

All Saints' Day 1873.

Very Rev. Dear Sir:

Yesterday I received a communication from Madam Du Chesne of Paris, President of the Society for furnishing Sacred ornaments to the Missions, in which she informs me that several months ago, she sent me through your Reverence's kindness, a quantity of Vestments destined chiefly for the Missions of N. Carolina.

As my message to this lady was despatched from Wilmington, N. C. I thought that perhaps by a mistake you may have sent them to Wilmington, Del.

If they are still in your possession, I would request you to forward them to Richmond. They will soon be absorbed by our your missions in Virginia and N. Carolina.

I avail myself of this occasion,
by renewing the acquaintance
I had the pleasure of forming with your Reverend, many years ago in Baltimore.

Faithfully Yours in X^{to}.

James Gibbons

Bishop of Richmond.
