My Br. & Dr. Sir

I thank you for the "Almanac" (10) but I read a receipt for 1p for 10 Almanacs. I thought that I had sent you 10p. It may be that the haste in which I often have to write, caused a mistake, but I certainly intended to send you 10p. Pray let me know whether I did so or not.

I have begun to distribute this useful work among 10 communities, boy and good, but all females, so that you may be sure it will soon get due posterity.

Accept my best wishes for happiness upon your and your, ad multo, annos.

With respect & esteem
Yrs. Wm. W. J. J.
