CAFETERIA

Those who wish to read the newspaper during their vigil in front of the cafeteria should be satisfied with yesterday's paper. Give the news stand a chance to close during the morning exercises.

ALSO: Those who stand this vigil would attract less attention by leaving through the main entrance instead of the Brownson door.

Coughing in Church.

Watch yourself. Sister Cecilia has plenty of cough medicine.

Communion of Reparation

It is rumored that certain students were overcome with joy as a result of the football victory last Saturday. This is strange appreciation of a victory prayed for and won in the name of Our Lady. A single mortal sin would be too great a price for any victory. Let us offer a Communion of reparation tomorrow morning.

Change of Schedule.

The distribution of Holy Communion will begin at 6:20 (ten minutes before the mass) Thursday morning.

MISSION BULLETIN.

Three hundred students, college men, tried to go to confession this morning. Four priests were hearing confessions in the church, and one priest can hear, at most, 25 confessions in 30 minutes. Figure it out for yourself.

To repeat: Confessions are heard after supper every evening in the church and in the basement chapel. Six priests can hear 250 confessions in the hour after supper.

CAMPUS LIFE.

150 students left the church before the instructions this morning and continued their meditation before the closed door of the cafeteria.

To repeat: Breakfast will be delayed until 7:20 a.m. during the mission.

Late SLEEPERS.

80 campus students took a beauty sleep this morning after 6:30. They would perform an act of generosity and would save themselves some wrangling with prefects if they would trade rooms with the 80 off-campus students who came out from town for the mission this morning.

(Rev.) John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.
