107th Regt L. O. - Sir

I reached home to day, tout embourmé, with what I had seen in your pious and noble establishment. But I regret that I did not stay at St. Mary's till you came. The good and learned Father Malony, knowing that I determined to meet the train at South Bend, kindly, came to tell me, that it was time to go if I wished to start by the next train. My Vicar General, from what several persons told him, told me what Father Malony had told. The good and kind Sister Regis alone, told me that I had time enough. I waited more than a quarter of an hour, I was then advised to start by my V. G. I was also told that I would pass for one mile by the same road, by which you would come. I started reluctantly.

It had been decided that the Bishop of Cleveland would start by the direct road from Notre Dame, Ind., from I saw of your immense occupations, and of the call upon you, just as you most kindly Started with us for St. Marys, I feared that some impetuous call might force upon you a delay of some minutes, but enough to make us too late

The good night's rest I had at St. Marys almost completely restored me. Thanks be to God, to you and to your kind sisters,

Please pray for one who is

Wm. Wm. L. D. Sir
