Vol. 34 No. 3

June - July 1956

James E. Armstrong, '25 Editor

John N. Cackley, Jr., '37 Managing Editor

Man of the Year in Indianapolis is George A. Bischoff (right). Club President John C. O'Connor made the presentation on UND Night.

Honolulu alumni observed the 33rd anniversary of UND Night with a dinner featuring Bishop John J. Scanlan as guest speaker. Ninety-seven Notre Dame alumni clubs, extending from coast to coast and overseas, have submitted reports of meetings held on this special occasion.

'56 Class Reunion Weekend Scheduled for June 8-9-10

The 1956 Class Reunion Weekend is expected to set a new attendance record as advance reservations indicate another "sellout" on the Notre Dame campus, June 8, 9 and 10. Class dinners on Friday night, the Alumni Banquet on Saturday evening and the annual golf tournament will highlight the weekend program.

Members of the 1931 Class, back for their 25th anniversary, will be guests of Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., at a luncheon in the University dining halls on Saturday. Memorial Masses for deceased class members are being planned for Saturday morning in the hall chapels.

Registration for all returning alumni will be in the Law Building.- In addition to the events scheduled by the Alumni Office, there will also be 'informal sessions' of the Notre Dame Law Alumni Association and the Monogram Club. Tours of the campus, featuring new buildings erected in recent years, will be an interesting phase of the program.

The classes of 1906, 1911, 1916 and 1921 will be quartered in Howard Hall. The '26 and '36 men are assigned to

Morrissey, while the 1931 class will receive rooms-with-a-lakeview in Lyons Hall. Alumni of 1941 and '51 are slated to be housed in Dillon Hall. The Class of '46 will use Badin Hall as their campus 'headquarters.'

Father Hesburgh and Joseph I. O'Neill, '36, president of the Notre Dame Alumni Association, are the featured speakers at the annual Alumni Banquet for all classes, held in the dining hall on Saturday night. The program will close on Sunday morning with a Low Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

Registrants will be charged $20 for the entire weekend covering rooms, banquet, class dinners, beverages, class cap insignia, prizes, box lunches and other miscellaneous items.

Band Alumni Meeting

Former band members attending the Class Reunion Weekend program are invited to be present at a special meeting in the Washington Hall band room on Saturday, June 9, 12:30 p.m.

PROF. O'GRADY DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Dr. Daniel C. O'Grady, one of Notre Dame's most outstanding professors, a faculty member since 1926, died suddenly on May 7. He was a specialist in psychology and systematics, taught in the Philosophy Department, and was the author of two college text boo.

Born in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, Dr. O'Grady served in the United States Army in World War II as a clinical psychologist and personnel consultant, advancing from private to captain. He had been a consultant for the Northern Indiana Children's Hospital South Bend, and for the Beatty Mornorial Hospital in Westville, Ind. From 1952 to 1954 Dr. O'Grady was secretary-treasurer of the Indiana Psychology Association.

He received his bachelor's degree and doctorate at the University of Ottawa while Catholic University of America Washington, D.C., awarded a mast degree to him. In collaboration with the Rev. Charles C. Miltner, C.S.C. Dr. O'Grady wrote a philosophical tex "Introduction to Metaphysics" which is used widely in many American colleges as well as institutions of higher learning in England.

Dr. O'Grady is survived by widow, Catherine Anne; his mother Mrs. John O'Grady, of Ottawa; thre brothers, Emmett and Joseph, of Ottawa, and Rev. Frank O'Grady, stationed at a mission in Santo Domingo and a sister, Miss Agnes O'Grady, o Ottawa.

Lectures Featured In Liturgical Series

Three European scholars will lecture on liturgical subjects at Notre Dame June 15 - July 31, according to an announcement today by Rev. Michael A. Mathis, C.S.C., director of the University's summer Liturgy Program.

They are: Rev. Louis Bouyer, Catholic Pontifical University of Paris, France; Miss Christine Mohrman, Catholic Pontifical University of Nijmegen and Amsterdam University, The Netherlands; and Rev. Ernst Griesbaber, Karlsruhe-Knielingen, Baden, Germany.

Father Bouyer, who lectured at Notre Dame in 1952, is the author of Liturgical Piety, recently published by the University as the first in a series of Liturgical Studies.

Miss Mohrman is acknowledged as authority on Early Christian Latin, a field in which there are few experts. She collaborated with two French and Belgian scholars in the translation of The Ordinary of the Mass and is credited with several major contributions concerning the history of the texts and their meaning.

Father Grieshaber, a German pastor, will lecture on "Liturgical Arts." When he formed a parish immediately after World War II, the only place his congregation could assemble was in a tavern. He gradually constructed and decorated several parish buildings.

The Department of Religion in 1947 Maugurated, under the direction of Father Mathis, an undergraduate Liturgical Program which was extended to the Graduate School in 1948. The purpose of the undergraduate program is to give the student a comprehensive view of the liturgy and also to train him to participate in liturgical func-Ins, especially through the Gregorian Chant. The Graduate School Program takes two forms: research and nonresearch. Father Mathis graduated from Notre Dame in 1910 with a Bachelor of Laws degree, and also studied at Holy Cross College and tholic University.

This magazine is published bi-monthly, by the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind. Entered as second class matter Oct. 1, 1930, at the Postoffice, Notre Dame, Ind., under the act of Aug. 24, 1912.

Admiral Burke Speaks To Graduating Seniors

Notre Dame's 111th Commencement June 1, 2 and 3, will feature the awarding of degrees to more than a thousand graduates and an address by Admiral Arleigh A. Burke, U.S.N., Chief of Naval Operations and member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The Most Rev. Thomas K. Gorman, D.D., Bishop of Dallas-Fort Worth, will deliver the sermon on Sunday morning at the Baccalaureate Mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, apostolic administrator of the Fort Wayne, Ind., diocese.

Class Day exercises, the awarding of prizes and the presentation of commissions to seniors in the R.O.T.C. and Marine units will follow the Class of 1956 private visit to Sacred Heart Church. The Notre Dame Band will formally start the weekend festivities on Friday evening with a concert in the Drill Hall. The University Theatre's musical, Finian's Rainbow, is scheduled for Saturday afternoon and again that night, in Washington Hall.

Reception For Families

Families of the graduates will attend a reception, given by the University administration, in the Student Center. Parents and other guests will have an opportunity to meet the faculty and to see the many interesting buildings on campus during the weekend.

For the sports-minded visitors, Coach Jake Kline's baseball sluggers will tangle with the Great Lakes Naval Station, on the Cartier Field diamond, Saturday afternoon.

Honorary Degrees

The University of Notre Dame will award an honorary Science degree to Admiral Burke and an honorary Doctor of Laws degree to Bishop Gorman. Other prominent guests who will receive honorary doctorates are: Hon. George M. Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury; Walter Duncan, LaSalle, Ill., N.D. alumnus, member of the Associate Board of Lay Trustees and well-known business man; William K. Warren, Chairman of the Board, Warren Petroleum Co., Tulsa, Okla., and member of the University's Advisory Council of Commerce, whose son, William K., Jr., is president of the 1956 Senior Class; Dr. Marston Morse, noted mathematician at the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton University; Frank M. Folsom, New York, N. Y., president of Radio Corporation of America and member of the University's Advisory Council of Science and Engineering; John A. Coleman, New York City stock broker, member of the College of Commerce Advisory Council and former Chairman of the New York Stock Echange, whose son is a member of the graduating class; and Dr. Philip Mosely, New York, N. Y., expert on Russia and member of the Columbia University faculty.

DIPLOMAT TALKS ON FOREIGN AID

Chester Bowles, former U. S. ambassador to India, gave a public lecture on "A New Diplomacy for Southern Asia" at Notre Dame on April 19. His address was one of a year-long series of "Diplomacy in a Changing World" sponsored by Notre Dame's Committee on International Relations. Dr. Stephen Kertesz, head of the Committee and professor of political science at the University, introduced the speaker.

Mr. Bowles pointed out that since most of the nations of Asia and Africare no longer controlled by Europe, it is America's job to befriend these people and make them loyal allies. He feels that if they are to become loyal they must be politically stable, and this can only come about with economic security. If aid is used thoughtfully and intelligently in foreign countries, it will produce this political stability.

He said that some shortcomings of the foreign aid policy are "America's belief that money can buy loyal allies, and the tendency to give aid only to those countries infested with communists, thus slighting those who show proper gratefulness and appreciation. Too often the aid is given in competent on with Russia."

Bowles is the author of Ambassador's Report, based on his diplomatic service at New Delhi from 1951 to 1953, and The New Dimensions of Peace which was published last October. He has travelled widely throughout Asia and the Middle East and has observed first hand the impact of Soviet policies on the people of those areas.

Universal Notre Dame Night Sets Participation Record

Universal Notre Dame Night, in 1956, established a new all-time participation record in local club annals as 97 alumni organizations have submitted reports of meetings to campus headquarters. Another probable dozen "precincts" are still to be heard from.

From Miami to New Hampshire and from Hartford to Hawaii, clubs all along the way celebrated this great event. The tremendous impact created by UND Night programs can never be measured on a cause-and-effect basis. In most instances non-alumni friends of the University as well as alumni attended the affairs. Committees in charge succeeded in obtaining generous publicity from press, radio and television outlets. Alumni leaders in local communities received deserved public recognition from the toastmaster of the evening, since "Local Leadership" was stressed as this year's theme. Notre Dame prestige skyrocketed in many cities throughout the United States.

Clubs and campus cooperated in planning itineraries for University representatives which permitted 24 administrative and professorial spokesmen to attend meetings in 59 cities. Those from Notre Dame included: Rev.

Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president; Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., Executive Vice-President; Rev. Philip S. Moore, C.S.C., Vice-President in Charge of Academic Affairs; Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., Director of the Notre Dame Foundation; Rev. Thomas J. O'Donnell, C.S.C., Associate Director of the Foundation; Rev. Charles Sheedy, C.S.C., Dean of the Arts and Letters College; Rev. Joseph D. Barry, C.S.C., Ass't. Prefect of Religion; Rev. Arthur J. Hope, C.S.C., University historian; Rev. Edmund J. Murray, C.S.C., Ass't. Prof. of History; Rev. William Hughes, graduate student; Lawrence H. Baldinger, Dean of the College of Science; Alumni Secretary, James E. Armstrong; Robert F. Ervin, Business Administrator of LOBUND; Coach Terry Brennan; Business Manager of Athletics, Herb Jones; and Director of Athletics, Edward W. Krause.

Also, Professor Frank O'Malley; Professor Walter Langford; Coach Bill Fischer; Dean Emeritus James E. Mc-Carthy; Professor William Burke; Professor John Malone; Assistant Law Dean John J. Broderick; and Professor James Dincolo.

Father Hesburgh was the featured speaker at Alumni state conventions held in Connecticut and Florida. Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, '27, was guest speaker for St. Louis alumni. About 600 alumni and friends attended the Detroit club's dinner which highlighted talks by Father Joyce and John S. Coleman, president of the Burroughs Corporation. The presentation of gavels to past presidents played an important part of the Chicago celebration. Thomas King, '18, Dean of Men at Michigan State University, represented Notre Dame at the Jackson party. Prominent television and movie star, Jimmy Burke, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the Los Angeles club.

Complete details of Universal Notre Dame Night meetings are contained in the Club News section of this issue.

N.D. Glee Club Records Album

The Notre Dame Glee Club, directed by Prof. Daniel Pedtke, is featured in an album of sacred music recently released by MGM Records. Among the selections are Ave Maria, Halleluia Chorus from The Messiah, The Creation, and Were You There? The album will be available as a 12-inch long playing 33 1/3 RPM record and as a three-pocket 45 RPM extended play set. For additional information write to the Notre Dame Bookstore, Notre Dame, Ind.

Book Review

CROSS UPON CROSS, The Life of Pius IX, by Reverend Francis Beauchesne Thornton, '31, Benziger Brothers Inc., 6-8 Barclay St., New York City.

Father Thornton brings out the sanctity of this great Pope. It is also the first book on the life of Pius IX written by an American. This great Pontiff jokingly called himself the first American Pope, because he was the first successor of Peter to visit this country, long before he ascended to the Papacy.

As a young priest Pius IX was part of Archbishop Muzi's suite on a mission to Chile. He traversed the entire continent in his journey. In the United States, he fostered the growth of the American Church by erecting during his long pontificate many dioceses and archdioceses. He created the first Cardinal of the United States. John J. McCloskey, Archbishop of New York, in the year 1875.

In Rome, he founded, from his own private means, the two seminaries now flourishing, the North American College, and the Pio Latino, for South America.

Father Thornton's book, the result of long, elaborate and conscientious research made in the very places where the Pope lived, has been received with great enthusiasm by the public. Unlike other lives of the Pontiff its intent is to bring forward in a special appealing way the human and supernatural beauty of the Pope, to vividly portray to the reader his entire personality, not only in the glorious and shining events of his life, but also in the moments of sorrow and struggle.

The author has had the good luck and privilege of consulting part of the process in the preparation for the beatification of this servant of God.

Cross Upon Cross will strongly contribute to the glorification of the Pope of the Immaculate. The book will be excellent spiritual reading for priests and religious, and will prove to be an effectual defense of the greatness of the Papacy.

Father Thornton is author of 12 books. At present he is Book Editor of The Catholic Digest and Editor of The Catholic Digest Book Club. He has just finished his 13th book, The Donkey Who Always Complained. And is at work on his 14th which will appear under the title of Chichi. This fall he will return to England and Rome for research and writing.

Monor Banquet

Robert F. Kennedy, Chief Counsel and Staff Director of the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, was the principal speaker at this year's Law Honor Banquet on April 12. The Law Honor Banquet, an annual event under the auspices of the Student Law Association, serves the dual purpose of honoring the graduating class and recognizing the achievements of other students who have distinguished themselves.

A feature of the occasion was the announcement that Robert P. Gorman of Tiskilwa, Ill., will be the new editorin-chief of the Notre Dame Lawyer, succeeding James E. Murray of Bancroft, Iowa. Other appointments to the editorial staff of the Lawyer for 1956-57 follow: Associate Editor, Thomas S. Calder, Worcester, Mass.; Articles Editor, Jack Economou, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Note Editors, Ed-Dard S. Mraz, Chicago, Ill., and John C. Rogers, Dallas, Texas; Case Editors, Ralph R. Blume, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Vernon O. Teofan, Zion, Ill.; Book Review Editor, Paul M. Kraus, Toledo, Ohio; Managing Editor, John F. Chmiel, Niles, Mich.

Patrick J. Berrigan of Lewiston, N. Y., will succeed Ronald P. Mealey of Ridgewood, N. J., as director of the Moot Court. His appointment, also, was announced at the banquet along with other officers of the Moot Court as follows: Executive Director, David L. Barnes, St. Clairsville, Ohio; Secretary, Lawrence A. Kane, Jr., Cincinnati, Ohio; Publicity Director, Thomas G. Ryder, New York City; Corresponding Secretary, Michael V. Maloney, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The members of the graduating class expressed their esteem for Professor Roger P. Peters by presenting him with a camera.

In his talk Mr. Kennedy pointed out that Russia, which often levels the charge of colonialism against the United States and her allies, imposes a colonialism "of a peculiarly harsh and intractable kind" on the eighteen million people of the Soviet Central Asian Republics.

"The evils of the policies of certain Western nations in colonial areas are now being widely publicized," Kennedy noted. "The Soviets are directing all their agencies of propaganda toward the exploitation of these difficulties. And yet, at the same time, the Communists, with hardly any objection from us, have been permitted to wipe out the freedom of millions of people occupying an area larger than that of Western Europe," he charged.

Kennedy Received Jaycee Award

In 1954 Kennedy was named one of the 10 outstanding young men in the country by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the Advisory Council of the Notre Dame Law School.

Recalling his visit to Soviet Central Asia last year with Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Kennedy said the people of the states of Turkmenis-

William D. Bailey, Jr., left, Wilmington, Del., and John E. Kennedy, center, Minneapolis, Minn., have been awarded John J. Cavanaugh Law Scholarships, founded by Father Hesburgh in honor of his predecessor, Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., who is shown congratulating the two winners. Bailey is a history major in the College of Arts and Letters; Kennedy is an accounting major in the College of Commerce. Each will receive his undergraduate degree in June and will enter the Notre Dame Law School in September.

One of the most convincing arguments for the existence of true patriotism is the military cemetery.

Jim Armstrong

And to me one of the most convincing arguments for the devotion to God and Our Lady has been the Community cemetery.

For flesh and blood are the real brick and mortar of an enduring institution such as Notre Dame. I am freshly, and differently, impressed with this truth.

Rev. Thomas McAvoy, C.S.C., Archivist, has just given me the privilege of reading a small book of obituaries of the pioneer Religious of Notre Dame, written in the fine hand of Rev. A. Granger, C.S.C.

Perhaps, with me, you will see in some of these entries the roots of the Notre Dame of today and tomorrow.

"1844—Brother Joachim. This Brother, a Frenchman by birth, was an excellent Brother. He was one of the first band who came to America. A tailor by trade, he had little occasion to work here, for the members were few and his life short. He died in his 30th year."

"1844—BROTHER PAUL. This Brother was an intelligent young man, well versed in English literature, and consequently of a great help to the Community at this epoch. He wrote a beautiful hand and acted as bookkeeper. He was besides truly pious. He died of consumption at the age of 28 years."

"1847—BROTHER ANTHONY. This good Brother was a widower when he entered the Community. He was received with his two sons, the younger of whom died an apprentice at Notre Dame ten years afterwards. Brother Anthony was a type of simplicity and true faith. He worked faithfully for the ten years he lived in the Community. He died aged 63."

"1854—Rev. J. Curley. This young Father died of the epidemy (sic) then raging at N.D. He had been a priest but one year. He came to us from Kentucky, completed with us his clerical education, made his profession in the Community, and was ordained at N.D. by Rt. Rev. Bishop Lefebron of Detroit. His death was pious and edifying."

"1854—Brother Dominic. This Brother, a German by birth, died of consumption in our old Infirmary where the present one stands. He was a devoted Brother, pious and cheerful. He taught school for some time, and then was employed at some outside work for the benefit of his health, but after lingering sickness he expired on the 16th of September, aged 33."

"1854—Rev. J. Contet. Of this excellent religious and zealous priest we may say . . . excellent professor, zealous missionary, exemplary religious. He did in ten years the work of ten good men. His habitual cheerfulness spread joy around him. He died a victim of the epidemy, aged 38 years."

"1854—John Flynn. Brother of Mother Charles, he came to Notre Dame with the intention to join the Community as an ecclesiastic. He was a student at the College at the time of his death. He died of the epidemy with sentiments of deep piety, and resignation (in the old Infirmary, near the present kitchen). He was then 22 years old."

"1855—Brother John of the Cross. This Brother was an excellent shoemaker, and as such his death was a loss to the Community. He was besides an exemplary religious man esteemed by all. He died of typhoid fever at the old Infirmary West of the College, aged 40."

"1862—Rev. Father Leveque. This good Father was already old when he entered the Community. Eccentric and fond of travelling, he redeemed these natural defects by a lively faith. For some time he was pastor of the little congregation of Lowell, Ind. He died almost suddenly at New Jersey on his return from Cuba, where he had been collecting and recruiting his health."

"1862—Rev. J. Bourget. This young Father came from our Mother at Mans and remained with us for ten years. Pious, humble and simple, he accepted a mission of charity and devotedness, and went, 1861, to Mound City, to attend the sick soldiers during the prevailing sickness among them. He soon died a victim of his charity, at Mound City, aged 30."

"1873—Brother Bernard. This Brother was devoted, energetic, and a good teacher. He started the school at Lafayette, after he had been Director at Baltimore. He visited Ireland and brought back some Postulants. On his way back to Lafayette via Chicago, he slept in a cold room in January, got a pleurisy, and died in that city, fortified by the last sacraments. He was about 35 years old."

"1874—Rev. Father Lemmonier. This young priest, a nephew of Very Rev. E. Sorin, finished his theological studies at Notre Dame where he was ordained priest. He was for some time prefect of discipline, vice president, and finally president at the time of his death. Naturally amiable, polite and talented, he won the affection of the students. His long and cruel malady was borne with great patience. His death was truly edifying. He was 35 years old."

These are but a few of the wonderful entries in Father Granger's book of obituaries. But in them you have the differences—age, nationality, origins, rank, talents. But always the great common denominator of Faith is there.

These were indeed sons of Peter, the Rock. Small wonder that Notre Dame in all its growth has never been concerned with the strength of its foundations.

New Chem Fellowships

Seven new fellowships have been established in the University of Notre Dame's department of chemistry, according to Dr. G. F. D'Alelio, department head.

W. R. Grace and Co., New York City, has underwritten one predoctoral and three postdoctoral fellowships, the Notre Dame scientist reported, while single fellowships have been established by Charles Pfizer and Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.; the Foster-Grant Co., Leominister, Mass.; and W. W. Barton, Rockford, Ill.

Fourteen additional corporations, government agencies and organization are currently underwriting research.

Included are the National Science Foundation, the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, the U. S. Army Ordnance Corps, the National Institutes of Health, The Texas Company, Eli Lilly and Co., E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., the Peter C. Reilly Foundation, Olin-Mathieson, Inc., Monsanto Chemical Co., Shell Oil Co., Socony Mobil, Inc., Miles Laboratories, Inc., and the Chicago Show Printing Co.

Fellowships have been established by Frank J. Seng, Chicago, Ill., and by C. Roy McCanna, Burlington, Wis,

SAYRE URGES INCREASE OF TAX EXEMPTION ON CORPORATION GIFTS

American business and industry urgently need men who can think logically and creatively and "who possess adequate management experience and skills," Judson S. Sayre, president of the Norge Sales Corporation, stated at the banquet of the 45th annual yneeting of Central Assoc. of College and University Business Officers held at Notre Dame. More than 200 representatives of educational institutions in thirty states and Canada attended the sessions. G. Edward Harwood, N. D. Comptroller, was host to the convention.

"Top management positions at fabulous salaries and stock incentives are going begging," Sayre claimed, "because there aren't men qualified in sufficient numbers to supply the demand." It is largely up to our colleges and universities, he said, to teach people "how to think, how to do better thinking and how to think creatively."

The challenge of the next decade with its "fantastic promise of technological advance and physical expansion" may generally be met in the fields of productive skills, Sayre conceded. But he warned that if today's problems are any indication, the acute shortage of management and distribution skills "may well produce a national crisis."

"We have no real difficulty in finding people of good character to fill jobs," he explained. "Not much more difficulty is involved in finding people who combine with good character an adequate amount of relevant business experience and a pleasant personality. The real hitch," he emphasized, "is finding people who know how to use their minds."

Sayre, who is a member and former chairman of the Advisory Council for Notre Dame's College of Commerce, chided business executives "who pride themselves on the fact that they are practical, not theoretical people." In business, he contended, "there is, strictly speaking, no such thing as a good theory which doesn't work. If it is a good theory, it works and, conversely, if it doesn't work, it is a bad theory," he said.

Predicting that the age of automation will require fewer skilled workers but an increasing proportion of managerial and supervisory personnel, Sayre declared that the nation's colleges and universities are going to need "a great deal of assistance and support" if they are going to produce leaders for business and industry.

"I think it is incumbent on all of us as American citizens and as leaders in our respective industries and professions to enlist our time, our talents and our money to provide our schools with the means and the facilities to give all deserving American youth the higher education so essential to our national growth and individual happiness," Sayre declared.

He urged that the tax exemption for corporate contributions to educational institutions be increased from its present 5% to 10%. Business and industry are fully conscious of their own social responsibilities, Sayre said, and they will be ready and willing to assist colleges and universities in solving their financial problems if the methods and the leadership are provided.

1860's, but that some sections were not finally subjugated until the 1920's.

"The Communists, when they attack Western colonial policies, speak of broken promises, failure to grant loca autonomy, segregation and the torture and murder of colonial peoples in order to subjugate them," Kennedy asserted. "By every one of these standards Soviet control of these areas qualifies as colonialism of a peculiarly harsh and intractable kind," he said.

Kennedy urged that "this aggression against freedom" be spotlighted in the United Nations and in American propaganda throughout the world.

"As the Soviets continue their 'peaceful' encroachments in the Middle East, Afghanistan and Southeast Asia, using as their chief weapon eastern hostility to colonialism, it would be well if the peoples and leaders of these areas pondered what has been the fate of their brothers to the north in the Soviet Central Asian Republics," Kennedy declared.

Moot Court Trials

The Appellate Court of Indianaheard the arguments in the semi-final round of the annual Moot Court Competition on Friday evening, April 20. The six judges of the Appellate Court sat in two divisions of three judges each. The following students presented arguments before the first division, presided over by Judge Wilbur A. Royse Messrs. Thomas P. Carmody of Carlinville, Ill., William C. McLaughlin of South Weymouth, Mass., Lawrence A. Kane, Jr., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and John C. Rogers of Dallas, Texas.

Students arguing before the second division, presided over by Judge John W. Pfaff, were Messrs. Karl Jorda control Bergstreps, Germany, Richard K. Bennett of New Castle, Pa., Patrick J. Berrigan of Lewiston, N. Y., and K. Wayne Kent of Evansville, Ind. Messrs. McLaughlin, Kane, Berrigan and Kent were judged the winners. They will take part in the final round of the competition next fall.

Prior to the arguments the six Appellate Court judges were the guests of Dean O'Meara at a dinner in the Morris Inn. Also attending the dinner were Mr. George M. Eichler, President of the St. Joseph County Bar Association, and members of the faculty.

Dramatic Vietnam Evacuation Story Written by Lt. Tom Dooley, '48

The story of Vietnam's flight to freedom is vividly described by Lt.

Thomas A. Dooley, '48, in his book, Deliver Us From Evil. Dooley, a naval medical officer, was on duty in Haiphong during the evacuation and helped thousands of refugees escape through the Bamboo Curtain. He gave inoculations to nearly 500,000 natives, performed countless amputations and treated many victims of leprosy and smallpox.

In commenting on the book, Admiral Arleigh A. Burke, U.S.N., Chief of Naval Operations, said, "Lt. Dooley contributed greatly to the welfare of mankind and to an understanding of the fundamental principles of the United States, as he participated in this epoch-making period of world history."

For eight months Dooley was both physician-in-chief and active head of a huge refugee camp and saw hundreds of communist torture victims. He and four other Americans remained in the area until the Communist Viet Minh assumed control. Through his camp more than a half-million Vietnamese were processed, given medical care and transported four hours down river by small craft to reach the American ships waiting to take them to Saigon.

He had high praise for American pharmaceutical concerns that sent large quantities of free medical supplies to Indochina at his written request. An airline gave him 100,000 bars of soap. A St. Louis concern furnished an artificial leg for a girl whose leg had been blown off by a land mine.

"I would tell the refugees that these companies had nothing to gain from doing this. I told them it was simply because they were Americans and wanted to help. People wouldn't believe this. They couldn't believe it."

The refugees were a pitiable lot, filthy and diseased. Although they were Christians, Lt. Dooley found them profoundly distrustful at first of any American. The Communist propaganda had taken hold. On numerous occasions, the doctor said, he was beaten and roughly handled by his own patients.

"They hated us," he explained "because all the guns and tanks and napalm (jellied gasoline) that had killed their countrymen in the war with the French was made in America. They considered America the supply depot for France. Every mistake that France had made in her colonialism they attributed to America, too."

The president of Viet Nam awarded Lt. Dooley his nation's highest honor while the Secretary of the Navy in this country presented him with the Legion of Merit for extremely meritorious service. The Reader's Digest selected Dooley's story as the Book Condensation for April. Deliver Us From Evil is scheduled to be made into a movie, starring Kirk Douglas as the Navy doctor. Currently on a nation-wide lecture tour, Lt. Dooley spoke to the Notre Dame student body recently.

Institute of Spirituality

The fourth annual Institute of Spirituality for Sister Superiors and Novice Mistresses will be held at Notre Dame August 1-7, according to an announcement by Rev. A. Leonard Collins, C.S.C., Institute director.

Keynote speaker at the sessions will be Bishop Bernard J. Topel of Spokane, Washington. Recently elevated to the hierarchy, Bishop Topel received a doctorate in mathematics at Notre Dame in 1938 and taught on the campus the following year. The theme of this year's Institute of Spirituality, Father Collins said, will be "The Technique of the Religious Exercises." More than 800 Sisters representing 139 religious communities in the United States and Canada attended the 1955 sessions. The Institute is designed to assist superiors of women's religious communities in the spiritual formation of their subjects.

Vocational Development Meeting

A decade of development in the fostering of religious vocations will be analyzed at the tenth annual Vocation Institute to be held at the University of Notre Dame July 12-15, according to an announcement by Rev. John J. Doherty, C.S.C., Institute director and director of vocations for the Holy Cross Fathers' Indiana Province.

Several speakers featured at Institute sessions in former years are being invited to address this year's meeting, Father Doherty said. They will review the developments in the field of vocation work during the past ten years and suggest new methods and techniques for the future, he explained.

Damaging Effects of Radiation

A University of Notre Dame scientist says that "irreparable genetic damage" may result from the increasing use of radiation in medicine, industry, research and military development.

According to Dr. Edward O. Dodson, a genetics specialist and associate professor of biology, genetic damage, unlike radiation sickness, "does not have the benefit of a minimum threshold of dosage." He urges that precautions be taken to protect personnel from the genetic effects of radiation just as precautions are currently taken against radiation sickness.

Father Hesburgh Talks to Youth

Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., in addressing the first Washington Conference of Business, Education and Government for Junior Achievement, declared that "for the good of America and American business, young people should begin to learn something about good management and good business at an early age."

Junior Achievement, Inc., puts boys and girls from 15 to 19 into business for themselves under adult guidance to learn through practical experience about business and the free enterprise system. Today there are 40,392 youngsters in the program, operating a wide variety of businesses in 2,400 companies. These companies conduct their affairs in 144 Business Centers maintained by the organization in 131 different communities.

Graduate Scholarship Established

A graduate scholarship at Notre Dame's Mediaeval Institute will be awarded to a qualified student for the 1956-57 academic year, according to an announcement by Rev. A. L. Gabriel, Institute director. The scholarship, which provides $620 tuition and a $980 stipend, will be given to a young man studying for the master's degree or doctorate in mediaeval studies, Father Gabriel said.

To be qualified, an applicant must possess a bachelor's degree and be recommended for graduate work. He also must reveal a specific interest in the Christian culture of the Middle Ages. A reading knowledge of Latin and either French or German is also a requisite.

Converts Featured in Book

Thirteen converts to Catholicism, several of them nationally prominent figures, tell of their spiritual journey in Where Dwellest Thou?, a new book edited by Rev. John A. O'Brien of the University of Notre Dame (Gilbert Press, Inc., New York).

Included in the volume are the intimate personal stories of actress Lillian Roth, psychiatrist Karl Stern, music critic Paul Hume and stage designer Jo Mielziner. All of the contributors are laymen except Britain's Monsignor Ronald A. Knox who is best known for his translations of the Old and New Testaments.

Band Travels in Southwest

Notre Dame's concert band of 55 musicians appeared in twelve cities in the south and southwest during its annual Spring tour.

This year's concert program on the 3,000-mile tour included Wagner's "Tannhauser Overture" and the finale from Dvorak's "New World Symphony" as well as a variety of semiclassical and popular melodies, marches and novelty selections.

Prof. Corbett Writes New Book

Professor James A. Corbett is the author of The Papacy—A Brief History published recently by D. Van Nostrand Co., Inc. ($1.25). In this pocket-size volume, the Notre Dame historian traces the history of the papacy, its purpose and its powers, its achievements and its failures, from Saint Peter to Pius XII. Also included are the texts of twenty-nine historic papal decrees, concordats and encyclicals.

Engineers Hold "Open House"

The Engineering Open House, held on campus on April 23-24, featured an automobile show, departmental exhibitions, a chariot race and a display of aircraft. The Civil Engineers won the plaque for the best department design. New experimental cars were seen for the first time at Notre Dame in contrast to a 1916 Dodge and a Model-T Ford. The Aeronautical Engineering Department displayed a model jet rocket and a 1,000 m.p.h. wind tunnel.

Inland Steel Co. Provides Aid

Inland Steel Company will provide the financial aid for establishing an Engineering Scholarship at Notre Dame, according to a recent announcement by company officials. The recipient will receive $1,500 per year and the University will benefit from an additional $1,000 a year, which is estimated as the difference between student fees and tuition, and the actual cost required to educate him. The scholarship is intended to cover all basic expenses for four years of college education. Inland also granted 21 other scholarships to 14 schools.

Student Yearbook Celebrates 50th

Notre Dame's yearbook, The Dome, is observing its fiftieth anniversary. When students receive the golden anniversary edition this Spring, they will see a pictorial story of "the old and the new," contrasting the university of today with the small school of a half-century ago. The Dome has been published continuously since 1906 except during World Wars I and II when most Notre Dame students were in the armed forces.

The editor of the 1956 Dome is Donald Sniegowski, a senior English major and varsity third baseman from Toledo, Ohio, who recently won a Rhodes scholarship for graduate study at Oxford University in England. The 1906 Dome was edited by Charles O'Donnell from Greenfield, Indiana, who was to become a poet, a priest and president of the University from 1928 to 1934.

Catholic Teachers Meet at N. D.

More than 250 members of the Society of Catholic College Teachers of Sacred Doctrine attended the organization's second annual meeting at Notre Dame on April 2-3.

The Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, addressed the opening session and Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., welcomed the delegates, all of whom teach religion in the nation's Catholic colleges and universities.

General topics discussed during the two-day meeting included "The Finality of the College Course in Sacred Doctrine," "The Responsibility of the Sacred Doctrine Teacher for the Catholic Formation of the Student," and "The Responsibility for the Catholic Formation of the Student as Applied to the Marriage Course."

Dr. Kane Addresses Convention

Parents who exercise reasonable influence and control over their children's choice of "dates" can generally save their sons and daughters from an unfortunate or unhappy marriage, states Dr. John J. Kane, head of the department of sociology at Notre Dame.

Dr. Kane spoke on "The Family's Influence in Dating and Courtship" at the National Catholic Family Life Convention in Boston, Mass. He is the author of Marriage and the Family.

It is ironical, Kane said, that "in the past when parents did have greater influence and control over courtship and marital choice, there was less need of it. Today," he claimed, "when parents have much less influence and control, there is a greater need of it."

4th Annual Parent-Son Weekend

Parents of more than 325 juniors at Notre Dame participated in the University's fourth annual Parent-Son Weekend. The program included a series of events and activities illustrating the academic, religious and social facets of campus life.

Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president of Notre Dame, was the principal speaker at a dinner for parents and their sons.

The deans and faculty members of Notre Dame's colleges as well as the commanding officers and staff of the three campus ROTC units held receptions for parents in their respective buildings during the weekend. Notre Dame's 1955 football highlights film was shown continuously throughout the afternoon in the Student Center.

Father Mathis Edits Liturgical Book

Church Building and Furnishing: The Church's Way, a new book designed primarily for pastors and architects, has been published by the University of Notre Dame Press ($5.50). Rev. J. B. O'Connell, a Welsh pastor and scholar, is the author of the volume which interprets the liturgical law governing the building, decoration and furnishing of a Catholic Church. The book is the second in a series of Liturgical Studies being published at Notre Dame under the editorship of Rev. Michael Mathis, C.S.C.

Superior Students Tested By Counseling Officials

By JAMES E. MURPHY, Director of Public Information

Some college students are too brilliant and efficient for their own good, according to Edward R. Quinn, '28, head of the department of testing and guidance at Notre Dame.

Students with superior mentalities sometimes become frustrated in choosing a college course and career, Ed says, "because of their intense interest and outstanding aptitude in several fields of learning." He cited the case of one student who wants to become a doctor, a mathematician and a high school teacher.

"This is a more serious problem than it seems and a student in such a predicament requires patient and careful direction," Quinn points out. He explained that superior students undecided as to their course and career are given a variety of readings dealing with their several areas of interest. After completing the readings, the student's reaction is tested by a skilled counselor. Generally, Quinn says, the student himself will gradually eliminate the alternatives and settle on one career or field of endeavor.

A member of the Notre Dame faculty for nineteen years, Quinn emphasizes that a counselor should never indulge in crystal gazing and pick out a specific occupation or course of study for a student to follow. The department of testing and guidance, he explained, never tries to place a boy in a particular position but rather in the "job family" where he has the most interest and aptitude.

Quinn and his colleagues, Robert J. Waddick, '51, and Peter P. Grande, '55, all specialists in the field of student guidance, confer with between seventy-five and ninety Notre Dame students each week. One of their unusual problems, they agree, is the student who is just too efficient.

Stressing that a study schedule is advantageous to most students, Quinn recalls one young man who arranged his study schedule with such meticulous precision that he wound up with long periods with nothing to do. This overexact planning of time usually results in poor work and thus the student's good intentions are defeated, he says.

The cases of students who are too intelligent or too efficient are relatively few, however, Quinn says. Most of the cases handled by the department of testing and guidance concern students who are misplaced in their courses or who fail to work up to their capacities.

N. D. Alumnus Helps to Build Bases in Antarctic Region

Lt. (j.g.) Donald P. Landfried, '54, has recently returned to the States after an extended cruise to Little America where he participated in the Navy's "Operation Deepfreeze." Sailing aboard the icebreaker USS Edisto is not a new experience for Langfried. During the 21 months that he has been a member of the ship's staff, Don has made three trips to the Arctic, helping to re-supply northern outposts.

Traveling in ice-choked waters much of the time, Don's ship aided the Admiral Richard E. Byrd party in establishing two small self-sufficient bases which will be used during the International Geophysical Year 1957-58.

The Edisto, with Landfried serving as assistant engineering officer and public information officer, left Boston last Oct. 30 on the first leg of a cruise which included some of the most barren and remote spots of the world. The ship passed through the Panama Canal in early November, making a short stay at Balboa, Canal Zone. After 29 days at sea, the icebreaker made a four-day stopover at Lyttleton, New Zealand, the last stop before proceeding to the Antarctic.

The Edisto arrived at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, on Dec. 20, and operated in that area for approximately a month, escorting other ships through the scattered pack ice and breaking out the heavy bay ice so ships could unload the cargo necessary to establish a small base and air operating facility.

During the month, the crew of the Edisto, along with the crews of the other ships, assisted the Navy construction battalion in building a campsite to be used by the men who will winter in the Antarctic. The site is located at what is known as Hut Point, and was formerly used by the explorers Scott and Shackleton in the early part of the century.

While at McMurdo Sound, Landfried visited camps which were built a half-century ago and found them to be in as good condition today as they were when abandoned by the early explorers, having been preserved in "the world's largest refrigerator."

The Edisto left McMurdo Sound in early January and went to Little America. At Little America, another base was constructed which is only about 30 miles from the base used by Admiral Byrd in his earlier expedition. The old Little America base is now covered by many feet of ice and snow.

Lt. (j.g.) Donald P. Landfried, '54, and friends.

Little America and made a survey cruise of Cape Adare, Antarctica. The primary objective was to locate an emergency landing strip to be used if necessary, by the planes which will fly in from New Zealand next year.

The Edisto returned to Little America and McMurdo Sound in mid-February, and after spending a few dayisat each base, finally set sail for home Feb. 20. First stop enroute was Wellington, N. Z., where the ship remained for two weeks while having urgent repairs made. Proceeding to the U. S. the ship stopped in Chile and Peru on the South American coast.

SYMPOSIUM SLATED FOR INDUSTRIAL OFFICIALS

Plans for a Notre Dame chemistry symposium, July 16-17, on recent advances in the field of synthetic polymers were recently announced by Dr. G. F. D'Alelio, head of the department of chemistry. Sponsored by the W. R. Grace Chemical Research and Development Company, the symposium will be open to industry officials, university scientists and technical leaders.

Six internationally recognized authorities in polymer chemistry arc scheduled to participate in the two-day sessions. They are Prof. Giulio Natta, Instituto di Chimica Industriale del Politecnico, Milan, Italy; Prof. Charles Sadron, Centre de Recherches sur les Macromolecules, Strasbourg, France; Dr. William B. Reynolds, assistant director of research, Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Okla.; Dr. Arthur P. Lien, division director of research, Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, Whiting, Ind.; Prof. Herman Mark, director of the Polymer Research Institute, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Dr. D'Alelio, who will serve as chairman of the symposium.

The Notre Dame symposium will explore the potential industrial importance of the new hydrocarbon polymers. The technical papers and discussion will center around their synthesis, mechanism and properties.

Varsity Scores 42-32 Win Over Old Timers in Stadium

Introducing a galaxy of soph backs and linemen, Coach Terry Brennan directed his 1956 Varsity to a 42-32 victory over the Old Timers on May 12 in the Notre Dame Stadium. Ron Toth, a 205-pound fullback from Cleveland, O., Halfback Jim Just, Milwaukee, Wis., Fullback Pietrosante, Ansonia, Conn., and Tackles Dick Ciesielski, of South Bend, Ind., Angelo Mosca, Waltham, Mass., and Frank Geremia, Sacramento, Calif., looked good for first-year men.

All-American Paul Hornung called plays from his quarterback post, ably relieved by Larry Cooke, monogram winner from last year and newcomer Mike Dugan. Captain Jimmy Morse Forarried the ball over for the Varsity's initial touchdown after about three minutes had elapsed of the opening quarter.

Playing in 90-degree weather the game attracted 15,000 fans. It is sponsored annually by the Notre Dame Club of the St. Joseph Valley for the club's scholarship fund.

After the Varsity assumed a 7-0 lead, the Old Timers stormed back to score three touchdowns and were out in front by 20-7. Don Schaefer, converted from fullback to quarterback for the game, tossed a 21-yard scoring pass to Frank Reynolds, Oak Park, Ill., sophomore back, while Dick Hendricks sped across the goal line twice for six-pointers—one of the touchdowns was a 52-yard run. Schaefer is slated to perform for the Philadelphia Eagles professional football team this Fall.

Though the majority of the Old Timers were seniors who will receive their degrees in June, some stars of other years got into the game. Gus Cifelli, Ernie Zalejski, Frank Epstein, Chet Ostrowski, Fidel Gander, Dan Shannon and Tom Carey all were in the lineup at various times.

In addition to Schaefer and Hendricks, Dick Fitzgerald starred in the Old Timers backfield. With only about two minutes remaining in the last half, Fitzgerald went over for a touchdown from 25 yards out.

The Varsity lined up with Prendergast and Wetoska (soph) at the ends; Geremia and Groble at tackle; Gaydos and Hedrick at guard; Loncaric at center; Hornung, Morse, Just and Toth in the backfield. Fifteen of the 36 men used will be sophomores in the Fall—four of them started the game while five others were listed on the second team.

Coach Brennan commented following the game that "we made lots of mistakes and we didn't do too well with the defenses available." Terry mentioned that the Varsity had not concentrated on defense during the Spring practice session but worked on polishing the offensive for next Fall's tough grid schedule. Two promising sophomore tackles, Bronko Nagurski and Don Lawrence, were both out of action with injuries. Dean Studer and Sherrill Sipes, veteran senior backs, were also on the shelf with injuries. Aubrey Lewis, who earned a monogram last Fall, passed up Spring practice in favor of track since he is a candidate for the United States Olympic squad.

Representatives from opponent schools as well as professional teams were in the stadium to scout Notre Dame's 1956 Varsity and certain Old Timers who will be wearing pro uniforms after they graduate from the University in June.

ND BASEBALL TEAM MEETS GREAT LAKES IN FINALE

Winners of their last three games after a slow start, Coach Jake Kline's baseball team has won 6 this season while losing to 5 opponents (exclusive of a pre-season southern trip to Florida). One of Notre Dame's outstanding victories in recent years was scored over the University of Michigan 6-5 on Cartier Field. Trailing 5-0 at the end of six innings, the Irish stormed back to take the decision from the Wolverines. Kohorst, Hurley and Bujnowski have provided

Sports Bulletin

Mrs. Jack Mollenkopf, wife of the new grid coach at Purdue, may have a "psychological weapon" to hang in or on her house to steam up the Boilermakers (as if they needed it) when they clash with the Irish on Oct. 13. The coach and his wife were guests of the Wabash Valley Club on UND Night and the lucky winner of the Notre Dame blanket was none other than Mrs. Mollenkopf.

power at the plate for the Irish. Bujnowski is also one of Kline's leading pitchers. Coach Kline's squad will play Michigan State and Great Lakes Naval Station away from home before meeting the Sailors again here on Commencement Weekend.

NetmenWillCompete In National Tourney

Notre Dame's tennis team, possessors of a 7-4-1 record after 12 matches this season, traveled to Kalamazoo, Mich., on May 10-11 and lost to both Western Michigan (7-1) and Kalamazoo College (5-1). Coach Charlie Sampson's team will meet Detroit there, Chicago at Notre Dame and Iowa at home, before closing out the participate in the National Collegiate championships scheduled to be held in June.

Capt. Harry Smith has been an outstanding singles competitor this year winning 9 of 12 matches. He teams with sophomore Chuck Vanoncini in the numbe rone doubles team and they have been victorious in 10 of their 12 matches, losing only to North Carolina and Michigan.

Other members of the net squad include Dean Richards, playing in the third position who is the son of Vincent Richards, former Davis Cup star; Jim Rich, Bill O'Connor, John Metz and Tom Guilfoile.

Lewis Paces • Track Squad

Paced by Aubrey Lewis, candidate for the United States Olympic team, and high jumper Bernie Allard, the Notre Dame track team has been very promising during the outdoor season after completing a successful indoor schedule. Coach Alex Wilson's team has defeated Michigan State 86½-54½ and Pitt 84½-48½. The Irish were host to the Indiana Intercollegiate meet which included representatives from Indiana, Purdue, Indiana State, Butler, DePauw, Wabash, Ball State and ND.

Outstanding performers for Notre Dame this season have been, in addition to Allard and Lewis, Bill Squires, miler; Byron Beams, shot put; Jack Cote, broad jump and pole vault; Bill Keegan, 440; Dale Vandenberg, 880;

Coach Charlie Samson and Irish tennis captain, Harry Smith.

Mike Kauffman, discus; and the mile relay squad of Squires, Foreman, Lenihan and Copeland.

In an attempt to gain a position on the Olympic squad, Lewis has been participating in the 100-yard and 200-yard dash, javelin, discus, 120-yard high and 220-yard low hurdles. The Irish compete against Marquette in a decided, dual meet in Milwaukee before completing the regular season.

Golfers Win Nine, Lose Four Matches

The Notre Dame golf team coached by Rev. George Holderith, C.S.C., has been outstanding this season in winning 9 of 13 dual matches. In the quadrangular meet held at Notre Dame in May, Purdue defeated the Irish 25-12 and Wisconsin beat Notre Dame 20-16. While losing to these two powerful teams, Notre Dame came back to defeat Detroit 311/2 to 51/2. The Boilermakers were paced by NCAA champ Joe Campbell who was defeated on the local greens by sophomore Chuck Thurn of Notre Dame. Two other sharp-shooting sophomores, in addition to Thurn, have been playing the top three positions and have been instrumental in the team's success to date. They include Joe Grace and Lloyd Syron. The golfers met Bradley in a dual match and finished their regular season at Michigan State before competing in the National Collegiate Championship.

President's Trophy Awarded to Students

To provide a greater incentive for Notre Dame students to participate in Inter-hall athletics, the Student Senate has inaugurated the President's Trophy, to be awarded to the hall with the most points gained in Inter-hall competition over the course of the school year. Besides strictly athletic competition, winning the trophy will encompass such university contests as bridge and hall decorations.

The silver plated trophy will be presented by Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., when the final results from all Inter-hall sports can be tallied, soon after the finish of the spring baseball season.

Off-campus currently is leading the field with a total of 75 points, comfortably ahead of second place Badin with 49 marks to their credit. Both O-C and Badin have won two major Inter-hall sports. Cavanaugh is in the third spot with a creditable 45 points and Dillon leads the junior hall group with 37.

Each new fall semester will open up new competition among the halls for the President's Trophy and the winning hall will have its name inscribed on the base of the trophy each year.

IRISH SAILORS TRIUMPH OVER FIVE OPPONENTS

Ron Meissner contributed 43 of Notre Dame's 77 points as the Irish Sailing Team wound up its regular season at Detroit. Michigan tied N.D. and Ohio State finished only one point off the pace. The Irish whipped such teams as Detroit, Wayne, Michigan State, Cincinnati, and Marquette. Ray Nelson, Bernardo Gaillet, Tim Rice, and Pete Raffetto helped Meissner close the season most successfully.

Next on tap for the classy Irishmen are the Midwest Collegiate Championships at Purdue on the 19th and 20th of June. The winner and the runner-up in this meet will be entitled to enter the National Championships at Detroit the following week. The two top squads from the East, Midwest, and the West will meet for the title.

Considering their past record, Notre Dame has an excellent chance to qualify for the National meet. The toughest competition figures to come from Ohio State and Michigan. Other teams that have submitted entries are Wayne, Ohio Wesleyan, Washington of St. Louis, Wisconsin and Purdue.

Notre Dame has beaten or tied every team which it will meet at Purdue.

Father George Holderith, golf coach, and Captain Leo Matt.

A. A. HILKERT was chosen as Man of the Year by the Akron Club for 1956 at the Universal Notre Dame Night dinner. The presentation was made by Mr. Hilkert's son the Rev. Robert Hilkert, assistant pastor of the Church of the Annunciation. Mr. Hilkert's stepson, TOM BOTZUM, was elected president of the club.

The featured speaker of the evening was Dr. LAWRENCE BALDINGER, dean of the College of Science at Notre Dame. Other new officers nesides Botzum who were elected include E. A. HINDERSCHEID, vice-president; ROBERT KA-PISH, secretary; and GERALD KLEIN, treasurer.

Boston

Universal Night here in Boston on April 11th was an occasion long to be remembered by the 200 alumni and friends who were present. This annual dinner is always an enjoyable time, but this year's observance was made memorable by the opportunity we had of getting better acquainted with FATHER THEODORE HESBURGH, C.S.C. To say we were inspired by his talk would be a rather incomplete truth. Father spoke of the past, present and future Notre Dame; of the spirit in which it was founded, the spirit which continues there today, and of the programs it proposes to maintain this spirit and its ideals. Our sincere gratitude to Father Hesburgh for so honoring the club. CHARLEY CROWLEY, chairman ing the club. CHARLEY CROWLEY of the affair did a professional job of the affair did a professional job of paying tribute to Fr. Hesburgh and introducing Mayor lynes, Dr. James R. Killian, president of M.I.T., ATHER JAMES J. SHEEHAN, C.S.C., president of Stonehill College, and Swede Nelson. The annual Man of the Year award was presented by CHUCK PATTERSON to PAUL HELLMUTH as an alumnus who has distinguished himself outstandingly in his profession as a lawyer and executive and who has faithfully supported Notre Dame and this club. BILL HEALY retiring president, and this club. BILL HEALY retiring president, thanked members for their assistance during the past year. DICK HERLIHY, president for the coming year, introduced the newly elected officers: vice president, LOU DI GIOVANNI; secretary, BILL McCARTHY; treasurer, DICK HYLAND and directors: BILL O'BRIEN, BILL HEALY, MIKE O'TOOLE, HARRY MARR, PAT TOFURI, GASPAR URBAN, and DICK KIRK.

Buffalo

The Buffalo Club held its annual election on The Buffalo Club heid its annual election on March 6, and the following officers were elected: RALPH ELSE, President; FRANK GAGLIONE, Vice President; RICHARD LEOUS, secretary; JOHN CONSIDINE, treasurer, and LOUIS ALMASI, financial secretary. New Directors were also elected: LOUIS ALMASI, JOHN LA VIGNE, ANTHONY ROCCO, JOSEPH WATSON, and JOHN BOLLAND. JOHN BOLAND.

The first big event of the year was Universal Notre Dame Night on April 9. The Honorable PHILIP J. WEISS, Genesse County Judge and Surrogate was the principal speaker. The judge FILLY J. WEISS, cenesse County Juage and Surrogate was the principal speaker. The judge attended pre-law school at Notre Dame and he spoke about little known details of the history of Notre Dame. Chairman JOE WATSON was responsible for a successful affair which included cocktails and a smorgasbord dinner. Over one hundred people attended. BILL LAWLESS, Common Council President of the City of Buffalo, presided as Toastmaster.

CY RICKARD, shared the spotlight with Judge Weiss when he was named Notre Dame Man of the Year! Cy has worked many years for the Buffalo Club, serving as a Director for four years and as Vice President last year. His selection produced a spontaneous and unanimous approval from everybody present.

Our annual week-end Retreat was affected by a Friday night snow storm and 12 Notre Damers had the large Retreat House run by the Columban Fathers at Derby-on-the-Lake to themselves. Father O'Brien proceeded as usual and the Re-

President Else is busy planning his program for the year which we will hear more about in the next issue of the ALUMNUS.

A family gathering of Notre Dame men and their wives had a real swell barbecue and social night at the home of JOHN CELLA, Sunday evening April 15th celebrating Universal Notre Dame

The University was completely rebuilt by the men, and the women folk had an opportunity to get acquainted and watch their handsome balding menfolk relive their undergraduate days. Con-siderable time was spent tasting Miller's High Life siderable time was spent tasting Miller's High Lite flavor before the steaks were ready. Everyone present doffed their hats to John Cella's expert hand at broiling a steak. They were delicious. Of course the wine was Cella's although somebody sneaked in a bottle of Roma and the finger of suspicion pointed to our FBI agent JOHN GROVES. Everyone claimed they had the proof, nowever no conviction was secured.

Chicago

On the night of April 16 in the Sheraton Hotel you could have raised a million dollars, awarded diplomas, recorded deeds, held football practice, conducted a funeral, staged a concert, or TV show, held a retreat or accomplished just about any other activity . . . with professional guidance.

Present were bankers and financial men like FRANK MILLIGAN, TERRY DILLON, BOB WILMOUTH; judges like NORM BARRY and FRANK McCURRIE; educators like FATHER EDMUND P. JOYCE, C.S.C., executive vice-president of the university, and in the high school field FATHER JOHN E. O'CONNELL, O.P., of Fenwick High School; athletes like BILL FISCH-ER, N.D. All-American line coach: showmen and ER, N.D. All-American line coach; showmen and singers like GEORGE MENARD, CBS' answer to singer the George Melyand, CDS answer to the farm problem, and professional amateur tenors like PAUL O'TOOLE; officeholders like guest Cook County Clerk EDWARD BARRETT; and lawyers JOHN McGOORTY, TOM NASH, JOHN O'SHAUGHNESSY, MAURY LEE, TOM McCARF et al. and appropriate the property of O'SHAUGHNESSY, MAURY LEE, TOM Mc CABE, etc., et al., enough to have evoked another commentary by Blackstone (another in the Sheraton chain—a chain smart enough, incidentally, to hire TOM McDONALD, '49, as sales manager of the Sheraton—and he helped greatly to make the evening a success).

The occasion was the 31st consecutive observance of Universal Notre Dame Night in Chicago. (For those technical souls who might point out that it wasn't observed in, say, '29 or '33 where were you that night . . . out with Englishmen or Big Ten men? Of course it was observed, if only at home.)

The feature of the evening was the honor paid the past presidents of the club. Twenty-five of the living thirty-five past presidents were present ... and not even a Jefferson's Day dinner can match that record! Engraved gavels bearing the name of each ex-prexy were presented.

Chairman was PHIL FACCENDA, '51, who di an incomparable job. Appointed only a few weeks before the dinner, he had everything so organized that the evening ran without break from the first toast in the bar to the last words of toastmaster George Menard.

Chief speaker of the evening was Father Joyce. He presented a memorable word picture of how the university has overcome past problems and faces those of the future. Not too many years ago, the executive vice president pointed out Notre Dame was a small school little known out Notre Dame was a small school little known out-side the sports pages, with an enrollment of 2,000 and a small and undistinguished staff whose total payroll was only $160,000. Now enrollment is 5,000 and the staff represents a staggering annual outlay of well over a million dollars.

annual outlay of well over a million dollars.

Other features of the evening included talks by outgoing president JOE McCABE and incoming president BOB WRIGHT, and presentations of the annual Man of the Year Award; a special citation to EDWIN O'CONNOR, '39, author of the best-selling Book-of-the-Month winner "The Last Hurrah," and introduction of the new FREI.

SNITE, JR., Memorial Golf Trophy, which will be offered in competition this year for the first time at the annual solf tournament July 9. time at the annual golf tournament July 9.

In signing off, your 'umble jumbled servant offered his Last Hurrah to the men who made the year the success everyone so kindly said that it had been. Only when it is over can a club president realize what a gargantuan pair of shoes he has been attempting to fill-and only through the dent realize what a garantuan pair of shock he has been attempting to fill—and only through the aid of numerous other footsoldiers has he filled them. Particular thanks was paid to the following chairmen: golf, DON HOGAN; Father-and-Sonmetting, GIL SEAMAN; Victory dance, TOM BRO-GAN; lecture series, MAURY LEE; Communion Breakfast, PHIL FACCENDA; directory and mailings, BILL KENNEDY; printing, RAY COLLINS; telephone, JIM O'KEEFE; sectional groups, KEN ENRIGHT, WALT KIOLBASA, and ROGER WHITE; Diller-a-Dollar Scholarship dance, FRANK MILLIGAN; exchequer, BILL DWYER and BOB WILMOUTH; liaison with campus club, JOE PAGLIARI and JIM DOYLE; advisory board liaison, JIM FERSTEL; for a GREAT job on publicity, FRED JOYCE, JR.; for advice and encouragement, DAN O'CONNOR. and JOHN O'SHAUGHNESSY. And above all—for everything, thanks and homage to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary.

During the course of the talk, McCabe presented a check for $400 to John McGoorty of the club's Scholarship Foundation, representing profits from the scholarship dance mentioned above, which Milligan had chaired-and everyone else cheered. During the dance itself another check, for $700 raised by direct contributions from 25 Chicago alumni, had been presented to Foundation Chairman TOM BEACOM . . . so this latest gift brought to $1100 the donations of the club this year to the fund which aids deserving Chicago high school graduates to attend Notre Dame. The arrangements are TOTALLY HANDLED BY the Cardinal Stritch Youth Foundation, inasmuch as the club has no facilities for such activities.

The Man-of-the-Year Award this year went to an outstanding alumnus and exponent of Christian family living—PATRICK F. CROWLEY, '33, a Chicago attorney. Together with his wife Patty, Crowley was instrumental in founding the Christian Family Movement. Originated less than a decade ago, the movement has spread rapidly across the nation. Presentation of the award was made by JOHN MORLEY, '35.

In gratitude to his memory, and tribute to the example provided by the late Fred Snite, Jr.—the smiling "Kid in the Iron Tank," whose great fight for survival brought recognition and provided infor survival prought recognition and provided an-spiration to sufferers and thinking people in every land—the club this year introduced as a small token of its feelings the Fred Snite Jr. Memorial Golf Trophy. Made of walnut, the trophy is a handsome symbolization of Fred's devotion to golf before his polio attack. It will be offered in competition this year at the annual tournament . . petition this year at the annual tournament. . . . and between tourneys, thanks to the kindness of his father, Fred Snite, Sr., the trophy will be on display at the Elmwood Country Club. The presentation of the new award was made by club secretary TOM BROGAN and accepted by Fred's brother-in-law and lifelong friend, TERRY DILLON, '32, on behalf of the family.

Line coach BILL FISCHER also said a few humorous words—humorous until he stopped to think of the year ahead. Then he sighed and said that things looked tough—including, he hoped, the new candidates trying to fill those graduation gaps in the line.

By the time this issue of the ALUMNUS reaches members of the Class of 1916 the Reunion weekern and will probably be "history." At this writing (just before press time) Reunion plans are shaping up fine. Several wheel chairs and canes have been reserved for "younger boys." We insist that this will not be our last Reunion, however.

With deep regret we receive from JIM ARM-STRONG the very sad news of the recent death in Taipei, Formosa, of our classmate KARL M. ARNDT. Information concerning this originally was noted in the daily press by JACK HIGGINS of Detroit and FRANK BLOEMER, JR., of Louisville, both of whom were close friends of Karl in his undergraduate days. For many years, Karl was a member of the faculty at the University of Nebraska. Later he became top staff man of the White House Council of Economic Advisors. His last governmental assignment was assistant director for economic development of the International Cooperation Administration of Formosa. Karl was a brilliant student at Notre Dame (Litt.B.). His quiet and reserved manner always was part of him. Karl's home address listing is 4812 Drummond Road, Chevy Chase, Maryland. We extend our sincere sympathy to Karl's loved ones.

The Rohrbachs live in Crown Point, Ind. In a breezy letter from JOHN G. BYRNE of Niagara Falls, N. Y., John had this to say:

"Another thing that hit me was your mention of FRANCIS Y DISNEY I believe he is each to the say."

FRANCIS X. DISNEY. I believe he is at the state capitol, Albany, N. Y., but I don't know where. My brother-in-law is Chairman of the New York State Thruway Authority and we are in Albany frequently on visits and on business.

"My son, Rusty, tells me that he stopped in to see you. He seems to like Notre Dame. Of course we get the usual gripes about food, the rules, and early to bed. The best was the comment that the place hasn't changed since I was there except for a few new buildings. We weren't sure that he would make it to enter N.D. this fall. A week before he was to go back at Terry's in-vitation for early freshman practice, a girl came out of a stop road without stopping and hit the car he was driving. He was thrown out and slid along the pavement and took off an acre of skin but otherwise OK. How he lived is more than I can figure for the car was wrecked so badly that it was only junk.

A. GORDON BENNETT, '28

One of the more interesting words in the language is called paradox; 'the yet it is, yet it isn't situation.' A. Gordon Bennett, '28, of Buffalo, New York, exemplifies this to a small extent in that he spent three years at Notre Dame only to have sickness prevent him from graduating. But getting off to a wobbly start didn't slow him down.

Recently Gordon was appointed General Manager of the Buffalo Courier-Express, the city's morning newspaper. Before this he served as Credit Manager, and Business Manager. In 1954 he was named Secretary of the Corporation.

While at Notre Dame he studied journalism under the late Dr. John Cooney and became fast friends with Father John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., later president of the University and now Archbishop of Philadelphia.

Bennett was president of the local Alumni Club in 1931 and is presently a member of the Executive Committee for the Council of Catholic Men, the Knights of Columbus, and the Corporate Gifts Division of the Catholic Charities Campaign.

Married to the former Bernadette M. Breene of Buffalo, a graduate of Marymount College, Tarrytown, N. Y., the Bennetts have four sons: Thomas G., a June graduate from Notre Dame, Richard B., 19, a sophomore at St. Vincent's College, Latrobe, Pa., Robert M., 15, a sophomore at Canisius High School, Buffalo, and James A., 7.

Since I am having a jurisdictional dispute with DON PLUNKETT, Secretary of the Class of 1929, concerning 1929 lawyers, their sons are not included in this list.

I am sorry to hear from ED QUINN that RON RICH suffered a slight stroke at Christmas time. It is good to know, however, that he has recovered from it quite well. Ron, as you all know, is Head of the Department of Chemical Engineering at Notre Dame. I noted Ron's name recently in WHO'S WHO IN ENGINEERING.

Our Class President, FRANK CREADON, attended a national meeting of the American Mosquito Control Association in Texas in February. Frank is advertising manager of the Mosquito News and is chairman of the Illinois Legislative Committee of the Association. Frank reports that he had a good session with CHRISTIE FLANA-GAN in Port Arthur, Texas. Christie's two daughters, who are graduates of St. Mary's College at Notre Dame, each married Notre Dame men. Christie now has two grandchildren. He expects to have a son at N. D. next year. Frank also reported that PAT CANNY, General Attorney for the Eric Railroad Co., was in Houston conducting

The listing of so many sons of '28 men at N. D. raises a question as to what extent they are getting together. The only case which has been brought to my attention is that of the sons of GUS JENKINS and DON CORBETT who roomed together last year. I also know that GORDON BENNETT's son at N. D. visits at FRANK CREADON'S home in Riverside, Ill., with Frank's son and daughters. Frank's oldest daughter is at Rosary College. BILL JONES' daughter, Barbara, had a date with BILL DOWDALL'S son after the Speaking of BILL DOWgame last year. DALL reminds me that his silver wedding anniversary is on June 27. My son, Tim, has as one of his eighth grade classmates, Nan Rodgers, the versary is on June 21. My son, 11m, has as one of his eighth grade classmates, Nan Rodgers, the daughter of JOHN RODGERS, an attorney in Chicago who was with our class for two years. Are there others who should be added to this list?

I see ED McKEOWN who has his law offices in the Banker's Building where we have our Department of Labor Regional office. Ed has a daughter who is a sophomore at St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. Ed's mother passed away

Thomas R. Ashe graduated from Notre Dame in 1931 and is now vice president and export manager of Globe Oil Tools Company. A native of Oswego, N. Y., Tom has lived in Whittier, Calif., for many years. He joined the Globe Company in 1939 as advertising manager and for some years functioned as their purchasing agent. Dear Jim:

After twenty-five years, I wonder how many of the fellows of that famous class would now be known to me. There is a very wivid mental picture of so many of the real men whom I knew so well and with whom I have never kept in contact, you are among them both personally and in your official capacity as class secretary.

While I have not been active on a national plane, I have managed to keep well occupied in the activi-ties of the Central New York Club. Since Chicago took JIM MULVANEY away from us, we have very few '31ers around. Maybe I shouldn't be too hasty because as I stop to think we have two '31ers running the affairs of the city. Our Mayor is HERB ANDERSON and the Corporation Counsel is GEORGE SHAMON. Both are very successful and highly respected members of the legal pro-Enclosed is a small check to be applied fession. to the Mass fund. IOHNNIE BURNS has been busy writing and phoning '31 men in his area.

Got both your letters this week. It was good to know that definite action is under way at lastand that it will continue until the get-together in June. For a time, you had me worried at the lack of 'blurbs' anent the reunion. That '28 class had about ten notices to their members at this time! And from what the boys tell me who made that 25th—it paid off by being the very best to date. Funny about BILL FLAHAVEN, DAVE NASH and DICK LACY. I knew Bill's folks in Bridgeport but haven't heard from them in years. I wrote a note to CHARLIE SPINELLI inquiring if he knew Bill's address or whereabouts. Used to run into Dick in Brooklyn when he was with Traveler's Insurance here. I thought he had returned to the main office in Hartford. Met Dave Nash several times in New York years ago—but have no idea where he might be at present. Wasn't Dave from Pittsburgh???

The stationery is eye catching, Jim. Is this the usual class stationery advised by the Alumni Association? I was wondering if it was printed at school or in Chicago.

That's it for now, Jim. Keep up the good work and I know that it entails quite a bit of that. If there is anything I can do from this area, don't hesitate to write. My best to you and your family; say 'hello' to any of the Chi boys you may run into—and by the way WHATEVER did become of the Brute????

it was furnished with the compliments of RAY COLLINS who has filled in before on this. CARL CRONIN and EDDIE RYAN are working on some Reunion promotion ideas which they promised to send to the ALUMNUS for publication. Carl has recently become associated with McKay & Poague, Inc., Realtors, in their Flossmore office. Carl ran into a long lost '31 man, HARRY LOCKE, who plans on making the Reunion.

I had a note from BILL KARL, Washington, D. C., and it looks like the capital will be represented by JACK ANDERSON, JIM KEARNEY and Bill. I think Jim should break down occasionally with a letter as the only way I can keep track of him is through his brother, Bill, or BERT KORZEN and DICK PHALIN, whom I meet frequently downtown. FRANK SEWARD and DICK GIROUX indicate they may be unable to be present. I hope JIM KEARNEY will contact JOHN FORD MEAGHER and be sure he is coming. TOM ASHE will try to make the Reunion even though he is going the long way around:

Dear Jim and Kay:

Ik now that Jim is busy trying to get his gang together for the big reunion in June, and I promise to get real busy next week to contact as many of the '31 alumni as possible. JACK SAUNDERS is already busy and I believe that I have heard from him on two different occasions. As per the solemn promise of last October I still hope to be back on the campus with you, but will have to do some fancy traveling in order to make it. Perhaps if there is a prize for the one coming the longest distance I might even get that, so will give you an idea of my itinerary as follows: Am leaving here the week of the 15th of April for South America, with the first stop in Caracas; thence, Barcelona, Anaco, over to Trinidad for a few days, then west again to Maracaibo, into Colombia for visits to Bogota and Cucuta, south to Peru for a few days in Talara and Lima. From Lima I proceed to New York by way of Miami, and after ten days or two weeks there will start for the west coast—but naturally a weekend at Notre Dame. There might be changes in the foregoing, but those are my present plans at any rate.

est to you,

I have received several routine letters from JACK SAUNDERS together with copies of letters sent to him. The Alumni Office has also received letters and reservations from BILL CHAWGO, PAUL KOPROWSKI, L. J. MacINTYRE of Billings, Montana, TONY SCHREINER, now of East Chicago, will be there with AUSTIN BOYLE and BERT METZGER. Bert was recently promoted from manager of the central wholesale division to sales supervisor at Bowman Dairy Co. FRANK LEAHY sent a note indicating he will be on hand part of the time. BOURKE MOTSETT, our esteemed reverend, promises to be on hand with RALPH DALTON, JOHN BELTON and TOM MONAHAN. While in that area why not bring along JOE MEITZLER and PAUL GRANT. JIM MULVANEY and JOE BLANEY will show. MOON MULLINS sent a note last month: "Til be there for the Silver Anniversary and I am eagerly looking forward to it. Looking over the names on the Committee I see enough people whom I know will really have things confused before we leave Tuffy Ryan's old haunts in Lyons Hall. I am sending a copy of this letter to Jim Armstrong for a reservation. I will be representing four hundred years of Jesuit education from Marquette University. I hope all of you appreciate the dignity I will add to the occasion."

EARL BRIEGER is hard at work corraling the western Pennsylvania alumni and sent his report a few weeks ago: "I have just received your letters regarding the reunion in June and wish to congratulate you on your efforts in making our reunion a real success. I was talking to JOHN HICKEY the other day regarding the '31ers around here, and we planned to corral them all and get them out to school for the reunion. In November I wrote you a rather lengthy missal with a suggestion regarding our gift to be made to the University at this reunion. I did not hear from you, and I assume your committee did not think much of the idea. As suggested in your letter, I shall make my reservation with the Alumni Office, and in any event, mark me down as being there, as I certainly intend to do so if at all possible. With best regards to you and all the gang."

WALTER PHILLIP is studying for the priesthood in Old College on the campus. Walt's wife died several years ago and I believe he has a son living in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

TOM GOLDEN writes from Anaconda, Montana that he will be unable to make the reunion: "Just a line to let you know not to look for me at our Silver Jubilee reunion. I am now totally and permanently disabled and don't seem to be able to do anything. I have lost the use of my left hand due to the effects of Parkinson's disease. The V. A. gave me a statutory award for my left hand which entitled me to $1,600 on a new car, so I have a new 1956 Dodge, but since I depend wholly on my compensation I won't have the money to make the trip. Good luck, Jim and have a great time." Tom's address is Box 1412 Anaconda, Montana. I am sure he would enjoy hearing from many of his friends whom he will be unable to see in June.

BUD GIES writes: "I have made many plans to attend former '31 reunions, only to have my plans go wrong at the last minute. I am going to be at this one if I have to crawl. You fellows "back east" are lucky to be able to occasionally renew old N. D. acquaintances. I have seen few old classmates over the years. ED SHEERAN visited us and CARL GAENNSLEN called me several years ago and that is about a far as '31ers go. I see other N. D. men occasionally. Have had letters from ED FLVNN, Sharran, and of course, the thoughtful letters from JACK SAUNDERS and JIM DOYLE. Haven't been to South Bend since 1939 and I can see that the campus has changed much more since then than before. Jim, I hate to ask for information as I know everyone is very busy, but all the reunion information omits anything regarding the wives. Jean and I plan on making an extensive trip, and so, she will be with me. We both know that I will be VERY BUSY and I am concerned with

FATHER JIM DONNELLY, '33, St. Mary's Missions, Lampasas, Texas, sent me a letter in response to my request for a Mass for JIM RICH. He has been actively engaged in a substantial building program, which, he hopes, may be com-pleted this year. Olive Geis Harcombe, St. Mary's College, and her husband, Ray, were at our house for dinner one evening when something came up about Father Jim. It turned out that Ray up about Father Jim. It turned out that Ray Harcombe and Jim Donnelly were in grammar school together so nothing would do except to call him in Texas at, I hope, a not too late hour.

Now let me key you in on the full meaning of George's wire.

The big news is that JOHN O'SHAUGH-NESSY and JACK HOYT will act as co-chairmen for the Big Reunion. We are fortunate to have two experienced, energetic men in the class who will assume the responsibility for getting our re-

O'Shaughnessy's plan, mentioned in the wire, is that everyone in the class give a dollar for every year he has been out of school—in other words, let's all be "DOLLAR A YEAR MEN!" The first need is for an operating fund in order to get money enough for mailings, to keep class members informed of what's going on and where. So-kick in, lads! Send your contributions to treasurer JOHN CAHILL, Cahill Electric Company, Dixon, Ill. Mailings are expensive business, but there is no substitute for them as an aid to keeping affairs

FRANCIS M. PAYNE, '39

Francis M. Payne, '39, former running-mate of Greg Rice, Notre Dame's great two-miler during the late thirties, was recently elected to Ohio's first Board of Education.

Francis is one of three Catholics to comprise the 23-member board elected from Ohio Congressional Districts. He received 29,000 votes to 20,000 over his next closest opponent, of which there were four running for the office.

The Board is a non-partisan, nonsalaried organization, but due to its broad control over public, parochial and private education in Ohio, it is a very important office.

Francis' prime duty is senior partner of the law firm Payne & Hermann along with younger brother, Frederick J., '42. He has also been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States and the U.S. Court of Military Appeals in Washington. Two other brothers are Notre Dame grads, the Rev. John T. Payne, C.S.C., '40, and Matthew A., '41.

Francis, a Cleveland resident, was married to the former Mary Frances Lindesmith in 1947 and they now have five children: Patricia Ann, 7; Michael, 6; Christopher, 3; Jan Marie, 2; and Colleen, 11 months.

You may recall that we told you a year ago that 527 were in our original gang. Over 30 have died, and yet we now count 546. Our total is taken from the rosters of he four Vice-Presidents whose lists number as follows: ANDY MAFFEI (East)—177; ED VAN HUISSELING (Mid-west)—273; CAMILLE GRAVEL (South)—45; and PHIL PURCELL (Far West)—51.

There you have it! We are off to a terrific start on the first go-a-round but we have to keep plugon the first go-a-round but we have to keep plugging if we are going to get a 100% cooperation from all '35ers for the first year of our dues campaign. About the time you receive this ALUM-NUS you will be getting another mailing from the Campaign Committee, (only those who have not paid their dues) and we hope that the rest of you will slip that two bucks in that self-addressed, stamped envelope and shoot it back to the Treasurer. Let's make this a real CLAST PARTICIPATION PROJECT! PARTICIPATION PROJECT!

A word about the amount of contribution for dues is in order, we think. As you all know the FERGUS letter said, quoting DAN YOUNGERMAN, "W. need at least two bucks a year from each guy, starting this year." That was the plan —$2 a man a year for five years. Naturally, we are delighted with the additional contribution from 34 of you. We don't know if you mean to pro-rate your additional ante over the five-year span. If you do, please let DAN know it so he can post account accordingly.

Incidentally, we want to be completely hones with you all. We were told this could not be done: that is, an annual dues of $2 per man for that is, an animal dues of $2 per man for five years. Do you realize what this will mean in '60? It will mean $5,000 in the pot at the time of our 25th Reuniou. The 25th means the Silver Anniversary for all of us '35ers. It marks the milestone for our class with the University. We are the President's guests at dinner. BUT, it means a more expensive Reunion for us, too. Every class has kicked in a large sack to the Foundation.

Let's take one class as an example. The '28 men did not start raising money until the year of their 25th anniversary. Two different fund. were being accumulated at the same time—one for Reunion and another for their Foundation gift. A total of 294 contributed a total of $14,000 to the Foundation that year, or about $48 per contributor. And they had about a 60% participation. (Hope you don't mind our using your figures, Lou)! This has been used as the class to beat.

WELL, YOU '35ers-DO WE DO IT THE EASY WAY, OR THE HARD WAY! We have not been second raters since we got out. Let's keep us out front!

Oh yes, want to know how we shaped up on contributions to date by amount? Well, here it is: $25-2; $10-25; $6-2; $5-3; $4-2; $2-57; and $1-1. Again, the total-92 men and $450 in

This totals 36. Five more BOB BARRY, BILL CURRAN, SAM GIOE, ART KRANZFELDER and TOM

MASTERSON-were originally listed but have been found since we received the report.

All of which brings us to a tale of interest. Several nights ago BOB BARRY called us on the phone to inquire about CAMILLE GRAVEL. seems that Bob had just been contacted by the state Police at the request of Camille. Word was given that Bob was to communicate with the Southern Democratic National Committeeman immediately, either at his Washington, D. C. Office or in the home town of Alexandria, La. Bob wondered if we could shed some light on why he was being paged, and especially so "officially."

At the moment we could not, but asked our Sparrows Point colleague to give us a ring when he found out what Camille wanted. Today, as we were sorting out our notes the thought struck us that Camille was using the State Police of the several states in his territory to ferret out the "lost souls." But then we realized that Maryland is not in the Gravel command-so we are still puzzled.

We thought that you might like to have new addresses that we have picked up—here they are: ED BRACKEN, 236 Puritan St., Birmingham, Mich.; BOB FOX, P.O. As a further piece of news in which you might all find some interest—here are the men overseas, as we know them. There must be a lot more to add to this list if we had the information. We have already told you about TOM MASTER-SON being Chief of the AP Bureau in Stockholm. Here are the rest:

BRO. REINALD DURAN, C.S.C., '42

A member of the Notre Dame Class of 1942, Brother Reinald Duran, C.S.C., was appointed Headmaster of Holy Cross in New Orleans, Louisiana, last August. Holy Cross is a resident and day preparatory school with an enrollment of about 850 boys. It was established by the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1879.

Brother Reinald is a native of Kulpmont, a coal mining town in the anthracite region of eastern Pennsylvania. He attended St. Casimir's and the Roosevelt High School there before entering the Congregation of Holy Cross at Valatie, New York in 1937. In the same year Brother began his novitiate in the Congregation and in February 1939 he was transferred to Notre Dame where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree.

After nine years on the Holy Cross faculty, he was appointed Director of Studies and eventually Prefect of Discipline and Assistant Headmaster which posts he held for three years. In August of last year he became the twelfth head of the school since its foundation.

Brother has done graduate work at Fordham University and at Notre Dame. He received his Master's degree from Notre Dame in 1950.

Professionally, he is a member of the Louisiana Commission of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the National Association of Secondary-School Principals and the Louisiana Principals' Association.

after John's return from the East (and Reunion) he became ill, spending months in the hospital. An operation disclosed lung cancer and he was sent home. He died on March 7 and was buried in White Plains, N.Y. on the 13th. (Ed. Note: Information on BUD RADDATZ in last ALUMNUS obituary column.)

To both families we express the sincere condolences of the Class of '35, with the thought that two more men of '35 are pleading the cause of the rest of us in Heaven. (Your Scribe's daughters send their sympathy to your young one, Mrs. Maddock.)

BILL RYAN experienced tragedy in his home in recent months, too. His younger daughter, Karen, accidentally cut her eye with scissors. was attempted to save the eye but unfortunately was to no avail.

We listed MAURIE TOMBRAGEL as missing above. The last address we have is years old though we have known him to be on the West Coast for a long time. Maurie was always quite Coast for a long time. Maurie was always quite a man with the pen and we heard he was working in Hollywood. About a month ago we were watching "Wyatt Earp" with the family. Lo and behold who was down as the author but our missing '35er, TOMBRAGEL. The next few weeks we caught the credits but did not see his name again. The script is handled by several writers apparently. So, here is a lead for you California men—trace Maurie for us.

And now to such will at the deadline will allow

And now to such mail as the deadline will allow. Our colleague, JIM DOYLE, '31 Secretary, sent along a news clipping for us early this year which announced that JOHN MORLEY, was named by the Pabst Brewing Co. as manager of its new central sales region in Chicago. Previously John had been assistant eastern regional sales manager. Congratulations John-and thanks, Jim. (Good luck

Word comes through that TED SANTINIELLO, 33A Davis Road, Port Washington, N.Y. is with BILL RYAN'S Associates Investment Co. Ted was with us for the four years but did not take his degree. He is making plans for '60.

DAN YOUNGERMAN sent along a selection of notes which came from the men as they made their dues payments. Here they are: From "BUS" BREEN—"Your tearful plea could not be denied-Good luck!

From TOM LALONDE—"Why not save 3 or 4 annual letters and offer bargain prices of 5 years for $8? Enclosed are two. Seriously want to wish all of you best regards and luck!"

From BILL PFEIL—"Enclosed is a check of $10 from BILL THEIL Enclosed is a click of $10 for my 5 years of dues. What a ball of fire that PAUL A. FERGUS seems to be. The following should make him happy. I would like to be the first to put in a reservation for the 25th Reunion in June 1960." (Bill wasn't first but he was near the top.)

From JIM SHEILS-"Thanks very much for your letter of January 2i which was very interesting and well prepared. So persuasive were you that I am enclosing my check in the amount of $2.00."

From WALT MATUS—"JIM HAMILTON sure

put you on the spot and I go along with him. put you on the spot and I go along with him. You did a good job for the 20th Reunion and if you did a good job for the 20th Reunion and it you keep sending out fiyers to the guys from here on in, they'll get so worked up that they'll commit mayhem to get out to N.D. in 1960."

From ANDY MAFFEI—"I have just dispatched a letter to JIM HAMILTON regarding your and his activities in behalf of the class. You fellows certainly let no water run under your feet. . . . I hope I can commence the interest by bringing in the 'dough.' In order to start it off please find 'dough.' my small donation to help pay for the stamps. . . . We certainly had a great time at last Reunion and I am looking forward to the 25th without a cane."

From JACK DUFFEY-"Some sales talk, Paul. could hardly wait to get out my check book. You should have known better though than get caught in the same room alone with HAMILTON YOUNGERMAN. A couple of good organizers like them and you will be doing more than writing sales letters. If the secret of a good Reunion is an early start you fellows certainly deserve a lot of credit. With the wonderful job you all did last year there is something to shoot at."

From WALT TYLUTKI-"Your desperate plea caught me in a good mood. I'll start the ball caught me in a good mood. I'll start the ball rolling with my first year's dues."

From BILL RYAN—"Well done, Paul. Here's my two bucks—you sure must have been 'lit' when you penned that letter. I'm contacting the boys in the field for you in NYC, Dallas and New Oblers." Orleans."

And that's just a sample. Every one of the notes shows a great and hot spark of enthusiasm. That's what we want from all the '35 gang. If we get it, the 25th will be like none they have ever seen under the Golden Dome.

A letter has gone out to the clergy in the class telling them of our plans but asking for no dues It was felt that most of our men are members of religious orders with vows of poverty. We do not want them to feel "let out" in planning for our Anniversary and the officers decided that dispensing them from the dues campaign was only fair. JIM CORRIGAN, one of our Jesuit '35ers, responded to his letter as follows:

"I heartily approve your early start in preparing for the 25th Reunion of our Class in June 1960. My disappointment at not being able to attend the 20th Reunion last June spurs me on to make arrangements to attend the 25th. I heard nothing but good reports of the June gathering and are out good reports of the June gathering and any very anxious to attend the Silver Anniversary. "I am grateful to you for the special invitation given to the clergy. Please accept my best wishes for success in your work of making arrangements for our Reunion.

"You may count me as definitely determined to be present."

Jim, incidentally, is President of Campion Jesuit

Jim, incidentally, is resident of Campion Jesut High School in Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin. Way back in the beginning of this column we talked about receiving a letter from a "lost soul." Well, here it is—JOHN RYAN wrote from his hotel room in Pittsburgh: 24

Sitting here in the hetel reading the ALUMNUS issue of November-December 1955, I can't help but marvel at the fact that you have so faithfully and graciously performed as class secretary for the past 20 years!

"As one who has contributed nothing in the way of news about myself or any other class mate since leaving N.D., need I confess I'm ashamed of myself when I realize the work you have done all these years to keep '35ers informed about each other. And I'm one of those '35ers, strange as it may seem to you, who turns to your columnations of the contraction of th immediately upon picking up a copy of the ALUMNUS.

"My personal thanks and congratulations to you most interesting and complete job of class but it was an important deal and one that he and had been working on for some weeks.

"On a previous trip to the twin cities I talked with BILL LORD about making the Reunion. Bill travels a lot and didn't know then if he could make it. See he wasn't listed as present. Bill and Peg (from Erie, Pa.) have 2 children. He is with American Hospital Supply Co. out of Evanston, and has Minnesota and Wisconsin territory.

"Concerning the JOHN JOSEPH RYAN family, here's a quick run-down: Married Margaret Rita Mullens, my Framingham, Mass. high school sweetheart in 1939 at the Log Chapel. We have 3 children—Jean, Geraldine and Tim—each born in a different place as sates work takes me around the country. The kids love to move—gypsies you know—but Mama and old man Ryan are about ready to anchor, preferably in the East. Margaret Rita just misses NYC—lived there 6 years and graduated from Cornell Medical Center with a B.S. in nursing.

"Since the last war I have been with Globe Roofing Products Co., Chicago, as salesman and anw, Special Representative, opening new territories in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. . . ."

There was a good deal more personal information in John's letter which we do not think he would want published. Hope he does not mind our going as far as we did. Thanks a million for the long epistle, John. Let's have another before 20 more years go by, and stop in see us, eh? John lives at 226 Boyd Street, Oshkosh, Wis-

GEORGE COLE has moved to Junction City, Kans., to manage a department store. He formerly Jived in Salina, Kans.

And finally a few notes from BILL RYAN (that's right, John's "curley-headed" brother) as he has been barnstorming the country for Associates.

"On a trip a few weeks ago through Louisiana and Texas, I dropped in on JOE BEACH who, with his brother, owns and runs a very flourishing looking furniture store on Airline Highway in New Orleans. . . . Joe is looking forward to the 25th Reunion and assured me that he is planning on it.

"Joe promised that he would prod some of the other boys, including VIC KURZWEG (who I don't believe attended the previous two reunions). I suppose when CAMILLE GRAVEL reads that I was in New Orleans he will be disappointed that I didn't keep my promise and try to see him—However, Camille, for your information, I had to cover five cities in five days so I just couldn't make it.

"I was in Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth on the same trip and tried to get TOM STANDISH at his home from the airport . . . with no luck. In Dallas I called JOE LVNCH and MITCH SALEH. . . Joe is with the International Printing Ink Co., is doing very well, and apparently is putting his roots down in Dallas for a long time to come.

"Mitch has two children, a girl 3, and a boy 7 months old. He is with Chance Vought in engineering." (Mitch gave Bill a run-down on his history which we have passed along before—but no reason for not showing up last June.) "By the way, Mitch told me he thinks TOM STANDISH is expecting number eight. . . Tom you better verify this one way or another to Hoch, and while you are at it, give him a story on everybody in Houston. . .

"Made a quick trip to Hempstead. Long Island office to see and talk with TED SANTINIELLO who joined our company a few years ago. . . . Sandy called JOE BITTNER for me and I talked to him for a moment. He is an attorney out there and plans on the 25th."

So much for BILL RYAN'S report to the nation. We are grateful for your help in making our job easier, Bill.

Looking through the ALUMNUS which came yesterday we note that AL LAWTON is due a "tip of the hat" for his new position as executive vice-president of the recently formed Security-Connecticut Life Insurance Company of New Haven. Nice going, At—and lots of good luck!

ART CONRAD has been appointed as Director of the Traffic Educational Safety Division Program for the Municipal Court of Chicago.

CHARLES M. RYAN has been appointed Director of the Regional Office of the National Labor Relations Board at Cincinnati.

THOMAS J. HILS, formerly of Schenectady, N.Y., has been named copy desk editor of the Montgomery (Alabama) Advertiser. He was more recently managing editor of the Tampa Advocater, Tampa, Florida.

San Diego, Calif., newcomers include the family of JOHN C. FLANIGAN who moved from Arizona to 4980 Marlborough Ave., in the port city.

As we put this column to bed we think a word is due about "Bishop Gregory." Because of the needling which we have received, along with a good deal of interest, from the Alumni Office about our spare time dramatic efforts, we sent them a personal copy of the theatre board picture from "The Velvet Glove." The covering note said "Thought you guys might enjoy seeing this as a gag—please return immediately as it is for my personal collection." Two months went by and the picture did not return so we sent along a note requesting it. Immediately it showed up with a reply from your Editor which read:

"I'm awfully sorry we haven't returned your picture sooner . . . it sort of slipped away from me. . . . I wish there had been an opportunity to use it in the magazine but you know how things get cluttered on an editor's desk—or do you?" Now you and we know why it was delayed. On a return from a trip to Washington yesterday we were greeted at the door by our three girls with a "Hello Bishop"! They had the ALUMNUS in their hands and we knew that CACKLEY man had done it!

That's it for this trip to press. Let's keep the typesetter busy men. Send in those dues checks and shoot out the news!

William B. Lawless, Jr., '44, is Buffalo's youngest Corporation Counsel. While at Notre Dame, he participated in varsity football, was captain of the debate team and president of the Wranglers. Bill served with the Armed Forces during World War II after receiving a bachelor of laws degree from Notre Dame in 1944. He was commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve and assigned to the Pacific Fleet. He also holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Buffalo and was awarded a master's degree from Harvard Law School in 1950.

In November, 1955, Bill was elected president of the Common Council of the City of Buffalo, youngest in the history of the city. He was named Man of the Year for community service last year by the Buffalo Junior Chamber of Commerce and he has served as professor of law at the University of Buffalo on a part-time basis for three years. Governor Harriman appointed him to his Committee on Revising State Competitive Bidding Laws. Bill is a member of the board of directors of the Buffalo Public Library, the Philharmonic Orchestra and Kleinhans Music Hall.

From LARRY KELLEY, Houston, Texas: Your very welcome letter was received and I am grateful to you for writing. I have always read with interest your class reports in the ALUM-NUS magazine and I hope that you will continue to find the time and the energy to keep up this good work. I know that all of us appreciate this sacrifice of your time.

As for the Texas area, we have little to port. DON O'BRIEN is doing a fine job with the McCann-Erickson Advertising Agency and is also president of the Notre Dame Club. One of his jobs is to assist in the broadcasting of games layed by members of the Southwest Conference, he does a considerable amount of rambling around during the football season.

BOB ALLEN is with Carbide and Chemical (Union subsidiary) at Texas City. He looks well and prosperous.

You asked about PAUL LILLIS. Paul is married and has a daughter and is living in Shaker Heights, (Cleveland) Ohio. I haven't seen Paul since the last Oklahoma game at South Bend. He has contained himself exceptionally well and has changed little since graduation. I can say the same for BOB HARGRAVE and BERNIE CRIMsame for BOB HARGRAVE and BERNIE CRIM-JUNS. Both have visited Houston recently and liey too are in perfect shape. I guess that I am the only one that looks like a bloated frog. I saw JIM O'NEAL in New York recently and he is having the usual trials and tribulations of anyone moving to the big city. As you know, Jim enjoyed St. Louis so it isn't the easiest thing in the world to pack up the makings of a small girl's school and move.

For the past three years BILL HICKEY, DON HOGAN, JERRY HACK, JIM CONWAY, EMMETT WRIGHT, DON O'BRIEN and I, along with our wives, have managed to get together every year for a football game and the meetings. Pave always developed into memorable affairs.

fiext occasion will be a Chicago migration to Dallas for the SMU game, then reciprocated with the southern delegation going to the Oklahoma BOB McFARLAND is still a bachelor in Oklahoma City. He is very active in Notre Dame affairs in this area and, as expected, is doing a good job business-wise. Bob was through here not long ago and has a standing invitation to return but as yet he hasn't accepted.

As for me personally, Scoop, I married an Irish girl by the name of Keenan. We have two boys and a lovely little girl. We left Los Angeles about ten years ago and are very happy here in Texas. I am doing consulting work as applied to oil exploration and enjoying it very much.

Slim pickings on class dope this trip. We have,

however, a couple of Detroit items:

JIM BYRNE has been elected president of the Detroit Alumni Club; his term began Easter Sunday. Jim, as president of the Byrne Plywood Company, 909 South Main Street, Royal Oak, Michigan, has been selected for the Young Presidents' Organization. General national qualifications to join this select group are that a company president, under 40 years of age, head a concern which sold over one million dollars per year. Among other Notre Damers Jim joins in the YPO is FATHER HESBURGH. Congratulations, Jim!

ED HICKEY, another Detroiter, was elected a director of the Detroit Club. Ed has recently opened a branch store in Grosse Pointe to go along with his fashionable downtown men's clothing

George Bariscillo 1944 515 Fifth Avenue Bradley Beach, N. J.

We ran into a publication snag this time, and as a result little information has come to your secretary since my last deadline. I have a deadline to meet and the last issue of the magazine, late I have a deadline in getting off the Ave Maria Press, hasn't reached most of you yet as I write this column. Generally, when the magazine arrives there is an incentive to write to your class secretary with the result that I usually get a batch of correspondence shortly thereafter. But that hasn't happened this as a result of the delay beyond our control. For the record my next deadline will be June 1st, and trusting this column reaches you in time to scribble a few lines to me to meet that deadline, I would beg of you to do so. And if not, please write anyway and the information you send me will be used in my very next column thereafter.

With your permission this time, and thanks to the magnificent job BILL TALBOT did in surveying the class on the Dome project, I will resort to the questionnaires returned to Bill, and at ran-dom, extract some facts of interest. And thus I note ANDY McELROY is an accountant with the insurance firm of Johnson & Higgins on Wall Street in New York. . . WARREN LEARY is publisher of the Chronotype Publishing Co., Rice Lake, Wisconsin. . . HANK ADAM is assistant division superintendent with E. I. DuPont at their St., if you're passing through New Haven and get a stomach ache) .

I note also that TOM O'REILLY is a co

William J. Carson, '41, is with the government's Point 4 Program in Cuidad Trujillo, Dominican Republic. Bill and Mrs. Carson and their children, Paul, Corinne and Chad are in front of the Santo Domingo Cathedral.

States Atty. for Cook County, and a good man to know. . . . LOU SCHMITZ, with his wife Margaret and 4 little ones (oldest of which is 4), lives in Butte, Montana where he is manager of the Coca Cola Bottling Co. . . DICK SULLIVAN, with his wife Joyce and 4 little ones (all girls), is a surgeon in Binghamton, New York. . . .

And I observe that BILL HEALY, who was with the U. S. Treasury Dept., is now Office Manager of Maurice Healy & Sons in Boston in accounting.

. . . GEORGE HEGNER has been with the Ford Motor Co. since 1947 and is now zone sales manager for the Mercury Div. in Pittsburgh.

. . BERNIE GHIGLIERI is practicing law in Peoria as a partner in the firm of O'Connor & Ghiglieri.

. . FRANK McMANUS is a market analyst with the product planning division of IBM in their New York office.

. . DICK LEON is a buyer for F. W. Woolworth Co. de Mexico in Mexico City

Among other legal lights in the class, I note that HARRY LAVERY is practicing in Chicago, that MIKE MALLOY is attorney-of-record for the Associated Aviation Underwriters in New York City, and that BOB RHODE is a partner in the law firm of Federer, Grote, Hesslink & Rhode in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. . . .

Hop-skipping in every direction across this land of ours I see in Kansas City, Missouri, BOB SCHRAMM is director of development for the Spencer Chemical Co. . . in Palo Alto, California TOM SHELLWORTH is a salesman with the Peninsula Chevrolet Co. . . in Milwauke, Wisconsin LES SENTZ is point-of-sale supervisor for the Miller Brewing Co. and the father of four children . . in Rochester, New York JOHN KLEE is Pres. & Treas. of the Automatic Rug Cleaning Co. . . and in Chicago ED DUNIGAN, the father of 5 future Notre Damers, including a set of twins, is a salesman with the general printing ink division of the Sun Chemical Corp. . . . Yes, our gang have really spread their wings and flown in many different directions and into varied fields of activity; yet, we all enjoy that one common bond that unites us in spirit and at least once every five years affords us an opportunity of reuniting in-person and walking again upon hallowed ground. June of '59 will see our 15th Reunion. And may we suggest that it's not too early to begin thinking about it and planning for it. In the interim, I would ask you again to help me spread the word by feeding me a few lines about yourself and other '44 men you may see or know about. The news this time was excerpted from Talbot's survey, and selected at random with no preferences intended. Future columns will contain additional items again gleaned from the questionnaires, and to supplement those I'd appreciate a few letters from some of you.

A GATHERING OF FRIENDS

Class President JIM CLYNES has sent out word that the Oklahoma game this year is scheduled to be the "unofficial" reunino of anyone in the class of '45 who can make it on Saturday, October 27, in time for lunch. Tickets for the game will be the headache of each one coming. Plans are to have a table for the men of the class and their families at the Monogram Luncheon in the Drill Hall. Of course it is going to be necessary to know that you are coming, so please let Jim Clynes know as soon as possible. That address is: JIM CLYNES, JR., c/o Allen H. Treman, Savings Bank Building, Ithaca, New York. I'll see y'all there!! Get your ticket for the game.

PUDDLE WADDLERS

BILL MOORE, class Treasurer, has sent out an appeal for class funds, and indications are that quite a few are heeding his advice and sending in some dues. Bill's completely correct when he states that the class must have money with which to operate. Without funds we can just waddle around in a puddle without oars—but if you provide the oars via some needed cash, we all (and that's all your officers) shall see to it that we are not left behind, but that our class will continue to grow, to organize, to become mighty powerful. Make your check payable to the "Notre Dame Class of '45" and mail it to WILLIAM W. MOORE, Class Treasurer, 720 Irving Place, Plainfield, New Jersey.

LOST AND FOUND DEPARTMENT

Mail has been returned because of lack of forwarding address for the following men of the class. It is always a shame to have to drop members because of not being able to locate them—especially when there must be some other members who know their whereabouts. Therefore, if you recognize any of the following names and know their address, write me right away: WILLIAM F. RABBETT, RICHARD R. YOUNG, JOHN J. CONNELLY, DR. F. GILBERT MEMAHON, WILLIAM M. PERRY, JOHN R. SULLIVAN, DESMOND P. CURRIER, and one of our own class VP's, PHILIP P. MARTIN.

CONGRATULATIONS DEPARTMENT

Heartiest congratulations to my former room mate, FREDERICK G. BREMER ("Godfrey") who has just announced the formation of a partnership for the general practice of law known as Spann and Bremer, 11033 Viers Mill Road, Wheaton, Maryland. Best of luck to the new firm!

Good luck and a happy "welcome home" to PAT and J. D. USINA who have arrived in Old Monterey, and plan staying there (via Navy orders) until November of this year. His address is 115 Brownell Circle, La Mesa Village, Monterey, California.

LETTERS FROM DEPARTMENT

From JIM PARIS: "I visited the campus in '54 for my younger brother's first Solemn High Mass. It was said in Sacred Heart Church (my parents' home parish) and the sermon was preached by REV. JOHN CAVANAUGH, former N. D. President. He was, to everyone's recollection, the first priest from that parish.

"That's one reason I missed the 10-year reunion, Al. I couldn't justify the expense of a trip back to the campus two years in a row. Air trave from California isn't as inexpensive as the traver ads would have you believe, and that's the only way to travel, except for local auto trips."

From PAUL SMITH: "You are right, dead right—good friends should always continue to be good friends; and because of this, even though I have only had your letter in my possession less than twenty-four hours, I have decided that I should give you some dope about the Smith household that should bring you up to date.

"First off, explaining the stationery—I was elected President of the local alumni club (Atlanta) and as such I decided that the Notre Dame! Club should have some nice paper on which to write—so I had this made up.

write—so I had this made up.

"Elise and I have four children: Paul, Terry, Nancy, and Pat. Pat came along last August. We still live in the same house—526 Meadow Lane, Decatur, even though we have outgrown it. We hope to be able to afford a larger place next year. I still have the company going, and last year we were fortunate in increasing our business. We have a place in Gadsen, Alabama, and Rome, Georgia, as well as the location here in Atlanta. Have thirteen men employed now, including myseli."

And that's all the news from your secretary for now. S'loag, Al.

Jack Tenge, Jr. 31 Everett Avenue, West Hartford, Conn.

OKLAHOMA CITY—Ed 'Moose' Krause was guest speaker at a luncheon meeting held by the alumni club.

GEORGE ROONEY has forsaken the textbooks for the U.S. Marines and I understand that Jersey City wept as he boarded his train. 2 recall those mobble words, "I shall return." JIM OWENS has been in and out of Kansas City a few times during the last few weeks and I had the chance to slow him down and talk with him for a sptll. He looks none the worse for wear but says that he misses those Saturday morning classes. He was off again before I could ask him what classes he was speaking about. Could it be that his mind is still at South Bend?

While in New York at a conference a few weeks ago, I dropped over to see FRANK CUNNING-HAM who is holding forth at the Navy Exchange, Bayonne Naval Base in New Jersey. Frank looked prosperous in his 1956 Ford and told me that even Macy's was feeling the effect of his merchandising efforts. ROY BELKNAP was regular as clockwork with his letter again and breaks the news that the wedding date has been set for June 9th. The bride is Miss Maureen Sullivan from Dallas, Texas. Congratulations to both on a very happy occasion. Roy also mentioned that OWEN DUGAN had received duty at Quonset Point as supply officer. The luck of the Irish! You can reach Roy by writing to him c/o Co. J. NSCS, Athens, Ga. ED KELLY also attended the conference in New York and dropped me a line after he returned to work at the Naval Air Station. Grosse Isle. Mich. Ed says that JOE FONTANA is on duty for three months in Puerto Rico with the Marines. Sounds like a golden deal. TOM PETTERESCH is also on duty with Ed at Grosse Isle and has a birthday coming up on the 30th of March. By the time this is printed, Tom will have been the victim of a surprise party in honor of the occasion. Further on in Ed's letter he reports that he flew up to Glenview in a jet and happened to run into JOHN HAMILTON who is stationed there. This term "run into" intrigues me. Did it happen before or after you landed, Ed? Flash! Rumor has it that ED DEMPSEY will return from the Persian Gulf for Easter. I had heard that his ship had become a permanent fixture in that area.

BILL REALE sent an epistle worthy of St. Paul himself and included the following news which helps considerably to fill up this class column. Bill says that he is spending his time as a commercial representative for the Telephone Company in Mansfield, Ohio. Business is booming! Bill's ex-roommate, STEVE REBORA, was a patent draftsman in Chicago before he left for Newport, R. I., where he is now in training at the U. S. Naval OCS school there. Bill mentions that he and Steve are going to be at DON SCHAEFER'S wedding when he gets married in Pittsburgh this June. Congratulations, Don, and drop me a line on the ceremony so I can include names and places in the next column. Bill reports further that he spent a few days at N.D. and while there say JOHN ROGERS, RON SMITH, ED FOX, JOHN MARCHAL, BILL McCLAIN and DON MOTTL who are all in law school. FRANK TONINI still

While working in the Navy Exchange, my dispersional bargain basement. I ran into PAT Mc-GAHAN who is stationed here at Olathe Air Station for a training course in the air and of the tion for a training course in the air end of the business. Pat had undergone the rigors of Officers Candidate School and was sent to Olathe to recuperate. I think the Kansas climate agrees with him. He reports for duty in California sometime in the fall. Pat tells me that RON MAKOW-SKI is studying in the Chrysler graduate institute located in Detroit. CHUCK LUCKETT was also in Pat's address book and it seems that Uncle Sam has finally located him. Chuck worked in California before he took his basic at Fort Leon

Fellow Alumni:

During the past month a great number of our one hundred and fifty-six alumni clubs scattered over the world celebrated Universal Notre Dame Night. The late John H. Neeson originated the idea in 1924 when he said in part, "We shall devote one evening to the 'Old Days' to reminisce, to play and to be serious, to discuss the problems that you know must be sorely troubling the successors to Sorin, which are our problems, . . . And if we know, as we will, that Notre Dame men the country over are, like us, meeting together in the spirit of the old days . . . . that's a thrill worthwhile!"

The general theme of this year's meetings was "Local Leadership." It was pointed out that a college education was once an unusual luxury, primarily bettering the economic status of its beneficiaries. alumnus now is no longer free to selfishly pursue only for his individual gain. He is a leader, owing society leadership derived from his advantage. With pride we of Notre Dame can point to numerous graduates in every large city who have assumed their positions as leaders — whose actions plainly exhibit a thorough understanding and knowledge of the moral principles of our religious and political heritage.

In my message printed in the March-April ALUMNUS, the work of the Placement Bureau, with particular reference to Alumni, was discussed. To report further, cards were mailed to 21,000 of you and inquiries have been received from 590. Of these, 234 have sent in their Alumni Placement Application registering for job opportunities. Father Mendez and Mr. Bott report that many favorable replies have already been received and that numerous alumni have called and listed their job openings. You will be pleased to hear that the number of urgent cases was at a minimum. This is a large and important undertaking, and you may be sure that the Placement Bureau is doing everything possible to expedite handling of each individual application.

The annual holiday for wives - Reunion Weekend - approaches. This is another way of saying that while the girls stay home, the "old man" heads for his class get-together, on campus, bringing some loud sport shirts, a wrinkled fielders glove and the trusty putter. He also unlimbers a gravel-toned but earnest basso profundo. Hope to see you all June 8-9-10.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH I. O'NEILL, JR.,
