

T. A. DALY GIVES HUMOROUS TALK ON "BEING IRISH"

COLUMNIST REVEALS BITS OF IRISH HUMOR; POPLARITY SHOWN BY ATTENDANCE

Tom Daly, Italian and Irish dialect poet, and column writer of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, gave an entertaining lecture to an enthusiastic audience in Washington hall last evening. Mr. Daly has lectured at Notre Dame many times and the large crowd that turned out to hear him last night, in spite of the exams, is a proof of his popularity.

The topic of the lecture was "The Fun of Being Irish," and was primarily a humorous talk, although several bits of Irish philosophy were sprinkled throughout.

Humor There

Mr. Daly said that no Irishman can or tries to explain Irish humor, but no one denies that it is there. There are few Irish humorists or Irish lecturers, and a few number of them appear on the stage. Those of the Emerald Isle have received their reputation for this quality only from their everyday talk, and because, as Mr. Daly stated, "They don't need a diagram to see a joke."

"An Irishman's wit is so great," said Mr. Daly, "because he mixes his faith with his humor, his humor with his faith, and poetry with both." The Irish plays a great part in Irish wit, and the new Shamrock of Ireland is Faith, Humor and Poetry.

Puns on Congress

Mr. Daly bombarded his hearers with all sorts of jokes which were greatly appreciated. He said that in his opinion, if there had been more Irish wit in congress, "we would not now have this ghastly joke of prohibition." The speaker, however, gave a "Dutchman" the credit for composing the cleverest toast he has ever heard.

The lecturer concluded his talk by reciting a few poems of his own composition, among which he read the "Italian Cure for the Blues," and the "Tide of Love."

Campus Democrats Elect First Officers

Ninety men were enrolled as charter members of the Democratic club of Notre Dame at an organization meeting in the library Tuesday noon. Besides the enrolling of members, a constitution was adopted, officers of the club were elected and plans briefly outlined at the meeting.

Officers were chosen as follows: President, Charles Moltz; vice-president, Conroy Scoggins; secretary, Jerry Fox; treasurer, Francis McFadden.

A membership campaign, which will invite students to enlist in the "Back to Honesty" movement, will begin within the next few days. The membership drive will be followed by a number of meetings at which Democratic leaders will be the speakers.

A letter was read showing that the club is sponsored by the Democratic National committee. Plans were outlined for participation in the campaign work to come later, as well as ways and means of securing well known speakers to address not only the club, but the entire student body as well.

The men chosen for the executive committee are: Brownson, Charles Donahue; Carroll, Paul E. Sagstetter; Corby, "Mike" Gibbons; Sorin, Paul Breen; Badin, Norbert Clancy; Walsh, Robert Curry; Sophomore, Clem Crowe; Freshman, Frank C. Bischoff; off-campus, Gilbert Schaefer.

The constitution and by-laws will be presented soon to the S. A. C. to secure its approval and official campus recognition.

Rev. Chas. O'Donnell Gives Lenten Sermon

The Very Rev. Charles O'Donnell, C. S. C., provincial, delivered the sermon last night in the Sacred Heart church, on "Our Enemy, the Devil."

He discussed the personality of the devil, emphasizing the many ways that this individual has of disguising himself. Father O'Donnell also stated that while the devil, in tempting people, usually depends on their sense of sportsmanship, he himself is in reality the worst of sports, and will lose no chance to betray his supposed friends.

The sermon was followed by the usual benediction. Father Irving, C. S. C., vice-president of the university, officiated at this service.

SOPHS ELECT SEARS TO S.A.C.

Barnabas Sears, of the Law school, was elected to represent the Sophomore class in the Students' Activities council at a special meeting of the class in the south room of the library yesterday at 12:30. Sears won over Tommy Farrell, his only opponent, by a vote of 36 to 14. He succeeds Bob Cahill, who withdrew from the university at the close of the first semester in February. Sears will take his place in the S. A. C. for the first time at the meeting Friday.

A postponement of the meeting was attempted, when a member with approximately a hundred proxy votes asked that those men whom he represented be given a chance to vote at a future meeting. A short discussion as to the value of the proxy votes ensued. Don Gallagher, president of the Senior class and a member of the class election committee, explained the S. A. C. ruling that such votes by proxy were void according to the rules on class balloting.

FR. MAHER SERIOUSLY SICK

Rev. Timothy Maher, C. S. C., aged 93, the oldest priest in the community, is ill with pneumonia at the community house. His condition has not yet reached the acute stage and there is some hope for his recovery. His nephew, Rev. William O'Ryan, pastor of St. Leo the Great church, of Denver, Colo., is visiting him.

Newspaper Praises Bestor's Orchestra

Don Bestor's orchestra, among the best of the Benson Victor Record recording organizations, which will play for the Notre Dame Senior ball, completed a weeks engagement in Oklahoma City, Okla., Saturday, according to word received here today by Owen Desmond, chairman of the ball committee. An Oklahoma paper called them "the headline feature entertainment of the eighth annual automobile show" and the "most expensive dance orchestra ever brought to the state."

The orchestra went directly from Oklahoma City to Camden to record for Victor, and from there proceeds to Atlantic City to play an engagement on the famous "Million Dollar pier."

EXAMS STARTED YESTERDAY

The third quarterly examinations began yesterday, and will continue in all the colleges except the Law school, which has only semester exams, until Saturday. The fourth and last quarter of this year's work will begin officially on Monday.

INTERHALL BALL SLUGGERS GET ACTIVE SUNDAY

FIVE GAMES SCHEDULED EACH WEEK UNTIL SEASON ENDS; TEN TEAMS COMPETING

Interhall baseball teams will get their first taste of action Sunday, when five scheduled games will be played on Cartier field, weather conditions permitting.

According to the schedule as drawn up by the Interhall Athletic board, there will be five contests staged each week, as many as possible being played on Sunday. The games that are forced to be postponed should be arranged by the rectors to be played off before the following Sunday. The schedule will close the week of June 1.

The success of the interhall sports so far this season, promises an unusually fast diamond season, with ten teams battling for the championship.

Following is the schedule for the season:

Sunday, April 6

Carroll vs. Sorin.
Walsh vs. Cadillac.
Day vs. Brownson.
Corby vs. Badin.

Sunday, April 13

Sorin vs. Badin.
Carroll vs. Sophomore.
Walsh vs. Freshman.
Day vs. Cadillac.
Brownson vs. Corby.

Sunday April 20

Corby vs. Cadillac.
Brownson vs. Badin.
Carroll vs. Walsh.
Sorin vs. Sophomore.
Day vs. Freshman.

Sunday, April 27

Corby vs. Freshman.
Brownson vs. Cadillac.
Carroll vs. Day.
Sorin vs. Walsh.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR GET-TOGETHER

LAWYERS HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET AT COLLEGE INN APRIL 9

The annual Lawyers' "get together" will take place Wednesday night, April 9, in the College Inn, and will be featured by a great variety of entertainment drawn entirely from the students of the College of Law.

An orchestra under the direction of Buck Hennes, '24, will furnish the music. The Glee club will form a double quartet, and will present several of the club's repertoire, along with a special number. The inimitable Charley Butterworth will present a few numbers, and Jim Crowley will also present an act.

The speeches of the evening will be delivered by Dean Konop, and some prominent member of the St. Joseph county bar, to be announced later. Refreshments will be served by the management of the College Inn, and plenty of smokes will be provided. Tickets will be on sale Thursday noon, and all pre-law men are invited to be present, thereby getting acquainted with the club's activity for future years.

The affair will be in charge of Ed. Buckley, assisted by a general committee composed of Ray Brady, Mike Schmitt, Farrell Johnson, Tom Barber, and Jack Stanton.

TOMORROW

8 p. m.—Oratorical Contest, Washington hall.

Toledo Club Plans Dance for Easter

The Toledo club, at a meeting held last evening, completed its plans for a dance to be given in Toledo during the Easter holidays. It was decided to call the dance the "Bunny Hop," and all the decorations and program arrangements are being carried out accordingly. The dance will be held April 22.

The dance is to be informal, and invitations will be extended to all Notre Dame men that happen to be passing through on that night.

It was decided not to bring the Glee club down to Toledo, as had been planned, because there would be a conflict with the large Mozart choir of Toledo, that is giving an Easter concert.

CARNIVAL TICKETS ON SALE TODAY

CLUBS PARTICIPATING ARE URGED TO MAKE REPORT; ACTRESS SCHEDULED

Tickets for the S. A. C. carnival, which will take place next Monday in the gym, will be on sale today. The S. A. C. wishes to emphasize to the various clubs and organizations participating in the carnival, the necessity of reporting the progress of their act to the secretary of the S. A. C. Reports have been received from the following organizations: Metropolitan club, Drama club, Kentucky club, Law club, Glee club, Dante club, S. A. C., Corby hall, Blue Circle, and the Band. All organizations intending to present an act, and whose names do not appear in the list, are asked to report not later than Thursday evening.

George Bischoff, secretary of the S. A. C., makes the following announcement, that the greatest surprise of the carnival will be the appearance of a well-known actress, whom he claims will carry away all carnival honors in supplying entertainment.

Two prominent ballyhoo men have offered their services and will be present Monday night to greet the fun seekers. A stage 30 by 20 feet will be constructed in the east end of the gym. The S. A. C. has decided to withhold until Sunday's issue the announcement of the prizes to be awarded.

Day Dogs Sell Vaudeville Tickets

Tickets for Day-Student vaudeville show, which will be presented in Washington hall on April 10 and 11, will be placed on sale today. They can be purchased at the newsstand, the cafeteria, the off-campus office, and at Hulle and Mike's. The list of students having tickets for sale will be announced in the next issue of the DAILY.

Rehearsals are being held daily, and plans for the production of the show are rapidly being completed. About ten acts of high class vaudeville will be presented at both performances. The show will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and those in charge promise that the usual delay between acts will be dispensed with. A large portion of the proceeds from the show will go to the Notre Dame Scholarship club of South Bend for the education of needy students at the university.

ROOM RESERVATIONS

The attention of students residing in either Walsh, Corby, Badin, Freshman, or Sophomore halls, is called to the fact that if they desire to retain their present rooms for next year they must make reservations before April 25. Reservation fee is $25, and it must be deposited with the registrar on or before that date.

STATE ORATORICAL MEET TOMORROW WASHINGTON HALL

SEVEN STATES IN ANNUAL CONTEST; NOLAN REPRESENTS NOTRE DAME

The annual contest to decide the champion orator of the seven states belonging to the eastern division of the Interstate Oratorical association will be held in Washington hall Friday evening, April 4, at 8 o'clock. The program will be in charge of Professor W. N. Brigrance of Wabash college. Professor Brigrance is the present divisional manager and the presiding officer of final contests of the eastern division.

Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky are the states that are entered in tomorrow's debates. Each of these states is sending its best orator to Notre Dame in the hope of annexing the honors of the eastern division, and being represented in the final contest for national honors to be held at Northwestern university on April 25.

Nolan Represents Notre Dame

Mark Nolan of Notre Dame won the state contest and consequently the right to represent Indiana in the interstate debate. Nolan, a senior in the Law school, is well qualified to represent Notre Dame in this debate because he has competed successfully at the university since his freshman year.

It is expected that the largest crowd to witness a state oratorical contest at Notre Dame will be present in Washington hall Friday night. The University orchestra will play several selections before and after the debates.

Proteges of Carberry in Sport Limelight

Among the many reports that have recently come to Notre Dame concerning the successful seasons experienced by former Notre Dame athletic stars who are now coaching, there is included the news of the phenomenal success attained by the St. Bonaventure college basketball quintet coached by Glen "Judge" Carberry, Notre Dame end in 1921-22 and captain in 1922.

The St. Bonaventure five got away to a slow start the first part of the season, but under the careful tutelage of Carberry, the team struck its real stride during the last lap of the schedule and was hailed by eastern basketball critics as one of the most formidable college quintets in the East. Considering that "Judge" will have four regulars back next year, the prospects for a wonder court machine in 1925 are exceptionally good.

The former Notre Dame star is just getting his baseball squad into shape and reports that with an abundance of fair material he hopes to have a high class diamond aggregation.

Girls' Number of The Juggler Out Soon

The Girls' Number of the Juggler will be released the second week in April, according to Dan Hickey, editor of the Notre Dame magazine of humor. A great deal of clever work has been received from girls all over the country, and this number will be exceptionally well illustrated. The prize for the most distinctive art work in the magazine has not yet been decided upon, and more news will be available later on in the week.

THE DAILY'S STAND FOR NOTRE DAME

A union building to be built as soon as possible.
A well-organized student body, residing on the campus.
True recognition and appreciation of good scholarship.

RESPECT FOR TRADITION

Tradition is a peculiar thing. It can be enforced only by cooperation among those who respect it.

At Notre Dame there has long been a tradition that there is to be no smoking on the quadrangle in front of the main building. The limits which has been set extend from the main building to the statue of the Sacred Heart, and from the church to Washington hall.

There is no penalty for violating this tradition. Any man who chooses may openly stroll into that territory this morning and smoke. But if he is seen by an older Notre Dame man to whom the tradition was a part of Notre Dame he will strike a blow that can never be repaired.

It has been a respected tradition for many years. The DAILY hopes the student body will not permit it to pass.

HOW WELL WE KNOW—

Spring is here. Spring with its myriad soft, tender influences that leave the soul warm and glowing—wet, soggy spring. It is spring that awakens pink and budding mind meanderings, to the cadence of robins, whispering breaths of scented air—and louder notes creeping in from fields that are being enriched. Spring it is that turns and stirs the mind to thoughts of poetry, and love, dreams scarce dreamed—and exams and conditionals.

We shall have walks through the fields, viewing nature in her yearly re-birth, dwelling on the beauties of the flowers, the birds, the greenness—and looking out for toads and snakes. We shall sit for long minutes beneath budding trees and blue skies in ascetic lethargy—wondering why we feel so dumb. We shall dust off the phone book and have delightful dates—and kick ourselves next day for what the evening cost.

In short, spring is here!

HOW MUCH ARE YOU WORTH?

Do you realize that science places your value at 98 cents? Just that amount would cover the cost of chemicals used to make up the human body.

So the fellow who exclaimed in chagrin: "I feel like 30 cents," is only 68 cents under normal market value.

This brings the query: "What makes man worth more than 98 cents?" Why can an individual worth less than a dollar demand a $10,000 a year salary?

In the equation of existence you are not weighed with the weights of pounds, but with the cubic centimeters of ability. The hammer is a good example to follow: Keep pounding; for a 98-cent hammer, with good steel in it, can bring down the Washington monument.

You are worth only 98 cents, yet the amount of interest you accumulate on top of that in accomplishment is what makes you worth your weight in gold.

A LESSON FOR SCOFFERS

The Prince of Wales is recovering from his latest fall from his horse. The world is laughing and suggesting a pony. It is not the first time the prince has fallen from his horse, and it may not be the last.

However that may be, the Prince of Wales gets up every time he falls and he tries again. He will soon learn how to ride his mount if his persistence continues. That will be a great thing in his favor. He may be a poor horseman, but he is far from a quitter. Think it over.

Money talks. Like most women—too much.

Some people take things for granted. Others take them for good.

Knocking is destructive. The only thing you should knock is a knocker.

The waste of time for want of planning its best uses is the costliest expenditure of our lives. Time is money, and it is so much more than money.—John Wanamaker.

At Other Colleges

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Post office employees have found that papers and "goodies to eat" are smuggled into school via the laundry box route. This is a violation of the parcel post law and in order to curb this practice, the post office officials will inspect every incoming laundry box. The Post office authorities recently declared that "the folks at home are to blame mostly, and that the students do not realize the seriousness of the offense."

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—Randolph Somerville, director of dramatics at Washington Square college, addressed a meeting of a dramatic society recently and stated that Mark Twain was on a level with Abraham Lincoln and Benjamin Franklin. A complete outline of Mark Twain's life was given which appealed greatly to the hearers.

PENNSYLVANIA UNIVERSITY—Dr. W. P. Harberson, in a speech defended the practice of "bumming." He said that a mile of travel of the right kind was equal to a year of college work. He strongly approved of students "bumming" home in the summer and during vacations.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY—Under the present system of athletics, the system is controlled by the alumnae with one faculty member serving on the governing board. The students are agitated and are voicing their sentiments that they should have a voice in the control of athletics.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—In a voting contest held recently Miss Elizabeth Gentry was selected to lead the junior prom which will be held during May. The queen is very popular in dramatic work. Four other contestants also ran for the honor.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—Plans are being made for the celebration of Alumni Day which will be held June 7. Major Fred L. Crossett, secretary of the Alumni Federation of New York university, recently declared that the celebration of Alumni Day increased interest in activities at the school and with the alumni.

ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY—The 1924 military ball recently held at Illinois proved to be a decided success. Dancing from 9 until 2 with intermissions for special acts made it one of the best. The dance was held in the gymnasium annex, which was decorated with pup tents, flags and machine guns to make a real military appearance.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY—Richard Henry Little, the conductor of the Chicago Tribune's Line o' Type or Two, recently lectured at the Medill School of Journalism. The writer told of personal experiences which were encountered as a war correspondent and declared that the days of war correspondents are over.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY—Two hundred and nine Northwestern men, members of the R. O. T. C. unit, signed a resolution petitioning the university authorities to require every student to sign a pledge of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States. This was done in order that there would be no doubt in the minds of the university and the general public as to where they stood on the subject of pacifism.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Cods will be given a course in life-saving and after the completion of the course the Red Cross will give final examination. Those who pass the test will be allowed to wear the Red Cross life saving pin. In order to be eligible to take the course, the students must be able to swim the pool ten times.

BREAKS RECORD

Johnny Weismuller broke his own swimming record in the 220-yard splash when he won the event in 2:14 4-5 in the National A. A. U. swimming tournament in Chicago Tuesday night.

THE OPEN FORUM

To the Editor of the DAILY:

It would be to the interest of Notre Dame if one of the university officials would appoint a manager of the university band. That the band is able to advertise Notre Dame as well as the athletic teams do was very admirably illustrated by the Pittsburgh trip last fall when the band accompanied the student body to witness the game between Notre Dame and Carnegie Tech.

At the present time the members of the band "turn out" well for rehearsals during football season because there is an incentive—the work of playing at the football games and the one trip with the student body during the football season. But after Thanksgiving, the records show a decrease in attendance. And why should the members be expected to report faithfully for practice? There are no concerts or trips to act as an inducement until the succeeding football season. Would the football players drill as regularly and earnestly as they do if "Rock" didn't have any games scheduled? I think not.

If an active faculty member were appointed to book a concert in some nearby place every two weeks, occasionally a week-end trip, and a spring concert tour of several days, the school would be getting a great deal of publicity. This alluring schedule would fill the band room at every rehearsal. The band would improve in size as well as quality, thereby increasing its power to advertise Notre Dame. In this manner an active faculty manager of the Notre Dame band would be a valuable asset to the university.—F. J. M.

Dick Falvey, varsity pitcher of the last year's baseball team has been transferred from the Chicago White Sox to the Beaumont club, it was announced yesterday.

Harry Denny, a South Bend lawyer, and graduate of Notre Dame, has become a candidate for state representative on the Republican ticket.

Tom Plouff and Mike Corry, former students at the university, and Walter James, of Chicago, are visitors on the campus, and are planning on an extended stay.

A class in religious instruction for non-Catholics who wish to learn something about the Catholic faith, will start next week. All those persons who are interested should hand in their names to Father O'Hara. This does not mean that all who enter this class must have the intention of becoming Catholics, but the class is being formed partly with the idea of instructing all those who know practically nothing of the Church except what they gather from the talk of the students.

The ladies of the Scholarship club of South Bend have secured a concession to sell candy at the S. A. C. carnival. This candy will be all home-made, or as nearly so as possible, and barrels of candy, doughnuts, cakes, pies, and cookies will be offered for sale. The sale of tickets on the new Studebaker sedan is reported to be progressing very favorably. The car will be raffled at the next scholarship dance. This dance, which will be given in the near future, is to be the last of the season.

DE PAUW PREPARES TO MEET IRISH

DOWNSTATERS RUN TRIALS FOR MEET WITH NOTRE DAME SATURDAY

Barring the advent of all undesirable weather the Notre Dame track team will make its initial appearance of the outdoor season when the Blue and Gold invade Greencastle for a dual meet with DePauw Saturday afternoon.

The meet should serve as a good seasoner for the Irish track squad which is beginning, one of the best outdoor track cards the school has ever had. The home events will be particularly attractive more for their quality than their quantity. The Illinois meet will create an intense interest throughout the middle west. The state meet will be of as much importance to Notre Dame as the western conference meet is to the Big Ten members. The title has rested with the Irish for nine years and Coach Rockne is particularly anxious that the Blue and Gold should top the scoring column again this year.

The DePauw tracksters have been in constant training for the past few weeks for the Notre Dame meet, and although the condition of the weather has forced the men to confine their efforts to the gym for the greater part of the time, the coach of the Greencastle squad hopes that his proteges will be able to make a good showing against the visitors. Outdoor work has also been slowed up at DePauw because of the condition of the track. Tryouts were held this week for the Notre Dame meet and the downstate track critics expressed themselves as being more than pleased with the showing made by the men, considering the muddy condition of the track. Several of the veterans from last year who are practically assured of a place on the team were unable to report for the tryouts, but several new men competed and gave creditable performances. The unfavorable condition of the field prevented Paul Jones from working out in the high jump and pole vault.

Injuries Cloud Hope for Illinois Victory

After the dopsters had predicted a victory for Illinois in the dual track meet with California on April 19, the sudden appearance of injuries to combine with the already unfavorable weather have done much to dampen the enthusiasm which has attended the practice sessions for the past few weeks.

Seth Hughes, star 220-yard dash man, is confined to the hospital and will be lost to the team for the California meet, and in all probability for the Drake relays, where he will be badly needed on the sprint teams. With Kyle, the colored sprinter already in the injured list, Bob Ayres pulled a tendon and will also be out of competition for some time. Both Brownwell and Angier have been suffering from minor ailments. The loss of Ayres, Kyle and Hughes will handicap the Illinois relay team at Drake where the Suckers set an American and a world's record last year.

MAJORS BREAK CAMP

The Boston Red Sox, after ten weeks' training in San Antonio, broke camp and started north this week. The St. Louis American League team also quit their winter quarters at Mobile.

TIGERS TRAIN FOR RELAYS

Coach Fitzpatrick, Princeton, with a squad of 170 trackmen out every day, is carefully grooming his star performers for the Penn relays. The dual encounter with Harvard and Yale will also occupy a prominent place in the sport light at Jungletown.

TERRIERS ON EDGE FOR SPRING TRIP

BASEBALL SQUAD SHOULD DEVELOP FAST WITH OUTDOOR WORK

The proximity of the date which marks the beginning of the southern jaunt for the Notre Dame baseball team has served to speed up preparations for the trip and Coach Keogan is making use of every chance to get in a session of outdoor practice. The outfielders in particular will benefit from the outdoor work and the coach will also be able to get a better idea of the caliber of the candidates trying out for the garden positions.

The change from the gym to field will also be a benefit to the batteries as well as to the fielders. The candidates for mound duty on the Irish 1924 varsity will be able to develop faster under the improved conditions and they will have greater opportunity to get into form pitching to batters.

Last night's practice session was featured with a pick-up game. Noppenberger and Magevney divided the mound duty on each side with two Frosh twirlers. Each (Continued on Page 4.)

On the Level

We often wonder how much scorn do the "old timers" evince when they attend a game of the so-called modern football. The question was brought to our attention with particular emphasis by reading the history of football at St. Louis university.

During the first five years of the sport there the school had to content itself with the ice-cold aloofness of the faculty refusing to support it, because it was too brutal. In those days, so the account says, the newspapers would invariably print the list of injured first, then the result and the account of the game would follow later. Several games were stopped in different cities by the police. With only three downs to gain five yards, the flying and shifting wedge were used and we can almost picture the trainer starting on to the field as soon as the ball was snapped.

Coach Rockne's football products who are now connected with the coaching business are being subjected to the same fate as their illustrious teacher. Eddie Anderson, captain in 1921; Joe Brandy, stellar quarterback in 1920, and Harry Mehre, center in 1921, are being hounded by tempting offers from other schools, and it is reported that Eddie Anderson has resigned from Columbia college, Iowa, to accept an offer elsewhere. Brandy has departed from St. Thomas college and signed at Ripon, while Harry Mehre is reported to have extended his services to the University of Georgia, where Frank Thomas, quarter back in 1921, acted as assistant coach last fall.

When we were kids, we liked to break windows, but now we enjoy seeing them mutilated by others, especially some of the candidates for the varsity baseball nine.

When the diamond performers took their first workout on the sod the other afternoon, we took pleasure in counting the prospective sluggers that will raise the batting (Continued on Page 4.)

KANSAS RELAYS IMPORTANT EVENT

MIDWESTERN STARS ENTER FIRST TRACK CLASSIC OF SEASON

The Kansas University relay games to be held at Lawrence, Kansas, April 19, have been slated by the dopsters to be one of the foremost track classics of the year, and indications garnered from the entry blanks mark the carnival as a truly national affair. South Dakota State and Texas University have already entered as representatives of their respective localities and in all probability Yale and Oregon State will sign up soon and thus complete the all-around representation.

With very few exceptions, all the prominent universities of the middle west will compete. The list will include Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, Texas and Kansas, winners of the university class relays last season. Butler, Kansas Teachers and Cornell will hold an outstanding place among the small college entrants.

Since the Kansas stadium has been selected for the midwestern Olympic tryouts, May 31, the approaching relay carnival will give the probable Olympic candidates an opportunity to become accustomed to the surroundings under which they will compete for the Olympic track team.

Track coaches throughout the middle west are pointing their proteges for the Kansas games with particular care since the carnival will be an indicator of the calibre of the midwestern track men and the track fans will also be able to get a line on the stars that should perform all season with no little success.

SPRING PRACTICE

(Continued from Page 3.) practice game and long session from now until the squad leaves for Atlanta, on April 10, will make it more easy for the coach to determine on the personnel of the squad that will journey through the south.

Coach Rockne's football squad continued the regular spring practice sessions last night after a one-day vacation due to the snow. The workout included dummy scrimmage and signal practice. The coach has as many as ten teams to work with every night and from all indications, there should be developed a wealth of material to build up the reserve ranks for next year where the varsity of 1925 will be developed.

Yale has been victorious the last three years. This classic has been an annual event since 1876. Yale has gained 26 victories while Harvard is credited with only 17. However, Harvard has made the four-mile course in the best time—making the distance in 20:02 in 1916.

Cornell, in the inter-university races on the Poughkeepsie course in 1901, made the four-mile course in 18:52 1-5.

ILLINOIS BASEBALL

The weather conditions in the vicinity of Urbana have kept the Illini baseball squad indoors for the past few days and along with the practice in the gym, Coach Lundgren is supplementing the practice sessions with chalk talks.

The Suckers start their spring trip next week and will open against the University of Mississippi. The route of the spring jaunt will take the Illinois squad down to the Gulf and several games will be played in the vicinity of New Orleans.
