

RELIGIOUS BULLETIN
NOVEMBER 10, 19 21

THIS MORNING .

Seventy -five students heard all or part of the five O'clock Mass. Not bad.

TOMORROW MORNING.

Solemn Mass for the repose of the souls of the victims of the war, at 6:15. This Mass will be over by 7:00.

Solemn Mass in commemoration of Fr. John Lauth's golden jubilee, at 8:15.

The fact that attendance at these masses is voluntary will not distract from the beauty of offering Holy Communion for the soldiers. Tomorrow is a free. Confessions after supper in the basement and hall chapels.

THIS YEAR AND LAST.

There is a request for more figures. Here are some:

There are more Catholic students on the Campus this year, and yet the average attendance at Communion is higher in proportion. The average number per student last year was three a week. During the Fall months it was 2.7 a week. This year it is 3.5 a week. In other words, half the students receive every day. If you are not receiving every other day you are below the average in your religious life.

NOVENA TO ST. JOAN OF ARC.

100 copies of this private novena have been distributed through the generosity of Mr. Patrick O'Grady, of The National Catholic Welfare Council, who wants a share in the novena. When you are through with your copy please pass it on. Some one else may want to take it.

THE FIRST SNOW

This was hard on the Poor Souls. There was a drop of 22% in attendance at Holy Communion. Don't let them suffer.

LETTER OF THANKS

Judge Davis, of San Antonio, has sent a beautiful letter of thanks for the prayers offered for the repose of the soul of his son Robert.

REPARATION WEEK.

Any one who walks down corridors is bound to notice high-pitched carelessness about profanity. If this is not corrected speedily a reparation week will be appointed, during which profanity will cost money.
