Dear Father General

There is very little serious matter in the St Joseph school squabble and please tell father Corby to arrange the matter; I have written to father Gleeson to that effect. The Sister's letter contains many exaggerations: the main difficulty seems to be that the sisters are hardly willing to let him as Pastor have any voice in the matters of the school.

Father Gleeson was wrong and I wrote so to him 1<sup>o</sup> I'm thinking that it is an injustice to ask Mr. Wilson to assist in keeping their school room in order 2<sup>o</sup> I'm telling the man that he could send his child to the public school.

If the Pastor represents to the Sister that there are special reasons to exempt a child this should be taken into consideration

Both somewhat wrong - the whole does not amount to anything serious and father Corby can easily arrange it.
