

Balt. Nov. 15. 84

I
I thank you for your kind lines of Thursday & the good news that all are so well at home & same here since my arrival on Saturday scarcely a moment's rest. But every thing goes on admirably.
I wanted to go to Wash. today, but the most Rev. Delegate expressed his desire that I sh^d be present, to-morrow, at the solemn reading of the first part of the Secrecy. I must postpone my visit till Monday. 5 or 6 Sisters have already come to urge me to visit them. I will try Monday morn. Remember me kindly to all & especially to the Princes so much admired all over the land. Pray for your devoted
