We must be in the front row...

Senior ticket distribution traditionally signals cookouts and sleeping bags at the ACC and this year was no exception. Seniors Jay Vosburgh and Molly Meyer hold their place in a line which began early Sunday morning. Those students who spent the night were rewarded, however, with an early-morning visit yesterday from Coach Holtz.

Soviet passenger liner sinks; casualties untold

Associated Press

MOSCOW - A 61-year-old Soviet ship big enough to carry at least 870 passengers collided with a freighter at night in the Black Sea and sank with a loss of lives, officials said yesterday. They did not give a casualty figure.

Foreign radio monitors said they did not hear a distress signal after the collision between the passenger ship and Soviet freighter Sunday night.

Search and rescue operations continued last night, about 20 hours after the ship went down, according to officials in the Black Sea ports of Odessa and Novorossiysk.

A naval Ministry official said by telephone late yesterday that the freighter remained afloat. He would not answer other questions.

Soviet media carried only a brief statement from the Communist Party Central Committee and Soviet government. It was the second sinking of a Soviet passenger liner in seven months.

The official announcement, distributed by the Tass news agency, said only that the 17,053-ton Admiral Nakhimov collided with a cargo ship not far from Novorossiysk and sank on the night of Aug. 31.

Rescue measures have been taken, the official news agency said. It also said that necessary assistance is being rendered to those affected and that there has been loss of life.

It did not say how many people were aboard, how many were dead, if any foreigners were among the passengers or what route the ship was following.

Lloyds Registry of Ships, published in London, says the ship had berths for 870 passengers. A Soviet citizen who sailed on it in 1971 said many other fourth-class passengers customarily slept on the uppermost of its decks.

Anti-Reagan rhetoric marks Gadhafi speech

Associated Press

TRIPOLI, Libya - Moammar Gadhafi celebrated his 17th anniversary as Libya's leader yesterday by deriding President Reagan and praising Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, saying the Libyans and Russians share common interests.

"Reagan is a madman, physically and psychologically sick," Gadhafi told a flag-waving crowd of 5,000 in Green Square, gathered to hail the Sept. 1, 1969 military coup that brought him to power.

As the crowd held aloft his portrait and applauded, the 44-year-old colonel gestured with a silver pointer as he vowed to recruit an army from Central America, Africa and Asia if the United States didn't cease what he called its confrontational policies.

"If Reagan does not stop his stupidities, I will form an international army to fight America everywhere, and I am sure that in a few years the world will be rid of this new Nazi empire, he said.

The crowd shouted, "When you call us, o commander, we will leap into the fire!"

Flanked by Soviet officials, Gadhafi later reviewed a 90-minute military parade by more than 18,000 soldiers and Soviet-made tanks, SA-5 surface-to-air missiles and Scud ground-to-ground missiles.

Gadhafi mixed insults to Reagan and criticism of U.S. policy in his speech with compliments for Moscow, which he said stood by its responsibilities toward Libya.

The Soviets have supplied Libya with two frigates, MiG jet fighters and military transport planes to replace losses from U.S. attacks in the Gulf of Sidra in March and on Tripoli and Benghazi in April.

This anti-American outburst by Gadhafi came after four months of silence following the U.S. air raid on April 15, when sites hit included his home in Tripoli. An adopted baby daughter was one those killed in the air strikes.

Bomb detonation injures 17 in latest apartheid unrest

Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa. - A bomb left at the parcel counter yesterday blew out the front of a store in a middle-class white suburb of Durban. Police said 18 blacks and whites were injured, including a 3-year-old girl.

The whole place was filled with smoke within minutes, according to Larry McDonald, a pharmacist. He described the scene as chaos, and said people were screaming and running everywhere.

Dr. John Keenan, acting chief of emergency services for Natal province, said the 3-year-old white child and four other people were seriously wounded. The government and witnesses said the casualties were 12 employees and six customers.

It was the ninth bombing since the government imposed a nationwide state of emergency June 12 in an attempt to quell racial unrest and started arresting thousands of people without charges.

The bomb demolished the front windows of a Pick-n-Pay store in the Montclair shopping center and tore a hole in the ceiling, said Vernon Mitchell, general manager of the chain of budget department stores.

He said the bomb was deposited at the counter where customers leave their bags and packages while shopping. The counter and a nearby cigarette and candy kiosk were destroyed.

Government spokesmen said one of those seriously injured was the cigarette seller, Monica Strydom, who had wounds on her head and hands.

Two of the previous bombings occurred in Durban. Eight people have been killed and 145 wounded in the nine explosions, the last of which was Aug. 2 in Walvis Bay on the Atlantic coast.

No one has claimed responsibility for any of the attacks, but the government blames guerrillas of the African National Congress.

Corby's assets sold to brothers

MARILYN BENCHIK
Copy Editor

The assets of CTI, Inc., the parent corporation of Corby Tavern, are being sold to Thomas and Robert Przybylinski for $75,000, according to James Bradley, the attorney representing the corporation.

The ruling that allows CTI to sell these assets was determined in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in South Bend on Friday.

The sale of the assets was finalized in order to include the sale of the Alcohol and Beverage Permit, said Bradley.

Before the Przybylinski brothers can set up the restaurant-tavern business, they need a variance that will allow them to bypass a city ordinance which prohibits two alcohol establishments to operate within 1000 feet of each other.

ND fundraising drive ranked 18th

COLLEEN CLYNESE
Staff reporter

The Council for Financial Aid to Education (CFAE) has recently named the University of Notre Dame as 18th among private universities in the amount of money raised in 1984-85, according to a press release given by Richard Conklin, director of public relations and information, earlier this summer.

The University raised $33.8 million in 1984-85, a figure that exceeds that of any institution of higher learning in Indiana and any Catholic college or university in the nation.

The total, which set a new school record, was 18th in a list led by Harvard ($145.6 million), Stanford ($125.5 million), and Columbia ($93.4 million). The funds were raised from voluntary support from individuals, foundations, and corporations.

Senate sets priorities on campus availability

DAVID LEE
News Staff

Increased student space control was marked as the top priority of the Student Senate for this school year in a meeting last night.

Senators criticized the closing of campus buildings, such as LaFortune, as early as midnight, and hoped to extend the hours.

I have a major problem with that (buildings closing early), said Student Body Vice-President Don Montanaro. If you are spending millions of dollars on a student activity center, its ridiculous to keep it closed.

The Senate's number two priority was a dearth of University liability at student-organized events. One proposal included an idea for a dorm insurance program.

Third on the agenda was expanding student financial aid. The present policy gives aid on a need basis only, also requiring that the student be a Notre Dame scholar.

Along with the perennial issue of parietais, senators gave priority to coed dorms. They noted that Flanner and Grace Halls are ideally suited for that purpose due to the halls having two wings.

More attention, however, was focused on the lack of on-campus housing facilities, with Senator Mike Jaeger noting that there are many people off campus who would like to be on campus.

Committees were established for the top five issues on the Student Senate agenda. Other issues will be worked on, but in a prioritized manner, according to Senior Class President David Miklos.

Miklos added that students are encouraged to join the committees, and to contact the committee chairmen.

Corrections

An article about the College of Business Administration's dean on the front page of yesterday's Observer was incorrectly noted as being a Special to The Observer. Laura Coty, a member of the Observer news staff, wrote the story.

An article in the Of Interest section in yesterday's Observer was incorrect. Students may in fact park properly-registered cars in the parking lot surrounding Notre Dame Stadium.

Environmentalist group plans to sue Pentagon in dispute

Associated Press

WASHINGTON - An environmental activist group is preparing to sue the Pentagon to stop defensive biological warfare research while simultaneously establishing a fund to encourage scientists to disclose evidence of illegal experiments.

The Foundation on Economic Trends, successful in a similar suit against the Army, also has distributed a position paper to officials from more than 55 foreign governments, suggesting ways to strengthen a 1972 international accord banning the pursuit of biological weapons.

Delegates from more than 100 countries are scheduled to meet in Geneva next week to review the 1972 accord.

The position paper disputes the recently outlined position of the Reagan administration on the 1972 Biological and Toxic Weapons Convention. The position of the administration is that the convention must be recognized as critically deficient and unfixable.

The Washington-based research organization has focused its studies in recent years on developments in biological and genetic engineering. The group describes itself as a clearinghouse for public information on the political, economic and environmental implications of such research.

The lawsuit against the Pentagon, a copy of which was provided to reporters in advance of its filing in U.S. District Court today, seeks to stop all Defense Department research aimed at identifying potential defenses against biological weapons.

Under the 1972 agreement, the United States, Soviet Union and more than 100 other countries have agreed not to develop toxic biological agents for offensive purposes. But the accord does not prohibit defensive research.

The foundation's suit asserts that the Defense Department has expanded defensive research to such a point that it now falls under the National Environmental Policy Act, meaning environmental impact studies must be performed.

It requests both preliminary and permanent injunctions against continued research until environmental impact studies are conducted.

Field goal gives Terps 10-7 win

Associated Press

PITTSBURGH - Dan Plocki kicked a 29-yard field goal with 2:10 to play and Maryland rode a dominating defense to a 10-7 college football victory last night over Pittsburgh, ruining the debut of Pitt Coach Mike Gottfried.

Pitt drove to the Maryland 38 in the final minute. But quarterback John Congemi, who completed 23 of 45 passes for 258 yards, was dropped for a nine-yard loss on a third down-play and threw a fourth-down incompleteness to turn the ball back over to the Terps.

The loss continued a string of frustration for Gottfried, who also failed to win in his first game in three previous coaching assignments.

Congemi, contained for three-and-a-half quarters by a big-play Maryland defense, rifled a 32-yard scoring pass to Reggie Williams on a second-and-15 play with 5:12 to go to rally Pitt to a 7-7 tie.

Pitt had failed to score in the first half despite a thirteen-and-a-half-minute edge in time of possession, as junior kicker Mark Brasco missed field goal attempts of 41, 29 and 53 yards.

Tommy Neal, who had given Maryland a 7-0 lead with a 1-yard scoring dive midway through the third quarter, had runs of 14 and five yards, and Dan Henning hit Ferrell Edmunds for 13 yards and Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof for 15 to set up Plocki's winning kick.

Maryland's first score came after a turnover.

Pitt running back Charles Gladman fumbled at the end of a 32-yard pass play when he was drilled by safety James Brown, and linebacker O'Brien Alston recovered at the Maryland 45.

The officials had initially ruled that Gladman was down before fumbling, but reversed their ruling after a conference.

Henning, playing his first game as a college quarterback, hooked up with Vernon Joiner on a 24-yard completion on a third-and-6 play to the Pitt 1. Neal leaped into the end zone two plays later, with 2:15 to play in the third quarter.

Cubs eliminated in NL East

Associated Press

CHICAGO - Denny Walling hit a two-run double and Jose Cruz had a solo homer to highlight a four-run sixth inning yesterday, leading the Houston Astros to a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The loss eliminated the fifth-place Cubs from the National League East race.

Billy Hatcher opened the sixth with a single, extending his hitting streak to 11 games, and Craig Reynolds drew a walk off Ed Lynch, 4-4.

But the third set was different as Turnbull, who has never won a Grand Slam singles title, kept up the pressure by chipping and charging at every opportunity.

She was tightening up (in the third set), Turnbull said of her Czechoslovak opponent. I wasn't tightening up. At least I was going for my shots.

Gilbert fought Lendl on even terms in the opening set, breaking the Czechoslovak's serve in the seventh game to put the set back on serve. But Lendl, ranked No. 1 in the world, closed out the first set by breaking Gilbert in the 12th game at 30.

After that, it was all Lendl. "I started missing a lot of first serves and then he picked up his game a lot," Gilbert said. "He started to pass really well. Then I got a little discouraged.

"I wasn't sure what to do - if I should stay back or come in."

There was nothing indecisive about Lendl, who already has won seven titles this year, including the French Open.

He broke Gilbert's service twice in each of the next two sets to move one step closer to his second straight U.S. open crown.

"I think after the first set he got broken mentally," Lendl said of Gilbert. "He felt he has to win now three out of four (sets), and he knows I'm going to run forever."

"I'm hitting the ball solid. I feel great physically. I feel strong. I feel quick, and I feel I'm not going to tire out."

Navratilova reeled off the first four games in her match with Sabatini. After the Argentine teen-ager took the next three games, breaking Navratilova's service from deuce in the sixth game, the world's top-ranked woman held her next service game at love to close out the set.

Sabatini opened the second set by holding, but Navratilova took six of the next seven games in her rush into the quarterfinals.

Roommates win NVA biathlon

STEVE MEGARGEY
Sports Writer

Sophomores Tom Doyle and Chris Petillo, roommates at Grace Hall, teamed up to win the third annual Non Varsity Athletics-sponsored biathlon Sunday morning at St. Joe Beach.

Doyle doubted the two would have competed together if they had not been roommates.

Petillo swam half a mile across St. Joe Lake and back, and Doyle ran two miles around the beach in a time of 21:33, the best time for both two-person teams and individuals.

Senior Tom Doyle did both the swimming and the running in 22:53, placing first in the individual competition and third overall.

This was the first year NVA had allowed two-person teams to compete in the biathlon. A total of 21 individuals and four teams participated.

Sunday's biathlon at 11 a.m. kicked off a beach party Labor Day weekend sponsored by NVA. Festivities included canoe races, kayak instructions, and appearances by the rowing and sailing clubs.

NVA assistant director Sally Derengoski said NVA held the weekend to demonstrate some of the water sports and clubs offered at Notre Dame.

The top four team finishers in the biathlon were Petrillo and Doyle, Troy Duncan and Pat Lynch, Chris Componovo and Mark Silfies, and John Krueger and Nancy O'Brien, the only woman in the competition.

ND soccer team earns 'biggest win' in 1-0 shutout of UW-Milwaukee

By BOB KEMPER
Sports writer

The Notre Dame soccer team started its season off on the right foot with a hard-fought 1-0 victory over host University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. The lone goal was scored by junior striker Bruce McCourt at 15:02 of the first half. The tally was scored on a header and was set up with an assist by freshman midfielder Kevin Kade. The shutout was recorded by senior goalkeeper Hugh Breslin, who recorded six saves.

Aside from starting the season on a good note, the victory had a special significance for the Irish. The win helped to avenge a disappointing 3-2 overtime loss of the previous season and proved to the team that they can compete with high-caliber competition.

"I have only been coaching here for three years, but this is certainly the biggest win so far," noted Head Coach Dennis Grace. Wisconsin had nine returning starters and was ranked as high as 11th in the nation last year.

In addition, the UWM Panthers were ranked third in the ISAA Great Lakes regional poll, while the Irish were given no preseason mention.

The only disappointment of Sunday's contest was the injury suffered by co-captain Jim Flynn. The senior goalkeeper/stopper sustained a separated shoulder and was scheduled for diagnosis last night. Although sidelined for the time being,

Flynn was very enthusiastic about the season debut.

"The team played a superb game," he said. "To play that well at the beginning of the season is very encouraging. The defense was spectacular and the freshmen played with a lot of composure."

Coach Grace said he was especially pleased with the unselfish play of his squad.

Teamwork was quite evident," he said. "The players worked for each other and that is the way a good team must play."

"It was a great defensive effort. I am not talking about just the goalkeeper and fullbacks, but the entire team. Everybody, including the frontline, played with a lot of intensity on defense."

Turnbull ousts Mandlikova from U. S. Open

Associated Press

NEW YORK - Veteran Wendy Turnbull of Australia pulled off one of the biggest shocks of the U.S. open Tennis Championships last night, ousting defending women's champion Hana Mandlikova 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

The victory sends the 33-year-old Turnbull, the oldest player left in the singles competition, into a quarterfinal matchup against seventh-seeded Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia.

"I guess when you're over 30 people start writing you off," Turnbull, who is playing in her 10th U.S. open, said. In 1977, she was runnerup to Chris Evert Lloyd and has been a semifinalist twice, the last time two years ago.

Earlier in the day, the two top seeds, Ivan Lendl and Martina Navratilova, rolled into the quarterfinals with straight-set victories.

Lendl, defending the title he won last year, moved into high gear in the second set as he eliminated 15th-seeded Brad Gilbert 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Seeking her third U.S. open women's singles crown in four years, Navratilova crushed Argentina's Gabriela Sabatini, the No. 11 seed, 6-4, 6-2.

In other men's matches yesterday, No. 4 Stefan Edberg of Sweden gained a quarterfinal berth by stopping Dan Goldie 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, while Tim Wilkison eliminated Andrei Chesnokov of the Soviet Union 6-0, 6-2, 6-3.

In the women's singles, No. 5 Pam Shriver, Navratilova's doubles partner, also won in straight sets, downing No. 15 Kathy Jordan 6-4, 6-4. The victory pits the close friends against each other in Tuesday's quarterfinals.

"Martina's always there when I'm here," Shriver said of the quarterfinals. "We just go together."

All of the other women's winners, including Lloyd, a six-time winner of America's premier tennis event who is seeded second this year, had to go three sets to post victories.

Lloyd outlasted No. 14 Catarina Lindqvist of Sweden

6-2, 2-6, 6-2; No. 9 Manuela Maleeva of Bulgaria nipped No. 6 Claudia Kohde-Kilsch of West Germany 6-2, 2-6, 7-6; No. 3 Steffi Graf of West Germany defeated Italy's Raffaella Reggi 6-1, 3-6, 6-0; No. 8 Bonnie Gadusek stopped No. 13 Stephanie Rehe 7-6, 4-6, 6-2; and No. 7 Sukova of Czechoslovakia downed No. 12 Zina Garrison 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

Besides the Navratilova-Shriver and Turnbull-Sukova matchups, other quarterfinals pairings send Graf against Gadusek and Maleeva against Lloyd.

It was the earliest a defending women's singles champion has been ousted from the U.S. open since Julie Heldman upset Billie Jean King in the third round in 1973.

Turnbull said that in the second set "I started to feel kind of tired. That's the kind of player Hana is. I let her have an inch and she took the whole second set."
