NOTRE DAME, March 14, 1877.

DEAR DAUGHTERS IN JESUS CHRIST:

It is again my duty to call on you to pray for another dear soul, who departed this life at 7 o'clock this morning, in the Sisters' Infirmary, here at Notre Dame, at the age of 24 years. Her name in Religion, SISTER M. OF THE SERAPHIM, she received on the 8th of September last, and honored it to her last moment. In the world she was known as Elizabeth Mangan. She was sick a little more than two weeks; a quick consumption carried her off rapidly, but not before she had well prepared herself for the supreme event. She leaves in the house a short but beautiful record of virtue. May her dear soul soon enjoy the joys of an endless felicity.

Her burial will take place to-morrow at 9 a.m.—R. I. P.
