

Duplication of Material

Archives - University of Notre Dame - Notre Dame, IN 46556

Conditions: Duplication of material found in the University of Notre Dame Archives is a service designed to facilitate the research of individual scholars. Copies of documents will be made solely for the personal use of the individual researcher requesting them, and are not to be sold, given away or recopied without the prior written permission of the University of Notre Dame Archives.

Duplication of material by the Archives does not constitute permission to publish. Copies will be made at the following fees, payable in advance. There is a $5.00 minimum fee for all duplication requests received by mail. This includes postage or cost of faxing. Please send this order form, with your U.S. check, to: Archives, University of Notre Dame, 607 Hesburgh Library, Notre Dame, IN, 46556.

All responsibility for possible copyright infringement and invasion of privacy arising from use of reproductions from the collections of the Notre Dame Archives is assumed by the user. The user agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the University of Notre Dame ("Notre Dame"), its officers, trustees, employees and agents from and against any and all claims, damages or liability (including attorney's fees) that Notre Dame, its officers, trustees, employees and agents may incur as a result of or in any way related to the use or redistribution of the reproduction.

The Archives reserves the right to refuse to duplicate any material found in its collections if, in its judgment, duplication could result in damage to the material. Neither major portions of a collection nor finding aids prepared by the archives for use within the reading room will be duplicated for any individual researcher. No copy negatives will be made. In accord with the above specified conditions, I request the following copies:
