

PROM ACTIVITIES END THIS MORNING

HIGH MASS AT 10:15 TO BE
LAST EVENT OF ACTIVE
WEEK-END.

A high mass in Sacred Heart Church at 10:15 a. m. this morning will bring to a close the activities of the Junior Prom week-end. It is the general consensus of opinion that the Prom this year, has been one of the most pleasant and successful ever held at Notre Dame.

The festivities opened Friday afternoon when the juniors and their guests attended the baseball game between Wabash and Notre Dame. Yesterday afternoon they were guests at the Illinois-N. D. track, and the football game between the monogram men and the freshmen.

More than one hundred and fifty couples attended the annual Post-Prom dance which was given by the Knights of Columbus at the Oliver hotel last night. The affair, which was open to all Notre Dame men, was reported to have been one of the most enjoyable of the season. The music was furnished by Harry Denny's Oliver hotel orchestra.

BUSY WEEK OPENS FOR POLITICIANS

DOMES AND CLASS ELECTIONS
ON SLATE; DECIDE PRIMARY RACE TUESDAY.

The political bee will do a lot of buzzing on the campus this week. Dome elections, class nominations, and the state primaries all combine to cause the buzz.

The week's political activity will begin tomorrow when members of the Sophomore class will gather in the library at 12:30 o'clock to elect men to handle the 1925 Dome. Jay Fleming and Dennis O'Neil have been nominated for editor, while McNulty and Hegele are rivals for the position of business manager.

Hot Fight Due.

All four men have strong followings and the contests for both positions are expected to be hot. Sophomores are showing mighty keen interest this spring, an indication that the class will be on the job next year when the weight of campus activities will fall on the shoulders of its members.

On Tuesday the older students on the campus will turn their attention to the Indiana primaries, interest being particularly keen inasmuch as one student and several former students are running for office on the republican and democratic slates. The polls for the Notre Dame precinct will be in the agriculture building, just in front of the gymnasium.

Class Contests Start.

The first class primary of the year will be held on Wednesday when the class of 1927 meets. This class will elect its sophomore officers on Friday. The class of 1926 will hold its primary on Thursday and election Monday, May 12. The class of 1925, electing senior officers, will meet Tuesday, May 13, for the primaries, and Thursday, May 15, for the election.

Treatment of Athletic Section of Dome Is Unique; Season Is Compared to Play

The "Athletics" section of the 1924 Dome is perhaps the most unique of the annual. The season is compared to a drama, in which Coach Knute K. Rockne, Assistant Coach George Keogan, Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, Rev. Dominic O'Malley, the student manager, and the cheer leaders are introduced before the actual action of the "play" begins. This section contains a stirring poem dedicated to "Rock and His Men".

The reader of this section is lead through the year's football games by a series of action pictures of the team. A review of the season and pictures of the members of the team completes the department.

Another interesting section of the year book is that which takes up the varied activities of the university. "Activities and the Notre

STUDENT MEET AT KNOXVILLE CLOSES

TWENTY EIGHT COLLEGES RE-PRESENTED. SWIFT AND BISCHOFF ATTEND.

Knoxville, Tennessee, May 3.—The fourth annual convention of the Midwest Student Conference, which has been in progress here for the last three days closed this afternoon. Fifty two delegates from twenty eight colleges and universities attended the council. Notre Dame was represented by James Swift and George Bischoff, president and secretary of the Student's Activities Council of Notre Dame.

Activities Discussed.

Discussions of the methods of financing and regulating college publications, and the powers and scope of student government played a leading part during the session. The finances and activities of student councils were also discussed.

A resolution was passed disapproving of the honor system, but recommending the universal adoption of an honor code. Dean Thomas A. Clark, of Illinois University, delivered the principal address of the convention.

Elect Officers.

Kansas State Agricultural College of Manhattan, Kansas, and Tulane University of New Orleans, La., made strong bids for next year's convention, Kansas State being chosen. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, True D. Morse, University of Missouri; Vice-President, Doon, University of Tennessee; Secretary-Treasurer, Countryman, Northwestern University.

Delegates to the convention were entertained by the Universities of Tennessee and Knoxville.

"Girl Shy" Shown in Washington Hall

"Girl Shy," Harold Lloyd's latest production, was shown to a fairly large audience in Washington Hall last night. The picture, which was released only last week, proved to be one of the funniest of Lloyd's comedies, and met with much favor on the part of the audience.

SCHOLARSHIP CLUB TO GIVE CAR AWAY MAY 12.

The last Scholarship dance of the year, at which the Studebaker Light-Six automobile will be given away, will be held at the Palais Royale Monday night, May 12th. The Big Five orchestra will furnish the music.

Republican Club Meets Tomorrow

An important meeting of the Republican club will be held in the north room of the library on Monday at 12:30, it was announced yesterday by the Executive Committee. Important announcements as to the current business affairs of the organization will be made at that time, and plans will be discussed for taking a active part in the coming Republican primaries, which are to be held on Tuesday, May 6. The standing committees and sub-committees for the remainder of the year will be named and their work outlined.

A survey carried on by the officers of the club is said to show that a very large proportion of the faculty at Notre Dame has in the past been affiliated with the Republican party, and at Monday's meeting plans will be considered for making these members of the faculty an important part of the local organization. All students and faculty members are invited to attend Monday's meeting.

MONOGRAM SQUAD TRIUMPHS, 21 TO 0

VETERANS SHOW RECRUITS A FEW TRICKS IN ANNUAL SPRING CONTEST.

Tricks that they employed to such good advantage last season stood the monogram football men in good stead yesterday afternoon in their annual game with the recruits, and as a result they won by a 21 to 0 count.

The first quarter was well under way before Crowley managed to unleash a neat pass to Harry Stuhldreher who romped to the goal line, thirty yards away. Crowley then kicked the goal. In the second quarter Gene Mayl picked up a fumble and ran 25 yards for a touchdown without encountering a rival. The monogram men got the goal when there was interference with a man attempting to catch a pass. Eddie Barry grabbed the last touchdown in the fourth quarter when he raced fifty yards around right end and Shearer kicked the goal.

While Coach Knute Rockne made many substitutions during the game that could not be recorded, the starting lineups for the teams follow:

VARSITY DEFEATED BY STRONG ILLINI

HARRY GILL'S GREAT TEAM
WINS ALL BUT ONE FIRST;
OBERST TAKES JAVELIN.

Harry Gill's great Illinois track team swept all except one first in its annual meet with the varsity on Cartier field yesterday afternoon and won by the score of 102 to 24. In spite of the Illini supremacy and a strong wind at the backs of sprinters, only one field record went by the boards.

Kinsey Wins High Hurdles

Kinsey of Illinois stepped the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds flat, thus shattering a field record made by Chet Wynne by 2-5 of a second. In the javelin throw, which was expected to bring out a record heave, Gene Oberst won at 192 feet, 11 inch-made by Milt Angier, western champion. Fred Schildhauer, also of Illinois tossed the spear only a foot less than the winner. This was the only first recorded by Notre Dame.

The Irish got a second in the half mile and in the broad jump and a tie for second in the high jump but in the other ten events the Illini romped away with first and second places. In the discus throw the visitors even took the third place too.

Large Crowd Attends.

The meet attracted a crowd of about 1,500 people, a bit of color being added to the stands by the presence of many girls here for the annual Junior prom. The meet followed the annual spring football game between the monogram men and the recruits, the monogram men winning by a score of 21 to 0.

The strong wind blowing across the field aided the sprinters and hurdlers, but was a handicap to the distance runners, as is shown by the results. It did not prove as great a boon to the javelin throwers as might have been expected, however, and the three leading contestants, ranking collegians of the country, fell below their own previous marks as well as below the western conference record.

Kennedy Unable to Win.

There were few sensational races, and the most interesting field event outside of the javelin was Wright's performance in the high jump. The Illini jumper, making use of Gill's famous roll jump, managed to get over at 6 feet, 1 3-4 inches, 2 3-4 inches, and 3 3-4 inches only because he hit the bar in such a manner that it bounced into the air. The wind then pushed it back against the uprights and it dropped into place again.

Capt. Paul Kennedy of the Irish ran a pretty race in the mile but was unable to withstand the sprints of McKeever and Hall. Cox lost the half mile to Ponzer after leading almost all the way. The Illinois runner had a speedy finish that proved too much for even the Cox sprint for the tape.

The summary is as follows:
100-yard dash—Won by Evans, Illinois; Ayres, Illinois, second; Layden, Notre Dame, third. Time :09 4-5.

Mile run—Won by McKeever, Illinois; Hall, Illinois, second; Kennedy, Notre Dame, third. Time 4:31 1-5.

220-yard dash—Won by Evans, Illinois; Schock, Illinois, second; Layden, Notre Dame, third. Time :21 3-5.
120-yard high hurdles—Won by Kinsey, Illinois; Johnson, Illinois, second; Casey, Notre Dame, third. Time :15. (New field record.)

440-yard dash—Won by Carter, Illinois; Koontz, Illinois, second; Walsh, Notre Dame, third. Time :52 2-5.

THE DAILY'S STAND FOR NOTRE DAME

A union building to be built as soon as possible.
A well-organized student body, residing on the campus.
True recognition of good scholarship and a better appreciation for the efforts of men in campus activities.

TIPPERARY TERENCE IS DEAD.

Tipperary Terence was just a dog. We saw him presented to Knute Rockne before a great crowd. He was bewildered and looked frightened in his blanket of green. It was a big thing for little Terry to be the center of so much attention. At home in the gym he became the pet of athletes and students. No corner of the campus was closed to him. And then Tipperary Terence, in the way of a puppy, was hurt at play and died. We'll all miss him, even though Tipperary Terence was just a dog.

ON THE SUBJECT OF VOTING.

The week beginning today will afford practically every man on the campus an opportunity to vote. The state primaries will be held on Tuesday, while Dome and class elections are scheduled on practically every day throughout the week.

Every man eligible to vote ought to go to the polls, whether in national politics or in campus politics, and exercise his right. Participation in the primaries, national or class or both, is a necessary thing if the best men are to be chosen for the offices.

A primary is much like the first cut in the football squad, or the first tryout in a debating contest. If good judgment is not used in it a man wholly unfitted for the job is likely to slip in and when the election time rolls around in November, or a week later in the case of campus elections, it is often a case of choosing between the lesser of two evils. That should not be the case.

So whether you are interested in national politics, or in campus politics, get out and vote this week.

FOR REMEMBRANCE.

From the draped stage, the soft strains of music, murmuring a song of joy, of youth, of springtime, and of love. Decorations, wonderful and colorful. Soft lights, rose-colored reflections, the gleam of brass instruments on sombre draperies, the ever changing play of hues and shadows.

Against all, the dark tuxedoed figures of the men, white fronts gleaming; men proud, tender, solicitous, consulting programs, worried, talking in subdued tones, bowing and smiling. Girls—scores of them, radiant girls, admiring and admired; girls in organdy, in velvets, in silks, in satins, in green and gold, in silver, in lavender—girls with brilliant, colorful headbands—twinkling feet, flashing buckles. Laughing eyes of blue, and gray, and brown—happy, thrilled, willing to dance on and on to "music that puts poetry into the blood and inspiration into the toes."

This was the prom! Pomp, splendor, eclat, harmony—flawless and unparalleled. And now that it is over—reminiscences, and memories, mellow and tender, and the thought of countless Mary's and—Rosemary's "for remembrance."

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

This editorial is written at the request of the business department. The business manager says he has been asked time and time again why the DAILY carries so much advertising and does not devote more space to news.

It's a business proposition pure and simple. The DAILY started out a year ago without a cent of capital. Subscriptions of students were pledged to insure its publication. Throughout the year the men in charge of the DAILY have had to maintain the utmost economy in order to keep accounts safe.

Even with this economy and the large proportion of advertising the DAILY will barely break even, and the men who have guided it will have given their services gratis because the payment of salaries appears an impossibility. That's why there's so much advertising.

New Offerings on Stage and Screen

PALACE—"The Rendezvous" and vaudeville.

ORPHEUM—"Flowing Gold."

OLIVER—Ghanning Pollock's play, "The Fool."

BLACKSTONE—"The Marriage Circle," and vaudeville.

Most attractive on the program in South Bend theaters the early part of the week will probably be the appearance of "The Fool," much-heralded play by Channing Pollock, which has met with such unusual success. "The Fool" opened yesterday and will be presented tonight and tomorrow night.

The movie offerings include three pictures which have been extensively reviewed, while the week's vaudeville bills promise a return of Janet Adler and her band to the Blackstone, and a Scotch revue called "Wyatt's Lads and Lassies" for the Palace.

The Blackstone boasts of a show of unusual merit this week, in "The Marriage Circle," a picture which has received highly complimentary notices wherever it has appeared. Monte Blue and Florence Vidor, who play the leading parts, do much to make the picture a success. Janet Adler's Syncopators, a blackface comedy act by Herbert and Nugent, and the Willie Brothers, equilibrists, complete the program.

The two principal acts on the Palace bill are Dunbar's Broadway Choir and Wyatt's Scotch Lads and Lassies. Victoria and Dupree, Sharkey Roth and Hewitt, and good old reliable Harry and Emma Sharrock in a comedy mind-reading act, called "Behind the Grandstand," are also included on the bill. Conrad Nagel in "The Rendezvous," entertains on the screen.

Rex Beach's latest story, "Flowing Gold," featuring Anna Q. Nilson and Milton Sills, occupies the center of the stage at the Orpheum this week. The story is of the "thriller" type and has a background of the boom days of Texas.

Flannery's Essay Appears in 'Truth'

Harry W. Flannery, instructor of English in the College of Science, has written an essay entitled, "Selling Lies and Exaggerations," for the May issue of "Truth," widely known Catholic publication. It is an attack upon the sensationalism of the press, which gives distorted images of life as it is not.

In his essay Mr. Flannery points out how counting room syndicalism is responsible for the present sensationalism, for it places money before morality. The author continues to say that certain journalists have fixed moral standards; but these standards are not lived up to by the whole profession. The reader, Flannery says, is partly to blame for the present day literature for he is the one who accepts it. Better reading matter will come when the reader is more particular in his selection of literature. Mr. Flannery concludes that the sole hope for a better and cleaner press is the stand which the public should take against the immoral.

The Daily was an outgrowth of the Ariel, a publication starting as a monthly in 1877, and becoming a weekly in 1892. In 1899, a paper called "Football" appeared, which was devoted entirely to sports and this paved the way for the Minnesota Daily.

What Others Say

A NEW DECALOGUE.

Medicine and surgery, as every one knows, have made tremendous strides during the last century, and the last decade in particular. Who knows but what it may be only a matter of a few more years before an absolute cure for the dreaded cancer will be discovered? In every branch of medicine scientists are fast nearing the point where they will have a cure for everything and anything.

Because these facts are true, nevertheless, is no reason why people should more and more bank on the devices of science, and mortgage their health as they are reported to be doing. Life is speeding up faster and faster, and we are ever becoming more careless of our health. We go and go and go, night after night; ride, everywhere; eat anything which pleases our palates.

On the ground that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," doctors are advocating methods to prevent illness. Along with the doctors comes Miss Maria Leonard, dean of women at the university of Illinois, with a decalogue for health which seems uncommonly sound. Here it is—

Eat less, chew more.
Ride less, walk more.
Clothe less, bathe more.
Worry less, work more.
Idle less, play more.
Talk less, think more.
Go less, sleep more.
Waste less, give more.
Squand less, laugh more.
Preach less, practice more.
Health at its best, says Dean Leonard, means resistance to disease; relaxation from mental tension, regularity at all times, re-creative power in work and play, and a radiance from life abundant.—Daily Cardinal.

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY—Ground was broken May 1, for a Marquette university stadium with a seating capacity of 50,000. The structure will be of concrete with 20,000 seats promised for the fall football season.

FRANKLIN UNIVERSITY—Recently a carnival was held under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association in the college gym. Every fraternity and sorority on the campus furnished an act or stunt as its part in the carnival.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY—Students at the New York State College of Forestry at the university are experimenting with the making of synthetic wood. They have been able to manufacture a sort of wallboard, and hope to make wood soon. It is said that the synthetic lumber manufactured by the students is superior in many respects to natural wood.

Varsity Nine Meets Indiana and M.A.C.

Two baseball games with Indiana and one with the Michigan Aggies will serve to keep Coach George Keogan's nine busy during the week.

The first game with the state university will be played on Cartier field Tuesday afternoon, and the second at Bloomington on Friday afternoon. The Michigan Aggies, having shown strength by holding Michigan to a 1 to 0 count, will come here for a game on Saturday afternoon.

While the varsity has already gained a victory over the Crimson, the result of its 4 to 1 count in the seven inning game played at Indianapolis last week for the benefit of the Olympic fund, the down-state nine is by no means a weak rival and Capt. Bill Sheehan and his men will have to be at their best to maintain their supremacy over the visitors.

The varsity will be in fighting trim this week, no doubt, for the surprise victory by Wabash has had its effect. With Bert Dunne's ankle improving so that he will be able to travel at his old form, and some intensive stick practice, the team will probably hit its stride again.

PLAYERS ADMITTED TO CHAIN O' LAKE LINKS

The decision on the student membership proposal which was placed before the officers of the Chain o' Lakes golf course a month ago was made known yesterday when it was announced that although it was decided not to permit a student membership, the five players on the Notre Dame varsity golf team would be allowed free access to the course.

At Other Colleges

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY—Plans are now being made to raise funds to pay the expenses of the band to the Michigan football game next fall at Ann Arbor. A dance will be given the near future and Evanston merchants are contributing all expenses for the dance.

MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY—Members of the freshmen class are contemplating on raising $191,000. for the new stadium drive between May 6 and 9. Recently a street dance was given in order to develop interest in the coming drive.

ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY—Declaring that he is "dead against" the use of college and university students for what he termed "propaganda purposes," President David Kinley attacked the use of students by outside organizations for ends that commit the University in public print without the University's official knowledge or approval. He added that he had been "greatly impressed and very much troubled" by the way that outside organizations were attempting to turn the school's prestige to their own particular advantage.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY—The final session of the Semi-Centennial exercises will be devoted to Purdue affairs today. This will be preceded by the procession of the entire student body. The marchers will pass before a reviewing stand.

In this stand there will be the trustees of the University, and representatives of many of the leading educational institutions of the country.

Interhall Leaders in Danger This Week

When the fourth series of interhall games begins today, Walsh and Freshman will be the only teams to take the field with an undefeated record. Badin, Carroll and Brownson are close behind and a loss by the leaders is liable to cost them the lead.

The Freshman-Brownson tilt promises to be the outstanding game on this week's bill. Both halls have presented strong teams, and the result of the contest will have an important bearing on the standings. The Sorin-Day game should also furnish plenty of excitement.

Schedule for the week of May 4 includes: Sorin vs. Day, Sophomore vs. Walsh, Brownson vs. Freshman, Cadillac vs. Badin, Carroll vs. Corby.

Paul G. Funk
FOR DELEGATE TO REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

Republican Primaries
May 6, 1924

The Notre Dame University Republican Club asks the support of every Notre Dame voter in favor of Mr. Funk, who is being vigorously opposed by an organization of so-called "100% Americans." Funk, if elected, will take part in naming the Republican candidate for the Governorship of Indiana. All voters in Portage, Harris and Clay Townships vote for this office, and if Anti-Funk vote in outlying districts is to be overcome, he must receive a large vote at Notre Dame.

SOPHS DEFEAT FRESHMAN IN ALBION CLASS FRAY

ALBION—Following numerous duckings in the Kalamazoo river by the Albion college freshmen, when the sophomores were outnumbered, the second year men got sweet revenge late today when they completely outclassed the yearlings in the flag rush on the campus.

Led by Ralph Preshaw, of Detroit, Victor Peck, of Birmingham, and Hoyt Howell, husky football men, the sophs bowled over the freshmen and forming a human ladder gave the rest of their party a chance to seize the flag that was suspended on a wire between two trees.

Captain Luther Pahl, of the football squad, was referee and shot the gun within two minutes after hostilities started. Each class was represented by 30 men.

What They Say

CATHOLIC PATRIOTISM

Patriotism consists in the love of one's country, willingness to obey her just laws, and a desire to serve her when she calls for your aid.

We all esteem and honor a man who has been a real hero for his country; we admire the gallantry of one who willingly dies for her. This feeling we have is not an acquired one; it is an instinct. This is one reason why people are shocked and horrified when a man proves a traitor to his country's cause.

Catholics, and especially Catholic schools, have been accused of such crimes, for they have been called unpatriotic. Perhaps in the century and a half this country has been prospering, there have been some so-called Catholics who are unpatriotic; but, are they unfaithful just because they are Catholics, or is it because they have been exposed to Catholic religion and have deliberately thrown it aside?

If we would but study the Catholic Church and her doctrines we would find that obedience to all just laws of our country, and response to her call, are ideals she holds up to her children.

American history reveals that desirable members of the church have lived up to these ideals. Their motto has ever been "For God and Our Country."—St. Mary's Chimes.
