Rev. C. Soim

Reverend Sir,

Mr. Michael Gilvey requests me to write to you and enquire about his son Michael. Did you hear any thing of his whereabouts? The father suspects that he had been taken away from the University by a lawyer of New Orleans named Paul and sent to professor Dimistry in the north. Mr. Gilvey wishes also to know what has become of the last hundred dollars that he sent and were received by you after the boy had left? Mr. Gilvey wishes to be excused for the trouble he puts you to, and hopes that you will confer him a new favor by answering his enquiries as soon as convenient.

Very respectfully Your humble obt. Serv<sup>t</sup>
J. A. Bronck V. G.
