

the one only proper one." I will not waste words with Mr Suggan about them, for I know, that it will do no good.
If things are right at home need is, get into shape there, all will come right; if not, all our plans & arrangements will amount to nothing. Mr Suggan, I know, will not oppose me, that is enough.

Send me all the documents this week; but can you not come yourself - I assist ^{also} (next Friday) in buying the corner stone at Huntington, two 20 miles from here?

Give me also the direction of Mr Father Gillespie in Paris & send me also such suggestions as you will deem useful for me to observe during the journey.
