U. Rev. E. Sorin Genl. C. H. Co.

U. Rev. Dear Father,

I would have paid you a visit before this; but you have been traveling constantly, and you could not be found at home. You are at Notre Dame now, I know; but being in the midst of your retreats, you would not have a moment of leisure to consecrate it even to an old friend. When will you have a moment to spare? Say the word, and at the appointed time you will see me, either at Fort Wayne, which I would prefer, or at Notre Dame.

Yours truly

O. Devost
