U. Rev. Dear Friend,

If I had not known your lively faith, your perfect submission under the will of God, and your trust in Providence, I would have feared for you the consequences of that awful calamity. But your letter emits the right kind of wring. The King is dead, long live the King, seems to be your motto. God bless you and your works! It will be my sincere and constant prayer, and as soon as I will be able, I will help you as much as I can in a substantial manner. Yours
I. Perrot.
