooklyn Navy yard. Paul Daly, the real roomie, is a personnel officer at North Camp Hood, Texas.

"Bing Binkowski, '39, for a long tour in the South Pacific, was the star right fielder on the Deland NTS, Fla., officer's softball team. He says Matt Bolger is there with him. Bing saw Ed Broscoe in California. Ed was getting ready to sail."

1941 Lt. John W. Patterson, Jr., 5530 Darlington Rd., Pittsburgh, Pa.

From Roland Belladonna, Capt., USMCR, in the Pacific to Jack Patterson:

"Thought I would let you know that I'm still alive and looking forward to our class reunion come next spring. I hate to think what will happen when our bunch gets together again. I recall our freshman year when we almost wrecked the trolley after the Notre Dame-Army game. (I get dizzy when anyone mentioned Army to me). Shall we try to be more behaved on our next cruise.

"See Father Dupuis occasionally and just can't help recalling our days together in Freshman Hall. Saw Bob Saggan last year at a Naval Air Station, hiding behind a bottle of beer. Of course I moved in behind it with him and we talked over old times. Also ran across Will Gagan, he is with the Amph Tracks. Naturally we talked about Notre Dame in addition to bragging about the Marine Corps. We didn't have to say much about last year's Army-N. D. game for everyone reminded us of it.

"Ever hear from Don Smarinsky, Dan Broderick or Chuck McGannon? Don wrote me while he was stationed in Maryland over three years ago; however I haven't heard from him since. Robert Wardell is another birdman who has never written. George Thompson writes occasionally and I am always glad to hear from him. Haven't seen him since we were both in North Carolina.

"I saw Leo Hillebrand only a short while before he was killed at Iwo. It certainly is a shame that such an expensive price must be paid. I remember all of our Notre Dame men in my prayers.

"Good luck and may God keep us all."

Jim Lang, with the FBI in San Francisco, is living there with his wife and son, James, Jr. T/Sgt. Bill Nern, a Detroit boy, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal and received a direct appointment as second lieutenant on the island of Mindanao. Sgt. Gerry Kamm, '44, was also awarded the Bronze Star as per a letter from brother Elmer Kamm, who also writes of another brother, Sgt. Wilber Kamm, '40, who was at Marseille, France.

Lt. (jg) Eddie Riska was wounded in action while fighting with the Pacific fleet in Japanese waters according to word received by his wife, who lives in South Bend. Lt. Bob Cox, navigator of a Navy search plane, returned to the U. S. for leave and reassignment after completing eight and one-half months duty in the Pacific.

The distinction of being the first officer to report aboard his "tin can" belongs to Lt. Arnold Altman of South Bend. In March, 1943, he helped place her into commission, and since that time he has sailed well over 225,000 miles and has participated in almost every major engagement from Wake Island to Okinawa.

Capt. Virgil Van Meter received his promotion at the Aberdeen Proving Ground in Maryland. S/Sgt. Frank McDonough of Chicago, was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for his outstanding military services in the ETO. And we have another Bronze Star Medalist. He is Capt. Bud Fogliano who won his for his work during the German flying bomb attack on the port of Antwerp.

John O'Loughlin was program chairman and toastmaster at the Junior Association of Commerce luncheon given in the Sherman Hotel, Chicago, for the All-Star football players and their coaches on Aug. 23. John is still with Illinois Bell. 2nd Lt. Jerry Ryan of Susquehanna, Pa., was appointed assistant aircraft maintenance officer at the Columbus Army Air Field, O. John Larson's new job is with American Airlines, Inc., in New York, as news and features editor in the department of public information. He had been in publicity with the American Broadcasting Co., for two and a half years.

1st Lt. Paul Goddelel, South Bend, had 14 water color sketches on display in Rockefeller Plaza in an engineering-art exhibit. The sketches were made nine months before in New Guinea.

The parents of Lt. (jg) Chuck Bramfield received a cablegram from him recently announcing his liberation from a Japanese prison camp. A Navy flyer, he was captured after being shot down over Tarawa Sept. 18, 1943.

Chuck Farrell, another former prisoner of war, in Germany, has returned to the United States.

NAVY CROSS TO O'DOWD

The Navy Cross was awarded Lt. Jerome J. O'Dowd, '41, Fort Wayne, Ind., who displayed courage of the highest sort as commander on a gunboat supporting reconnaissance of landing boxes two days before the invasion of Iwo Jima. Jerry's craft was one of 12 gunboats assigned to the mission: seven of the group opened fire on the beaches. The enemy returned the fire, hitting four of the ships in 10 minutes.

1942 Cpl. William E. Scanlon, Post Gymnasium, Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

From Scoop Scanlon:

This must be Moving Time for most of the '42ers because the Mail Call the past few weeks has been surprisingly slackened. Come on, let's keep the ball curving and throw in a couple of strikes.

Somebody else wants to know what you and YOU are doing.

Leigh Sullivan of Ft. Sheridan dashed by the other day, halting only long enough to report that he was headed for the Information and Education Office. Seems he's setting the groundwork now for a career in the diplomatic service in the future.

And it's now 1st Sgt. Bill Murphy, also of Ft. Sheridan. Big Bill heads the staff of 70 or more enlisted men who handle the supply department of the Separation Center. Any of you fellows doffing the khaki at Ft. Sheridan look him up . . . maybe he'll see you get a good fit on the final pair of slacks.

It was V-J night when I happened into ex-Lt. Bob Flannery, back from Paris and a recent dischargee from the army. He was awaiting time to re-enter Notre Dame by working in Chicago.

Mrs. Lonergan of nearby Wilmette reports that her son Red, is enjoying Colorado life. Wonder if Jesse Sutherland will appoint him a member of the state's Chamber of Commerce. Red's most recent address was Stead's Ranch, Estes Park, Colo.

WAC Anita Schilling of Ft. Sheridan said the other day she had heard from T/S M.S. Edmonds, formerly of Notre Dame. And he reported Paris was a dream town, especially after visiting Ft. Bragg, England, and various parts of western France.

One of our most faithful war-time correspondents, Lt. Ed Buenger, comes through with another V-mail, dated 5 August from Ansbach, Germany. Let Eddie tell you:

"Perhaps I'm a little premature in addressing you as Mr. when you may not even have immediate hopes of being discharged [Boy, are you correct!] and becoming a civilian once again. I am now a bona fide member of the 1st U. S. Infantry Division. As such, I am a part of the Army of Occupation and am rapidly becoming rehabilitated to a finer garrison-like manner of living. At present I'm situated in a fine little town that is typically European and quaint in its ancient structures, mode of dress, and long established customs. Many of the officers and men from my old outfit made the change of units with me, so I don't feel as if I'm too much of a stranger in my new surroundings.

"I have recently acquired a very beautiful German shepherd police dog that is rapidly becoming a fine companion to me. Please remember me to any members of the class of '42 that you may contact."

Lt. Chet Sullivan, third base star and hitting ace of Ft. Sheridan teams in our early era, paused here lately long enough to look me up and say hello.

An excellent letter from Fred Paulmann, Jr., of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.: he writes:

"Quite a few of the N. D. boys have been around here lately, and I thought you might pass the word to the fellows via the 'Alumnus'."

"I was married on June 16 to Cecilia Donohue, of New Rochelle, and it was a real Notre Dame wedding. 1st Lt. Walter Brennan, '41, was my best man, and three of the four ushers were Notre Dame fellows: Jack Malone, '42, made the trip all the way from Toledo to be one; Charley Conger came up from Brooklyn, and Ramon Araujo, '42, stayed over on his visit from Colombia to help me out. I've a picture which I'll send to you as soon as possible. 1st Lt. Thomas J. Trueman, '41, was to have been another usher but he had to return to Denver for surgical treatment before the wedding.

"Had a get-together recently with the above fellows and also Doc Leising of the Army. Lt. (Jg) Paul Lillis who is stationed in New York for a while, Lt. (Jg) Bob McFarland, who just left for Panama last week, and Clem Rooley, '42, who is in the advertising business here. Also had a grand re-union with Lt. (Jg) Ed Hackett, who came down one weekend from his station in Rhode Island. Lt. (Jg) Johnny Bissoso phoned the other day that he is back in the States after two years overseas, and that he is up at M.I.T. for a few courses. Saw a lot of Byron Kanaley until recently when he moved from this city back to Chicago."

You can get the latest news on the Lawyers from Mrs. Lora Lashbrook's usual fine contribution.

The big news now everywhere, of course, is of the boys who are coming home or who are already back from the war. Among the highlights in this category was the news that our Marine hero, Lt. Joseph Barr, is back and is being married on Sept. 25 in Missouri. The bride is Mary Lou Dahm of Normandy, Mo., and formerly of St. Mary's. Joe, you will remember, was the "cover boy" on the April, 1944, 'Alumnus' and the "Scholastic" of April 19, 1944.

Others who have indicated that they expect release from military duty soon are Major Robert E. Sullivan, who is still in Europe but expects to be home soon. Lt. William A. Hosinski, still in Texas but whose discharge may not be too long in coming, and Joe Lavery, already discharged and ready to practice law in Connecticut.

A letter came from Lt. (Jg) Gerard Feeney of the U. S. S. Hulbert in the Pacific, who reports that he has no prospects of discharge unless the Navy's point system is revised. Like the others, he is wishing that some such change would be made so that he could get his legal education finished.

Lt. (Jg) James F. McVay sent his application for admission to the Pennsylvania Bar after telephoning from Seattle giving us instructions as to the material we were to furnish for that purpose. He had been home on another short leave but is now headed for the Japanese area again on the President Jackson.

John Baty finally wrote from his ship in the Pacific assuring us that he had survived the war so far, but he also regretted that he lacked the required number of points for discharge. John has been admitted to the Missouri Bar so will be all ready to receive clients when he gets out of the Navy, where he is a lieutenant, (Jg).

Jerry O'Dowd wrote that he had been on the California coast and had seen Dick Swisher and his wife and baby in that state. Dick seems to be doing fine and liking life on the west coast.

Lt. Jordan Hamel wrote from his station in the deep south where he is serving with the Air Corps, that he had had a visit from Bob Richardson of the F.B.I. in South Carolina. This week Jordan was in for a visit during a few days with his wife's parents, the Hosinski's, of South Bend. Jordan is even more handsome than we remembered him. He tells us that as soon as he is discharged he will go back to his work in the bank in Chicago. He likes the polished desk and the freedom from the worry of building up a law practice.

Capt. Al Cholis wrote a nice letter from Frankfurt, Germany, where he is serving with the Military Government. He promised to look up Gerry Kamm, who is stationed in the same area with the same outfit. They had not seen each other when letters arrived from each of them giving us the same address and describing the work in identical words, so we immediately sent instructions to look each other up, which instruction has now been carried out. Neither had much hope of getting home in the near future.

Another bit of good news reaches our desk in the form of an announcement of the opening of a new law firm in Chicago at 109 W. Monroe St., with one of the partners, John J. Ward, Jr. While we have had no additional news, we can assume John is out of uniform and that Mrs. Ward and the son are enjoying civilian life with John in the neighborhood of Chicago.

Leo Linck wrote from Sheppard Field, Texas, where he is serving with the Air Corps. He was through South Bend a few days ago but all the visiting I had with him was a few minutes over the telephone from the Union Station. He also hopes for an early discharge and a return to his law practice in Michigan.

Bill Spangler is still in India with the Army Air Forces. He should have almost enough points for discharge, although no word has come from him in the last few weeks—in fact not since the end of the war.

Jim Daer was in for a visit not long ago. He will probably be discharged now from his service with the Air Corps and will return to practice. He looked wonderful and was enthusiastic about the prospects of his post-war work. He has a special interest in the field of aviation law, which happens to be a specialty of ours right now.

Jim Diver, home for 30 days from Europe where he has served with the 104th, the famous Timberwolves, caught up on his sleeping but didn't get up for a visit. He was enroute to the Pacific when the war ended but we are not sure whether or not he has actually gone that direction.

Ted Frericks wrote that he has had several nice offers to go into law firms, all the way from Florida to Minnesota, but thinks he will accept a place in an Ohio firm since he passed the Ohio examinations and is now ready to practice. Ted was all set to take the bar exams on the first days of January when he was called into service on Dec. 31 after he finished law school. After a tour of duty with the Navy on the U. S. S. Bogue, he was given a medical discharge several months ago.

Henry Anderson was discharged from the Army several months ago after suffering the loss of his wife, who died while Henry was still in the Army.

John Specca wrote for the necessary documentary material to make him eligible for some graduate study at the University of Michigan in the field of law. He will enter there this month.

Bill Syring sent a postcard from Ireland where he was enjoying a 30-day leave from his duties in Germany and he reports the Irish relatives very much to his liking.

A letter from the Illinois Bar examiners tells us that Pete Alonzi is being considered for the October class. The material has gone in from here and this may be some evidence that Pete will soon be a civilian again. He has been out with the Pacific fleet for some months now.

We had a nice surprise this week, too, in a visit from the father of Lt. Bob Simon, USMCR. He says Bob is on Guam and he has no idea when he may be home but he hopes very soon. Bob's wife and baby are in Ottawa, Ill., waiting for Bob to get home.

John Verdonk paid us a visit right in the middle of this report. He is in "civies," looking fine, and is now investigating the several possibilities of entering the practice of law, after more than two years service in the Army and having earned the rank of captain several months ago.

That's all for now. In the meantime don't forget:

IF IT'S NEWS, WRITE SCOOP!

Lt. (Jg) John Noda, St. Augustine, Fla., for the past seven months executive officer of a Coast Guard amphibious control vessel, returned to the states after 19 consecutive months of sea duty. He participated in seven invasions during that time, including the assaults on the Marshall Islands, Marianas, Admitties, Palau, Philippines, Iwo Jima and Okinawa. He was aboard the Coast Guard vessel during the latter two operations.

John Reilly is now an ex-G. I. on the basis of 115 points. It was in July that John left the Army. T/Sgt. Cliff Brosey writes from Manila that he recently ran across Lt. Jack Rosch, ex. '25, who was a halfback on the Four Horsemen team of 1924.

1st Lt. Dan Hilgartner, M.A.C., who was in North Africa and France for two years with the 46th General Hospital, was sent direct from France to the Pacific area with the 35th Station Hospital unit of the Medical Corps. Nick Gulyassy has completed his first year at Loyola Medical School, Chicago, and is well into the second year. Brother Vic is with an ordnance company in Manila.

Lt. Chuck McNeill, long with the armed guard in the Pacific, visited South Bend, his home, and Notre Dame in July. His assignment then was Treasure Island, San Francisco.

Marine Cpl. Charles Butterworth, South Bend, since Corregidor a prisoner of the Japanese, was liberated from the Omeri camp near Yokohama. Mrs. Butterworth who hasn't seen her son for seven years planned to go to the coast to meet him.

1943 Lt. (jg) Edward C. Roney, 1723 Iroquois Ave., Detroit, Mich.

From Ed Roney:

October is rolling around fast and in another two months most of us will have our "fogys" as alumni. Three years is a long time, but I believe we've stuck together about as well as any class ever has under the circumstances of a war. It'll be our job now to stick together just as closely for the rest of our lives. With the war over we should be able to get together oftener, and we'll hold some of those bull sessions as only '43 can do.

It might be well, while we're all thinking of getting out of uniform and back into civilian life, to remember those of our classmates whom we've lost these last three years. They were not as lucky as we, and, while we'll surely have a Mass for them at our class reunion, a few prayers now and then would be a good way to thank them for our good times together and the sacrifice they've made.

Not any terrific amount of news this month, but I have managed to pick up a little here and there. At the moment I'm the only naval officer who ever got his request for duty and am the guy behind the guys in the radio shack at NAS, Grosse Ile, Mich. Being here, I found out Jim Byrne came home for a 30-day leave a couple of days ago and had this news: Jim saw Fred Gore in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and says he's off his LST as he'd hoped and expects to see his wife any day now. Bill Fisher was down there also and will be married to Peggy Riordan of New York on Oct. 25.

He's also heard from Joe Hillebrand, who's on the USS Charger, and Jack Gilligan who came home and got married some time back. Jack was on the Emmons and was transferred off three weeks before the ship and its entire crew were lost to a Kamikaze. Byrne reports to Great Lakes for further assignment early in October and hopes to see some of the Chicago crowd home when he gets there.

Ed Hickey is also home on leave, from the USS President Adams. I've held this up two days now trying to contact him, but haven't had any success.

At Great Lakes I saw John O'Malley, not too much the worse for wear for his "months as a German prisoner." He wouldn't say much except to deny Gene Fehlig's report that he's getting out. He's going into demobilization work instead. He said Jim Fagan was in Germany last he'd heard, and Dick Kelly working for the Army at some large firm. Or maybe it was the other way around.

It makes me very happy to get one up on Scot Scanlan and be able to report that Ed Hughes of his class is here at the NAS in a very good job. He's exec of one of the units here.

Ed Ferguson gets into Detroit as often as he can get a plane to fly this way from Glenview, Ill. Haven't seen him as yet but will eventually.

A few days after I got here I dropped into the chaplain's office to meet the new Catholic chaplain. We were both surprised, and happily, because it turned out to be our rector of our sophomore year, Father Dupuis. Since then we've had some old time bull sessions together and I've found out these rectors never do forget many of their gangs. And for Morrill and Maloney, I want to report that he knew everything all the time. At least almost everything. Father had been with the Fourth Marine division before coming here and would really have some stories to tell if he'd talk.

Jim Byrne also said, as did Helen Healy, that Bill Moorehead was finally heading stateside from Germany. He's been over some time. Got a letter from J. J. Becker the other day and he reports his ship traded a case of beer for a jeep a short time back. So they now put it ashore and ride around all the islands they get to.

To Ralph Carabasi the classes condolences on the death of his father. He'll also be remembered in our prayers.

The other night a WAVE at dinner noticed my ring and asked what class at N. D.? She turned out to be the very nice sister of Pat Bradley. Said she'd get after Pat to write in what news he has.

That's about all for this column so I'll close with a reminder that we could use some letters and that the class is trying for a 100 per cent representation in the Alumni Fund this year. How about giving your all toward both?

T/4 Bob Towner has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service with the 101st Airborne outfit. He writes that he expects to be home soon with a discharge—and his recent English bride. Lt. (jg) Vince Jerry of West Chazy, N. Y., completed 14 months duty aboard the carrier Essex in the Pacific. As aircraft arming officer, he participated in the occupations of the Marianas, Palau, the Philippines Islands, Iwo Jima and Okinawa and saw many strikes launched at the enemy along the China coast, the Jap home island of Kyushu and at Tokyo. For meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy on Okinawa, Cpl. Charles Wade was awarded the Bronze Star medal and the Purple Heart.

1st Lt. Bob Bauchman is stationed at the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, D. C. His brother, Walt, ex. '44, will be graduated from West Point next spring. Pat Fisher, '36, who foresees no immediate prospects of his becoming a civilian, writes that his brother, Paul, was in Italy, and Pat enclosed copies of a few of Paul's letters describing the wonders of ancient Pompeii, the beauty of the church of Santa Maria De Rosario and his audience with the Pope.

This in a letter written by Tommy Atkins, FPO, San Francisco: "... Only a few days previously my dad had sent out the letter from Father O'Donnell of August which spoke of the Adoration Chapel. And then behind the artist's sketch on the cover [of the April 'Alumnus'] I saw why. It was like reading the obituary of a Sunday newspaper, but worse, for nearly every name held a memory of happy days, of youthful camaraderie, and many of them names of close friends."

Bob Nenno is a naval medical student at Loyola Medical School, Chicago. Lou Bymkus, star tackle of the Washington Redskins in 1943, has signed to play with the Cleveland Browns of the All-America Football conference. Lou, a seaman, first class, is now at Notre Dame as a physical ed instructor for the Navy.

Lt. (jg) Joe Hillebrand who has sailed on the same ship in the Atlantic for 26 months has seen Fred Keler on a mine-sweeper and Vic Kimmel, '34, on an LST. Gino Ducci, '45, (NROTC) is on Joe's ship.

Capt. Bill Earley awarded the DFC and the Silver Star while serving as a fighter pilot with the 15th air force in Italy, has been discharged and is football coach at Parkersburg Junior High in his home town of Parkersburg, W. Va. Two days before the surrender of Germany, Bill flew his final mission over Berlin. He was badly shot up on one mission and received the Purple Heart.

1944 Pfc. John A. Lynch, 15724 Grandville Rd., Detroit 23, Mich.

From Johnny Lynch:

V-J Day and recent reassignments from the European theatre have brought in more than the usual number of letters, but first we'll have to clear up some that came in shortly after the last deadline. The first is an airmail from John Anhalt, a Lt. (jg.) on the U.S.S. Catskill.

"We hit San Francisco for a few days in June, but it was a stay that lasted just long enough for us to get a tang of the good old States and then shove off. I had hoped for a leave of some sort, but my luck wasn't working, so the telephone was the nearest I got to home. Maybe I'll get home in the next four or five months and we can go out again just like old times.

"While in 'Frisco I ran into Jim McVay, '42, who was going on a short leave, and then we bumped into each other yesterday while I was on shore patrol duty in this port. He said that he had been back to N.D. Ed Hickey is on the ship that is berthed next to us. As yet we haven't gotten together, but tomorrow's the day, I hope. He's boat group commander on the President Adams (APA 19), a darn fine ship. Jim Burke, '44, is supposed to be flying Army transports in this area, but finding him is like looking for a needle in a haystack. Vince Duncan was at Okinawa on his LST 558, but I haven't seen him since last August in Honolulu. Who knows but what Jim Byrne might end up into here if the war lasts long enough! He's had duty in Fort Lauderdale so long that he probably considers Florida his native state.

"Jack Hughes wrote the other day, and he's still slaving away at a career with W. T. Grant and Co., in Rockford, Ill. As you probably know, Bob Fisher is around Okinawa on PGM 32. Bill Binst and Larry Burns are on the same ship, the AKA 25—Circe, and are tied up in small boats. I saw both of them in Honolulu not long ago. Jim Meagher, '44, is on the AKA 56—Arnak, and I saw him in the St. Francis Hotel in 'Frisco just after he had come back from a leave. He's engaged to a St. Mary's girl. While on Iwo Jima I met a fellow from N.D. by the name of John Lauck. He's from Indianapolis and was in '45. He came back to Pearl Harbor with us on the Storm King. And that's the works on the N.D. men that I have run into.

"I am still doing the same old routine, watcher, gunnery and divisional work."

One of the ships going into Tokyo Bay for the surrender treatment was the USS Perkins, on which Jim Cunningham shipped out of Norfolk early in July. Jim wrote this at that time:

"We're only a few days out of Norfolk, a dark night and the sea jumping upon us. This old boat can really ride a storm rough.

"I first heard you were back in the States when I visited N.D. late last month after we came in from our first cruise. [My letters to Jim were following him through Texas and Cuba.—J.L.] I saw Jim Armstrong, Ray Donovan and all the gang around publications, and had a talk with Frank O'Malley while riding the bus.

"I enjoyed your up to the minute dope in the 'Alumnus.' Two of our other officers are ex. N.D. men—Bob Crowley, ex. '45, and Leon 'Jim' Livingston, ex. '33. Crowley and I got together with Tex Pequinney while in Galveston in April and had a good old time. Ran into Ens. Joe Cooney, '45, and Lt. Mike Comerford, '43, while in Cuba. Joe is on a PC and Mike has a shore job. I tried to talk Mike out of 45 pairs of shoes for our ship, but he only let me have 15. Wait till I catch him out of cigarettes in the Pacific. While at N.D. I ran into Navy Med Student Brock Lynch, around to pick up a degree, and Bill Roberts. Bill is an RT in the Navy. They were both in Catholic Action with me.

"There are plenty of chances for CA work on this ship. I'm holding services on Sunday for my division, and put out a daily one page newspaper which goes along with the daily press news.

"By the way, heard that Chuck Patterson was awarded the Silver Star for his bombing work over Manila Bay."

Phil Clarke came through with a letter in late July, from Denver. The address is 732 Fillmore St.

"I received the June issue of the 'Alumnus,' a publication that had completely evaded me previously. It was great to get news about so many of the fellows, but shocking to learn of the deaths of so many of them. I hope to receive each issue from now on, as I learned when in St. Louis last month that I'm eligible for a 'war-time degree' from N.D., and then will be a real alumnus myself.

"As you may remember, I left N.D. in December of '42 after completing three years of pre-med. I entered the University of Colorado School of Medicine in March of '43, am now in my senior year, am a member of the V-12 unit, and shall receive my M.D. degree come March of '46. I have been accepted for internship at the St. Louis University group of hospitals. But prior to that I'll get my B.S. from N.D. in October when the next convocation is held.

"Haven't heard from too many of the boys lately. Bud Kuhn was stationed in Oakland in May, but I'm sure he's at sea by this time, and probably a j.g. now. Paul Marietta was stationed in Phoenix the last I heard. Another ex-roomie, Mark de Mott, was in Europe a long time and should be back in the States soon, if he's not already here. [See "Deaths," this issue for tragic news of Mark—Eds.] Pat Yoklavich is doing fine at Yale Med. School. I saw Chuck Urruela up at Boulder about a month ago. He's studying Japanese in the language school at Colorado University. Bob Kohl is home on a two weeks vacation from Cleveland where he's engaged in aeronautical engineering. Had a good golf game with him and Dusty Evans who spent one year at N. D. in our class, and is in the final years of his studies for the priesthood. Bob Dee was in Denver last month; his family has now moved to Sioux City. He flew some fifty-odd missions over Germany and is now up for discharge."

Ensign John Hickey, of the South Bend Hickeys, sent along some late July news from Pearl Harbor, the station through which many an N.D. man passes.

"Right now I have as a roommate a boy who was a grad of the class of '40 in aeronautical engineering, Hank Rohl, and a pretty swell roomie he is. I could really give out with the info about a lot of the boys, but I'd best just mention having seen them to avoid the censor censuring. My neighbor, Ray Beetz, is still on his tour and having quite a time of it. One day the South Benders had quite a gathering with my neighbor Bill Connors, Barney Turnock, '43 (that red-headed cousin), and also Joe Gall, '44, and Jack Murray, '43. Joe and I were able to make quite a few liberties together in lonely Honolulu.

"As has been mentioned in previous issues of the 'Alumnus,' old roomie from V-12, Rebel Stumpf, was through here for a visit, and I have seen Bob Faught, Bill Talbot, Johnnie Moore, Ralph Vinco Guerra, Jim Brutz, Tony Maloney and Bill Kerr. Saw John O'Rourke before he went home on his ship to get married, and Tom Shellworth and John Herlihy, '45. Then there came big T. Brennan and John Prince. Dick Doerner was through here a short while ago just fresh from his resort dis-

Ens. William T. L. White, USNR, '44. Somerville, Mass., who received the Navy and Marine Medal for his heroic rescue of two Marines from drowning during the amphibious assault on Peleliu Island in October, 1944. To save the men, Bill jumped into a heavy sea without a life jacket. Two days later he suffered a spinal fracture when a Jap mine exploded on contact with the anchor chain of the LCT on which he was serving. He has since been recuperating in naval hospitals.

bursing duty in California, and beaming for other reasons which we'll let him announce. John Toole, '46, and brother Ted, of the class that was originally ours, were both through here. There have been numerous others whom I have seen at the N.D. club meetings in this area, but I've mentioned only those I've seen outside of that gathering. Another South Bender, Bill Carroll, '46, was in my room a couple of evenings hashing over the local situation.

"Had some very fine visits with Coach Leahy while he was here, and also saw Joe McArdle, his line coach before going into the Navy. Joe Miller, '42, law class, and also of South Bend, ran into me in Honolulu, so we went out to visit the coach that day.

"One day on liberty as I was walking out onto Waikiki Beach I looked up to find Bob Cahill of the Athletic Dept. heading for the showers. He was to leave the next day for the States. Jack Wiethoff, '43, is still in the area and did himself well in the recent track meet here by vaulting 13 feet to beat his record of last year by one foot. Jack Poulla, Owen Kane and Johnny O'Connor, all '38 and of my brother Don's class, were around for awhile, and I had dinner one evening with Gene Moore and Walt LaBerge, both of '45.

"My job is in supply here on the station in the storage of damaged aeronautical material awaiting repair for subsequent reissue. It has been very interesting work and lots of activity going on. I've been playing some baseball with the station team over there on the first sack, a little bit of outfielding and sometimes even a bit of picking up some splinters, too, all a part of the game, eh, Mr. Kline. There is plenty of power on the team and a few of those boys will be up in the majors one of these days. In a few of the games Lee Rhymsus was the 'ump' and you may be sure that there were no arguments. One day before our regular season opened up a team came over to play us and there was their coach standing by me—our 'Biz' Law prof, Guy

McMichael—and his boys went out and whipped us good. Carl Loyd, '47, was in his outfit, too.

"J. P. keeps the candle out for the boys coming through here. So long for now, and let the boys know that the welcome sign is always out here at the Pearl Harbor air station."

Notre Dame's casualty lists lost two names from the missing column when Herb Clark and Jim Landgren reported in safely after V-E Day. Both of them wrote on the 13th of August. This is from Herb.

"Just received my August copy of the 'Alumnus.' It's the first time I've ever been home to get hold of one when it was new stuff. I was glad to read some of the news about the fellows, but the parts about Steve O'Rourke, Tom Creevy, Jerry Quinn and a few others kind of takes all the joy out of it. The news on Mox Rogers was welcome because I went to high school as well as N. D. with him.

"I've been back in the States about two and a half months, and at present am in the middle of a great 90-day furlough. The reason for that being that I was a PW in the Fatherland and am still assigned to a convalescent hospital at Ft. Custer.

"Since I've been home I have received letters from my old roommate Ed Alterdorf in West Bend, Wis., Jack O'Connell with the Navy in Georgia, and Fran Brinkman at Camp Fannin, Texas. Also had a visit from Paul O'Connell who is working for the government in Rochester, N. Y. Little Vic DeSimon came through a lot of tough fighting with the 80th division in the ETO and is now waiting his turn to come home. When I went over I was pretty lucky to be with three classmates, Bob McBride, Warren Leary, Mike Zorovich and I were all in the same regiment of the 106th when we were cleaned up in the Bulge. I knew Warren and Bob had been captured, but never heard about Mike until I read your column this issue. While we were on the boat going over we bumped into Andy McElroy who was in the 87th division.

"I am being married the 25th of this month, and two of the fellows who will help hold me up are John Van Bente and Bill Snyder. I hope to get down to school before I get orders to go back. It looks right now as if it won't be too long before we'll all be meeting down there some day."

Jim Landgren writes:

"Received a copy of the 'Alumnus' the other day, read your news, and thought I'd drop you a line. I noticed that I'm still listed as missing in action, so it might be a good idea to clear that up. I spent a couple of months in a German hospital in Leipzig, and after being bombed out went to Stalag 4B. It was quite a surprise to read that Duke Leary spent some time there. I certainly would have liked to have bumped into him.

"Joe Rod, Bill Kenny, and Bill Guinn were all in my outfit, and all came through o.k. I've heard from Kenny quite frequently, and they're passing the time in Germany teaching classes while waiting for a boat. My old roomie, Jim Constantin, is also teaching in the old country. I suppose you know that he won the Silver Star. While in Camp Lucky Strike at Le Havre, I ran across Fred Funk sweating out an egg-nog line. He left the next day, so we didn't have a chance to get together.

"I've got another three weeks before I report to Miami Beach to reach out for that discharge. After that I plan to return to school for a law course. Became engaged the other day to Doris Dubee of Michigan, so I've got to settle down and make up for a lot of lost time."

A V-J Day letter came from Ed Cashman who is holding down a typewriter on Luzon in the Philippines now, after sweating out the backwoods of Guadalcanal for many months.

"This morning we just heard the official word that Japan had surrendered, so you can guess at how we all feel over here. Ever since last Friday, when the first hint of their giving in came over the radio, we've been in a state of suspense. My biggest problem right now is when I'll ever get home. I'm in my 21st month over in these jungles, yet I have only 40 points. But if I have enough to keep me out of the occupation force I can stand sweating out a return home. I would like to count on visiting the campus of N. D. before too long, maybe even to start in school again by the fall of '46.

"Harry Yeates and I are still together in the same outfit, though I'm in one of the companies now instead of Hq. We finally got off Guadalcanal after 16 long months of jungle-monastic life, and are now on Luzon in the Philippines. We haven't been here long and are just setting up camp. But it was here that we met the first fellow from our class—Bill Schroeder from New York, majored in philosophy, a great friend of Jack Woelfle's. We had a swell visit with him, but then we moved way up the island from him and have not seen him since. He's an MP with the 29th Repl. Depot and seems to like it a lot. Then Yeates met Dave McLaughlin who is a lieutenant. I missed him, and Harry said he talked with him only a few minutes. Then at Church one Sunday I met the Godfrey brothers, Mike and Jim, who were in the class ahead of us at N. D. They are also from Peoria, so you can see we had lots to talk about. They're close by us now and I hope to see them again soon. I understand Jim Coogan is stationed around Manila somewhere, but I haven't been able to locate him. It took us 20 months in the Pacific to come across fellows from our class, though I know lots of them are out this way.

"Have you heard anything about Gerry O'Reilly, the Brooklyn boy? Would surely like to hear some word from or about him. We hear regularly from George Barisillo who is carrying on in Leyte and evidently operating in a big way for Special Service. Bill Schroeder plans to return to school and so does Yeates, so I think lots of the boys will be cashing in on the GI Bill of Rights. Well, at least we'll plan to meet at N. D. every once in a while for a game and a good old reunion."

"Black John" Murphy has come through with two letters again. At their writing he was still at Cushing General Hospital, Framingham, Mass., sweating out a discharge. This is Aug. 7.

"Earl Engliert wrote back in June, and I replied only yesterday. Word from Ens. Ed 'Hooper' Dowling tells that he has been made the skipper of his LCI 29. Had a hasty V-mail from T/5 Bob McAuliffe, and he had just landed on Tinian with the 307th General Hospital. Tom O'Connor, Ernie Sedlmayr and Mox Rogers are all headed out of the 88th division for the U.S. Forces in Austria (USFA). Ray O'Connell has been transferred to some special service deal. Some chicken those poor occupation boys must put up with. They are really sore, and one can't blame them. No word on Jim Lloyd, so I wrote his wife at their old address. Also no word on Bill O'Brien or 'Red John' Murphy.

"I'm still bucking for a discharge here. I hope I've had my last operation, and I hope to get out soon so I can return to school and also get married. Am enclosing pictures of Mox and Ray and also one of 'Black John' taken at McGuire General in Richmond."

Here goes Murphy again; September 2.

"Good to hear Jim Landgren and Herb Clark were freed. I was sweating them out all right. But what's this about Clark getting himself captured again? Did he marry anyone we know? Latest word from Skipper Ed Dowling is that he met Joe Gall at long last. Also Bill O'Connor. Ed may be home soon. Jim Lloyd was on orders at Grand Isle, Nebr., when his wife presented him with a boy, Pic. "Black John" Murphy, '44, sweating out a discharge. (See '44 news, this issue.

Michael Stuart. I am quite happy for my old roomie.

"I'm up for that CDD, and I've got my fingers crossed for both of us, and all the other N. D. lads. Haven't seen an 'Alumnus' lately, but I'll bet the column's okay."

Vic Colletti, back from the wars, has a first letter in the mail, from Port Arthur, Texas, the old home town. He wrote on August 20.

"Guess it is about time I let the 'Alumnus' know what has been happening to me since I put my books away and went off to the war. My Army travels have taken me to most of the States east of the Mississippi, and a nine-month stretch of duty in England, France, Belgium, and Germany. I was on a wire-laying team in the 273 Inf. of the Fighting 69th Division. No need to tell you that the 273 Reg. was the first outfit of the Western Allies to make contact with the Russian Army.

"I am now at home with a 30-day furlough before I report back to Fort Sam Houston; then God knows what will happen. I have been in contact with Neil McManus in the Pacific on an LSM. Also had a letter from Lt. A. G. Bilotti. At the time he wrote he was in a hospital in the Mariannas. He tells me that Charles Hrdlich is somewhere in Belgium. I understand little Joe Christen is a skipper of a naval craft somewhere in the Pacific. I seem to have lost contact with Ed Cyr. I was supposed to meet him in London, but we shoved off to France a few days before we could get together. Do you know what ever happened to Cy Desmet? Fred Eichorn is in Fort Monmouth, N. J., and come to think of it he owes me a letter."

Another first letter to the column is from Ens. Don Davis in the Pacific. The date is August 5.

"I came across your article in the April 'Alumnus'—the first one I've seen since I've been out here. It sure is great to hear where everyone is, but sad to read about the 'killed in actions' and 'missings'."

"I am in a hospital in the Admiralty Islands, and had a drink or two with Ed Keelan, '44, at the Fleet Officer's Club here. He is on a supply ship and has been on one out here since he got his commission at Columbia. Frank Stumpf and I have been with each other as supply officers of two respective destroyers with Task Forces 38, and 58 for the past year. Every now and then I run into an N. D. man, but the two I've mentioned are the only ones in our class I've seen for quite a while."

A rumor had been started on its way that Chuck Patterson was on the casualty list. I wrote Chuck and got this answer on August 27.

"Here's a quick denial of the rumor, and I'm very happy to be able to write it. We've been out here in the Pacific for about a month, but we didn't quite make it to the most forward fighting area before peace, wonderful, wonderful peace came. Our squadron is continuing to operate as usual and may do so for a while. The big, beautiful difference is that no one will be shooting. We've heard, too, that we are to be decommissioned. It's hard to find out the score, and when you are certain you have it somebody drives in a couple of runs and you're back where you started."

Chuck is a j.g. now, and that's his second trip out he's speaking of. He got the Silver Star on the first one.

Lt. Earl Engliert is still holding forth at the Miami Army Air Field in case any of you get down that way. Earl wrote Aug. 25.

"In the early part of the summer quite a few N. D. lads were at the Naval Training Center in Miami. Among them were Ensigns Bill Scheuch, Mike Malloy, Herb Coleman, Tom Cavlin and Dick McCormick, '39 I think. We had some good bull sessions together. Mike was married on St. Pat's Day, and shipped out from Cuba on a destroyer escort. Dick went to PT school at Melville, R. I.

"Our statistical control officer at the field is Capt. Charles Risor, '39. In the finance office until recently was Father Grimm's brother Al. He is now at ATC Ferrying Division headquarters in Cincinnati. Got a nice letter from 'Black John' Murphy finally. I am looking for John Guldau to arrive at the AAF Redistribution Center on the beach next week. He has been on leave home since hitting back to the States from a POW camp.

"Now that the war is over I am getting a trip outside the continental limits of the U.S. Laugh! It's a 30-hour trip to Nassau on an inspection tour. Who knows but that I'll meet some of the gang there. Am hoping to get up to Atlanta for the Georgia Tech game, or even to South Bend for the Iowa tussle. Time and developments here will decide. And with luck I'll enroll for the summer session at N. D. next year."

Lt. Bob Le Mense, '43, has two letters in the mail, one prior to V-J Day and one shortly after. The first is from Friedberg, Germany.

"Had only a month on the line as a platoon leader before das krieg ended, and now it looks like the CBI for me. But we're due for a 30-day leave in the States on the way. I am with the famed 45th Division. Almost rear echelon now—assistant regimental S-1. But while the war was still in progress this loole had the 3rd platoon of L Co., and you know how that is. But now things are pretty soft. Plenty of work, as I'm Regt. Investigations Officer among other things, but I'm not kicking.

"Haven't heard from Dan Downey in over a year now. And almost six months since Don Hattzel wrote. Ted Weber finally has a good job, and I'm glad for that. I hope to be home in September or October—could be we could connect at N. D. and have a good old caf bull session."

Bob's second letter is a V-mail from the POE at Le Havre.

"We've been delayed so much lately that your letter only had to make the one trip across the ocean. We are currently sweating out a boat here at the POE. I have high hopes, however, of making it in time for the first N. D. game this fall.

[He did. He was on the campus for the Illinois game—Eds]

"Did I tell you that I ran into Sgt. Jack Denniston and Lt. Bob Dumas in Augsburg, Germany. They work together in the AG section of 7th Army rear. The three of us had several good sessions together. They moved to Hiedberg the day I left Germany. That's about all for now. Hope we meet at N. D. at the first game—how're your chances?"

Two additional letters have come to the column that must be mentioned. Though neither is from a Notre Dame man, they are from members of our so-called synthetic alumni. The first is from Miss Ruth Hurley, sister of Capt. Jack Hurley, '34, and cousin of Lt. John "Starchy" Bishop, ex. '44. It explains itself.

"In reading my brother's 'Alumnus' for the month of August, I noticed where someone was seeking information about Lt. John Bishop. According to the Marine Air Corps, he was killed Nov. 20, 1944. Johnnie had been overseas nearly a year when the tragedy occurred. He had enrolled as an air cadet in '42, planned on being a naval flier. Instead he was commissioned a Marine Lt. in a Marine Reconnaissance Group, and sent overseas late in '43. He had expected to come home for Christmas '44 and to see the Notre Dame-Great Lakes game last year. However, a few weeks before this happy expected event he was sent out on a mission from which he never returned. The Marine Corps reports that about the time his plane disappeared one was seen to crash into the water. They searched for a few days, meanwhile declaring Johnnie 'missing in action.' When no trace was found they declared him dead."

"I see by the August 'Alumnus' that you were inquiring about Frank Cusick. Frank is a lieutenant in the Army Air Force and was shot down over Germany, Jan. 2, 1945. He is still in a missing status and we, at home here, are all hoping and praying for his safe return. He was a navigator on a B-17 and would have completed his missions around Feb. 1, of this year. He had recently received another cluster to his Air Medal, but was only interested in the war getting over, so he could get back to his loved ones and once more return to the campus of Notre Dame."

Through the kindness of the administration and medical GHQ's at Camp Pickett's Hospital your columnist has been able to secure two furloughs in as many months. The first took me home, Detroit, and to Notre Dame. The Navy still looked like full speed ahead as they marched to classes and to chow, but with the WAVES and the dozens of other secretaries who have invaded the campus, N. D. has taken on a co-educational appearance. Sorin Hall still stands as the pipefitters nightmare, but Brownson Hall has been divided and subdivided by the bureaucrats of the Main Building until it is no longer recognizable.

Under the Dome I saw such familiar faces as Bill Dooley, to whose judgment this copy will soon be submitted, Fathers Charles Carey and John Lane, who share adjacent offices, in the one-time stronghold of Brownson, with a bevy of nice young women secretaries, and Bob McAuliffe and Edward R. Quinn, who are interested in the success of student-teacher relations.

Fathers John P. Lynch, William Craddock, John Ryan and Charles Sheedy were in evidence, as were Profs. Frank O'Malley, Richard Sullivan and Rufus Rauch of the English Department. Brothers Finbarr and Louis were holding the 'Ave Maria Press' to its schedules, and Tommy Owen was still buzzing around the Dining Halls. Things haven't changed too much.

Tom Bremer, "Beezie" Wleklinski and Gene Wolhera were trying, but not very hard, to hold up the reputations of the Law School. Dick Leon, of Mexico City, was visiting the campus while I was there. He is a lieutenant in the Tank Corps and was on his way to the Pacific coast for a boat ride. Bob Gantler, '45, came in from Chicago for the week-end. He was with us in Camp Croft back in '43, but was soon discharged and went back to N. D. to graduate. Joe Lanihan is perfecting in Cavanaugh Hall and doing post-graduate work. Big Ed Gallagher is living and working in South Bend after getting his degree.

My second furlough got me as far as Spartanburg, S.C. where I've spent some time with the James Crowleys and the Edmund P. Joyces. The Crowleys are the parents of Jim Crowley, '44, and hold open house for ND men going through town. Jim is a corporal with a post office unit on New Caledonia. Mrs. Crowley had heard from Jack Woelfle before I arrived. Jack is with the 9th Division now and was at Ober-bernbach, Germany. The Joyces are the parents of Ned, '37, Jack, '41, and Lyle, '44, Joyce. I saw Ned and Jack, but Lyle was busy on Luzon in the Philippines. He is with Hq. of the 27th Repl. Bn.

Names in the news from here, there and everywhere:

The Detroit "News" reported Don Trotter, '44, Escanaba, Mich., as arriving Aug. 2 at New York City aboard the Queen Mary. The "News" also reported that Lt. Frank English, '44, and his wife Helen are now proud parents. Pfc. Charlie Golden, '43, was married in Monroe, Mich., recently. WO. Paul Rooney, '45, stopped in Detroit on his way from the ETO to the Pacific theatre. Paul is with a port engineering outfit. Ens. Larry Stahl, ex. '44, and a recent Annapolis grad, stopped in Detroit on a round about way to sub school at New London, Conn.

Joe Dillon, '44, Camp Croft graduate, has been in Germany with the 386th Inf. Elmer Milliman, '45, was with the 194th Glider Inf. in Germany after being discharged from a hospital in England. I heard later that he had been transferred to the paratroops and had jumped at Wessen or some such place. Dick Milliman, '43, was a corporal with the M.P.'s at Caserta, Italy, after being released from the hospital with more than one bullet scar which he caught in the Gothic Line. Ens. Dave Roney, '44, was on the USS McCalla in the Pacific and hoped to get home this fall.

That's all for now. If you're '44, let's write a letter.

It's good to be able to start quoting from the many letters we've received from the '44 boys. From Oahu, Hawaii, Lt. (jg) Chuck Patterson wrote to Jim Armstrong: "I know that you are well aware of the good work being done by the N. D. Club in Honolulu. A couple of weeks ago, Bill Herzog, '43, who is VTN-55's engineering officer, and I attended a communion breakfast at the Academy of the Sacred Hearts. We were invited by club president, Tom Fallon, who is stationed here at NAS, Barber's Point. Mass was at ten, followed by breakfast, then benediction at the grotto (much like N. D.'s) after which was held the business meeting. It was a wonderful day."

From LA. (jg) Chuck Urruela, Oklahoma A & M College, written last July but nevertheless still interesting: "... Jerry Smith, '43, is in my classes, and he and his wife have a little apartment where they are at home to the boys.

"Have had some more news from the sea-going Rotzies. Wonder if Jim Armstrong has gotten any of the stories which have come to me first hand? Several of the ships whose pictures have appeared in the paper of late, as victims of the Kamikaze had our boys aboard. Think I told you of the heroism of little Charlie Montrie at Okinawa, where he was blown from his battered destroyer, the Newcomb, into the sea, and though burned and wounded, tried to keep afloat a dying chief petty officer twice his size for several hours. Tex Crowley's destroyer was in the force which shelled outer Tokyo. Tom Shellworth was on the Sara when she took it last January. Lt. Fat Malloy, '36, just brought a big Navy ordnance show to Tulsa as part of a War Bond drive. Think he's living at home for a few weeks."

And more, informally, from your sec., Lynch:

"... 'I landed in Spartanburg, S. C., Sunday morning, (Aug. 29) and was royally entertained by the Joyce family (Ned, '39, Jack, '41, and Lyle) also the Crowleys (Jim, '44). They are the families who entertained such stalwarts as Jack Woelfle, Jerry Quinn, Charlie Koegeler and myself when we were little military men at Camp Croft. Mrs. Crowley had just heard from the Woelfle and he was in Germany with the 9th Division, having transferred from the 45th which is coming home."

From Ted Weber:

"They're ballyhooing an all-star football game here on the coast for the night of Sept. 14 between the 4th and 2nd air forces. Bill Huber, Bob Greenbalgh and Earl, are getting their share of publicity. I saw Huber once when his air force team played Fort Riley in the fall of '43 and they bunked in our squadron. I'm hoping I might get a chance to see him again out here, but come the 14th I'll be one of the mob, sitting way back and seeing Huber and all the others from a distance.

"And before you slip me the sixty-four dollar question and ask 'when are you going to get out,' let me yell 'I don't know.' The chances aren't very good, what with my measly 36 points, but if they let me finish fighting the battle of Wilmington I'll be happy. Even this infernal night work can't discourage me.

"Jim Kres, ex. '46, and the former drum major—he of the stratospheric tosses, to quote the 'Dome'—and my cousin graduated from Marine OCS late in June and at last word was in Rhode Island going to some sort of school.

"The work continues to be interesting—meeting returning troop ships and some of the refugees from the Philippines prison camps—and sometimes distasteful when you have to turn a guard in or throw someone in jail for what appears to be a minor infraction of the rules. The people who don't like MP's should remember that the MP's don't like themselves when they're on duty."

Jerry Coleman, out of the Marines and well installed in civilian life, is working for the Treasury Department in Cleveland. Jerry has a brand new wife, and so we offer congratulations.

Here's a string of honors that would do any soldier proud, and they've been awarded to Sgt. Jim Constantin of Chicago—the infantryman's badge, the Silver Star for wounding eight, killing three and capturing eleven of the enemy, the French Fourragere, and the Presidential citation for action in the Colmar pocket in Alsace. Jim was located in Muhlbach, Austria.

Don Heltzel, on his last lap of a 30-day leave, visited the Alumni Office. He was on his way to Navy Pier, Chicago.

Phil Meyers, South Bend, visited home and campus when he had a short vacation from the Burbank, Calif., Lockheed plant, where he is employed as an aeronautical engineer.

LA. (jg) John Nilles spent a leave at his home in Fargo, N. D., after duty in the Pacific area since July, 1944. Lt. (jg) Bill Wicks of Chicago was at Iwo Jima at the beginning of the second week of the invasion. Twice, his ship has rescued B-29 airmen who were forced to bail out of their crippled ships while returning from missions.

Ens. Charlie Montrie, Monroe, Mich., returned to duty aboard his destroyer, the Newcomb, after recovering from multiple wounds suffered when the ship was attacked by four Japanese suicide planes off Okinawa last April.

From Ens. Jim Cunningham, Aug. 28:

"Ran into Jim Clark, class of '44, a few weeks back in one of the ports out here. He told me about a Notre Dame Communion breakfast which had been held the Sunday before we arrived. About 40 attended, including Chuck Patterson, who is on his second tour of duty.

"Met Fran Kearns on his DE not so long ago. Bob Crowley, class of '45, who is sound officer on our ship, went through sound school with Fran so the three of us had a big old bull session. Fran got married a few months back and is praising the institution to high heaven.

"Been putting out a daily one page memoed newspaper and with Crowley and a gunner's mate putting on Catholic services every Sunday. The men have plenty of interest in going to church.

"My brother, Bill, class of '46, is back in the States from Europe with a couple of air medals and silver bars.

"I don't figure to be out for a year. You lucky people will be seeing the Notre Dame games soon, and we'll be out here thousands of miles away trying to hear them short wave."

1945 and Later

David R. Condon, The Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Ill.

Al Lesmer's basic training at Sheppard Field, Tex., has been completed and as of Sept. 17 he was awaiting orders to be shipped to another field and thence to an embarkation center for overseas duty in the occupational forces. And Bob Riordan has started that new job with the State Department in Washington with an eight weeks' training course. He writes that Bob Morrissey is in the same deal and the two are living together.

QM S/c Jim Phillips of Kane, Pa., with the Atlantic Fleet wears the American, the European-African-Middle Eastern theater ribbons, and Pfc. Ray O'Connell holds the Bronze Star Medal, the combat infantryman's badge, the good conduct medal and the Mediterranean theater ribbon with three battle participation stars. The Oak Park lad has been overseas 19 months and is now athletic technician with the 2633rd Special Service Group in Italy.

Pfc. Ed Sweeney, Rockville Centre, N. Y., recently returned on furlough from the Italian front where he served 18 months with the 88th division of the fifth Army and later with the 15th Air Force. He was wounded in action in May, 1944, and again in October of that year. Norb Tremko was furloughing from Italy also, where he was a radio operator-gunner with the AAF. Its Hindustani that Pfc. Frank Shannon interprets for the Army out of San Francisco. George Schwartz, Leighton, Pa., has his discharge, and Lt. Louis Newbold was assigned to the 13th AAF.

John Adams reported to the Washington Redskins on Aug. 12. Lt. (Jg) Leo Klier has received his discharge and is returning to Notre Dame in November, to the delight of Coach Ripley. Cornie Clatt appeared in the backfield for the College All-Stars when they met the Green Bay Packers Aug. 30. Cpl. Luke Higgins of Edgewater, N. J., won the shotput event of the Fifth Army track finals held in Milan, Italy.

Bill Clark with the Fifth Air Force in the Philippines completed 26 months of overseas service. Bill served in Australia, New Guinea and the Philippines. His fiance, Miss Janet Bartz, is a student at St. Mary's College.

Ray Baddour was the recipient of one of eight student medals awarded by the American Institute of Chemists for scholastic achievement to senior students in eight mid-Western schools. Ray, who was a V-12 student, is back at Notre Dame as a midshipman.

Capt. John O'Malley has been assigned to Ellington Field, Texas, after completing a combat tour as navigator over the German occupied countries. He returned with the DFC, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Purple Heart received for wounds due to enemy action.

A Bronze Star went to S/Sgt. Gerry O'Reilly, Brooklyn, for crawling through intense mortar fire to string wire to a platoon pinned down by machine-gun fire. He then directed mortar fire on the machine-gun nest and the second round landed squarely on the enemy position, killing five men.

T/5 Otto McNaughton of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., completed seven months overseas duty in Italy. He has the Mediterranean theater ribbon with two battle participation stars and has been awarded the combat infantryman's badge, the Purple Heart and the good conduct medal.

Lt. Bill Mills, South Bend, is a fighter pilot with the "Flying Shark" fighter squadron of the "Flying Tigers" fighter group, of Maj. Gen. C. L. Chennault's 14th air force in China.

Tom Steigmeyer recently returned from a year's tour of duty in the Pacific with the Navy, during which he took part in six major battles. Bob Palladino, Sp. (A) 3/c, was on his way to the Pacific as a physical instructor in the Navy. Bob Hanlon is playing left half for the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval air station team this fall. He expects an early discharge and will return to Notre Dame as soon as he gets it.

Bob Griesdieck, St. Louis, who has received his honorable discharge from the AAF, writes that his twin brother, Bill, has returned to Hawaii from a special radar mission in the West Indies. Lt. Charles Russ received his commission in May and is now stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.

2nd Lt. Clair Harding of the 1st Marine division, was wounded on Okinawa in May, evacuated to an Army hospital on Saipan and then transferred to a naval hospital. His basic training completed at the submarine school in New London, Conn., S 2/c Don Butler of Dowagiac, Mich., was to be assigned to the underseas fighters.

ARCHITECTURE HONORS

Francis W. Kervick, head of the department of architecture at Notre Dame, and seven graduates of the University are honored in a portfolio of ecclesiastical designs published by the church property administration in Milwaukee, Wis., and received recently by the Notre Dame library.

The portfolio, designed to present outstanding ecclesiastical designs in recent years over a general cross section of the United States, contains 130 accomplishments, including 18 by Notre Dame architects. All designs are ecclesiastical buildings embracing churches, chapels, schools, hospitals, rectories and convents.

Represented are the accomplishments of 59 architects who have demonstrated their ability in the field of ecclesiastical design, and of this number eight are architects of Notre Dame.

Prof. Kervick, veteran head of the Notre Dame Department of Architecture, was selected for the portfolio on the basis of his designs for two educational structures—the Cushing Hall of Engineering on the Notre Dame campus and the St. Matthew's parish school in Mobile, Ala.

Architectural graduates of Notre Dame who have distinguished themselves in the portfolio follow:

Maurice Carroll, '19; Thomas Flad, '40; Paul C. Brust, '28; John J. Brust, '34; Wendell Phillips, '12; R. L. Kelly, '13; Thomas E. Cooke, '24, and P. M. O'Meara, '09.

BROTHER LEO DIES

Brother Leo, C.S.C., 76, retired director of the University of Notre Dame farm, died Aug. 20 in the community infirmary after a lingering illness. Brother Leo was one of the nation's leading stock breeders and cattle feeders and was named champion cattle feeder of Indiana in 1937, joining representatives of other states in a tour of large packing houses in Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

Until 1933, Brother Leo's farm supplied all the beef for the University dining halls. He was prominently known in Chicago livestock circles, where he did all of his buying and selling.

Brother Leo, born Daniel Donovan, joined the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1897 and was appointed director of the Notre Dame farms in 1900. He retired in 1943 because of failing health. Funeral services were conducted in Sacred Heart Church by Rev. Joseph A. Maguire, C.S.C., celebrant, Rev. Thomas Irving, C.S.C., deacon, and Rev. William P. Lennartz, C.S.C., subdeacon. Burial was in the Community cemetery.

IN PARLIAMENT

Christopher Hollis, English economist and author who was a member of the Notre Dame faculty from 1935 to 1939, was elected to the British parliament at the recent elections.

The OFFICIAL & MINIATURE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME RING

The official Notre Dame ring and miniature as manufactured exclusively by the L. G. Balfour Company shows the tower and dome of the Administration Building heavily modeled on one shank. The ND monogram is reproduced below with crossed torches in the background, an emblem of the ideals and attainment of Notre Dame. The opposite shank shows the seal of the University in high relief and below are crossed torches.

The raised letters "University of Notre Dame" frame the stone, set in the oval top.

Available this year is a miniature of the official size ring for the sweetheart or wife. This is an exact replica, 2/3 size, of the large ring and is now being manufactured to meet the great demand for this sweetheart style.

Be sure to specify the ring size in ordering.

Scholastic OFFERED ALUMNI

Alumni may subscribe to the Notre Dame Scholastic for three dollars the calendar year

- The Scholastic will resume full schedule with the November semester. Several issues, including a special Commencement number, will be published in the current semester.
- The Scholastic, established in 1867 by Rev. Edward Sorin, C.S.C., still brings the detailed campus developments, the official pronouncements of the University, and the personalities of the current student body. These of course come in much more detail than space permits in the ALUMNUS.
- But most refreshing to alumni in the Scholastic are its two major claims to graduate interest, frequency of publication and (not the least attractive) the undergraduate approach.
