Dear Dear Friend

It will afford me heartfelt pleasure to visit and once more, and on the second Sunday of November, if possible. But owing to the prevalence of disease in this City & elsewhere throughout the diocese, (and, thank God, abating) and my having been obliged to defer my promised visitation of several Churches, I fear I shall not be able to go. Hence, to my regret, I can make no positive promise, or obligate myself to preach the consecration sermon. But if I can go, I will - I want to see Red Friend, get some one to preach that you can depend on. I really wd rather see & hear ~~and~~ than to hear, or specially looked at, on such occasions.

The Most-Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore has promised to be in Cincinnati, in October to dedicate our new Church of St. Paul - I should like to persuade him to visit N. D. Du Lac.

Best respects to all the fathers & the Brethren and the Sisters

+ Yrs, an attendant an interview,
 Most Respectfully
 J. B. B. Ciri.
