

SILVER'S HOMER BEATS MICHIGAN

"RED" MAGEVNEY TWIRLS EXCELLENT BALL; DUNNE, NOLAN, DILLMAN, STAR

Jim Silver's home run with one man on base in the fourth inning, followed by a series of timely hits in the fifth that scored four runners, proved to be the undoing of the highly touted University of Michigan baseball when the Wolverines lost to the Irish on Carver field yesterday afternoon, 6 to 2.

"Red" Magevney on the mound for the Keoganites twirled excellent ball for the nine innings and was accorded unwavering support by his teammates. He struck out seven Michigan batters allowed seven hits and walked two men. Gillingham on the hill for the visitors allowed Notre Dame seven hits, five of which were counted during the fourth and fifth innings. He struck out three of the Irish batters and allowed three to reach first on balls. Magevney holding perfect command over the invaders at all times kept their seven hits widely scattered except for the second inning in which Michigan made its one and only flutter on the score board. Only once after the fifth inning did the visitors threaten to score. Blott reached third being pushed from behind by a base on balls and a single. Steger flied out and Wilson tapped a slow roller into the infield with the base felled and Blott was forced out at home.

Notre Dame came to bat in the

Class Oration Contests Soon

The annual class orations contests will begin Monday May 12, when the Juniors will give their speeches in Washington hall at four o'clock. The Sophomore contest will be held on Tuesday, May 13, and the freshman contest will begin on the third day of the services, Wednesday, May 14.

It has been the custom of the various underclass men for many years to hold these annual orations in the spring. Although the contests have always been successful, the number of contestants has not been as numerous as might be expected from such a large undergraduate body. An effort is being made this year to increase the number of contestants.

Owing to the peculiar economic there is an abundance of materials conditions of the country today, for original orations subjects. According to word received from the directors of the class contests the speech should be of sufficient length to cover from 10 to 15 minutes. The Director of Studies has announced that all of the contestants must leave their names at the office on or before May 10.

Commencement Bids Orders Are Taken

Orders for Senior Commencement invitations are now being taken, and those in charge will continue to do so till Monday, May 5. The committee in charge of Commencement invitations is composed of Paul De Paulis, chairman, Harold Londo, William Bailey, John Ryan, and Joseph Miller. The invitation for this year, are different in design from any previously used at this University, and were approved at the class meeting held yesterday. Their price is fifty cents which must be paid at the time of ordering because of the short time until commencement. It is urged that all orders be turned in as soon as possible to insure delivery in the latter part of May.

Sophs Nominate Dome Editors

Candidates for editor-in-chief, business manager, and art editor of the 1925 Dome will be chosen at a meeting of the Class of 1926 in the north room of the library at 12:30 Friday noon. The election, the first of the spring nominations, will be conducted by the S. A. C. election committee.

If more than two candidates are nominated for the positions on the Dome staff, the race will be narrowed by vote to two men for each of the places. The final election will, in that event, be held next Monday.

All Sophomores are urged to participate in the elections.

K. OF C. ELECT EGAN DELEGATE

DANCE AND INITIATION PLANS DISCUSSED; SANTA MARIA OUT SOON

Jimmy Egan was elected delegate to the annual Indiana state K. of C. convention at a special meeting of Notre Dame council, Knights of Columbus Tuesday night. Ray Cunningham and Al Hockwalt were chosen as alternates. The convention is to be held May 26 at Indianapolis.

Further arrangements were made for the initiation to be held Sunday, May 18. Grand Knight Mark Nolan stated that fifty candidates have been approved. Members having applications are urged to turn them over to the officers as soon as possible.

Ray Cunningham, editor of the Santa Maria, the official council organ, stated that the publication will appear during Senior ball week and will contain a number of new features. Anyone having any local personal material concerning members of the order are asked to see Cunningham.

Sale of Senior Ball Bids Ends This Week

Since the announcement that Senior Ball ticket deposits must be made this week, a surprisingly large number of tickets have been sold. Chairman O'Boyle of the ticket committee announces that any Senior who has not been appointed may make a payment in his room in Sorin hall. It is planned however to see every Senior this week, and its is urgently advised that the men have their money ready.

The Senior Ball committee wishes to emphasize the fact that those who intend to go the Ball purchase their tickets immediately, in order that their names may be engraved on the favors. It is absolutely essential that these names be in this week as the names must go to the engravers Sunday.

Just a few details need be attended to complete plans for the most pretentious Ball ever given in Notre Dame's history. It is the duty of every Senior to attend the Ball and to round out his college career in a most impressive manner.

Lawyers Get-Together Possible Next Week

The regular annual Get-Together Smoker of the Law school will be held as soon as sufficient tickets are sold, it was announced yesterday by the ticket committee. One hundred and thirty tickets, at least must be disposed of before expenses can be guaranteed. Tickets will be on sale all this week and if the requisite number is sold by Sunday the big time will be had Monday night.

DEMOCRATS FAVOR DURGAN AT SMOKER

PLEA FOR DEMOCRACY MADE BY DEAN KONOP; PROMINENT MEN ATTEND

George R. Durgan, mayor of Lafayette, was endorsed for the nomination of Democratic candidate for governor at a rousing smoker given by the Democratic club of Notre Dame in the Carroll hall "rec" room last night. Three hundred students attended the smoker.

"Fortunately for the party at least one candidate for the nomination will meet the test which the occasion demands," read the endorsement given Durgan, "Indiana Democracy can make no mistake if it nominates George R. Durgan of Lafayette."

"For 18 years Mr. Durgan has pushed progressive civic legislation and administered his duties fairly and honestly. His five terms as mayor have been a period of good government. He has opposed secret organizations designed to promote sinister purposes. He obtained passage of an anti-masking ordinance in his city. And not least of his qualifications, he has,

Post-Prom Dance Tickets Now on Sale

Harry Denny's nine piece orchestra has been secured to play for the Knights of Columbus Post-Prom informal dance to be given Saturday evening in the Oliver Hotel. One of the novelties of the dance is the clever program which has been worked out in harmony with the Knights of Columbus emblem.

One hundred and fifty tickets were placed on sale Tuesday and last evening only sixty seven remained unsold. The number of tickets is strictly limited, and admission cannot be gained to the dance without a ticket.

A special allotment of tickets has been made for each hall and those remaining unsold may be purchased from the following men: Egan, Badin; James, Corby; Hurley, Walsh; O'Boyle and Fogarty, Sorin; Cunningham, Freshman; Watson, Carroll; McClarnon, Brownson; and Quinlan, Sophomore.

Swift and Bischoff Go to Conclave

James Swift, president of the S. A. C. and George Bischoff, secretary of the same organization, left Tuesday and Wednesday respectively to attend the annual Midwest Students Conclave which is to be held in Knoxville, Tenn. May 2 and 3. The purpose of the gathering is primarily to compare methods of student government, so that each college can profit from the experiences of the others.

Besides being the president of the S. A. C., Swift is also the student athletic manager, and he will open the discussions at the conven-

Meehan Medal Contest Extended

All essays for the Meehan Medal, which is awarded each year to the Senior who writes the best essay in English, must be handed in before May 10th. The original date on which the contest was to be closed was May first, but Prof. George N. Shuster, who has charge of the contest, said that he would grant this extension of ten days.

Mrs. Eleanor Meehan, of Covington, Ky., is the donor of this gold award. An essay offered in competition may be on any subject approved by the head of the Department of English, and if none of them deemed of sufficient merit the medal is not awarded. Vincent D. Engles was the winner of the medal last year.

SENIOR BALL WEEK EVENTS DETAILED

FESTIVITIES BEGIN WEDNESDAY AND CONTINUE UNTIL SUNDAY

N. D. Meets Indiana in Special Game Today

By special arrangement the Notre Dame baseball team will meet the University of Indiana at Indianapolis this afternoon, the special game being played for the benefit of the Indiana Olympic fund. The Keoganites will entrain this morning for the capital city.

After scoring a decisive victory over Michigan in yesterday's game, the Terriers hard hitting ball club will encounter the strong Wabash college squad on Carver field tomorrow afternoon. The downstate team have given every indication thus far of a strong ball club and in defeating DePauw, 11 to 4, Tuesday afternoon, the Little Giants laid particular emphasis on the slugging end of the game.

The Giants will also have the services of several of last year's veterans whose playing will strongly bolster up the general performance of the team. Instead of taking the customary spring trip, the Wabash nine spent their conditioning period playing with a semi-pro ball club in Crawfordsville.

The University of Indiana nine will appear here next Tuesday afternoon on the regular schedule and Notre Dame will play the return game with the crimson hall tossers on the following Friday.

Indiana after getting away to a slow start in the opening games of the conference season displayed a reversal of form and has become one of the most aggressive ball clubs on the Big Ten circuit.

JUNIOR FESTIVITIES BEGIN TOMORROW

JEAN GOLDKETTE'S ORCHESTRA TO FEATURE; JAPANESE GARDEN EFFECT

The revelry of the spring season will reach its climax tomorrow night in the Palais Royale when the Junior class entertains with its annual Prom.

Preparations have been going on for months, and committees at a general meeting Thursday, agreed that everything was complete to mark the affair the most successful ever held at Notre Dame. The decorations committee has been especially active and it has arranged a setting for the Prom that will give the affair the atmosphere of a Japanese Rose garden in full bloom. The arrangements committee is providing special features to be introduced between the numbers thus relieving the monotony of an ordinary dance. The ticket committee has placed tickets in the hands of over two hundred Juniors and Seniors making an assurance that the Prom will be a financial success.

The men in charge of the receptions will receive with the patrons and patronesses from nine to ten o'clock. The Big Five Orchestra will play during this hour and there will be an opportunity to make introductions and fill out the programs.

Over two hundred girls from all over the United States will begin to

Freshman Journalists Hear 'Paper Men

Ralph R. Reed, managing editor of the South Bend News-Times, gave an interesting lecture before the Freshman journalists in the journalism room of the library Tuesday morning. He was assisted in his talk by two members of his staff, Lincoln J. Carter and Harry C. Elmore. The lecture was the first of a series that is to be given to the class by prominent newspaper men from South Bend and nearby cities. These talks are sponsored by the Cubs, a news campus organization of the freshmen journalists.

Mr. Reed was introduced by Professor Cooney. He spoke of the general profession, of its joys and sorrows, and of the many problems that a journalist. He emphasized the importance of make-up, and gave many aids that help the appearance of a paper. The value of are was clearly shown and linked with the part the pictures play in the modern newspaper. In closing his instructive talk he repeated the old adage of the newspaper profession that once a man enters the newspaper life he can never completely leave it to take up other work.

The staff photographer, Mr. Elmore, was next introduced. He gave the students some insight into his work, by showing some of the methods and problems of picture taking. Mr. Elmore stressed the importance of the beneficial results that a reporter can obtain both for himself and for his newspaper by having at least a fundamental knowledge of photography.

To complete the lecture Mr. Carter a reporter on the day staff, told of the experiences of reporting and talked of the requirements of a reporter. In speaking of his work he said that every day of a reporter's life is different from the preceding one, and for this reason the work never grows old.

THE GLEE CLUB RETURNS.

The Notre Dame Glee Club returned recently from its tour through Ohio. The trip this year was more successful than any previous one, especially in the matter of attendance at the concerts in the various cities visited. Packed auditoriums greeted the men and the enthusiastic applause and frequent demands for encores bespoke an appreciation most stimulating and encouraging to the singers.

It has been said and repeated many times that the average American audience merely tolerates classical music and does not find it either entertaining or interesting. This season the Glee Club has very few numbers on its program which were not selections from the works of classical composers. The reception accorded it in Cleveland, Sandusky, and other towns on its itinerary seems a fairly good refutation of this cynical fabrication.

THE JUNIOR PROM.

As the first stirring strains of the "Hike Song" pour forth and the first careful steps of the grand march are begun around the beautiful ballroom tomorrow night, the achievement of many dreams and the culmination of much endeavor will be reached. This will be the reward of much work and worrying, of painstaking selection and active enthusiasm. But there is more behind the prom than this alone. Notre Dame is deservedly famous for the high, clean standards of all forms of entertainment fostered by her student body. The class dances are no exception. This Junior prom is no exception. Working constantly towards the goal of a successful prom, the men in charge have always kept in mind the traditional splendor of class dances at Notre Dame, and every indication shows that they have succeeded remarkably well in establishing their dance on this high plane. An orderly and dignified prom is the prospect. May the fondest hopes of the committee be realized!

NATIONAL BOY WEEK.

This is "Boy Week" throughout the nation. In practically every city of any size whatever this week is being observed in some manner or other. Essentially, this movement (unlike the "Walk and be Healthy Week," and the numerous other weeks which are observed purely for mercenary reasons,) is celebrated to stimulate a greater interest in the adults of the country towards providing for the proper development of our boys—the men of tomorrow.

It is a known fact, that if the product of a great industrial concern is to compete in the world market with that product of another equally prominent concern, that product must be so manufactured as to disclose its true character in relation to a certain quality. If there is a flaw in the raw material, or the workmanship is imperfect and the product manages to slip by the careful eye of the inspector and gets into the market, the product when put to a test will break down.

The same may be said for the boys of today who will be the men of tomorrow. If, while in their youthful raw-material days their flaws are not ironed out by some competent person who understands the psychology of boys, they will grow up unable to master the perplexing problems of our economic life. This apparent incapableness which hinders the progress of such unfortunate men is deplorable in itself, but even worse than that—the realization of this incompetence often drives men to despondency and criminal practices. Of course, a great deal of diplomacy must be employed when dealing with boys, because giving them too much attention is often more detrimental to them than neglecting them entirely. The "Boy Week" movement has for its purpose the developing of boys of all classes on the mean between these two extremes, and should receive the full cooperation of every American citizen.

A scientist has discovered a cure for hardening of the arteries. No one, however, has yet found a cure for hardening of the heart.

New Offerings on Stage and Screen

At the Orpheum—"A Boy of Flanders."

At the Blackstone—"The Virginian" and "Vaudeville."

At the Oliver—"Give and Take."

At the Palace—"Try and Get It," and "Vaudeville."

Jackie Coogan, and his dog, in "A Boy of Flanders," will remain at the Orpheum for the remainder of the week. This is one of the best productions this youthful star has produced, and is well worth seeing.

"The Virginian," a love story of the West, is the feature at the Blackstone. Kenneth Harlan takes the lead supported by Florence Vidor. In addition there will be a complete change of the vaudeville bill.

The Oliver will present Louis Mann and George Sidney, in a comedy attraction "Give and Take." The play has recently finished a four months run at the La Salle theater, in Chicago and was heralded as a success by the critics.

The Palace presents Bryant Washburn in "Try and Get It." By the very fact that Mr. Washburn leads the cast, the playgoer is insured against disappointment and boredom.

"Minstrel Memories" is the vaudeville headliner. This will be a revue of this once popular type of entertainment, with a few epigrams for George Primrose thrown in, no doubt. Peggy McIntosh, The Clown Revue, and Charles Wilson complete the bill.—P. C. M.

BRUINS TASTE DEFEAT.

California's long string of track victories which included the national intercollegiate title for three consecutive years came to an abrupt and disheartening end last Saturday when Stanford university defeated the Bruins 83 to 48 in a dual meet. Dodson of the Bears heaved the javelin 190 feet while Hartman of Stanford won the shot put with a mark of 49 feet, 8 1-2 inches.

Lamont has gone over the heads of the governing board of the Harvard Union in his determination to have Eugene V. Debs, Socialist, and W. Z. ## RICHARD FOLLOWS TILDEN.

In all probability, Vincent Richards will be lost to the Davis cup team and to the American Olympic team it was revealed this week, when the fourth ranking star was interviewed on the international tennis situation. Richards like Tilden is a newspaper writer and expects to write the international games for New York this summer.

"Terry" Undefeated By Huskers Machine

Tipperary Terrence, the mascot of Notre Dame athletic teams was vanquished in a combat with an automobile Tuesday morning. A significant thing about the whole occurrence was that the car bore a Nebraska license.

It seems that Terry was following two students who were taking a stroll on the Niles road and fell into the habit of attacking passing cars. The boys he was accompanying endeavored to stop this practice, but he evaded their watchfulness and soon dashed madly at an approaching car of the species that is most common on the roads of this country.

Is Run Over

He could not be stopped in his attempt to imitate the football team of which he is mascot, probably on account of the Nebraska license, and the wheels passed over the body of the unfortunate Terry.

Fear was in the minds of Eddie Willoughby and Jack Flynn as they ran over to the dog. He was too quick for them, and with a yelp he started in the direction of Niles. The boys caught him and decided to stop the next car and go to South Bend to see a veterinary. The strangers on the road were kind and they quickly reached the city. The veterinary said that the dog was made of rubber and the only thing that was the matter was that his leg was slightly cut and that he was scared. Terry growled at this and the boys soon left the office.

In Fighting Mood

On the walk home (for Eddie and his pal were flat broke,) Terry recovered sufficiently to pick a fight with a wandering cur that was almost twice his size. He had to be forcibly restrained from the fray and at the last report he was as well as ever.

Frank Donovan Wins Western Indoor Title

Frank Donovan, local varsity tennis star, annexed the title of Western Indoor Tennis Champion to his list of former victories, by defeating his opponents in five consecutive rounds, at the tournament held on the indoor courts of the General Motors Company of Detroit, the week of April 21 to 27.

There were forty-eight entries, and by working himself into the finals, Donovan defeated some of the best players in his class. He defeated the men in the following order: first round, Elwood, 6-1 6-0; second round, George O'Connell, Wisconsin and Oklahoma State Champion, and one of the highest ranking inter-collegiate players, 8-6; 6-2; third round, Merkle, Western Inter-collegiate Champion of last year, 6-2, 6-1; semi-finals, Phil

Javelin Throw to Feature Illini Meet

The Notre Dame track team meeting University of Illinois squad on Cartier field, Saturday afternoon at 2:30, will entertain for a few hours the premier track team of the middle west. The Gillman annexed the Western conference indoor title this year for the seventh time and two weeks ago defeated the strong California track team, three times national collegiate track champions.

The Illinois track team will invade Notre Dame bringing with it one world's record holder, an American intercollegiate champion and several near champions. Angiers in the javelin holds the collegiate record with a mark of 203 feet while Dean Brownwell, the premier pole vaulter of America, holds the world's indoor record with a vault of 13 feet. Gene Oberst of Notre Dame winner of the field records for the Kansas and Penn relays will compete with Angiers in the shaft throwing event, and with suitable weather conditions prevailing a new local mark in the javelin is certain to be hung up.

The track events will leave little to be desired for in the way of speed, with such men as Barr and Layden of Notre Dame and Ayers and Evans of Illinois performing in the century and 220-yard dash. Fessenden in the quarter with Luke Walsh and McTiernan of Notre Dame for competition should register some fast time, and possibly set a new field record with a fast track. The half mile run will call out another coterie of stars with Bruington and Graham carrying the Illinois colors. Cox and Kennedy are entered in this event and past scores which went to Illinois are certain to be evened up.

In the mile run Captain Kennedy of the Irish and "Holly" hall of Illinois will meet to settle another score of long standing. Both men have been performing in top notch style all season and during the indoor season, the Irish set a 4:21 mark for the distance. The two mile will be another close affair if Wendland, the local distance star, is running up to form. Micher of Illinois holds the conference two mile record.

Casey and Johnson of Notre Dame will compete in the high and low hurdles with Rehm, Johnson and Kinsey of the Urbana squad. Kinsey is recognized as one of the best performers in this event in the middle west, after winning the hurdles in the Drake games last week he should be in good form to give a first class exhibition Saturday.

The field events will feature the work of Angiers, Brownell Wright and Schildauer of Illinois and

JOHN WEIBEL RE-ELECTED CAPT. OF SWIMMING TEAM

John Weibel of Erie, Pennsylvania, a student in the College of Science was re-elected captain of the Notre Dame swimming team for the year of 1925 at a meeting of the squad last Tuesday. Weibel who played guard on the Notre Dame eleven for the past two years was one of the leading point winners during the past season of the water sport. Weibel will have charge of the water sports at the South Bend Boy Scouts camp during the summer vacation.

Prospects for the 1925 season were discussed at the meeting by Coach Tom Goss and according to present plans the program for next year will be more pretentious than the card for last season. Spring practices for the swimmers will begin at once in the "Y" pool in South Bend where the candidates will be able to work with the Y. M. C. A. flying squadron. All candidates for the team next year are urged to begin practice now as several vacancies will have to be filled before the personnel is announced for the coming season. The backstroke event will be left open by the graduation of Fuitte.

When the Indiana-Kentucky Olympic swimming trials open in Indianapolis for this section next June, Notre Dame will probably be represented in the fancy diving class by Mike Anderberg star performer on the Irish water team.

MINOR MONOGRAM AWARDED

The Notre Dame athletic board awarded minor monogram and freshman numeral to the following men: Minor sports—Charley Cooper, cross-country; Edgar Miller and Danny McGown, boxing; James Egan, hockey; John Weibel and Alex Sievers, swimming. Freshman numeral given to Mike Anderberg, swimming; O'Keefe, Schell and Canny, boxing; Martin, Hick, Magie, and Gillespie, hockey.

Oberst and Milbauer of Notre Dame. Wright in the high jump has been registering a mark of 6 feet, while Schildauer entered in three of the field events is a consistent performer in the javelin, shot put and discus.

Varsity Tennis Players Leave to Meet Butler

The Notre Dame varsity tennis team under Captain Herm Centlivre will arrive in Indianapolis today for the first match with Butler college on the three game tennis trip. The Irish collegians will meet Indiana at Bloomington tomorrow and Wabash at Crawfordville on Saturday.

The strength of the down-state school in the court game is not known except that each of the three schools has had the net game on its athletic program for several years and that at Indiana, the team is composed of several noted net stars from the lower part of the state.

The Notre Dame varsity, boasting of one title holder and one or two top notch performers, feels confident of holding its own against the best in the conference schools and outside colleges.

WALSH SHUTS OUT SORIN NINE IN NO-HIT GAME

Ahearn, Walsh pitcher, is credited with the first no-hit, no-run game of the Interhall season, as a result of his brilliant performance against the Sorin nine Sunday. Walsh won the contest in seven innings, 13 to 0.

With the exception of the fourth inning when the Walsh batters hammered his curves for ten runs, Deguersy hurled a nice game for Sorin, allowing Walsh but seven hits. Errors accounted for a large number of the runs scored by Walsh, seven errors being chalked for Sorin. The game was the second victory for Walsh and the third consecutive loss for the Sorinites.

Carroll won its second game of the Interhall season by giving Day a 13 to 2 defeat on the Brownson diamond Tuesday afternoon. The game was called in the fifth inning on account of darkness.

Alumnus Issued To Senior Classman

Every member of the graduating class of 1924 was mailed a copy of the April issue of the Notre Dame "Alumnus," the official publication of the alumni of the University. In each copy, editor Al. Ryan enclosed a note of introduction to the men soon to be listed among the alumni.

This number contains a variety of interesting articles by many of the faculty members. Rev. Charles Miltner, C. S. C., dean of the College of Arts and Letters, has the leading article which explains in detail the purpose, ideals, and accomplishments of the college which he represents. He also embodied in his article the recent changes that have been made in the curriculum to become effective during the 1924-1925 term.

A special feature of Father Milner's article is a short descriptive account of the course by each of the following department heads: Rev. William Bolger, C. S. C., the department of economics and politics; Prof. J. M. Cooney, the department of journalism; Prof. G. N. Shuster, the department of letters; Prof. R. R. MacGregor, the department of sociology; Prof. W. E. Farrell, the department of history; and Rev. W. A. Carey, the department of classical languages.

Coach Knute Rockne has an interesting and instructive article on "Football of Today" in which he condemns the attacks made upon the greatest of all college sports made by several eastern critics. Taking the objection of a famous eastern educator who said: "Football as played today should be abolished, as it furnishes absolutely nothing positive in the development of the young man in college," Rockne ably and convincingly disproved every reasonable objection to modern football. His article also contains a statement regarding his renewal of his contract with the University.

An interesting account of the Laetare Madel award for 1924 with a brief life of the recipient, Mr. Charles Donagh Maginnis, reports on the Notre Dame alumni of Chicago, New York, Akron and Rochester, a review of baseball and track and some 14 pages of alumni notes are the more prominent of this month's contributions.

The "Universal Notre Dame Night" was prominently featured throughout the pages of the magazine.

SILVER CLOTS HOMER

opening frame but idled out after four men faced Gillingham one strike out and two put outs. Michigan pased up the first inning but returned in the second to find Magevney for three hits. Blott singled. Dillman came up for another hit and scored Blott. Steger filed out to Farrell who twisted was unable to throw in. Dillman being unable to throw in, Dillman on third raced home for the second run. Gillingham fanned. Crowley went over into center field and Dunne went out to play right field.

Notre Dame came in for the first of the fourth and Dunne started he fireworks by singling down the first base line. Nolan filed out to Dillman and Vergara filed out to Bachman. With Barry on first, running for Dunne, Silver connected with the leather for four bases scoring Barry ahead of him. Quinlan struck out to stop the scoring. Michigan's half of the fourth went by the boards with a strike out by Blott and a single by Haggerty. Dillman hit into a double play when he filed to Quinlan who made a flying catch and doubled Haggerty at first.

Norte Dame experienced her banner inning in the fifth when Prendergrast went to first on an error by Haggerty but was forced out at second on Magevney's infield roller. Sheehan doubled, scoring Magevney. Crowley filed and Dunne counted another single sending Sheehan to third. Nolan reached first on an error and Vergara followed with a base on balls. With the bases filled, Silver singled into deep right scoring Barry and Nolan. Quinlan stopped the killing again by fanning.

Magevney polished off the Wolverines in their half of the fifth with two strikes outs and an assist to Nolan when Gillingham Shed a roller to Magevney. Gillingham tightened up from then on and kept the Irish from reaching the third sack. The visitors made one more try for the home plate when Blott traveled as far as third but heady work on the part of Notre Dame dampened the endeavor.

Crowley, Vergara, Farrell and Dunne in the outer garden played a bang up game both on the defense and offense. The garden quartet have come through with timely hits in every game they have played thus far and their strength in the line-up cannot be denied. Silver copped two hits and one score in four trips to the plate and led the infield in the attack. The entire infield registered a top notch game all afternoon and completed the affair without an error.

the four innings he pitched. Besten took the slab for Carroll the last frame.

Nyikos tossed three innings for Day, and allowed but two scores. He entered the home run class when his drive to center took a bad bounce and went over the fielders head. This was the only run scored against Besten.

Carroll cinched the game in the second, when six hits, three walks and two errors, totaled ten runs. Carroll ..... 1 10 1 0 1—13 12 1 be a theatre party on Saturday night.

All these activities are included in the purchase price of one ticket, which is twenty dollars. Don Gallagher pointed out at the meeting, that the activities actually cost the class twenty seven dollars per couple, but to the successful work of the Concessions committee under chairman Walt Moran, enough money has been raised to decrease the prices of the tickets. The sale of tickets is proceeding this week and judging from the number already sold, a larger number of Seniors than had been expected will attend the Senior ball activities.

Attention was also called, at the meeting, to the Seniors still owing money for their class stationery and they were requested to settle with John Ryan as soon as possible. Charles Robrecht, chairman of the class pin committee, announced that he has four pins on hand which would be sold to the first four Seniors applying to him. The plans for the commencement dance were made, and a dance committee was appointed, consisting of Walt Moran, chairman, Jim James, and Mike Gibbons, to take care of arrangements.

DEMOCRATS ENDORSE

during public service at Lafayette and as a candidate for governor, had the courage to stand fearlessly upon the principle that constitutional rights should be guaranteed to all citizens regardless of creed or of color. On an issue on which other candidates have pussy-footed, he has been outspoken in his opinions."

A stirring plea for Democracy was made at the meeting by Dean Konop of the Law school. "The Democratic party has been the party of the under dog," said Dean Konop, who was for a number of years a Congressman from Wisconsin. "It has been the party of progress. For that reason it deserves, and is receiving, the support of intelligent men and women. It is for that reason that it particularly appeals to young men and women."

The program of entertainment at the smoker included boxing bouts between McGowan and O'Keffe and between Dick Smith and Joe Harmon, music by John Butler's orchestra, assisted by De Paolis at the piano, and "Red" Hermann in specialty numbers.

Present as the guests of the club were Frank Nevins, chairman of the St. Joseph county democratic committee, Frank Jackson and J. O. Plante, candidates for the nomination of circuit judge, Frank Schumacher, candidate for the nomination of treasurer, Charles J. Roy, candidate for commissioner in the eastern district, Samuel Feiwell, candidate for state senator, Walter Rice, Peter Bachewicz, and Bert McCellan, candidates for state representative, and Michael Hanley, candidate for re-election as sheriff. Smokes and refreshments were served.

PROM ACTIVITIES

arrive today, and special arrangements have been made at the downtown hotels where extra floor space will be set aside for Prom guests.

The Jean Goldkette Orchestra of Detroit will play the Prom proper, beginning at ten-thirty and continuing until two-thirty Saturday morning. An intermission from twelve-thirty to one will give the dancers a chance to rest while being entertained.

Saturday the Prom guests will witness a track meet between the Varsity and Illinois, and a football game between the team of '23 and the yearlings. The Knights of Columbus are entertaining in the Oliver Rotary room at nine o'clock with an informal dance. Harry Denny and his Collegians will furnish the harmony for this affair. As this dance is open to all-campus men it promises to be one of the largest affairs of the week-end.

Gilbert F. Schaefer, chairman of the Prom, at a late hour last night stated that evidence of the publicity being given the Prom in the metropolitan papers is having its effect, as reservations are coming in from alumni members who wish to attend.
