

CLASS OF '25 ELECTS S. A. C. MEMBERS

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES ARE LAYDEN, SCALLAN, BACH,
RAHE AND KESLING

The Senior class of 1925 elected members to the Student Activities Council at a meeting of that organization in the library Wednesday noon. The nominations were made Monday noon and those who qualified competed in the final election.

Elmer Layden, versatile Irish athlete and a junior in the Law school, was elected Senior member at large over John Lynch. Perhaps the closest election was between Jack Scallan and Vincent Harrington, both representing the Arts and Letters school, Scallan winning by a bare margin.

Joseph Bach of the Science school, and Benjamin Kesting, representing the engineers, were successful over Ralph Gladen and Daniel O'Neill, respectively. Both elections were warmly contested.

Two members were unanimously chosen members of the S. A. C.; Paul Rahe, junior law, and Ralph Héger, commerce, were elected without opposition.

Light attendance and a heavy proxy vote featured the day student's nomination of S. A. C. candidates yesterday noon in the library. Paul Kohout and James Solon were chosen candidates. One of these men will be elected to the S. A. C. Monday noon.

Schaefer Heads Rochester Club

The Rochester club held a meeting in the journalism room of the library on Tuesday night to elect next year's officers and for a discussion of the finances of the club. President Woolensak will be succeeded by Gilbert Schaefer as a result of the ballot. The other officers will be elected next September.

A treasury report was read and it was decided to transfer the funds of the present club to that of next year. The dues were fixed at one dollar a year for each member. Plans were also discussed for a dance to be given during the summer, but no fixed date was set for the occasion. The dance will be given by the active students of the Rochester club in conjunction with a Notre Dame alumni organization in that city.

Metropolitan Club Nominates Officers

At a special meeting of the Metropolitan club, held Tuesday evening in the north room of the library, nominations for next year's officers were made. The men nominated for next year's presidency were Joseph Burke and Frank Milbauer; for vice-president, Jack Adams and Ed Burke; for treasurer, Jim Dwyer and Eddie Dugan, and for secretary, Jim Silver and Doc Gelson.

The election of officers will take place at a special meeting to be held the first part of next week. It was announced at the meeting that Joe Weinlich of Brooklyn, a member of the club, was seriously ill and prayers were requested.

DARTMOUTH PAPER CELEBRATES FOUNDING

"The Dartmouth," the official news organ of Dartmouth University, recently celebrated the 85th anniversary of its founding. The first Dartmouth publication which appeared 125 years ago had Daniel Webster as its first editor.

Senior Invitations Arrive This Week

Don Gallagher, president of the Senior class, announced last night that the Senior Commencement invitations were shipped from the engraving company on May 26 and will arrive at Notre Dame sometime this week.

It was also announced by Walter Stapleton, chairman of the favors committee, that those desiring favors which were given to the guests at the Senior Ball may obtain them by calling at room 233 Corby. Friday, May 30, is the last day on which these favors may be secured.

IRISH PLAY RETURN GAME WITH MICHIGAN AT ANN ARBOR

Coach Keogan's baseball team will meet the University of Michigan nine on the Ann Arbor diamond this afternoon in the second game to be played between the two schools this year.

Magvney will be on the mound for Notre Dame and the Irish are hopeful for another victory over the Maize and Blue. The Wolverines have taken a new lease on baseball life since their first meeting with Notre Dame, and the Michigan ball tossers are as confident of victory as are the Notre Dame men. The Irish have displayed a huge supremacy over the conference teams thus far this year and the figures on paper give Notre Dame a wide margin of victory over the best in the Big Ten circuit.

Fitzpatrick Downs Gohlic in Finals

In the only finals match of the different flights played yesterday in the golf tournament, Edward Fitzpatrick of Walsh hall triumphed in class B flight over Leo Johlic of Freshman hall 6 up and 4 to go. Fitzpatrick displayed a winning game from the first tee and the result was never in doubt. Johlic, however, exhibited some very good shots which won a few holes for him. Fitzpatrick, for his efforts, won a MacGregor driver which was donated by the Meyer hardware and sporting goods store. Johlic, the runner-up, was awarded a pair of golf shoes donated by the Leroy Clauer sporting goods store.

In the championship flight, between Joseph DiLeo of Brownson hall and John Bulger of the day students, an unsettled argument which took place on the 18th hole about the number of holes to be played, made it impossible to decide or declare the winner.

In the other flights, the rounds have been played more slowly and it is doubtful if the finals will be reached before the first of next week.

Indianapolis Club Elects Officers

Maurice McNulty was unanimously elected next year's president of the Indianapolis club at a well-attended meeting Tuesday evening. Joseph Harmon was elected vice-president, Louis Thompson, secretary, and James Sheerin, treasurer. The new officers will assume their duties immediately. Tino Poggiana, the retiring president, presided at the meeting.

A committee was appointed to complete arrangements for a dance to be given in Indianapolis some time during the latter part of June.

LAETARE MEDAL AWARD SUNDAY

FR. O'HARA TO REPRESENT
NOTRE DAME; CARDINAL
O'CONNELL TO PRESIDE

The formal presentation of the Laetare medal of the University to Charles Donagh Maginnis of Boston, distinguished Catholic architect, will take place at Boston College, Boston, Mass., on Sunday morning.

Rev. Matthew Walsh, president of the University, yesterday announced that Rev. John O'Hara, dean of the commerce school and prefect of religion, had been named to represent the University at the ceremony, which will be presided over by His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston.

Mr. Maginnis was honored with the award on Laetare Sunday in March, but the presentation of the medal, according to custom, was not made at that time. Mr. Maginnis was unable to come to the University, so the award will be made in the east.

The ceremony which is being arranged will be similar to that which marked the presentation to Attorney Walter George Smith of Philadelphia, since deceased, here last November.

Mr. Maginnis has long been a conspicuous figure in American architecture, doing tremendous things for the preservation of the rich architectural tradition of the Church.

Complete Rehearsal of "Antigone" Held

The first complete dress rehearsal of "Antigone," the second annual classic play to be produced by the Greek club of St. Mary's College, was held Tuesday evening in the new outdoor theater recently erected on the campus. Several people from South Bend and many members of the faculty of St. Mary's and the University were present. The play is said to be much better than a somewhat similar production given last year.

Tuesday's rehearsal was the first time that the full cast including the principals and the entire chorus have practiced together with the orchestra in the open air theater. It was announced yesterday that all the scenic and lighting effects have been installed.

"Antigone" will be presented on Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:45 p. m. The admission for students is 50 cents. Tickets have been placed on sale in the public speaking rooms in Walsh hall, or may be secured at St. Mary's on either of the two nights of the play.

The principal characters include Misses Frances LaPointe, Elizabeth O'Hara, Catherine Boyle, Genevieve Lang, Isabelle Hamilton, Winifred Mulcahey, Germaine Christen and Helen Carroll.

The chorus includes: Misses Mary Fitzpatrick, Eileen Lawless, Lora Kennedy, Florence Donahue, Alice Dunham, Marie Schmauss, Margaret Halloran, Teresa Heineman, Grace Beck, Elizabeth Helfrich, Virginia Foley, Inez Hayes, Angela Dolan and Virginia Guthrie.

The accompanists include: Alice Rose Carr, Mary O'Donnell, Rose O'Sullivan and Ann O'Hara.

N. D. Golfers Meet Indiana Here Today

The high point of the Notre Dame golf schedule will be reached this afternoon, when the Irish linksmen meet the University of Indiana quartet on the Chain o' Lakes course in a thirty-six hole match today.

The varsity golf team, managed by George Ward and captained by Jack Adams, have played through a season marked with unusual success, considering that this is the first year Notre Dame has been represented in collegiate golf competition. The opening match of the season was lost to Northwestern by the margin of one point but the next three matches with DePaul, Loyola and Culver were won by decisive scores. Both Northwestern and Indiana are among the headliners in the conference golf circuit and figuring on the unexpected showing made by Notre Dame against Northwestern, the match this afternoon is hoped to be a nip and tuck affair for Indiana.

The morning round will call for 18 holes of single match play while the program for the afternoon prescribes another 18 holes with the best two ball foursome. Efforts are being made to complete arrangements for a date with the DePaul quartet for a match on the local course. The pairings for today's matches are as follows:

Adams, N. D., captain, vs. Engstrom, I., captain; Bulger, N. D., vs. Utley, I.; Ward, N. D., vs. Redding, I., and Foglia, N. D., vs. Hunt, I.

OSBORNE BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD IN HIGH JUMP

URBANA, Ill., May 28.—Harold Osborne, former Illinois university high jumper and now competing with the I. A. C., established a new world's high jump record at 6 feet, 8 1-4 inches in the Olympic try-outs being held here. The former record was held by Beeson of California at 6 feet, 7 5-16 inches.

Officials of the A. A. U. measured the jump and announced that the mark would be accepted as a new world's record. Officials of the Olympic games committee have questioned Osborne's style of jumping, but it is believed certain that he will be permitted to compete in the Olympic games.

FRESHMAN TRIUMPHS OVER BADINITES, 4 TO 0

Badin was pushed from second into third place in the standing at the hands of the Freshman crew, when two postponed games were played off on the Brownson diamonds, Tuesday.

Freshman's 4 to 0 victory over the Badin club was one of the biggest surprises of the season, as the Badinites had emerged victors in five of their six previous contests, and appeared to have one of the strongest nines in the race. The Frosh batters scored three runs in the opening frame and added one more in the third, while Badin was failing to connect with Eirk's slants. As a result of the victory Freshman went from fifth into fourth place, while Brownson pushed into second place ahead of Badin without playing a game.

Score by innings:
Freshman 3 0 1 0 0 0 x—4
Batteries: Harmon and Powers; Eirk and Spiller, Conway.

Oberst and Lieb Go to Olympic Trials

In the Olympic trials which are scheduled to be staged at Ann Arbor tomorrow and Saturday, Notre Dame will be represented by Oberst in the javelin and probably Kennedy in the mile run. Tom Lieb will compete with the I. A. C. in the discus throw.

While Captain Kennedy will meet some very strong competition in the mile run, Oberst and Lieb are figured to set up new marks in their respective events. Lieb unofficially broke the world's discus record in an exhibition at the state meet last Saturday, when he hurled the weight 158 feet, 10 inches. The world's mark stands at 156 feet, 4 inches. Notre Dame's great track and football star won the national title in the A. A. U. meet held on Stag field last summer with a heave of 151 feet, 4 inches. In practice during the past few weeks, Lieb has hurled the weight with consistency in the vicinity of 150 feet, occasionally bettering his own official record. His record breaking throw of last week promises to be repeated again at the Olympic trials. Lieb is regarded by track experts of the country as the premier American discus man. Several noted coaches have picked him to win over the great Finnish athlete who is reported to be throwing the weight

After allowing the Walsh team to take a three run lead the first inning, Corby came back and tied the score at three-all with two runs in the fourth frame and one in the following stanza. The four runs scored by Father Haggerty's proteges in the last three innings, proved to be too much for Corby.

Donovan Loses in Semi-final Round

After fighting his way through three matches of conference tennis in which he defeated some of the best players in Big Ten ranks, Frank Donovan of Notre Dame lost out to Eddie Wilson of the University of Chicago in the semi-final round of the conference tennis tournament held on the Chicago courts. The scores for the matches were 6-3, 6-8, 6-3.

Both men displayed a brilliant game, but the Maroon star, who copped the conference title latter in the day from Sagalowski of Butler, wore down Donovan's steady game with hard driving. The Chicago boy was a master at placing his shots. The Notre Dame player

COLLEGE SOCIAL AFFAIRS

In the college and university social life of Indiana the time has come to observe certain traditions. At one school there may be a junior prom, at another a Panhellenic ball, and the sororities and fraternities are giving their farewell dances for the year. The public learns that professional decorators have been lavish in displaying their skill. On orchestra of many pieces has been imported from some distant city. The favors are unique and expensive. The direct cost must be heavy. The collateral expense is no small item. Every girl who goes must have a new gown, or at least makes an effort to get one.

An undergraduate in one of the men's colleges of Indiana has written to the institution's paper, protesting against the mounting cost of social affairs. In that school this spring the big dance of the season will cost $15 for tickets, and that is only part of the total outlay necessary. More than 150 girls had to be brought to town to give each man a partner. The travel expense, the new clothes, the entertainment, etc., must have run the individual expense for this one dance up to what not long ago would have seemed an extravagant sum.

Rivalry is old and so is competition. Both are to blame to a considerable extent for the present con-

155 feet. Gene Oberst is due to repeat his performance which broke the state record last Saturday. While his work in the Ann Arbor trials is not expected to be greatly pushed by other collegiate competition, the final trials at Boston will force the Kentuckian to the utmost unless he is registering a mark well over the 200 feet consistently. The class of the javelin field will be assembled at Boston next month for the final tryouts. Noted track coaches who have seen the Irish star in action predict that Oberst will have little difficulty in surviving the final competition.

dition of college society. There is a disposition to make this year's affair cost more than last year's. The committees provide more decorations, a bigger orchestra, more elaborate favors and so on. At some of the dances two orchestras have been engaged, so that the dancing may be continuous. One orchestra plays while the other gets its breath. No chance is given for the fathers and mothers to get their breath.—Indianapolis News.

Freshman Number of Chimes Issued

The Freshman number of the St. Mary's Chimes will make its appearance on the St. Mary's campus today. During the course of the year there have been issues representing each class in the college and the Frosh number is equal to any of the previous issues. The features of the "Chimes" are an interesting short story by Miss Isabelle Hamilton and a forceful essay on "Principles and War" by Miss Inez Hayes.

Two pages are devoted to freshman verse. The ten verses which are printed reflect creditably upon the efforts and ability of the writers.

The editorial pages contain several cogent articles. "Velocity of Present Day Living," by Miss Charlotte Foster deals very cleverly with the present "acceleration of living."

DONOVAN LOLSES IN SEMI-FINAL ROUND

(Continued from page three.) continued his smashing drive that featured his matches earlier in the tournament. Donovan led 4-2, in the second set, but Wilson forced the game to 6-8. Donovan led 3-1 and 40-15 in the last set.

Captain Centlivre, Gonzalez and Donovan will leave today for Indianapolis where the Notre Dame tennis men will compete in the Indiana conference tourney. After the state matches a meeting at Culver at the cadet school on June 7, will complete the Notre Dame tennis season.
