

RELIGIOUS BULLETIN.

November 16, 1921.

THE NOVENA.

An examination of the graph in the basement chapel will show that during all previous novenas the tendency has been for the number of Communion to decrease from day to day. During the present Novena (which is the first held before examinations) an opposite tendency is noted: The number increased from day to day--as examinations draw closer.

PAMPHLETS.

There is a new supply of pamphlets on marriage.

OCCASIONS OF SIN.

A bad picture is an occasion of sin. Those who are interested in "art for art's sake" will find the works of the highest artistic genius in the art gallery of the library, which is open every afternoon. If you want to decorate your wall get pictures of your mother and sisters, a picture of the Blessed Virgin, and a crucifix. If these do not harmonize with the surroundings,--change the surroundings.

There is no such thing as a healthful curiosity about life as it is portrayed in an obscene movie.

OBITUARY.

Barry Holton has been called home by the death of his mother.

The Mass for Father Zahm will be delayed until the body is brought to Notre Dame for burial.
