

CLEM STUDEBAKER,
South Bend, Ind.

July 17/93

Very Rev Edward Davis C. S. C.,

President Board Trustees

The DuSane University

Rev Sir & Friend, I am deeply shocked and pained by the news of the death of Father Walsh. It was through you that I made his acquaintance, conceiving a warm regard for him at once. This sentiment has deepened as time went on, I feel that this loss is personal to me ^{well as} to you, to the University and to those who were associated with him and the world at large, you have my deepest sympathy, and ~~prayers~~ ^{prayers} that God who doeth all things ^{well} will in this sad hour comfort and sustain with His grace those most near and dear to him who has left us, and that He will so order the the interests

Rev Father Somi

[17 July 1893]

CLEM STUDEBAKER,
South Bend, Ind.

2

over which he had charge that others on whom his mantle will fall may take up his life's work when he left, and carry it to a grander consummation. My Rev Father Mrs Studabaker & the family join me in this ^{sincere} expression of sympathy & consolation to you may God preserve your life ~~to~~ ⁱⁿ all an ~~amount~~ of you give us ~~any~~ paper

Yours affectionately

Clem Studabaker