

The South-Bend Tribune

ALFRED B. MILLER, Editor.

DAILY, WEEKLY AND SATURDAY EDITIONS.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 6th, 1893.

Very Rev. Father Sorin, Notre Dame, Ind.

My dear Sir:—

Please accept the hearty congratulations and happy returns of the day from my wife, my mother and myself.

It gives us much pleasure to know that the founder of so grand an institution as the University of Notre Dame is, although advanced in years, enjoying such good health and apparently as young

[6 Feb 1893]

The South-Bend Tribune

ALFRED B. MILLER, Editor.

DAILY, WEEKLY AND SATURDAY EDITIONS.

South Bend, Ind., 189.....

in mind and heart;
that heaven has granted him the privilege of living to see the work he began grow to be the most prosperous of its kind in America.

As I write these words I can not but think how much more fortunate are you, how much greater are you blessed than was my father
who was taken from us just as his life work was

[6 Feb 1898]

The South-Bend Tribune

ALFRED B. MILLER, Editor.

DAILY, WEEKLY AND SATURDAY EDITIONS.

South Bend, Ind., 189.....

beginning to indicate success and just as he was feeling that the reward
of rest and happiness and pleasure
in his home and family was within his reach. Life is indeed uncertain.

Again wishing you much happiness and many more years of pleasure & remain

Very Truly Yours,
Frederick A. Miller.