U.N.D. NIGHT '62 TO HAIL TRADITION OF PATRIOTISM

"NOTRE DAME'S ALL-AMERICAN TRADITIONS" is the theme of the 39th Annual Universal Notre Dame Night under which most of the University's 180 active Alumni Clubs are expected to surpass all records in their celebration of Notre Dame's history of Americanism—Americanism in the richest and fullest sense, with all the manifestations connoted by the phrase "God, Country, and Notre Dame": patriotism and militant Americanism demonstrated by the University's unique contribution of chaplains and fighting men to all the conflicts in which the United States has been involved since 1842 (a manifestation symbolized by this year's tribute to Father William Corby, hero of Gettysburg and Antietam, with the Gettysburg Centennial Field Mass mentioned on page 4); Americanism in the politico-socio-economic sense demonstrated by Notre Dame's gift of men and scientific resources to political, economic, civic and all other facets of public life; and Americanism in its broadest connotations—religious, scientific, humanitarian, educational, cultural, athletic, etc.

About half the Notre Dame Clubs around the world had indicated by mid-March the form of their participation. They are listed here with tentative notes on dates, speakers and locations. In no sense is this to be considered an accurate, complete, reliable guide; it is merely an early progress report. Consult local alumni officers for details of the observance in your community between Easter and June 29.

Attention: all members of the Fifty-Year Club and the Classes of 1913, 1918, 1923, 1928, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, 1953 and 1958!

ONLY TWO MONTHS LEFT BEFORE REUNIONS IN 1963: JUNE 14, 15, 16!

ONLY TWO short months remain before 1,000-plus alumni, representing ten Notre Dame Classes at five-year intervals from 1958 back to 1913, as well as the Classes beyond, will be packing to return to the campus for three carefree days of conviviality and relaxation with their classmates at the 1963 Reunions, beginning Friday, June 14, and ending on Sunday, June 16.

Special tribute will be paid this year to the Silver Jubilee Class of 1938, the Golden Jubilee Class of 1913, and all the "senior semicentenaries" who return to represent the growing membership of the Fifty-Year Club.

THE REUNION PROGRAM

Alumni arriving Thursday night or any time Friday will be greeted at the Law School, registered and given a room in the hall assigned to their Class. They will have all day Friday to tour the campus, sign up for the golf tournament or greet their classmates around the bars in the West Quadrangle. The Class programs will begin with dinner Friday evening and go on far into the night.

Saturday morning will begin with Class Masses in the hall chapels, followed by group photographs, golf, tours or relaxation at the bars before lunch. After lunch there will be a final flight of the golf tournament, guided tours including the new East Campus (Memorial Library, Stepan Center, Radiation Research and Computer-Mathematics Buildings) and open houses of the various Colleges, leaving time to dress for the annual Alumni Banquet in the air-conditioned North Dining Hall.

The Classes will return to their halls for nightcaps and midnight snacks before turning in to rise on Sunday for a last visit to favorite shrines and the culmination of the week end in the Annual Alumni Mass.

ADD ECUMENICAL ALUMNI

The article in the last issue listing twelve members of the Congregation of Holy Cross and 24 other alumni at the Second Vatican Council failed to mention ten honorary alumni overseas: Their Eminences Gregory Cardinal Agagianian, Amleto Cardinal Cicognani, Valerian Cardinal Gracias, Franz Cardinal Koenig, Giacomo Cardinal Lercaro, Giovanni Cardinal Montini, Aloisius Cardinal Muench, Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, Laurian Cardinal Rugambwa; and Most Rev. Martin J. O'Connor, rector of North American College in Rome.

THE CLASS PROGRAMS

Most of the Class officers have appointed reunion chairmen and local committees, held planning meetings and mailed preliminary information to classmates. Even those who have not have tentative plans for the weekend which will be given here and included in a general mailing to be sent soon to members of all reunion classes. Those who remit the reunion fee in advance will be pre-registered and assured of accommodations with their classmates.

Early plans of the Classes are as follows:

The Golden Jubilee Class of 1913, under Secretary Paul Byrne, and men of earlier Classes in the 50-Year Club, will probably share Alumni Hall with the 45th Anniversary Class of 1918 and be their guests at a revival of the "Traditions" Dinner on Friday night. President John Lemmer and Secretary Charles Call have appointed Father George Holderith as local reunion chairman and have already got a response from 15 or 20 "early birds."

Veteran Secretary Louis Bruggner will greet his classmates of 1923 at Alumni Hall, and the 40-Year Class will dine Friday Night either off-campus or at the Morris Inn.

Class of 1928 President James Allan and Secretary Louis Buckley have Father Andrew Mulreany and Edward Quinn as local co-chairmen and more than twenty classmates operating national publicity and promotion. The only Class to guarantee an attendance of 150 before Christmas, the 35-year Class has reserved Lyons Hall for the third straight year and will kick off an active weekend program with a Class Dinner at the Morris Inn.

Morrissey Hall is the probable residence and the Morris Inn a possible dinner site for the Class of 1933 under president John O'Shaughnessy, Secretary John Hoyt and Reunion Chairman Charles Farris, who started polling their classmates before Christmas.

The Silver Jubilee Class of 1938 will probably also inhabit Morrissey. President Charles Sweeney and Secretary Burnett Bauer have appointed a large committee under Chairman Edward Cronin to plan a gala weekend including three trips to the North Dining Hall, the second for luncheon as guest of their president classmate, Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C. A national committee has also been appointed to drum up attendance in all 50 states.

1943 Secretary Jack Wiggins has asked for Alumni Hall as a Class residence and for an old Reunion and Monogram hand, Bill Earley, as local chairman. Bill may repeat something like his pizza smorgasbord of 1958.

Secretary John Defant is still selecting his 1948 local committee, but it is likely that the Class will inhabit Howard Hall and dine in the North Dining Hall.

Dave McElvain is looking for local help with the Class of 1953 program, while 1958 Secretary Art Roule is directing the 1958 effort from Texas through local chairman Joseph Corcoran. The two Classes may share Dillon Hall, largest facility on the campus, and guarantee excellent indoor or outdoor buffets as part of the program.

This is the early outlook. Further information will be forthcoming in the mails. Meanwhile, check your roster and Dome, try to form a group, and let your Class Secretary know you'll be there.

DEVORE TO PILOT '63 IRISH WITH KUCHARICH RESIGNATION

Hugh Devore, '34, freshman football coach for the past five years, has been appointed to a second one-year term as head football coach after the recent resignation of Joseph Kuharich, '38, to accept an executive position with the National Football League. David Hurd, '60, a former assistant freshman coach, was also named to the football staff after two years as an assistant coach at Cleveland's John Carroll University, as were Jerry Stoltz, formerly an assistant at Toledo, and Gus Cifelli, '50, a former player coach in professional football.

Hugh played three years at end under Hunk Anderson, the last as co-captain. Coaching at Fordham, Providence, Holy Cross, St. Bonaventure, N.Y.U., Dayton and the Philadelphia Eagles, he was Notre Dame end coach under Ed McKeever in 1943-44 and head coach in 1945 with a 7-2-1 record. He has handled the freshman and recruiting chores since returning under Terry Brennan in 1958.

ADMIRAL ANDERSON NAMED FOR 81st LAETARE MEDAL

On Laetare Sunday, March 24, the President of the University announced that Admiral George W. Anderson, Jr., Chief of Naval Operations and a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, will receive Notre Dame's Laetare Medal for 1963.

President Kennedy was the 1961 recipient of the Medal, awarded annually to an outstanding American Catholic layman since 1883. Admiral Anderson is the second naval figure and CNO to win the honor, the first being Admiral William Shepherd Benson in 1917.

A naval aviator for more than 30 years, Admiral Anderson was commander of the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean, commanded Carrier Division Six, and held top aircraft carrier and tactical commands in the Atlantic, Pacific, Europe and the Pentagon before being named Naval Chief in 1961. Among his many commendations are the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star and the Order of the British Empire.

NOTRE DAME MEMORIAL MASS TO LAUNCH CENTENNIAL AT GETTYSBURG ON JUNE 29

This summer the Civil War Centennial reaches its peak with the Centenary of the Battle of Gettysburg, generally conceded to be the "high-water mark of the Confederacy" and the crucial engagement of the War between the States.

Nearly one-third of Notre Dame's priests took part in the Civil War as chaplains. Of these priests of Holy Cross — including Fathers James M. Dillon, Peter Paul Cooney, E. B. Kilroy, Joseph C. Carrier, Paul E. Gillen, Joseph Leveque and Julian Bourget, C.S.C. — perhaps the most colorful was Rev. William Corby, C.S.C.

Veteran of many engagements with the Army of the Potomac, Father Corby is known to most Notre Dame men because of identical statues on the Gettysburg battlefield and in front of Corby Hall on the campus. The statues depict Father Corby standing on a rock, giving absolution to the men of the Irish Brigade just before the battle. Later Father Corby was president of the University on two separate occasions and died while serving as provincial superior in 1897.

The dates of the official centennial observance are Monday, July 1, through Wednesday, July 3, 1963, commemorating the corresponding three-day period of battle in 1863. As a prelude to this observance, Rev. Thomas J. O'Donnell, C.S.C., has completed arrangements for a Notre Dame Day on the battlefield, to be held on Saturday, June 29, featuring a Memorial Mass at 12 noon E.D.T. at the Eternal Peace Light in Gettysburg National Park.

The Mass, to be offered by Bishop Leech of Harrisburg, will highlight a day dedicated not only to Father Corby and the Notre Dame men of the Civil War, but also to the patriotism of thousands of Notre Dame men in World Wars I and II, the Mexican, Spanish-American and Korean Wars, etc.

The battlefield is within easy weekend driving distance for alumni from Ohio to New England to the Carolinas, and Notre Dame families in the Middle States have been encouraged to make group tours, box-lunch excursions, etc. Maps and further information are available for all alumni who plan to attend this event.
