

K. OF C. INITIATE 34 CANDIDATES

TICKETS FOR INITIATION BANQUET MEET WITH READY SALE

A class of thirty-four candidates was initiated into the first degree of Knights of Columbus, Notre Dame Council in the Walsh Hall council chambers Thursday night. As the size of this class is unusually small twenty South Bend candidates will receive the second and third degrees with the Notre Dame group. These two degrees will be conferred at the Mishawaka council chambers, Sunday, and all candidates, as well as those members who intend to be present at initiation are urged to be on hand at 12:45 sharp.

Tickets for the K. of C. initiation dinner which were placed on sale this week have met with a ready sale. The program for the dinner which will be held tomorrow evening at the Oliver hotel following the initiation in Mishawaka is said to be one of the most attractive that has been prepared by Notre Dame Council. William J. Milroy, a prominent Chicago attorney active in political circles in the Windy City and a former Notre Dame man, and Rev. John Cavanaugh, C. S. C., have been secured as speakers, while Professor George N. Shuster will officiate as toastmaster.

On the program besides these well-known men are Charles Butterworth, who will be prepared with a humorous charge; Dick Griffin, who will sing some popular solos, and Harry Denny and his orchestra. Those who have not secured tickets may obtain them from any of the following men: Mark Nolan, Sorin; John James; Corby; Harry McGuire, Walsh; Jimmy Egan, man; Bob Cooney, Brownson; Paul Sagstetter, Carroll, and Lynch, Sophomore.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO DEAD STUDENTS

BRO. ALPHONSUS, FATHERS O'DONNELL AND O'HARA GIVE EULOGIES

Memorial services for Frank Walsh and William Dockman, deceased residents of Brownson hall, were held last night in Washington hall. Brief talks were given by the Reverends Hugh O'Donnell and John F. O'Hara and Brother Alphonsus. Don Gallagher and William Coyne also spoke. Dan Samon acted as chairman during the services.

Glowing tribute was paid by Brother Alphonsus, rector of Brownson hall, to the two men who were former residents of his hall. Walsh died of complications shortly before the Easter recess while Dockman was killed during the Easter vacation while on a visit in Kentucky.

"I know of no other word that can describe the character of Frank Walsh as well as the word 'beautiful,'" said Brother Alphonsus during the course of his talk. "Modest, gentle, patient, prayerful and unassuming; these were some of the qualities that were blended into his soul to make it truly beautiful. His daily life was an exemplification of all these qualities and of many others which endeared him to his associates and to his superiors at Notre Dame."

"William Dockman was of the same type," continued Brother Alphonsus. "His life at home and at Notre Dame was such as to cause those who knew him and loved him to recall it with satisfaction. It is the big things that (Continued on page 4)

Five Hundred Attend Musical Operetta

"May Night", a two-act musical operetta written and produced by St. Mary's College Glee club, was presented to a capacity audience of possibly five hundred in St. Angela's hall on the campus of St. Mary's last night. The production was attended by students and faculty of St. Mary's, a number of guests from South Bend and many of the faculty and students of the University.

The principal members of the cast were: Misses Frances LaPointe, Ruth Claire Kelly, Catherine Boyle, Virginia Wathen, Florence Donahue and Margaret Foster.

The chorus consisted of six girls assisted by some thirty minor characters.

The production was enthusiastically received by the large and appreciative audience. Practically every number of the program was encored. Considering that the play was entirely produced by students of the college, "May Night" was an achievement that should reflect much credit on the authoress and the individual members of the College Glee club.

M'GUIRE IS JUDGED BEST JUNIOR ORATOR

CUNNINGHAM GAINS SECOND PLACE; HISTORY PROFESSORS JUDGE SPEAKERS.

Harry A. McGuire of the college of Arts and Letters won the Junior oratorical contest which was held in Washington hall, Thursday. The winning oration dealt with the vices and the morals of men and besides being written in a masterly style, it was well presented by the winner. Ray Cunningham, delivering a speech on the World Court, was awarded second place. There were a large number of contestants.

The judges of the contest were Father James Stack, C. S. C., Professor Farrell, and Professor Hines. All the judges are of the history department and the decision was popular with the students present. In commenting on the contest the judges said that the field of entrants was an exceptional one from two standpoints—it was larger than the ordinary group and the speeches given were all far above the usual calibre.

Castner May Oppose McGraw's Sluggers

Paul Castner, former Notre Dame hurler, will probably oppose the New York Giants when they meet the strong South Bend nine tomorrow afternoon at Springbrook park. Castner, who was a member of the White Sox pitching staff last summer, has been enjoying a great season and he is in the best of condition to show his slants to McGraw's sluggers.

The game with the South Bend team will be called promptly at 3 o'clock. The gates to the park will open at 12:15 o'clock promptly at which time 5,000 bleacher seats will be put on sale, John DeHaven announced. The seating capacity is almost 9,000.

The Giants, winners of three consecutive National league championships will bring 27 players and two coaches to this city. The roster, which comprises the most expensive list of players in the game, is as follows:

Hank Gowdy, Eddie Ainsmith and Frank Snyder, catchers; Bill Ryan, Art Nehf, Claude Jonnard, Bill Doan, "Mule" Watson, Gearin, Jaké Bentley, Barnes and Hugh McQuillan, pitchers; George Kelly, Frankie Frisch, Heinie Groh, Travis Jackson and Lindstrom, infielders;

DON MILLER ELECTED SENIOR PRESIDENT

MERRIMAN IS VICE-PRESIDENT; OTHER OFFICERS ELECTED

Donald C. Miller, of Defiance, Ohio, gridiron and basketball star, was elected president of the 1925 class of the University at a meeting of the Junior class in the library Thursday noon. Jack W. Scallan, of Columbus, Ohio, editor of the 1924 Dome, was Miller's opponent. Both men are very popular and the election was interesting and close.

William Merriman, Geneva, New York, was victorious in the race for the vice-presidency. The other candidate for this office was Joseph Toolen, of Anderson, Indiana. Barney McNabb was chosen secretary. William Hurley, Saginaw, Mich., was elected treasurer; John Kilkenny ran second in this election.

Miller is probably the most versatile of Rockne's proteges. His performances on the gridiron last fall rank him as one of the leading halfbacks in the country and he is a basketball player of no mean ability. Miller gained second choice on Walter Camp's mythical selection and many prominent critics placed him on their first All-American elevens last fall.

The president-elect of the class of 1925 is a junior in the College of Law and he will complete his studies next year.

Domes Are Being Rapidly Exhausted

Beginning Saturday morning, Domes will be distributed to off-campus students and residents of all the halls from the Dome office, rear of Corby hall. The Dome office will be open for distribution from nine in the morning until five in the afternoon every day until the last copy has been given out.

Government students and Knights of Columbus scholarship students who have not secured their books may get them by calling at the Dome office. Those who have not received a Dome or made arrangement for the reservation of a copy are asked to do so immediately as the edition is being rapidly exhausted. Copies to subscribers in South Bend and copies for mailing will be sent out over the week-end.

FRESHMAN ORATORICAL CONTEST IS POSTPONED

The Freshman oratorical contest, which was to be held on Wednesday, May 14, has been postponed. There were nineteen entrants for the contest and this was thought to be too large a list to be judged in an afternoon. Accordingly, there will be two primaries and a final contest before the winner is adjudged. The winners of the primaries will compete and the best man in the finals will receive the prize.

De Paul Golfers Humbled by Irish

CHICAGO, Ill., May 16 (Special)—Notre Dame defeated DePaul at golf today, 9 to 7, on the Riverside country club links here. Jack Adams, captain of the Irish team, led the players with a low medal score of 80, his decisive victory in the match play being chiefly responsible for the victory.

The matches in the morning round resulted as follows: Adams, Notre Dame, 3; Binder, DePaul, 0; Bulger, Notre Dame, 2; O'Leary, DePaul, 1; Ward, Notre Dame, 0; McCarthy, DePaul, 2; Corbett, Notre Dame, 1; Roache, DePaul, 0.

In the best ball foursome of the afternoon the scores were as follows: Ward and Adams, Notre Dame, 0; Binder and McCarthy, DePaul, 3; Corbett and Bulger, Notre Dame, 3; Murphy and Roache, DePaul, 0.

The Notre Dame team will play Loyola here tomorrow.

FROSH CINDER MEN LOSE TO TEACHERS

DELLA MARIA, JUDGE REACH RECORDS; N. D. NETS SIX FIRST PLACES

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 16.—Although making a desperate fight to wrest victory from the crack Western State Normal track team, the Notre Dame freshmen team lost its first dual meet of the outdoor season to the Normal squad, 86 to 45 here this afternoon. The only two records to be reached were accounted for by Notre Dame men, Della Maria tying the field mark in the 220-yard dash and Judge setting a new figure in the half mile run. The sprint was clocked in :22 flat while the 880-yard went by the boards in 2:02 2-5.

The Teachers made sweeps in the two mile, high jump and discus. Notre Dame garnered six first places, due to the work of Judge and Barron, both men winning two first each. Boland and Della Maria counted for firsts in the shot put and 220-yard run. Smith, the brilliant Normal quarter miler who helped to carry the Teachers relay team to victory in the Ohio State relays, was clocked in the quarter mile in :49 2-5.

Summary of Events:

100-yard dash: Smith, W., first; Della Maria, N. D., second; Riley, N. D., third. Time—0:10 2-5.

220-yard dash: Della Maria, N. D., first; Smith, W., second; Chickering, W., third. Time—:22 (Equals track record.)

440-yard dash: T. Smith, W., first; Hagan, W., second; O'Connor, N. D., third. Time—0:49 2-5.

880-yard run: Judge, N. D., first; Klasse, W., second; McDongal, W., third. Time—2:02 2-5 (New record.)

1 mile run: Judge, N. D., first; Klasse, W., second; McCafferty, N. D., third. Time—4:41.

Two mile run: Collisi, W., first; Clark, W., second; Spaer, W., third.

120-yard high hurdles: Barron, N. D., first; Darling, W., second; Stammann, W., third. Time—0:17 2-5.

220-yard low hurdles: Barron, N. D., first; Riley, N. D., second; Stammann, W., third. Time—0:26 4-5.

Broad jump: Engles, W., first; Schaeffer, W., second; Riley, N. D., third. Distance—20 feet, 10 inches.

High jump: Schaeffer, Darling, Richards, all of Western State tied at 5 feet, 4 inches.

Shot put: Boland, N. D., first; Gosren, W., second; Johnson, W., third. Distance—39 feet, 10 1-2 inches.

Discus: Miller, W., first; Johnson, W., second; Bowbeer, W., third. Distance—108 feet, 9 inches.

ILLINOIS JINX DOES FLIP-FLOP AT HANDS OF IRISH ACE

URBANA, Ill., May 16 (Special)—The Illinois jinx did a flipflop here this afternoon when Notre Dame whitewashed the Illini, 7 to 0, with Red Magevney on the mound. It was the first time in years that the Irish have defeated Illinois on its own field at baseball.

Magevney, leading hurler on George Keogan's pitching staff, was at his best and set the Illini hitters down in order most of the way. Red Grange, the football sensation, tried his hand at hurling against the visitors but was treated rough by the Irish sluggers.

An Early Start.

Capt. Bill Sheehan and his men went after the game in the very first round. Sheehan, first man up, singled over second base and went to second when Frank Crowley sacrificed him. George Vergara sent one to the outfield but it was caught. Roger Nolan then banged out a hit which enabled Sheehan to scamper home with the first marker.

Magevney himself took a hand in winning the game in the second when he cracked out a long double to center with Pearson and Prendergrast meandering on the paths. Passes, sacrifice hits, and a couple of timely bingles figured in the scoring of the other four runs, which were made one at a time.

No Match for Magevney.

Red Grange, who hurled his first complete game for Illinois, was no match for the veteran Magevney. The Irish flinger was in control of the situation throughout, Grange's triple being the only serious damage done during the course of the whole melee.

The Notre Dame team will proceed to Bourbonnais, Ill., today for a game with St. Viator's this afternoon.

State Schools on Edge for Classic

With the Indiana intercollegiate state meet scheduled for Cartier field one week off, the universities and colleges of the Hoosier country are making intensive preparations to enter the annual classic and make a supreme bid for the title which has rested so long in the athletic annals of Notre Dame.

Ten schools, representing a total entry of about 175 athletes will throng Notre Dame's famous football lot on May 24, and a cut and dried dope sheet is not in the making for the big meet, since the Indiana schools are harboring several "dark horses" that may register the unexpected. Also, some of the so-called stars of the state track circles may be on the indisposed list. The outstanding certainty, however, is that Butler will be the most popular challenger of the meet.

Notre Dame will have both records and the title to defend and while the staging of the meet on the home grounds will be to the advantage of the Irish. Coach Rockne is depending on the real abilities of his team to uphold the honor of the Blue and Gold. The performances of the Irish during the indoor and outdoor season has been of a varying nature. The work of Rockne's charges looked particularly good during the winter season and the sensational win over Wisconsin augured well for the calibre of the team that would represent the university in the state meet. The unequal competition offered by the outdoor meets thus far has left no means by which to judge the real merits of the Notre Dame track team on the cinders, except on a time basis.

Much the same situation is applicable to the other schools in the state inasmuch as many of the dual meets have been walk-aways for the victors.

In the field events, Gene Oberst stands out as the overwhelming favorite in the javelin. The giant Kentuckian already holds the state title and his marks made in the Kansas and Penn meets, indicative of his consistency, will not suffer in the state meet. Harrington in the pole vault will have to compete with the Olympic aspirant, Jones. The latter has been vaulting 12 feet, 6 inches, but the Irish entrant, in

CORBY AND DAY ADVANCE IN HALL LEAGUE RACE.

Inability of the Carroll batters to hit the curves of Tathem and Layden, Corby pitchers, resulted in the latter's victory over the dorm nine, on the Brownson diamond Thursday afternoon, 7 to 4.

With the Corby hurlers pitching air-tight ball, the Carrollites lost their only chances to score by poor base running. Corby took an early lead with three runs the first inning and was never in danger. Carroll registered but one in the second inning and three more in the seventh. The victory was Corby's third win of the season and put it from sixth into fourth place in the interhall standing.

Maier, of Corby, made a bid for home run honors when he slugged a four-base hit during the game. Collins and Fox were the other leading batters for Corby, each smashing a double.

Batteries—Tathem, Layden and Fox; Roney and Biba, Nevils.

Day performed in the best style it has shown since the Interhall baseball season opened, with the result that it defeated the Freshman team on the Brownson field Thursday afternoon, 9 to 4, in a seven inning combat.

Nyikos hurled the same brand of ball that has featured the other off-campus victories, holding the Frosh batters to four runs, while his team mates were pounding the slants of the Frosh hurlers for enough runs to keep Day in the lead. Leading by one score, the Off-campus aggregation decided the battle by scoring five times in the sixth inning. The yearling team attempted to tie the score in the final frame but the rally netted but one marker.

Four Notre Dame Teams in Action

Notre Dame will be represented by four athletic teams on foreign fields this afternoon; the baseball nine meeting St. Viators at Kankakee, the golf and tennis teams at Loyola and Coach Rockne at Lansing with the track team.

Coach Keogan and his baseball nine will face a trying job this afternoon when the aggregation at Kankakee is encountered. Notre Dame has usually been superior to St. Viators inasmuch as Notre Dame has a greater enrollment to draw from. The opposition, however, will meet the Keoganites almost on even terms on the diamond.

The golf and tennis clubs will dominate the athletic bill at Loyola this afternoon, and the outcome favors Notre Dame, though not by any great margin. The tennis squad will play three singles and two doubles. The following men will make the trip: Donovan, Lutz, Gonzalez, Velasco and Captain Centlivre.

The Michigan Aggies will furnish the entertainment at Lansing this afternoon with odds heavily against them. The following men made the trip: Layden, Barr, Hamling, Walsh, McTiernan, Cox, Barber, Wagner, Kennedy, O'Hare, Sheehan, Cooper, Keats, Wendland, Casey, Johnson, Carey, Hamill, Milbauer, Rigney, Oberst, Gebhardt, Cunningham, Headdy and Livergood.

FORMER IRISH ATHLETE TO ENTER ANN ARBOR TRIALS

The Olympic tryouts, preliminary to the final trials to be held in Boston the middle of June will attract a great number of the most promising track stars of the middle western states who cherish hopes of wearing the Stars and Stripes in Colombes stadium.

The sectional trials to be run off at Ann Arbor on May 30 and 31 will include seven members of Michigan's varsity team and seven members of the yearling squad. Wittman, Higgins, Hubbard and Goldwater will be entered in the 100 metre dash. Brooker in the pole vault and discus, Doyle in the discus and Loomis in the 440 yard hurdles. Hubbard will not be entered in the broad jump. Among the freshman stars entered in the trials is Dave Weeks, former Notre Dame high jumper who entered Michigan to continue his study of medicine. Weeks won second place in the Conference meet last June with a jump of 6 feet, 1 inch.

You know tobacco is a vegetable; it grows out of the ground, and when it's green, it is too harsh and strong to smoke. The very best way to remove that harshness and bitterness is by thorough ageing in wood. To age Velvet Tobacco in wood is expensive for us—yes, very expensive, and it takes time, but it gives you a milder, cooler smoke with a finer flavor.

In terminating his discourse he commented upon the admirable manner in which the mothers of the dead men had borne under the strain brought on by the death of their sons.

Father O'Hara, prefect of religion, also delivered a stirring talk, in which he placed particular stress upon the way in which the dead students had been benefitted by their religion while dying.

Father O'Donnell, prefect of discipline, paid tribute to the former Brownsonites, in a short talk in which he referred to them as being "true Notre Dame men."

Don Gallagher, president of the senior class, then spoke, saying that although acquainted with but one of the deceased students, he was assured that both were real men and that they would always be remembered as typical Notre Dame men. William Coyne, a member of Brownson hall and a friend of the dead men, concluded the program by describing and relating some of the characteristics and sentiment of Walsh and Dockman.

GARVEY PUSHES LEATHER

Hector Garvey, the giant left tackle of the Notre Dame football team, 1920-21, will try his hand at the ring game, it was announced in Chicago this week. The Fighting Irishman who put up a great battle against "Duke" Slater in the memorable Iowa encounter of 1921, will meet one of Chicago's heavyweights in his debut into the boxing world.

DOUBLES TOURNAMENT.

Entries for the doubles tournament in the university tennis tourney should be given to the following men by Monday evening: O'Brien, Carroll; Yetzel, Brownson; Adrian, Badin; Velasco, Walsh; Centlivre, Corby; Lutz, Sorin; Whitaker, Freshman; Donovan, Sophomore.

Emil "Irish" Meusel will be seen in left field and comes from a baseball family. His brother Bob plays with the New York Yankees "Irish" before landing with the Giants holds the distinction of having traveled widely, starting with the Pacific Coast league and playing in most every league in existence. STATE SCHOOLS ON clearing the bar at 12 feet, has crossed with several inches to spare. The high jump, which has been a weak point on the Notre Dame team, will hardly be figured on for many points. The remainder of the field events are not under the option of any particular performer in the state, although Butler and Wabash will each send a weight man to press the competition for the Irish tracksters.
EDGE FOR CLASSIC

Notre Dame's sprint and middle distance teams are going to meet some fast company from several of the downstate schools. Grey of Butler is exceptionally fast, and is probably the leader in the state sprint class outside of Barr and Layden of Notre Dame and Spradling of Purdue. Butler, Wabash and De Pauw will be well represented in the hurdles. Griggs of Butler is a particularly fast man over the barriers, as is also his teammate, Woods. Cripe of Wabash is another timber topper that is conceded in the class of Griggs and Woods.

Kennedy of Notre Dame will meet two powerful rivals in the mile with Doolittle of Butler and Robbins of Wabash. The latter won the mile in the state meet last year with a mark of 4:24. Captain Kennedy negotiated 4:21 on the indoor sand path against the Badgers. Doolittle has represented the Butlerites in the mile run all season and has registered some very creditable time.

A classy field will come to the mark in the quarter and half mile events. McTiernan and Luke Walsh of Notre Dame will have to circle the oval in the vicinity of .49 flat. Montague, the brilliant Notre Dame quarter miler, last year had to break all speed records to win over the Wabash and Butler runners on the Purdue cinders. Cox may not have a great deal of trouble in the 880-yard run since Robbins of Wabash may be given the mile or two mile to run.

That Butler and Wabash will be out to get the scalp of the Notre Dame aggregation cannot be debated. The longer Notre Dame has retained the title, the more intense have become the ambitions of the Indiana colleges to wrest the crown away from the Blue and Gold. A moderately warm day with no wind and a fast track will be a fitting introduction to one of the best track meets that has ever been run off in Indiana.
