ANNCR: In cooperation with the Notre Dame Department of Music, the Notre Dame Television Service presents a program by the nationally famous Notre Dame Glee Club.
On this inaugural program of the Notre Dame Television Service - a special visit with the President of the University, Reverend Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C.
But first, here's your Master of Ceremonies,
Al DeGrane...

DECRANE: Good evening, everybody.

Welcome to Notre Dame's first television show.
We get under way with an always popular Irish classic, The Kerry Dancers.

DECRANE: The works of Handel are an important part of the offerings of any singing organization.
For tonight's program,
the glee club has selected Handel's inspirational Halleluia, Amen.

DECRANE: As you know, the Singing Irish make a swing around the United States every Spring, and they have just returned from one of their most successful Eastern tours. On Ed Sullivan's Easter show one number made a big hit. What's the story behind that number, Mr. Pedtke?

DECRANE: Is there time enough left for a Stephen Foster song?
There's always time for a number by this great American composer. And what better selection could be made than Beautiful Dreamer? Gene Gorski is the soloist.
