TOLEDO CLUB TO BANQUET

Dinner-Dance Planned for During Christmas Holidays, Four New Men Admitted to Club.

The Toledo club will banquet at Clark's campus dining room this evening in honor of the four new men admitted into the club this year. They are Robert Cooney, Norbert Scharff, Walter Wilcox and Joseph Navarre.

They were initiated into the club at the first meeting of the year, held in the Library Friday.

Plans for the next formal dinner-dance, to be given in Toledo during the Christmas holidays, are being made.

It is the custom of the club to hold the election of all officers, the preceeding year, except that of the sergeant-at-arms, which is an office held by a freshman, at an election before the close of school in June. Accordingly, at the last meeting in June, Francis O'Boyle was elected president; John Hurley, vice-president; Ray Cunningham, secretary, and Ray Tillman, treasurer. And at the meeting held last evening Norbert Scharf was voted upon to fill the office of sergeant-at-arms.

Carnegie Tech Only; No St. Louis Trip

No second student football trip is contemplated to St. Louis, as was erroneously announced in the DAILY yesterday. Mark Nolan, in charge of the student trip for the S. A. C., says the trip is now definitely arranged to Pittsburg, but further details are yet to be settled as to the time of departure and the like. Carnegie Tech has reserved a section for the Notre Dame students and the prices will be reasonable.

It was also announced that Pullman accommodations will be available.

OHIOANS PLAN ON HOMECOMING

Smoker Soon; Homecoming Headquarters in South Bend Hotel; Will Compile Addresses.

Plans for a big get-together meeting for all men from the Buckeye state, and preliminary arrangements for participation in Homecoming, were made at a meeting of the Ohio club yesterday noon in the Lemmonier library.

The get-together meeting, which is to be in the form of a smoker, will be held soon, it is said. At the meeting yesterday noon the following men were appointed on a committee on arrangements for the event: Clarence Joos, Farrell Johnston, Walter Rader, Eugene Young, Joseph Kane and Frank Steele. The committee will meet at 7 p. m. tomorrow in 226, Sorin.

Ohio club headquarters will be established in one of the South Bend hotels on Homecoming as a result of action taken at the meeting yesterday.

All alumni, whether Ohioans or not, will be welcome at these headquarters. A list of Ohio men now at the University and their addresses will be compiled for the convenience of Ohio alumni. Any Ohio men having any further suggestions for the Ohio club's participation in Homecoming are asked to leave them with President Daniel McGowan, 226 Sorin.

It was stated at the meeting that a publicity committee would soon be appointed for the purpose of putting the activities of Ohio men at Notre Dame before Ohio people through the Buckeye newspapers.

Rocky Mountain Men Will Have Barbecue

That the Rocky Mountain club will have charge of the barbecue at Homecoming, was announced to the members at a meeting held yesterday, in Walsh hall at 12:30.

Rabie Funk was chairman. The officers elected for the year were: Harry McGuire, president; Rabie Funk, vice-president, and Alexander Dauds, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting will probably be held in the Lemmonier library. The exact time and place will be posted.

CAPITAL CITY NAMES LEADER

Poggianni, President; Club Makes Plans for Banquet and Dance.

The Indianapolis club met in the Library last night and elected officers for the coming year.

Tino Poggianni was elected to succeed Robert Rink as president. Poggianni is a junior in engineering. He has been very active in Capital City Organization, serving on the advisory committee for two years.

Eugene Fogarty, Commerce '24, was re-elected to the position of vice-president. Mark Mooney, present president of the sophomore class, was elected secretary to succeed Thomas O'Connor. Norbert Clancy, Commerce '25, succeeds Joseph Harmon as treasurer.

The new president outlined plans for the coming year, which promises to be the best ever in the history of the club. During the Christmas holidays a dinner dance will be given for the members. At Easter a regular dance is planned. The club will have a smoker in November. Arrangements are to be made for Homecoming and the Butler game.

The club is leader among college clubs of Indianapolis and ranks high among city clubs on the campus, being one of the largest and most active.

Rochester Club Plan Holiday Dance

Edward Woelensak, president of the Rochester club, at a meeting of the club in the Library last night, announced that the annual Christmas holiday dance will be given at the Sagmor hotel on December 27.

A dinner will be given by the club at the College Inn some time this month. The president said that a faculty member will speak on this occasion.

"HELLO WEEK" ON THIS WEEK

Extra Tags May Be Secured at the News Stand; Some Men Are Not Speaking.

"Hello Week" tags were distributed to men in the various halls Sunday evening and to Off Campus students yesterday morning at the end of the car line. Members of the Blue Circle handed out the tags. Practically every student in the University received a tag.

Those who have lost or failed to receive their cards, may get them from Mart Mooney or George DeBarry at the news stand.

While most men are availing themselves of the opportunities offered by "Hello Week" to get acquainted with others, there are, according to Matt Rothert, chairman of the Blue Circle, some who are reticent in entering into the spirit of the week. He urges everyone, and freshmen in particular, to cooperate in making this year's "Hello Week" a success.

ALBERTO SALVI

Alberto Salvi, who will give a recital in Washington hall on October 8, opening the concert program at Notre Dame, is reputed to be "the greatest living harpist," by many critics. He played before the Italian court when he was but a child.

QUERIES MUST BE ANSWERED

Men Who Don't Turn In Questionnaires Will Not OG in Dome; Photographers Coming.

A last call to members of the senior class who have not filled out questionnaires for The Dome is issued. A final opportunity will be afforded those who have neglected this, by calling at the following places where questionnaire blanks may be procured and left: Office at Corby hall, office at Sorin hall, Off Campus office, John Whitman at the Law building and Edward Dineen at Walsh hall.

Questionnaires filled out will be submitted to the photographers on October 5, after which time none will be accepted, according to The Dome.

Photographs will be taken beginning at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 10, at which time all seniors are requested to call or make appointment at the Knights of Columbus room in the Walsh hall. A photographer from the Russell company of Chicago will be present on the campus for a week.

During this time, all pictures to appear in The Dome will be taken. Photographs of individual class or organization officers also will be obtained. Those of the latter number will be notified when to appear by a representative of The Dome.

NEW INSTRUCTOR.

George N. Shuster, head of the English department, announces that Vincent Cavanaugh has assumed a position as instructor in English at the University. He held classes yesterday.

LA SALLE CLUB.

The LaSalle club met in the Oliver hotel Sunday to elect officers and to make plans for the year. So many members were absent, due to conflicting meetings, that last year's officers were held over and it was decided to call another meeting soon.

BEG PARDON.

Elton Crepeau was said to be the new head of the Music department in an article in Sunday's issue. This was incorrect. He is the new head of the Voice department of the School of Music.

Scoggins Elected Texas President

The Texas club met in the Library yesterday and elected officers. R. Conroy Scoggins, of Huston, was elected president; Edwin G. Rowley, of San Antonio, vice-president; Joseph A. Menger, San Antonio, secretary-treasurer.

An advisory board was chosen, consisting of Thomas J. Ahearn, Dallas; William V. Dielmann, San Antonio; John N. Powers, Houston, and William A. Defferari, Galveston.

BOOK ON VERSE BY CHRISTMAS

Prof. Shuster Talks; Urges Writers to Write for The Scholastic; Pins Are Pens.

The Scribblers Anthology of College Verse will probably be issued before Christmas, it was stated at a meeting of the Scribblers last night. The book will contain representative Notre Dame poetry published since 1917, and poetry selected from contributions to the club.

A committee, consisting of Edward Lyons, Gerald Holland and James Hayes, was selected to act as editors of the book. They will submit their selections to a member of the faculty for his approval afterwards.

Professor George N. Shuster, honorary president of the club, addressed the meeting last night. He emphasized the need of contributions for The Scholastic, saying that the Scribblers should do all they can to see that it is representative of a literary Notre Dame.

The magazine will be of 64 pages, and, consequently, he said, every man on the campus who can write, or hopes to write, should submit his efforts to The Scholastic.

Solid-gold pen points, with an N. D. embossed in gold on them, were selected as the official pin of the club.

DAILY Reporters Will Meet Today

The reporters of THE NOTRE DAME DAILY staff are called to a special meeting in the Journalism room of the Library at 12:30 today. Changes will be made in the beats assigned to members of the staff.

Credit lists for the month of September were posted in the DAILY office yesterday. Thomas W. Coman led the list with the most number of large headline stories.

MISSIONS WILL BEGIN SUNDAY

Off Campus Mission Also to Be Held This Year; Fathers Donahue and Finnegan to Preach.

Students missions begin Sunday, it was announced yesterday. They will continue until October 13, when solemn ceremonies will bring them to a close.

The campus students mission will be held in the Sacred Heart church, with Father James Donahue master of Novices, preaching. The mission for off-campus students will be held in St. Joseph's church with Father George Finnigan, superior of Holy Cross seminary, preaching.

The campus mission will be in the morning at 6:30 o'clock, evening services at 7:30 o'clock. Students not resident on the campus will have the morning service at 7 o'clock and the evening service at 8:30.

DRIVE OPENS ON PACIFIC COAST

Father McGinn and Mr. Dickens Now at Work There; Father Burns on Way to Denver.

The Notre Dame Endowment campaign has opened in the West. With the arrival of Rev. John McGinn, alumni secretary, in Denver, the other day, the drive began. Rev. James Burns, former University president, is expected in Denver soon, to assist.

With Father McGinn is Earl Dickens, a member of the alumni association, and who is in direct charge. Mr. Dickens was secretary to Rev. John Cavanaugh for several years, when Father Cavanaugh was president of the University. He is now with a varnish company in Toledo, which granted him temporary leave of absence to work in the campaign. Mr. Dickens was advertising manager of the O'Brien Varnish company, of South Bend, for a time.

The campaign will cover all of the Western and Pacific Coast states.

The committee states that the work has been progressing quite satisfactorily, and that the building of the new hall next spring is assured if it continues as well.

Kentucky Men Fill Offices

Larry Luigart was elected to the office of still-house-watch by unanimous vote of the Kentucky club at the meeting last night. This concludes the election of the organization.

Plans for a proposed dance to be given in Louisville on January 2 were discussed and various suggestions were made. A committee was appointed by the Colonel of the club, Ernest R. McClure, to arrange for the initiation of new members at the next meeting. The club plans to give a smoker in the near future.

EIGHTY-FIVE IN TRY-OUTS

Glee Club Voices Excellent This Year, Says Dr. Browne, Director; Will Select Forty Men.

Eighty-five men have tried out for membership in the Notre Dame Glee club, it was announced yesterday by Tom Hodgson, the president. The forty men that will compose the personnel this year will be named Thursday morning. Only 17 of last year's club remain as the nucleus of the new organization.

Dr. J. Lewis Browne, the director, supervised the tryouts and expressed himself as being well pleased with the excellence and quality of the voices. Rehearsals have been held daily and each man given the best trial possible. During the week Joseph Cassasanta has had charge of rehearsals and a start has been made on the verigated program that will be attempted this season.

An innovation with the Glee club this year is that all concerts will be sung without piano accompaniment. This is seldom attempted by the average choral society. The only Glee club in the United States that follows this method is the Harvard club, recognized as being foremost in the country.

The officers of the club are enthusiastic over the prospects for the year, and are laying plans for a most successful traveling season. With the name of Dr. Browne as director, concerts practically arrange themselves. Dr. Browne will direct Tuesday at 4 o'clock.

"HELLO, MEN!"

"Hello, men."
The campus rang with hellos sung by smiling Notre Dame men yesterday—that is, it should have rung.
For the most part, it did. Most men, especially the older men greeted everyone with a cheery salutation, but there were grumpy men who passed solemn-faced, unheeding; probably engrossed in some deep problem that would revolutionize the world.
These grumpy sages are not Notre Dame men. They are men that merit the laving influence of the lake.
If they pass by you today, and do not respond to your "Hello," call out a louder "Hello" as they pass, and perhaps the sage will feel small and will vouchsafe a reluctant "Hello." Perhaps, he may even volunteer the first "Hello" to the next man he meets.
And if you are one of the men who does not say "Hello," recast the above paragraph so that it hits you. And begin to say "Hello."
Even viewed from a purely utilitarian standpoint, saying "Hello" it worthwhile. The combination of smiles and greetings makes you feel better inside—and even grumpy sages like to feel well inside.

ON AN OLD SUBJECT

This editorial should be a poem. But poems come from poets, and editorials come from would-be editors. Nevertheless it is concerned with nothing more than sentiment, a feeling; its message will not move the faculty mind, nor stir the campus tongue, yet if it brush one bit of dust from the conduit between two hearts, it will indeed have been a message.
Friendship is a rare thing—not acquaintanceship, nor liking, nor the glamour of personality which sometimes joins two men in mutual attraction; not any of these, but that kinship of hearts which makes the joys of one the joys of the other, and the least pain of one the greatest pain of the other. It is really love, but when it exists between men, we call it, in our shy way, only friendship.
At college we are thrown amongst men; we live with them, we strive with them, we laugh with them—and sometimes we have shed a tear with them. We are young, and they are young; our hopes are great, and just as great our tolerance of little faults in others. As surely as God is in His heaven, the delicate flowers of friendship will poke their heads somewhere in this fertile field. And if they do—if in the garden of your heart you wake some morning to find a timid bud that scarcely knows its name, guard it with all your soul, nourish it into bloom. If frost comes, shield the flower with the cloak of humility; if winds would mangle its tender petals erect around it the stern barrier of self-sacrifice; and if the roots of the flower itself would dry up in a sudden despair, water them with tears. It may be friendship; and if it is, you are a rich man; you have not in vain come to Notre Dame.

MAKING SPIRIT

When the new hall planned for freshmen is built on the campus next spring, it is expected that no freshmen will remain in town. If the endowment campaign continues to be successful, it is said that the hall is assured.
The housing of the freshman class on the campus is joyous news. It proclaims a great stride toward the Greater Notre Dame, a Notre Dame in which every man lives on the campus, where distractions are few and the aim is one—where men are united in purpose and spirit in an atmosphere like the ideal atmosphere of the old colleges, Oxford, Cambridge, and the Sorbonne. With all the men on the campus, Notre Dame's spirit would become universal, stronger, better.
Every man, not excluding five hundred as now, would be one of the great Notre Dame family.

Through the Looking Glass

When Larry O'Haybottom came to N. D.
He said, "I get the marks. Just watch me and see."
He went to exams with a nice big ponee.
He got a swell mark—but he's not at N. D.

EXTRA

HOODA HAS MET
LOUISVILLE LOU AND LOST.

Hooda wishes to announce that there will be no more remarks concerning the missing "W." He says that he now has another one and that he also has a spare one to sell.
It looks very queer. It looks too large, to be true. We asked him where he got it. Hooda blushed, stepped on his right foot with his left, placed his finger in his mouth and said, "I dowanna tell." We asked, "Is it a cheap 'W'?"
"Nothing is cheap at our house," he said.
"Since you left?" we suggested, and walked away.
We had walked scarcely a block, stopping only to tip our hat to a freshman, when our glance rested on the sidewalk. There was broken glass and rubbish on the sidewalk. Our glance glanced upward and there we read, "O Dance Hall."

Be-Have

The bee has a mean disposition, For though he'll ne'er growl nor woof.
If you pick him you'll find That he's really unkind.
He'll kick you, and leave in his hoof.
Number, please.
Or hello week. Not a weak, or tri-weekly, or try weakly affair.

Contributions would keep that and this stuff off the page.

Make a success of the thing. If you have prejudices against slang you can say, "How do you do."
But don't wait for an answer.
They'll range from, "Howarya," "Howzaboy," "Whatd'asay," and "Hi" to "Cheerio," "Pip pip," "Toodle Oo" and "Lo."

But there will still be some who will be mute and give you a look like one who has an itch and is afraid to scratch it.
The boys who get out of bed in the morning with a "There ain't no God" attitude and improve on it all day.

When they leave school they will have to have telephone lessons.

If I "Hello" all of my friends, Then of me they'll think well; But if I don't, they simply won't— They'll blink and think "O Hell."

Good bye.

Sign, east of town: Fish Worm For Sale.

May I have about three sections of that worm, please?

Greetings to the freshmen who thought that Trotsky was a waltz.

From Off Stage

When you go to the Palace this week will see as good a comedy as has been shown in these parts for some time past. Buster Keaton is as unsmiling as ever in "The Three Ages," which tells the story of love through the ages.

Ted Lorraine and Jack Minto, the headliners, were well received in a dancing act which left little to be desired in the way of talent and entertainment. Marie Andre, who appeared with them, was graceful and lithe in her offerings. The features of the act were the Apache dance, done to "Mon Homme," and the moth and flame opus which closed it.

Callahan and Bliss, in the roles of small town sports, gave a series of characterizations, all of which were well received. Edward J. Lambert and Miss Minnie Fish scored the hit of the afternoon in a turn in which he kept the audience in continual merriment. The Cavanna Trio opened the bill with a circus in which they sang a bit, danced a bit, and did some extraordinary tumbling and contortions. Seigel and Irving, "the Roman Gladiators," provided a good closing number with their exhibition of acrobatic feats.

It is, from start to finish, a good program which will provide a pleasant afternoon for the hardworking student.

JUNIOR DANCE PLANS DECIDED

Eddie Luther Featured in Songs; Orchestra and Other Novelties To Be Announced.

Cheer Leader Eddie Luther in a cycle of popular songs will be one of the feature and innovations of the Junior Football Dance to be held Saturday, October 6, it was announced yesterday by the committee in charge. The Juniors have several novelties planned that will be announced later in the week. It is the intention of those in charge to make this informal one of the most memorable affairs of the fall social season, and no effort is being spared in preparation. This year's junior class will be remembered for the Cats Pajamas novelty of the sophomore football dance of last year.

According to George Sheehe, chairman of the committee in charge, the place and the music for the junior dance have not been definitely decided upon, due to a consideration of several outside orchestras. Complete plans for the dance will be given out in a short time.

ACTUAL SIZE

You like to grasp a pen like this. It's big. It's husky. It looks strong, reliable, long-lived. And it is.

This new Wahl Signature Pen is a wonder for college work. It never needs prompting. You don't have to shake it. Touch that flexible point to paper and the ink starts with your thought.

The Wahl Comb Feed regulates the flow so perfectly that the ink never floods. The ink capacity is enormous.

And the everlasting nib—it's a marvel. It suits itself to any writing style. Just seems made for your hand. It is heavy 14-karat gold. Tipped with the hardest and finest grade of iridium that money can buy. Experts say this everlasting nib is the finest made.

Another big idea—clipped in pocket, purse, shirt-front, or notebook, the Wahl Signature Pen will not leak. The patented cap-construction assures this. The gold band you see around the cap prevents splitting.

There are two big sizes at $7 and $5—one for men, one for women. Ask for the Wahl Signature Pen. Other Wahl Pens from $2.50 up.

IRISH TRAIN FOR LOMBARD

Keogan's Men Beat Elkhart, 13-0; McCabe in Hospital With Fractured Jaw.

The Lombard team from Galesbury, Ill., will come here next Saturday, with the determination to make a brilliant showing against Notre Dame, and thereby add to their reputation as champions of the Little Nineteen Conference. The Irish are the big game of Lombards schedule.

In last Saturday's game between Lombard and Marquette, the sport scribes took particular notice of the Lombard punter, who displayed some good work in keeping the ball in the enemy's territory. The scribes further noted that Lombard secondary defense were deficient on breaking up short passes.

Rockne began the week yesterday afternoon, with some hard, fast practice and sent a part of the squad into scrimmage with the freshmen.

Coach Keogan has some exceptionally good material to work with, both in the line and backfield. O'Boyle is one of the hardest hitting halfback on the green-jerseyed squad. Whelan at center is a powerful factor in the middle of the line. Mayr and Bielli, alternating at right tackle, displayed some heady work on effective charging and blocking.

The Frosh team defeated the fast, heavy Elkhart team, 13-0, at that city, Sunday afternoon. The first half was scoreless, but in the second half, the Irish yearlings opened up a passing attack and scored. The second counter came as the result of an Elkhart fumble. McCabe of the freshmen sustained a fractured jaw and is now in St. Joseph's hospital.

The Notre Dame reserves, back from their battle with St. Viators, last Saturday, show the results of a hard-fought game. Cooke, Sullivan, Friske, Coughlin and Casey appeared on the field yesterday nursing some bad bruises.

BROWNSON LOSES.

The Brownson hall football team was defeated by the Roseland Panthers Sunday, 28 to 0, in a game played at Roseland. The Roseland team was fast and aggressive and out-played the Brownson team. No individual starrng was reported.

France Recovering Says Prof. Mercier

French foodstuffs are still very high, about four times what they were before the World War, Professor Charles Mercier, of the Philosophy department, said yesterday, following his return from Europe.

Mr. Mercier spent the summer in France with his wife and baby. They will follow Mr. Mercier here when he has secured a suitable apartment.

Clothing is about three times pre-war costs, but every way, but financially, he said, France has recovered from the war.

Crusade Officials Express Gratitude

In a resolution adopted by the delegates of the Fourth General Convention of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade held here August 9-12, an expression of gratitude is given those who helped make the Crusade a success, and those who assisted in the entertainment of the delegates.

A special expression of gratitude and respect is extended by the resolution to:

"The Very Reverend Matthew J. Walsh, C. S. C., President of the University of Notre Dame, our zealous and gracious host, for his kindness to us during the days of our stay in this splendid University of Our Lady;

"The Rev. Thomas P. Irving, C. S. C., for his splendid presentation of beauties and facilities of Notre Dame which determined our choice of Notre Dame for our convention;

"The Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, C. S. C., our self-sacrificing manager and director, for his efficient and most courteous care during our stay here and his genial direction of our activities;

"The Rev. John O'Hara, C. S. C., for the spiritual service rendered to us and the priestly interest shown in our behalf."

Expressions of gratitude also are given Robert O'Riordan, the Sisters of Holy Cross, the Women of St. Mary's College, the people of South Bend, the Rev. Vincent Mooney, C. S. C., the students of Moreau Seminary, Roland Guerin, the University Publicity committee, O. A. Clark, Al Ryan, musicians, etc.

PROF. HINES BACK.

Professor J. F. Hines of the History department, who has been absent from his classes since last Monday, resumed his duties yesterday. He was suffering from a slight attack of ptomaine poisoning.

PROF. J. CAPARO TALKS TO CLUB

Broad, General Education Necessary for Engineers, He Says; Four Committees Are Appointed.

Four important committees were appointed at the second meeting of the Notre Dame branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers held last night in the Engineering building. Dr. J. A. Caparo addressed the 60 members that were present.

The following committees were appointed by the president: Publicity—Michael J. Adrian, Austin V. Reilly, R. C. Miller. Entertainment—B. C. Ong, B. Meagher, C. Beck, William Laughlin. Membership—Walter Moran, C. P. Hasel, M. Knaun. Improvement—Dr. J. A. Caparo, Prof. John Northcott, H. Dooling. A freshman representative will be appointed.

A suggestion that a mass be said for Ray Stephan, a junior member drowned this summer, was approved by the meeting and a resolution of sympathy will be drawn up and sent to Stephan's parents. Comment was made on the exceptionally good attendance at the meeting and good speakers were promised for the remainder of the year if the interest continued.

Dr. Joseph Caparo was the main speaker. He chose as his subject "The Value of a Technical Education."

During the course of his talk Dr. Caparo emphasized the fact that in a technical Engineering course there must be included a broad, general education, such as is given by Notre Dame. This, he declared, must be the engineer is to take his place alongside of the other college graduate.

"The engineer serves humanity. He must have certain qualifications, an abundance of knowledge, skill and information. He must know men to make them produce," he said.

The next meeting of the A. I. E. E. will be held in two weeks.

BLACK AS THE ACE OF SPADES—SMOOTH AS A POLISHED JEWEL

First Pen made for Students only

Designed by Geo. S. Parker for their special needs and made by Duofold craftsmen—

yet offered at only $3

JUST as the Parker Duofold and Lady Duofold are recognized as the aristocrats of pens priced at $5 and higher, so this new Parker D. Q. is the blue-blood of pens in the medium-priced class. Indeed the same crafts-guild that produces Parker Duofold makes this Parker D. Q. that we announce at only $3.

Parker designed this pen based on a study of the students' requirements and desires. Hence it's a pen that is practically made to the students' order. We know of no other with this special ring to link to note-book, and no other this size under $5 with a special metal girdle to reinforce the cap. Yet no extra charge is made for these features, or for the super-smooth point of 14k gold tipped with Native Iridium.

Insist on seeing this new creation. Any good pen counter can supply you, but look carefully for the stamp of the genuine, "Geo. S. Parker—Lucky Curve."
