ST. JAMES' CHURCH,

2924 WABASH AVENUE,

Chicago, July 17 1883

Very Respected Father Corin.

I am exceedingly thankful for your very kind wishes towards me, and all the more that I know they have been entertained for years. I know nothing of the appointment, except what I have seen in the papers, and would not be at all displeased should it prove to be a mere rumor. I am perfectly happy where I am, and had no thought of being disturbed. No matter what may happen I will always bear in grateful memory the days spent at Notre dame. and I trust I have not been unmindful

of the lessons you by word and example sought to impress on my mind.

I commend myself to your prayers

Very sincerely,

Yours truly
J. J. Kivada
