I'm much engag'd at present

18th y<sup>b</sup> — Mr Spink, a convert to the Cath. Church — & justice of y<sup>e</sup> peace at this place, intends to visit you with his son Alfred, who went with distinction thro' his career in one of the Canadian colleges — He will take with him Miss Louisa Rivard, whom I introduce to you as a fit subject for the noviciate of Bertrand.

In two weeks I'll return to Chicago, si Deus voluerit thence to Bertrand, a neutral ground, where I wish to have with you a settlem<sup>t</sup> of our affairs —

I'll remain 2 weeks in Chicago —

This letter I judge was addressed to Fr. Lorain.
