REV. THEODORE M. HESBURGH, C.S.C.

Father Hesburgh has been president of the University of Notre Dame since 1952. He has served on several public commissions and boards, most notably the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights where he was a member from 1957 to 1972, including three years as chairman. He is currently a member of President Ford's Clemency Board. His interest in the problems of the underdeveloped world grows out of his service some years ago on the President's General Advisory Committee on Foreign Assistance. More recently he has been chairman of the Overseas Development Council, a Washington-based private organization formed in 1969 to promote effective aid to underdeveloped countries. He has traveled widely in Third and Fourth World areas, often on assignments as a trustee of the Rockefeller Foundation. Father Hesburgh is also a member of the board of directors of the Chase Manhattan Bank.
