

UNIVERSAL N. D. NITE WILL BE HELD APRIL 24

EXCELLENT PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR INITIAL SERIES OF ANNUAL MEETINGS

On the night of April 24, Notre Dame clubs all over the United States will meet and celebrate the first of an annual series of Universal Notre Dame Nights.

The following Notre Dame clubs in various cities have signified their intention to hold meetings in their respective cities, towns, or counties: The St. Joe Valley club, composed of alumni from South Bend, Mishawaka, and Elkhart; the Notre Dame club of Indianapolis; the Calumet District of Indiana; Michigan City; the Tippacanoe County club (Ind.); the Tri-City club, composed of Moline, Rock Island, and Davenport; Springfield (Ill.); Peoria; Akron; Cincinnati; Cleveland; Columbus; Dayton; Toledo; Youngstown; Detroit; Grand Rapids; Escanaba (Mich.); the Metropolitan District of New York; Rochester; Minneapolis; Milwaukee; Green Bay (Wis.); the Notre Dame club of Western Pennsylvania; Philadelphia; Boston; Springfield (Mass.); Washington, D. C.; Louisville; St. Louis; Kansas City (Mo.); Jacksonville (Fla.); New Orleans; Sioux Falls (S. D.); Denver; Los Angeles; Portland, and Seattle. This is a complete list up until April 10.

Headquarters at Pittsburgh

The headquarters of all the meetings will be in Pittsburgh, at the meeting of the Notre Dame club of Western Pennsylvania. The meeting of the Washington (D. C.) Notre Dame club will include as guests of honor Senators Watson and Ralston of Indiana, and Representatives Hickey, of Indiana, and the Hon. N. J. Sinnott, '92, of Oregon.

Program Offered

The following program will be broadcasted from Station WGAA, the South Bend Tribune, at 7:30 p. m., on the wave length of 360 meters with a range of 500 to 900 miles:

Music—by the University Band. Universal Notre Dame Night Greetings—by Rev. Thomas P. Irving, C. S. C., vice-president of the university.

Music—by Harry Denny's Collegians, Harry Denny, '23, director.

Universal Notre Dame Night Address—by A. R. Erskine, president of the board of lay trustees and president of the Studebaker Corporation of America.

Music—by the Monogram Club Quartet, singing the now famous "Gaboon" song and other unpublished campus numbers. They will be assisted by others from the cast of the Monogram Club 1924 Absurdities.

Address by the Very Rev. Matthew J. Walsh, C. S. C., president of the university.

Music—Specialties by Harry Denny's Collegians.

Message—from Knute K. Rockne, Notre Dame's greatest athletic director and coach.

Music—"The Victory March" and "The Hike Song," by the University Band.

J. H. Neeson, in his message to the Alumni, in the March issue of the Notre Dame Alumnus, urges the clubs to get together and put on some form of entertainment, such as a dinner dance, a smoker, a club meeting, etc., and to make it worthy of the club and of Notre Dame.

A. C. Ryan, chairman of the Universal Notre Dame Night committee, has sent out letters to every Notre Dame club in the United States urging them to hold a meeting on this night, and if possible to listen in on the program which will be broadcasted.

Mrs. Aline Kilmer Talks to Scribblers

Aline Kilmer, widow of Joyce Kilmer, read some of her prose and poetry to the members of the Scribblers at a special meeting Saturday afternoon. She was introduced by Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, C. S. C.

Mrs. Kilmer read a chapter from a book being prepared by her, and also read and commented upon "They," "Birthday of a Middle-Aged Child," and a poem beginning "Michael walks in autumn leaves." The poems and the chapter, as most of her writings, were on the subject of her children. The chapter, told in her leisurely, colorful style, concerned the incidents of an afternoon with her children. It is one of three chapters completed for the contemplated book.

After a short time at the university, Mrs. Kilmer left early yesterday afternoon.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PROM COMPLETED

GLEE CLUB, K. OF C. DANCES AND ATHLETIC EVENTS ARE FEATURES

Completing the program of events for the Junior week-end comprised the work of the committee on arrangements for the event at a confab held yesterday. The activities are scheduled to begin Thursday evening, May 1, with the Glee club concert and dance in the Palais Royale. Special seating arrangements will be made for the juniors and their guests at this affair. Friday at 3 p. m. the varsity baseball team will entertain with a contest with Wabash.

The outstanding change in the program will be the formal reception of the Prom guests at the Palais Royale from 9 to 10:30. This was thought expedient to accommodate the guests from out-of-town and St. Mary's, and to do away with the ancient complaints about late starts and jumbled grand-marches. Promptly at 10:30 the grand-march will begin, when Jean Goldkette takes the platform, playing the Hike Song.

Football and Track

Saturday afternoon the track team and football squad will entertain the Prom guests.

Saturday night the Knights of Columbus will close the dancing festivities with their annual informal dance at the Oliver. This affair is open to all campus men. The week-end will come to a solemn close Sunday morning with high mass in the Sacred Heart church.

Further arrangements of interest to the juniors will be discussed tomorrow noon at a general class meeting, at which all juniors are urged to be present.

There are still a few tickets to be had by calling at 123 or 243 Corby hall.

GLEE CLUB GOES TO OHIO CITIES ON CONCERT TOUR

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN IN FIVE OHIO CITIES DURING EASTER WEEK

Announcement that the Glee club Easter concert tour would include appearances in Cleveland, Akron, Niles, Elyria, and Sandusky, was made yesterday following a business meeting of the club held in the library. Final instructions were issued to members of the organization, and plans were discussed for the annual South Bend concert to be held May 1.

The first concert will be presented in Cleveland on Easter Monday, April 12. The Notre Dame club of Cleveland is sponsoring this appearance, which will be in the ballroom of the Statler hotel. Here, as throughout the week, Dr. Browne will direct. Elaborate preparations have been made for a ball following the concert.

Two Thousand Reservations

Tuesday the club will sing in Akron, at the armory, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, and the Notre Dame club of Akron. It is reported that more than two thousand reservations have already been made for this concert and dance. On Wednesday Niles, an Ohio city where last year's organization scored an Easter success, will be given a program in the McKinley Memorial building, arrangements having been made by the Knights of Columbus of that city. Dancing will follow the songs. Elyria is on the schedule for Thursday evening.

The Knights of Columbus of Sandusky are bringing Notre Dame's songsters back to their city on Friday evening. It was at Sandusky that the 1923 club scored its biggest success during last Easter's tour. With this in mind Sandusky has engaged the largest auditorium in town, and expects to make this year's concert a greater success than the former one. Sandusky concludes the cities now on the list for Easter week.

Go to Chicago Later

Members of the Glee club will work during vacation on plans for the South Bend concert and dance to be given at the Palais Royale on May 1. Within a week or so after the South Bend engagement, Dr. Browne will take the club to Chicago. As Dr. Browne is well known for his many musical triumphs in that city, the Chicago concert should prove a memorable one.

Joseph Casasanta, assistant director of the club, left last week for his home in Milford, Mass. He will join the club in Cleveland on Easter Monday.

Some Go Home For Easter Vacation; Others, Broke, "Winter" in South Bend

Once more Easter with its free days rolls around to break the monotony for the lawyers and for the commerce men—the rest of us must continue to labor in order to get caught up with last quarter's work. Therefore, next Tuesday at noon, the aforesaid LL.B.s and Ph. B.s of Comm. will dash madly from court and accounting, change to the other shirt, and with their roommate's tooth brush radiate in all directions to those famous cities known as "home towns."

Other of us less fortunate, Litt. B.s, etc. (having caught up in our public speaking)—may find time—I doubt it seriously, however—to exchange pens for putters, euphony for U-Drivits, and phonetic sounds for phoney phone numbers. (We also may be able to get in a few fox trots instead of fox passes at the Palais.)

Another startling fact brought to light is the intended conduct of the Walshites. Of course, the fourth floor will continue to remain dormant during the morning hours, and the other inmates declare that they will brave the list of the proscribed and say their morning prayers in bed, thus rendering nil all the character infused in them throughout the year by the rector of the hall.

Dan Hickey and his henchmen, "Curley Frank," and "Joe, the Poet," are doing their best to put the Juggler out before vacation begins. Then, only a wild surmise could be ventured as to what they will do.

All in all, boys, it will be a great Week, (or weak?). And a Joyous Easter to you all.

A JOYOUS EASTER

With this, the last issue preceding the Easter vacation, the DAILY extends to its many readers its sincere wishes for a joyous Easter. The next issue of the DAILY will be on Saturday, April 26.

Excellent Opportunity Now on Easter Cards

The price of Easter cards which are being sold in all the halls and in the news-stand for the benefit of the Bengalese missions, has been reduced to 10 cents apiece. They may be obtained from the following men: McGonagle, Corby; Roman and Burke, Walsh; Clancy, Badin; Harmon, Freshman; Hargan and Baurne, Sophomore; Uhl, Brownson, and Daly in Carroll.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB PLANS SMOKER

CORDELL HULL PRAISES ENROLLMENT CARD METHOD

April 30 is the date tentatively fixed for an all-campus smoker to be given under the auspices of the Democratic club. The date was chosen at a meeting of the executive committee of the club yesterday.

Arrangements for speakers and entertainment at the smoker will be in the hands of a sub-committee composed of Robert Curry, Frank McFadden, and Paul Sagstetter. They will choose the place where the smoker will be held. There will be no admission charge, it was announced yesterday.

Men of National Prominence

The club is in touch with two men of national prominence who have under advisement invitations to come to Notre Dame, Charles Molz, president, informed the executive committee. One of them, a senator at Washington, has been very prominently in the public eye during the last three months.

A letter from Cordell Hull, read at the executive committee meeting, praised the enrollment card method which the club has introduced. The pledge card which the club has adopted will be used by the national committee, Hull declares, in the work of the new national Democratic collegiate bureau.

The campaign for membership will continue until every student on the campus has had an opportunity to sign an enrollment card, it was decided yesterday. In addition to the men whose names were published in Saturday's DAILY, the following will accept memberships: Robert Curry, Walsh; Clem Crowe, Sophomore; Lewis Murphy, off-campus; Frank McFadden, off-campus. All students are eligible regardless of age.

Library Announces Change of Schedule

Starting with Wednesday of next week, the Library will only be open in the afternoons from 1 till 5. On Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday the library will be closed both to patrons and visitors. On Easter Monday and Tuesday the schedule will be from 1 to 5, and the library will be open for full service on the Wednesday following Easter.

Students who are leaving the campus or who will be absent during vacation will do well to take cognizance of the schedule here presented, and will confer a favor on the library department by returning books loaned to them before their departure from the university.

IRISH DEFEAT GEORGIA TECH IN FIRST GAME

VERGARA'S HIT IN SIXTH GIVES IRISH VICTORY

ATLANTA, Ga., April 12.—Notre Dame opened its 1924 baseball season here today by registering a 4 to 3 victory over the Georgia Tech team. The Irish won from Allison, pitching ace for the Yellow Jackets, by bunching their hits in the fifth and sixth innings.

"Red" Magevney, veteran Notre Dame hurler, started the game on the mound, hurling six innings before being relieved by Jim Dwyer. Though both men were hard hit, they kept the bingles scattered.

It was George Vergara's timely single in the sixth with three men on the bags that gave the Irish the victory. Silver's catching was another feature, the Notre Dame backstop catching three Tech runners off the bags. Score:

Chicago Club to Entertain Apr. 22

The Chicago club's Easter formal will take place at the Blackstone, April 22. The music, formerly used by the Chez Pierre club, under the direction of Jimmy Vanderbosch, is the highest priced orchestra ever engaged by the club. Two extra pieces are being used due to the large size of the ballroom. Tickets are obtainable in all the halls, and if the sale exceeds 250, a limit will be placed.

HOW MANY?

Most people read but sixteen serious books in their lifetime, says Professor Robert M. Lovett. A writer in "Extension" says that the professor exaggerates, and although the statements of the two men are, at first, surprising, one is inclined to agree.

The best seller is the Bible, but most people buy that to put it "on a shelf and call it great." When they buy Shakespeare, Dante, Milton, and the rest, they do the same thing. Much of this lack of interest in "serious books" is due to the fact that they are so labeled. We treat Shakespeare with a curious kind of remoteness, as if he were a god that spoke things incomprehensible to ordinary minds. We forget that, in his time, he was as popular a playwright as Avery Hopwood or J. M. Barrie. He was a man, and a very human one at that. The brand of literature is the brand of death to literature. Because of this fear of the great, the best sellers that we read are the ephemeral nonentities.

Do college students read the "serious books"? Do you?

A COMPLETE FAILURE

News of the outcome of the recent conference of college students at Washington, called by the Citizens' Committee of One Thousand, is but the story of a failure.

The conference was called "for the purpose of working out a program of law observance and good citizenship among college students." It was to be a collegiate gathering. What actually happened was that prohibition was the only topic discussed and more than one-fourth of the members in attendance were not college students at all.

There were numerous speeches, several resolutions were railroaded through in a manner to shame a political caucus, and the college students who attended went home disgusted. Such conferences are an affront to the intelligence of a college student, and in result are worse than none at all.

THE SILENT SINGERS

Why is it that a man who can demonstrate the power of his lungs by stopping the Hill Street car with a shout from the steps of the Main building can't be heard across the aisle when he sings at services in the church?

The chorus that should swell the heavens and rise in a wonderful outburst is as weak as the quivering notes that would proceed from a songfest in the asthmatic ward of a home for the aged.

We have among us men who are noted for their ability as singers. But there seems to be something about the atmosphere of the church that makes the Notre Dame man slow to lift-up his voice in song. Can it be timidity? We have never been accused of timidity, so this is extremely doubtful.

We must come to the conclusion that there is no reason for this rather paradoxical condition of affairs. So can't we make full the church with a little more volume during the remaining few days of Lent?

BOOMERANG POWER

Now that Len Small has been nominated, we have been pinching ourselves every few moments to see if we are awake. After the attack on him by the Chicago Tribune, an attack that seemed, according to logic unnecessary to outline, to have at least some basis of truth, it looked like Small was doomed.

But he was not.

The other morning the "Voice of the People" in the Tribune was crowded with letters denouncing the W. G. N. for denouncing Small, and attributing Small's success to the Tribune's opposition.

Not so long ago the candidates opposed by almost all the New York papers won. The same thing is happening in all big cities.

Who started this "power of the press" stuff?

It takes a man strong in more ways than one to break a ten-dollar bill.

New Offerings on Stage and Screen

"Girl Shy"

Harold Lloyd's latest eight reel comedy, "Girl Shy," which has not yet been officially released, was given an advanced showing in the LaSalle theater Thursday morning. In the cast supporting him are Jobyna Ralston and Richard Daniels.

The picture is not Lloyd's best because there are times when the action is slow, but during the last few reels this inaction is made up for in the characteristic Lloyd manner of "Why Worry" and "Safety Last." It is in the last part that our spectacled hero has thrilling adventures in speeding automobiles, on frightened horses, on a speed cop's motorcycle, and on a runaway street car while he is hurry to prevent the girl he loves from marrying a man of disreputable character. Needless to mention, the aggressive Lloyd succeeds, and captures the young bride for himself.

Lloyd is a tailor's apprentice in a small town where the inhabitants feed from day to day on the scandal that grows out of the town's only dissipation—the Saturday night dance. He is more bashful even than the ordinary country youth; in fact, when a girl talks to him he becomes so frustrated he can do nothing but stutter when he attempts to talk.

He has a literary bent, and imagining that he knows all about women that there is to be known, he writes a book concerning them. While on the train to the city where he is to see a publisher, he meets a wealthy young Miss Mary Buckingham, and his first romance begins. When they reach the city and leave one another, he learns that women are not exactly as he had imagined in his novel. Nevertheless he presents it to the publisher, returns home, and dreams of the girl he had met on the train.

The girl too, longs to see her new acquaintance, and after a series of comical incidents they meet again, only to find that they are madly in love with each other.

When Harold received his rejection from the publisher, he realized that all of his chances to become financially successful were ruined, and so he leads Mary to believe that he was insincere in his love for her so as not to deprive her of a chance to marry the wealthy Rudolph DeVore. And Mary, believing that he actually did not love her, reluctantly accepted DeVore's seventh proposal.

On Mary's wedding day Harold received a rather juicy check for his manuscript which the publisher had reconsidered; and a few hours later he was informed that DeVore was married to another woman. It is at this point that Lloyd comes into his adroitness of acting while going to the rescue of the girl he marries.—R. C. C.

ILLINOIS FEATURES CONFERENCE TRACK

GILLMEN HAVE DEFEATED NOTRE DAME FOUR-TEEN TIMES

Statistics gathered from past performances of the University of Illinois track team have a significant bearing on track history in the United States in that they point to the Urbana school as being the home of some of the greatest track teams in the country. Harry Gill, without exception, has enjoyed the most brilliant track coaching career of which the history of the cinder sport can boast.

During the 20 years that Harry Gill has guided the track destinies of the Fighting Illini, he has been defeated by only two conference schools and one non-conference institution. Chicago and Wisconsin have the singular honor of having lowered the colors of the Suckers 12 times during two decades. California has been the only outside team to take the measure of the Gillman and next Saturday, Illinois will meet California on the cinders for the third time, and a desperate attempt will be made to defeat the Bruins who won the first two meets.

Notre Dame has been one of the four most frequent competitors of the Gillmen and in the 14 times that the two schools have met in dual meets, the Fighting Irish have always lost the encounter. Notre Dame came very close to winning the indoor encounter in 1923 when the relay was the deciding event on the program. Illinois has a good chance to defeat the Bruins and will probably be one of the headline performers at the Drake games, April 25-26. The Suckers will come to Notre Dame on May 10, for a dual meet and if Notre Dame should win on that day, the Fighting-Irish will have earned for themselves a high place in the history (Continued on Page 4.)

Electricals Defeat Miners Team, 16-12

The Electrical Engineers baseball team defeated the diamond squad from the Miners' department, 16-12, Friday afternoon. The men from the Electrical department featured the game with their smooth fielding.

Sturges of the Miners twirled a nice game, but failed to get the support of his team. The Miners showed to the best advantage when at bat, and a little more practice together should make them one of the most aggressive ball clubs in the league.

The baseball interest in the Engineering league has been heightened by the announcement that a pennant would be given to the team winning the Engineering league title. The pennant is being donated by the Clauer sporting goods store.

UNIQUE PITCHER

Ohio State boasts of a true baseball phenomena this season. The Big Ten school has a pitcher whose only defect is that he has too much control. When he has occasion to waste a ball, it gets him into difficulties.

N. D. GOLFERS CARD BIG TEN MATCHES

INDIANA AND PURPLE ON IRISH SLATE; TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE

The Notre Dame golf team, being favored by moderate weather, have begun preparations for the spring season. The matches with two conference schools this year mark the first time in the history of the school that conference golf teams have competed with Notre Dame players.

Indiana and Northwestern will tee-up with the Irish squad, and Loyola of Chicago will be the other school to appear on the golf slate as far as it is now completed. The Chicago school will meet Notre Dame of May 3, while Northwestern will journey to South Bend for a match on May 10. The Indiana university team will meet the locals on May 23.

Golf is one of the foremost of the minor sports in the Big Ten athletic circle and without exception enjoys a large following among the conference collegians. Several of the universities have their own courses, and included in the ranks of the college players are many performers who have starred in amateur tournaments.

The Notre Dame golf team will be built around a group of players who made up the squad last year. The list follows: Ward, Foglia, Harris, Adams, Mouch, and Corbett. Adams holds the university golf title and won amateur laurels in a city tournament at the Chain-o'-Lakes last fall. From the ranks of the freshmen golfers of last year,

DeLeo is perhaps the most promising player. Ray Bartzen of last year's squad left school in the fall and his loss will impair the work of the team to no little extent.

ILLINOIS TRACK

of mid-western track.

The Suckers will be strong in the field events where Notre Dame will be weak, and the nearest approach to equality will be in the javelin throw. The mile and two-mile will be nip and tuck affairs, while the Suckers will hold the advantage in the hurdles. The sprints and middle distance runs will be among the most spectacular events on the program. Illinois will present a coterie of fast men, but the Notre Dame men will push the Suckers all the way.

In the 20 years of the Gill regime, the Fighting Illini have participated in 101 dual meets; won 85, lost 14 and tied two.

Illinois has won 7 of the 20 outdoor conference meets and 7 of the 14 indoor meets, taking second place 5 times.

The success of the Illinois track team, which was something unknown to the Urbana school prior to the ascendancy of Harry Gill in 1904, is attributed directly to the coach's thorough knowledge of the track sport. He is a most capable handler of track men and for this reason alone was asked to become one of the chief coaches of the American Olympic track team. Gill's material has not been above the ordinary in very many cases, and he lays the foundation of his phenomenal track teams by ascertaining the capabilities of the candidates when they first report for the cinder sport and immediately begins to develop that which will make the candidate a potential track performer.

You won't fumble this cap!

Professional jugglers could handle the old-style shaving cream caps and never once drop one down the drain or under the bath tub. But for most of us, this new Williams Hinge-Cap puts an end to an ancient nuisance.

Williams Shaving Cream is just as much pleasanter to use as is the Hinge-Cap. It softens the beard with uncanny speed. The thicker lather holds the moisture in against the skin where it is needed. This lather lubricates the skin, too, so that painful razor friction is eliminated. And when your shave is done, that famous ingredient in Williams which helps the skin, leaves your face cool, soothed and refreshed. No coloring matter is used in Williams—it is a pure, natural-white shaving cream.
