

CAMPUS BY-PATHS

Reflect a moment (as you read this in your Eight O'Clock) on the expressiveness of poetry. For, of all things underfoot, this first entry in the "Versus What" contest has touched on a most appealing subject. It is entitled:

After the Rain
"Splash!
Many a pool of water I know!

I know where the campus is wet—Do you?
I know where there's water, and it Isn't dew.
I know a puddle where a boy fell down,
He got all wet but didn't drown.
When he got up he did more than frown.

Splash!
It's awfully funny, I know!"
"My name is —MUD."

It shows, I fear, the influences of the moderns in verse. See the traces of Lindsay, the touch of Sandburg, the sneeze of Bad Cold.
What, now, is your entry in "Versus-What"?

I have heard with regret that our likeable blonde giant, Adam Walsh, has returned to the land made famous in railroad travel folders. His return in June is expected. May the thots of a Lincoln, the best wishes of all of us, and the warm sun of Hollywood build up his health speedily.

News comes again from Carroll hall. It concerns John Warren, who is reported to have been in correspondence with the New York Evening Journal, through the columns of a certain Beatrice Fairfax.
I understand that Beatrice is rather well-known for her—er—Advice to the Lovelorn. The rumor concerns the address that John found some time ago in his pocket—evidently from some bashful admirer seeking acquaintance in an unconventional way. "Further the note saith" that the news of John's escapade reached his home town of Dunkirk, where lives another bit of femininity.
Hence, "in the distressing weeks that followed John had recourse to the old reliable Beatrice through the columns of the N. Y. Evening Journal." I cannot comment on this further than to wish Warren speedy relief, and to assure you that if the scout has prevaricated he shall be discharged without pay.

Despite the general impression that The Scribblers are wailing and gnashing their teeth over the—well, "cup" has something to do with it, a rumor is the effect that a subdued chuckle was the only evidence of emotion noticed at their meeting when the last contest ruling was read.

Among the unofficial debaters of Notre Dame I have been asked to place Joe Harvey, the leader of several debates with his landlord.
"Further details were not available at press time."

"Dear Mr. Grundy:
Let me nominate George Skey-han as an H. M. because of his winning personality, because he is just himself at all times and at all places, because he will some day operate a chain of drug stores, and because he has an endless supply of tales of his experiences with the best of Bimbos in Rockford, and lastly because he is champion rummy player of Badin's notorious 4th floor.

Seasonal advice: Let your Lenten resolution be—read this column every day, and write right MR. GRUNDY.

Gold Footballs for 26 Football Men

Twenty-six players on Notre Dame's 1923 football team were awarded gold footballs at the Monogram club banquet at the Oliver hotel Tuesday evening.
Coach Rockne made the presentations.

The banquet, which was devoid of the usual speech-making program was given in honor of the players who made their first football monograms last fall.

The following men were given gold footballs:

Kizer, Crowe, Weibel, Collins, Enright, Layden, Cerney, Connell, Bach, Vergara, E. Miller, Walsh, Houser, Hunsinger, Crowley, Murphy, Reagan, Oberst, Brown, Mayl, Maher, Bergman, Noppenberger, D.
Miller, Stuhldreher, and Reese.

PENANCE IS URGED ON STUDENT BODY

Fasting Not Necessary if Some Other Penitential Act Be Performed, They Are Told.

"Remember thou art dust, and to dust thou shalt return," is the keynote to the spirit of Lent, sounded by the Rev. Charles C. Miltner, C.
S. C., in a short discourse preceding the distribution of the ashes and the celebration of solemn high mass, yesterday morning in the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

The spirit of Lent and the observances which that period demands were set forth by Father Miltner. Fasting, he said, was not absolutely necessary for the student, but some act or acts of satisfaction significant of penance for past offenses, should be practiced.

Father Miltner, who was the celebrant at the mass, was assisted by the Rev. Thomas Steiner, C. S. C., deacon, and the Rev. Bernard Lang, C. S. C., subdeacon. The Rev.
Francis Wenninger acted as master of ceremonies.

Huether Elected Drama Club Head

Ted Huether was elected president of the Drama club at a meeting held in the library Friday evening. John Dore was elected vice-president and Albert Doyle, treasurer.

Plays to be given by the club in the near future were discussed at this meeting. It is probable that the Drama club will present three one-act plays. The plays will be written and offered for production by The Scribblers. "The Servant in the House" was suggested as a desirable play.

Dante Club Hears Father Miltner

Father Miltner gave a short and interesting talk to the members of the Dante club, at their last meeting, in the North room of the library.

He pointed out from Dante's life and works three qualities: First, faith in God; second, complete knowledge of all subjects; third, art that implies truth, beauty and expression. It was these three qualities that have attached many readers to Dante.

The members voted in favor of having a lecture at every meeting.

FATHER MAHER REACHES 93

Notre Dame has one of the oldest men in Indiana stationed at its community house. The Rev. Timothy Maher, C. S. C., recently attained his 93rd year and received the congratulations of his many friends. Father Maher has long been stationed at Notre Dame and the DAILY takes this opportunity to congratulate him.

DEBATERS TO MEET DE PAUW, WABASH

Affirmative Squad Upholds Compulsory Settlement of Labor Trouble Here Friday.

On Friday night at 8 o'clock, Washington hall will witness the formal opening of the intercollegiate debating season at Notre Dame this year, when Notre Dame University will engage in forensic conflict with De Pauw University.

Notre Dame will support the affirmative and De Pauw the negative of the question, "Resolved, that the federal government should enact legislation providing for the compulsory judicial settlement of disputes between employers and employees in the coal and railroad industries."

Notre Dame's end of the argument will be upheld by Victor Lemmer, Seymour Weisberger, and Oscar Lavery, with Barnabas Sears serving as alternate, while De Pauw's argument will be presented by Benjamin Habberton, Robert Cushman, and Irwin Keeler.

The present contest is the third debating conflict between De Pauw and Notre Dame, Notre Dame being winner of both previous debates.

While Notre Dame's affirmative team is meeting DePauw at Notre Dame, its negative team on the same question will journey to Crawfordsville to meet their ancient forensic rival, Wabash College. The negative team is composed of John N. Stanton, Edward Lindeman, and Lawrence Graner, with David Stanton as alternate.
Wabash has met Notre Dame in debate on six previous occasions, but has emerged victorious only once.

De Pauw and Wabash are both well-known in the debating world for the fine teams which represent those institutions.

They are smarting under the sting of past defeats at the hands of Notre Dame and will undoubtedly make desperate efforts this time to gain a victory. Father Bolgar's "wranglers," however, are all set for the conflict.

T. F. Konop, dean of the Law School, will preside at the debate in Washington hall. Music will be provided.

K. of C. Dance Set for May 3

The first formal dance sponsored by Notre Dame Council, Knights of Columbus, will be held on May 3, the night following the Junior Prom, according to plans made at a meeting of the executive committee of the council Tuesday afternoon.

The dance will be open to all Notre Dame men. The K. of C. dance committee, which includes Gene Fogarty, John Hurley, Bob Rink, "Pink" O'Boyle, Vernon Rickard, Fred Forhan, and Bob Worth, will have charge.

Students Will See Chaney 4:30 Friday

The moving pictures which were to have been shown in Washington hall Saturday night have been advanced to Friday at 4:30 p. m., as Mrs. Elizabeth Pooler Rice, a talented speaker and a senior faculty member of the Leland-Powers School of the Spoken Word, of Boston, will read in Washington hall Saturday evening, and the DePauw-Notre Dame debates will be held tomorrow evening.

The pictures for tomorrow afternoon will feature Lon Chaney in "The Acquittal," besides the regular comedies and Pathe News.

FATHER HUDSON ILL

The Rev. Daniel Hudson is now in the infirmary convalescing from a serious attack of bronchitis.
Father Hudson is editor of the Ave Maria.

Sophs to Elect S.A.C. Member

Efforts will be made by the S.
A. C. to obtain telephone booths for the various halls, it was decided at a meeting of that body Wednesday noon. Efforts will also be made to provide lockers on the campus for day students. This plan was approved last year but never carried out.

It was announced that the Sophomore class will elect a member to the S. A. C. to fill the vacancy made by Robert Cahill.

Plans for the S. A. C. Carnival were discussed. A meeting of the officers of the organizations intending to participate in the carnival will be called in a few days.

Reports of the Cotillion and Frolic were read and approved at this meeting.

TENNIS CLUB IS READY FOR SPRING

University Association Will Meet Tomorrow to Name New Officers and Plan Tournaments.

The Notre Dame Tennis Association will hold its first meeting of 1924 in the South room of the library at 12:30, tomorrow. At this meeting elections will be held to fill the offices to be vacated by Harry McGuire, president; Herman Centlivre, vice-president, and Albert Sommer, secretary-treasurer.
A report will be made upon the activities of the association during the first year of its existence, and a financial statement will be presented by the treasurer.

It is likely that plans for tennis tournaments to rival those held under the association's auspices last spring will be discussed. Last year almost one hundred men participated in at least one of these tournaments, for which prizes were given that totalled $100 in value.

A number of matches with university tennis teams have already been scheduled for this spring, and the men on last year's squad have been working out in the Carroll gym for a month. Herman Cantlivre is captain of this year's team.
The other veterans of last year, Mike Velasco, Tony Gonzales, Ed Lutz, and Harry McGuire, are all on hand; to their ranks will be added many new prospects, the most valuable of whom will undoubtedly be Frank Donovan, winner of the 1923 University championship.

Every man who swings a racket is urged to be present at the meeting of tennis men tomorrow.

Adam Walsh Leaves For Hollywood, Cal.

Adam Walsh, captain-elect of the Notre Dame football team for 1924, left today for his home in Hollywood, California.

Coach Rockne announced yesterday that Walsh withdrew from the University by order of his physician. Walsh will return in June for the summer school term.

The withdrawal of Walsh just before the Wisconsin meet will be a serious loss to the track team. He was a leading point winner in the hurdles and the shot put. He was also expected to throw the discus during the outdoor season.

SUPPER CLUB MEETS

At a meeting of the Supper club held yesterday noon for the purpose of electing two new members, Gerald Lyons, News Editor of The DAILY, was made a member, but the other election resulted in a tie.
Plans were made for a meeting next Saturday night, and various new names for the club were discussed. This matter was shelved until the next meeting.

BADGERS BRINGING FAST TRACK MEN

Layden and Barr Will Toe Line With Fast Man in McAndrews.

The appearance of Wisconsin on the local gym for a dual meet with the Notre Dame track team Saturday at 2:30 will mark the close of the Irish indoor season.

All advance dope indicates that the Badger outfit is exceptionally strong and well-balanced.

The Badgers have a fast sprinter in McAndrews, who clipped the 40-yard dash against Iow in :04 2-5, but he will meet a pair of speed merchants when he toes the mark with Layden and Barr, the latter having already turned in a :04 2-5 dash for the local gym, equaling the record set by Wasson in 1910.

The 440-yard run in the Iowa meet was turned in at :54 flat, but McTiernan of the Irish squad equalled the gym record this winter when he raced home in :52 1-5.
The high jump and pole vault are strong features on the Badger program, Hammann and Jones have been turning in vaults of 12 feet, 6 inches. Paul Harrington should break close, if not with a win, after making a 12-foot leap in the Illinois Carnival.

The Badger entrants are as follows:

40-yard dash: McAndrews, Stone, Krohn, Smith.
40-yard high hurdles: Tuhtar, Muzzy, Zellsch, Clasman, Holmes.
440-yard run and relay. Hill, Menke, Hilberts, Kennedy, Smith.
880-yard run: Vallaly, Hilberts, Lewis, Griffin.
Mile run: Schneider, Bergstres-ser, Cassidy.
Two-mile run: Piper, Read, Perry, Finkle.
High jump: Tuhtar, Donohue, Browne.
Shot put: Harmon, Limberg, Donohue, Hammann.
Pole vault: Hammann, Jones, Schmidt, Scott.

Walsh Hall Residents Discuss Disturbances

The residents of Walsh hall held a meeting in the Knights of Columbus chambers at 7 o'clock last night. Edward Dineen, chairman of the Walsh house committee, which is composed of all the seniors living in the hall, presided at the session, which threatened at times to become stormy.

It was announced that the chairman of the committee had the names of 19 men who had been raising undue disturbances. If these men continue their disturbances, said the chairman, the privilege of late lights will be withdrawn.

It was decided that the students would purchase a sanctuary lamp for the Walsh hall chapel, the estimated cost of which was $30.

Basketball Squad Winds Up Season

Coach Keogan's basketball proteges will complete their 1924 season when they meet the Franklin College five tomorrow night at the Baptists' stronghold. The Irish will get into condition for the final game of the year by taking on the Wittenberg college outfit at Wittenberg, Ohio, tonight.

The men who are making the last trip of the season are: Mayl, Kizer, Miller, Reardon, Enright, Crowe, Dienhardt, Ward, Mahoney, and Manager Harold Watson.

DAILY EDITORS

There will be a very important meeting of the DAILY editorial writers in room 238 Walsh at 4:30 this afternoon.

AT THE THEATRES

Oliver: "The White Sister." Palace: "The Satin Girl." Orpheum: "Scaramouche." LaSalle: "Shadows of Paris." Blackstone: "The Silent Command."

At The Orpheum

Should there be any institution similar to the Louvre, for master productions of the screen, "Scaramouche" would demand a position of highest honor and great conspicuousness, so that in accordance with its merit, it might have its proper measure of admiration.

We have often attended these plays that were described as "sensations," but, strangely enough, we have never experienced that elusive feeling until we viewed this latest effort of Mr. Rex Ingram. In addition to this "sensation" (which is difficult to describe) we had a pleasant feeling that we were wise to have gone, and that a tribute had been paid to our individual taste and intelligence.

Should you happen to be acquainted with the romantic adventures of Rafael Sabatini, it is unnecessary for us to say that they are entertaining in the extreme, and if you have followed the individual careers of Alice Terry, Lewis Stone, and Ramon Navarro, you will know that they are capable of carrying a play of this type to a point that will satisfy the most exacting dramatic Epicurean.

Mr. Navarro, as Andre-Louis Moreau, is warmly praised by Sidney Blackmer, the Scaramouche of the stage presentation, for his exactness in the interpretation of Sabatini's character: Andre is a boyish philosopher, a Hamlet forced to revenge by his heart, which is full of love for humanity.

Alice Terry, as Aline de Kercaudou, is the fascinating aristocrat of the court of Louis XVI, and Lewis Stone portrays the cruel, gay, and witty Marquis la Tour d'Azyr, whose scornful disregard of the rights of man is equalled only by his total disregard of personal danger. Both these characters are delightful.

George Siegmann, who took the part of the brutal merry-go-round keeper in "Merry-Go-Round," is Danton, the pock-marked revolutionist. He bears an uncanny resemblance to original pictures of the real Danton, and there can be no criticism of his work.

The first scene of this picture banishes indifference on the part of the audience, and compels an overwhelming interest, which lasts throughout the picture. It is a play of heroes, and even the villainous Marquis invites admiration for his bravery, and compels it by his noble end.

"Scaramouche" was filmed on a lavish scale. Over ten thousand people were used, and all the sets were especially constructed for this picture.

The play shines conspicuously among the other productions of the year, and has been warmly praised by the most exacting reviewers. We hope that our whisper of approbation, added to this universal shout of approval, may induce you to see this thing, which we earnestly believe should not be missed.—P.C.M.

75 AFTER BERTHS ON VARSITY '9'

Keogan Optimistic As Candidates Report for First Time; Train- ing Rules Announced.

Seventy-five men answered Coach Keogan's first call for varsity baseball candidates. Practice will begin in the local gym next Monday.

Graduation last June took out a number of excellent players, particularly from the pitching staff. Castner, Falvey, Kane, and Dan Foley being the headliners that made their last college appearance against the Illinois nine during Commencement week.

This year, with a large percentage of the candidates making their first bids for varsity baseball berths, Coach Keogan entertains an optimistic attitude as the season opens. Competition for positions will be keen.

Coach Keogan outlined his plans for the coming season and gave the training rules. A novel feature of the rules is that every man will have to do nine miles of road work each week. He also said that there would be a lecture at 12:30 each day for baseball players exclusively and that attendance would be compulsory.

Irish Swimmers Meet Indiana Saturday

When Notre Dame's varsity swimmers line up with the Indiana University tanksters Saturday night, in the first inter-collegiate swimming meet to be held at N. D. in the history of Irish athletes, they will oppose the cream of the mid-west in several events and championship calibre men in most of the other entries.

The Bloomington performers easily scored a victory over the crack Wisconsin team at Madison last Saturday night in the fifth college contest of the present season for the downstaters. They have met many of the best water teams of the central states in the past few years and in doing so they have attained quite an enviable record. To preserve an untarnished schedule this year, such as the I. U. team has done, against such a formidable array of opponents is alone sufficient proof of their strength.

Saturday's contest will be held in the South Bend public natatorium on West Washington avenue, and is scheduled to start promptly at 8. The regular athletic tickets will be honored at the meet.

BADIN BEATS WALSH

Badin handed a 16 to 10 defeat to Walsh Saturday. Shearer starred for Badin and Stanhope for Walsh. This victory ties Badin with Day for second place.

Interhall Prelims Held Last Night

The second preliminaries of the interhall track meet were held in the gym last night. Driscoll, Barron, Cunningham, Masterson, Griffin, and Judge were winners in their events. Coach Rockne conducted the races. A large number of students witnessed the try-outs.

The finals will be held Sunday morning in the gym. The opening shot will be fired at 9:30.

Last night's results are as follows:

40 yard high hurdles: Barron, Car., first; Wynne, Soph.; Frye, Fr.; Cyr, Walsh; Nyikos, Day; Conroy, Day.

Broad jump: Cunningham, Walsh, first; Riley, Br.; Byrne, Babin; Lloyd, Car.; Stack, Fr.; Frye, Fr.; Edwards, Soph.; St. Germaine, Car. Distance, 21 ft., 5 in.

880 yard run: Judge, Soph., first; Young, Br.; Degnen, Fr.; Coughlin, Corby; Griffin, Br.; Masterson, Fr.; Shields, Fr.; Reichert, Br. Time, 2:07.

220 yard dash: Masterson, Fr., first; Prelli, Br.; Riley, Br.; Della Maria, Bd.; Coughlin, Corby; McDonald, Car.; Garnett, Soph.; Wilhelm, Day. Time, :24 4-5.

Pole vault: Driscoll, Corby, first; Cullinan, Soph.; Yeozel, Br.; Frye, Fr.; Conroy, Day; McDonald, Car.; Fitzgerald, Fr.; Moore, Fr.; Flanagan, Fr.; Nyikos, Day. Height, 9 ft., 6 in.

Two mile: Griffin, Br., first; Carey, Fr.; Keats, Br.; Nulty, Car.; Dalmadge, Soph.; Conroy, Fr.

BENGAL "BRICKS"

Bengalese Mission "bricks" were distributed in the halls yesterday to secure the co-operation of the students in the drive being conducted by the Holy Cross to increase their funds in taking care of their mission territory in Bengal, India. Students are requested to contribute as generously as possible to this worthy cause during the lenten season. These "bricks" will be taken up during the last week of Lent.

Low grades are not necessarily a sign of mediocre ability but are more often the result of some unsuspected handicap.

Meigs' glasses have helped many a student to better grades.

Soph Relay Team Defeats Freshman

The Sophomore Hall relay team defeated the Freshman Hall sextet Tuesday evening in the gym. The race was timed in 1:35 5-10, the best mark of the present season. It was a close race all the way and great excitement prevailed until Gurnett crossed the line a winner.

This victory virtually assures the proteges of Father Gessensmith the possession of the trophy, as they now hold undisputed the league leadership.

There were no other races run Tuesday, Walsh and Brownson gaining victories by forfeit from Corby and Cadillac respectively.

Boxing Team Leaves for Ames Today

The boxing team leaves today for a dual meet with the Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa. This is the first time that Notre Dame has ever sent out a boxing team to represent her in a dual event.

A full team of eight men is making the trip and are expected to come out the victor. Her two state champions, Miller and McGowan, are going along and both are counted on to defeat their opponents. The rest of the team are almost certain of winning three bouts which will give Notre Dame the meet.
