DEDICATION OF THE NEW CARTIER FIELD

(shown from the air with Klein Memorial Baseball Park and the probable site of a projected new athletic field house) was held on the morning of November 24.

A New Cartier Field

November 24, 1962, was a great day for the Irish. In the stadium the football team scored a fifth and final win for the season by trouncing Iowa 35-12. The N.D. Marching Band played a Latin-American medley as a musical salute to the University-sponsored U.S. Peace Corps team in Chile, and Father Hesburgh (see page 6) added his recorded congratulations, taped before he left for an inspection tour of scientific bases in the Antarctic for the National Science Foundation.

Earlier that day, east of the stadium, a small group gathered for a short but significant ceremony. Priests, coaches, administrators and students joined several members of the family of the late Warren A. Cartier, '87, for the dedication and blessing of a new site for the enclosed athletic field which has borne the family name for nearly 60 years.

Warren Cartier was a lumberman, banker and political leader who served for eleven years as mayor of Ludington, Michigan. A lay trustee of the University, he was once president and for many years treasurer of the Alumni Association. He had three alumni sons, Raymond, Morgan and Vincent Cartier, and before his death in November, 1934, Pope Pius XI conferred upon him the Knighthood of St. Gregory in recognition of his work for the Church. But his most enduring fame was won by an offer, in 1899, to build a badly needed athletic field east of the old Brownson campus. Completed in 1905, Cartier Field was the scene of 25 years of Irish football glory before the stadium was built in 1930, and it has continued to breed that glory as the Notre Dame practice field.

With the breaking of ground for the Memorial Library and a new eastern quadrangle, the practice field was relocated east of the stadium and carried with it the Cartier name to perpetuate the University's gratitude for a great benefaction.

The new Cartier Field has night illumination for its several practice gridirons and its track and field facilities, among the finest in the world. The name Cartier is usually associated with diamonds, and the baseball diamond which the old field boasted has been moved northwest of the new field, much improved. Named for venerable Professor-Coach Clarence (Jake) Klein, it was dedicated and tested by Jake's team at the close of the last season.

The stadium, practice and baseball fields surround a large open area off Juniper Road. Hopefully this will provide room for a great new gymnasium and field house to complete a centralized athletic plant.

NEW POSTMASTER of Notre Dame, taking office Sept 30 after U.S. Senate approval of his appointment, is Brother Eli, C.S.C., (center), being sworn in by Patrick F. Dowling, '21, postal inspector for South Bend. Brother Marcellinus, C.S.C. (left), the retiring postmaster, had held the job since 1945 and had been connected with the University's post office for more than forty years.

WE ARE EMERGING from an intensive period of implementing our progress.

As a result of your generous help success is in sight.

So for this occasion, not in relaxation or in false security, but in the interest of breathing, in the interests of a joyous Christmas and a Happy New Year, let's think of the happy things.

I find in over the campus on a recent sunny day. The new Library looms as an impressive pillar of progress.

But the slender spire of Sacred Heart Church reminds us of our origin and our destiny, in God.

Most of all, the bright golden Lady on the Dome has lost none of her luster. In the heart of an expanding campus she still stands as the patroness of Notre Dame and all its objectives — "Our Life, Our Sweetness, and Our Hope."

The Grotto still offers the alternative of lighting a candle, and you never pass it without seeing some supplicants asking grace.

The lakes are landscaped, and the new religious buildings have given them a Riviera color, but the paths around them are still the area of contemplation, of introspection, of an individual peace, for student, faculty member, and religious.

The East campus springs into view like an academic Disneyland. But when you consider the implications of the Atomic Energy Center, the Computer Center, the Library, the Stepan Center for student convocations and recreation, the well-laid-out and lighted athletic fields, you realize that future generations of Notre Dame men, in all walks of the University's life, will call us blessed.

The old heartland of the campus, Main Building, Church, Washington Hall, LaFortune Student Center (ex-Science), St. Edward's and Sorin, stand like reconstructed Williamsburg, as an active life-filled tribute to the University administrations and programs of another century.

And Notre Dame Avenue stretches from the expanding campus into the civic environs of neighboring South Bend as a long and lovely channel linking the city and the campus like the neck of an hourglass, through which campus and civic life moves back and forth with the incredible turnover of countless calendars.

The gold of a lovely autumn, as though the Dome sheds its color to the surrounding trees, will soon give way to the mantle of white that moved Father Sorin to dedicate this pure wilderness to Our Lady.

Through this familiar and unfamiliar maze of walks and buildings the persisting sound is of moving feet — they are new feet, and there are more of them. But essentially they go from hall to class to dining hall to playing field to chapel, in the unending process of making good men from good boys, of molding the leadership of maturity from the clay of youth, of depositing the best of the past and present in the minds and hearts of the hope of the future.

And in the atmosphere there are the old conflicts — impatience with time vs. the peace of environment, criticism of age and experience vs. the trust of the young, the profound and irrevocable pronouncements of youth as it makes news of history and inaccuracies of truth.

In fact, because of the tremendous drive for the future that has been in the Notre Dame spotlight, and because of the pressures of the present, many of us who live here in the center of these urgencies occasionally forget that student history is never more than four years old. We begin to worry about the student voices as though they were saying new and startling things. And sometimes, in our preoccupation with the magnificent future that Notre Dame faces, we wonder a little about the merits of its past.

It is when these things catch up to you, and you sit back and breathe a little, that these years slip into proper perspective. Great years, yes. Stimulating years, yes. Years that will influence Notre Dame in the future, certainly. Progress, definitely.

But not really a departure from those principles that guided Notre Dame in 1842, not really vision or inspiration different from those which created Notre Dame. Rather, in perspective — and accelerated by experience — the principles, the vision, the inspiration, the intellectual ferment, the adaptations to change, the continuing deep-seated combination of love of learning and love of country that have always kept Notre Dame great and growing.

Moral Man in the Modern World (concluded)

By Edward L. Cushman, Vice-President, American Motors

ONE OF THE great hopes that many of us have is that state governments will re-examine their role and accept the kinds of responsibilities that that role provides. We have much too much of a tendency to look to Washington for answers. We've lost importantly our skepticism about Big Government. We must regain that kind of skepticism about government at every level and we must look to other answers than the answer of saying, "let's leave a vacuum which Washington will fill."

We have great problems in metropolitan areas, with the urbanization of our society, that should be dealt with importantly by the metropolitan areas themselves. State governments, and in some cases, the Federal Government should be involved only through the kind of intergovernmental relations that maintain the basic responsibility as a local responsibility.

Many people say the recent growth of church attendance is not an example of any increasing concern about the fundamental values of life, or of a searching for the answer to the question of life's purpose. This is an easy thing to dismiss glibly, by saying that this is merely part of a pattern of conforming, and that it has become more socially acceptable to be seen in church on Sunday or to be associated with some church endeavor. I think to some extent this is true. But to dismiss this as being only an example of conformity fails very decidedly to recognize the yearning I believe exists increasingly in the minds of people for moral direction.

Fundamental to the conviction of any Christian is the belief that each of us is a child of God, that each of us has a right to freedom, which is only limited by our not having the right to impose our use of freedom on others, and that we have the obligation of free choice in trying to advance God's Kingdom, in the decisions that we each make daily.

This fundamental concept means that we must be believers in change. We must be advocates of moving the kind of society that we find on earth more nearly to that of God. This means that the fundamental convictions we have about freedom should mean so much to us that we are willing to work for them. And yet it can be said, as has been said by many, that these convictions are taken for granted. We take for granted that they are accepted or regarded with envy or desire by peoples everywhere, and that somehow or other the concepts that we consider to be sound are going to win out, because in the long run it is inevitable that good will triumph over evil. Most of us therefore, spend very little time indeed with activities other than the necessities of work and family life.

We've had in our history several periods of tremendous growth toward the accomplishment of our convictions. The most important single one was the period of the founding of our republic, when I personally believe we were divinely inspired as a people in the clear expression of views found in the Declaration of Independence, and in the Constitution. But this was a relatively simple society. It was one where individuals who took actions as committed Christians could have some impact, could see some results from the work that was done in the smaller rural communities, with the kind of economic and social and political life that existed at that time.

DURING THE past century we've had a tremendous growth of gigantic institutions. Perhaps the most significant single institution was the corporation. Through the creation of a legal entity with continuity, the corporation has made possible the use of the most advanced technology for the production and distribution of goods. As a result, Americans have experienced the highest standard of living of any nation in history.

Some of those who opposed the creation of corporations as such argued that they would become even more powerful than the states themselves, which chartered such institutions. And in some instances this has since come true.

As is not surprising, as power grew and became increasingly concentrated, it was abused as well as used. The abuse of power called forth another wave of change of our institutions — the creation of what has been called "countervailing power" — or new power centers to offset the old.

The great protagonist of this wave of change, of course, was Franklin D. Roosevelt. Under his administration we saw government enlarge its own powers, and create new institutions to limit the freedom of corporations. Among the new institutions fostered by government were labor unions, and the collective bargaining process. Over-all, this effort and these institutions made a useful and important contribution to the furtherance of social and economic objectives that I believe Americans generally hold to be important and basic.

But this wave of change — precisely because it took the approach of opposing power with power, rather than dividing excessive power — has been allowed to go too far. It has produced its own "countervailing" excesses.

In important cases, we not only have excessive power concentrations in both unions and in corporations, but we see increasing trends toward excessive concentration of government power . . . in the name of protecting the public interest against Big Industry-Big Labor deadlocks.

Americans have made great progress toward the achievement of political, economic and social freedom. That progress has created in our people a complacency about our national well-being, and a concern about worldly goods and a preoccupation with day-to-day living.

Furthermore, in a highly industrialized and increasingly automated and urban society, the growth of great institutions has given the individual a sense of frustration about his ability to have a significant impact on these institutions and on society in general. Individuals have unjustifiably excused inactivity and avoided individual responsibility on the grounds of this assumed incapacity, or on the basis of loyalties to the limited objectives and discipline.

economic, political or social organizations to which they belong.

The growth of massive institutions — the abuse of excessive power — the sense of frustration of individuals — all these tend to diminish respect for individual freedom, and even for freedom itself. As such these problems should be of particular concern to religious men — to Christians of all faiths.

We who preach individual freedom should be the first to make sure we practice it — politically, socially, economically.

A close and good friend of mine was the late Sumner Slichter, the Harvard economist. One of the last things I received from him before his death was a comment on our gigantic institutions, and who would do the reforming of them in the 20th Century. Dr. Slichter had this to say:

“ . . . The institutions sponsored by the liberals of the first half of the Twentieth Century, have had time to grow old, to become out-of-date in many respects, and some of them have failed to adapt their policies and methods to the conditions of the times. The policies and institutions originally created to reform free private enterprise are in many cases themselves in need of reform . . . Who will undertake the task of reforming, not free private enterprise, but the institutions established to reform free private enterprise? Will the liberals be able to reform their own institutions? Or, shall we need a reform movement with a different sponsorship — sponsored perhaps by the conservatives? Certainly each year the liberals have more to defend — more defects in the institutions sponsored by them show up. Where a generation ago the liberals were on the offensive, today they are on the defensive . . . It is important that reforms be carried out with a sense of social responsibility. The purposes of the policies of the liberals were good, and the public will not tolerate destruction or repeal of liberal policies without attempts to deal with the problems that produced these policies.”

The terms “liberal” and “conservative” have lost their meaning. What we do need is what I like to call a “coalition of the concerned” . . . whether they call themselves liberals or conservatives.

If we are concerned . . . and certainly Christians should be . . . then it is imperative that we re-examine our national life in the light of the environment in which we now find ourselves.

AS IS TRUE with so much of life, what is needed is the kind of balanced viewpoint that conserves what is worth conserving . . . and seeks innovation where the new thing is genuinely better than the old. We face the gravest of threats from outside . . . and within our national borders we face the obvious need to find better answers to our problems — political, social, and economic.

We have a solid foundation on which to build — a foundation of basic principles that are immutable — and proven policies and institutions worth fighting for to preserve. Yet we require the breadth of viewpoint and open-mindedness to respond to the challenge of changing circumstances with creativity — to find new resources on which to capitalize, and new opportunities to move ahead.

Certainly the greatest nonconformist in history was Jesus Christ. And certainly the institution that should be the principal motivator for change in the society in which we live is His Church.

What we ought to be in every one of the branches of Christendom, is uncomfortable and unhappy men and women. It is our responsibility, it seems to me, if we are indeed Christians, to be dissatisfied with the life that we lead today, to do what we can to move the institutions and the attitudes of people more nearly toward God's Kingdom and its accomplishment, and to give a higher degree of priority to acting about things that we believe in.

As members of a total society we should all be striving for the same kind of progress toward excellence, that you are seeking to achieve in the building of a new Notre Dame.

We have an outstanding national example here in Michigan, of how effective the concern of a relatively small number of individuals can be.

Our first state constitutional convention in more than 50 years is nearing its end after seven months of labor. Whatever partisan controversialists may hold, I'm sure that those of you who have followed the work of the delegates are aware of the major improvements that have been made in the fundamental law of our state. Whether the result measures up to what you hoped it would be by a full 100 per cent — or 80 per cent — or even 50 per cent — it is a significant advance over the existing document. It puts Michigan in the position of being an example to the rest of the states. At least two-thirds of them have constitutions more out of date than ours, and problems as acute or even more acute than ours.

But this state faced a challenge in 1959. We were branded across the nation as politically and financially bankrupt. Political party deadlock had us stymied . . . until an organization called Citizens For Michigan swelled up from the grass roots, and a remarkable man named George Romney began rousing the public conscience and routing the sleeping dinosaur of public apathy.

This organization is an attempt to get people as citizens to work together voluntarily — as individuals — to develop a mechanism for learning the facts about state problems, arriving at solutions on which all could agree, and translating these solutions into effective political action. This organization has never numbered more than 5,000 paying members . . . Yet it helped crystallize public opinion; joined with the League of Women Voters and other concerned groups; and provided the leadership that has given us the constitutional convention we have today.

Another economist friend of mine is author and lecturer Peter Drucker. Let me read you what he has written about the opportunity for the individual:

“ . . . ours is . . . a time of new vision and greatness, of opportunity and challenge, to everyone in his daily life, as a person and as a citizen. It is a time in which everyone is an understudy to the leading role in the drama of human destiny. Everyone must be ready to take over alone and without notice, and show himself saint or hero, villain or coward. On this stage the great roles are not written in the iambic pentameter or the Alexandrine of the heroic theater. They are prosaic — played out in one's daily life, in one's work, in one's citizenship, in one's compassion or lack of it, in one's courage to stick to an unpopular principle, and in one's refusal to sanction man's inhumanity to man in an age of cruelty and moral numbness.

“In a time of change and challenge, new vision and new danger, new frontiers and permanent crisis, suffering and achievement, in a time of overlap such as ours, the individual is both all-powerless and all-powerful. He is powerless, however exalted his station, if he believes that he can impose his will, that he can command the tides of history. He is all-powerful, no matter how lowly, if he knows himself to be responsible.”

And I would add to that, “if he acts responsibly.”

Each and every one of us can have significant impact if we will only act, and act courageously, and as knowledgeably and wisely as we know how . . . and if we will join with others with whom we agree on the fundamental things — as a coalition of the genuinely concerned, to make our state, our nation and this world better together.

As the fathers of the early Christian church have written — “In necessariis, unitas; in dubiis, libertas; in omnibus, caritas.” In fundamental things, let there be unity; in debatable things, liberty; but in all things, charity.

Chicago: “Decency in Entertainment” Award to Educational Station WTTW-TV

Channel 11 has delivered the best in the world of the ideas, the best in music, the best in dance, the best in literature . . . attention to all faiths, through its Time for Religion presentations . . . good drama, folk music, the arts of painting and sculpture and serious music on the series Festival — and not once have the station leaders sacrificed good taste to appeal to sensation.

This is a broadcast organization that pays close attention in its discussions as well, to morality and to high standards but does not shy away from controversy. The program Meeting of Minds has dealt with even the most controversial moral issues fairly and squarely with equal representation on both sides of each question. . . .

This station has been responsible for making educational opportunities available to more than 90,000 Chicagoans who heretofore were unable to attend college — 346 of these have received all, or a majority of credits for a degree — on television! That may not seem entertaining to you, but to those who are trying to better themselves — it is entertaining. Many retired persons and shut-ins find the station's programs of music, like the Boston Symphony and the Fine Arts Quartet of Chicago, a refreshing island in a desert of violence.

Washington,
D.C.: From
Remarks of Senator
Thomas J.
Dodd
(D., Conn.)

WE SEE growing up all around us groups who fear "the bomb" more than the loss of Western values, and who march under the miserable slogan, "Better Red than Dead."

If we try to combat the Soviets on the ground that they offer the world a brutal and tyrannical form of materialism, whereas we offer mankind a humane materialism softened by democracy, then our stand is futile and ultimately self-defeating.

It is only when Western man realizes that he must struggle, not for the material fruits or the scientific achievements or the political refinements of Western society, but for its spiritual origins, its eternal truths, that he will be prepared to make the heroic, sustained endeavor that must be made.

If he believes in a Supreme Being, whose will he serves, then he is clothed in a certain armor of courage and confidence which is essential to victory.

If he believes in the immortality of his soul, then he is no fearful weakling whose goal is mere survival under any circumstances; he is a man who will lay down his life for those values which we are trying to preserve.

If he believes that there is such a thing as objective truth and that he is endowed with the capacity to know it and the duty to seek it, then he will be a purposeful citizen and a resolute defender, for he has the strength that goes with knowing his side is the right side.

If he believes in the dignity of man, properly conceived, then the thought of one billion slaves behind the Iron Curtain, deprived of their basic human rights, will be a constant thorn in his side and a spur to action.

So long as he grieves over their enslavement, he will never be fooled about the nature of communism, he will never acquiesce in any agreement which consigns others to perpetual slavery, he will never invite the enslavers to his shores to be received as honored guests, he will never join in the diplomatic recognition of gangster regimes as legitimate governments. And for the same reason, he will strive constantly toward the elimination of those forms of discrimination and injustice and degradation here at home which deny men the rights and opportunities and patterns of growth which are their just inheritance.

If Western man believes in inalienable rights and in the inalienable responsibilities that go hand in hand with those rights, then he will be a bulwark of our system of free government and he will accept the painful obligations which must be accepted if any free society is to survive, the duty to sacrifice, to take risks, to bear arms, to pay taxes, to forego individual interest in behalf of the common good.

The question before us then is, can we develop even a significant minority of men and women who are mentally and morally equipped to do battle with both the frontal attack of Communist barbarism and the internal corruptions of Western materialism, atheism and agnosticism. ## NEW YORK: FATHER HESBURGH ON NOTRE DAME'S CHILEAN PEACE CORPS

ABOUT A YEAR ago — not much more than that — it was announced that we were going to have a Peace Corps. Many people wagged their wise heads and said, "This is the latest bit of ridiculous nonsense that has been thought up by some woolhead in Washington, because the last thing in the world we should do is send a lot of inexperienced youngsters overseas. If we have had trouble overseas before, we will have compounded trouble once these youngsters get there."

I didn't happen to agree with this judgment at the time, because if there is one thing I think I know about youngsters it is that they are, first of all, capable of great idealism and a great sense of dedication and sacrifice. Certainly World War II should have taught to us at least that about our youngsters.

I think also that they have an adaptability, a flexibility and a kind of energetic talent that can project America to the world in a way that those of us who are getting older cannot. And so I thought that if there were going to be a Peace Corps and it were going to be an exciting new reality for America, I would like to hope that Notre Dame would be a part of it. The very night that the Peace Corps was announced in Washington, I had a call from Sargeant Shriver and my former legal assistant on the Civil Rights Commission who was the White House representative for the Peace Corps, Harris Wofford, asking me if Notre Dame would be interested in getting together a project in conjunction with the other schools in Indiana. I told them we would be delighted to get together such a project—and we did.

We first went to Chile and asked the Chileans what was the worst and most neglected part of their country and they said the campo—the rural area—because in the last election the rural area went 100 percent Communist and these are the most hopeless, neglected people in all of Chile. I asked if there were anyone—any Chilean organization—working in the rural area because I don't believe that Americans should go abroad and tell other people how to run their own business; we might go abroad and help them run their own business, that's a different thing. They said, "Yes, there are two organizations working very hard in the rural area. One is the Communist Party and the other is a Chilean organization called the Institute of Rural Education."

We got into a truck and we went out into the rural area—some few hundreds of miles south of Santiago, as a matter of fact all the way to Valdivia. This was right after the earthquake had taken place and we got a rather stark picture of life in this rural area of Chile. It's a beautiful country of snow-capped mountains with the Pacific Ocean on the other side, gorgeous valleys with lateral mountains running through them. The people, who were at a very low stage of social and economic development, were a little better off than the fiefs in the Middle Ages or the peons of ages past.

We looked at the work of this institute. We found out that they had 12 schools to train peasant boys and girls in such things as health, child care, community development, nutrition, food preparation, small gardening, raising of small animals, better crops and all the kind of things that might bring hope to a people who are living in a very depressed condition.

But they greatly needed the kind of talents that weren't readily available there. We went to the universities and asked if the Chilean university students would want to go out and try to do this job and they said, "No, when we finish the university we would like to get married and get a job." And I said, "That is just about what our university students like to do when they finish the university. But I think that if we put this challenge to them they will be down here working in your country." They said, "If you can make this happen, we promise you we will be working alongside of them, although we have never done it before. We don't have time to work in the rural areas, but if they come down and do this from so far away in our country, we will be forced to stand alongside of them and work with them even if only out of shame."

We came back home and we put out a hurry call for volunteers from all the schools in Indiana and the schools at large in the nation. This was announced on the day of our graduation last year and I am happy to say that the largest contingent came from the University of Notre Dame and there are even three girls from St. Mary's. We brought the group together at Notre Dame on the 23rd of July. Half of them didn't know a word of Spanish, but in eight weeks we taught them, first of all, what Spanish was all about and secondly what Chile was all about, and then because

The leaders in this effort must be men like yourselves, products of our finest traditions. But if these traditions are to be preserved only as academic curiosities in ivory towers and cloistered halls, we are done for, we have already lost.

The task of our time is to restate these truths, to apply them to current events, to imbue a large part of our intellectual community with them and make them intelligible and acceptable to the people.

The role of an institution like Notre Dame in a task of this kind is central.

If each day, its faculty and graduates can make a contribution to the mainstream of American thought; if each year we can send out into the world from Notre Dame and those many other institutions dedicated to our common ideals, new legions of young people grounded in religious beliefs, equipped with the tools of logic, and infected with a zeal for persuasion, then there is a chance that Christian philosophy may be for our age what it has been in the past: a leaven spreading its elevating influence throughout the social structure and cleansing society of internal weaknesses. This is a goal grand enough to fire the imagination and enlist the efforts of each of us.

If the fate of the West hung upon what men alone will do, then the outlook would indeed be dismal. Left entirely to our own resources, we should surely fail. But we are sustained by the faith that God still rules the world.

We stand in much the same position as did Charles Martel before the battle of Tours, or Don Juan of Austria on the eve of Lepanto, or Jan Sobieski before the gates of Vienna, or indeed Winston Churchill in the summer of 1940.

At these climactic periods of history when the West seemed destined to be engulfed by barbarism, pitifully inadequate forces led by resolute men with spiritual faith and moral courage turned the tide and saved civilization. We cannot therefore know the mighty result that can come from the dedicated efforts of a few men acting in harmony with the laws of God.

If we of the West can stand up to the Communists now, if we can hold the line in Berlin, in Vietnam, in Quemoy, and all around the perimeter of freedom, if we can gain the time for that intellectual and moral resurgence in the West of which we now see many signs, then we will win the struggle.

We will win because man's higher needs are the very things that Western civilization answers and which the cold dogma of Communism cannot supply. Man has needs and appetites that no material order or philosophy can satisfy. Whatever may be our weaknesses, we have one great strength. Our universities are free, and our churches are free. The people of the West remain free to seek the truth. I believe that in the end the church and the university will save us.

Notre Dame, representing as it does the union of University and Church, must and will be a leader in the struggle to preserve the central values of Western civilization by making them a moving force in the life of the twentieth century.

RESOLVED: The Student Senate of the University of Notre Dame recommends that cheerleaders for all functions be male students of this University. On October 1, less than a week before the opening home game against Purdue, this resolution passed by a significant majority. The next day University officials announced that proposed plans to have our regular cheerleaders augmented by four girls from Saint Mary's were abandoned. This question of female cheerleaders, relatively unimportant in comparison with other issues before the Senate, generated quite a bit of interest on campus. The decision of the administration was another recognition of student government as the voice of the student body.

In the past decade student government at Notre Dame has grown in both responsibility and power. This year it will operate on a record budget of $26,000. The amount of this allocation and the broad scope of activities in which it is involved establish student government not only as a representative of student opinion, but as a big business. Let us, then, review its ever-growing role and some of the activities which it has sponsored this year.

A long-standing complaint of many students has been that there is little opportunity for informal association with their professors. In an effort to eliminate this problem, the Academic Commission is sponsoring a series of student-faculty coffee hours. The aim of these coffee hours is to give both students and faculty an opportunity to meet in a relaxed atmosphere. Also in the academic realm, over $2500 has been allocated for a Distinguished Lecture series which will bring several outstanding scholars to our campus. Last month this commission arranged for the performance of Dylan Thomas' last play, Under Milkwood, before a full house in Washington Hall.

The fall social season began with an open house sponsored by the Social Commission. Girls from SMC and several neighboring colleges were in attendance. The highlight of the week end was a touch-football game between the Barat Bombers and the Saint Mary Maulers. Despite many intricate plays on both sides, when the final gun sounded it was a scoreless tie. This was soon followed by the appearance of Ray Charles before a capacity audience in the new Stepan Center. More big-name entertainments were scheduled for the months ahead, the next attraction being Julie London on November 30.

November 10 was "Homecoming," and in anticipation of our 43-22 victory over Pittsburgh members of the various halls spent long hours with hammer and nails, paper and paint, in an effort to outdo rival halls in the decorations contest.

The Student Slant

By Frank Dicello,
Secretary, Notre Dame Class of 1963

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IS BIG BUSINESS

Notre Dame is fortunate to have many foreign students. $1,000 will be spent this year on parties, lectures, and other events in order to insure a greater opportunity for cultural exchange with this group.

A new commission was established this year to stimulate interest in political issues. This commission was instrumental in originating a resolution passed by the Senate praising President Kennedy for his firm stand in the Cuban crisis. In the future this commission will sponsor symposiums on current issues and bring speakers of political note to the campus.

A large portion of the budget this year was allocated to provide several student services. Among these were the publication of a weekly calendar of events distributed to each student, the publication of a handbook of useful information, and the institution of a travel committee. In this same vein, the student government now owns and operates the campus press and controls the La Fortune Student Center. The remainder of the budget was set aside for administrative expenses or distributed to the various college councils, minor sports, and student service organizations.

This, then, is one view of student government, that it is primarily a great student-welfare organization. What success it enjoys, however, is not due solely to a small group of elected students, but rather to a large number who voluntarily give up their time and energy, with little prospect of recognition, to create a better community for their classmates.

N. D. European Pilgrimage — '63 April 19 - May 12

THE THIRD ANNUAL European Pilgrimage has been arranged for Notre Dame men and their families. As in past years, the Pilgrimage will be accompanied by a Notre Dame chaplain.

The tour will visit some of the most beloved shrines of Europe. A well-planned program of sightseeing in Italy, France, Switzerland, England and Ireland still leaves most afternoons and evenings free.

All arrangements in Europe are first class: all hotel rooms with private baths; sightseeing by private de luxe motor coaches. Most meals and all transfers between airports, stations, and hotels are included, as well as baggage handling and porters' tips. Travel is free from worry about reservations or making connections, and there will always be tour escorts on hand to answer questions.

Transatlantic flights will be in long-range jets of Irish International Airlines, crossing the ocean in less than six hours.

Pilgrimage high lights include:

LOURDES: The greater part of the time is left free for private devotions; the hotel is in view of the Grotto and Basilica.

ROME: The Pilgrimage has been assured of being granted an audience with the Holy Father.

ASSISI: The city of St. Francis, where pilgrims may kneel at his tomb and visit the Portiuncula.

VENICE: The Cathedral of St. Mark, built eleven centuries ago to house the relics of the saint. The mosaics are among the most magnificent in the world.

MILAN: Leonardo da Vinci's "The Last Supper," and the great Cathedral surmounted by a gilded statue of Our Lady.

PARIS: Mass in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, visits to the Shrine of the Miraculous Medal and Sacre Coeur Basilica.

DUBLIN: No shrine is humbler than the little sidewalk altar — marking the spot where Matt Talbot died.

Tour "A," the complete 25-day tour includes all air transportation from New York and to New York for $940.00; Tour "B," transatlantic round-trip flights, and European arrangements at Lourdes, Rome, Paris, London, Dublin and Shannon only (transportation between Rome and Paris is not included), $730.00; Tour "C," transatlantic round-trip flights, and European arrangements from arrival Lourdes until departure from Zurich (transportation Zurich to Shannon is not included), $700.00; Tour "D," transatlantic round-trip flights and European arrangements in Lourdes and Rome only (transportation Rome to Shannon is not included), $515.00. An extension to Naples, Capri, etc., is available for an additional $40.00.

Applications may be made by writing the Alumni Office. Deposit checks for $100.00 should be made payable to NOTRE DAME ALUMNI ASSOCIATION. The deposit is refundable in full if membership is cancelled at least six weeks prior to the scheduled departure.

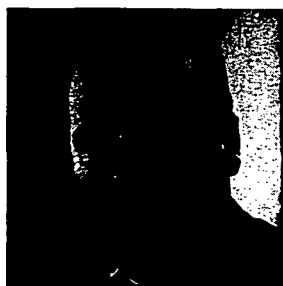

Pilgrims will need only two official documents before departure: (1) a valid passport; (2) a certificate showing that they have been inoculated against smallpox subsequent to May 12, 1960. As U.S. citizens they will not require any visas to enter the countries visited.

MAN and the MOMENT

By Rev. Thomas J. O'Donnell, C.S.C., '41

OF ALL THE music-making devices designed by man, none has such a widespread and intimate appeal as the bell. (And the word "appeal" is not meant to be a pun.) From time immemorial bells have been the voice of a nation and all nations the world over. A bell speaks the language of all peoples. A bell is its own interpreter and speaks directly to the heart. So intimately have bells been identified with people that we have given the bells personal qualities. We have given them names and looked upon them as close friends. We have blessed them with the prayers of the church.

We in America, for the most part, have thought of bell sounds and bell music as something distinctively European. I say "for the most part" because many Americans know only too well that the history of America has bells in it. It is true we have no Big Ben whose deep tones have shattered the fogs of London and told the British people of tragedies and triumphs. But, we do have a Liberty Bell which is now the silent symbol of our dearly fought-for liberties. Like the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, it reminds us of our heritage of heroes. It has been said, "... the sweetest of all unheard melodies is that of the Liberty Bell. That it will continue to ring soundlessly throughout our land is assured. . . ."

Europe, indeed, has its many honored shrines, its centuries of customs with bells, its ancient cathedrals where bells of every kind are identified with all human adventures. People have learned from childhood to listen to and love their bells.

America, too, has its heritage of bells. We have learned from those who went before us to listen and to love. The Pilgrims brought bells with them. The white-walled spires of New England churches were a majestic sight and a melodic sound. The vast miles of prairie lands were marked with the ruts of wagon wheels, with small mounds and wooden crosses, with the boom towns of a brave people. And in all these treks and towns a bell spoke a warm language to a pioneer people. Missionaries in the far West moving up from the South could hear the lovely wet sigh of the sea and the hoarse cry of distant birds, but these men were never alone for they had God to think about. After hard work and tired years their Mission Churches were linked with bell sounds up the coast of California. These Missions and Mission bells have become a part of history, a theme for songs, a legacy of love.

The sound of bells, the music of bells, has ever been part of America. It is not mere coincidence that the Liberty Bell broke its heart in singing out its joy. Bells of one kind and another are no strangers in our land. They have rung out to tell a baby born, a danger near, a call to arms, the flight of a soul to God.

Bells in every nation were named for the part they served: seeding, harvest, curfew, market, court, passing and burial. The Gabriel Bell rang to awaken people for work. There was also the Mass bell, the bell for the Angelus and the Vespers. And just as bells were named for functions they served, many had their own individual names and were baptized and had godparents.

The sound of Notre Dame is a bell sound. Anyone who has ever been on campus knows this. From the very beginning Father Sorin and his companions wanted to fulfill the urging of the psalms: "Praise Him with bells; praise Him with high sounding cymbals." In 1844 the belfry of the old church was blown over. Down with the spire went the bell and it cracked.

I quote from the Scholastic of October 1876: "When the tower of the new church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart reached its actual height of 120 feet, the great bell was elevated, without any accident, to its present permanent place from which it sends forth its clear and sweet sounds over plain and hill, filling the air with a harmony never known before along the banks of the St. Joseph. There it stands surrounded by a chime of 23 bells ever ready to do homage to their peerless queen, and its sonorous voice well nigh drowns all the voices of its companions the moment it begins its booming."

With great pomp and ceremony the great bell and the statue surrounding the golden dome were blessed. The impressive rituals of the church were complied with, bishops and clergymen adding their dignity to the occasion. Even the red habit of a cardinal, the beloved Cardinal Gibbons, was seen. At that time, the set of chimes was designated as "The Immaculate Conception" and each bell received the name of some saint.

The spirit of '76 was not lost to those who arranged the ceremony back in 1876. That year was a great year for it was the centennial year of our freedom. I stress these dates because it is easy to confuse the year of the carillon with the year of the big bell. I really don't think anyone should lose sleep over a few dates, but it is just as easy to be correct.

More About the Bells

Lehmann Chosen to Pilot 1963 N. D. Football Squad

Joseph Robert (Bob) Lehmann will captain the 1963 Notre Dame football team. The announcement on the junior guard was made here at the annual squad dinner on Dec. 5.

Lehmann, a junior, played right guard this past season, started all 10 games, had 367 minutes of playing time and was credited with 61 tackles. He also blocked one kick. Last year, as a sophomore, Bob was the number two right guard, but still had 258 minutes of action and made 41 tackles.

From Louisville, Ky., Bob is an honor student majoring in mechanical engineering. He is a graduate of Flaget high, in Louisville, which is also the alma mater of former Irish star Paul Hornung.

Thirty-nine members of the 1962 Notre Dame football team were awarded monograms for participation in the 10-game schedule, according to a joint announcement by Athletic Director Ed Krause and Head Coach Joe Kuharich at the dinner, made following the regular winter meeting of the Faculty Board.

The list includes 15 seniors, 17 juniors and seven sophomores. The monogram winners are:

Also awarded monograms were Senior Manager John McFadden, Chicago, Ill.; Associate Manager Tom Elzen, senior, Jackson, Miss.; and Associate Manager Nick Varollo, senior, Nashville, Tenn.

we weren't perfectly sure they knew the answer to this third one, we also taught them what the United States was all about. We also gave them some pretty good physical drill. We taught them some first aid and hygiene. We had a wonderful group of young people: eight nurses, eight agricultural experts, four home economists; community development people, social workers, people with experience in publication, photography, radio and the like; and even four foresters, who would be very helpful in Southern Chile, where they have great forests but very little paper industry. . . .

These past two weeks I fulfilled a promise of going down to see each one of them wherever they happened to be working. I might add that this is an easy kind of promise to make in August and not so easy to fulfill in April. But in any event the promise was valid and on April 9 I left New York, flew to Chile and, in the ensuing two weeks, traveled some 3,000 miles by jeep and antiquated train and truck and land rover and burro or you name it.

Half of our people are already in wintertime down there because they are very close to the Antarctic in the southern region and far down below the other side of the Equator. I saw some 30 or 40 of these boys and girls living in places where for months they had to sleep on the floor before they were able to contrive some beds. We did give them sleeping bags. I tried sleeping in most of the places they were sleeping and must admit that I came back with a prize collection of bedbug bites as well as fleas. I tried eating their food, and while I didn't get too sick I must say I didn't put on any weight. Some of our youngsters have lost up to 30 pounds—the boys mainly. The girls have taken over all of the food preparation for these 12 schools so some of them have put on some weight. But the interesting thing was that I did not hear, in this 3,000 miles of travel and talking mainly to Chileans, a single bad word about any one of our volunteers. All I heard was praise. All I heard was this is some kind of American we have never known before. Here are young people who have given up jobs at $600 a month to come down here and work practically for nothing—they get $75 a month after they get back home if they put two years in. If they don't put in the two years, they subtract their travel cost. These young people are living without hot water in the middle of winter, they are living on rather simple diet, they are eating the same food the peasants are eating although they are preparing it a little better than the peasants used to prepare it. They are living in conditions that call for not just generosity but often heroism.

I arrived one night in a place called Rio Negro, Black River, and it was a black day at Black River, I want to tell you. One of our youngsters who happened to be a Notre Dame boy—Tom Scanlon, who was a Woodrow Wilson winner last year and put in a year of graduate study at the University of Toronto before volunteering for the Peace Corps—had just got back from a four-hour trip in his jeep down the side of a mountain where he had been visiting some Indians who had a village up there.

The Indians said to him: "Well, you have been up here three times. You seem to be honest, although we distrust you because you are an American and Americans have never been interested in us. But if you are really willing to help us, here is what you can do. In about one month the snows are going to come, and when the snows come we will have three to five feet of snow all the way up this mountainside to the spot near the top where we live. And if you are really serious, you can drive that little jeep of yours to within 20 kilometers of this village—that's where the snow line begins—and then, you can walk 20 kilometers through three to five feet of snow and if you get here and you are still alive, then we will sit down and talk to you for a whole week because we are not going anywhere."

I said, "Tom, what are you going to do about it?" He replied, "We are going as soon as they get their three to five feet of snow—Janet, myself and four Chileans, two boys and two girls who work with this Institute of Rural Education. We are going to climb that mountain in the snow and we are going to spend that week with them. When we get through they're not going to be Communists any more, because we are going to show them what kind of help we can bring to them. We are not going to talk about Communism. We are not going to talk about democracy. We are just going to show them by our interest and by our service to them what it really means."

Sophomore-Dominated Irish Shine 6-1 in Basketball At Start of Gruelling Holiday Tests in Schedule

Kentucky at Louisville (Dec. 29), Illinois at Chicago (Dec. 31), Indiana at Fort Wayne (Jan. 2), and then two home games against North Carolina (Jan. 5) and DePaul (Jan. 9) — that was the rugged Notre Dame basketball schedule for the Christmas vacation period and extending into early January.

Winners of their first six games, the sophomore-dominated Irish under Coach Johnny Jordan are most hopeful of attaining a good 1962-63 record in spite of a loss to otherwise luckless Butler on December 22.

Statistics for the first four games showed that all five starters were scoring in double figures, and the team as a whole had averaged 95.5 points per game while holding the opposition to an average of 79.5.

Co-captain John Matthews, senior guard from Watervliet, N. Y., led the scoring parade with 84 points, an average of 21.0. Sophomore forward Ron Reed (LaPorte, Ind.) had 78 points and a 19.5 average. Walt Sahn, 6-9 sophomore center from Indianapolis, Ind., had 61 points (15.3 average), Larry Sheffield, sophomore play-making guard from Troy, N. Y., 58 points (14.5 average), and Co-captain John Andreoli, senior forward from Philadelphia, Pa., 56 points (14.0 average).

Scores to date and the remainder of the schedule are:

The Alumni Scene

Samples from the spectrum of their activities attest of the variety and vitality of the Notre Dame Clubs

PITTSBURGH — Soft lighting and sweet music permit a momentary reprieve from the Twist at the Pittsburgh Club dance held last summer in the South Hills Country Club ballroom.

CHICAGO — Among Windy City activities, (left) Chicago Clubbers maintain a permanent office in the 1st National Bank Bldg., a center for committee meetings and prep school interviews, where secretary Marian Korrell takes reservations for December's Rockne Banquet. Ladies Auxiliary activity includes (center) the annual St. Patrick's Day Party for the Club Scholarship Foundation, planned in 1962 by (l-r.) Mrs. Frank Rothing, Mrs. Arthur Martin and Mrs. Alfred Stepan, Jr. At the Sports Night Dinner capping the annual golf outing, (right) Coach Joe Kuharich discusses football prospects with "Chicago American" columnist Bill Gleason.

DENVER — Not shown in previous coverage of Denver U.N.D. Night festivities were these two presentations. At left, more than $9,500 in scholarship awards included two state-wide Club grants, as (l-r.) Chairman Carl Eiberger announced $1,000 to John Geiger, Walsenburg, Colo.; an $8,000 General Motors scholarship to Raymond O'Hayre, Denver; and $500 to George LeMaire, Denver. At right, Knute Rockne Memorial rotating trophies to Colorado Catholic football and basketball champs were presented in ceremonies including (l-r.) Bill Wagner, accepting basketball award for Denver's Regis High; Ken Adamson, Irish All-American now with the Denver Broncos; Eiberger, retiring president; and Father Joseph Behr accepting the football trophy for Pueblo Catholic High, of which he is principal.

Albany, N. Y.

Universal Notre Dame Night was observed by the Albany, New York, Club with an enthusiastic gathering of alumni and friends at the Sheraton-Ten-Eyck Hotel in downtown Albany last April 29. The highlight of the evening was an address by Mr. JAMES ARMSTRONG. In his speech Mr. Armstrong gave the local alumni a concise picture of campus life at South Bend and told of how the University is advancing on its road toward "academic excellence."

Called upon for a short talk by Toastmaster JIM DRISLANE, '38, was a prominent resident of the area, Congressman Leo O'Brien of Albany's 34th District, a proud alumnus of Niagara University. WILLIAM MURPHY, '38, was also called upon to say a few words by Toastmaster Drislane.

REV. EDWARD O'MALLEY offered the invocation and benediction. Father also had a few words of greeting for the gathering.

Prior to the dinner, JOHN CAMPBELL, '26, hosted a cocktail party which, needless to say, added the little something to the evening and helped make our Universal Notre Dame Night a huge success.

Among the 100 guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. NED ECHERT, Mr. and Mrs. LOU EMERICK, Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM CASAZZA, Mr. and Mrs. ANDREW PICKNEY, Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS CLEMENTE, and Mr. and Mrs. LARRY O'NEILL.

The entire evening was planned and arranged for by the Club's Board of Governors and officers, headed by President FRANK O'BRIEN, '57.

Atlanta

Atlanta alumni planned a luncheon or dinner get-together during the presence of Alumni Assn. Secretary JAMES E. ARMSTRONG in the city January 27-29 at a district meeting of the American Alumni Council, of which he is president.

Our Universal Notre Dame Night last spring was extremely successful with 78 people in attendance. Our total list of alumni and friends in the area is 78. Our success has been greatly implemented by the Most Rev. PAUL J. HALLINAN, '32, the new Archbishop of Atlanta, and the presence of FR. JOHN E. WALSH, C.S.C., at our Universal Notre Dame Night. The Club planned a golf outing for the end of October.

Bakersfield, Calif.

A dinner held recently by the Bakersfield club in honor of FR. HENRY GEUSS, C.S.C., is pictured in this issue.

Baltimore

Highlight of the fall was the Baltimore Club's bus trip to Philadelphia for the Navy game, offering game ticket, round trip, box lunch and set-ups for refreshments at $11.50 a head. TOM SHINE was in charge of the outing.

—ROBERT F. HOCHMAN, '50, Pres.

Bengal (East Pakistan)

A summer Pakistan Letter reported the 15th Anniversary of ARCHBISHOP LAWRENCE L. GRANER, C.S.C., '24, as Episcopal Superior of the Archdiocese of Dacca, and the visit of VERY REV. CHRISTOPHER J. O'TOOLE, C.S.C., in his 12th and last year as Superior General of the Congregation of Holy Cross. It also had word on dozens of Holy Cross priests and brothers in the area, including FR. LARRY BAUER, '31, and JACK BIRKMEYER, '53, in Ranikong; FR. FRED BERGMANN, '35, pastor at Mathbari; FR. BILL HICKENS, '42, at St. Joseph's Church, Dharendra; FR. BILL GRAHAM, '44, president of Dacca's Notre Dame College; BISHOP GAN-GULY, plus FR. OREL SECOR, GEORGE POPE, BOB MCKEE, TOM ZIMMERMAN, BOB STEIGMEYER, JOE TIERNEY, BILL EVANS, GERRY McMAHAN, J. LORUSSO, CHARLIE YOUNG, J. VANDEN BOSSCHE, CHESTER SCHNEIDER, GENE HOMRICH, ALFRED

NEFF, WALT MARKS, BILL MONAGHAN, DICK TIMM, etc.; and BROS. EUGENE LeFEUVRE, CHARLES HILL, MARTINIAN WILSON, FELIX SCHONE, THOMAS O'LINN, JOHN O'LAUGHLIN, IVAN DOLAN, LEO SCHULTHEIS, DONALD BECKER, etc.

Boston

The Notre Dame Club of Boston, under the leadership of Prexy TIM TOOMEY, '30, has enjoyed one of the most active and successful Fall activity schedules in the Club's history.

A Freshman Welcome Party was the first activity attended by thirty-five members of the Notre Dame Class of 1966 and their parents. JIM MURPHY, '56, led a chorus of alumni in a fraternal warning against upperclassmen selling warm radiators!

The Notre Dame Sports Nite honored NICK BUONICONTI, '62, Notre Dame's contribution to the Boston Patriots Professional Football team. Nick did an outstanding job in forecasting the fortunes of the 1962 Fighting Irish. Film high lights of the 1961 season and Schaefer beer provided additional entertainment.

At this writing plans for three other events have been finalized. The Annual Notre Dame Victory Dance invades the M.I.T. Faculty Club on Saturday, October 27th, for its usual "swinging affair." Jim Murphy chairmans while Tim Toomey handles instructions in the "Twist."

BILL DACEY, JR., '49, has laid large plans for leading Boston's Notre Dame fans to see Notre Dame tackle Navy in Philadelphia on November 3.

Two participants on the trip will be the first prize winners of the Notre Dame Club of Boston Scholarship Fund raffle. NEIL FOWLER, '47, says the lucky names are to be revealed at the October 27th Victory Dance. Raffle proceeds and all Scholarship Fund donations are presently channeled to the educational support of KEVIN GOOD, '64, of Malden, the present holder of the Boston Club Scholarship.

The Universal Notre Dame Communion Breakfast is scheduled for Sunday, December 9th. BARRY HYNES, '62, chairman, reports that after Mass at Holy Cross Cathedral, the breakfast will be again held at the Red Coach Grill, Boston.

The Notre Dame basketball team will be in Boston early in 1963 to take on Boston College. A Boston style reception for the team is planned.

And finally: The Boston area has not yet reached 100 per cent participation in the Notre Dame Challenge appeal. Are you working on the solution or are you a part of the problem??

—BOB MARR, '58, Secy.

Buffalo

GARY WEBSTER, with a low gross of 76, again won the Mary A. Quinn Memorial Trophy at our annual Golf Outing, August 27th at the Lancaster Country Club. JACK CONSIDINE's 81—10 net 71 made him low net champion. Other winners were: JOHN F. ENDERS, PAT RYAN, Class of 1966, DANA FITZPATRICK and Jack Bredenberg, who was a guest of Chairman GEORGE FERRICK. An excellent movie of the 1962 Masters Tournament highlighted the evening's entertainment.

Our September 6th meeting was held in Buffalo at the University Club. Director BILL LAWLESS selected HOWIE BURKE as chairman for our initial fall gathering, which is traditionally Father and Son Night for all freshmen. President JACK CONSIDINE indoctrinated our guests on the purpose and workings of a Notre Dame Alumni Club and the value of a liberal education (the humanities) in preparing for a business career. A movie from the University stressing undergraduate life and refreshments completed an enjoyable evening.

We congratulate Barbara and JIM AUSTIN, chairmen of the splendid "Family Picnic" held September 16th at the beautifully located farm of Mr. and Mrs. CLEM CROWE in the Eden New York Hills. Their hard-working committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. FRANK GAGLIONE, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD KLEE, Mr. and Mrs. HARRY QUINN, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN HOELSCHER, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN BOLAND, Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS RICHARDS and Mr. and Mrs. PAUL ALLWEIN. Specialized outing equipment was provided by HENRY BALLING, JR. About 30 Notre Dame men and their wives enjoyed a perfect late summer day. As special guests they brought with them their 150 children.

The Parkway Inn on November 13th in Niagara Falls was the location of our next meeting. Director PAUL CARROLL appointed FRANK FORGIONE chairman. GENE O'CONNOR negotiated for the main ballroom of the Lafayette Hotel in downtown Buffalo for our Annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, December 2nd. Our Mass, as in past years, will probably be at 9:00 A.M. in St. Joseph's Chapel next to St. Joseph's Cathedral. Gene had not at this writing, decided upon a guest speaker.

Our annual Christmas Dance will be held on Friday, December 28th in the Terrace Room of the Statler Hilton Hotel. BOB WEBER is the board member responsible for this club-sponsored activity.

JACK McMAHON has appointed JIM SULLIVAN chairman of the January 29th meeting in Buffalo. Jim will announce the location of this meeting soon.

Financial Secretary JOE BUCKHEIT has announced Club dues-paying members at a record high and still climbing. One hundred and fifty area Notre Dame men have given the Buffalo Club and its officers a vote of confidence by paying their $6.00 annual dues for 1962. President JACK CONSIDINE is confident of at least 200 dues-paying members by December 31, 1962.

ATLANTA—U.N.D. Night at the Fulton Roof of the Castle View Town and Country Club, according to delayed word from deepest Dixie, was attended by fourscore alumni and friends of the University. Head table personae included (l.-r.): J. Thomas Gunning, vice-president; Robert F. Hochman, president; Very Rev. Vincent P. Brennan, S.M., president of Marist College; Most Rev. Paul J. Hallinan, Archbishop of Atlanta; Paul W. Smith, Foundation general chairman; Rev. John E. Walsh, C.S.C., director of the N.D. Foundation; Richard G. Murphy, secretary; and Melvin S. Rummel, treasurer.

WALTER F. DALY, JR., Class of '60 and graduate degree recipient in '62, is a new resident of Western New York. A State Parole Officer, he lives with his wife, two boys and two girls at 86 Revere Road, Grand Island, New York.

A newly appointed honorary member of the Club is Mrs. Marilyn Stewart, Jack Considine's very capable and helpful secretary.

—JAMES F. CASEY, '44, Secy.

Calumet Region

The Officers and Directors of the Calumet Club did not have their annual golf outing this year. This event was replaced by a husband-wife trip to the Notre Dame-Wisconsin football game at Madison, Wisconsin.

—DAVE OGREN, Pres.

Central New Jersey

The Notre Dame Club of Central New Jersey held a Student Send-off party September 6 at the Washington House, Watchung, N.J. BILL RICHARDSON, '55, was chairman.

On November 3 the Club sponsored a trip to the N.D.-Navy game in Philadelphia, featuring round-trip bus transportation, ticket to the game, refreshments and sandwiches for only $11. Buses left from Elizabeth, Rahway and Plainfield for the trip, which was under the supervision of TOM KENNEALLY.

Central New York

The Central New York Club began its fall activities with the annual Freshman Send-off Dinner for the seventeen young men who entered Notre Dame from this area. It was held August 27 at the Hotel Syracuse. We were honored to have REV. THEODORE HESBURGH present, along with his mother. It was the first time in five years that Father Hesburgh had spoken to his home town alumni group. His talk, directed at the freshmen, was about the meaning of being a Notre Dame man, and the importance of protecting one's faith against the dangers of our modern secular world. Following the talk a receiving line formed which gave Father Hesburgh a chance to talk personally with many of the four hundred people present. Arrangements were handled by the new Club President, THOMAS QUINLAN. Assisting him were the other officers: JAMES WALTER, JAMES SCHMIDT and MIKE SHEEDY. The reservations were handled by WILLIAM BISER, WILLIAM HASSETT and their wives.

Other recent events included the annual elections dinner in the spring, and a family picnic organized by Pat and CHARLES GEHRIN. Over one hundred attended the picnic at Owasco Lake. Other events were a smoker early in November and the December 8 Communion Breakfast. The final activity for this year will be the annual Christmas Dance.

—MICHAEL B. SHEEDY, Secy.

Chicago

Word has been received that FATHER HESBURGH will be the principal speaker at our 1963 Universal Notre Dame Night, which should be the biggest event in the history of the Club. Watch for additional information, but make plans right now to attend. When you receive a notice, get on the phone and arrange a table of 10. Let's really show our President what we think of him and Notre Dame.

President JACK BARRY reports that we now have the largest dues paid membership in the history of the Chicago Club—a 100 per cent increase in the five year period since 1957. The officers of the Club regard this as an endorsement of current activities, and will strive to present topflight programs during the coming year.

The annual Knute Rockne Dinner, which has developed into one of the Club's major events in the past three years, attracted another packed house in the grand ballroom of the Pick-Congress on Dec. 4. DAVE CONDON, conductor of the Tribune's "Wake of the News" column, headlined the program. Coach JOE KUCHARICH and Athletic Director ED "MOOSE" KRAUSE led the football brigade from South Bend.

Plans already are being formulated by the Ladies' Auxiliary for the annual St. Patrick's Day Party. Mrs. Cyrus Freidheim is president; Mrs. H. Gilbert Seaman, vice-president; Mrs. Frederick Salmon, treasurer; Mrs. John O'Shaughnessy, recording secretary; and Mrs. Joseph Madigan, corresponding secretary.

Our annual Communion Breakfast again will be held during the Lenten season. An announcement will be mailed to all members about a month in advance.

RAY DURST, who has done such an outstanding job as City Chairman of the "Challenge" drive, urges all alumni who may not have contributed as yet for one reason or another to get on the bandwagon so that Chicago will be in the 100 per cent club. Details of the campaign can be obtained by calling the Club office, AN 3-6063. Ray also would like to thank all those who have done such an outstanding job during the campaign. Incidentally, DON ROSS now is assistant Foundation director in the Chicago area.

Six outstanding Chicago boys now are attending the University through the efforts of the Club's Scholarship Foundation. Ray Durst also is president of the Scholarship Foundation. GIL SEAMAN is vice-president; FRANK MILLIGAN, secretary; and PHIL FACCENDA, treasurer. Other members of the Foundation board include President JACK BARRY, THOMAS BEACOM (1962 Chicago Club Man of the Year), JOHN MORLEY, JOHN MCGOORTY, JR., BILL REYNOLDS, Mrs. CYRUS FREIDHEIM and Mrs. Gilbert Seaman.

The Board is proud to announce that the scholarship students are all eminently justifying their selection as scholars at the University. They are: Frank Corrado, junior, communication arts; Anthony Doherty, sophomore, premedicine; Willard Mowrey, freshman, College of Arts and Letters; Harry McKee, junior, College of Law; Robert Schmitt, freshman, College of Engineering; and Paul West, junior, premedicine. Seven Foundation selectees have graduated previously and now are leaders in the business community.

The Club's Scholarship Foundation was established on Sept. 3, 1953, as the vehicle of expression of the desire of the members to help deserving students of promising talents who otherwise would not have been able to attend Notre Dame. Thus, a serious objective complements the social and alumni activities of the Club, the scholastic aims of the University are furthered, and real leadership is developed in the young men selected for financial aid.

Officers and trustees of the Foundation extend their deep thanks to the following who have made it possible to achieve the Foundation objectives:

—The Ladies' Auxiliary for its untiring and successful efforts in conducting its annual St. Patrick's Day Scholarship event, the proceeds from which represent the principal source of funds for our Foundation, and such other donors who have contributed directly to the Foundation.

—The Cardinal Stritch Youth Guidance Foundation whose efficient and careful student selection processes and lofty aims assure meritorious and fruitful expenditure of Foundation funds.

—The University of Notre Dame whose magnificent educational facilities and moral training develop our supported students as well-rounded, useful leaders.

CHUCK FALKENBERG was in charge of Club planning for the football luncheon before the Northwestern game. The Friday luncheon was held in the Century Room of the LaSalle Hotel. "Moose" Krause and CHARLIE CALLAHAN, sports publicity director, presented the N. D. picture. Coach Ara Parseghian and Athletic Director Stu Holcomb represented Northwestern.

For those of you planning a trip to Europe, remember that there is a very active Notre Dame group in Rome. Write or see VINCE MCALOON, Secretary, Notre Dame Center, Palazzo Brancaccio, Largo Brancaccio 82, Rome, Italy. The phone number is 730002.

And for those of you who prefer the sunny South, an ideal vacation stop is the annual N.D. convention in Florida. The Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach clubs will host this spring's convention, which will be held April 26-28 on Grand Bahama Island. The clubs say that hotel, most meals, all events and round-trip plane fare from the Florida mainland will cost about $100 for a couple. For reservations, write the N.D. Club of Fort Lauderdale, 100 E. Las Olas Blvd., Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The phone is JA 2-7954.

The officers hope that the new Club directory will be helpful to you during the coming year. Once you become accustomed to using it, you'll find that the directory can save you many hours over the course of a year. If you happen to find a mistake in the directory, please call the office (AN 3-6063) with the correction. If you're in the area of the First National Bank Building, stop in Room 1337 and give the information to our secretary. The office is used by our various committees and serves as a meeting place for N.D. men.

Let's close with a very Merry Christmas from the Club's officers and a wish for a wonderful 1963. We hope to see you at all the activities!

BAKERSFIELD—Notre Dame alumni of Bakersfield, Calif., attend a dinner held in honor of Father Henry Geuss, C.S.C., a faculty member from the University, (from left, sitting): Mrs. Jim Trino, Sue Creel, Mrs. Bob Anspech, Mrs. Dick Barnett, Mrs. Bryan Coleman, Mrs. Al Buechler, Mrs. Louie Solomon; (standing, from left) Jim Trino, Jr., Joe Rothstein, Bob Anspech, Dick Barnett, Father Geuss, Stan Antongiovanni, Bryan Coleman, Al Buechler, and Louie Solomon.

—PAUL FULLMER, '55, 2nd Vice-Pres.

Cleveland

The Cleveland Club Scholarship Fund was the object of a drive during the fall which ended with a drawing in November for an all-expense vacation for two. The drawing was held at a Foundation rally November 6 at Rohr's Restaurant. Secretary JACK COYNE, '54, assisted Chairman JIM BEELEY, '40, and his committee on the drive.

The Notre Dame Alumni Family Communion Breakfast was scheduled for Sunday, December 9, at Immaculate Conception Church. W. T. BEARGIE made the arrangements.

Columbus

On August 20, the Notre Dame Club of Columbus, Ohio held a reception for new students and their parents at the Columbus Athletic Club. After they saw the film "Notre Dame," parents were able to quiz a panel of three students, seniors Don Rothermich and Jerry Eisenman and sophomore Bob Dilenschneider, regarding spending money, permissions, clothing, laundry and other aspects of campus life. Alumni Club President BOB KOSYDAR, '53, moderated the event, and student club president Don Rothermich welcomed the boys to the student body.

On Saturday, September 8, the Club held its annual back-to-school picnic at the Hall Ridge Club in Columbus with seventy-two alumni, students, dads and friends attending. Managed by Past President DICK KASBERG, '48, and catered by GUIDO ALEXANDER, '44, owner of the Desert Inn, and local Pabst distributor KEN MEYERS, '40, the picnic featured basketball, volleyball, swimming, talk and elbow bending. Only JIM SMITH, '53, could stay with the students in basketball; PAT CANTWELL, '52, and FRANK BIGBERT, '50, preferred to take their exercise by the swimming pool. The student-alumni touch football game was won this year by the alumni, 6-0. After ART ULRICH, '48, nearly returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown, the alumni's hard rushing line featuring '48 men TOM FRY and DICK KASBERG, and '53 men BOB KOSYDAR and JACK DILENSCHNEIDER, as well as AL EICHENLAUB, '52, kept the students in their own territory the entire game. Late in the game two "ringers" combined to score for the alumni when aging guest Ralph Wheat passed long to incoming freshman Harry Hoskins, who was also playing for the alumni. Among the spectators were Dr. TOM HUGHES, '28, whose son Tom enters N.D. this year; DICK EICHENLAUB, '51; CARL KEGELMAYER, '41; DON WHITE, '47; RAY KREBER, '54; RUPE EICHENLAUB, '52; JOHN MURPHY, '28; DR. JOE HUGHES, '31; JOE RYAN, '30; LEE KLETZLY, '31; and DR. HENRY HUGHES, '41. Pleading that ticket taking chores kept them from adding their talents to the alumni squad were Vice-President MIKE SCANLON, '54 and treasurer DON WEILAND, '52 who also watched from the sidelines. Among the alumni arriving in time for the dinner and the after-dusk showing of the film of the 1961 N.D.-Purdue game were JOHN GLASGOW, '54; JOHN DEBITETTO, '41; GEORGE GLASGOW, '58; TOM MARTIN, '58; JOHN RINER, '53; JIM HUGHES, '58; GEORGE WATLING, '33; FRANK MCGRAW, '58; JOHN GUZZO, '62; AL FRERICKS, '41; TED FREERICKS, '39, whose boy starts at N.D. this year; HARRY NESTER, '20; HERM BITTNER, '24; DAVE HAGANS, '55; BERNIE LACHNER; JOE RIEGER, '57; and Congressman SAM DEVINE, '40.

On October 6 the Club ran its annual football special to the Notre Dame-Purdue game at Notre Dame.

—JACK DILENSCHNEIDER, '53, Secy.

Connecticut Valley

An enjoyable "Back to School" dinner was held September 12 at The Hartford Club. We were pleased and proud to bid farewell to 10 outstanding boys from the Greater Hartford area. Many thanks to FRANK AHEARN, '27, and JIM FLAHERTY, '53, for their help in this endeavor.

On Sunday, December 9th—Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday—the club will have attended 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Patrick and St. Anthony Church followed by breakfast at the Statler Hilton Hotel. Efforts are being made to obtain an outstanding speaker for this occasion. Since this means a well-deserved morning out for our wives, the turnout is always tremendous.

The Club is also formulating plans for a Mardi Gras dance. Proceeds will be used for the establishment of a scholarship fund.

If any of you have not yet responded to the Challenge Appeal, please do so now. It's not so much the amount that counts but the fact that you gave something.

—BOB MCGOLDRICK, Secy.

Dallas

The Notre Dame Alumni Club of Dallas is planning to have the Universal Notre Dame Night on Tuesday, April 16, 1963. Mr. HAL F. TEHAN, '48, will be the chairman.

We are certainly looking forward to seeing "MOOSE" KRAUSE again, as he always gives such a fine talk. The officers and directors are looking forward to meeting with JIM ARMSTRONG in December.

—DICK LAJOIE, '42, Pres.

Dearborn

The annual picnic was held on June 24 at Edward Hines Parkway. There were 23 couples and some 100 children present. The day was spent in playing softball between the fathers and sons, shoe kicking contest for the ladies and games and races for boys and girls of all ages. Every child won a prize.

The summer dance was held on July 28 at John Fish's Gardens. Again 23 couples were present, but not the same 23. The back yard was decorated with Japanese lanterns, tables with flowers and candles. The Notre Dame couples and friends enjoyed an evening of dancing, food and the usual refreshments—both "hard" and "soft." There was some "soft" left over. Just as chef DICK KING started cooking the hot dogs, the rains came—but Dick was saved by two umbrellas of the N.D. wives. Our thanks to the following wives for the delicious food and other assistance: Mary Fish, Ruth Gass, Peggy Fisher, Pat Kluding, Helen Hicks, Pat Sarb, and Rosemarie King.

Our annual golf outing was held at Warren Valley on Sept. 27. RAY DEFAUW was quite chip with his chipper. The evening's entertainment consisted of dinner, beer, and cards. Chairman JIM KLINK donated a wedge for door prize—and who do you think won the wedge? Not Jim, but he tried.

At the Sept. 27 monthly meeting, BILL DECRICK won the bottle, JERRY KELLY the money, and the rest of us won the experience. Meetings were also held at DICK KING's home on Oct. 12 to plan the N.D.-M.S.U. football trip and at JERRY SARB's on Oct. 26 to rehash the trip and plan an annual fund-raising drive.

—GEORGE C. BALL, Secy.

Decatur

On November 15 the annual election was held, and following is a list of the new officers of the N.D. Club of Decatur: BUZZ MORAN, '48, president; JOHN F. FOY, '35, vice-president; STEVE GRALIKER, '42, secretary; JERRY McNAMARA, treasurer; BERNARD MARTY, JOSEPH DONOVAN and NICK NEIERS, directors; and Rt. Rev. MSGR. F. W. KLASNER, chaplain. The new officers immediately assumed office.

—BUZZ MORAN, Pres.

Detroit

The Notre Dame Club of Detroit planned its participation in the Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday on December 9 with Mass at Holy Trinity Church, breakfast at the downtown Holiday Inn. Scheduled speaker was REV. JOHN J. CAVANAUGH, C.S.C., former president of the University now directing the religious program on campus. LOU BOSCO, '58, was named chairman, assisted by BOB BOGG and a fine committee.

Alumni gave their full support to the Marian High School Mothers' Club of Birmingham in their sponsorship of a concert by the N.D. Glee Club at Marian on November 29.

Our very popular Christmas Party will again be held at the Carmen Tower Key Club. The date is Friday, December 28. The chairman is JACK MURRAY, '57.

—JOHN C. MURRAY, Secy.

Evansville

Our local club held a picnic at the Emge farm in September of this year.

We are in the process now of planning our Communion Breakfast and our annual Christmas party.

The names of our officers at the present time are: HENRY DEWES, president; D. PATRICK O' DANIEL, vice-president; and CHARLES MANION, sec. & treas.

—CHARLES A. MANION

Erie

LEW SHIOLENO, '49, and LARRY STADLER, '28, co-chairmen for Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday in Erie, have plans almost finalized as this column's deadline approaches. The December 9th affair is scheduled for the Kahkwa Club.

Club members all have been congratulating TOM BATES, '60, on his engagement to Miss Barbara DeSantis. They are planning to get married next summer. DON CRIQUI, '62, spent six weeks in the Air Force this fall. He is now back at his WYVN microphone in Erie and is all set to handle the play by play of the Gannon College basketball game. Don is anxiously looking forward to February 13th when Gannon will be in South Bend to take on the Fighting Irish. Club President TONY ZAMBROSKI, '52, has now settled down to his wrestling-coaching duties after another successful football season. His Cathedral Prep footballers won the city title for the fourth year in a row.

Many classmates and other alumni attended the wedding of LEO J. BRUGGER, JR., '61, to the former Miss Theresia Minadeo. JOE BARBER, '36, is back to full time legal duties after a lengthy illness. Joe is looking fit as a fiddle now. MIKE MCCORMICK, '61, took in the Notre Dame-Michigan State game this fall. LEO CARNEY, '30, took in the Northwestern game at Evanston. HERB KERN, '54, has now opened his own architecture firm in Erie.

JIM SCHAAF, '59, spent some time in Erie and at Notre Dame this fall after finishing up his duties with the Kansas City Athletics for the '62 season. JACK SITTERLE, '60, and his father took in the Notre Dame-Pitt game in South Bend. RICH MCCORMICK, '53, ran into DICK DALEY, '53, former Erieite now working in Chicago while at the North Carolina game this fall. BOB BARBER, '40, and his wife took in the Notre Dame-Navy game in Philadelphia.

Club officers are going ahead with plans for the spring and are starting to make preliminary plans for Universal Notre Dame Night.

—JOHN J. MCCORMICK, JR., '53, Secy.

Flint

The Sixth annual "Sports Night" was held at the Flint Elks Club on September 17.

HUGHIE DEVORE was the special guest. Coaches from University of Michigan, Michigan State University and the University of Detroit were also present.

ARCHIE CAMPBELL, honorary member of the Notre Dame Club of Flint who was the "Man of the Year" for 1960, was chairman assisted by BILL MINARDO and LEON HART.

About 200 were in attendance, and as usual Hughie stole the show with his remarks.

—JAMES RADIGAN, Secy.

Fort Lauderdale

Don't forget the Florida State Convention for 1963 has gone International. This will be the first International Convention and is to be held on April 26, 27 and 28, 1963 at the Jack Tar Grand Bahama Club at West End, Grand Bahamas, Islands. Contact our club offices at 100 E. Las Olas Blvd. in Fort Lauderdale for more information and reservations.

The Fort Lauderdale Club has published its 1962 Club Directory listing current information on all members in the area, anyone desiring a copy need only request it by dropping a line to DON DORINI, '53, at 6241 S.W. 5th Court, Fort Lauderdale.

The Club held its annual TV Party on Saturday September 29th, the occasion being the national telecast of the N.D.-Oklahoma game. Needless to say, all 110 members and guests attending were well pleased with the final score. Amongst those celebrating the Irish victory were Jane and BILL MAUS, '53, Judy and TOM MAUS, '57, CHARLIE BACHMAN, '17, Eunie and DICK BAKER, '53, ED BOLF, '46, FRANK CAREY, '46, PAT DADDIO, the PAT(s) LYNCH, '53, Mickie and GEORGE GORE, '48, Margaret and BOB GORE, '31, Betty and FRANK MCGINN, '52, Teed and BILL MOTSETT, '34, ED TROMBETTA, '60, and many more.

On Thursday, October 11, the high point of the Club's social year was held, it being, the annual Notre Dame Football Sweepstakes. This year's lucky winner of the trip for two, to both the Michigan State and the Northwestern games, complete with airline tickets, hotel reservations and $300.00 expense money for two was a local attorney. Wil Groaton and his lovely wife, Linda, were most gracious winners, in spite of the fact that he planned to pull for Wisconsin on October 13, being a product of both their undergraduate and graduate schools. Anyway, the evening was a huge success, what with numerous other prizes being awarded and a very lovely dinner being served afterwards. Attesting to the success of the evening were over 70 members and guests, some of whom were Dolly and TOM WALKER, '42, Belen and TOM MURRAY, '50, Marlene and JOHN MCGINN, '54, Marcia and GEORGE MCFADDEN, Marilyn and BOB McDONOUGH, '52, Marge and FRANK McDONOUGH, '41, the Brothers Maus, once again with their lovely wives; DICK GORMAN, '57, with his bride of a few months; Pat and JOE GORE, '42, Trudy and GEORGE ERNST, '29; and, of course, my lovely wife Jeanne sat with me.

See you soon in beautiful Fort Lauderdale.

—DON DORINI, '53, Secy.

Ft. Wayne

Tuesday, September 11, saw the Notre Dame Alumni Club's Fall Outing — chicken barbecue and beer on tap throughout the evening.

Our group ventured to a new site for this year's outing — Croteaus' Reserve. There were volleyball and touch football for the younger generation and card playing in the game house for the older generation. There was also a fishing site for the N.D. anglers. TERRY WARD was chairman of the event.

The Fort Wayne Notre Dame Club's annual Football Smoker was held on Wednesday, November 14, 1962, at the Centlivre Hospitality Room. The Guest Speaker was CHUCK LENNON, the assistant basketball coach at Notre Dame. He showed a football movie and gave us a preview on the 1962-1963 Notre Dame basketball team. Refreshments included Old Crown Beer and Ale, Alps Brau Beer, peanuts, pretzels, and potato chips. Invited were all N.D. Alumni and Friends. Special Guests included the Central Catholic High School and Bishop Luers High School coaching staffs.

Hawaii

We planned a little get-together for the grads and subway alumni here during the football season. Our past affairs usually involving a stag affair to listen to one of the ball games on the radio during the past few years have been outstanding flops. This year the officers decided to try something a little different — a stag nite or afternoon party featuring some football films or film clips. The projected date for the affair is flexible but set tentatively for the week end of the Southern Cal game.

We had a dinner on August 30 for our departing freshmen, and also to greet some of the students who have returned for the summer. We were fortunate to have JERRY MCCARTHY from the Commerce School in attendance. Each of the 60 people in attendance enjoyed himself I am sure, judging from many comments — favorable ones — which all the officers here have received. Unfortunately no pictures were taken, but perhaps it is a newsworthy item for the ALUMNUS magazine.

—NEIL VASCONCELLOS, '54, Pres.

Houston

The Notre Dame Club of Houston held its annual "Back to School" picnic at LARRY KELLY's Madre Mea Ranch on Sunday, August 12, 1962. DAVID MILLER, '59, and TOM BRENNAN, '44, served as co-chairmen of the affair. Among those attending and having a great time swimming, fishing and relaxing were Nano and BILL PADAN, '42; JOHN DEVLIN and family; Madeline and DON O'BRIEN, '42; Mary Lou and PAUL DOYLE, '36; Inez and GEORGE MCHALE, '23; Mary Lou and TOMMY GREEN, '27; Gracie and HARRY CALLAHAN.

Also, Joan and AL DeCRANE, '53; Annette and GEORGE STRAKE, JR., '57; Joan and LEIGHTON YOUNG, JR., '59; MIKE SHANNAN, '58; PAT BOLAND, '54; and DAVID HANNAH, '62.

The clergy was well represented with Rev. L. J. Lacey, C.S.B., moderator of the men's club, and Rev. Francis Managhan, C.S.B., chaplain of the ladies' auxiliary.

We planned a Communion Breakfast for December 9, 1962, at Marian High School. The Houston Club will be the scene of our annual Christmas Dance to be held December 27. MIKE SHANNON will serve as chairman of the dance committee and will receive able assistance from BILL ANDERSON, '58, and PAT BROPHY.

—RALPH H. SAUER, Secy.

Indianapolis

Once again we had a big turnout of parents and small fry for the Family Picnic. There were several athletic events for the wives and children, and the alumni egg throw was won by BILL SAHM and JOHN O'CONNOR. Thanks to Chairman JACK EIDER for magnificent arrangements.

On October 13 the Club held its annual Scholarship Ball at the North Side K. of C. Handling the various committee assignments were MIKE FOX, BOB KANE, DICK RUWE, MARK FITZGERALD and FRAN KENNEDY.

PETER C. REILLY has offered to replace the P. C. Reilly Memorial Golf Trophy recently retired by JOHN FOLEY.

DR. JOSEPH GORMLEY was named chairman of the Communion Sunday observance, with Mass at Blessed Sacrament Chapel and breakfast at the Marott Hotel on Dec. 9.

"Holiday on Ice," the brilliant ice revue, was sponsored by the Club under the general chairmanship of FRANK QUINN on November 7, 1962. Thirteen alumni teams worked to assure capacity attendance at the Coliseum.

Other activities include the annual search for scholarship applicants by BOB WELCH, and cultural activities including a Great Books Committee chaired by Mrs. PAT FISHER and representation on the Archdiocesan Junior Great Books Program by TOM MURPHY.

Jersey Shore

The University of Notre Dame Club of the Jersey Shore was officially organized Sept. 12 in a meeting at the Elks Lodge, Asbury Park, N. J. The new group has the distinction of being the 200th club formed by Notre Dame alumni throughout the world.

At the charter meeting, the members unanimously adopted the constitution and by-laws and elected a slate of four officers to one-year terms. President of the new organization is GEORGE A. BARIS-CILLO, JR., '44, Bradley Beach. He is an attorney with offices in Asbury Park at 601 Grand Ave. Other officers are: DR. WALTER F. JUDGE, '49; Spring Lake, vice-president; FRANCIS E. GIBSON, '42; Freehold, New Jersey, secretary; and RAYMOND TIERNEY, Jr., '54, Little Silver, treasurer. REV. PAUL J. KANE, Glendola, was named club chaplain.

The constitution, by-laws and officer recommendations were prepared by a committee consisting of: RICHARD J. BYRNE, '52, Shrewsbury, chairman; RICHARD A. CORDASCO, '50, New Monmouth; CHARLES J. KELLER, '54, Sea Girt; RICHARD SCHERER, '55, Matawan; and EDWIN L. VOLL, JR., '48, Toms River.

Eligibility requirements for the club include graduation from Notre Dame and residency in either Monmouth or Ocean counties. The present club roster lists 98 names with Middletown, Rumson, Shrewsbury and Spring Lake accounting for 10 members each.

Other Garden State alumni clubs of the University are the North Jersey, the Central Jersey and the South Jersey clubs.

In the non-business portion of the club's first meeting, short talks were presented by PHILIP R. MUNNING, '48, Red Bank, and ED VOLL. Mr. Munning who recently returned from a reunion at the University, reviewed the new facilities now existing on the campus. Voll, a former Notre Dame fullback, summarized the grid prospects for the "Fighting Irish" in the fall.

The first project undertaken by the club was a Communion Breakfast scheduled for Dec. 9 at Holy Spirit Church, Asbury Park. At a meeting on Nov. 7 the members were to finalize plans for the

Kansas City

The Northwestern game was chosen for the football trip this year. Approximately sixty people left Kansas City Thursday noon, October 25th by Santa Fe Streamliner for Chicago. They enjoyed first-class accommodations at the Executive House on Chicago's Near North Side for three nights. Also included in the package trip were transportation by chartered bus to and from South Bend and Chicago and the ticket for the ball game. The trip was a great success. ED AYLWARD was the chairman.

The Kansas City Club has raised its "Challenge" pledge from $20,000 to $25,000. We are presently awaiting the assignment of a memorial room in the library.

The Club and the Auxiliary will jointly sponsor an event, tentatively set for February 16th. The party is presently in the planning stage.

—CARL B. ERFFMEYER, '51, Secy.

Lehigh Valley

The year's activities began with a Cana Retreat on Passion Sunday at St. Francis Retreat House in Bethlehem. Chairman for the affair was JIM STURM, '57. The group had the distinction of being the first couples retreat to be held at this newly opened retreat house.

U.N.D. Night was held on April 26, at the Americus Hotel in Allentown. Chairman for this affair was GEORGE WALLACE, '36. The guest speaker was novelist JAMES MICHENER, who spoke on the significance of the 1956 Hungarian revolt. The University guest representative was PROFESSOR FRANK O'MALLEY, who spoke on the meaning of education at Notre Dame. Honored as Man of the Year was HUGH McFADDEN, a leading attorney of the area and alumnus of Villanova and Lehigh University.

The new officers selected for the coming year were announced, namely: BERT DADAY, '52, president; JAMES FUNARI, '49, vice-president; PETE KUCHARCZUK, '53, treasurer; and BOB STRALEY, '53, secretary.

—BOB STRALEY, Secy.

Los Angeles

Due to the departure of the club's assistant secretary, JIM NEWMAN, to the San Jose area, an election was called for and as a result ROBERT K. KELLEY, '34, was elected to the post. Incidentally, Bob handled our Freshman Send-off, the result of which was quite encouraging.

Plans for the Southern California-Notre Dame game were also finalized. On Friday night, November 30, the club sponsored a Pre-Game Rally at the Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. Entertainment was furnished by several of the better-known personalities in the entertainment field. GENE CALHOUN and JUDGE CARBERRY were co-chairmen of this event. On Sunday, December 2, the combined clubs of this area sponsored the Annual Communion Breakfast: Mass at Loyola Preparatory School and breakfast at the Chapman Park Hotel. AL WELZENBACH, '29, and I were cochairmen of this event. Incidentally, I have appointed MORT GOODMAN General Chairman of the entire week end. Pertinent to this week end, we invited FATHER JOYCE, having been informed that FATHER HESBURGH would be in Antarctica, the Foundation Staff, the athletic staff and team to the Communion Breakfast, and the same personnel sans the athletic staff and team to the rally.

A Christmas dance was also scheduled for December 27. This dance, which is being reinstated as was the Freshman Send-off, will be held in conjunction with the student body. In this regard, I have recently appointed TOM SNEDDON, '63, president of the Cal-Club, as a club liaison man on campus, and MIKE WOODS, '62, to maintain these relations on this end along with relations with recent graduates.

We were extremely gratified to hear of the acceptance of MORT GOODMAN's nomination to the National Board.

—ROBERT L. GERVAIS, Pres.

Mansfield, Ohio

J. P. ECHELLE, '62, attended the Family Picnic in July and told us that he would be going to graduate school at the University of Kansas. Keep up the good work, Joe.

trip to see the Notre Dame-Purdue football game. The committee of MARSHALL PRUNTY, '50, GEORGE KAVANAUGH, '31, FRANCIS COLEMAN, '46, and C. J. KOZAK, '30, did their best to make the trip a pleasant one. All indications were that everyone had a good time. We hated to see the Irish lose and hoped they'd return to their winning ways.

FRANCIS COLEMAN attended his class reunion in June and told of seeing many of his old friends. He was very complimentary of all those connected with the reunion weekend—a first-class job all the way.

BOB BLAKE, a 1961 graduate of St. Peters High School, has entered the University.

Our September meeting was held at HERB FRYE's, '39, cottage on Walton Lake, and everyone including the wives enjoyed the cookout that was held in conjunction with the business meeting.

Miami

The Annual Picnic at Crandon Park was a success in every way, thanks to chairman GENE KUBICKI. The 1962 version of the Miami Notre Dame Club's Annual Softball Fiasco as might have been seen by a nonpartisan observer drinking soda pop only, was reported as follows:

"BILL McSHANE's dauntless officer and director crew had a smattering of girls and boys, and Bill Welch's grab-bag 'sports' included the likes of wives, mothers, and alumni who would associate themselves with each other in a common bond (of 15 or 20 active players) to lick 'them brass-hat bums' . . . The game was staged not on the local diamond which was under water, but adjacent thereto where bases were laid out or rather thrown out to wherever the beer cans marking the same stopped! Batteries for the O & D team evolved around JIM SMITH's fire-bell delivery together with the help of (says Welch's grapejuicers) the Ump CHARLIE MAHER, who kept the mist out his telescopic eye with champagne juice supplied by Millers. . . .

"Following the game other sports evolved around the cabana area, swimming, volleyball and bar-b-q. Gene Kubicki was chairman of the affair and did a bang-up job of making all the arrangements. Virginia Canane, ED KELLY and EMIL SLOVAK were outstanding in the softball and eating departments. . . . JIM WILSON, BILL STREETER at 'five card bridge' . . . The DICK SADOWSKI's and Dorothy Brautigams and BARNEY GOODS all got their bathing suits wet; GEORGE HERO and JOHN THORNTON reported in to bolster the officer roster, along with JACK (ORGAN MASTER) CANANE. . . . AYEAVE PROBSTS rung the curtain down on their Key Biscayne when the Metro curfew came and a humdinger time was had by all. . . . as was expected!"

With the baseball season closed and football season under way, BOB PROBST was chairman of the TV Party of September 29 at DAN ROWLAND's Major Appliances showroom for the nationally televised Notre Dame opener vs. Oklahoma. We invited the Miami Oklahoma Club (Billy Vessels et al.).

We had a wonderful dinner meeting at the Urmey Hotel September 6, for the members and the new and present students at Notre Dame and their fathers, chairmanned ably by I. I. PROBST. We have a very fine group of boys from this area going to the University and are very proud that Notre Dame attracts the calibre of boys that attended our banquet, such as Carl Atkins, William Durney, Jr., Richard Fleming, Patrick Gleason, Tim Korth, John Lewis, Francis Mackle, Jr., C. J. McLaughlin, Roger Rotolante, and James Warden as entering freshmen; and Bob Weber, Tom Deal, Tim Kemper, Tom Norman, Lou Jepey, Jr., and John Ribka as returning sophomores and juniors. The banquet's oldest was FRED JONES' father and the youngest, John Thornton, Jr., (class of 1974) and was supported by such fine youth as BILL McSHANE, BOB REILLY, GENE KUBICKI, CHARLIE MAHER, GEORGE COURRY, FARIS COWART, JERRY HOLLAND, BOB and I. I. PROBST, (with the photo of the 1924 National champs), and JOHN STRICKROOT, GEORGE HERO, FRED JONES, JIM SMITH, ED and BERNIE LYONS, RAY POPP, JACK CANANE, BROTHER KERIG, C.S.C., Principal of Archbishop Curley High, Miami, and fathers and sponsors Clyde Atkins, Bill Durney, Bill Fleming, Jesse Gleason, Howard Korth, Frank Mackle, T. E. Norman, Sr., Frank Rotolante, E. F. Schimpeler and many others.

A radio party was scheduled for mid-October and the Pitt Game at Notre Dame, November 10 was the prize for the Irish sweepstakes.

The Annual Communion Breakfast was planned for December 2 or December 9—Sundays of course.

Milwaukee

OPEN LETTER TO THE NOTRE DAME CLUB OF MILWAUKEE

Many, many thanks to President BOB GROGAN, '37, and the members of the Notre Dame Club of Milwaukee for their hospitality at the most successful Smoker on October 10. With the Old Heidelberg as the setting. I really enjoyed visiting with everyone after an absence of almost four years. The wonderful Milwaukee-N.D. spirit was most edifying and the program featuring N.D. Freshman Coach HUGH DEVORE and the 1961 Football High Lights was real great. After seeing the thrilling High Lights and listening to Hughie's comments, I believe I heard former Peorians WALT BARBU and RICK GRIMLER lauding "last season's 15 and 10 record."

Fortunately, there were older and calmer heads present in the persons of FRANK EATON and CHARLIE O'NEIL who continue to labor on behalf of the Sprinkman Corp. and the St. Vincent DePaul Society respectively. President Grogan huddled with BROTHER THEODORE, C.S.C., Director of St. Charles Boys Home, and FATHER COHANE, C.S.C., Chaplain of the Home regarding plans for the always marvelous Annual Communion Breakfast. CHUCK and JIM O'BRIEN are still quite concerned over Jim's continuing bachelorhood. Discussing kids and Chain Belt sanitation equipment over a soggy slip stick were BILL WOODWARD and former Club presy WALT SCHNEIDER. Apparently BILL DOUCETTE continues to hold the Club record for fatherhood. TOM MULCAHEY has obviously prospered during his initial three years of marriage, and reports two healthy offspring to date. JIM JUST was ready and willing to go a full 60 minutes.

Due to the brevity requirements imposed by President Grogan, I didn't get a chance to talk with a great many of the other good N.D. men present. Maybe next trip to Milwaukee on business will coincide with another successful Club event. Thanks to all for a really enjoyable evening.

—JOHN MANION (Peoria)

Mohawk Valley

The Notre Dame Club of the Mohawk Valley held its fall meeting on October 3, 1962. Elections were held at this meeting resulting in the following officers: DAN CALLAN elected president, DICK TROSSETT re-elected vice-president in charge of student affairs, LEE OSTER elected secretary, and DR. ROBERT BRENNAN elected treasurer.

Changes were also made in our five-member Executive Advisory Board. ED SWEENEY, TONY GIRRUIZZI and DR. DONALD GAVAGAN were reappointed to the Board. The newly appointed members of the Advisory Board are KEN MURPHY and FRANK ROONEY.

Plans were discussed at the meeting for the forthcoming Communion Breakfast to be held on Deember 2, 1962. At this writing a chairman for the Breakfast has not yet been named.

As an added incentive to improve attendance at Club meetings, the next meeting was scheduled for November 14, 1962, in connection with a buffet supper.

—LEE OSTER, '56, Secy.

New Mexico

The latest event of the Club was the annual telecast party on September 29 at the home of Club President DICK EVERROAD. Approximately thirty alumni and wives attended this successful event and watched the team pull an upset victory over Oklahoma.

The next scheduled event of the club will be the annual Communion Sunday and Breakfast. The exact date has not been set at this writing, but it will be held sometime in early December.

—DENNIS L. MANGAN, Secy.

New York

The Annual Picnic for the orphan boys of St. Mary's Home in Syosset was a rewarding experience for the numerous Club members who assisted.

The Freshman Smoker, chaired by GORDON FORESTER, filled the Jade Room of the Waldorf Astoria to capacity. HARVEY FOSTER, then F.B.I. chief of the New York area, was guest speaker and Robert Mulshine, president of the Campus Met Club, gave a very inspiring and informative talk on the problems a freshman might expect to encounter in his first semester.

CASS VANCE, vice-president of the City Division, assisted by TOM BRADLEY, arranged a most enjoyable Football Kick-off meeting at the Waldorf on September 20. ANGELO BERTELLI, RALPH GUGLIEMI and BOB BILL enlivened the evening with plenty of humor and gridiron anecdotes.

Thanks to the efforts of President ED FITZPATRICK and his committee, BILL CUDDY and AL LESMEZ, the facilities of the Waldorf Astoria have been secured for all Club functions for the next two years.

—GEORGE P. KRUG, '35, Secy.

North Florida

This is a somewhat belated letter advising the Association of recent events in our club. At the Universal N.D. Night Banquet held last April, I was elected president of the club for the next two years and TED TWOMEY was elected vice-president. We do not have an active secretary at the moment. Incidentally, DR. WILLIAM M. BURKE gave what we all considered a very enjoyable talk at the banquet. He is certainly a credit to the University. I enclose a picture taken at the banquet of Dr. Burke and myself for whatever disposition you care to make of it.

On September 29, the club met at FRED RAHAIM's house to watch the Notre Dame-Oklahoma game on television. Among those in attendance beside Fred and myself were TED TWOMEY, DICK BRODEUR, AL KESSING, DR. ED SULLIVAN, FRITZ BAUMER, JOHN TUERK, BOB ANDREW and GERRY JOHNSON.

On Monday, October 15, the club scheduled its next meeting in the projection room of the Florida State Theatre, where, through the courtesy of LOU FINSKE, we were shown a sneak preview of a coming attraction. Following that, we planned to have another TV party to watch the Notre Dame-Navy game on November 3.

—JOHN F. CORRIGAN, Pres.

Oklahoma City

In August, the Oklahoma City Notre Dams held a picnic. BOB DOLAN was chairman of the function, and, though attendance left a bit to be desired, a fine time was had and there was plenty of food for those attending. The picnic was held August 26 at Twin Hills Golf and Country Club.

In September, the big function was naturally the Oklahoma-Notre Dame game held at Norman. The weekend started with a good-sized rally on Friday evening, September 28. BUCKY O'CONNOR handled the rally arrangements and then proceeded to help have the fun of urging Notre Dame on to win. The rally was held at the Plaza Tower Hotel and it seemed as if the entire hotel was filled with Alums—subway and otherwise. The evening was pretty fine. On Saturday a bus was provided for those who wished to travel to the game under-the-influence. The singing and cheering went on and on and on. . . . Rest stops were infrequent and highly appreciated. The game. . . . What needs to be said? The return bus trip was another series of songs, cheers, and lack of rest stops. The partying continued until the wee hours of Sunday morning. At last the weekend was over and a finer time could not have been had.

We had visitors from all over the Southwest and we hope to see them all again in the near future. Thank you all for helping to make the Notre Dame crowd heard. . . . (When isn't the N.D. faction heard?)

Particular thanks to BUCKY O'CONNOR for the rally, GENE SCHMIT and BOB DOLAN for bus arrangements and all of the Club members who aided in organizing the entire week end.

Planned were the December Communion Breakfast under RODNEY JANEWAY and the Christmas Dance under JOEL HAGGARD. Monthly meetings are being held on the third Saturday of each month except when football games interrupt. For any potential members reading this article who wish to contact the Club, JOHN HOBBS of 2529 N.W. 51 St., Oklahoma City, is our president. New members are most welcome.

—J. M. DASCHBACH, JR., Secy.

Peoria

On Friday, September 28, the N.D. Club of Peoria held their annual Fish Fry Stag at Keenland Park. This event spearheaded by President CHUCK PERRIN, TOM ECKLAND, JACK POWERS, MAURICE CICCARELLI, JOHN MANION, BILL CLARK, BOB MAHONEY, PAUL SCHWEICKERT, BOB MANNING, BOB TAYLOR, TOM CONNOR and LOU ZUMBAHLEN, caused a great deal of excitement and we had a good club turnout. A special thanks to TOM ZOSKY for his help in supplying and preparing the ocean perch.

We've finally got the women on our side. The Notre Dame ladies have formed a Ladies Auxiliary. We are certain it will be a great boon to the Notre Dame Club of Peoria. They have a regular monthly function. We are proud to have them as part of the Club. We know they will do a great deal towards furthering the cause of Notre Dame in this area.

Congratulations to LOUIS AMBERG, JR. Louie is the proud father of a new baby boy as of October 8, 1962.

Our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. DAVE AMBERG on the death of her father.

We would like to welcome newcomers JERRY GROOM, '51; JIM WHELAN, '54; BRUCE FIDDES, '56; PAUL MARTERSTECK, '54; and TED MANIATIS, '61, to Peoria and to our Notre Dame Club.

Plans were made for our annual Communion Breakfast to be held sometime in December with JOHN SLEVIN as chairman of this event. Arrangements are also being made to have a pre-Lenten Mardi Gras dance. Tentative plans call for a February 23 date at the Willow Knolls Country Club. JIM McCOMB and GERRY CASHMAN are co-chairmen of this event.

—JIM McCOMB, '54, Secy.

Philadelphia

Big Philly event of the fall was the first class plane trip to the Michigan State game on campus, including a two-night stay at the Sheraton-Chicago, a Friday night rally, bus transportation to the game and back, tickets, and a plane ride back on Sunday afternoon. An Oklahoma game TV luncheon had to be cancelled earlier in the season. The Club had wonderful attendance at the Navy game in spite of the bitter weather.

JACK HENRY was in charge of a fund-raising drive with tickets for the M.S.U. trip and the Navy game as prizes. GERRY VOIT was in charge of the programs for the regular monthly meetings, Universal N.D. Communion Sunday was observed in Philadelphia on Dec. 9.

Pittsburgh

The last two weeks of August were busy ones for the Pittsburgh Club. On August 20 the Summer Picnic and Swimming Party was held at the Community Swimming Club. LEE TADDONIO was the chairman and did an excellent job. He was assisted by BILL MORAN of Tulsa, who was working for Gulf Research last summer. With the temperature and humidity both at 93, the members and their families really enjoyed the refreshing water and picnic.

One week later the annual golf outing was held under the capable chairmanship of SMOKEY COYNE at the Butler Country Club. JIM HUTCHISON gave a valuable assist in taking care of the arrangements at his club.

Sixty-five golfers did considerable damage to the course but this was nothing compared to what they did to the steak dinners that followed. JACK SHEEDY was the winner with a low gross of 76 followed closely by home-pro JIM HUTCHISON and PAUL HUDAK. PINKY MARTIN also toured the course.

After dinner, HARRY STUHLREHER gave some interesting comments on the prospects for the coming year and what may be in store with the jet conference. All in all, it was a great success.

Then on August 30 the second Annual Freshman Orientation Night was held. All of the incoming freshmen and their fathers were invited and really enjoyed themselves. The Notre Dame Story was shown, and BERNIE POWERS gave an excellent talk to the guests. Our chaplain, FATHER TOM KIRBY, also spoke briefly and then questions were answered by the student officers of the Club. All went away very enthusiastic and many fine compliments were heard for Chairman ED MEELL and his work.

MIKE CATANZARO, '58, and RICH JACOB, '57, graduated from the University of Baltimore Law School in June and recently received the good news that they had passed the Maryland Bar Exam. HUGH BOYLE, Jr., '55, had to resign as Club secretary. Having received his Master's Degree from the University of Pittsburgh in August, he took a position as guidance counselor at Benjamin Franklin Jr. High School in Norwalk, Conn. VINCE BURKE was elected to the Assembly of the American Bar Association at the recent Convention in San Francisco. EMMET GRIFFIN and LARRY SMITH have formed a new company, the Griffin-Smith Co., and have offices at 105 Century Building. It provides specialized business services to other concerns. GEORGE H. KINGSLEY, JR., was recently made a partner in the firm of Singer, Deane, and Scribner.

FATHER TOM O'DONNELL was a guest at our weekly luncheon at the Variety Club on Thursday, Oct. 11. We certainly enjoyed his company. He, as are all the good Fathers from Notre Dame, is always welcome.

The annual Christmas Dance plans are beginning to take shape. FRANK CONTE, '56, and BILL MEYER, '54, are the co-chairmen. It will be held on Friday, December 28, at the Pittsburgh Field Club. Another successful Yuletide gathering is expected.

—MICHAEL J. BOYLE, '57, Secy.

Rhode Island & S.E. Mass.

The Notre Dame Club of Rhode Island and Southeastern Mass. held its annual Going Away Party for new freshmen on September 12, 1962. Fifty-three people took part in the cocktail hour and buffet dinner at The Old Grist Mill in Seekonk, Mass. We were especially happy to see several of the present Notre Dame students from this area and their dates at the party. Honored guests for the evening were Paul Edward Pezza, '66, and his parents, from Cranston, R.I.

The alumni and students heard words of welcome from President PHIL TOOLE, '52, and JOHN McLAUGHLIN, '54. Chairman DICK DELMONTE, '54, introduced two alumni from this area who were attending an alumni function together for the first time since they graduated from Notre Dame—1st Lt. BOB McHALE, '58, and TOM McHALE, '59, and their wives made it a real family affair by bringing their sister and their parents, Mr. & Mrs. Frank McHale of Pawtucket, R.I.

Rockford

We had the "Wearing of the Greens," our annual golf outing, on August 9. At this affair CHARLES LUECKE, '51, of Freeport, Ill., was selected as Notre Dame Man of the Year. The award was presented to him by BILL FISCHER, '49, among the guest celebrities along with JOHNNY LUJACK and GEORGE CONNOR, both '48. JIM DUNN was chairman of the outing.

—AL CARROLL, '22, Pres.

Rochester

There was Scholarship Fund fun at the Notre Dame Club of Rochester's Buffet Dinner & Drawing on October 28, 1962, at the Wishing Well Restaurant.

Guests were invited to the repast under the chairmanship of DAVE MILLER and PETER KRESS.

Rome

It is the eve of the Ecumenical Council at this writing. Among the 2,500 bishops just arrived are eight of our own Holy Cross Bishops: Archbishop LAWRENCE GRANER and his Auxiliary Bishop THEOTONIUS GANGLY of Dacca, East Pakistan; Bishop RAYMOND La ROSE, also of East Pakistan; Bishop VINCENT McCAULEY of Uganda; Bishop ALBERT COUSINEAU and his Auxiliary Bishop MAURICE CHOQUETS of Cap Haitien, Haiti; Bishop ALFRED MENDEZ of Puerto Rico, and Bishop MARK McGRATH, Auxiliary of Panama. Our N.D. Hospitality Center has gone adventurous and is extending written invitations to the 250 bishops of the U.S. to make use of our facilities. And we proudly point out that one American bishop, an N.D. man, Bishop JOHN E. TAYLOR, O.M.I., M.A. '35, has just been consecrated Ordinary of all Sweden.

THANKS: to GORDON DI RENZO, '57, M.A., '58, — again — for a second shipment of N.D.

Victory March highball glasses; and to '62ers RON IGNELSI and GIL CARPENTER, volunteers here this summer, for another shipment of same coveted item.

NEW MEMBER: JIM DOUGLASS, M.A. in Theology '62, here on a Danforth fellowship to study for a doctorate in theology at the Gregorian University. Jim is neither cleric nor bachelor. He arrived sporting a valiant wife, Sally, and two "assistant researchers," Mark, 2, and Peter, 6 months.

ECUMENICAL MEMBER: HUGH T. MURPHY, '59, is assistant to Monsignor James Tucek, Chief of English Section of the Council Press office.

N.D. SEMINARIAN: Last year's N.D. man at the Beda Seminary in Rome, REV. JOHN ANTON, '38, now ordained and a curate at Sacred Heart Church in Lombard, Ill., is now replaced by VINCE GIESE, M.S., Ed. '50, of Fides Publications. Ad Multos Annos to Vince.

OUR GUESTS: More than a dozen universities and colleges are represented on our summer guest list. This is reflected on the walls of our "campus den" where the walls are filling up with pennants from as many schools, sent by these guests to memorialize their visit: Flanking our major N.D. banner and assorted pennants are pennants sent from Michigan, Ohio State, Brandeis, Dayton, and Fordham, with more en route.

THE ROSTER: FR. HESBURGH and FRANK FOLSOM; FR. KENNA, Provincial; FR. McGARRAGHER, FR. GARTLAND, PROF. TOM STRITCH, PROF. ED FISCHER; FRs. KENNEDY, McMAHON, CROSTON, headed for the missions.

VINCE HATT, '62; PETE GUZY, '62; JIM VAUGHNEY, '59; MIKE SWORDS, '62; DR. JAMES ETHINGTON, '30; MARILYN McPHERON, SMC '63; KATHLEEN O'BOYLE, SMC '62; MARTY STEPHAN, SMC '62; BOB MARTIN '63. Prof.; NORB and Mrs. SCHENKEL, '34; wife of EDWARD BARRETT, '29 and Law '33, and mother of WILLIAM BARRETT, '59.

We invite you to tell your relatives, friends and neighbors that "When In Rome" they are warmly welcome to the NOTRE DAME HOSPITALITY CENTER. LARGO BRANGACCIO 82, TEL: 730002.

—VINCE McALOON, '34, Secy.

Salina

The Salina Club has a new president, who is JOHN BROWNE, Clay Center, Kansas. NORB SKELLY is still secretary, and I still remain as treasurer.

I think I reported, in an earlier issue that the Salina Notre Dame Club lost a very fine member in LARRY WENTZ, who separated from service at Schilling Air Force Base, here in Salina, and returned to Philadelphia September 16. However, we gained a member when RICHARD BASGALL, of the Class of '52, became a member of the faculty at Marymount College, here in Salina.

—ALBERT J. SCHWARTZ, Treas.

St. Louis

The St. Louis Club had a sellout for its annual football trip. This year we attended the Michigan State game on Oct. 20. We stayed in Chicago Friday night at the Sherman Hotel, had chartered bus service to the stadium and back and returned to St. Louis Sunday afternoon. Those who attended the trip had a very enjoyable weekend. Congrats to DON RATCHFORD, trip chairman, for planning such a fine week end.

The Notre Dame Soccer Team appeared in St. Louis on Sunday, October 14, against the Washington University squad. It is hoped that this will become a yearly event.

Plans for our Annual Communion Breakfast were set for Sunday, December 9. BOB McAULIFFE was our chairman.

The Christmas Dance will be held at the Khorassan Room of the Chase Hotel on Friday evening December 28. Annually this is one of our finest affairs, and we again look forward to a gala evening. MATT WEIS and MARK MALEY are co-chairmen.

The St. Louis Club is in the process of preparing a new roster. Any alumnus living in our area who has not been contacted, please send a note to HERM KRIEGSHAUSER, Secy., 11700 Serama Dr., St. Louis 31, Mo.

JOHN PHELAN is Chairman of the College Night Committee. He and his committee are attending various college night programs at many of the high schools in the St. Louis area.

—HERMAN L. KRIEGSHAUSER, Secy.

Schenectady

JOHN F. HURLEY, newly elected president of the N.D. Club of Schenectady, led the wishes and congratulations to eight freshmen from the area bound for Notre Dame at the Club's annual Freshman Send-off reception and dinner at the Edison Club in September. The freshmen and their fathers were guests at the dinner among 26 area students returning to the University this past fall.

ROBERT B. PIORKOWSKI of Glenville was chairman of the N.D.-Navy Sports Day held Nov. 3. Members watched the Irish triumph over the Midshipmen and discussed community activities for the coming year.

South Central Wisconsin

Our Club is still recovering from an exciting football game (Wisconsin versus Notre Dame) and a fine party that we sponsored for all alumni and their friends after the game.

Our officers, JOHN ROACH, '27, president; BERNARD MIXTACKI, '50, vice-president; MAURICE LEAHY, '39, treasurer, and myself thank those who came from far and near to make our party a success. If others met as many classmates as I did, all had a wonderful time.

—THOMAS M. HINKES, '51, Secy.

Spokane

The fourth annual closed Retreat for members of the Notre Dame Club of Spokane was conducted the weekend of September 21 at Immaculate Heart Retreat House. REV. EUGENE MULLIGAN of the Monfort Fathers was, appropriately enough, the retreat master, and all in attendance were grateful for the opportunity of being guided by him. FRANK HAGENBARTH, '27, was in charge of arrangements.

The annual Football TV Party was enjoyed on September 29 in the rec room of the home of Club President GARY MYERS, '59. Gary's wife Jane arranged a tasty snack table while Gary took care of the liquid refreshments. The following members and their wives thrilled to the victory over Oklahoma: JIM LYNCH, '40; DR. BOB MAHER, '35; DR. JIM ROTCHFORD, '49; BERNIE SMYTH, '55; RALPH SCHULER, '57; JERRY BERGUM, '62; ED MURPHY, '56; and JOE WALSH, '14.

The Faculty of Gonzaga University, in Spokane, this term includes three Notre Dame men, viz: RAYMOND W. MURPHY, '59; JERRY BERGUM, '62; and EDWARD MURPHY, '56.

Omitted from the account of the Club's observance of Universal Notre Dame Night was mention of the Club awarding its Man of the Year Scroll to JOSEPH M. WALSH, '14, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Club since coming to Spokane in 1957. FRANK J. HAGENBARTH, '27, made the presentation.

—JOE WALSH, '14, Secy-Treas.

Terre Haute

Previous accounts of Terre Haute's U.N.D. Night dinner failed to mention that JAMES D. COONEY, '59, one of the new assistant directors of the Notre Dame Foundation, was the featured speaker of the evening and that Man of the Year MYRON J. BUSBY is one of the few non-alumni holding that distinction. Parent of a Notre Dame junior, Mr. Busby owns a local real estate and insurance agency, is serving a second term on the common council and has served as president of that body. He is president of the board of Indiana State College, his own alma mater. During World War II he served as an Air Force major and has since served on the Vigo County Selective Service and Aviation Commission boards. He was building fund co-chairman for his own St. Patrick's Church and is currently vice-president of the Terre Haute Board of Realtors.

Toledo

BUD MALONE gave the particulars about attending Notre Dame to high school students at College Night October 23 and 24. Twelve freshmen from the Toledo area are enrolled at N.D. this year. We extend to them our welcome to the N.D. family.

CHUCK COOMBS is keeping our roster current and TERRY O'LOUGHLIN will take care of Masses for deceased Club members or their immediate families.

DEAN RICHARDS, '57, was the featured speaker for the November meeting at Red Smith's Buckeye Brewery. Dean has a growing and far-reaching reputation for his informative talks on Communism. Keep up the good work, Dean.

December 9 we held our annual Communion Breakfast and coming up December 28 is our Christmas Dance. JOHN CELUSTA and TOM WELLY are the co-chairmen. The dance is at Inverness Country Club beginning about nine and tickets will be available at the door, so if you're in the area please join us.

When PAT MCCARTY, former N.D. All-American and coach at Toledo Catholic Central, passed away suddenly, TOM McHUGH initiated a memorial football game between his Central team and Cleveland Benedictine with the proceeds going to Pat's large and still young family. JOHN HURLEY and TOM WELLY handled program and ticket sales for the N.D. Alumni and assisted Tom with other details. These men and the supporting alumni should be commended for their efforts and tribute to an exemplary Notre Dame Man.

—DICK MERKEL, Secy.

Tri-Cities

On July 7 we held our annual summer picnic with a good crowd; especially gratifying was the number of potential alumni for the years '75-plus.

Keeping the date of the 7th in September, we held "Wives Night Out" or "There Will Be No Stand This Year, Boys!" A good crowd was on hand for a very enjoyable evening.

Final plans are incomplete at this time but I am asked to report the committee is working hard to make the Christmas Dance one of the finest events ever held by the club.

—JOHN S. HERR, Secy.-Treas.

Washington, D.C.

The Washington Club's annual fall football meeting was held October 24 in the Cabinet Room of the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel. Speakers on Redskins and Irish football prospects were DAVE SLATTERY and GEORGE IZO of the Washington pro football organization. A large delegation took the Pennsylvania Railroad for the Club Trip to Philadelphia for the Navy game on November 3.

The Student-Alumni Christmas Dance is scheduled for December 27.

Western Washington

On December 6, the Seattle area alumni culminated their drive for the Scholarship Fund with a drawing for a trip to the Rose Bowl or a color TV set. OLIVER R. FLOR was chairman of the drive.

BENGAL — Silver Jubilee of Rev. Francis J. Burton, C.S.C., was celebrated at Notre Dame College, Dacca, East Pakistan, by (l.-r.) Fr. Burton, Brother George Noakes (formerly with the British service and Province Development), and Fr. John VandenBossche of the college's faculty, three of dozens of Holy Cross priests and brothers keeping up the Bengalese tradition in the schools and parishes of Pakistan. (See Club reports.)

COLLEGE GRADUATE*

Chosen and annotated by Lawrence Clark Powell

YOUR BASIC HOME reference library will be determined by who you are, what you do, and where you live. Lawyer, banker, doctor, writer, realtor, housewife; east, west, north, south: each will need his or her own books of reference. Is there such a thing as an average man or woman college graduate and a library to suit? I think not. Individual differences in taste and need are infinite; regional interests are extremely varied.

So any choice of 25 basic home reference books is arbitrary. My selections are mostly orthodox, although I have salted in a few eyebrow-raisers. Alice in Wonderland and Andersen's Fairy Tales, for example—just to make you ask, “How can he call them reference books?” I’ll tell you. Because I’ve found myself referring to them again and again through the years since boyhood, using them in the aging process as touchstones, measuring sticks, and lodestars. Isn’t that a good enough definition of a reference book?

I have suggested locations for these books—living room, kitchen, study or den, and bedroom. You may prefer to shelve the Modern Home Medical Adviser in the rumpus room. Some people read in the bathroom, if not actually in the tub. I don’t. But I do keep a few reference books in my car, to read when tied up on the freeway.

The secret of a good reference library is to have the books always there. Lend not your books. Don’t try to compete with the public library. The paperback revolution has brought thousands of good books down to purse level. Architects, particularly of tract houses, seem to be unaware that people are buying books as never before. Although I own hundreds of paperbacks, my reference books are all in hard-bound copies for the hard wear they get.

All of the 25 reference books in the following list are in print and can be bought at, or through, your local bookstore. If there isn’t a bookstore in your community, you are lacking one of the hallmarks of civilization. Church, school, library, park, bookstore—the essentials for cultural living.

The basic things in life are of the brain, the stomach, and the heart, and my reference books relate to all three. He who lives and reads not is no more alive than he who reads and lives not. I remember what that great public librarian, Joseph L. Wheeler, retired head of the Enoch Pratt Free Library of Baltimore, said when queried as to why he had thousands of books shelved in every room and on the stairs of his home: “Books are cheaper than wallpaper.” And who was it who said, “Books! Next to mother’s milk the best food.”? See item 5. Use your reference books!

Living Room

1. WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. Third edition unabridged. G. C. Merriam Co. $47.50, plus $32.50 for the little wheeled truck to hold it.

Along with stove and bed, this is basic household equipment. Keep it centrally in the house, with smaller dictionaries in the other rooms.

2. THE COLUMBIA ENCYCLOPEDIA IN ONE VOLUME. Second edition with 1959 supplement. Edited by Bridgewater and Sherwood. Columbia University Press. $35.

If you haven't shelf and purse for one of the great multivolume encyclopedias, this is the best single-volume work. When things get strained domestically, gather the family in front of the fireplace and read aloud from the encyclopedia. It soothes and distracts.

3. A DICTIONARY OF CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN USAGE. By Bergen Evans and Cornelia Evans. Random House. $5.95.

A witty gloss on words and phrases, good and bad, which can be used as a tool by writers and as a conversation piece by readers.

4. THE READER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA. An Encyclopedia of World Literature and the Arts. Edited by William Rose Benet. Crowell. $7.95.

Includes all manner of things, themes, people, and places, encountered in reading, with 19,008 articles on 1,270 pages. Excellent for students' homework.

5. FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS. By John Bartlett. Thirtieth and Centennial Edition. 1955. Little, Brown & Co. $10.

Who, where, when.

6. THE WORLD ALMANAC AND BOOK OF FACTS. Edited by Harry Hansen. New York World-Telegram. $2.

This famous annual originated as a newspaper-office handbook. If you are addicted to quizzes and contests, chain this book to you.

7. DOCUMENTS OF AMERICAN HISTORY. Edited by Henry Steele Commager. Appleton-Century-Crofts. $6.50.

Here, in full, are the fundamental sources of American history, from the time of Columbus to the present, which are more read about than read.

8. HOME BOOK OF VERSE, American and English. Compiled by Burton Egbert Stevenson. Ninth edition. 2 volumes. Henry Holt & Co. $25.

First published in 1912, this massive compilation of familiar and conventional poetry is arranged in broad subject divisions such as Love and Death. I have an early single-volume edition, given to me by my mother on my ninth birthday, and it doubles nicely as a doorstop when it's windy in my study. Companion volume is Stevenson's HOME BOOK OF MODERN VERSE. $10. The compiler, who died last year in very old age, was librarian of the Chillicothe, Ohio, Public Library.

9. RAND McNALLY COSMOPOLITAN WORLD ATLAS. Rand McNally Co. $14.95.

"I should like to rise and go where the golden apples grow," wrote Robert Louis Stevenson in A Child's Garden of Verses. A good atlas is just as poetic a book. If you have traveled, it will show you where you went; if you plan to travel, it will guide you. There are many atlases; this one is excellent for its large, clear maps and its wealth of statistical and other supplementary data.

Kitchen

10. THE JOY OF COOKING. By Irma Rombauer and Marion Becker. Bobbs-Merrill. $4.95.

Flip a coin for this or FANNY FARMER, and whichever comes up, you will get one of the two best cookbooks according to la cuisine americaine. This is another book to be chained — to your wife, of course, who is already secured to stove and sink.

11. THE COOKOUT BOOK. With an introduction to the techniques of barbecue cooking and entertaining. By Helen Evans Brown and Philip S. Brown. Ward Ritchie Press. $7.50.

Imaginative and appetizing recipes for barbecuing meats, fowl, and seafoods, in a volume that was chosen by the American Institute of Graphic Arts as one of the year's most beautiful. Incidentally, the Browns agree that the best cooks are of the male sex — outdoor cooks, that is.

12. LAROUSSE GASTRONOMIQUE. THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF FOOD, WINE, AND COOKERY. By Prosper Montagne. Crown Publishers. $20.

The first English translation of this huge French classic. The accent is on that country, for there is no denying the French leadership in the world of food. The articles and illustrations cover everything relating to the subject, including places, plates, partridges, and parsley.

13. WINE AND SPIRITS. A Complete Buying Guide. By William E. Massee. McGraw-Hill. $8.95.

Includes all countries and their drinks, with advice on how to store and serve.

14. HORTUS SECOND. A Concise Dictionary of Gardening, General Horticulture, and Cultivated Plants in North America. Compiled by L. H. Bailey and Ethel Zoe Bailey. Macmillan. $13.50.

This is a revised and enlarged second edition of the classic American work on green growing things. If you are lucky, you will have a kitchen garden with lettuces, parsleys, herbs (and snails), and Hortus will be your bible.

A BASIC HOME REFERENCE LIBRARY
FOR THE COLLEGE GRADUATE
By Lawrence Clark Powell

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lawrence Clark Powell, Dean of the School of Library Service at UCLA, holds the B.A. and Litt.D. degrees from Occidental College and the Ph.D. from the University of Dijon, France. From a bookstore job he went into public-library work and then joined the UCLA staff in 1938, serving as chief librarian from 1944 to 1961. He has been Lecturer in English since 1954 and became Dean of the School of Library Service in 1960.

Dean Powell is an author and editor, and he writes a monthly magazine column on Western books and authors. Among some 20 books he has written are The Alchemy of Books (1954), A Passion for Books (1959), and Books in My Baggage (1960).

15. MODERN MEDICAL ADVISER. Edited by Morris Fishbein, M.D. Garden City Books. $4.95.

Written under Dr Fishbein's direction by various medical authorities, this is a good book to have around just in case.

Study, Den, and Bedroom

16. ALICE IN WONDERLAND and THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS. By Lewis Carroll. Grosset & Dunlap. $2.75.

The older one grows, the better it reads. This edition includes the original illustrations by John Tenniel. The author, whose real name was C. L. Dodgson, was a professor of mathematics who lived for 45 years in the same bachelor quarters at Christ Church, Oxford, none of which accounts for this work of genius.

17. FAIRY TALES. By Hans Christian Andersen. Grosset & Dunlap. $2.75.

Here again it's a coin flip as to whether it be Andersen or Grimm. I flipped, and the great Dane won. This edition has illustrations by Arthur Szyk.

18. ISLANDIA. By Austin T. Wright. Rinehart & Co. $5.95.

This is a long utopian novel, written in secret by a law professor and published posthumously. Throughout the world a body of readers has organized and called themselves Islandians, sans dues or by-laws. This novel is the standard reference work by which they live.

19. THE PORTABLE EMERSON. Edited by Mark Van Doren. Viking Press. $2.95.

Though he lived and wrote a hundred years ago, he is more modern than we are, his prose seeded with time bombs, set to go off in succeeding generations. If you are timid, conservative, and a slave of the status quo, don't let this book in your house.

20. THE PORTABLE THOREAU. Edited by Carl Bode. Viking Press. $2.95.

Here is another Yankee radical who whipped progress, conformity, togetherness, and all the other dogmas which bite our heels. This too is a subversive book which should be given to the young and kept from the old.

21. THE PORTABLE MELVILLE. Edited by Jay Leyda. Viking Press. $2.95.

Includes the best of the novels, stories, poems, and letters of the great mariner-mystic, who won popular fame, and lost it, and won it again — posthumously. Melville was born and died in Manhattan, and that island community has yet to erect an appropriate memorial to him.

22. THE PORTABLE WHITMAN. Edited by Mark Van Doren. Viking Press. $2.95.

The good gray Quaker poet's Leaves of Grass stays forever green through the years which wither most things. "Who touches this book, touches a man."

23. THE PORTABLE MARK TWAIN. Edited by Bernard de Voto. Viking Press. $2.95.

Includes Huckleberry Finn, that revolutionary novel which points to the ultimate reconciliation between white and black.

24. SHAKESPEARE'S COMPLETE WORKS. Edited by W. J. Craig. Oxford University Press. $4.50.

Next to the Bible, and counting out the dictionary, this is the most basic book in English. I have chosen this from among many good editions simply because I have lived with my copy for 30 years and worn it beautifully smooth.

25. *THE HOLY BIBLE.** King James Version. Oxford University Press. $9.75.

Choice of a Bible is a personal matter. You may prefer a modern translation. I don't. Give me the organ music of the King James. This edition is leather bound, a handy size, with concordance and index. Keep it by your bed, to be read first thing in the morning and the last thing at night.

* Dean Powell's selections are for beauty of language and literary interest, in which the King James version generally excels. Catholic graduates are expected to consult translations from the Latin Vulgate — either the original Douay-Rheims version or one of several excellent modern translations (Knox, Confraternity, Kleist-Lilly, etc.) Ed., Notre Dame ALUMNUS

50-Year Club

May all the Semicentenaries who have passed to their reward in recent months be included in the sentiments of Msgr. Charles Boldrick's free verse eulogy for COL. FRANK FEHR last August at Louisville's Holy Trinity Church. A brief section (translated to prose): "Unless you become as little children you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. And, what are the marks of a child, but of obedience, docility and humility? I believe that such are the words that can be said of Colonel Fehr. He was docile, he was meek, and he was humble. . . . And so we may well believe that the promise fulfilled in him." Executive Vice-President FATHER EDMUND JOYCE represented the University at an impressive Requiem Mass.

In the San Francisco Examiner, a recent "Mature Living" profile reprised "A Rewarding Career" of "Spectacularly Successful EUSTACE CULLINAN" ('95) . . . more than seven decades of public service." Selections: "Eustace Cullinan was 19 in 1895 when he came back to his home town from Notre Dame with an A.B. degree, took a job as reporter on the old San Francisco Bulletin, under the crusading editor Fremont Older, enrolled in Hastings College of Law, won his law degree . . . and was admitted to the California Bar. . . . The University of San Francisco gave him a master's degree in 1907 . . . graduated long since from reporter to top editorial writer. . . . After he opened a law office . . . he kept on writing pungent editorials. . . . He is 86 now, with a spectacularly successful career in the law, a long and well-documented influence in the history of the history of the state and city . . . and still writes a clever column of reminiscence in the Recorder. . . . He is active senior partner in the law firm of Cushing, Cullinan, Hancock and Rother . . . pursues his scholarly hobby in the study of medieval calligraphy, and reads voluminously, with an emphasis on history." The story details Mr. Cullinan's Irish background, his busy legal and civic career, and his influence on the careers of administrators, mayors and governors (he never accepted a salaried job from any of them). His wife Katherine died in 1960, and two sons are also deceased, JUDGE EUSTACE CULLINAN, JR., '25, and MATTHEW CULLINAN, '31, an engineer. Surviving are sons Vincent (his father's law partner) and Gerald (a publicist in Washington, D.C.) and four grandchildren.

After 28 years as chaplain of St. Mary's College and professor of philosophy and religion, REV. MATTHEW SCHUMACHER, C.S.C., '99, has retired. Ordained in 1903, Father Schumacher took a doctorate at Catholic U. in 1905 and returned to Notre Dame as professor of philosophy, 1904-07 and 1933-34; dean of studies, 1907-19 and 1926-27; and head of the philosophy department, 1927-28. In intervening years he was president (1919-25) and dean of liberal arts (1925-26) at St. Edward's University and president (1928-33) of the College of St. Thomas. He went to St. Mary's in 1934. Father Schumacher's many contributions to the Church include his college standardization studies

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

MARTIN EMMET WALTER, '14
From Illinois, a Proper Houstonian

Illinois and Texas are said to have been the two pivotal states in the last presidential election. Emmet Walter is a native of Illinois and has had a colorful career in Texas, where he was editor and continues as vice-president of Texas' largest newspaper, The Houston Chronicle. He has long been a leader in the affairs of Houston, among the fastest growing cities in the U.S. Graduated in law in '16, he received his A.B. and A.M. in '14 and '15, respectively.

Born in Mt. Carmel, Ill., December 10, 1892, he was admitted to the Illinois Bar in February, 1917, and had practiced law a few months in Illinois when the U.S. entered World War I. He entered the first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan and was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant. He was assigned to the 88th Division at Camp Grant, Ill., but soon transferred to the 36th Division in Texas and served with that organization for two years, one in Texas and one in France. He was captured by the Germans but escaped after six weeks in prison camps and was awarded the Croix de Guerre for heroism in action.

for the National Catholic Educational Association, chaplaincy of the Indiana and Texas Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters of America, and duty far and wide as a popular speaker. A sermon of his was included in the book "Speech Models" (1945), and in addition to many articles he wrote a book, "The Knowableness of God—Its Relation to the Theory of Knowledge in St. Thomas" (1907) and translated "St. Augustine Against Julian" (1957) for the Fathers of the Church series. The Notre Dame Family rejoiced with Father Schumacher on the golden jubilee or ordination in 1953, and with generations of St. Mary's alumnae they now extend their congratulations and prayers for the future.

A new member of the Semicentenaries is GEORGE PHILBROOK, '12, a member of the football champions of 1909 with HARRY (RED) MILLER and BILL SCHMITT, '10, and other stalwarts. Also famed as a member of the U.S. Olympic Team, he was unable to make the Class of '12 Golden Jubilee Reunion last June, and it

After the war he made his home in Houston and, deciding the law was too monotonous after army life, entered the newspaper game. During a two-year period, he was reporter and city editor of the Houston Post, news editor of the Galveston News, and chief of the bureau maintained in Houston by the Galveston News, Dallas News, Austin Statesman and San Antonio Express. He joined the Chronicle in 1922 as a reporter and in 1924 became city editor. In 1934 he was given two additional positions, news editor and member of the editorial board. He became managing editor in 1945, editor and a director of the Chronicle Corporation in 1948. In 1956 he received the additional appointment of vice-president. Having passed retirement age in 1961, he relinquished the duties of editor, but continued with the paper as vice-president and editorial consultant.

Just before the close of World War II he was one of 18 editors of leading magazines and newspapers flown to Europe by the War Department to inspect German concentration camps at Buchenwald and Dachau. Recently he was one of the Houstonians to make the initial flight of Air France on its inaugural thrice-a-week round trip between Houston and Paris by jet (in which one leaves Houston at 1 p.m. and is in Paris by 10 p.m.).

He has been a member of the Houston Planning Commission since 1940, serving as vice chairman most of the time. In 1956 he became chairman. In 1950 he was made a Knight of St. Gregory by Pope Pius XII. In 1953, the National Conference of Christians and Jews honored him at its Annual Brotherhood Dinner. In 1959, he was made a Knight of Malta.

He married Miss Alfreda Winkler of South Bend, Indiana, in 1924. Mr. and Mrs. Walter live at 302 Terrace Drive, Houston, and are members of St. Theresa's Catholic Church.

Mr. Walter's club affiliation has included: Houston, Rotary, Serra, Notre Dame, Press and Farm and Ranch Clubs; Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, and American Society of Newspaper Editors; Executive Committee, Houston Fat Stock Show, Catholic Charities, and Faith Home; Director, Houston Symphony, Boy Scouts, Pin Oaks Horse Show, North Side Bank, United Fund, and Texas Good Roads Ass'n.; and Trustee, St. Thomas University.

has been reported that a circulatory ailment has necessitated the amputation of his right leg above the knee. It has also been reported that George's wife died four years ago. Friends may want to drop him a line at 14321 N.E. Salmon Creek, Route 5, Vancouver, Wash.

1914

Walter Clements
623 Park Avenue
South Bend, Indiana

After retiring, EDWIN J. (ED) LARNEY and his good wife Marie (Lancaster) Larney left their native Chicago to take up their abode at 824 Southeast 16th Place, Deerfield Beach, Florida, where they now reside.

We were at first surprised that they left their beloved Chicago where they had spent many happy years and reared their talented family, but after so many acquaintances hereabouts had broken their bones by reason of the snow and ice in these northern regions of the Midwest, and we had spent much of the winter picking our way over the ice, their choice became quite understandable.

Their eldest daughter Rosemary, who has an executive position with a large company, still resides at the family's Chicago abode. The second daughter Dorothy, with an M.A. and working for her doctorate, is an assistant professor at Loyola University. John L., a graduate engineer, has gone places in electronics on both sides of the Atlantic, while Catherine, their youngest, lives downstate with her husband and five children.

And it doesn't seem so long ago that Ed's schoolmates at N.D. were envious of him for his "general per" which meant he could stay out till midnight without permission, because when he came to Notre Dame for law he was a postgrad with A.B. and A.M. degrees from DePaul.

We were grieved to read of the death September 18 of SIMON T. (CY) FARRELL who, during his years in college, was one of the most popular baseball heroes at Notre Dame, where he was first baseman for the Varsity and captained the team in 1913. His proficiency at baseball was evidenced by the fact that he became a member of the White Sox team after leaving school.

"Cy" organized the first Notre Dame club in Joliet and was its president. He was a member of many other organizations, Catholic and secular. He and his wife Gertrude, had made their home at 418 Mock St., Joliet. He had retired two years ago from employment with the Chicago Sanitary District. Cy received an engineering degree from Notre Dame. His many friends extend sympathy to wife, brother and sister who survive him.

From the Alumni Office:

Published last December, "The Ground I Walked On," recollections from the 20-year term of DR. GEORGE SHUSTER as president of Hunter College, is still getting attention from the cognoscenti—both for its controversial opinions (e.g., on the causes and war crimes trials of World War II) and its intimate portraits of famous friends (like Cardinal Spellman, the late Mayor LaGuardia and the late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt). The publisher, Farrar, Straus & Cudahy of New York, might still be able to scare up a few copies for your 1962 Christmas shopping list.

In Chicago, JIM SANFORD and Retirement Services, Inc., are still looking to the interests and valuable service of so-called "senior citizens." A recent venture is sponsorship of Sonquist Gardens Co-op Apartments, moderately assessed "efficiency" or "studio" units designed for the comfort and means of the independent semiretired.

TOM KING, monogram man in football and track, and long Dean of Men at Michigan State University, has not retired as, he says, "many people seem to think," but now is Assistant Secretary of the East Lansing seat of learning. "I most certainly intend to be present at the 45th reunion of the Class of 1918, come next June," he informs.

The wife of President JOHN LEMMER, reported ill in the last issue, had already died by the time the item was read. Pray for her and for classmates CARL EIGELSACH and FREDERICK SLACKFORD, whose deaths were also recently reported.

1919

Theo. C. Rademaker
Peru Foundry Co.
Peru, Indiana

From the Alumni Office:

With his usual generous contribution to the University, Professor GEORGE D. HALLER of Detroit College of Law enclosed a few more haunting reminiscences with particular reference to the "new" campus of radiation labs, computer centers, skyscraper libraries and geodesic domes. Evoking images of unforgettable scenes and people, he wrote:

"Probably few persons on the campus today have ever heard of the 'Lifers' Club,' and fewer still had contact with it. In 1911 when I landed on the campus, N.D. was, of course, a college; there were also the seminarians. But quite unlike today, there was also a preparatory department, and below that the 'Minims' of grade school level. Thus it was possible for a student to spend upwards of ten years 'under the Dome.'

"In 1916 a group of students under the inspiration of FATHER CORNELIUS HAGERTY, gathered at a dinner in Mishawaka and organized the 'Lifers' Club.' To be a member, a student had to be in a fifth or later year of continuous enrollment. I happened to be chosen the first president. The prep department was abolished in 1922 and the 'Minims' are also only a memory, so there is scant basis today for such a group. I think, if I may be pardoned a pride in my nostalgia, that the 'family' feeling which existed at N.D. prior to

World War I is not so likely to appear in a more sophisticated modern age and among so much larger a group.

"The 'family' idea had a real basis for not only were there 'fathers' and 'brothers' (among the religious) — and I remember how, at 13 years of age, I learned to distinguish these by the presence or absence of the cape—but there were 'mothers' and 'sisters' in close contact with the boys, who ranged in age from 8 or 10 into the twenties. These religious women did our laundry, which we called for by a number. After 50 years I still recall my No. 152. They cooked our meals, including the memorable breakfast buns, whose soft interiors made excellent pellets for obstreperous kids in knickers to throw while at the table, when FATHER 'KING' FARLEY had his back turned. When we had our childhood ailments, the sisters dispensed 'calomel and salts' in the old infirmary. And I believe they also taught the 'Minims.'

"The student of the '60s with a magnificent skyscraper library in prospect, perhaps regards the 1917 library as a quaint part of a simpler day. But I helped carry books to the 1917 building from an even older library, housed on an upper floor of the 'Main Building.' That room, with its high vaulted ceiling towards which climbed two stories of open shelves and occasional open spaces hung with swords and other curios, was my entryway into the illimitable world of literature, via the familiar classics of another era. It was there I made friends with Tarkington's 'Penrod and Sam,' dreamed myself a member of 'The Three Musketeers,' mourned the passing of 'The Last of the Mohicans,' sorrowed over the fate of 'The Man Who Would Be King,' grieved over 'The Light That Failed.' I shivered as the wall was closed in 'The Cask of Amontillado,' visioned the eerie in Twain's 'Mysterious Stranger,' was chilled by Norris' tale of retribution for sin, excited by London's tales of adventure, beguiled by N.D.'s own CHARLES WARREN STODDARD'S spell of the South Seas.

"What magic scenes, what heroes, what gay companions, awaited in that old room! The poignant death of King Arthur, the earthy realism of 'Spoon River,' the robust heroes of Robert Service, the pathos of the fates of Kilmer, Seegar, and Rupert Brooke, the mind-awakening philosophy of Amiel and William James, the sparkle of Chesterton and Belloc, the wild music of Villon, the science of Thomas Dwight, the clarity of Newman, the social awakening of John A. Ryan.

"It was a day when every book was fresh and entered into the youthful mind like sunshine and rain, germinating, growing, flowering. Today, with radio, TV, movies and like distractions, the world of books is no longer the chief avenue to the realm of ideas as it was in the old Main Building room. With fewer distractions, I think we lived more deeply. I helped FATHER CARRICO compile a poetry anthology; heard FATHER O'DONNELL give his first reading of 'The Hosking of the Gael'; vied with FATHER THOMAS BURKE in composing light verse for the 'Scholastic'; thrilled to FATHER EUGENE BURKE singing 'McNamara's Band' or FATHER 'CON' HAGERTY reciting 'Toussaint L'Ouverture' to prep schoolers at a football banquet at Haney's famous farmhouse inn. I walked with BROTHER ALPHONSUS and learned the esoteric pleasures of bird watching; FATHER MIKE QUINLAN, by reading to his English class an essay of mine, in the style of Stoddard, encouraged me to years of contributions to the 'Scholastic,' to the founding and first editorship of the 'Santa Maria,' to being chosen editor-in-chief of the 'Dome,' to a successful period as editor of a diocesan weekly, and even, I suppose, to such later efforts as my piece on St. Thomas More, 'The King's Good Servant,' printed in the May, 1953 'Rosary' and reprinted in 'The Catholic Digest' in June, 1955.

"These memories lead me to offer my contribution to a greater Notre Dame (where perchance my son may enter in 1966) in the hope that it may help more young men to know days that were as golden as mine were 'under the Dome.'"

Mentioning such tributes to the Grantland Rice Award winner as those from Indianapolis "500" winner Roger Ward, golfer Bobby Jones, and sportswriting dean WALTER WELLESLEY (RED) SMITH, '27, Charlie also reeled off some delightful anecdotes—like Bill's good fortune in suffering a coronary, while addressing a medical convention. Bill and his wife Alice, have four children: Peter, a Jesuit seminarian at West Baden, Ind.; Mike, in the insurance business; Bill, an Indianapolis banker; and Sheila, recently married. G. A. "Kid" Ashe 175 Landing Rd. No.
Rochester 25, N. Y.

Letters and notes from '22 men who attended our 40th Reunion continue to arrive, and all the writers seem highly pleased with our grand reunion meeting so well arranged and operated by our South Bend committee: A. HAROLD WEBER, PAUL SCHWERTLEY, and RANGY MILES, under the able direction of Chairman FRED DRESSEL, and all under the expert guidance of our fine president, J. RALPH CORYN.

From New York, ART SHEA writes: "The 40th reunion photograph of the Class of 1922 was delivered a few days ago. I am delighted to have my copy. It is quite a handsome group. You may mark me down for the 45th in 1967 and may it please the good Lord, I'll be there. I am sorry that my brother, BOB SHEA, could not be along with us. By the way, Bob has recently resigned from U.S. Government service. Since 1945 he had been connected with the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government." Thanks, Art, please see to it that Bob attends our 45th. We all missed him last June.

DR. DAN SEXTON of St. Louis writes: "This note is a little belated but nevertheless carries the full intent to congratulate you and the others for getting the gang out for our Reunion. It really was a wonderful turnout. I must admit that it struck me at a very difficult time, and had you not applied the pressure, I think I might have found good reasons for not attending. Since I did attend, I was most delighted and would not have missed the Reunion for anything in the world. I now look forward to five and ten years from now, and trust that most of us will be there."

Chicagoan PAUL PFOHL, who recently was elevated to a vice presidency of RCA, sends this contribution: "I fully agree with you about the men of our '22 Class, in that not only do we basically possess the traditional Notre Dame spirit and loyalty, but in addition, there is sort of a clanishness circulated throughout our group, which other classes unfortunately lack to a greater or lesser extent. In fact, I sometimes think that some of the 'stick-togetherness' we '22ers enjoy has rubbed off considerably on the Class of '23, for they seem to possess to a degree the linkage we enjoy."

From Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania, comes a salvo from DAN YOUNG: "It was terrific, and the most enjoyable visit that I have had in many a year."

AL CARROLL of Rockford, Illinois, thinks five years is too long to wait for our next reunion. Al also, reports a past reunion meeting with JIM SHAW, and that the Carrolls had a nice visit with the TOM McCABEs in Rockford. In the final stages of our sessions at Notre Dame, DR. MATT WEIS was strongly advocating weekly '22 reunions.

We extend our sympathy and prayers to JOSEPH R. STEWART of 6933 Pennsylvania St., Kansas City 13, Mo., on the death of his father, Robert Stewart.

Two priests in Texas—sons of our classmate LEO MAHONEY of happy memory and mother Julia Mahoney of South Bend—are saying a monthly Mass for a period of one year for the living and deceased of our Class. This was happily arranged by our Class treasurer, DR. MATT WEIS, who also is custodian extraordinary of our Memorial Mass Fund.

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

JOHN C. O'DONNELL, '24
Parent, Partner to Three N.D. Lawyers

It is no longer uncommon for an alumnus to have three sons who are also alumni. But it may be unique for a law graduate to have three alumni sons who are also lawyers, residing in their home town as their father's law partners. Such is the happy case with John O'Donnell of Mansfield, O., former Richland County prosecutor and partner in the law firm of Anderson, Will & O'Donnell (& O'Donnell & O'Donnell & O'Donnell).

Born November 2, 1902, in Canonsburg, Pa., John was graduated from Dover High School, Dover, O., before coming to Notre Dame for his LL.B. from the Law School in 1924. Admitted to the Ohio Bar, he practiced in New Philadelphia, O., 1924-28, and on June 8, 1926, he married Mary Margaret Jurgens of Mansfield. They had four children: John C., Jr. (Jack), N.D. '51, married and the father of six; James J., N.D. '51, still single; Hugh B., N.D. '57, also single; and a married daughter, Dorothy O'Donnell Peters, whose six children bring the total of John's grandchildren to an even dozen. All now live in Mansfield, O.

In 1928 John moved to Mansfield and has practiced law there ever since. The firm includes the late Judge C. J. Anderson (1878-1954), James V. Will, John O'Donnell and sons Jack, Jim and Hugh (the last passed the Ohio Bar just a few months ago). They are engaged in general practice and trial law. John was formerly prosecuting attorney of Richland County, Ohio, and president of the Richland County Bar Assn. He is also a former Grand Knight and District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus and former chairman of the Richland County Democratic Executive Committee. Settled down to a relatively relaxed schedule, he now enjoys travel and sports, including an undespising interest in Notre Dame's football fortunes.

Jack, Jim and Hugh are not the first trio of O'Donnells from the University. John had two alumni brothers—William H. O'Donnell, '26, and Dr. Hugh B. O'Donnell, '38, both now deceased.

summer. On October 7, the LAWRENCE "BUCK" SHAWs, of Menlo Park, Calif., departed San Francisco on a tour to the Orient. Our reporter, a sober fellow, insists that Buck was seen riding around in a rickshaw prior to his departure to get "oriented" for the Orient.

Hearty congratulations to the HONORABLE AL SCOTT of Los Angeles, who celebrates in December his 30th anniversary as a judge on the bench of the Superior Court of California. Best of wishes to you and yours, Al.

From the Alumni Office:

Enclosing a recent "People on the Way Up" tear sheet from the Satepost, JIM SANFORD, '15, pointed to its mention of TV Emcee Nancy Clark of Boise, Idaho, whose hard-hitting documentaries have won Station KTVB two national awards. Nancy is the daughter of a classmate, the late Senator D. WORTH CLARK of Idaho (LL.D. '40). She mentions three sons, who ought to be good material for N.D.

Louis V. Bruggner
2165 Riverside Dr.
South Bend, Indiana

The pall of death hangs over our Class again with the news of several decedents since our last issue. In August LINUS GLOTZBACH died of a heart attack following closely a short siege of pneumonia. He had also been ill for several years with Parkinson's disease. JOHN LEONARD MURPHY, Monogram Club member since his campus high-jumping days, died suddenly in San Francisco on September 19, according to word first received from AUGUST DESCH, his old roommate. Three old students, listed in '23 files, also died, these being RICHARD P. O'CONNOR, GEORGE E. CARTIER and JOHN K. RUCKELSHAUS. O'Connor died June 4, unknown to this office until his widow notified us recently. The Alumni Office filled us in on the death of Cartier in Ludington, Michigan on February 23, and Ruckelshaus died August 31 in Indianapolis, his home city. Meager information prevents me from adding more details.

From our correspondents I have gleaned the following:

A letter from THOMAS J. LEE, supervisor of land and claims of Northern States Power Co. in addition to his notification of Glotzbach's death: "a week ago . . . at the 17th green at the annual St. Paul Open Golf Tournament . . . I was watching . . . when PAUL CASTNER sat down beside me and we talked about JOHN BYRNE who was in St. Paul a year ago and I had lunch with him . . . MAURIE DACY and others . . . Paul looks fine, big and healthy as ever . . . other than Linus and Paul I haven't seen a '23 man in a long time. Last fall I stopped at BILL VOSS' office in Chicago. . . . KID ASHE '22 was in town last spring. . . ."

Cairo, Illinois' E. MERLIN ROLWING sent me two pages of single-spaced typewriting excerpted as follows: "Maurie Dacy . . . came as a real shock . . . I knew his wife quite well . . . terribly sorry . . . the passage of time . . . I remember our last reunion . . . JOHN BYRNE . . . KARL BARR . . . KEVIN BARR . . . and several others among the missing . . . last year I looked up GEORGE UHLMAYER in Rock Island . . . he is a widower . . . retired . . . sells a bit of insurance . . . between golf . . . had an enjoyable visit . . . made him promise to be with us in 1963 . . . later I drove to Dubuque, Iowa . . . looked up ED TSCHUDI . . . Did we ever have a gabfest . . . first time I'd seen him since 1923 . . . before we know it our 40th Reunion will be at hand . . . I hope every surviving Classmate will make a special effort to be there. . . . Last of all I think of PIO MONTENEGRO . . . my Christmas card in 1941 came back undelivered and all attempts by registered mail since then have failed. . . . I'm convinced Pio is dead . . . no telling what the Japs might have done. . . . I plan to try again this winter . . . if I can accomplish anything, I must tell JOHN MONTAGUE about it. My wife (the former Rose Marbaugh of South Bend) and I have the house to ourselves now . . . planning a Hawaiian vacation in 1963 and Europe by 1965 . . . 12 grandchildren . . . two of my boys are N.D. grads . . . Bob, M.E. '40 and Jerry, M.S. Math '48. . . . I am now senior member on Board of Directors of Illinois Ass'n of Insurance Agents . . . my 14th year on State Board . . . We have an N.D. grad on the board from Ashland, Ill., — BOB NEWELL — don't know his year . . .

Marinette's LAUERMAN, HENRY that is, wrote in June "you will be seeing TOM PLOUFF who tells me he expects to make the off-year reunion this year (Ed. Note — yes, I met Tom and his brother briefly outside Morris Inn) . . . a cycle of 40 years is returning . . . Tom and I were roommates in Badin . . . recently he was in search of larger office space . . . my good fortune to have space available . . . so now we are not exactly roommates, this is as close as we can get . . . Tom and I had just commented on how fortunate our class had been within the year as to deaths . . . but that was before your report came to sadden me . . . God willing I shall see you a year from now."

A note in late spring and a post card from the HARRY FLANNERY's datelined West Germany: "Ruth and I spending four weeks in West Germany and Switzerland. On to Berlin from here. Best to you and all." Harry, you may recall, was with CBS in Berlin when World War II broke out, replacing one William Shirer. May we look forward to some brilliant copy from you, Harry, datelined Berlin, 1962?

VINCENT J. BROWN reported in June he "enjoyed reading your latest offering. Very sorry about three more deaths . . . Ran into JOHN COCHRANE en route Northwestern game last fall . . . Part of enclosed check is to be used as entry fee in grandfathers' derby. VINCENT J. BROWN, JR., '51 and BERNARD J. BROWN, '53 and our daughter have a total of 11 children. Vincennes papers please copy . . . hope to be back in '63, the good Lord willing."

LOU MOORE of Columbia Geneva Steel admits being a "horrible correspondent but enjoy your letters . . . keep them coming . . . here is some more of that stuff . . . Kay and myself are in good health, as is the entire tribe, including 12 grandchildren."

JOHN C. COCHRANE reported from Toledo in July: "received your R.I.P. card . . . shocked to say the least. . . . JOHN BYRNE and I were roommates in Sorin last two years . . . last time we met was at our 35th. . . . I will of course write to his widow . . . these events do give us reason to pause . . . all is O. K. with me and family. . . . enclosing a bit for the stamp fund."

JAMES J. McQUERN finds these newsletters most interesting and observes he "will consider it a privilege to be enrolled in the Association of the Providential Proposal to be remembered and prayed for by N.D. Alumni . . . N.D. is always uppermost in our thoughts."

JOHN NORTON of the Chicago Monday Morning Quarterbacks Club writes me every Sunday during the football season, as follows, "Dear Louis: ('$$$ & ?@!!!) If . . . but . . . why? . . . oh well, next week." ED SHEA writes often if frequently and as recently as August spoke hopefully of football prospects.

EDWARD PETER KREIMER wrote in June from Fort Wayne to congratulate me and rib me about matters referred to below. . . . He and his vitaphilic wife, Margie, were house guests of the Bruggners at the Pittsburgh game. JOE DONALDSON is alive and kicking in Louisville as recently as September 10, when he wrote up nawth for rooms for the Purdue game.

Just in case you missed previous reportings, this is to tell you that our FATHER JOHN J. CAVANAUGH has been named to the newly created post of director of student religious life. He will co-ordinate campus spiritual activities and the work of the university's chaplains.

JOHN CHAPLA was here for the Purdue game; his wife couldn't make it. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN TYLER and wife were here also. I tried to get the two men in touch with each other, but Frank had checked out of his hotel before I called when John came in. Frank and I had a nice long visit in my soupeteria.

What Ed Kreimer was joshing me about were the imagined political complications of my appointment last June to the local School Board at the hands of JUDGE JOSEPH W. NYIKOS. The appointment came about because of a state-wide reorganization of school districts wherein roughly half of St. Joseph County was formed into a metropolitan school corporation with a largely new Board in charge. I am one of seven members but what Ed didn't take into account is that the Board is bipartisan, with overlapping terms, and a balanced political complexion. The reorganization involved a tremendous amount of work (which incidentally helped delay this column) but I find the work challenging and fascinating and so far harmonious. It is hardly a remunerative job — but fun even so.

From the Alumni Office:

Congratulations to the aforementioned HARRY FLANNERY for his re-election as President of the Catholic Association for International Peace. Harry served in the job previously 1957-58.

1924

James R. Meehan
301 S. Lafayette Blvd.
South Bend 10, Ind.

From the Alumni Office:

JIM MEEHAN, up to his eyeballs in James R. Meehan & Associates, his drafting room supply business, dropped by to forward some correspondence to his noncorresponding Class.

RAY DURST, '26, wrote in September: "You are undoubtedly aware of the passing of WILLIAM R. 'RED' MAHER . . . but I thought you might find the enclosed obituary notice helpful in preparing your mention of the sad and tragic circumstance in your Class of '24 Notes for the next issue of the Notre Dame ALUMNUS. (The Maher obituary appeared in the October issue, Ed.)

"Red" and his wonderful wife, Julia, had just completed a fine Labor Day weekend visit with their son Bill at Neenah, Wisconsin, when, en route to their home in Park Ridge, he complained of not feeling well. Just after alighting from their car in front of their home, he collapsed and died almost immediately as a result of heart failure. His wake was very well attended and represented a great tribute to him and his lovely family. I know you will remind your classmates to remember him fervently in their prayers." Ray, a former associate of Red's at Halliercrafters Corp., has stated it so well that Jim Meehan saw nothing to improve. Sympathy to the widow and heirs of a great football player and "a fine N.D. man." The words are those of JIM SANFORD, '15, one of many Chicago friends who mourned Red's passing.

President ROBERT M. RINK wrote from Goshen Manufacturing Co., Goshen, Ind.: "It has certainly been a long time 'no see, no hear,' and I hope this letter finds you enjoying the best of everything.

"You, sometimes I think the old story, 'The closer the church, the farther from God,' is most applicable — here we are almost 'neighbors' and we seldom see each other. Why?

"Jim, the main reason for writing you was to tell you of the fateful step that our good friend 'TEX' RICKARD has finally taken — yes, he marched down the aisle January 9. I met the girl he married when I was out in California about a year ago, and her first name is Zoila. . . . You can write Tex as follows: V. E. Rickard, 2567 Armacost Avenue, West Los Angeles 64, Calif."

1925

John P. Hurley
2085 Brookdale Road
Toledo 6, Ohio

"Date-Line" Davenport, Iowa:

In the past month I have been in touch with and talked to a few of our classmates . . . because of a drive for patron tickets for the Pat McCarty Memorial Fund. Through the efforts of coach TOM McHUGH (who now has the number two team in Ohio), and his Central Catholic Alumni and the Toledo Notre Dame Club, over $7,500 was raised and will go to PAT McCARTY's widow and the nine children. The Toledo Central Catholic-Benedictine game was taken over through the cooperation of both schools. This was Central's opener and if they won last night in Steubenville Tom will have the NUMBER ONE high school team in Ohio. Lots of Notre Dame material as well as a future coach for our Alma Mater. DON MILLER helped in our contacts with Benedictine, and we had a very pleasant visit in Cleveland. I was in touch with ELMER LAYDEN, HARRY STUHLBREHER and JIM CROWLEY, but because of previous commitments it wasn't possible for them to be at the game. A few weeks later I met Harry, Elmer and HANK WURZER between the halves of the Purdue game. All of them look great. I saw VIRGIL FAGAN for a moment before this game. He is still keeping Sears supplied as he is in the Purchasing Dept. of the national office in Chicago.

FRANCIS MEKUS, who was "spotlighted" in the last ALUMNUS as a member of '26, started out with us. He and his fellow townsman TED BENTZ in Fremont, Ohio, were and always are a big help in any Toledo Area Notre Dame effort. CHARLIE MOUCH headed our Sandusky committee. CARL MEKUS came through with help from Archbold, Ohio. PAUL MILLER, who is an attorney in North Baltimore, was most cooperative. There were many more Notre Dame alumni who helped, but they were not members of our class so I will just pass on a big "thank you" from Pat McCarty's widow.

BERNARD GEORGE KESTING and many Toledo alumni helped, but "my territory" was the towns around Toledo. BEN KESTING is back in politics in the home town of Toledo. He is again County Engineer and will be up for election November 6 (next Tuesday at this writing) as he was appointed temporarily until the election next week. I saw Ben out at the Toledo Notre Dame Golf tournament. He swings a "mean" driver. RAY TILLMAN doesn't play golf, but he still gets up with the chickens and is at 6:30 Mass every morning.

CLASS OF 1928 gathers for one of the annual post-game parties held in October. Sir Edmund and Lady Hillary (not shown) were guests of Chicago's Howard Phalin at the party after the Michigan State game, their first encounter with American football, in which the Spartans conquered the Irish much as Hillary conquered Mount Everest.

I sure hated to miss GEORGE LUDWIG's daughter's wedding in Muskegon, Mich. Mary Beth Ludwig married one of my favorite adopted Notre Dame sons . . . JOHN HAYWARD, president of the Class of '52. Mary Beth went to St. Mary's, and in my book she was the most beautiful bride of 1962. Our daughter, Pat Underwood of Bettendorf, Iowa, was visiting us at the time, and we couldn't get over to Muskegon. Incidentally I am writing this in Bettendorf . . . and it's only moments away from the Navy game, and I must sign off. I don't believe I mentioned that I ran into STEVE CORBOY in Chicago and had a nice card from BOB GORDON, but I have to see that game and get this in the mail.

From the Alumni Office:

HARRY STUHLBREHER, mentioned above, forcefully defended college football and its popularity at the recent kickoff dinner of the Quarterback Club of San Antonio, Tex., and traded badinage with cospeaker and former teammate CHARLES (CHUCK) COLLINS to the delight of those assembled.

Congratulations to FRANK J. STARZEL for his 14 years as general manager of the Associated Press. Frank retired as chief of the world-wide news service recently, having worked for AP since 1929, and announced he will relax at his farm near South Londonderry, Vt. In his newspapering career after N.D. and Iowa, he worked on the Iowa City Press-Citizen, Des Moines Register and Tribune, Bloomington (Ill.) Pantagraph and Chicago Journal before signing on with AP. Frank has been hailed for the great physical and technical expansion of the news bureau under his direction.

Frank A. Deitle

The basket of '26 news is about empty this trip. Have heard indirectly that DENNIS O'NEILL and family will be in town for the Michigan State Game. Their daughter, Sister Mary Darey, received her black veil this past August in the Sisters of Charity of Saint Augustine.

A couple weeks ago I met DOC GELSON at Holy Cross Church in South Bend. Doc's son Alan had brought his belongings back to Notre Dame in their station wagon, and Doc was returning the wagon to their home in New Jersey. Times do change.

Spent a very pleasant two days with RUDY GOEPFRICH in September. He arranged a four-some to play golf at Olympia Fields south of Chicago. Then the following day the same group went to Rudy's cottage at Long Lake in Michigan for more golf and some of Mrs. Goepfrich's good food. On their basement wall are sixteen wooden pegs and on the pegs are sixteen little wooden chairs, one for each of their sixteen grandchildren. No room for disagreement there.

From the Alumni Office:

Peg Boland, assistant to the Dean of Students and "den mother" for the off-campus boys, has been busy in her off-duty hours at autographing parties as editor of a composite portrait of her late great husband, "JOE BOLAND—Notre Dame Man." Still a top best seller in these parts, the book contains testimony from dozens of Joe's friends and fellow alumni. It's published by NSP Publishing Co., Hammond, Ind., for $3.50 and is a handy item for everybody's Christmas list.

A couple of months ago Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS

F. GREEN, JR., became celebrities in Houston, Tex., when their daughters Marjo and Mary Lou gave birth to daughters on the same day. Marjo is the wife of RALPH SAUER, '60, an accountant for Humble Oil and secretary of the Notre Dame Club of Houston.

1928

Louis F. Buckley
68-10 108th Street
Forest Hills 75, N. Y.

EUGENE (RED) MORIARTY died very suddenly of a heart attack on December 13, 1961 while driving home from work. Red had his own Real Estate and Insurance Agency in Williamantic, Conn. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three granddaughters. Mrs. Moriarty advised that Red was planning on attending our 35th reunion in June 1963.

JOHN ROBINSON advised me that JIM HAYES, formerly of New Britain, died several years ago. Jim has been on our "mail returned unclaimed" list for some time. Please review this list in the roster sent to you in September and advise me if you know where any of these men are located. One good result of the erroneous listing of ED RAFTER in the death column of the ALUMNUS was that it got a response from BILL CRONIN, who called GEORGE CRONGEYER about it. Bill lives at 2234 Palmer, New Rochelle, N. Y. I was sorry to hear that Bill had undergone a serious eye operation which involved a detached retina. I hope that Bill will be able to attend our 35th reunion. You will all remember the great job he did at our 25th in raising the largest class silver anniversary gift to the University.

Since I was not aware that the death notice in the ALUMNUS regarding ED RAFTER was an error, I wrote a letter of sympathy to his family. I received a reply in Ed's handwriting saying, "It's almost unbelievable, but as Edward passed out, he had a copy of the ALUMNUS in one hand and was holding a '28 beanie in the other. We had thought something more religious might be appropriate, but the only reference he made to religion was his last remark, 'God save the Class of '28.'"

ED RAFTER mentioned that he met JOE ENRIGHT at the wake of RAY MULLIGAN's father. Joe lost his wife about a year ago. He has one daughter. On the way from Nassau, Ed Rafter visited GEORGE COURY who was in the process of organizing a new National Bank in Miami and also financing a grocery section in a new mammoth discount house on the outskirts of Miami. George sees DAVE SMITH, who has retired.

JOHN ROBINSON is looking forward to our class reunion in June. On Universal Notre Dame Night, John saw LARRY CULLINEY in New Haven. They had a great reunion with FATHER THORNTON who was the speaker of the evening. John sees JOHN (CLIPPER) SMITH frequently. His son is at Notre Dame. JOHN ROBINSON is now a grandfather. He also has a daughter in the Ursuline Order.

DENNY DALY, who is practicing law in St. Paul, has a son who is a freshman at Notre Dame. JOE LANGTON, who did such a fine job raising money for promoting our reunion, has a daughter who joined the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet whose motherhouse is in St. Louis.

JOE BRANNON writes from Glendale, California, where he is with Sears, Roebuck & Co., promising that he will try very hard to attend the 35th reunion in June 1963. "It is incredible," says Joe, "to realize that 35 years have collapsed, along with about two-thirds of our classmates. So, if I am ever going to attend a class reunion, I'd better make it this one, as your actuarial tables inform me that the insurance odds are about 7-1 that I'll be unable to attend the 40th reunion. Against me, not for me." Joe's report is a classic on his trip with his wife and three children to explore central Mexico with the thought of finding a spot for eventual retirement.

DOC F. W. FORD is practicing medicine in Billings, Montana. He has a son in pre-med at the University of Montana and another in the 8th grade. If any of you are interested in big game hunting, get in touch with Doc Ford. Speaking of hunting reminds me that SWEDE SCHROEDER's annual moose hunting trip in Canada again interfered with his attending the '28 cocktail party following the Michigan State game.

GEORGE WAGNER, a retired Naval officer, practices law in Lucas, Ohio, and has a 101-acre farm where he has fun raising pheasants, guineas, rabbits and chickens. He and his wife have spent the last four winters in Mexico. He met CONNIE OCHOA's sister, Mrs. Hecht, who has the largest travel agency in Guadalajara. This year George is visiting Japan and Hong Kong.

I am pleased to be able to report a marriage again, the first such announcement in a number of years. PAT CANNY was married on September 19, 1962, to Mrs. Loretta Rohr at Cleveland, Ohio. They live at 25371 Bryden Road, Beachwood 22, Ohio.

FATHER JIM McSHANE, S.J., continues his good work preaching missions and teaching kids of all ages at Casa Cural, El Progreso, Yoro, Honduras, C. A. He mentioned in a recent letter that every time firecrackers go off in the middle of the night he thinks the revolution has started.

BERNIE GARBER mentioned that he saw JOE CAIN at a recent Notre Dame Club party in New York.

GLADIATORS AND GALS discussing common interests at one of the past season's practice sessions are (l.-r.) Coach Joe Kuharich, head football coach; Sister John Baptist, IHM, and Sister Jean Vianney, C.S.C., daughters of John Wallace, '28, of Glendale, Calif. (a player on the 1924-25-26 teams); and Vince Mattera, sophomore tackle. Both sisters are studying for graduate degrees at the University, and Mattera hails from Mater Dei High, San Francisco, where Sister John Baptist was formerly a teacher.

Mrs. Buckley and I spent an enjoyable evening with TOM BOV in New York this summer. Tom continues as chief engineer on an oil tanker for Esso. Tom has a nephew at Notre Dame who is following his uncle on the track. I talked to PHIL BERTHIAUME in Portland, Oregon, where he is regional manager of Bankers Life Company. His daughter is working on her M.A. degree at Stanford. I saw our classmate, FATHER CHARLES HAMEL, C.S.C., and our teacher, FATHER MILTNER, C.S.C., at the University of Portland where they are teaching. FATHER HAMEL spent last year in France. I also saw FATHER GEORGE L. DUM, C.S.C., who finished N.D. in 1929.

I talked to LARRY CULLINEY in North Haven, Conn. In his travels as an examiner for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. he sees in Rutland, Vt., JOE CANNON and ED McCELLAN who are attorneys. JOHN FOLEY who is in the laundry business and JOE RADIGAN, '29, Federal District Attorney for Vermont. He also sees ART and JOHN MITIGUY who are in the drug business in Burlington, Vt., and CLINTON RYAN who lives in Milton, Vt.

NORB SEIDENSTICKER has another son starting at Notre Dame this year and a daughter in her last year at St. Mary's. ED TULLY has moved from Massachusetts to Princeton, New Jersey. A trip by MIKE RICKS to Europe interfered with his attendance this year at the '28 cocktail party.

Your class officers and committee members are working hard on plans for our 35th reunion on June 14, 15 and 16, 1963. You received in September a class roster from President JIM ALLAN. I hope you have made good use of it by writing to your friends, in order to make arrangements for meeting them at the reunion. I have lunch with BERNIE GARBET regularly to discuss his plans to promote attendance with the help of his committee. VINCE CARNEY is working on suitable attire, which has always distinguished our '28 reunion class on the campus. RAY MULLIGAN is getting the Glee Club together for the affair. FATHER ANDY MULREANY, C.S.C., and ED QUINN are working with their Committee on local arrangements. We hope to be in Lyons Hall again. I was pleased to note in the special message to the 1963 reunion classes that the Class of 1928 had the highest 1961 participation figures of the 1963 reunion classes in the N.D. Challenge Program.

Since your Class Secretary will be in Germany studying administration of labor programs when these notes reach you, I have asked BERNIE GARBET to prepare this column for the next issue. I hope he will be able to give you a report on the '28 cocktail party on October 20 at Notre Dame and the one at HOWIE PHALIN's home in Winnetka, Illinois, on October 27th.

ALOIS WELZENBACH writes from Los Angeles (3628 S. Genesee Ave.), where he represents Welz Sales Company, food brokers. Al's duties include travel to Hawaii; no wonder he reports that he enjoys his "work." Son Jack, age 27, is with United Airlines, while William is enrolled at Loyola University, Los Angeles, where he is a junior. The Welzenbach daughter, Barbara, age 23, is now Mrs. Walter Haverkort, wife of a San Francisco dental student. Last spring Al visited with FRANK HAUELICK in Miami. Frank is chief pilot of PAA-Grace Airways, Inc. He sees MORT GOODMAN, BOB GERVAIS and others who visit Rudi's Italian Inn, the site of the monthly first Thursday meeting of the Southern California Alumni Club.

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

FRED J. WAGNER, '29
Sold on Service, Now Schem of Serra

As a fitting milestone in a life of service to Church, civic and fraternal organizations, Fred Wagner last June was elected president of Serra International, a Catholic lay organization devoted to the work of fostering vocations to the priesthood. Named for Father Junipero Serra, the great Franciscan missionary of early California, the huge organization under Fred's direction has more than 10,000 members in 230 clubs throughout the U.S. and seven other nations. Most of his time this year has been taken up with speaking engagements in the far-flung chapters of Serra.

A native of Tiffin, O., Fred went to St. Joseph's school and Columbian high school before coming to Notre Dame for a B.C.S. degree. While at the University, he sang with the Glee Club for four years as a soloist and member of the varsity quartet and was elected president in his senior year.

Back in Tiffin Fred's start in business was paralleled by interest in the activities of his parish. A member of the Holy Name Society from the start, he has maintained an interest in church music and has served for 12 years as director of the parish choir. A veteran of the Knights of Columbus, he has been a 4th Degree Knight for 27 years. At one time he served as Faithful Navigator of the Archbishop Schrembs General Assembly of the 4th Degree K. of C.

In civic and fraternal life, Fred is a member of the B.P.O.E., past president of the Tiffin Chamber of Commerce and the Exchange Club, past member of the Board of Trustees of Mercy Hospital.

In 1954 Fred and his pastor attended a charter night dinner of the Sandusky Serra Club. He returned to Tiffin and helped organize a Serra Club there, becoming its first president in 1955. The Tiffin chapter is one of four in the diocese, 12 in Ohio. In 1956 he became deputy governor of Ohio District 20 and the next year was named district governor. For the past four years he has served on the international board — as trustee, second vice-president and first vice-president. The Serra movement began in Seattle, Wash., in 1935. Serra International was formed three years later. Headquarters were established in Chicago in 1946 with the late Samuel Cardinal Stritch (now Albert Cardinal Meyer) as episcopal advisor. Last year Serrans voted a dues increase to help foster vocations in Latin America. Serra Clubs must maintain a minimum membership of 25 and must meet weekly or semimonthly. Members must attend 60 per cent of meetings.

Fred is engaged in the general insurance business, owning and operating his own agency and devoting a great part of his time to real estate interests. PHILIP J. TOMPKINS, Hart Drug, Inc., Evansville, Ind., wrote some time ago of his wife Eloise Dorothy and children. Lenora E. (Miles), age 31, is the mother of three boys, Kim, Kerry and Kyle. Son Rev. F. Philip Tompkins, age 30, of Kansas City Diocese, was ordained April 2, 1960. He is assistant at Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, Independence, Mo. Daughter Gertrude E. (Muenstermann) has Karen, Terry John, Susan Marie and Mary Ann to keep her occupied. Phil's next sons, twins James P. and Lawrence P., are teachers at St. Charles Borromeo, Kansas City, having graduated from Bellarmine College, Louisville, Ky. They are continuing their studies at Kansas University. Daughters Kathleen E. and Eloise Mary are studying to be X-Ray technicians. And lastly twin daughters Christine E. and Nadine E. are seniors at Memorial High; they plan to major in math and English respectively. (We share your pride in a fine family.) Phil has been associated with the same firm for thirty years as pharmacist and supervisor.

PAUL HEMMY, JR., visited the campus in June for his son David's graduation. David is now enrolled at Hahnemann College of Medicine in Philadelphia. JIM BRADY reports that son Jerry, '58, was graduated from U. of California (Berkeley) Law School. Jim's twin boys, Jack and Jimmie, are sophomores at Notre Dame, and his daughter Jill recently graduated from San Diego College for Women.

JOHN DORGAN was out to visit Jim and his family in Idaho this past June. Jim is still in the newspaper-television-radio business.

DR. FRANK PAUL KANE of Binghamton, N. Y., follows our football team to games in his area. His children are three: Ada Mary, 21; Frank, Jr., 16; and Katherine, age 13.

Your secretary adds his condolences to those of the rest of the Class to widow Helen, daughter Suzanne, brothers and sister of JOHN LAW on the occasion of his sudden and untimely death. John was a pillar of strength to the Class.

CLETE SCHNEIDER came through with this letter this summer: "I was pleased to hear about the get-together after the Michigan State game, as I missed out last year due to fouled up last minute arrangements. As the old cliché goes, we can't wait for five years to see the '29ers."

"Recently I spent some time with KARL MÄRTERSTECK at a Propeller Club party. Among other things, he keeps me informed, for Our Great Lakes Historical Society, about any old boat timbers or wrecks that his (and BOB TROTTER's) Great Lakes Dredge and Dock rigs dig up."

"DR. TOM FERRITER called me up when he was on his way home from the AMA convention. He missed you at Notre Dame as you were at Argonne, but he did get a chance to show his family the campus that he has been raving about all these years. We exchanged news about FATHER OTIS WINCHESTER, TOM SHEA, JOE JACHYM, DON HOGAN, LOUIS SINCLAIR, JOE and JIM FRIEL, FRANK BELTING and many others. Dr. Tom apparently got a late start in raising a family, but has caught up fast with six children, the oldest 14.

"During the Alumni Drive I ran across other '29ers such as DON KREIS, PAUL HOLAHAN, JOHN COLANGELO, CARL WOLFRAM. As NORM McLEOD is the man about town, I see him frequently. . . ."

DR. TOM FERRITER and wife Clair and two oldest, Tom and Mary, toured the campus on their return to Springfield, Mass., from the AMA Convention, where he had a pleasant visit with DR. DICK HOGAN.

First returns from those coming to the October 20 Class of '29 get-together include the following: PAUL BARTHOLOMEW taught summer school at the U. of Tennessee and is continuing his work on a study of the Third Congressional District. This study is sponsored by a $25,000 grant. Son Tom, '38, is with the 7th fleet at present near Japan while Bob, '62, is continuing his studies in industrial design at Michigan State U. Paul has the good news that MARC KIRCHNER is much improved in health. Marc has traveled the East Coast on business trips in recent months. His new address is 217 Tipperary Lane, Winston-Salem, N. C.

From the Alumni Office:

New York, Tarrytown and Yonkers newspapers were filled with tributes to JOHN B. LAW as an "idol of thousands" in his athletic, business and civic careers. A particularly touching eulogy on "Johnny" appeared in the Yonkers "Herald Statesman," so long to quote here, but its sentiments will abide in the hearts of friends and classmates.

JOHN T. KEARNS, director of public works and former city engineer for Champaign, Ill., has been a popular candidate for appointment as city manager, but he announced he wasn't bidding for the job. John has been with the Champaign city government since 1944 and might eventually be drafted.

U.S. District Court Judge GEORGE N. BEAMER presided as chairman of the House of Delegates, policy-making body of the Indiana State Bar Assn., at the recent annual meeting in Chicago.

JOE WHALEN has purchased the Tangney interest in Tangney-McGinn, Inc., and been named president, director and chief executive officer of that company and become a corporate partner with the McGinn family in the operation of a new enterprise, Parkway Inns, Inc. He left his position of the past nine years as manager of the Hotel Fort Des Moines on Oct. 15.

Edmund Brown of California. Membership in the college is considered one of the highest honors in American jurisprudence. It is limited to one per cent of the attorneys in a state.

From the Alumni Office:

The rumors were quickly scotched by the ol' master, but sports writers had fun for a while with reports from a New Orleans newspaper that heavyweight champion Sonny Liston was wooing FRANK LEAHY as his manager. Frank seems to be happy where he is in San Diego, Calif.

From the Alumni Office:

HARRY C. BURGER has been made general manager of the INSUROCK Division (plastics) of the Richardson Company, whose plastics plants are now being incorporated into one new modern plant in DeKalb, Ill. Harry's new address is 912 S. Seventh St., St. Charles, Ill.

National columnists Inez Robb and Earl Aronson got on the bandwagon as promoters of RAY GEIGER's 146-year-old Farmer's Almanac. Ray, now working on a book, "The Best from the Farmer's Almanac," lists Pope John XXIII among the Almanac's fans. The seer of Lewiston, Me., incidentally, predicts a rough winter.

NEIL HURLEY continues to delight Chicago society editors with his picturesque farm in Huntley, Ill. Items of its development include a new swimming pool and bathhouse, heliport, Swiss chalet, huge barn, private lake, houseboat and man-made island. The open houses there always prompt big picture splashes on the ladies' pages.

CHARLIE FARRIS, who has been active in Class affairs for many years, has consented to act as General Chairman of our 30th Reunion—now officially scheduled for the weekend of June 14, 15 and 16, 1963. In taking this important class assignment Charlie will have to rearrange much of his busy schedule at the St. Louis Redevelopment Authority, where he serves as executive director. It is hoped that those he calls upon for help in the coming months will willingly cooperate.

In June, 1963, there will be Class Reunions of the Classes from 1913 down to 1958. These Classes will return to the campus during the closing month of the greatest fund raising effort in Notre Dame's financial history. Jim Armstrong has asked that these Reunion Classes "spearhead the program" to bring alumni participation up to an all-time high and thereby stimulate those Classes running behind. Full particulars and class figures are detailed in a Reunion Class letter.

DICK HOSTENY, who we recently noted was now residing in La Grange, Ill., advises that he has retired from the F.B.I. after 23 years of service. Dick is now with the Cook County State's Attorney's Office. He is the proud father of ten children—five boys and five girls.

ED ROXAS, writing from Madrid, where he spent the past summer with his wife and five children, corrects an earlier alumni office report that he had transferred his business interests from Manila to New York. The previous New York address was merely that of his U.S. representative. He keeps in touch with his former roommate, MARV HUOT, in Kankakee, Ill. and KARL VOGELHEIM of Rogers City, Mich. Ed sends his warm regards through this column to his school friends.

HAROLD FOHLMEYER sends early word that he plans on attending our Reunion. Harold is controller for Kaiser Refractories in the central area of the States—with headquarters in Mexico, Missouri.

MAURICE J. SCANLON, continuing his career in the State Dept., is now stationed at the American Consulate at Hong Kong.

FATHER FRANK GARTLAND, C.S.C., after many fruitful years as editor of the "Catholic Boy," is now director of vocations at North Easton, Mass.

DOUG GIORGIO now practicing in Evansville, Ind., was recently elected president of the Indiana State Society of Anesthesiologists.

JERRY GREER writes that he will be at the Reunion. Jerry lives in Hinsdale, Ill., and is divisional sales manager of the Construction Equipment Division of International Harvester at Melrose Park, Ill. He sends greetings to BILL LYNCH back in New York.

JOHN LEVSTIK during the past several years has been engaged in recruiting at Notre Dame for mechanical engineers for his firm, Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., which is now located at Oak Brook, Ill.

JIM UPRICHARD sends regards. He recently moved from Lakewood, Ohio to 20289 Marian Lane, Rocky River, Ohio.

The Alumni Office has sent us the following address changes—DANIEL J. ROLFS, 946 Valdez Pl., Stanford, Calif.; JOHN W. JAEGER, 20 Unges Drive, Pittsburgh 17, Pa.; JOHN H. BARBAZETTE, 3025 Round Hill Drive, Alamo, Calif. Word from them would be welcome.

PETE CONNELLY was on the phone recently and reported that he was busy in the practice of law in the Rochester area. We are looking forward to his visit to New York where he has a matter on appeal. Our guess is that he will be first in line at the June Reunion.

Ran into ED ECKERT while visiting in Albany recently. His oldest daughter, Sally, is being married in late June. He expects, however, to be free for the Reunion—perhaps use it as a warm-up for the wedding.

Inquiries have come in concerning MARION BLAKE, ROLAND DAMES, FRANK DECLERK and FRED MAC BETH. We hope a reminder of such inquiries will arouse some word from all of them.

From the Alumni office we learn that NORM DUKE is now living in Maitland, Fla.

FATHER MAUREY POWERS, C.S.C., after distinguished service as an Army chaplain (Lt. Col.), is now stationed at St. Mary's Cathedral in Austin, Texas. He celebrated his Silver Jubilee in the priesthood in August. The Jubilee celebration and tributes to Father Powers were widely reported by the Associated Press. For those who may have missed the story "Lead Scout of God," we repeat in part as reported by the wire service: "Steel helmet and dusty olive-battle uniform marked him a soldier. . . . Standing on the frozen bank of the Yalu River he thanked God in Mass for the safety of his 28,000 men. . . . No one asked him his faith; they only asked his understanding."

"Did they know he was decorated for heroism beyond the call of duty in France; that he was staff chaplain to General Clay in Berlin; that he was Central Command staff chaplain under General MacArthur in Japan. There was no sign of five Bronze Stars of valor, no evidence of eleven campaign battle stars won in combat. . . ."

"Who was he? He is FATHER POWERS, the priest-chaplain you are honoring today in the living symbol of his priesthood—another Christ as he celebrates a silvered memory of his devotion in the service of his God, his Country, and his people of St. Mary's Cathedral in Austin, Texas, and at these privileged places where his immediate family and friends, in Heaven and on earth, will gather to join him at the majestic Sacrifice of the Mass in thanksgiving and in the sweet benediction of hope through years to come until taps are sounded to report to his Commanding General, Jesus Christ, and pass in stately review for the pinning of a new citation, The Morning Star of Eternal Life."

From the Alumni Office:

Congratulations to PAT CROWLEY on his appointment to the Law School's Advisory Council; and to LES RADDATZ, formerly of NBC and the Ralph Edwards Productions staff, now on the national editorial staff of TV Guide as a writer for the West Coast bureau. And official apologies to JIM ASH, whose name was inexcusably omitted from the 1933 Reunion Roster, but whose address is clear and legible in the office: Ash Advertising, 226 West High Street, P.O. Congratulations to HARRY D. GAFFNEY, co-founder, headmaster, and teacher of history and civics at a new secondary school, Lee Academy, Lee, Mass. With a master's degree from American International College in Springfield, Mass., Harry has been a teacher and coach for several New England high schools and, most recently, Nichols College of Business Administration, Dudley, Mass.

A special bouquet to an elder statesman of the Class, LAWRENCE W. BARBER, and his wife of 50—yes, 50—years. Mr. and Mrs. Barber, formerly of South Bend and now of Bradenton, Fla., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in South Bend last summer. A teacher at Central High School for many years after his belated A.B., he retired in 1950.

And a bow to FRANCIS ANTHONY DUNN as grandparent of Jane Dunn Leinenweber, born to his daughter Geraldine and HARRY LEINENWEBER, '59, in Joliet, Ill.

WALTER T. POWERS, the Cleveland advertiser, visited the campus with his mother and brother, REV. RICHARD J. POWERS, S.J., '43, this past summer. Staying the week end, Walter served Mass for his brother in a campus chapel before returning to Cleveland, where the Powerses have four children.

Stop! Before you read another word, get an envelope, address it to me right now, stick a ten-spot or a check for same made out to the Notre Dame class of 1938 into it for preregistration to our Silver Anniversary reunion next June, and mail it, now! Go ahead, I'll wait; in fact I'll thumb through the Dome trying to imagine how some of you look now with hair that is distinguishingly gray or extinguished. Okay?

Got that done? Wonderful, and that's what you'll be saying when you see what we've got in store for you at our 25th class reunion next June. Local '38-ers have met three times already, at CHUCK SWEENEY's and DON HICKEY's homes and after spirited discussions that several times went on the rocks, ED CRONIN was named General Chairman, and NELSON VOGEL, Buck Private, (Treasurer, that is) of all those $10-bills you just mailed in for preregistration. The $10 is needed for extra goodies, entertainment and ice cubes for HUB KIRCHMAN's quinquennial bath in Rockne Memorial. Don Hickey drove into Chicago with me one day to discuss reunion plans with FRANK O'LAUGHLIN, LEN SKOGLUND and FRANK PRUSHA over lunch at the Chicago Athletic Club. DAN GIBBS couldn't make it but sent in his ideas. I later saw Dan at the Purdue game and also TED FLANIGAN from Buffalo with charming wife and handsome son Jim, who is a freshman this year. On way back from Chicago Don and I stopped to see BILL RILEY at his bank in East Chicago. Also got some suggestions from JOHN CLIFFORD when he and wife Gertrude brought their son John down to enter N.D. from St. Paul, where John is a manufacturers' representative. John suggested that regional chairmen be set up, and to get this under way CHUCK SWEENEY volunteered to meet with classmates in the various cities he travels to as National League football field judge each week. John also suggested that each one of you write to five other classmates in his area to arrange coming to the reunion together. Will you do it?

Got a letter from DICK SCANNELL in Fairfield, Conn., telling me he read of JERRY KANE being made vice-president and general manager of Boeing International Aircraft Corp. Not that I doubted Dick's word, but my wife Helene and I and nine children drove out to Seattle and verified the report, as any good card-carrying (credit card, that is) reporter would do. Verification included a patio dinner for the whole Bauer tribe at his executive mansion, presided over by his First Lady Katie (Irish and cuter than Jackie) and three daughters fair. Also had lunch with Jerry at the Serra club. The next day CHARLIE OSBORN, who is president of the Seattle Boy Scout Council and has pioneered some successful advance programs in the Explorer Scouts division, interrupted his law practice to take me to lunch. Incidentally, as long as we were out there we visited my mother, brother and sister, plus several cousins, the Seattle World Fair and the National Liturgical Conference.

On returning to South Bend, I got the shocking news that PAT McCARTY had died of a heart attack in August in his home in Toledo while taking a nap on a Saturday afternoon. Pat had recovered from an earlier attack some 19 months previous and was back to work with a concrete firm which he joined after many years of high school coaching. JOHN HURLEY, Class of '2, secretary, sent me clippings of the tributes paid Pat and details of a benefit football game between Central Catholic, his alma mater, and Cleveland Benedictine (won by Central 16-8) which raised over $5,000 for Pat's wife Margaret and their nine children: Patricia, 23; Thomas, 23; Kathleen, 18; Joseph, 17; Mary, 15; Daniel, 14; Ann, 11; Michael, 6; and Matthew, 2. If anyone would like to help Pat's family by sending a dollar or more for a program of the benefit game, mail it to John P. Hurley, 2085 Brookdale Rd., Toledo 6, Ohio. Pat was named on several All-American teams as Center in 1937 and played 40 minutes in the All-Star game against the Green Bay Packers, who were just as tough then as today. Pat turned down a pro offer from the Packers to enter high school coaching where his good influence on boys earned him the gratitude of the community. Jim Mac Donald, sports editor of the "Toledo Times," said his "greatest loves in life were his family, his religion and football." He could, and should, have added "Notre Dame."

Happier news came in the mail from DON SMITH and PHIL KIRCH. Don wrote from Colorado Springs, where a year ago he became traffic engineer after being in a similar position in Miami, Fla., since the war. Don worked for Sears in Battle Creek, Mich., after graduation until enlisting in the Navy in 1941. He went through Pensacola, served in Central and South Atlantic and finished in the Pacific, where he ran into ED BRENNAN and FATHER BOLAND. He saw JIM RAGNEY also in Florida but not a classmate since he got out as a Lieutenant. Don married a Georgia peach in 1950 and is an inveterate sports car fan, racing his own Jag until he went West. Don, who was one of DOC COONEY's journalism proteges, is planning on coming to the 25th Reunion — the first time back in twenty-five years! It will be wonderful to see you, Don.

PHIL KIRCH writing on Union Bank, Los Angeles, stationery (a fringe benefit, no doubt) says that if he can get GENE VASLETTE and a few other '38-ers in "Smogsville" to come along he'll be at the 25th reunion. Which means they're as good as here, because Gene said he was coming. Phil worked for a number of years with the J. I. Case Co. in Davenport, Iowa, before being lured out West where he lives at 721 Enchanted Way, Pacific Palisades, Calif., with wife Lorraine and sons Michael (20), Steven (14) and Mary Madeline (10). Phil says he has seen NICK LAMBERTO, BOB SHEA, and JOHN BEER on occasion, and has stocked the larder for CHARLIE CALLAHAN, and any others who are going to the So. Cal. game.

JACK SCOTT, former South Bend mayor and now publisher of the Lafayette "Journal and Courier," had to wrench his loyalties a bit, but he came up with a good job serving as toastmaster for the Purdue annual kickoff luncheon. However, JOE KUCHARICH isn't blaming the Purdue score on Jack.

It turned out to be a small world the other day when a sales trainee from the Precision Chemical Pump Co. of Waltham, Mass., assigned to work with my sales organization arrived and turned out to be DICK MOLLER's son, also Dick. Young Dick, a Colgate man (tsk, tsk), said his Dad is vice-president in charge of marketing for the Hudson Pulp and Paper Co. of New York and is planning on personally seeing that RIGGIE DI-BRIENZA, GENE DOLAN, JOE CALLAHAN, GENE SMITH and CAS VANCE get to our reunion on time. Rah! Young Dick says he has another brother, 14, and two sisters, 21 and 12.

From the Alumni Office:

Congratulations to County Prosecutor JOHN A. CAIN of Cheboygan, Mich., recently elected president of the Prosecuting Attorneys Assn. of Michigan at the annual convention held at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. John was first vice-president last year and addressed the convention as incoming president. The only unopposed Republican running for re-election, he was also recently elected president of the Cheboygan County Lawyers Assn.

And also to HARVEY G. FOSTER, nominated by the University for the Sports Illustrated Magazine Silver Anniversary All-America. With the FBI since 1939, Harvey advanced in the Bureau from one responsible assignment to another, became Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's largest field office in New York City. Past president of the N.D. Alumni Assn., Harvey might have blown the final picks by resigning for private business in Phoenix, Ariz., but he richly deserved the nomination.

In Sept., the New York "Times" started giving big play to the protests of Ambassador WILLIAM P. MAHONEY, JR., that "unfounded charges and distortions" about the United States in the Ghanaian press should cease in the best interests of Ghanaian-American relations. The newspapers of Accra had hinted U.S. complicity in recent bomb attempts to assassinate President Kwame Nkrumah, with whom Bill has established very cordial relations.

Earlier, Bill sent a circular letter to friends in the U.S. He warned that the contents were not for publication, but we're sure he wouldn't mind our quoting a portion dealing with his family: "Alice and the children have made the transition very well. The greatest burden by far was on Alice.

ROCKFORD — "Wearing of the Greens," annual golf outing and banquet of the Rockford Club last August, had such celebs at the head table as (l.-r.): Jim Cooney, '59, of the Notre Dame Foundation; John Lujack, '48, Davenport, Ia.; Charles Luecke, '51, 1962 N. D. Man of the Year, Freeport, Ill; Chairman Jim Dunn, '39, and Club President Al Carroll, '22, in conference; Chicago's George Connor, '48; and (standing) Bill Fischer, '49.

Her strong San Francisco background put her in good stead. By the way, she recently made a call on Madame Fathia Nkrumah, whom she found a completely charming woman. The only difficulty I have with my wife is that she is occasionally mistaken for another daughter. And the Ghanaians, who idolize children, cannot get over the fact that she is the mother of seven. Actually, as I modestly told the President, he is getting nine emissaries for the price of one.

"The children are all entering local schools this September, contrary to the custom of the diplomatic set, most of whom send theirs to boarding schools in Europe. We feel that ours should be on the scene throughout our stay for many good reasons, personal, diplomatic and others. Besides, living in Africa is a good part of their education. Bill will enter Achimota, a fine prep school which has produced most of Ghana's leaders. He will live with the Africans, eat their chop, sleep on boards, and get a good education in the process. Gladys and Mary will attend the International School, and the four midgets will go to Christ the King, a parochial school near our residence."

More from Bill about his fascinating life as a diplomat in the President's Letter on the back cover.

Congratulations to LAWRENCE D. BENEDICT of Tarrytown, N. Y., veteran advertising and marketing executive and former senior product manager for Lever Bros., elected president and director of Airwick Brands, Inc., newly formed consumer marketing subsidiary of Airkem, Inc., which is taking over the Airwick home freshener line from Lever Bros. in 1963. Before joining the Lever Bros. family, Larry was vice-president of several advertising agencies, including Dancer, Fitzgerald, Sample, Inc., and Donahue & Coe.

The rough row ED SIMONICH has had to hoe was given national attention by UPI recently. The story, with a very good picture, said in part that Ed, football coach for the Montana School of Mines Orediggers, "has one of football's toughest coaching jobs — emotionally, at least. His team hasn't won a game since 1933, a total of 40 consecutive games. Football is an extracurricular activity and classroom work interfered with football all season long. A 6-foot-2, 250-pounder from Notre Dame, Simonich played a season with the Chicago Bears and has had a highly successful coaching career with high schools and small colleges in Montana and Iowa."

The New York "Journal-American" gave a big play to LL.B. HARVEY FOSTER's resignation from the FBI. It said in part: "Special Agent Harvey Foster, a graying man with thin lips and knowing eyes, will resign Oct. 30 after four years as the head of the FBI's New York City office. . . . (He) covered this city, Long Island, and almost to Albany with a swift, quiet precision that bagged murderers, smugglers, swindlers, spies and traitors. . . . His office worked closely with the city police and he made frequent speeches advising the community how to prevent crime. . . . He served on the executive committee of the Greater New York Council of Boy Scouts and was chairman of its Health and Safety Council."

"Mayor Wagner said of him. . . 'Mr. Foster is an outstanding man, an outstanding law enforcement officer. He has made many contributions to the upholding of justice that will be long remembered. . . . The 50-year-old FBI agent lives in Parkchester with his wife, the former Mable Mahler. Their two sons, John, 20, and Daniel, 19, are in college. . . . Mr. Foster will join the Dallas Smith Corp., an auto distributor, in Arizona. . . ."

Congratulations to DONALD O'MELIA and RICHARD O'MELIA, whose admission to practice before the U.S. Court of Claims in Washington, D.C., was featured pictorially by the alumni magazine of Marquette University, where Don and Dick took their law. Don practices in Rhinelander, Wis., and Dick is associate director of the Bureau of International Affairs of the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington.

From the Alumni Office:

Congratulations and thanks are due from the Class and the entire Alumni Assn. to WALTER FLEMING, the Dallas manufacturer and Republican politico, for his service of the past four years on the national Alumni Board as a director, committee chairman, president and honorary president. The honorary presidency of the past year became a little more than honorary when his presidential successor, friendly enemy BILL MAHONEY, '38, was made a U.S. ambassador by the Democratic administration. Walter filled in with much of the presidential detail work impossible for "the Honorable T-Bone" in Africa. Walt's long service will end officially in January, but we know he will continue to be devoted to all things of N.D., especially with children in school on both sides of the Dixie Highway. Thanks also to Walt's wife Elizabeth, behind whose unassuming charm many suspect is the real brains of the Fleming operation.

New York 17, N. Y.

From the Alumni Office:

From West DePere, Wisconsin, comes an engraved card: "The Reverend D. M. Burke, O.Fraem., President, on behalf of the Board of Trustees and the Board of Governors of St. Norbert College, announces the appointment of JOHN S. MACCAULEY as Vice-President for Development, effective October 1, 1962." At St. Norb's, a co-ed liberal arts college run by the Norbertines or Canons Regular of Premontre, John will be in touch with PAUL HORNUNG and other alumni in the area. The school should benefit greatly from the know-how derived from John's eight years as an assistant director of the N.D. Foundation. He will direct all public relations and development activities of the college, drawing also on eight years' experience with his own public relations firm before joining the N.D. development staff.

PATRICK JOSEPH MULLIGAN, Jr., formerly vice-president and general sales manager of the Murray Ohio Manufacturing Co., Nashville, Tenn., was elected executive vice-president, succeeding alumnus WILLIAM M. HANNON, '43, who became president, and succeeded in his old position by a third N.D. man, W. C. "BILL" KEYES, '42. P.J. (or "Joe") Mulligan is a Cleveland native and Cathedral-Latin grad. A former Navy officer, he joined Murray in 1946, became sales manager of the bicycle division in 1954, general sales manager in 1955 and added the vice-president responsibility in 1956. He makes his home in Nashville with his wife and six children. Joe is chairman of the Bicycle Manufacturers Assn., has local memberships in the Chamber of Commerce Sales Executive Council and Hillwood Country Club.

DR. JOHN WALSH was named as one of six corporate members to the post of "Senior Scientist" at the System Development Corporation, Santa Monica, Calif., in a new professional classification program. With a Ph.D. in math and statistics from Princeton, he was cited as one of six of more than 2,000 SDC personnel whose "significant contributions to science and technology" rate the classification. He joined the corporation in 1958, is on the math staff of the Center for Research in System Sciences, and is completing Volume II of his "Handbook of Nonparametric Statistics."

SAMUEL J. NIELD has been appointed manager of the newspaper division for "This Week Magazine," responsible for the Sunday supplement's newspaper contacts and information services provided for its 43 metropolitan newspapers with a combined circulation of more than 14,400,000. Widely known in advertising, he has had more than 15 years' experience in publishing, including six years on the sales staff of the "Ladies Home Journal" and nine years with "Better Homes & Gardens." Sam and his wife reside in Old Greenwich, Conn. He's a member of the Metropolitan Advertising Golf Assn. and has held such golfing championships as the New England Amateur, Rhode Island Open and Amateur, and the Indiana State Intercollegiate.

TOM DEGNAN writes — "Reunion recollections: DON HOGAN singing 'Do, Re, Mi' at 3 a.m. at Morrissey Hall. CHARLES (TEX) MACFARLANE studying for his law degree at N.D., after spending many years in Saudi Arabia as an engineer with Aramco. JOE SPOHR, BERNIE BIEHL and I playing bridge as we did on Sunday, December 7, 1941, when Pearl Harbor was announced.

FREEWHEELING ALUMNI of the Forties have steadily rolled to the top positions of the largest producer of bicycles, juvenile wheel goods and electric window fans. Directors at a board meeting of Murray Ohio Manufacturing Co., Nashville, Tenn., elected (l-r.): Bill Hannon, '43, president; Joe Mulligan, '41, executive vice-president to succeed Bill; and Bill Keyes, '42, vice-president and general sales manager to succeed Joe. All are World War II vets and former Clevelanders, the company having moved to Tennessee from that city five years ago. Besides the Nashville executive and sales offices, Murray Ohio employs 2,500 at its Lawrenceburg, Tenn., plant. See 1941-2-3 columns for details.

FRANK VEIT sat in for BOB BEAUMONT, who didn't attend. WALT CORDES planned to attend but was busy being transferred from his job as ass't. plant manager of DuPont's East Chicago plant to division head of research labs in Wilmington, Delaware. BOB COLEMAN is a man of many interests, including being chairman of the board of the Dill Company and owning a small share of the Desert Inn in Las Vegas. Speaking of Vegas, big MIKE HYNES is a prominent lawyer there. BILL MARSHALL, an engineer, is now a partner in a law firm in Chicago specializing in corporation and patent law. BILL MADDEN owns two exclusive women's apparel shops, one in Lake Placid and one in Fort Lauderdale.

JIM DOYLE writes: "EMMETT KEENAN, my partner and I are still on a speaking basis — so that's not news. Emmett Keenan had lunch with DON FIEGEL Tuesday, and that's not news. But Keenan and I did see JACK BERGEN in Omaha while at a convention in June. At the reunion, when they took up a collection for Masses for our deceased members, I put a check in made out to 'Cash for Masses.' The check cleared the bank so I know our fund this year has at least a dollar in it — which is progress. I think we have a great bunch of officers for the next five years. Too bad that President JIM O'NEAL can't devote more time to the office. The Fiegels got together with the DON MARTINS in Chicago in September. CARROLL PITKIN spent a short time with Don in Davenport a couple of weeks ago."

JIM O'NEAL writes — "The only thing I can send along at this minute is the recommendation that a note of appreciation to our class secretary be included in the Class news." (Ed. Note: See October issue. J. L.)

From the Alumni Office:

In a game of N.D. alumni musical chairs, W. C. "BILL" KEYES, formerly assistant general sales manager of Nashville (Tenn.) Murray Ohio Manufacturing Co., was elected vice-president and general sales manager, succeeding P. J. "JOE" MULLIGAN, '41, who in turn became executive vice-president succeeding WILLIAM M. "BILL" HANNON, '43, who was elected president to succeed his father, C. W. Hannon. Like Mulligan, Bill Keyes is a native of Cleveland, O., and a graduate of Cathedral-Latin High. A Navy submariner in World War II, he joined Murray in 1946 with Joe Mulligan, moved up to sales promotion manager of the wheel-goods division in 1954, sales manager of that division in 1956, and assistant general sales manager later that same year. Bill lives in Nashville with his wife and three children, is a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, Hillwood Country Club, etc.

In late September JAMES E. FRICK of Ambler, Pa., became an assistant general attorney of the Reading Railroad. Jim, who followed up his N.D. training at the U. of Pennsylvania Law School, joined the Reading as personnel assistant in 1951.

EUGENE F. HUNT has been elected a vice-president and appointed creative director at Ketchum, MacLeod & Grove, Inc., Pittsburgh advertising and public relations agency. Gene began his career with the agency in 1955 as a copy writer after having been associated with Hicks & Greist in New York and Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, Inc., in Cleveland. He became copy supervisor in 1956 and creative supervisor in 1960.

REV. PAUL E. WALDSCHMIDT, C.S.C., was named president of the University of Portland in September. Vice-president of the Oregon institution since 1953, he succeeded REV. HOWARD J. KENNA, C.S.C., '26, when Father Kenna became provincial superior of the Holy Cross Fathers' Indiana Province, which operates the school. A native of Evansville, Ind., Father Waldschmidt had doubled as dean of faculties, headed the committee on admissions and academic standing and the athletic board of control, and served as director of international students. Ordained in 1946, he studied at Laval Univ. in Quebec and the Angelicum in Rome, where he got his S.T.D. He was a professor of Theology at Holy Cross College, Washington, D.C., for six years before going to Portland.

La Crescenta, Calif.

From the Alumni Office:

WILLIAM M. HANNON, formerly executive vice-president of the Murray Ohio Manufacturing Company, Nashville, Tenn., has been elected president to succeed his father, C. W. Hannon. P. J. MULLIGAN, '41, succeeded Bill as exec. while W. C. KEYES, '42, moved into Mulligan's job as vice-president and general sales manager in an all-alumni shuffle. BILL HANNON started with Murray in sales in 1946 and became sales manager for the wheel-goods division in 1949. In 1954 he was made assistant to the president and a director. He was elected executive vice-president in 1956 and put in charge of manufacturing operations in Lawrenceburg, Tenn. As president, Bill will maintain offices both at the Lawrenceburg factory and Nashville headquarters. He is on the board of governors of the Tennessee Manufacturers Assn., director of the First National Bank of Lawrenceburg, a member of the local Lions Club and other civic organizations.

WILLIAM L. WILSON teamed up with a former N.D. partner, RICHARD L. WHITING, '45, to win the Port Huron Golf Club's Fall Round-Up Invitational Palmer Flight Title. Bill's 82 and Dick's 75 nosed out the opposition in their first round together in twenty years. Bill, a native of Port Huron, Mich., played with Dick, from nearby Red Run, as a youngster. Both were tournament winners in their teens. The Port Huron Invitational was Bill's first try in 12 years because o-illness. He has been coaching golf at St. Stephen High for the past 10 years.

REV. RICHARD J. POWERS, S.J., teaching English at Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y., asked permission last summer to accompany his brother WALTER T. POWERS, '35, of Cleveland, and his mother on a trip to the N.D. campus. He was particularly interested because the Army and his Jesuit studies had kept him away for 20 years. Father Dick said Mass at Sacred Heart with his brother assisting and toured a campus which had undergone quite a transformation.

ROBERT E. PALENCHAR is now vice-president for employee relations in the automotive division of the Budd Company. He assumed executive responsibility for labor and personnel relations, wage and salary administration, safety, training and suggestion system programs last July 1. Bob came to Budd Automotive from Ex-Cell-O Corp., where he had been corporate director of industrial relations since 1938. A "cum laude" in economics, he worked in various industrial relations and personnel jobs before joining Ex-Cell-O as assistant director of labor relations in 1949 and became director in 1955. A member of several industry organizations, Bob lives in Northville, Mich., with his wife and two children, Patricia Ann, 17, and James L., 12.

GERALD A. SMITH got his Ph.D. in English literature from the Johns Hopkins University in 1957, has since taught at the University of Rochester, and now is professor of English and acting chairman of the English department at State College at Geneseo, N. Y.

A large group of fellow alumni backed ANTHONY G. GIROLAMI in his bid for clerk of the probate court in Chicago. They sponsored a dinner in Tony's honor at JOHNNY LATTNER's restaurant on West Madison in the Loop.

FATHER ANTHONY M. BROWN succeeded Bishop-elect RAYMOND G. HUNTHAUSEN (M.S. '33) of Helena, Mont., as president of Helena's Carroll College. "Spotlighted" a couple of years ago as dean of men, Father Tony was also a schoolmate of the new president of the U. of Portland, REV. PAUL WALDSCHMIDT, C.S.C., '42, at Rolling Prairie Novitiate in 1938-39. Congratulations to Fathers Brown and Waldschmidt in their new presidencies.

DR. FRANK L. KUNKEL, a member of the St. John's University faculty since 1949, has been named editorial director of the University press. Associate professor of English, Frank got his master's and doctorate from Columbia and taught at N.D. He has authored many articles on literature and in 1960 published "The Labyrinthine Ways of Graham Greene," the first detailed study of the British Catholic novelist.

Last but far from least, the disconcerting news that WILLIAM J. TRACY, surely the best-nosed model for Dick Tracy and Fearless Fosdick, has left the New York office of the FBI for the cosmetics business. Bill has been appointed director of security for Revlon, Inc., and subsidiaries. Operating out of the Edison, N. J., Revlon plant, Bill expects to be conducting eye-shadow espionage all over the world.

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

MERVIN F. BAGAN, '41, LL.B. '42
SFO 'Copters, Free Enterprise in Action

"Is Free Enterprise Dead?" headlined the San Francisco Examiner recently, and went on: "Are Government subsidies necessary to succeed in this age of the Federal hand-out?" As an answer, the Examiner pointed with pride to M.F. ("Mike") Bagan, president of San Francisco-Oakland Helicopter Airlines, Inc., who came to San Francisco two years ago not knowing a soul and: within six weeks raised $1,000,000; within nine months had SFO Helicopter Airlines, Inc., in action; and, within the past few months has put his air operation solidly in the black, the only helicopter line in the U.S. not subsidized by the Federal Government, ferrying nearly 500 passengers daily on his Golden Gate circuit from International Airport to downtown Frisco, Berkeley, Oakland, Oakland Airport and Sunnyvale, Calif.

A native of Estherville, Iowa, Mike Bagan worked summers in his father's men's clothing store on vacation from high school and Notre Dame. He was active in the Glee Club, Law Club and Commerce Forum while taking a Ph.B. in accounting and following it up with a degree (cum laude) from the Law School. During World War II he served more than three years in the Navy's amphibious forces (Admiral's staff), emerging in late 1945 as a lieutenant. Mike returned to practice law in Chicago and Mason City, Iowa, specializing in tax cases and serving briefly as an Internal Revenue agent with the U.S. Treasury Dept. In 1951 he became director of research for Texas' Central Airlines, doubling as legal counsel and top economic expert. From Central he went to Washington, first as trial attorney for the Bureau of Air Operations, then for six years as legal counsel and executive assistant to Col. Harmer Denny of the Civil Aeronautics Board. After the CAB he served a tough apprenticeship in helicopter pioneering as assistant to the president of Los Angeles Airways, Inc., where the multiplicity of transfer points made paying routes difficult to set up.

Mike surveyed San Francisco and saw the magnificent possibilities of the Bay Area for limited transfer points and "chopper" routes 99 per cent over water. But his big achievement was raising a quick million to finance his vision in that city of third-generation millionaires, scarce in risk capital. He set up offices in a refurbished Pan American hangar at San Francisco International; invested in a fleet of three sturdy 10-passenger Sikorsky S-62 turbocopters (safer and more powerful than piston-engine craft, they are the first turbine-powered commercial craft in U.S. airline use); and started his string of tidy heliports, conveniently located miniature terminals.

Dynamic and visionary, Mike promoted SFO with a vengeance — transfer agreements with all major and trunk airlines, posters, folders, children's excursions, sight-seeing tours, and some famous passengers — gubernatorial candidates Pat Brown and Richard Nixon, Rosary crusader Father Pat Peyton, etc. He plans to increase his nearly 90 daily flights and expand to San Jose, Marin and Contra Costa counties, covering a 100-mile radius in the next year or two. After a year and a half of operation, he already dreams of 100,000-passenger-a-day commuter service with 20 hundred-passenger "whirlybirds."

Mike's wife is the former Mardianne Benedict (St. Mary's '42). They live in Piedmont, Calif., with eight children: Carol, 17; Mardianne, 15; Patrick, 13; Joseph, 11; Mary Jane, 7; Michele, 6; Noel, 5, and year-old James. Mike's brother-in-law is L. D. Benedict, N.D. '39, and his brother Earl was graduated in '41.

JOHN MORRISON, who is with Republic Aviation. . . . During the summer HARRY YEATES dropped in for a week end and we heard all about his work with Geyer-MacAllister Publications in N. Y. C. And a further reminder to please take time and write a few lines for the column.

MICHAEL KIELY last spring reported for work as the new superintendent of parks and recreation for San Bruno, Calif.

Noted in these pages for leading a vigorous campaign of public education on constructive measures to counter the Communist threat, Lt. Commander FRANK VIGNOLA was the subject of several recent news stories for another extracurricular interest, modes of survival under enemy attack. The Chicago area furniture dealer and Navy Reserve pilot got a lot of space in the Chicago press for his summer activities. To quote one Chicago Trib story: "Hidden in the murky Florida swamps was FRANCIS J. VIGNOLA of Melrose Park, without food or water and hunted by army military police. It was the job of Vignola and 24 other naval officers to live off the land and to avoid capture by aggressors in a mock skirmish called 'Operation Alligator' in Florida's Ocala National Forest. Clad only in flight suits, they traveled by night through the marshes with the help of guerrilla forces and paratroopers, who were dropped into the forest. 'They didn't catch us,' said Vignola, home after his rugged week in the wilderness. He now will teach survival and evasion methods to other pilots. 'We ate herbs, roots and foliage,' he explained. 'And I learned that turtle meat tastes delicious — just like veal.' Nevertheless, Vignola arrived back in Melrose Park 13 pounds lighter."

THEODORE T. TOOLE, JR., has been elected president and chief executive officer of Singer-Fidelity, Inc., a leading producer of knitting machinery for the hosiery industry. Ted has been a vice-president of Singer-Fidelity since last spring and was formerly with Burlington Hosiery Co., Acclaim Hosiery Co., and the Hemphill Co., a manufacturer of hosiery knitting machines. A native of Columbus, O., Ted now makes his home in Wilton, Conn. His company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Singer Mfg. Co.

LT. CDR. FRANK VIGNOLA, '44, (left) learns how to turn a gopher turtle into a jungle meal as part of "Operation Alligator," a month-long Army-Navy survival-escape-evasion exercise in which reservists parachuted into Florida's Ocala National Forest and lived off the land while "escaping" through 80 miles of "enemy-held" territory. Frank teaches survival as a "week-end warrior" at Glenview Naval Air Station near Chicago.

Former Class Secretary AL LESMEZ has retired as president of the Notre Dame Club of New York. Quoting from the Club's Newsletter: "Al moved the Club hard and true. The Trust Fund is on a firmer basis; we have a practical and attractive Club Directory, and membership reached a record. Thank you, Al, for all the hours of labor and effort you generously gave to Notre Dame here in New York."

We of the Class of '45, having had the benefit of Al's leadership for ten years, pass on our congratulations for another job well done. What's next — retirement or the Alumni Board?

Another former Class officer and a former president of the New York Club, JIM CLYNES, is busying himself as Democratic County Chairman of Tompkins (N.Y.) County.

Congratulations to DR. TOM BERGIN, Jesse H. Jones professor of business administration at N.D., on his being appointed a consultant of the Office of Planning and Research of the newly formed Area Redevelopment Administration in the U.S. Dept. of Commerce.

BILL GRAFE reports in that they (the Grafes) have moved into a larger house, to satisfy the space needs for a family with four children. Bill relocated in an area that is more convenient to business.

HANK PAYNE moved across town, also to Hinsdale. No addition — just a new home.

BOB SNEE has been promoted to sales and merchandise manager of the six J. C. Penney stores in the Washington, D.C., area. He had been manager of the Pontiac, Mich., store. Bob, Barbara and the seven children are living in Silver Spring, Md., and would like to hear from the N.D. men in the area.

HARRY WALTERS, former assistant D.A. of Bronx (N.Y.) County, has moved to Bronxville, in Westchester. JACK FALLET and wife Mary Kay announce the arrival of a daughter in April after three boys. Jack has been in New Orleans with Owens-Illinois.

Early this summer I had the opportunity while on a trip to Boston to stop off and see our president, JIM RETTER. Had a nice visit with Jim and his wife Flo in Needham Heights. The prez is anxious that we start planning for our 20th — yes, 20 — to be held in '65. We are most anxious to have a real good reunion — so if you have any comments, suggestions, ideas — pass them along.

Also in the same line — JIM DONNELLY is still collecting dues from our Class members. Had a chance to talk to Jim while I was in New York for the Class Secretaries and Club Presidents meeting last May.

To all '45ers and their families — A Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year. How about resolving to write to the Class Secretary in '65.

From the Alumni Office:

Congratulations to RICHARD L. WHITING of Red Run, Mich., on a recent golfing achievement. With his former N.D. golf team captain BILL WILSON, '43, Dick won the Port Huron, Mich., Golf Club's Round-Up Invitational Palmer Flight title. Dick and Bill first played together in Port Huron as children, and both were Michigan golf champs in their teens. Dick Whiting won his first trophy, the Peck Handicap, at the Port Huron State Junior Championship in the Thirties, followed by the Junior District Medal Play championship. He was club champion at Red Run twice and once won the Detroit District championship.

In the September Catholic Digest, an article entitled "Christ's Plain-Clothes Men" described the activities of a group first called "The Family" which became the first all-male Secular Institute in North America, the Secular Institute of St. Pius X. Much of the article describes the work of one member, DR. A. BROCK LYNCH of Winchester, Mass. Brock, a surgeon and product of Yale Medical School, was an Air Force chief of surgery. Now, having taken the full vows of the Institute, he is devoting his life and vocation to bringing Christ into the market place.

ROBERT E. RIORDAN, export manager for Mishawaka's Wheelabrator Corp. since 1955, is now director of the firm's European operations, supervising the company's expanding activities in the European Common Market. In September Bob located in Switzerland with his family. Coordinating the Mishawaka operation with Wheelabrator interests in Switzerland, Germany, the United Kingdom and France (like Wheelabrator-Allevard in Le Chleyas), Bob will be on the continent from three to five years. The firm won an "E-for-Export" Dept. of Commerce award last spring from President Kennedy, mostly through the efforts of Bob's department. A native of Solomon, Kansas, Bob served after graduation as vice-consul in Luanda, Angola, Portuguese West Africa, and at the American Embassy in Wellington, New Zealand. He did grad work at the U. of Michigan in international economics and taught foreign trade at N.D. before rejoining the diplomatic service in 1953 for two years at Recife, Brazil. A member of several international trade organizations as well as Mishawaka's Rotary and K. of C., he is married to the former Angela Malloy of Evanston, Ill. The Riordans have five children: Mary, 10; Timothy, 9; Sheila, 8; William, 6; and an infant, Patrick.

Air Force Lt. Col. ELMER F. GILLESPIE was recently selected for a nine-month special graduate course in military medicine at The Walter Reed Institute of Research in Washington, D.C. Elmer is living in Silver Spring, Md., with wife Louise.

FRANK R. BEAUDINE is now vice-president for operations with W. P. Fuller & Co., a paint and glass firm with headquarters in Fullerton, Calif. Frank, a Navy retiree from the Class of '47, has served with U.S. Rubber, McKinsey & Co., Montgomery Ward, and most recently as corporate manager of manufacturing at Indiana General Corp., Valparaiso, Ind. Frank, wife Martha and four children live in Brea, Calif.

MOST REV. MARK G. McGRATH, C.S.C., '44, (right) Auxiliary Bishop of Panama, received Our Lady of Guadalupe Medal, awarded by St. John's University for outstanding work in Pan-American relations, from Very Rev. Edward Burke, C.M. (left), president of St. John's and Most Rev. John J. Old Greenwich, Conn.

Received word that a new baby girl just arrived at the TOM BURNS home. Tom is an insurance executive and lives with his lovely wife Joanne and their two other children, Terence Lee and Margaret Anne, at 609 W. Plains, Clovis, New Mexico.

Would sure appreciate hearing from more members of the class of '46.

From the Alumni Office:

The Class had at least a brushing acquaintance with one of the U.S. astronauts, Air Force Maj. NEIL R. GARLAND, a transfer student in 1945-46 who finally wound up ten years later with a degree from the U. of Colorado under Air Force auspices. With the Class depleted as it is, Secretary PETE RICHISKI may wish to hunt Neil down as at least an honorary member.

THE (RE)TURN OF THE SCREW(BALL)

After a rather unplanned, but necessary, hospital hiatus and consequent recuperative period, your Secretary is back at the business of assembling those few-and-far-between items laughingly referred to in the trade as class notes.

Our eminent editor, Brother JOHN LAUGHLIN (flectamus genua), chooses to characterize this effort as a pastiche; I have always regarded it as more of a pistachio . . . a frothy offering scattered through with choice nuts.

AH YES, THE REUNION . . .

Only the choicest nuts showed for the reunion . . . 30 in all. That is a nice round figure, and some of our lads did indeed display nice round figures, but hardly a quorum. We who were there had a fine time — I believe there is general accord on that point — but disappointment was evident at the nonappearance of several who were expected or at least anticipated.

Only one class on the campus turned out fewer than we did . . . 1912. And since some of those revered gentlemen looked in exemplary shape, we abandoned all thoughts of challenging them to a late night pillow fight.

RALPH MORTENSON helped save what remains of our prestige, claiming golf trophies for a pair of 74's and a 284-yard drive, and TOM MCGUIRE (from Rio de Janeiro) and LUIS BELTRANENA (returning to Guatemala off a European tour with his lovely wife) gave us some distance distinction.

THE MISSING DELINCKE

Although his post-polio condition prevented his being with us in June, PHIL DELINCKE was there in spirit in the presence of the "fractured quacker" mascot he helped name: "ThorNDuck." The Committee thought the name particularly appropriate . . . the N.D. in the middle of it . . . the reference to the blackthorn the duck carries . . . the very snappiness of the name.

So we awarded Phil a twofold prize: A gold-and-black mug with his name and class year inscribed in gold and an autographed copy of RICHARD SULLIVAN'S "Notre Dame." From West Collingswood, N. J., a delighted Delincke wrote to express his feelings:

" . . . Thank you for your card announcing my winning the 'Fractured Duck' naming contest. I have received my mug and am very proud of it. I have it on display on the book shelves above my desk. Everyone thinks it is terrific! The book you mentioned, however, has not arrived as yet. I presume the author has been absent from the campus. (Ed. note: The book is on its way, finally, suitably Sullivanized.)

"Anyhow, I was so thrilled to learn that I had won the contest. I actually forget that a prize was to be awarded. Believe me, I sure do appreciate it and shall remember the 15th every time I look at it. Man, that's a Notre Dame-sized schooner!"

" . . . Was sorry to learn that the reunion turnout fell so far short of the effort you put forth to bring out the class. It's a darn shame but, as the old Irish washwoman used to say, 'If they don't come, the door won't hit them in the backside when they leave.'

"From the pictures I see, I guess I'd need a guide to get around the campus these days. There certainly has been a world of progress there! I sometimes wonder if the students of today have the same deep-rooted love for the wonderful acres surrounding the Golden Dome. You're close to the scene—do you think that the Notre Dame spirit is as high today as in the past? . . ."

The jury's still out on that last one. Offhand, I'd say probably yes, though in a somewhat more sophisticated manner.

GLEANINGS

SAM ADELO, on his way to touchdowns in Italy, Spain, Kuwait, and Ireland, visited your scribe in the hospital, and was kind enough to drop in again at home during a brief stopover in South Bend on the way back home from the junket. Sam reveals that Erin has great natural gas resources. Shucks, anyone who has ever known an "Ould Sod" Irishman could have told him that! Right?

BILL TRACY, a 15-year veteran of the FBI, has been named security director for Revlon, Inc.; he handles security matters for the firm and its subsidiaries, operating out of Edison, N. J.

BROTHER ELWIN BORES, C.S.C., asking for JOHN GLAAB'S new address, reveals he spent the summer at Portland U. studying and now is dean of men, teacher, cafeteria manager, etc., at St. Francis High School in Mountain View, Calif.

One of our reunion buddies, ED SWEENEY, who recently organized a new casualty facultative facility for the Munich Reinsurance Co.'s United States branch, has been appointed vice-president in charge of facultative departments in Atlanta and Chicago, as well as New York.

The "Pakistan Letter" published by the Holy Cross Mission Society reveals BROTHER THOMAS MORE BEERE, C.S.C., is running a hostel for boys at Nagari, Pakistan.

And, also from Pakistan, BROTHER IVAN DOLAN, C.S.C., writes: "School reopened July 10. The classrooms are filling up slowly . . . the same for our hostel. At present I have about 215 boys and girls in the high school and an equal number in the primary. It will take another month for all of the kids to get here. Many of them are without rice and money at this time of year . . . The school year used to start in January; a couple of years ago they decided to change it to July. . . It was a big mistake. Seventy-five to 80 per cent of the people over here are farmers; they depend on their rice crops for cash with which to finance

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

WILLIAM J. JANN, '47
In Sales & Adv., He Gives Till It Hertz

Since last spring William Jann has been serving as director of sales and advertising of Hertz Rent A Car. Appointed to the job last May, Bill continues as an assistant vice-president of The Hertz Corporation and previously had served as Hertz Rent A Car sales manager.

Bill Jann's expanded responsibilities in the newly created post include the administration of both sales and advertising functions. Hertz' sales activities extend into almost 900 U.S. cities in which facilities are established. Hertz' broad-scope national advertising program encompasses a wide variety of media, including national network television, newspapers, trade and consumer magazines.

A native of Chicago, Bill joined Hertz in 1949 in a sales capacity. In 1951 he was named assistant general manager and advertising manager of Hertz System, Inc. He was appointed assistant to the executive vice-president in 1955 and retained that post until 1959 when he was promoted to Rent A Car sales manager.

Bill served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He received a B.S. degree from the University in business administration. He is a member of the Sales Executive Club of New York, American Society of Travel Agents and American Association of Airport Executives.

In 1951 he married Jo Anne Walther of Chicago, an alumna of Chicago Teachers College. With their two children, Mary Gayle and William, they live at 26 Valleyview Ave., Rye, N.Y.

their kids' educations; they are completely out of money and rice in the month of July each year. . . In your next letter I will hear all about the reunion. I do hope that the free beer attracted more than a mere 25. Had I but known about the free beer, I might have made more of an effort to be present!"

We've had trouble locating FRANK MCGINTY lately, and FRANK GILHOOLEY advised us he believes Mac is with the FBI in Anchorage, Alaska. We'll check it out and let you know.

Finally, our sympathy to BILL WISHING on the death in South Bend this past summer of his brother, JOHN M. WISHING, who—John's widow, Edie, informs us—belonged in the '41 or '42 class. Bill is with the pharmaceutical house of Smith, Kline, and French in Falls Church, Va.

TREASUREQUEST

In closing, we pass along word from Treasurer JOE SHARP that we came through the reunion with $53 in the coffers. We could use a more substantial buffer against possible Requiems in the next five years.

From the Alumni Office:

Arthur Andersen & Company's beautiful quarterly "Chronicle" recently included a multiple-page feature article on the University, the College of Business Administration and the department of accountancy which has supplied 27 members of the worldwide Andersen accounting organization. Leading the 27 N.D. men is partner GERALD E. STANTON, for whom the Class has to struggle with Gerry's original Class of 1944. Another '47 partner was FRANK B. O'BRIEN, who resigned last year to become president of the Seeburg Corporation. P. J. SMALDONE is one of the 16 N.D. men on the employment rolls of the Babcock & Wilcox Company. V. S. COLLETTI has been named area foreman in the gas and heavy chemical department of Gulf Oil Corp., Port Arthur, Tex. A Port Arthur native, he joined Gulf right after graduation in chemical engineering and was previously operations foreman. He's married and has four children. Former Detroit DONALD M. FISHER is now president of Ask Mr. Foster Travel Service in New York City. Don retains the post of treasurer, which he has held since 1957 as part of a team buying control of the firm, which has 39 branch offices in the U.S. and Canada.

From the Alumni Office:

We were hoping for some late bulletins on the political fate of GEORGE A. SULLIVAN as a Massachusetts State Senator. The former football flash, now father of nine, was in serious trouble going into the State primaries after his freshman term, in which he voted his conscience rather than the Democratic party line, endearing himself to some voluble supporters in the press but winning the disfavor of such strong pressure groups as the K. of C. and veterans' organizations. We hope the Pilgrim State has not lost a legislator whom the Senate floor leader characterized as a "man of spotless integrity who is willing to stand up on his own two feet and fight for what he thinks is right."

Mrs. Agnes Dooley, mother of the immortal DR. TOM DOOLEY, has revealed for the first time in her recently published biography of her son that he was once held captive by Communist forces in Vietnam. It happened in May, 1955, during the evacuation, as described by Tom in a letter to his mother: "I was held in a building right in the town. . . The only harm that came to me was that I was just scared to death. All the time I was given food and water, of sorts. No head facilities, and no place to go. My clothes were taken away. This humiliation plus the mess (my own) that I was forced to stand, sit, and sleep in was all I had to take. Questioning, yes, a good deal of it, in a fashion that has been well publicized. But I was never touched. 'Sir, do you own an automobile? And is it not true that this car cost the equivalent of many people's salary?' This was the type of questioning. . . The full particulars of what happened during this time are not going to be told to anyone for some time. The American Commodore, not having my walkie-talkie radio check for five days, came ashore himself and went to the International Control Commission. My friends, the Poles, did some intervening and my brief 'detention' came to an end." The book, "Promises to Keep," published by Farrar, Straus and Cudahy Nov. 26, contains Tom's hitherto unpublished letters and family pictures and would be a good item for your Christmas shopping list.

From the Alumni Office:

Since graduation LEONARD DANTE has: received an M.A. from the College of Education, State University of New York, Albany, in June 1959; married Mary Gilbert at Assumption Church, Peekskill, in June, 1960; become a teacher of English at Pawling Central School, Pawling, N. Y., and president of the Pawling Teachers Assn. for the school year 1962-63." From Wheeler AFB, Hawaii, comes word that Maj. FRANCIS D. MILEY has assumed the position of chief of the base wire and facilities branch at Headquarters, Pacific Communications Area. He was previously attached to Robins AFB, Ga. Frank and his wife (the former Marcia Gilsdorf of Guide Rock, Neb.) have six children.

GERARD C. SPECHT, former president and director of Industry Capital Corp., Chicago, has been elected executive vice-president of American Industrial Leasing Co., also in Chicago, with branches in New York, Los Angeles, and Houston, Tex., and account executives in 65 metropolitan areas. American Industrial leases equipment to firms all over the country with an annual volume over $30 million. JERRY SPAHN of Westchester, Ill., got his C.L.U. charter from the American College of Life Underwriters in September. Jerry went into insurance at graduation, took an underwriting course and studied insurance marketing at Purdue. He has produced at least a policy a week since joining John Hancock in 1951. He's an officer and director of the Hillside Rotary Club and a member of Westchester's Divine Infant Parish.

WILLIAM J. DUGGAN has been promoted to vice-president of the Coates Board and Carton Co., a division of Coates Bros. Co., Inc., in Garfield, N. J. Bill joined the sales staff a year ago and was sales manager. He and his family live in Demarest, N. J. RAY FITZGERALD, sports writer for the Springfield (Mass.) Union, recently won an award for outstanding sports coverage in Western Massachusetts, taking the first trophy of an honor to be awarded annually by a local tournament. L. J. Coral Gables' (Fla.) JOHN W. THORNTON, while toiling as secretary of the Miami N.D. Club, reminded us that the office has been deficient in reporting the status of FATHER DAN CLARKE, having listed him as a layman in Des Moines, Iowa, in the last roster in 1960. John enclosed a clipping from the Des Moines diocese "Messenger" which reported: "FATHER DANIEL J. CLARKE, appointed . . . to the pastorate of Irish Settlement, was named editor and business manager of the "Messenger" by Bishop Edward C. Daley, O.P., Des Moines, effective Oct. 1. . . . The new editor recently returned from Denver, where he spent six weeks familiarizing himself with . . . the newspaper plant. . . . Father Clarke, a native of Newton . . . attended St. Augustin's Parochial school, Dowling High school, and the University of Notre Dame before entering philosophical and theological studies at the St. Paul seminary.

"Following his ordination here in 1954, Father Clarke pursued postgraduate studies at the Mexico City college, Mexico City, D.F., Mexico. He was appointed assistant pastor at Visitation church in Des Moines on his return and has been active in the apostolate among the Spanish-speaking, especially at Guadalupe chapel, a mission of Visitation church. During the seven years before being appointed pastor of Irish Settlement, Father Clarke was an instructor in Spanish at Dowling High school. He is a veteran of World War II service with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific."

GEORGE C. DICKSON, former assistant coach with TERRY BRENNAN, '49, was appointed an assistant to Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson. ## SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

A. A. SOMMER, JR., '48
Cleveland Counselor, Very Much Alive

In the roster recently prepared for the 15th anniversary reunion of the Class of 1948 next June, 10 men whose names began with "S" were listed in the section headed "Deceased." Al Sommer's class card had been shifted out of place, along with those of Joe Sobek, Jim Sommer, John Sosenheimer, Al Spahn, Tom Sparks, John Spellman, Frank Spiegel, Joe Spinelli and Ray Srsic.

According to word from his fans in Cleveland, Al Sommer is very much alive — "an outstanding family man who is highly devoted to his professional ideals."

Al matriculated at Notre Dame in 1941, but Army service during World War II interrupted his studies for a few years. Returning, he was graduated in late summer with an A.B. in political science (magna cum laude). Drawn to philosophy and law, he went to Harvard Law School for his LL.B.

In 1951 Al married Storror Cassin of San Antonio, Tex., whom he had met three months before graduation (his from Harvard, hers from Wellesley). He hailed from Detroit and Chicago, she from Texas, and they had met in Boston, so they settled in Cleveland where neither had any roots. Al joined the law firm of Calfee, Fogg, McChord & Halter and has been a partner since 1958. Meanwhile, the Sommers have had three children: Susan, now 8; Edward, 5; and Nancy, 3.

Formerly vice-president and trustee of the Serra Club of Cleveland (see "Spotlight" on Serra Chief Fred Wagner, '24), Al is an indefatigable speaker on vocations to the priesthood. Presently he's vice-president and a director of the Citizens League, member of the Cleveland Advertising Club's legislative committee and the Welfare Federation Children's Council, trustee of Marycrest School (Catholic high school for troubled girls) and formerly of the Cleveland Junior Chamber of Commerce. Among his legal of the Pacific. Since August JAMES J. GROVES has been executive vice-president of Edgar Corporation, manufacturer of mouldings, stampings and metal specialties in Ferndale, Mich. South Bend attorney ARTHUR W. GOULET has joined the firm of Schindler, VanTilbury & Kramer in Mishawaka, Ind., for the general practice of law. Art, a native of the Panama Canal Zone and a '51 Law School grad, has been admitted to practice before the Indiana Supreme Court and Federal District Courts, is a member of the Indiana State and St. Joseph County Bar Assns. He's married and the father of five.

FRANCIS J. FITZGERALD of St. Louis has been promoted to director of product sales in the marketing department of Monsanto Chemical Company's inorganic chemicals division, St. Louis, after serving as product manager for surfactants. PETER TOMASHEK has been selected for a full-time scholarship leading to a master's degree in a graduate school of social work. The scholarship includes full tuition, books, incidentals, travel and a monthly stipend, plus summer employment. The award was made by the Cook County, Ill., Department of Public Aid, whose chief recruiter said that "Mr. Tomashek's performance is best described as 'outstanding.'" R. J. SULLIVAN is on a list of 16 N.D. men with the Babcock & Wilcox Co.

From the Alumni Office:

JOSEPH P. GALLOWAY, who got his M.S. in chem engineering in '52, has caused quite a ripple in Binghamton, N. Y. Joe, a senior production engineer at Anso (photo-repro division of General Aniline and Film Corp.), recently received an award of merit and a certificate of proficiency for his outstanding technical paper, "Optimum utilization of Power Truck Equipment with a Planned Preventive Maintenance Program." The paper, submitted in the Ninth Annual Award Contest sponsored by the Clark Equipment Co. and conducted by the American Material Handling Society, placed among the top ten in the nation and rated printing in Factory Magazine. For the past few years Joe has been a one-man team as president of the Triple Cities N.D. Club.

JERRY GROOM got a nice cartoon biography treatment in the Peoria, Ill., "Journal Star." Now a Peoria resident, Jerry was an all-star letterman at Dowling High, Des Moines, before his N.D. career as an All-American center-linebacker, captain of the East and All-Star squads in '51 grid classics, All-Pro and Pro-Bowl honors in '55. ERNIE ZALEJSKY, the South Bend flash, hosted St. Joseph High School football coach WALLY MOORE, '50, at a recent smoker of the St. Joseph Young Men's Society, of which Ernie is president. Wally's St. Joseph team, incidentally, was the class of the county, beating all but powerful Washington High during the season. RICHARD B. FETTERS has been appointed assistant swimming coach at Michigan State. Dick got an M.S. from Indiana U. in 1954, has taught and coached at Kimball High (Royal Oak, Mich.), Fort Lauderdale (Fla.) High, and Kiley High (South Bend), where he was also athletic director.

DENNIS J. O'NEILL, JR., should be assisting Mayor Wagner as Prime Minister of New York. Denny recently moved to a fairly unusual address — 10 Downing St. And RICHARD J. DeBartolo Companies. The DeBartolo companies, headed by ED DeBARTOLO, '34, are headquartered in Youngstown, O., providing "package" development, promotion and management of shopping centers, industrial parks, commercial buildings, urban redevelopment programs and thoroughbred racing parks. The Florida office is in DeBartolo's mall-type shopping center in Melbourne, 25 miles south of Cape Canaveral. The companies have contracted to provide shopping centers, industrial parks and port facilities in the huge Florida residential projects of Port Malabar, Port St. Lucie and Port Charlotte. Jim Garvin joined the Lincoln Chamber in June, 1960, and has been secretary of the Industrial Development Corporation, manager of the Industrial Park, manager of state industrial development campaign and staff assistant to several committees. Formerly he was assistant city manager, public information and industrial promotion director in Toledo, O. Jim is a lawyer with an additional degree from Toledo U., a member of the American, Nebraska and Ohio Bar Assns., is married and has three children.

DR. GEORGE M. HALEY, a South Bend native and son of Notre Dame's J. ARTHUR HALEY, '26, is back in town practicing urology in the Sherland Bldg. George got his M.D. at the Stritch School of Medicine, Loyola U., Chicago, and interned at Mercy Hospital, Buffalo, N. Y., before entering military service for duty at Brook Army Hospital, San Antonio, Tex., and in Panama. He then trained in a four-year urologic program at Georgetown U. Hospital, Washington, D. C., before returning for practice. R. E. DOLMETSCH has been transferred by U.S. Gypsum from operative builder sales in Chicago and appointed area product manager for plastering materials. J. E. Pollock is one of 1962 Damers with the Babcock & Wilcox Company.

RICHARD A. DeGRAFF has been appointed associate director of development at DePaul University, Chicago. Dick served for two years as assistant to the president of Tri-State College, Angola, Ind. He has an M.S. and doctorate in drawings by DAVID HAYES, held alternately at the O'Shaughnessy and I.U. galleries. Dave and family are still in Paris, where he is still studying the Romanesque style on a tandem Fulbright-Guggenheim fellowship. Says Dave: "We have grown so acclimated to life here in France that the question now is, not how soon shall we return home, but how much longer we shall stay. It looks like an exhibition here in Paris before Christmas, but shall know more definitely later."

Congratulations to the Honorable JOSEPH M. McDADE, elected Republican Congressman from the Tenth District of Pennsylvania. Joe's election was first trumpeted long-distance by Scranton Democrat BILL COMERFORD, '49, in a nice gesture of alumni fellowship. Maybe it's due to the fact that Scranton's namesake, a Republican, is now governor. JOHN T. McHALE was recently transferred to the Wilkes Barre, Pa., offices of Haskins & Sells, Certified Public Accountants, 806 First National Bank Bldg.

ROGER O. ZOELLNER has joined the Trane Company's Columbus, O., office as an engineer specialist for the air conditioning-heating firm. Roger was graduated from the Trane student engineer training program in 1956. DONALD J. REYNOLDS received an M.S. in management at Rensselaer Poly to supplement his EE degree at N.D. JAMES C. NOONAN, superintendent of Woodview Detention Home in St. Paul, Minn., has already reserved for the 10th anniversary reunion. DAVID A. LAUERMAN (M.A. '58) has been appointed assistant professor of English at Canisius College. Dave is working toward his doctorate at Indiana U., has taught at N.D., I.U. and Northern Illinois University.

REV. MICHAEL McKINSTR (William Michael, that is) was ordained to the priesthood last May 19 by BISHOP LORAS LANE, '32, of the Rockford, Ill., diocese at St. Mary's Church, Freeport, Ill. Son of the late John and Mrs. Mary McKinstr of Freeport, Father Mike said his First Mass at noon, May 20, at St. Mary's. He spent two years in the Army after graduation, then went to St. Meinrad's Seminary, Ind. He's on general assignment in the Rockford diocese. THOMAS E. FOOTE, as we may have mentioned before, has joined the staff of Ford Motor Company's public relations office in San Francisco. Tom, previously an account executive with Los Angeles' Theodore R. Sils & Co., was a staffer on the Salina, Kans., Journal and public relations director for Marymount College.

News on Grad School members of the Class: DR. FRANCIS P. BALDWIN is now a senior research associate at Esso Research and Engineering Co., headquartered in Linden, N. J. Our Second Annual Reunion Party was a success despite the fact that Purdue won the game. With undaunted spirit we undertook the task of cleaning up those martinis and manhattans about as fast as the two bartenders could pour them. Although it seems impossible, we will try to pick out a winning game for next year's party. Yes! I said annual! You see, between last deadline and this one, I received exactly one letter from which to write this article and had our reunion party been one week later, my whole article would have been, as threatened, about my son Bobby!

DICK PILGER again deserves the credit for the good time had by one and all. We can't thank him enough, and he's a glutton for punishment willing to manage the details again in '63. Jane and JIM BERNHART arrived early. Jane is expecting their second child very soon and Jim reports that he is being transferred back to Chicago, with Motorola. "Ro Ro" and BOB PODEN were there and we all missed the Cincinnati crowd who couldn't make it this year. The Podens are also expecting again. TOM SHORT stopped in for a quick one. He was on his way to Los Angeles toward a career with North American Aviation. As usual, Karen and BILL MORLEY and Pat and BILL REYNOLDS were among the group. Also, from Chicago, JOE MCGINN and J. D. MADIGAN made special guest appearances. DICK DEMONTE, Auburn, N. Y., carried a special message from Pat and FRANK RAITH who tried but couldn't make the scene.

Had a long talk with JOE MESEC and if you're in Milwaukee and happen to see a bicycle-built-for-four pass by, feel free to take pictures and ask for autographs—the Mesecks are very obliging. Joe raises guinea pigs and works for Allis Chambers on the side. TOM MORPHEY had withdrawn his request that BERRY REECE be barred from future parties in light of the socially acceptable manners he exhibited this time. JAKE NOONAN even left his scissors home.

Ruth and GEORGE PFLAUM, along with GENE HOWLEY and JOE JOYCE, were also there. Had a report that PAT CARRICO is buying up Colorado and hopes to build a lodge soon. Let us know Pat and we'll all be out to freeload a little. Pat is with the Denver Post (I think). Judy Ettlebrick demonstrated the true N.D. spirit while she sat through the game in the Morris Inn while husband BOB ETTLEBRICK, who could come up with only one ticket, watched from the end zone. Actually, Judy made out better than most of us who had to watch the game. TOM GODFREY with his bride was also at the party; at last year's party they were just dating. Last year I reported that JIM HAMLIN was fat—he still is, but looks good though. Also looking good were BILL DALY, CHARLIE ALLEN, DAN MUNSON, WALT DUSCHKA, TIM O'HARA, DAVE KEFFLER, DAN MOTZ, and TOM HALEY. WALT WAGNER was bragging a little about his new baby boy, heir to all of Louisville, and DAN MUNSON is willing to concede victory in the offspring derby. BILL MEYER, ED BROWN and LEN WELCH also helped consume the goodies. My old roommate PETE SCHWENK flew in for the party after taking in the Boat Show in Chicago. He has three girls, and wife JeanAnn is expecting her fourth. I drove to the game with ED "NED" SEIM and his wife Sheila. They are living in Crawfordsville, Ind., but are moving back to Wausau, Wis., after January. Oh! By the way, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Elaine and JACK PITTAS were also at the party, after spending the previous

JOHN T. ELSON, '53
Ecumenical Council, the TIME of his LIFE

The exciting deliberations of the 21st Ecumenical (and Second Vatican) Council are particularly exciting for John Elson, religion editor of Time magazine. Covering the Council for Time and Life are not his first thrilling assignments, however, as a recent Time blurb will testify: "... to cover a story as old as Easter, Time's Religion Editor John T. Elson flew to Basel, Switzerland, to talk to the man on this week's cover, Theologian Karl Barth. They talked, among other things, of Calvin, Mozart and Reinhold Niebuhr ('a great man, but if only he had an inner ear, through which he could hear what Mozart is saying, he wouldn't be so serious all the time'). Barth cheerfully remarked that a Barthian usually smokes a pipe; an orthodox theologian, cigars; and liberals, cigarettes. He offered Religion Editor Elson—a cigar." The Elson orthodoxy also has produced a brilliant pre-Council story on Pope John.

Only 31, John has had a full journalistic career for a non-journalism grad. He went to St. Anselm's Priory School in Washington, D.C., before majoring in English for his A.B. at Notre Dame (magna cum laude) and took an M.A. on a Woodrow Wilson fellowship at Columbia, writing his thesis on novelist Graham Greene. He worked briefly as a staff writer for The Canadian Press in their New York bureau, then put in two years' Air Force duty in Japan. After another stint with Canadian, he joined Time as a correspondent in the Detroit bureau. He spent about 14 months in Detroit before returning to New York as a contributing editor. Last year he was promoted to associate editor, and in December he was given the Religion section.

Since joining the home office staff, John has written Time's "People" section, then covered Canada, then National Affairs (now "The Nation") before his Religion assignment. He has written six cover stories for the magazine: a "Show Biz" piece on television's Robert Kintner; three National Affairs treatments, Barry Goldwater, JFK in Europe, and Douglas Dillon; and the Religion stories on Karl Barth and Pope John XXIII. By-lined by Life magazine for a recent story on art treasures of the Vatican, he is currently on special assignment to Life for a piece on the state of the Catholic Church around the world.

The Elsons threaten to become a Time dynasty. Eight years ago John married Rosemary Knorr, then a Time copyreader. His father, Robert T. Elson, is chief of Time's London Bureau.

Saturday watching the TV game with Marie and me in Decatur. Actually we really didn't want to see them, but it was the only way we could get our coats which we left in Arlington Heights after a session in July. It's true. Jack does have a hollow leg.

Had a very enjoyable lunch the other day at "JOHN LATNER's Steak House" across from St. Peter's in downtown Chicago. Seeing John again brought back memories of when Notre Dame used to win every now and then. John sees BOB RIGALI occasionally and mentioned that his fat friend from Toledo is coaching a pretty fair Ohio powerhouse this year. (Right, TOM McHUGH?)

The one letter I received was from bachelor GEORGE O'CONNELL, 815 Greenwich St., New York 14, N. Y. George is with Bell Telephone Laboratories in a power development group. He reports seeing ED HOGAN, TOM RYDER and ED FITZPATRICK at some of the N. Y. N.D. Club functions. To answer your question, George, I don't swim with my clothes on any more. ("Greek" — George says hello.)

It was also reported that JOHN MURNANE won the men's championship at the St. Charles Country Club Golf Tourney. He's a repeat winner, having won in 1960 also. If any of you would like copies of the party pictures shown in this issue, just write. Even if you don't want pictures, write. For instance, how about a letter from: TIM SOTTEK, JOHN MALFA, MARTY MOORE, ANDY CORRAO, GREG SULLIVAN, TOM SENSE, MARK McCABE, CHARLIE HANLEY, JIM BUCKENMYER, BILL TILL and JIM McHUGH. Huh??

From the Alumni Office:

CHARLES YATES HAFNER started the past semester as instructor in literature at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, O. A teaching assistant at Stanford last year, he expects to get his Ph.D. in English and the humanities in 1963 on University Honors fellowships. He was a cum laude in English at N.D. DICK ROSENTHAL, president of South Bend's St. Joseph Bank, was a report meeting m.c. for the local Crusade of Hope (United Fund) campaign. An alumnus of the Fort Wayne U.F., the Pistons basketball team and Indiana Bank & Trust Co., Dick came to South Bend last spring and was a chairman of the Big Firms division for the U.F. campaign. DANA P. WEITHERS, president of the C. C. Chapelle Co., Chicago marketing research and consulting firm, has been honored by a change of the company's name to The Dane Weithers Corporation. Dana joined Chapelle in 1956 as research director and became president in 1958. With an M.B.A. in marketing from DePaul, he is a lecturer in marketing at the school's College of Commerce. His company, founded in 1941, is one of the oldest independent marketing consultant firms in the Midwest. THOMAS J. MURPHY has entered law practice with the Indianapolis firm of Edward D. Lewis in the Circle Towers. Tom went to I.U. Law School and served with the Army in Tokyo. THOMAS J. NESSINGER, a manager in the Chicago branch of Arthur Andersen & Co., is the author of an excellent 12-page article on the University, its College of Business Administration and department of accountancy, 11th in a series in Andersen's top-notch house organ, the Chronicle, October issue. Tom joined the Chicago office upon graduation. With the exception of two years of service as an officer in Korea, he was on the audit staff until 1957, when he transferred into administrative services in 1961. He also has been active in Junior achievement and other civic work. Tom is one of 27 N.D. men listed with the Andersen organization.

From Professor DICK PILGER of the chemistry department comes a complete report on the 8½ Year Reunion after the Purdue game:

"The second annual informal reunion came off without a hitch (except for the score of the game, and what can I do about that?). Over 100 persons attended, including the following members of the Class, most of whom brought their spouses:

"The various supplies were consumed with gusto, and those present voted to meet again next fall at the first home game of the season (while the weather will be more than likely good and hope may be possible). So — NOTA BENE! September 28, 1963 — Notre Dame vs. Wisconsin — we meet again!

"A further note to those who complained this fall that I didn't announce the date soon enough (it was in last January's ALUMNUS — how early can you get?), you are herewith forewarned, and MILT BEAUDINE and Editor JOHN LAUGHLIN don't forget, you will be reminded in each issue until September 28, 1963. The deal will be the same — $2.00 each, $3.50 couple; sandwiches and drinks. Y'ALL COME!

"We gleaned some news from the returned forms. The JOHN SHEEDYs were expecting number four; John is taking golf lessons so he won't win the booby prize at the 10th reunion (remember the 154 he shot [?] at the 5th?). John also reports that JOE SHELLEY is a family man and home owner in New Rochelle, N. Y. JIM HOFF, S.J., who was with us two years before transferring to Marquette, is now beginning theology at St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kans. Pleasant notes were also received from BOB BLOOM, HERM KRIEGSHAUSER, Capt. JACK KEENAN USMC, DICK KELCH, BOB RAYMOND (who begged off to redecorate his house), JERRY TURLEY, MAX PLANTE, TOM SHORT, and others."

Chicago 45, Illinois

Well, let's open with a swinging holiday greeting to you and the whole family. I just hope you put me on the Christmas card list so that the next column will be bursting with class news. This one 'n't! Incidentally, if you're sick and tired of reading this thing and not finding your name, there is a solution. Sit down and write a letter . . . a card . . . or do like some guys: dictate on the company's time! Don't worry fellows, I won't rat on you.

O.K., let's get down to business. The letter of the cycle goes to JERRY HUGHES, who probably is the farthest away from this correspondent. The "Huge" family is in Taiwan, where Jerry was battling Typhoon Dinah while typing his letter. He is the operation officer there, but his tour ends next June. Jerry has applied for Air Force Institute of Technology grad study in international relations with his eye on the intelligence field, but he hasn't heard anything as yet. Jerry and his wife Joan recently welcomed a second son, Michael Christopher. The former A.B. Senator would like to hear from some of his old buddies. Here's the address: Capt. Jerome E. Hughes, Box 165, Det No. 1, 405th FW — 602, APO 140, San Francisco, Calif. As Mel Allen would say, "How About That!"

Jerry, who complains about the tough tour of duty (in the officers' club), has run into GENE WAGNER, who is in the personnel division of the 13th Air Force at Clark Air Base in the Philippines. His wife joined him recently, and they both probably will go "native." Back at the club bar Jerry had a milkshake with MARTY MAHRT, who is stationed at Kadana Air Base in Okinawa. Marty occasionally leaves the family at the island and flies ailing plane up to Taiwan for servicing.

According to the grapevine, BOB KERBY is

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

THOMAS R. O'CONNELL, '54
For IBM Engineers, a Reluctant Model

If the picture above seems vaguely familiar, it's no surprise. Greatly enlarged, such pictures of Tom O'Connell and the George Washington Bridge have appeared over the last two years in Benton & Bowles' institutional ads for International Business Machine Corporation in more than 200 magazines nationwide and caused the subject more than a little embarrassment.

Drawn simultaneously to engineering and sales, Tom got his B.S. in mechanical engineering. He is a member of the '53 Class, but illness delayed his graduation to the spring of 1954. After two years as a Lt. (j.g.) in the Navy, he joined IBM as a Data Processing trainee in sales school at Endico, N.Y., and kept with this specialty in subsequent training programs.

cott, N.Y., and kept with this specialty in subsequent training programs.

In 1957 Tom married Christina Coyle of Short Hills, N.J., a graduate of Rosemont (Pa.) College. They were blessed with twins, Carolyn and Stephen, then a "single," Christopher. A fourth child, Susan Dorothy, was on the way by the time Tom had completed his studies for an M.B.A. degree at New York University, with a thesis on Data Processing.

Two years ago, at 29, he was promoted to senior account representative, heading a 20-man team of salesmen, systems engineers and trainees in the marketing, service and support of IBM Data Processing equipment in New York's governmental units. Working out of the corporation's Church Street offices, they cover the local government offices of New York City, the Manhattan offices of the New York State government, the United Nations budget operations, and Archdiocesan schools and offices in Manhattan and the Bronx. Tom's personal account is the Port of New York Authority, and his work with engineers and management with the design and engineering problems of their second deck addition to the George Washington Bridge (which resulted in the Authority's installing a new improved IBM computer system) intrigued management with its promotional possibilities. The picture of a young engineer-salesman helping redesign one of the world's busiest bridges was too good to miss. Hence an article in Careers 1961 and the famous ad in all the technical journals and college magazines, including Notre Dame's Tech Review. Embarrassed by such recognition, Tom accepts it only as symbolic of honor due to "more deserving" and equally self-effacing "team" engineers in IBM and other corporations employing Notre Dame men.

Tom, Christina and their four children live in Montclair, N.J., where they are active in the Community Chest, Junior League and affairs of Immaculate Conception Parish.

flying out of Naha Air Base, which also is in Okinawa. Or maybe I should say on Okinawa. Incidentally, I hope FATHER JOE O'DONNELL reads this because Jerry would especially like to hear from him.

PAT McCANN's lovely wife Irene almost got the letter of the cycle award. She really put him in his place: "After seeing Pat's name in the 'what-ever-happened-to' column, I thought it was time I took some action." So there! Pat is the athletic director and head basketball coach at St. Rose High School in Belmar, N. J. His team won the New Jersey State Parochial Basketball Championship last winter. He also is a captain in the Air Force reserve. The McCanns have two sons and a daughter. Irene reports that GENE CAMOOSA is with the Young and Rubicam ad agency in New York. Gene and his wife Mary Alyce have one son.

Let's see if we can't put some other guys on the spot. Here's your cue, gals, to pick up your pen and write. What ever happened to: LOUIS AMESTOY, MIKE AQUILINO, TOM BARNICLE, JIM BARRY, JOHN and DICK CALLAHAN, ED DARGIS, ED DAVID, JOHN EVRARD, DON EWBANK, PAUL FAZZONE, JOHN and TOM FEELEY, JOE GAMBARDILLA, PETE GANTERT, HERB HAILE, DICK HAIRLINE, JOHN JENA, ART JOHNSON, WALT KEARNS, OWEN KEAVNEY, BILL LARKIN, CHRIS LARSEN, FRANK and JOE MCCARTHY, JOHN NEMETZ, and BOB NEVERIL.

JOE TONINI wrote to explain why the engineering and science boys now are "outwriting" the A.B. crew. "The reason for this is that we did so little of it in school and we are trying to make it up!" Good line, Joe. A registered professional engineer, Joe lives at 103½ E. Empire St., Freeport, Ill. He also pointed out how time flies — his son Mark recently started school. Hey, that reminds me, who's leading in the "birth stakes?" DON YECKEL, I need a current report. Before I forget, Joe would like to hear from RON MAKOWSKI, who has owed him a letter for four (4) years! I even gave you the address, Ron, so you don't have an excuse.

The Geology Department was kind enough to send me a copy of its annual newsletter, and I hope they keep me on the mailing list. Here's the latest on the prospectors. MIKE ELLIS is working for the U. S. Geological Survey, Ground Water Branch, in Huron, S.D. (841 Beach Ave.). PAT HALEY received his M.S. in geology from Florida State University in '56. He's still with Humble Oil Co. You can reach Pat and his wife, Janet, at 721 E. Nutwood St., Ingleswood, Calif.

No definite word on DAN HEALY, but the grapevine has it that he's in Houston with an oil company. How about bringing us up to date, Dan?

Texaco has JOHN NICKNISH, who is living it up in New Orleans. Home address is 3742 Herald St. JOHN O'SULLIVAN is at Iowa State University after a stint in Alaska for research on his postdoctoral fellowship. John and his wife, Kathleen, have three children — Charlotte, Sean, and Theresa.

BOB WHIPPO, a research mineralogist, has been transferred to the main research facility of International Minerals. He lives at 1114 Dell Rd., Northbrook, Ill.

Here are a few more "lost souls" I would like to hear from pronto: SAM PALUMBO and TONY PASQUESI (probably selling footballs), CHARLES REAGEN, BERRY REECE, DON SANTSCHI, GEORGE SASKO, CARL TESCHMACHER,

JOHN THELEN, WILBER VAN SCOIK, TONY VERBISCAR, JIM WALLER, BOB WALLNER, WARREN YOUNGSTROM and WALLY ZIEMBA.

TOM IGLESKI, Chicago's most dapper legal eagle, took the long walk down the aisle Nov. 10 with the former Arline Skowronski. They are living in our town's famous new Marina City. Tom passed the bar this year after picking up his degree from DePaul. He reports that JIM IRWIN now is an assistant to a federal district judge in Cincy. Jim has two children.

Another of our classmates has died. Lt. PHIL McHUGH was called on July 23, 1962 when he was killed in a Navy radar patrol plane crash. A special memorial Mass was said on campus Sept. 1. Our sympathy is extended to Phil's widow.

From the Alumni Office:

From the Downey (Calif.) Live Wire we got a report that HENRY P. KEARNS filed nomination papers for the Nov. 6 election for the Park District Board. It may be months before the Pony Express brings the word on whether he was elected. He's been a member of the Park Advisory Committee and the Civic Development Committee for two years, was a coach at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School and coached football teams in the Downey Junior Athletic Association. A former football-baseball whiz at Downey High, Hank is an engineer with North American Space and Information System Division, married, with three children. "I am interested in helping to develop well-rounded recreation programs for the citizens of Downey," he said. "I feel that steps can be taken to encourage individual sports. The recreation program in Downey is a strong one, and I wish to work toward making it even better than it is now." Retroactive best wishes to candidate Kearns. Best wishes to RALPH GUGLIELMI, hampered by injury and bad luck in his work with the football Cardinals and Redskins, in his continuing career understudying Y. A. Tittle of the N. Y. Giants. CHARLES D. REAGAN was recently promoted to Data Phone sales manager with Indiana Bell Telephone in Indianapolis. Except for two years' military leave, Chuck has been in various positions with Indiana Bell since graduation. He and wife Marjorie have three children, Terrence David, Kevin Gerrard, and Susan Marie. THOMAS V. MARSHALL and wife Vivian have a new address in Wilmington, Del., (available on request) and a change in the household. Child number five and second son William Joseph was born last July 27 and "seems to be surviving the affections of his sisters (Susan, 4; Barbara, 2; Ann, 1) and his brother Mike.

This will be the last column under the by-line of Chicago's JOHN DEASY, who has filled in ably "WOMAN WITH SHEEP," semi-abstract welded sculpture by David Hayes, '53, engrosses a student at the University's O'Shaughnessy Galleries during October's one-man show of sculpture and drawings by Hayes, who has spent the past two years in France with his wife and two children as a Fulbright and Guggenheim fellow. as correspondent since graduation. President BILL WARREN, noting that John's legal, political or romantic obligations have curtailed his output of news lately, has asked AL VITT to reoccupy the post to which he was elected for the senior year, military and other duties having interfered with his performance of the job in recent years.

In the fall the directors of Uptown Sales Inc., Kankakee, Ill., honored KENNETH BERGERON as new president of the agency at a big dinner in the Hotel Kankakee. More than 100 employees and friends gathered to observe Ken's 28th birthday and his promotion to a position vacated by his father, Ed Bergeron, now chairman of the board. Ken had been sales and general manager of the automobile agency for the past three years and before that was with Bergeron Pontiac. Ken's wife is the former LaDonna Jackson, and the Bergerons are parents of another Kenneth, not quite 2. Ken is secretary of the Kankakee Auto Dealers Assn., 4th Degree K.O.C., etc.

A couple of 1962 weddings that may or may not have been overlooked: JEROME V. SWEENEY, II, April 28; and DONALD LOGAN, May 16 in Pittsburgh.

JOSEPH G. BILL, JR., is a rep for Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. with the G. W. Jackson agency in Indianapolis. Joe formerly was a special agent for America Fore. His wife is the former Grace Rembusch. Two classmates are in the Washington, D.C., office. Eastern region of State Farm Mutual. THOMAS RICHARD FALCINELLI, formerly of Phillipsburg, N. J., is in the field claim office, having got his LL.B. at Georgetown. His wife is the former Mary Elizabeth Baluta of Shamokin, Pa. JOHN JOSEPH FITZSIMMONS, a native of Brooklyn in the same office, is working on a law degree in Baltimore. He is married to the former Mary T. Burke of Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Capt. THOMAS C. BLUBAUGH finished a qualification course at helicopter school, Camp Wolters, Tex. Already a fixed wing pilot, Tom continues to study chopper flying for the Army. His wife Helen waits in Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Chicago 14, Illinois

FLASH . . . FLASH . . . FLASH . . . we have lost a bastion of "blessed singleness" with the passing of our president and my former roommate, DONALD J. BARR, to the sacrificial altar of matrimony. Don took Miss Jane Luigs of Chicago for his wife November 3. Cannot give you a run-down on what fellow classmates attended at this writing but will give you a blow by blow in the next letter. Our congratulations Don, and best wishes for a happy and prosperous life together with many little Barrs to remind you of the good life you once enjoyed on Briar patch but passed up for a smile. . . .

Spent an evening at the home of DON HANEY in Grand Rapids watching the Patterson-Liston fiasco. Don is still with Lear Corporation and doing well plus going to night school at Michigan State Univ. to attain his master's in Bus. Ad. . . . JOHN GIBBS is now living in Muskegon and is preparing to go into business for himself . . . Another Muskegonite is JIM MORSE who is doing very well plus having a sports show on a Grand Rapids television station . . . Word has it that Jim will be doing some background work for the Game of the Week next year on national TV. . . . ART KIDDOO is now living with his wife and family in St. Joseph, Mo. . . . BOB ECKLAND is losing his roommate STEVE PENNEY. Big Steve was to take himself a wife come November.

CLASS OF 1954 activities in 1962 included the "3½-Year Reunion" in October after the Purdue Game in the basement of O'Shaughnessy Hall, where classmates and wives seemed to be trying to illustrate the Latin legend on the mural behind them, which says: "Ecce quam bonum et quam jocundum habitare fratres in unum." Rough translation: "Behold how good and joyful to dwell in brotherly union."

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNUS

ROBERT L. GERVAIS, '55
L. A. Club's Spaceman (Nuclear Powered)

Last summer Robert Gervais was appointed Project Engineer in the Missile and Space Division of Douglas Aircraft Company, Santa Monica, California. In his new position, he is responsible for the technical development and management of the RITA project, a nuclear power space vehicle capable of manned orbital, lunar, and interplanetary space flights. Before his appointment as Project Engineer, Bob had served as Group Engineer at Douglas responsible for all Aero/Astrodynamic work pertaining to nuclear powered space vehicles. Prior to this assignment, he was associated primarily with the field of manned space flight and was concerned with many of the initial orbital and lunar space programs.

In addition to his work at Douglas, Bob has presented a number of technical papers related to the fields of re-entry, and interplanetary space flight before several technical societies. He has also contributed articles to technical journals and books, while also lecturing at several Universities. His professional affiliations include: Senior Member of the American Astronautical Society, Associate Fellow of the British Interplanetary Society, and membership in the Institute of Aerospace Sciences and Southern California Professional Engineers Association.

A native of Chappaqua, New York, Bob attended Fordham Prep in New York City and subsequently received Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in aeronautical engineering from the University. After an affiliation with the United States Air Force he continued his education at the University of California in Los Angeles in the fields of nuclear rocketry and astrodynamics. Still active in University activities, he is currently president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, the youngest man ever to hold this position. Prior to his election, he had served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Club since 1960.

He and the former Rose Margaret O'Neill (Rosary '56) of Chicago were married in 1957. Parents of four children, the Gervais family resides in West Los Angeles, California.

Allegheny Airlines, serving 12 states from New England to Ohio and Michigan. Dick has been with Allegheny for five years and supervisor of passenger revenue accounting since 1960, also currently treasurer of Allegheny's credit union. After his political science degree he had two years of work at Georgetown Law School and four years of Army service. Dick and his wife (the former Gwen Lum of Honolulu) have a daughter, Terry, 7. When last heard of, Pittsburgh's JAMES W. O'CONNOR was with Standard Oil in Detroit.

Although this edition of the class news is being written in mid-October, let me take this opportunity to wish all a happy holiday season and the best of everything for the new year. Included in this wish for the best of everything in 1963 is the hope that you will be able to attend our Class Reunion, scheduled for June 14, 15, and 16, on the campus. The Alumni Office expends considerable time and effort in planning this reunion, but its ultimate success depends upon YOUR attendance. So plan now on taking part; contact other class members in your area and make travel arrangements; and count on having a high old time—this opportunity comes only once in every five years.

So much for the reunion pitch, now to the news. The first item in the news basket is an announcement from JIM McNAMARA and his wife Lynn on the arrival of their second child, Kathleen Marie—born September 7, 1962, in New Orleans. Likewise, JOHN SULLIVAN and wife Mary Anne report the arrival of their third, John Patrick, born September 10, 1962. And on October 20, 1962, ART BROWN was married to Patricia Ann O'Rourke in Albuquerque, N. M.

VINCE WEHBY sent along some fine news from Nashville recently, reporting that he was appointed an assistant U.S. district attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee. Vince graduated from Vanderbilt Law School in June of 1961. He would, by the way, like to hear from BOB LANDRY, TOM FARRELL, FRANK CRINELLA, and CHUCK VANONCINI.

BUD McGUIVERN sends the following news: After graduation from N. D. Bud entered dental school at Western Reserve in Cleveland, and received his degree last June. He is now taking grad studies in oral surgery at NYU, after which he will begin internship at Bellevue in New York. On September 2, 1961, Bud was wed to Diane O'Neill of Cleveland and St. John College (nursing division). Diane is also studying at NYU under a federal grant and will receive an M.S. in nursing. Bud also reports the wedding of BLASELD REARDEN to Jean Marie Ellenberg in Cincinnati. Also in attendance were AL ALLEN, TIM HARRIGAN, and BILL BOURNE. In addition Bud has recently encountered WALT HUURMAN (at JOHN "APPLES" McDONALD's wedding in Cleveland), GENE BERTONCINI (currently selling bonds for C. F. Childs & Co., New York), and JIM FEENEY.

BOB COLAIZZI has apparently come up with one of those dream jobs in Uncle Sam's military establishment. Bob went through Navy O.C.S. and is now in his fourth year of Navy service. He is stationed in Hollywood and is attached to the Navy Unit of the Armed Forces Public Information Office (the Navy representative unit for press, radio, television, and the films). The chief facet of this duty is acting as liaison between the Navy and the motion picture industry (i.e. technical script advice, procurement of Navy ships and equipment for filming). During the last season Bob was working with the "Hennessey" T.V. series; however, he is now assigned to the "Ensign O'Toole" series on N.B.C.

Another nuptial notice comes from JOHN PICKEN reporting his marriage on May 30, 1961, to Virginia Griffard of Berwyn, Illinois. John is now interning at Mercy Hospital, Chicago, following graduation from Strich School of Medicine.

JOE BRENNAN, S.J., (who entered the Jesuits after the first semester of our Junior year) writes from West Baden College, West Baden, Ind., where he is currently studying for a M.A. in English and a Licentiate degree in Philosophy, reporting that

Our ranks are dwindling fast. . . . LARRY COOK after graduating from medical school joined the Navy and is now stationed in Okinawa. BILL RIGALI is living in Chicago and still with the Trane Corp. . . . Saw TOM HUGOLET at the N.D.-Purdue game. Tom is with IBM and living on the south side of Chicago. . . . Also saw T. O. DOYLE and his lovely wife Pat at the game. The big floral magnate was up for the week from his Lynchburg homestead. Life is agreeing with him, at least his waistline expressed it. . . .

JIM MORRISON is living in Leadville, Colorado. . . . PAT CONWAY is back in Minneapolis after a stay in California. Pat is working for control data. The Conways are parents to a budding young fullback. . . . JIM COUGHLIN is in the family bond business and is married. . . . GEORGE STRAKE is in business with his father in Houston and word has it that he has an eye on the political life. . . . JIM McCAULEY (with us our freshman year) is married and living in Houston. . . . Also in that Houston crowd is SAM RIZZO and his wife, Nita. Sam is with Arthur Anderson. . . . JOE NEUHOFF and his wife Nancy are living up in Dallas and have recently been blessed with a new addition to the family. Joe is making up for the poor efforts of such people as JOE REICH, DIXEY LEWIS, HAL BLAKESLEE, and JOHN P. McMEEL. . . . DON MURRAY is still in the Army as a dentist and presently stationed in St. Louis. . . . MOORE McDONOUGH was recently married. We have been told by the feds that part of the honeymoon was spent in Colorado Springs. Reports have it that he is doing well with the Rotan Mosle brokerage firm. . . .

The class of '57 expresses its sympathy to WILLIAM HUMMEL whose father passed away last July. Please remember Mr. Hummel in your prayers. . . . Congratulations to DENNY TROESTER, who has joined the staff of the University of Notre Dame Foundation. Denny was formerly from Saginaw, Michigan. He began his service on the foundation staff Sept. 17, representing the University in the field. For the past four years he has been associated with Continental Casualty Company in Washington, D. C. and Detroit, Michigan. He has been a member of the Washington, Detroit, and Saginaw Valley Notre Dame clubs. Denny can count on the assistance and cooperation from his classmates across the country.

Depending on everyone to contribute to this class letter. So far participation has been nil. (Excuse me, JOSEPH REICH came through to help make this issue at least representable.) Let's get on the ball!!

From the Alumni Office:

Last August PAUL HORNUNG turned down a $250,000 three-year deal with another football team to stay with the Green Bay Packers. "Nobody's worth that much," said the Golden Boy, and it turned out he wouldn't have been. A standout in the exhibition season, Paul has been hampered by injuries most of the autumn. It didn't bother the Packers much, undefeated until they tangled with the Detroit Lions (minus NICK PIETROSANTE, '59) on Thanksgiving. Meanwhile, Paul continues to pitch for Marlboro cigarettes, etc. Congrats to the "classmate most likely to. . ." Also to CHUNG WAH NG, the mechanical engineer, who got his Ph.D. at R.P.I. this year. Army Capt. BURTON A. LESH, most recently of Schofield Barracks, left Hawaii for Thailand with the 25th Division's 35th Infantry, with which he's in the 1st Battle Group. Aloha. PAUL H. JOHNSON is teaching English at Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y. A cum laude at N.D., Paul has been teaching at Germantown Academy, Philadelphia, since 1958 and has a master's from Penn, where he's now working on a doctorate in English lit. On the rolls of Allied Chemical Corp. is sociology major FRANCIS G. LUNDEN. In mid-October, Hawaii's RICHARD K. MURATA, transplanted to Arlington, Va., became an assistant sales promotion manager for

HUGH HICKEY, wife Beth, and son Mark, are in St. Charles, Ill., where Hugh is working for International Harvester. JIM SCHERER, who was married on August 25, 1962, to Donna Scherer (no, that is not a misprint, the name is the same) is now studying for an M. A. at Catholic Univ. and teaching at Augustinian High School in Washington. MIKE GLEASON is with Raymond International constructing Atlas missile bases in New York. WILL JONGAS is with Continental Can on the West Coast. And DAVE McNUTT is also with the Jesuits at West Baden.

JOE BUMBLEBURG, whom I last encountered while taking the Bar Exam in Indianapolis, in July of 1961, is now in the Army Judge Advocate General Corps at Fort Gordon, Ga. Joe is Legal Officer with the Civil Affairs Group at said base and in addition is an instructor at the Army Civil Affairs School. Joe ran into TOM CLUSSERATH while in Washington last February, where Tom is employed by the S.E.C.

A note from ANDY SULLIVAN reveals that he is with the Chicago brokerage firm of Cruttenberg, Podesta & Miller, and that he is also studying for a Master's degree in business. JERRY BURKE has begun his own law practice on Chicago's South Side. JACK AMANN recently terminated his tour with the Navy and last October (1961) welcomed Number One Son, John, Jr.

TOM BARTHOLOMEW writes from the Pacific where he is flying jet helicopters on antisubmarine duty from the U.S.S. Hornet. Tom will be married to Miss Cathy Beck, of Pomona, Calif., upon his return to the States. Tom also reports that BUD ENRIGHT is now out of the Navy but plans to remain in Honolulu with his wife June. Bud is now with I.B.M.

JOE LESLIE is placement manager of Tom McCall & Associates, Inc., a nationwide placement agency. Joe is anticipating an addition to his family in January (hopefully a male) to accompany daughter Linda Marie, who will then be two years old. LLOYD SYRON is managing a golf club in Pontiac, Mich. JIM MRUS now has two children, Tommy (2) and Susan (newly arrived), and is personnel manager of a Troy, O., firm. PAT DOHERTY and family are living in Chicago where Pat is with the Tribune in retail advertising.

Finally we have a note from Class Prexy DON McNEILL, C.S.C., who has now been in the seminary for three years, part of which time has been spent at Moreau Seminary, Notre Dame. Don has just left for Rome where he will spend the next four years studying theology. JOHN MCCARTHY (Don's roommate) as previously reported is studying for the priesthood with the Dominicans. Before embarking for Rome, Don had a vacation during which time he ran into BILL CAHILL, who recently became a pappy; KEVIN REILLY and wife Maryanne, who also recently became parents; HUGH PLUNKETT; and FRANK FOX, currently in Cincinnati with American Can Co. PHIL PRASSAS is in the family firm in Winnetka and very active in Young Republican circles. AL STEPAN after spending two years at Oxford and considerable time with the Marines is now in the Far East for at least a year. TOM GARSIDE and family are in St. Louis where Tom is finishing med school.

That takes care of the news for now. Thanks to the contributors. And remember . . . WE WANT YOU AT THE FIVE-YEAR REUNION—JUNE 14, 15 and 16.

MIKE WARD, who is now working for the Union Carbide Chemicals Co., was preparing for a Nov. 17 marriage to Miss Pat Hersley in Yonkers, N.Y. Birth announcements for the following couples: Mr. and Mrs. TONY MONSOUR are the proud parents of a baby boy, Thomas Paul. Tony is now working for the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. in Syracuse. Donna and JOHN CAVALIER now have two beautiful daughters, the second arriving last November. Last spring John completed a year of business school at Michigan State. Patsy and TOM EMMER were blessed with their second child, a girl baptized Bridget. Reports are she looks just like her mother . . . she must be a doll. A special apology to Joan and CHARLES LENNON for a late announcement of the birth of their first son, Kevin Charles, born last April. Kevin Charles Lennon—if this guy doesn't end up on the Notre Dame campus in 18 years, no one will. Charley spent last spring as a very able assistant to JAKE KLINE in leading the Notre Dame Nine to a successful season while also attending grad school at the University.

MIKE SHEEDY is currently working for the Carrier Corp. in Syracuse. In the August, 1962 issue of the ALUMNUS I stated that TONY MUSA was the head football coach at Cardinal Newman High School in West Palm Beach, Fla. I stand corrected; Tony is assistant football coach. My apology to Coach Budnyk at Cardinal Newman.

MOSE GLYNN, after devoting a year of study in Greek and Latin at the Junior College of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, has now moved into the major seminary for the Chicago Diocese. I received a short note from my close friend, BRO. PASCHAL, who is teaching in Hillside, N.J.

JOHN PIDICK, who worked for Haskins and Sells' C.P.A. firm in Chicago after graduation, is now in the process of completing a two-year tour of duty with the Army at Fort Hood, Texas. BRIAN REGAN, a 2nd Lt. in the Marines, is presently on duty at Quantico, Va. If some of the news in this following issue of the ALUMNUS appears a bit dated, I am offering my apology now. The reason for this is that because of a space limitation, I have not been able to include all news items in the past issues. I will attempt to rectify matters in this article.

I received a very informative letter from FRANK "CHICK" ANNESE a few months back, relating of his scheduled marriage to Miss Dominica Myskiw on Sept. 8, 1962. Chick completed a computer course with Univac in Newark, N.J., last spring and was expecting a definite state territory assignment in the Syracuse area in the fall. Some other news from the Syracuse area: GEORGE KANE completed a year of graduate work in education at the University of Syracuse. JOHN BIRD finished his first year of Medical School at the University of Buffalo. John's former roommate, PAUL NISSI, also completed a year of grad school at Boston University Business School. BILL CRONIN has been working for Underwood-Olivetti in White Plains, N.Y., since last October. PETE MURPHY,

BILLY NASSER has completed his research studies at Oklahoma University and is now working in Shreveport, Tex. JIM VERDICK is at Lackland A.F.B. in San Antonio, Tex. Lt. BRENDON O'NEILL is stationed at Moody A.F.B., Tex., as a supply officer. Ensign GENE CINCOTTA, commissioned Feb. 9, 1962, is currently stationed aboard the U.S.S. Hunt, Mayport, Fla.

Flash:—ROGER McMAHON is married. I can't believe it! Rog was commissioned an Ensign in the Navy on Aug. 17, 1962, and was married on the following day to Miss Mary Adikes. He has been stationed in Sicily for two years' shore duty. Luciano, Capone, Anastasia, and McMahon—Sicilians will never be the same.

FRANK GIACOPELLI was engaged to Terry Lastritto on May 18, 1962. Frank is working for Hazeltine Electronics in Little Neck, Long Island. It will be a June wedding in '63. Last July 14 JIM UHLL was married to Mary Ann Crocker and the couple is now living in Cassopolis, Mich. Jim is working for I.B.M. in South Bend. JAY MUNDRI, a former classmate, was best man at the wedding and TIM FLEMING and DAVE LEE also attended the wedding. A repeat performance was held on July 21; however, this time the participants were Ann and DAVE MAHER, the wedding taking place in Chicago.

BOB MAHONY returned for his second year of Law School at Loyola in the fall. TOM LAMB spent his first year after graduation abroad, enrolling in the University of Seville while living in Seville, Spain. He also attended the St. Isabelle of Hungary Art School in Seville. This year he plans on following a career in architecture and hopes to remain at least one more year abroad.

MIKE SAMMON, also returning to Loyola Law School for his second year, is hoping for a commission in the Army after completing Law School. DAVE HUDSON, after receiving his M.A. in modern European history at Columbia, spent the summer working at Yosemite National Park. This past fall he has won a tuition scholarship as a Ph.D. candidate at Columbia. Congratulations to JIM SKAHAN, who was elected as the class representative to the Student Bar Association at Boston College Law School.

WALT "I'm no turtle" RIEBNACK was married to Miss Mary Ann Smith (S.M.C. '61) on July 14, 1962. Walt is attending Notre Dame Law School. In passing may I say: "Walt, I am sure you are not a turtle now!" RAY RATKOWSKI is now in officer candidate school at Quantico, Va., and is also playing ball for the Marines at the same time. TOM ZIPPRICH, when last heard of, was planning on attending Navy O.C.S. in Newport, R.I.

Class President PAT NEE'S venture into the political scene was a successful one. Pat defeated a twenty-two year incumbent for the office of the State Representative in the General Court (Massachusetts Legislature). He was the first candidate ever to run for the office the first time and win. Pat also received the highest vote in the Ward's history. Pat has been in contact with me and has informed me that he is working on reserving a section for the Syracuse game in Yankee Stadium in the fall of '63. I mentioned this in my last article in the ALUMNUS but for those of you who missed this issue I will explain the procedure again. The ticket program for the Syracuse game will be run on the "first" football ticket mailing. This means that in order for you to sit in the class section for the Syracuse game you must be on the "first" mailing list. The question arises, "How does one get on the first mailing list?" In order to be on this mailing list you must be a contributing alumnus. To be a contributing alumnus you must have sent at least one dollar to the Alumni Fund before the first of January, 1963. The seating plan for the Syracuse game in New York will be arranged on the basis of the returns from the "first" mailing list. It should be a terrific ball game and an excellent chance to renew old acquaintances, so please do your best to make it.

PERU—The native N.D. Clubbers in Lima and environs made honorary members of nine students who spent the summer working in Ciudad de Dios, a destitute parish nearby. Sixteen students engaged in similar private "peace corps" projects in Mexican towns.

From the Alumni Office:

WILLIAM "RED" MACK has had some good moments with the Pittsburgh Steelers this season. Army 2nd Lt. JOHN CAVALIER finished officer orientation at the Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va., in October; he got an M.B.A. from Michigan State this year. John's wife is the former Donna Jean Elliot. The couple have two children. Another shavetail, WILLIAM D. ## 1962

Terrence McCarthy
23420 Wellington
Mt. Clements, Mich.

DICK TRUYILLO worked for the highway department this summer and is now attending law school at the University of Arizona. JOHN LANEGAN has returned to Notre Dame after summer work for the Service Pipe Line Company Oklahoma. Also back for the last year of engineering is Class President EARL LINEHAN and MIKE HANON. Earl passed the summer away with Humble Oil in Baton Rouge, while Mike worked for Sun Oil.

BOB BIOLCHININA, a summer bell captain at Yellowstone National Park Hotel, is now in first year law at Georgetown. Some of his classmates there are STEVE GURCHIK, PAUL BUTRUS and JACK FELIX.

BILL WEINSCHMEIER spent the summer in Hawaii and is now at Northwestern Law School. Summer DAVE WITCHGER likes that water, as he worked as a life guard and now has gone O.C.S. Navy.

From New Jersey way we hear that BUCKY O'CONNOR is doing graduate work at Seton Hall. We were sorry to hear of CARL HOUCK's automobile accident this past summer and we hope Carl has recovered well.

Although another football season is well underway, we congratulate NICK BUONICONTI, who played excellently in the All American Game of last June at Buffalo, and to JOE CAROLLA, BOB BILL and ANGELO DABERIO, (nice interception Angie) who played in the College All Star Game in Chicago. Captain NORB ROY is playing with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

When PAT BOOKER was married in June in New Orleans he had DOUG DRANE, LES BOUDREAUX, and RON MICEK in the wedding party.

From Ohio we hear that ED LARKIN was married on June 30th to Karen Hasselbroch in Hamilton, Ohio.

CARL EBEY and JOE COREY are residing at St. Joseph Hall at Notre Dame and are beginning theological studies.

At the close of the summer I heard from JACK CARR and HAYES KAVANAGH, who were then touring the Schlitz Brewery. Hayes has since moved on to school at the University of Marburg in Germany, where his first act was to join a beer club.

Hats off, and congratulations to TONY BILL on his bright movie career. Tony won a movie plum by being chosen to portray Frank Sinatra's younger brother in "Come Blow Your Horn." (Some 250 hopefuls were interviewed, plus Warren Beatty, Bobby Darin and Tommy Sands!)

Your Secretary gives this short report because I am now at University of Detroit Dental School.

From the Alumni Office:

TONY BILL, just mentioned, returned to the campus in November, addressed a couple of classes in communications arts, saw some faculty including A.B. Dean FR. CHARLES SHEEDY whose efforts got him in the movies, and gave the Scholastic this quote: "When I was here I was top on the list of complainers. I still don't like the institution, but some of my best friends are here. That is why I come back to Notre Dame—to see my friends."

THOMAS FRANCIS ARMSTRONG is seeking an M.A. in English teaching at Johns Hopkins. Army 2nd Lt. ROGER S. KIRBY of Bronxville, N.Y., and JAMES F. # Office of the President • University of Notre Dame Alumni Association • U.S. Embassy, Accra, Ghana • December, 1962

In my final letter as President of the Alumni Association, an office exercised by remote control from Africa, I thought a few words might be appropriate about the work the Church and Notre Dame are doing on the world's last frontier. I can speak only for Ghana, where I have been United States Ambassador since last June, but I am certain our experience here has its counterpart elsewhere on this huge Continent.

If any one institution could be singled out as having made the greatest contribution to Ghana's fine beginning, it would be the Christian missionaries. Various sects have been working among Ghanaians for many generations under the most trying conditions of disease, jungle, and loneliness. High among them are the Catholic missionaries.

By far the most famous as well as the most rugged are the White Fathers, largely French in origin, but now numbering many Canadians and Americans. These men seek out the remote areas (called the "bush") and are doing their valiant work among the most primitive tribes. They have been at it for years and yet retain all their old spirit.

For example, one morning while breakfasting with Bishop Champaigne, a French Canadian, at Tamale 500 miles north of Accra, I asked the Bishop how long he had been in northern Ghana. He replied he had come about 40 years ago. When I asked how he had managed to get to Tamale, he said he had walked in. The White Fathers think nothing of going into the bush alone for weeks at a time to visit their parishioners.

Another American Order running schools and parishes that are quite prominent here are the Fathers of the Society of the Divine Word. Although they are found near civilization, they wrestle daily with problems that are truly staggering.

The American missionaries here who take a back seat to no one for sacrifice and good work are the Medical Missionary Sisters of Philadelphia. All of them are either doctors or nurses and they have two hospitals and a leprosarium in the bush in west central Ghana. Our family visited their hospital at Berekum one day on trek and that is a sight I will never forget. It was toward the end of the day and Ghanaians by the hundreds were let through the gates to visit hospitalized members of their families. The nuns were finishing a typical 14-hour day, but you would have thought they had just stepped off the boat. The nun in charge remarked she was not sure they are really making many converts but their reward was to be able daily to make these friendly people healthier and happier.

Now about the Congregation of Holy Cross. The Brothers of Holy Cross run a topnotch secondary (high) school for about 250 Ghanaians at Sekondi, an old seacoast town 120 miles west of Accra. The school, headed by Brother Rex, sits on a tropical hill overlooking the sea and consists of four or five of the best looking school buildings in western Ghana. Among the Brothers there are a number of Notre Dame graduates and also two lay teachers who teach courses. George A. Uritis (B.S. '57, M.S. '62) and Michael Sophy (A.B. '57, M.A. '59).

Regarding other Notre Dame men on board, I should mention a few. Paul Doody, a graduate student in 1957-58, is Executive Secretary of the Fulbright Commission for Ghana, of which I am Chairman. Gerald E. McNerny, '57, is the head of the Catholic Relief Services here, and Gerald F. Meyer, '58, is the Administrator of the National Institutes of Health research project in tropical diseases. Jim Griffin (A.B. '59), formerly of the South Bend Tribune, is the enterprising editor of Ghana's Catholic newspaper.

A closing word about the local clergy. More so than in any other faith, the Catholic secular clergy of this country are Ghanaians, including the Archbishop of Cape Coast and the Bishops in Ghana's larger cities. Many of the priests are native and more will be turned out each year from the new Seminary for native clergy in West Africa at Cape Coast.

All of the above makes quite an impression on the Africans who inhabit this part of the Continent.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM P. MAHONEY, JR., '38
President
