

Cambridge Aug. 5. 1855

My Rev. Sir

I have deferred replying to your note until the last moment, expecting hourly to hear news which would enable me to aid you.
I regret to say that I have been disappointed in every instance. Not one of those indebted to me, met their engagements. So you must try elsewhere, though if I should be able to do any thing for you, I will not fail to inform you.

Yr. Obedt. Servant }
Wm. Loring

Very truly yours &c Edw. W. Russell,
